LXIII. And whereas by an Act of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to His Majeſty, as well by a Land Tax, as by ſeveral Subſidies and other Duties payable for One Year; it is amongſt other Things enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, or any Three of them now being, or the High Treaſurer, or any Three or more of the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury for the time being, to cauſe Bills to be made forth at the Receipt of Exchequer, in ſuch Manner and Form as they ſhall appoint, for any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding One Million five hundred thouſand Pounds, by virtue of that Act, and to iſſue the ſame to the Uſes of the War, in ſuch Proportions as they ſhall think fit; and that the ſaid Bills ſhall be current to the Receivers or Collectors of any Aids, Taxes, or Supplies, thereby granted, or that ſhould be granted for the Service of the War for the Year One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven (except for the Aid of Three Shillings in the Pound) and ſuch other Directions are thereby given, concerning the making, iſſuing, receiving back, and cancelling, the ſaid Bills, as in and by the ſaid Act, Relation being thereunto had, more at large appears: Now to the end the ſaid Bills ſo authorized to be iſſued may be of more general Uſe, as well for the Occaſions of the War, as for the publick Commerce and Trade; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, Exchequer Bills to be taken for Taxes, &c. granted this Parliament, and in all Payments at the Exchequer due to the King.

That the ſaid Bills, ſo authorized to be iſſued, ſhall be received and taken, not only by Receivers or Collectors of the Taxes or Supplies granted or to be granted for the War for the Year One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, but ſhall alſo paſs and be current to all and every the Commiſſioners, Receivers, or Collectors of any Revenue, Aid, Tax, or Supply whatſoever, already granted, or that ſhall or may be granted, during this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, either for the War, or any other Uſe, and alſo at the Receipt of the Exchequer from the ſaid Commiſſioners, Receivers, or Collectors, or from any other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever making any Payments there to His Majeſty upon any Account whatſoever.

LXIV. And to the end that all Perſons may be the more willing and ready to accept and receive the ſaid Bills in all Manner of Payments; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be annexed unto, attend, and go along with, the ſaid Bills, an Intereſt after the Rate of Five Pence a Day for every One hundred Pounds contained therein, Bills to bear 5*d.* a Day per Cent. Intereſt till Payment.

and ſo porportionably for a greater or leſſer Sum; which ſaid Intereſt ſhall be paid or allowed to the Perſon who is laſt poſſeſt thereof, to the Day he pays the ſame into the Exchequer, or to any Receivers or Collectors for any Aids, Taxes, Revenues, or Supplies whatſoever.

Bills paid into the Exchequer, to be ſigned, &c.

LXV. And that no Intereſt may be allowed on the ſaid former Bills for any longer Time than the ſame ſhall be unanſwered to His Majeſty; it is hereby enacted, That the Perſon who pays the ſame into the Exchequer, or to any Receivers or Collectors, for any Aids, Taxes, or Revenues, ſhall at the Time of making ſuch Payment put his Name to the ſaid Bill, and write the Day of the Month, to which Day the Collector or other Perſon who receives the ſame to His Majeſty's Uſe ſhall be allowed again the Intereſt that he ſhall have allowed thereupon; and when any of the ſaid Bills, which in Purſuance of this Act ſhall be received at the Exchequer, Cuſtom Houſe, Exciſe Office, or General Letter Office, or by any of His Majeſty's Receivers or Collectors, or for any Revenues, Taxes, or Supplies, ſhall be applicable to the Satisfaction of Tallies and Orders of Loan, or to any other Uſes or Payments whatſoever, and by Reaſon thereof are not to be immediately cancelled at the ſaid Exchequer, or in any other publick Office, then the reſpective Tellers in the Receipt of the Exchequer, and the Receivers General or Caſhiers of the Cuſtoms, Exciſe, and Poſt Office, or any other Receivers, upon their iſſuing or paying out the ſaid Bills, ſhall ſign the ſame, and add the Day of the Month, and ſo toties quoties until the ſaid Bills ſhall or may come or be paid into the Exchequer on Account of the proper Funds or Supplies (upon which they are or ſhall be firſt iſſued out) to be cancelled.

LXVI. And to the Intent that ſuch Perſon or Perſons, who have or may have, or be intitled to, any Tallies or Orders, on any Branch of the Revenues, or on any Aid, Tax, or Supply, that is or ſhall be appropriated for Repayment and Satisfaction thereof, and ſhall refuſe or be unwilling to accept the ſaid Bills in Payment, may not be obliged to receive the ſame; be it further enacted, That for the Eaſe, Accommodation, and Satisfaction, of all and every Perſon and Perſons ſo refuſing, or being unwilling to receive the ſaid Bills in Repayment of ſuch Tallies and Orders, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, or any Three of them now being, or the High Treaſurer, or any Three or more of the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury for the time being, to covenant and agree, in ſuch Manner as they ſhall think fit, with any Perſons Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate (with whoſe Abilities they ſhall be well ſatisfied) for the immediate advancing or lending of Money from time to time, as there ſhall be Occaſion, for exchanging ſuch Bills as ſhall be ſo refuſed, or not accepted or taken in Repayment of Tallies and Orders, as aforeſaid: And that ſuch Perſon and Perſons, as ſhall ſo contract and agree with the ſaid Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or High Treaſurer, to advance and furniſh Money for the exchanging and circulating the ſaid Bills, in ſuch Manner as the ſaid Commiſſioners of the Treaſury or High Treaſurer ſhall appoint, ſhall immediately, upon their paying or advancing any Monies purſuant to their Contracts or Agreements, have for their Security and Satisfaction the ſaid Bills, or ſuch Security as ſhall be agreed upon between the ſaid Commiſſioners of the Treaſury and the ſaid Contractors, and ſhall alſo have and receive as a further Encouragement an Intereſt or Reward not exceeding the Rate of Ten Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the Sums ſo by them reſpectively contracted or agreed to be furniſhed or advanced, from the Day they become ſeverally obliged, for and during ſo long Time as their ſaid Obligations ſhall be in Force.

Commiſſioners of the Treaſury may contract for lending Money to exchange Exchequer Bills not accepted in Payment. Perſons ſo lending Monies, to have the ſaid Bills for Security, and Intereſt at 10 l. per Cent. per Ann.

LXVII. And for the better aſcertaining ſuch Intereſt to the ſaid Lenders or Contractors; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Names of ſuch Lenders or Contractors, and the Dates of their reſpective Contracts, aud Sums contracted for, ſhall be regiſtred in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of the Exchequer, and that the ſaid Intereſt ſhall be paid out of the Supplies granted for carrying on the War againſt France, for the Service of the Year One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and ſeven, quarterly, for ſo long Time as the ſaid Contractors ſhall ſtand obliged as aforeſaid.

Contractors Names, &c. to be regiſtred in the Auditor's Office, and Intereſt to be paid quarterly.

LXVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That until ſuch Time as His Majeſty, by His Royal Proclamation to be iſſued by the Advice of His Privy Council, ſhall be pleaſed to publiſh and make known, that the ſaid Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, or Three or more of them, or the High Treaſurer for the time being, ſhall (by ſuch Covenants or Agreements made with Perſons of Ability, as aforeſaid) have ſufficiently ſecured and made Proviſion, that all Perſons, who at the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer, or at any the ſaid Publick Offices, ſhall have any of the ſaid Bills for Satisfaction of their Tallies or Orders of Loan, or for any other Payments whatſoever, may have ſuch Bills exchanged for ready Money; the ſaid Bills, ſo to be made forth for the ſaid Fifteen hundred thouſand Pounds, or any Part thereof, ſhall be current only for the Aids, Taxes, or Supplies, granted or to be granted for the Service of the War, for the Year One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, excluſive of the ſaid Aid of Three Shillings in the Pound, according to the Tenour and true Meaning of the ſaid former Act in that Behalf; and that after the ſaid Proclamation ſhall be iſſued, and not ſooner, the ſaid Bills ſo authorized to be iſſued, as aforeſaid, ſhall paſs and be current for all Revenues, Aids, Taxes, Supplies, or other Payments to His Majeſty, according to the true Meaning of this preſent Act; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The King by Proclamation to make known when Exchequer Bills may be exchanged for ready Money.

LXIX. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds, and regulating Abuſes, in the Plantation Trade, it is amongſt other Things therein enacted, That all the preſent Governors and Commanders in Chief of any Engliſh Colonies or Plantations, ſhall, before the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, and all who ſhall be made Governors or Commanders in Chief of the ſaid Colonies or Plantations, or any of them, before the entring into their Governments, ſhall take a ſolemn Oath to do their utmoſt that the Clauſes, Matters, and Things, contained in One Act of Parliament made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of the late King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for encouraging and increaſing of Shipping and Navigation, and One other Act made in the Fifteenth Year of His ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for Encouragement of Trade, and alſo the ſaid Act made in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds, and regulating Abuſes, in the Plantation Trade, be punctually and bona fide obſerved, according to the true Intent and Meaning thereof, ſo far as appertains unto the ſaid Governors or Commanders in Chief reſpectively: And whereas the Perſons appointed to adminiſter the ſaid Oaths are by ſome Accidents prevented from performing the ſame within the Time limited by the ſaid Act; to the end therefore that the good Intent of the ſaid Act may not be diſappointed for want of Time to put the ſame in Execution, be it therefore enacted, That further Time ſhall be allowed for adminiſtring the ſaid Oath, and that all preſent Governors and Commanders in Chief of any Engliſh Colonies or Plantations, ſhall, before the Five and twentieth Day of March, One

CAP. XXIII.

An Act to enforce the Act for the Increaſe and Encouragement of Seamen.

7 & 8 W. 3. c. 21.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the laſt Seſſion of this preſent Parliament, intituled, An Act for the Increaſe and Encouragement of Seamen, it is (amongſt other Things) enacted, That for the Relief, Benefit or Advantage, of ſuch regiſtred Mariners or Seamen, Watermen, Fiſhermen, Lightermen, Bargemen, Keelmen or Seafaring Men, who by Age, Wounds, or other Accidents, ſhall be diſabled for future Service at Sea, and ſhall not be in a Condition to maintain themſelves comfortably, and the Children of ſuch diſabled Seamen, and the Widows and Children of ſuch of them as ſhall happen to be ſlain, killed or drowned in Sea Service, ſo far forth as the Hoſpital in the ſaid Act mentioned ſhall be capable to receive them, and the Revenue thereof will extend for or towards their Relief or Support, and according to the Rules, Orders, and Conſtitutions to be ſettled and provided for the ſaid Hoſpital, and the Government and Regulation thereof, every ſuch Seaman, Waterman, Fiſherman, Lighterman, Bargeman, Keelman or Seafaring Man, regiſtred and diſabled as aforeſaid, ſhall, upon Certificate thereof in Manner as directed by the ſaid Statute, be admitted and placed in the ſaid Hoſpital, and ſhall have provided and allowed unto him, during his Life, at the Charges of the ſaid Hoſpital, and out of the Revenues thereof, according to the Rules, Orders, and Conſtitutions, to be provided and ſettled for the ſaid Hoſpital and the Government and Regulation thereof, fitting and convenient Lodging, Meat, Drink, Clothes, and other Neceſſaries and Conveniencies; and alſo the Widows of ſuch Seamen, Watermen, Fiſhermen, Lightermen, Bargemen, Keelmen and Seafaring Men, who ſhall be ſlain, killed or drowned in the Sea Service, and the Children of ſuch Seamen, Watermen, Fiſhermen, Lightermen, Bargemen, Keelmen and Seafaring Men, ſo ſlain, killed or drowned, and not of Ability to maintain or provide comfortably for themſelves, ſhall be received into the ſaid Hoſpital, and there be provided for: And foraſmuch as divers Perſons ſo regiſtred and diſabled as aforeſaid, and divers of the Widows and Children of ſuch Perſons ſo regiſtred, ſlain, or drowned in Sea Service as aforeſaid, may at one and the ſame Time ſtand in Need of, and by virtue of the ſaid Act claim and demand the Bounties, Benefits and Advantages aforeſaid, in greater Numbers than the ſaid Hoſpital and Revenues thereof can ſupport and maintain; be it therefore enacted, &c.

Perſons intitled to the Advantages of Greenwich Hoſpital to be received as regiſtred. Thoſe longeſt regiſtred to be firſt admitted. Diſabled Seamen, &c. provided for by 2 & 3 Annæ, c. 6. §. 19. and by 9 Annæ, c. 21, §. 63. This Act is repealed as to regiſtring Seamen and the Bounty-money. Seaman, &c. bringing a Certificate of his Abode, &c. may be regiſtred and intitled to the Benefits of the Act 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 21. Juſtices to enquire and examine on Oath; and, if any Fraud, to certify it to the Commiſſioners of the Admiralty. Maſters, Mates, and their Wives, &c. may have the Benefit given to other regiſtred Men, &c. Seamen above Fifty Years old, having ſerved in the King's Ships Seven Years, may be regiſtred, and enjoy the Privileges of the Act. After 10 April, 1699, none to be regiſtred without giving Reaſons for his Omiſſion.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for the better levying and collecting the Duties of Six Pence per Menſem, given and granted by the ſaid recited Act, for the Revenues and Supplies of the Hoſpital, Charities and Bounties therein mentioned, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Commiſſioners appointed for regiſtring of Seamen, or their reſpective Deputies for the time being, for the better Diſcovery of the Pay and Wages due to the Sailors and Perſons who ſerved on Board any the Merchants or private Ships and Veſſels in the ſaid Act mentioned, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to cauſe all ſuch Maſters and Commanders of ſuch Ships, not in His Majeſty's Service, to be and appear before them the ſaid Commiſſioners, or the reſpective Deputies, who are hereby impowered and directed, all and every ſuch Maſters and Commanders upon their Oaths to examine, as to the Number, Rates, Salaries, Wages, and Times of Service, of all and every Perſon or Perſons, belonging to or ſerving in ſuch Ships or Veſſels in the ſaid recited Act, and which by the ſaid Act are obliged to pay the ſaid Sum of Six Pence per Menſem out of their Salaries and Wages as aforeſaid; and if ſuch Maſters or Commanders, or any of them ſhall refuſe, when ſo ſummoned or commanded to appear before the ſaid reſpective Perſons hereby impowered to examine them in Manner as aforeſaid, or if they ſhall appear, and obſtinately and wilfully refuſe to give a plain, full, and exact Diſcovery of the Matters aforeſaid, upon their ſeveral Oaths, that then and in every ſuch Caſe, all and every ſuch Offender or Offenders ſhall, for every ſuch Refuſal or Neglect, forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds to the Uſes mentioned in the ſaid recited Act, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, with full Coſts of Suit; provided ſuch Maſters or Commanders be not Quakers, or eſteemed Quakers.

Commiſſioners may examine Maſters of Ships on Oath as to the Number and Wages, &c. of Perſons ſerving in their Ships, and who are to pay 6 d. per Menſem out of their Wages. By 2 & 3 Annæ, c. 6. §. 7. Poor Boys aſſigned to the Sea are exempt from the 6 d. per Menſem till their Age of 18, and by 10 Annæ, c. 17. §. 1. Perſons employed in Boats ſhall pay it. Farther Proviſions relating to the Payment of 6 d. per Menſem, by 2 Geo. 2. c. 7. and 36.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Maſter or Commander of any Ship or Veſſel, mentioned in the ſaid recited Act, being a Quaker, may and ſhall be examined before the ſaid Commiſſioners appointed for regiſtring Seamen, or any Three or more of them, or their Deputy or Deputies, and the ſaid Commiſſioners or their Deputies may and ſhall, from time to time, take the ſolemn Affirmation and Declaration of ſuch Quakers inſtead of their Oath, and in ſuch Manner and Form as by One Act made in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His Majeſty is directed, intituled, An Act that the ſolemn Affirmation and Declaration of the People commonly called Quakers ſhall be accepted inſtead of an Oath in the uſual Form: And ſuch Quakers refuſing to appear on ſuch Summons, or to anſwer or make ſuch ſolemn Affirmation or Declaration before the ſaid Commiſſioners, or their Deputy or Deputies, ſhall be deemed Offenders, and be liable to the ſame Penalties and Forfeitures mentioned in this Act for refuſing to appear and be examined upon Oath, or ſwear as aforeſaid; any thing in this Act before to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Quakers to make ſolemn Affirmation inſtead of an Oath.

7 & 8 W. 3. c. 34.

VIII. And whereas ſince the making the ſaid recited Act, divers evil diſpoſed Perſons, ſo regiſtred in purſuance of the ſaid Act, have fraudulently lent their Regiſter Certificates to divers Mariners, Seamen, Watermen, Fiſhermen, Lightermen, Bargemen, Keelmen, or Seafaring Men, who were not regiſtred in purſuance of the ſaid Act, with Intent to keep ſuch Perſons not regiſtred from being impreſſed in His Majeſty's Sea Service: For the preventing of ſuch evil Practices for the future, be it enacted, &c.

7 & 8 W. 3. c. 21.

Perſons regiſtred lending their Certificates to Seamen, &c. to protect them from being impreſt, to be ſtruck out of the Regiſter, &c. Certificate under the Hand of a Mayor or Bailiff of the Cinque Ports to be ſufficient. E X P.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, from and after the ſaid Fifteenth Day of May, ſhall without lawful Authority for that Purpoſe, wittingly or knowingly convey or aſſiſt in the conveying out of His Majeſty's Mint in the Tower of London, or out of any other of His Majeſty's Mints, any Puncheon, Counter Puncheon, Matrix, Dye, Stamp, Edger, cutting Engine, Preſs, or other Tool, Engine or Inſtrument uſed for or about the coining of Monies there, or any uſeful Part of ſuch Tools or Inſtruments, that then as well the ſaid Perſon and Perſons ſo offending, their Counſellors, Procurers, Aiders or Abettors, as alſo all and every Perſon and Perſons knowingly receiving, hiding or concealing the ſame, ſhall be, and is and are hereby adjudged to be guilty of High Treaſon, and being of the ſaid Offences, or any of them, convicted or attainted, according to the Order and Courſe of the Laws of this Realm, ſhall ſuffer Death as in caſe of High Treaſon.

Like Penalty on Perſons marking the Edges of any counterfeit Coin,

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons (other than the Perſons employed in His Majeſty's Mint or Mints, or ſuch as ſhall have Authority from the Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or Lord High Treaſurer of England for the time being) ſhall after the ſaid Fifteenth Day of May, mark on the Edges any the current Coin of this Kingdom, or if any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall mark on the Edges any of the diminiſhed Coin of this Kingdom, or any counterfeit Coin reſembling the Coin of this Kingdom, with Letters or Grainings, or other Marks or Figures like unto thoſe on the Edges of Money coined in His Majeſty's Mint, every ſuch Offence ſhall be and is hereby adjudged to be High Treaſon, and the Offender and Offenders therein, his and their Counſellors, Procurers, Aiders and Abettors, being thereof convicted or attainted according to the Order and Courſe of the Laws of this Realm, ſhall ſuffer Death as in caſe of High Treaſon.

or colouring, gilding, &c. any Coin reſembling the current Coin.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, after the ſaid Fifteenth Day of May, ſhall colour, gild, or caſe over with Gold or Silver, or with any Waſh or Materials producing the Colour of Gold or Silver, any Coin reſembling any the current Coin of this Kingdom, or any round Blanks of baſe Metal, or of coarſe Gold or coarſe Silver of a fit Size and Figure to be coined into counterfeit milled Money reſembling any the Gold or Silver Coin of this Kingdom, or if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall gild over any Silver Blanks of a fit Size and Figure to be coined into Pieces reſembling the current Gold Coin of this Kingdom, all and every ſuch Perſon and Perſons ſo offending, their Counſellors, Procurers, Aiders and Abettors, ſhall be, and is and are hereby adjudged to be guilty of High Treaſon, and being convicted or attainted thereof, according to the Order and Courſe of the Laws of this Realm, ſhall ſuffer Death as in caſe of High Treaſon.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Puncheon, Dye, Stamp, Edger, cutting Engine, Preſs, Flask, or other Tool, Inſtrument, or Engine, uſed or deſigned for coining or counterfeiting Gold or Silver Monies, or any Part of ſuch Tool or Engine, ſhall, at any Time after the ſaid Fifteenth Day of May, be hid or concealed in any Place, or found in the Houſe, Cuſtody, or Poſſeſſion of any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, not then employed in the coining of Money in ſome of His Majeſty's Mints, nor having the ſame by ſome lawful Authority, that then it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, diſcovering the ſame, to ſeize, and he and they are hereby required to ſeize the ſame, and to carry them forthwith to ſome Juſtice of Peace of the County, City, or Place where the ſame ſhall be ſo ſeized, and by him ſecured, to be produced in Evidence againſt any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall or may be proſecuted for any ſuch Offence, in ſome Court of Juſtice proper for the Determination thereof, and after ſuch Time as they or any of them ſhall have been produced in Evidence, as well the ſame ſo produced, as the other ſo ſeized, and not made uſe of in Evidence, and every of them, ſhall forthwith, by Order of that Court where ſuch Offender or Offenders ſhall be tried, or by Order, and in the Preſence of ſuch or ſome other Juſtice of the Peace, in caſe there be no ſuch Trial, be totally defaced and deſtroyed; and if, after the ſaid Fifteenth Day of May, any counterfeit or unlawfully diminiſhed Money ſhall be produced in any Court of Juſtice, either in Evidence againſt any Perſon or Perſons for any Offence relating to the conterfeiting or unlawfully diminiſhing of Money, or otherwiſe, that then, or immediately after Evidence given, the Judge or Judges of ſuch Court ſhall cauſe ſuch Monies to be cut in Pieces in open Court, or in the Preſence of ſome Juſtice of the Peace, and then to be delivered to or for ſuch Perſon or Perſons to whom the ſame of Right ſhall appertain.

Puncheon, Dye, &c. found in the Poſſeſſion of any Perſon not employed in the Mints, may be ſeized and produced in Evidence.

Counterfeit Money, &c. produced in Evidence or otherwiſe, to be afterwards cut in Pieces.

VI. And whereas ſeveral Mixtures of Metals have been invented in Imitation of Gold and Silver, and blanched Copper is principally made uſe of in Imitation of Silver, and ſeldom, if ever, for any honeſt or good Purpoſe; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, after the ſaid Fifteenth Day of May, ſhall blanch Copper for Sale, or mix blanched Copper with Silver, or knowingly buy or ſell, or offer to Sale, blanched Copper alone, or mixed with Silver, or ſhall knowingly and fraudulently buy or ſell, or offer to Sale, any malleable Compoſition or Mixture of Metals or Minerals, which ſhall be heavier than Silver, and look, and touch, and wear like Standard Gold, but be manifeſtly worſe than Standard, or ſhall take, receive, pay, or put off, any counterfeit milled Money, or any milled Money whatſoever unlawfully diminiſhed, and not cut in Pieces, at or for a lower Rate or Value than the ſame by its Denomination doth or ſhall import, or was coined or counterfeited for, that then all and every ſuch Perſon and Perſons ſhall be deemed and adjudged guilty of Felony, and, being thereof convicted or attainted, according to the Order and Courſe of the Laws of this Realm, ſhall ſuffer Death as in caſe of Felony.

Perſonsblanching Copper for Sale, or mixingblanched Copper with Silver, &c. or taking or paying counterfeit milled Money, &c. to be guilty of Felony.

VII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act, or any Thing therein contained, or any Attainder or Attainders of any Perſon or Perſons for any Offence or Offences made Treaſon or Felony by this Act, ſhall not in any wiſe extend, or be judged, interpreted, or expounded, to make any Corruption of Blood to any the Heir or Heirs of any ſuch Offender or Offenders, or to make the Wife of any ſuch Offender to loſe or forfeit her Dower of or in any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or her Title, Action, or Intereſt to the ſame; and that all and every Perſon or Perſons that ſhall at any Time after the ſaid Fifteenth Day of May, be accuſed or impeached of any the Offences made Treaſon or Felony by this Act, ſhall or may be indicted, arraigned, tried, convicted, or attainted, by ſuch like Evidence, and in ſuch Manner and Form, as now are, or may by the Laws of this Realm be had or uſed againſt any Offender or Offenders for counterfeiting the King's Money; any thing in this Act contained, or any other Law or Statute to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Attainder by this Act not to make Corruption of Blood, &c.

By what Evidence Offenders may be convicted.

VIII. And for the rendring more effectual an Act made in the Sixth and Seventh Years of His Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act to prevent counterfeiting and clipping the Coin of this Kingdom; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every the Crimes and Offences, ſpecified and mentioned in the ſaid Act, may be heard and determined upon Indictment or Preſentment either in His Majeſty's Court of King's Bench, or before the Juſtices of Oyer and Terminer, or Juſtices of Aſſize, or general Gaol Delivery.

Offences in 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 17. may be heard in the King's Bench, or at a Gaol Delivery.

IX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That this Act ſhall continue and be in Force until the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer; and that no Proſecution ſhall be made for any Offence againſt this Act, unleſs ſuch Proſecution be commenced within Three Months after ſuch Offence committed. This Act made perpetual by 7 Annæ, cap. 25. ſect. 3. and by ſect. 2. the Makers or Menders of Tools are to be proſecuted within Six Months.

Proſecution to be in Three Months.

By 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 21. §. 1. any Perſon may deface counterfeit Money.

CAP. XXVII.

An Act for the more effectual Relief of Creditors in Caſes of Eſcapes, and for preventing Abuſes in Priſons and pretended privileged Places.

WHEREAS by reaſon of the many grievous Extortions and ill Practices of ſuch Perſons who have for ſeveral Years paſt reſpectively executed the Offices of Marſhal of the King's Bench, Warden of the Fleet, and Keeper of the Marſhalſea, Newgate, and other Priſons, and by ſeveral pretended privileged Places within this Realm, both Creditors and Debtors have been notoriouſly abuſed, and the good Intents of the Law wholly eluded: For Reformation thereof be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, all Priſoners, either upon Contempt or Meſne Proceſs, or in Execution, who are or ſhall be committed to the Cuſtody of the Marſhal of the King's Bench Priſon, or Warden of the Fleet, ſhall be actually detained within the ſaid Priſons of the King's Bench and Fleet, or the reſpective Rules of the ſame, until they ſhall be from thence diſcharged by due Courſe of Law; and if at any Time from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of May, the ſaid Marſhal or Warden, Priſoners in the King's Bench or Fleet to be detained there or in the Rules.

or any other Keeper or Keepers of any Priſon, ſhall permit and ſuffer any Priſoner committed to their Cuſtody, either on Meſne Proceſs or in Execution, to go or be at large out of the Rules of their reſpective Priſons (except by virtue of ſome Writ of Habeas Corpus, or Rule of Court, which Rule of Court ſhall not be granted but by Motion made or Petition read in open Court) every ſuch going or being out of the ſaid Rules ſhall be adjudged and deemed, and is hereby declared to be an Eſcape.

Keeper ſuffering them to go at large without Habeas Corpus deemed an Eſcape. For the Mint ſee 9 Geo. 1. c. 28.

Upon Judgment in Action of Eſcape, Marſhal or Wardens Fees to be ſequeſtered for Satiſfaction.

Mod. Caſes in Law 350.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of May, every Perſon or Perſons obtaining Judgment in any Action of Eſcape againſt the ſaid Marſhal or Warden, or their reſpective lawful Deputy or Deputies, ſhall and may have, not only the ſeveral Remedies already by Law allowed for obtaining Satisfaction thereon, but the Judges of the reſpective Courts where ſuch Judgment ſhall be obtained (upon Oath before them made by the Perſon or Perſons obtaining ſuch Judgment, that the ſame was obtained without Fraud or Covin, and that the Debt of the Priſoner making ſuch Eſcape was a true and real Debt and unſatisfied) ſhall, upon Motion made to them in open Court for that Purpoſe, ſequeſter the Fees and Profits of the Office of Marſhal or Warden, or ſo much, or ſuch Part or Proportion thereof, as the ſaid Court wherein ſuch Motion ſhall be made ſhall think fit and reaſonable, with reſpect to the Debt or Debts due from ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners ſo eſcaping, and in the firſt Place apply the ſame towards Satisfaction of the Debt or Debts due from the Priſoner or Priſoners who eſcaped, together with all Coſts and Damages recovered in ſuch Action of Eſcape.

Marſhal, &c. ſuing a Writ of Error to reverſe Judgment, to put in ſpecial Bail.

III. And to the end that ſuch Satisfaction may not be deferred by any Writ of Error brought for Delay only, be it enacted, That if the ſaid Marſhal or Warden, or their reſpective Deputy or Deputies, ſhall at any Time after the ſaid Firſt Day of May, ſue forth any Writ or Writs of Error to reverſe any Judgment given in any Action of Eſcape, ſuch Marſhal or Warden, or their reſpective Deputy or Deputies, ſhall be obliged to put in ſpecial Bail, or in Default thereof no Execution ſhall be ſtayed, nor any Sequeſtration of the Profits delayed.

Penalty on the Marſhal, &c. taking any Reward to connive at Priſoner's Eſcape.

IV. And whereas it is notorious that divers great Sums of Money and other Rewards have been given to, and actually received by, the ſeveral Perſons executing the reſpective Offices of Marſhal and Warden, and other Keepers of the ſeveral Priſons within this Kingdom, to aſſiſt or permit Priſoners in their Cuſtody to eſcape, in open Defiance and Contempt of the Laws of this Realm: For preventing the like evil Practice for the Time to come, be it further enacted, That if any Marſhal or Warden, or their reſpective Deputy or Deputies, or any Keeper of any other Priſon within this Kingdom, ſhall take any Sum of Money, Reward, or Gratuity whatſoever, or Security for the ſame, to procure, aſſiſt, connive at, or permit any ſuch Eſcape, and ſhall be thereof lawfully convicted, the ſaid Marſhal or Warden, or their reſpective Deputy or Deputies, or ſuch other Keeper of any Priſons as aforeſaid, ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, and his ſaid Office, and be for ever after incapable of executing any ſuch Office.

This Act not to void Securities given for Lodging within the Rules of the ſaid Priſons.

V. Provided always, That this Act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend to make void ſuch Securities, or any of them, as ſhall at any Time or Times hereafter be given by any Priſoner or Priſoners for his or their Lodging or Lodgings without the aforeſaid Priſons, or either of them, within the Rules of the ſaid Priſons of King's Bench and Fleet, or either of them, ſo as ſuch Security or Securities be not taken for the Enlargement of any Priſoner or Priſoners out of or beyond the Rules of the ſaid Priſons of King's Bench and Fleet, or either of them reſpectively.

No retaking on freſh Purſuit to be given in Evidence on Action of Eſcape, unleſs ſpecially pleaded; nor any ſpecial Plea, unleſs upon Oath that the Eſcape was without Conſent of the Marſhal, &c.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of May, no retaking on freſh Purſuit ſhall be given in Evidence on the Trial of any Iſſue in any Action of Eſcape againſt the ſaid Marſhal or Warden, or their reſpective Deputy or Deputies, or againſt any other Keeper or Keepers of any other Priſon or Priſons as aforeſaid, unleſs the ſame be ſpecially pleaded, nor ſhall any ſpecial Plea be taken, received, or allowed, unleſs Oath be firſt made in Writing by the Marſhal or Warden, or their reſpective Deputy or Deputies, or by ſuch other Keeper or Keepers of any other Priſon or Priſons as aforeſaid, againſt whom ſuch Action ſhall be brought, and filed in the proper Office of the reſpective Courts, that the Priſoner for whoſe Eſcape ſuch Action is brought did without his Conſent, Privity, or Knowledge make ſuch Eſcape; and if ſuch Affidavit ſhall at any Time afterwards appear to be falſe, and the Marſhal or Warden, or other Keeper or Keepers of any other Priſon or Priſons, ſhall be convicted thereof by due Courſe of Law, ſuch Marſhal or Warden, or other Keeper or Keepers of any other Priſon or Priſons, ſhall forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

Priſoner in Execution eſcaping, may be retaken by any new Capias.

VII. And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That if at any Time after the ſaid Firſt Day of May, any Priſoner who is or ſhall be committed in Execution to either or any of the ſaid reſpective Priſons, ſhall eſcape from thence by any Ways or Means howſoever, the Creditor or Creditors, at whoſe Suit ſuch Priſoner was charged in Execution at the Time of his Eſcape, ſhall or may retake ſuch Priſoner by any new Capias, or Capias ad ſatisfaciendum, or ſue forth any other Kind of Execution on the Judgment, as if the Body of ſuch Priſoner had never been taken in Execution.

Keeper refuſing to ſhew Priſoner, it ſhall be an Eſcape.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the ſaid Marſhal or Warden for the time being, or their reſpective Deputy or Deputies, or other Keeper or Keepers of any other Priſon or Priſons, ſhall, after One Day's Notice in Writing given for that Purpoſe, refuſe to ſhew any Priſoner committed in Execution to the Creditor at whoſe Suit ſuch Priſoner was committed or charged, or to his Attorney, every ſuch Refuſal ſhall be adjudged to be an Eſcape in Law.

Penalty on Marſhal, &c. refuſing to give a Note whether a Perſon be Priſoner, or not.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, deſiring to charge any Perſon with any Action or Execution, ſhall deſire to be informed by the ſaid Marſhal or Warden, or their reſpective Deputy or Deputies, or by any other Keeper or Keepers of any other Priſon or Priſons, whether ſuch Perſon be a Priſoner in his Cuſtody, or not, the ſaid Marſhal or Warden, or ſuch other Keeper or Keepers of any other Priſon or Priſons, ſhall give a true Note in Writing thereof to the Perſon ſo requeſting the ſame, or to his lawful Attorney, upon Demand at his Office for that Purpoſe, or in Default thereof ſhall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds; and if ſuch Marſhal or Warden, or their reſpective Deputy or Deputies exerciſing the ſaid Office, or other Keeper or Keepers of any other Priſon or Priſons, ſhall give a Note in Writing that ſuch Perſon is an actual Priſoner in his or their Cuſtody, every ſuch Note ſhall be accepted and taken as a ſufficient Evidence that ſuch Perſon was at that Time a Priſoner in actual Cuſtody.

Such Note to be ſufficient Evidence.

Conveyances of the King's Bench and Fleet Priſons, &c. to be inrolled.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That on or before the Four and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, all and every the Conveyances, Grants, and Mortgages of the Inheritance of the aforeſaid Priſons of King's Bench and Fleet, or either of them, and of the Priſon-houſes, Lands, Tenements, Buildings, and other Hereditaments to the ſaid Priſons of King's Bench and Fleet or either of them reſpectively belonging, or in any wiſe appertaining, and all Leaſes thereof, and the reſpective Titles of the Marſhal of the King's Bench and Warden of the Fleet Priſons thereunto, or of him or them in whom the Inheritance or Inheritances of, in, and to the ſaid Priſons, and Priſon-houſes, and Premiſſes, or either of them, now are, and all Truſts and Declarations of Truſts thereunto, or unto either of them relating, ſhall be inrolled (viz.) that of the Marſhal of the King's Bench in the King's Bench Court, and that of the Warden of the Fleet in the Court of Common Pleas at Weſtminſter; and that all future Conveyances, Grants, and Mortgages, of the Inheritance of the ſaid Priſons of King's Bench and Fleet, or of either of them, or of any Part of either them, and all Leaſes thereof, and all Truſts and Declarations of Truſt thereunto or unto either of them relating, ſhall be ſo inrolled in the reſpective Courts, as aforeſaid, within Six Months next after the executing of every or any ſuch Conveyances, Grants, Mortgages, or Leaſes, or ſuch Truſts or Declarations of Truſts thereunto or unto either of them relating, or of any of them; and if any ſuch Conveyances, Grants, or Mortgages, of the Inheritance of the ſaid Priſons of King's Bench or Fleet, or either of them, or of any Part of either of them, or any ſuch Truſts or Declarations of Truſt thereunto or unto either of them relating, or any Leaſes of the ſaid Premiſſes, be not ſo inrolled within the Times limited as aforeſaid, in the ſaid Courts reſpectively, as aforeſaid, that then and in ſuch Caſe, as well the preſent as all future Conveyances, Grants, and Mortgages of every of them, and the Inheritance of the ſaid Priſons of King's Bench and Fleet, or either of them, or of any Part of either of them, and all Leaſes thereof, and all Truſts and Declarations of Truſt thereunto, or unto any of them relating, ſhall be and are hereby declared to be utterly void and of none Effect, as if the ſame had never been executed; any Law, Statute, or Cuſtom, to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Future Conveyances, &c. to be inrolled in 6 Months after Execution thereof, or elſe to be void.

Office of Marſhal and Warden of the King's Bench and Fleet to be executed by thoſe who have the Inheritance of the ſaid Priſons, or their Deputies, &c.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of May, the ſaid Offices of Marſhal of the King's Bench Priſon, and Warden of the Fleet, and each of them, ſhall be executed by the ſeveral Perſons to whom the Inheritance of the Priſons, Priſon-houſes, Lands, Tenements, and other Hereditaments, of the ſaid Priſons of King's Bench and Fleet, or either of them, ſhall then belong or appertain reſpectively, in his or their reſpective proper Perſon or Perſons, or by his or their ſufficient Deputy or Deputies; for which Deputy or Deputies, and for all Forfeitures, Eſcapes, and other Miſdemeanors, in their reſpective Offices by ſuch Deputy or Deputies permitted, ſuffered, or committed, the ſaid Perſon or Perſons, in whom the aforeſaid Inheritances reſpectively are or ſhall then be, ſhall be anſwerable, and the Profits and aforeſaid Inheritances of the ſaid ſeveral Offices ſhall be ſequeſtred, ſeized, or extended to make Satisfaction for ſuch Forfeitures, Eſcapes, and Miſdemeanors reſpectively, as if permitted, ſuffered, or committed by the Perſon or Perſons themſelves, or either of them, in whom the reſpective Inheritances of the ſaid Priſons ſhall then be.

XII. And whereas the Way of proceeding againſt the Warden of the Fleet Priſon by Bill in the Courts of Common Pleas and Exchequer at Weſtminſter is found to be very dilatory; be it further enacted by the Authroity aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of May, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons, having Cauſe of Action againſt the Warden of the Fleet Priſon, upon Bill filed in the ſaid Courts of Common Pleas or Exchequer againſt the ſaid Warden, and a Rule being given to plead thereto, to be out Eight Days at moſt after filing ſuch Bill, to ſign Judgment againſt the ſaid Warden of the Fleet, unleſs he plead to the ſaid Bill within Three Days after ſuch Rule is out.

On Bill filed againſt the Warden, and a Rule given out, Judgment to be ſigned, unleſs pleaded to.

XIII. And for the more eaſy and quick obtaining of Judgment againſt any Perſon or Perſons who now is or hereafter ſhall be a Priſoner or Priſoners in the aforeſaid Priſon of the Fleet; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of May, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons, who hath or ſhall have any Cauſe of Action againſt any Priſoner or Priſoners, who now is, or are, or hereafter ſhall be committed to the ſaid Priſon of the Fleet, after filing or entring of a Declaration in ſuch Action with the proper Officer, to deliver a Copy of ſuch Declaration or Declarations to any ſuch Defendant or Defendants in any perſonal Action or Actions, or to the Turnkey or Porter of the ſaid Fleet Priſon, and, after Rule given thereupon to plead, to be out at Eight Days at moſt after Delivery of ſuch Copy of Declaration or Declarations, and Affidavit made of ſuch Delivery before the Lord Chief Juſtice, or one other of the Juſtices of the Common Pleas, or before the Lord Chief Baron, or ſome other of the Barons of the Coif of the Exchequer at Weſtminſter, of the Delivery of ſuch Declaration or Declarations to the Defendant or Defendants in ſuch Action or Actions, or to the Turnkey or Porter of the ſaid Fleet Priſon, as aforeſaid, to ſign Judgment in ſuch Action or Actions againſt ſuch Defendant or Defendants, as if ſuch Defendant or Defendants had been actually charged at the Bar of the Common Pleas or Exchequer with ſuch Action or Actions; any Law, Statute, Uſage, or Cuſtom, to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Copy of Declaration delivered to Priſoner, &c. and Affidavit made thereof, Plaintiff to ſign Judgment.

XIV. And whereas great Sums of Money have been and are ſtill taken of the Priſoners of the aforeſaid Priſons of King's Bench and Fleet, and other Priſons, under Pretence of Chamber Rent, although the ſaid Priſoners have not had the actual Poſſeſſion of any Chamber within the ſaid Priſons, or any of them: For the avoiding of that Inconvenience for the future be it enacted, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of May, no Priſoner or Priſoners ſhall pay, or be compellable to pay any Chamber Rent for any Chamber within either or any of the ſaid Priſons, for any longer Time than he or

No Priſoner to pay Chamber Rent longer than while in actual Poſſeſſion, nor pay above 2 s. 6 d. per Week.

Penalty on demanding more.

or they is or are actually in Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Chamber or Chambers, and that during ſuch Time as he or they is or are actually in Poſſeſſion of any ſuch Chamber or Chambers within either or any of the ſaid Priſons as aforeſaid, ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners ſhall not pay above the Sum of Two Shillings and Six Pence per Week for any ſuch Chamber; and if the Marſhal of the King's Bench Priſon, Warden of the Fleet, or Keeper or Keepers of any other Priſon or Priſons, as aforeſaid, ſhall take or demand any greater Sum or Sums of Money for the Uſe of ſuch Chamber, than the Sum of Two Shillings and Six Pence per Week, he or they ſo taking or demanding ſhall in ſuch Caſe, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Pretended privileged Places.

Sheriffs, &c. may take Poſſe Comitat' and arreſt in the ſaid privileged Places, on Proceſs, Extent, or Execution.

Penalty on Sheriff, &c. neglecting or refuſing to execute ſuch Proceſs; and on thoſe who oppoſe Officers in executing the ſame.

Penalty for reſcuing a Priſoner.

Perſon harbouring or concealing Reſcuer, to be tranſported for 7 Years, unleſs he pay the Debt and Coſts.

XV. And for the preventing for the future the many notorious and ſcandalous Practices uſed in many pretended privileged Places in and about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and Borough of Southwark in the County of Surrey, by obſtructing the Execution of legal Proceſs there, and thereby defrauding and cheating great Numbers of People of their honeſt and juſt Debts; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of May, it ſhall and may be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons, who have or hath any Debt or Debts, Sum or Sums of Money due or owing to him from any Perſon or Perſons who now is, or hereafter ſhall be and reſide within the White Friers, Savoy, Saliſbury Court, Ram Alley, Mitre Court, Fuller's Rents, Baldwin's Gardens, Montague Cloſe, or the Minories, Mint, Clink, or Deadman's Place, upon legal Proceſs taken out againſt ſuch Perſon or Perſons, to demand and require the Sheriffs of London and Middleſex, Head Bailiff of the Liberty of the Duchy of Lancaſter, or High Sheriff of the County of Surrey, or Bailiff of the Liberty of the Borough of Southwark for the time being (as the Caſe ſhall require, if the Plaintiff think it requiſite) or their reſpective Deputy or Deputies, Officer or Officers, to take, and they are hereby enabled reſpectively to take the Poſſe Comitatus, or ſuch other Power as to him or them or any of them ſhall ſeem requiſite, and enter the ſaid pretended privileged Places, and any or either of them (as the Caſe ſhall require) and to arreſt, and in caſe of Reſiſtance or Refuſal to open the Doors, to break open any Door or Doors to arreſt ſuch Perſon or Perſons upon any Meſne or other Proceſs, Extent or Execution, or to ſeize the Goods of any ſuch Perſon or Perſons upon any Execution or Extent; and if the ſaid Sheriff or Sheriffs, Head Bailiff, or their Deputy or Deputies, Officer or Officers, or either or any of them ſhall neglect or refuſe (upon ſuch Requeſt) with ſuch Force to do their beſt Endeavours for the executing of ſuch Proceſs, Execution or Extent, he or they ſo neglecting or refuſing to execute ſuch Proceſs, Execution or Extent, ſhall forfeit to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in ſuch Action the Sum of One hundred Pounds, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in which no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than One Imparlance ſhall be allowed; and if in the executing of ſuch Proceſs, Execution or Extent, any Perſon or Perſons ſhall oppoſe or reſiſt any ſuch Officer or Officers, or any of them, or any who ſhall be aiding or aſſiſting to him, them, or any of them, in the executing of ſuch Proceſs, Execution or Extent, he or they ſo offending ſhall, for every Time he or they ſhall ſo offend, forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds, and moreover ſhall be by ſome Juſtice of Peace committed to the common Gaol of ſuch County, City or Place where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize until the next Aſſizes, Seſſions of Oyer and Terminer, and general Gaol Delivery, to be held for ſuch County, City or Place; and ſuch Offender or Offenders being of ſuch Offence or Offences duly convicted, every ſuch Offender ſhall ſuffer and undergo ſuch Impriſonment, and be ſet in the Pillory, as the Court where ſuch Conviction ſhall be ſhall think fit; and if any Reſcous ſhall be made of any Priſoner taken by any ſuch Officer or Officers as aforeſaid, upon any ſuch Proceſs, Execution or Extent, within the Limits of any the before mentioned pretended privileged Places, by any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, ſuch Perſon or Perſons, ſo making ſuch Reſcous, or aiding, aſſiſting or abetting the ſame, and being thereof lawfully convicted, ſhall reſpectively forfeit to the Plaintiff in any ſuch Action the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of His Majeſty's Courts at Weſtminſter, in which Action, Bill, Plaint or Information, no Eſſoin, Privilege, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than One Imparlance ſhall be allowed; and if after ſuch Recovery had againſt any Perſon or Perſons for ſuch Reſcous, or for aiding, aſſiſting or abetting the ſame, the Perſon or Perſons againſt whom ſuch Recovery ſhall be had, ſhall refuſe or neglect to pay to the Plaintiff in ſuch Action, or to his, her or their Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, the Sum or Sums recovered, with full Coſts of Suit, within One Month after Judgment ſigned upon ſuch Recovery, and Demand made, that then the Perſon or Perſons ſo refuſing or neglecting as aforeſaid, upon producing a Copy of the Judgment upon which ſuch Recovery ſhall be had, and Oath made that the Money recovered is not paid, ſhall, by Order of ſuch Court wherein the ſaid Perſon or Perſons was or were ſo convicted, of or for any ſuch Reſcous, or for aiding, aſſiſting or abetting the ſame, be tranſported by the Sheriff or Sheriffs of the County, City or Place where ſuch Conviction ſhall happen to be, to One of His Majeſty's Plantations beyond the Seas, there to remain for the Space of Seven Years; and if the Perſon or Perſons ſo tranſported, ſhall return again to this Kingdom within the Space of Seven Years, he, ſhe or they ſo returning, ſhall be and is hereby adjudged guilty of Felony, and ſhall not be allowed the Benefit of Clergy, but ſhall ſuffer and forfeit as in Caſes of Felony where Clergy is not allowed; and if any Perſon or Perſons, inhabiting within either or any of the aforeſaid pretended privileged Places, ſhall receive, conceal or harbour any Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall have made any Reſcous as aforeſaid, he, ſhe or they ſo receiving, concealing or harbouring any ſuch Perſon or Perſons, knowing or having had Notice that ſuch Perſon or Perſons had been guilty of ſuch Offence, being thereof convicted by due Courſe of Law, ſhall be, by Order of that Court where ſuch Conviction ſhall happen to be, by the Sheriff or Sheriffs of the County, City or Place where the Offence was committed, tranſported to ſome or One of His Majeſty's Plantations beyond the Seas, there to remain for the Space of Seven Years, unleſs ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall, within the Space of One Month next after ſuch Conviction, pay to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in ſuch Action or Suit, the full Debt or Duty for which ſuch Action or Suit was brought, with full Coſts; and if he, ſhe or they ſhall return into this Kingdom within the ſaid Space of Seven Years, he, ſhe or they ſo returning, ſhall be and is hereby adjudged guilty of Felony, and ſhall not be allowed the Benefit of Clergy, but ſhall ſuffer and forfeit as in Caſes of Felony, where Clergy is not allowed.

Felony to return from Tranſportation.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That the ſeveral Penalties before in and by this Act inflicted, and not particularly diſpoſed of, ſhall go One Half to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Half to him or them that will ſue for the ſame, to be recovered as aforeſaid.

Penalties how to be diſpoſed of.

XVII. And for the Prevention of Diſputes touching this Act, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſame, and every Clauſe and Thing therein contained, ſhall be deemed, adjudged, and taken to be a general Law, and that it ſhall not be needful to ſhew or ſet forth the ſame or any Clauſe thereof in Pleading, and that the ſame, and all Clauſes therein, ſhall be conſtrued moſt largely and beneficially for the preventing of all the Miſchiefs, Abuſes, Eſcapes, and other Inconveniencies herein provided againſt; and further, that if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall at any Time be ſued for putting in Execution any Power or Authority given by this Act, ſuch Perſon and Perſons ſhall and may plead the General Iſſue, and give in Evidence this Act, and the ſpecial Matter; and if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in ſuch Action ſhall be nonſuit, or a Verdict given for the Defendant or Defendants, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs diſcontinue their Action, or if upon Demurrer Judgment ſhall be given for the Defendant or Defendants, every ſuch Defendant or Defendants ſhall have his or their Double Coſts.

This Act to be a general Law; and Perſons ſued for executing the ſame may plead the General Iſſue, &c.

Defendant to have Double Coſts.

Penalty on Teller, &c. not duly charging himſelf with Monies lent or paid to the King.

Penalty on Tellers Clerks offending againſt this Act.

Buſineſs to be there tranſacted or performed, whereupon the preſerving and improving of the publick Credit do chiefly depend; be it enacted and declared by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Twentieth Day of April, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, from time to time, as any Sum or Sums of Money whatſoever ſhall be brought to the Receipt of the Exchequer to be there paid, either by way of Loan or Advance, or for or upon Account of any Tax, Aid, Impoſition, Revenue, or any other Cauſe or Occaſion whatſoever, the reſpective Teller or Tellers of the ſaid Receipt, into whoſe Office or Offices the ſame ſhall be brought or tendred, as ſoon as the ſaid Sum or Sums of Money ſhall be ſo brought or tendred, if the Officers and Miniſters belonging to the Talley Court in the ſaid Receipt be then attending, or elſe as ſoon as the ſame Officers and Miniſters ſhall be attending for the levying a Talley or Tallies for the ſame, ſhall without Delay receive the ſaid Money ſo brought or tendred, and weighing the ſame in entire Sums or otherwiſe, and making due Entry of the Weight and Tale thereof (according to the ancient Courſe) ſhall throw down or cauſe to be thrown down a Bill or Bills written upon Parchment, and ſigned by ſuch Teller or Tellers, into the ſaid Talley Court, whereby a Talley or Tallies (according to the Nature of the Payment) may be duly levied for the Diſcharge or Safety of the King's Subjects or others who ſhall make ſuch Payments, and whereby the ſaid Teller or Tellers may plainly and fairly be charged with the Sum or Sums ſo by him or them received, as Money in his or their Cuſtody being and remaining within the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer; and that any ſuch Teller or Tellers, into whoſe Office or Offices any Sum or Sums of Money ſhall be brought or tendred to be lent or paid to the King as aforeſaid, or any Clerk, Subſtitute, or Perſon employed or to be employed by any ſuch Teller or Tellers in the Buſineſs of his or their Office or Offices, ſhall not for ſuch Money ſo brought or tendred give any Note importing a Depoſitum, or any other private Note, Obligation, or Security whatſoever, to prevent or hinder the due charging thereof in the Exchequer as aforeſaid, upon Pain that any Teller who ſhall offend againſt this Act, by neglecting, delaying or refuſing to receive, and duly to charge himſelf with ſuch Money as ſhall be brought or tendred to be lent or paid to the King as aforeſaid, or by giving any private Note, Obligation or Security for any ſuch Money, whereby to prevent or hinder the due charging thereof in the Exchequer, as this Act requires, ſhall for ſuch Offence forfeit his Office, and be diſabled to ſerve His Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, in the ſame or any other Office or Place of Truſt whatſoever, and moreover for every ſuch Offence ſhall forfeit and loſe double Damages to the King, or the Party who ſhall ſuffer by ſuch Neglect, Delay, Refuſal, Prevention or Hindrance, beſides full Coſts of Suit, to be recovered as is herein after mentioned; and that all and every the Clerks, Subſtitutes, or Perſons employed or to be employed by any ſuch Teller in the Buſineſs of his or their Office or Offices, who ſhall offend againſt this Act, by giving any private Note, Obligation or Security, for any ſuch Money ſo brought or tendred to be lent or paid to the King, whereby or by Means whereof the due charging the ſame, or any Part thereof, in the Exchequer ſhall be prevented or hindred, ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit and loſe double the Sum for which ſuch private Note, Obligation or Security ſhall be given (to wit) One Moiety thereof to the King, and the other Moiety to ſuch Perſon and Perſons as will inform and ſue for the ſame, and ſhall alſo for any ſuch Offence be removed and expelled from the ſaid Receipt.

No Teller to charge himſelf with Receipt of Monies, but when Officers of the Talley Court are preſent, nor throw down a Bill for a Talley to be ſtruck until the Money be actually received. 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 22. §. 14.

Exception.

Penalty on Teller or Deputy offending.

Penalty on Tellers Clerk, &c.

II. And be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Twentieth Day of April, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, no Teller in the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer ſhall charge himſelf by his Bill with the Receipt of any Monies in the Exchequer, but at ſuch Times as the Officers of the Talley Court, their Deputies, or Subſtitutes, ſhall be there preſent, to levy a Talley or Tallies for the ſame; nor ſhall any Teller, or other Perſon employed by him, throw down, or cauſe to be thrown down into the ſaid Court, any Bill or Bills, owning or purporting the Receipt of any Sum or Sums of Money from any Lender of Money, Receiver, or any other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, upon which Bill or Bills a Talley or Tallies are to be levied, according to the Courſe of the ſaid Receipt, unleſs ſuch Teller reſpectively, or his Clerks, or Perſons employed by him, ſhall have actually received, and have then in his Office the very Money which ſhall be ſpecified in ſuch Bill or Bills reſpectively, except in ſuch Caſes where Tallies are or ſhall be levied by the ſpecial Warrants or Directions of the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or ſo many of them as ſhall be appointed to be a Quorum for the time being, or of the Treaſurer of the Exchequer for the time being, or where the Perſon for whom any Talley or Tallies ſhall be levied, or to whom ſuch Money ſhall be directed to be iſſued, ſhall at the ſame Time, or on the ſame Day of throwing down the ſaid Bill or Bills, give a Diſcharge according to the Courſe of the Exchequer, upon ſome Order or Debenture for the Money for which ſuch Bill ſhall be ſo thrown down, purſuant to the like Warrant or Directions to be had and received for that Purpoſe, upon Pain that any Teller who ſhall offend againſt this Act, by charging himſelf by his Bill at ſuch Times as the Officers of the Talley Court, their Deputies or Subſtitutes, ſhall not be there preſent as aforeſaid, or by throwing down his Bill or Bills, without firſt receiving and having the Money therein ſpecified in his Office as aforeſaid (except in ſuch Caſes as are before excepted) ſhall for ſuch Offence incur the like Forfeiture of Office and Diſability as are before mentioned, and for every ſuch Offence ſhall forfeit and loſe double the Sum ſo unduly charged by him (to wit) One Moiety thereof to the King, and the other Moiety to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as will inform and ſue for the ſame; and if ſuch Offence ſhall be committed by any Clerk or Subſtitute of ſuch Teller, then ſuch Clerk or Subſtitute, for every ſuch Offence, ſhall forfeit double the Sum ſo unduly charged, in like Manner, and ſhall be removed and expelled from the ſaid Receipt.

III. And to the end that none of His Majeſty's Treaſure, which ſhall be charged in the Receipt of the Exchequer, and ought to be there remaining, may be made uſe of or diſpoſed without ſufficient and lawful Authority in that Behalf, it is hereby alſo enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Teller in the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer, or any Clerk or Subſtitute of ſuch Teller, after the Bill or Bills of ſuch Teller ſhall be thrown down into the ſaid Talley-Court, to charge him with any Sum or Sums of Money which ought to be in his Office, ſhall diſpoſe, lend, pay, iſſue, make uſe of, or by any Way or Device whatſoever ſhall truſt or depart with ſuch Money, or any Part thereof, out of his Office, without an Order or Debenture for the ſame to be firſt made forth and directed by the Auditor of the ſaid Receipt for the time being, and recorded by the Clerk of the Pells for the time being, and taking a Receipt to diſcharge the King, according to the ancient Courſe and Practice of the ſaid Receipt, under the like Forfeitures, Diſability, and Penalties to be incurred by ſuch Tellers, their Clerks, and Subſtitutes reſpectively, for ſo doing, as are by this Act provided and to be inflicted for unduly charging any Money before it is actually received and in the Office, as aforeſaid.

No Teller, &c. to diſpoſe of any Money out of his Office, without an Order from the Auditor of the Receipt, &c.

IV. And that the King's Service, or the Buſineſs of particular Perſons, to be tranſacted at the ſaid Receipt from time to time, may not be delayed or prejudiced, be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Twentieth Day of April, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, the Chamberlains or Deputy Chamberlains, and ſuch other Officers, Miniſters, Clerks, and Deputies, as do belong to the Talley Court, and are neceſſary for the levying of Tallies, ſhall daily, except upon Sundays, and ſuch other Holidays as have been commonly obſerved at the Receipt of Exchequer, conſtantly attend there in their ſeveral Places, at leaſt from Eight of the Clock in the Forenoon, till One of the Clock in the Afternoon in every Year from Lady-day to Michaelmas, and from Nine of the Clock in the Forenoon till One of the Clock in the Afternoon in every Year from Michaelmas to Lady-day, without abſenting themſelves from the ſame, unleſs they reſpectively be ſick, or have Leave of Abſence, to be obtained from the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or the Treaſurer or Under Treaſurer of the Exchequer for the time being; in which Caſes of Sickneſs, or Leave of Abſence, the Room or Place of ſuch Perſon ſick, or having Leave to be abſent, ſhall be ſufficiently ſupplied in the mean Time as hath been accuſtomed; upon Pain that any ſuch Officer, Miniſter, Clerk, or Deputy, abſenting himſelf contrary to this Act, whereby the Buſineſs of the King, or of any others in the ſaid Receipt, ſhall be delayed or obſtructed, ſhall be liable to anſwer and make good, as well to the King as to the Party that ſhall ſuffer any Loſs or Damage by ſuch Delay or Obſtruction, double Damages, beſides full Coſts of Suit; and that the Auditor of the ſaid Receipt, and Writer of the Tallies and Counter Tallies, the Clerk of the Pells, the Four Tellers, and other the Officers and Miniſters of the ſaid Receipt for the time being, ſhall ſeverally by themſelves, at all Times when their own perſonal Attendance is neceſſary and required by the ancient Practice and Uſage there, and by themſelves, or their reſpective Deputies, Clerks, or Subſtitutes, at ſuch Times, and for ſuch Matters, wherein they or any of them may act by a Deputy, Clerk, or Subſtitute, give ſuch due and conſtant Attendance in their reſpective Places, as that His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, or any other Perſon or Perſons, who are to receive Money, or have other lawful Occaſions there, may not be delayed or prejudiced, for want of the due Attendance of ſuch Officers, Miniſters, Deputies, Clerks, or Subſtitutes reſpectively, under the like Penalty of anſwering double Damages, beſides full Coſts of Suit, as aforeſaid.

Officers of the Talley-Court to attend daily, Sundays and Holidays excepted; and in caſe of Sickneſs, his Room to be ſupplied.

Penalty on Officer abſenting without Leave.

Penalty on Officers of Exchequer not giving due Attendance.

V. And in Regard the Buſineſs of the ſaid Receipt is very much increaſed of late Years, and that a conſiderable Truſt is repoſed in the Chief Clerks there; it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Firſt Clerk in the Offices of the Auditor of the Receipt, the Clerk of the Pells, and of the Four Tellers aforeſaid, and every of them (who are and ſhall be appointed by thoſe Officers reſpectively, with the Approbation of the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or the Treaſurer of the Exchequer for the time being) ſhall be ſworn, and take their Corporal Oaths, for the due, juſt, and faithful Performance of all Matters and Things to be done and performed by ſuch Clerks in the ſaid Offices reſpectively; and the Oaths to that Effect ſhall and may be adminiſtred by the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or any of them, or by the Treaſurer or Under Treaſurer of the Exchequer, or by the Barons of the Court of Exchequer, or any of them, for the time being.

51 H. 3. ſt. 5.

Auditors Firſt Clerk, Clerk of the Pells, and Tellers Officers, to take an Oath.

VI. And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That none of the Monies which are, or hereafter ſhall be or remain, in the Receipt of the Exchequer, ſhall be thence iſſued or paid, or be deemed to be lawfully iſſued or paid, but by or in Purſuance of ſome ſufficient Grant or Authority from His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, or from ſome of His Royal Predeceſſors, under the Great Seal of England, or by virtue of ſome ſufficient Authority under the Privy Seal of His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, or purſuant to ſome Act or Acts of Parliament in that Behalf, and not otherwiſe.

Money not to be paid out of the Exchequer, but by the King's Authority.

VII. And for the better Satiſfaction of ſuch Perſons as have lent, or ſhall hereafter lend, any Monies upon the Credit of any Tax, Aid, Impoſition, or Revenue already granted, or hereafter to be granted, to His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, it is hereby further enacted, That there ſhall he a Table or Tables made and ſet up continually at the Door of the Auditor of the ſaid Receipt by him or his Clerks, ſhewing how far the Officers there have proceeded in the Repayment of Loans made upon the Credit of ſuch Taxes, Aids, Impoſitions, or Revenues, and how far the Monies which ſhall be paid into the Exchequer by the reſpective Receivers thereof do extend from time to time to diſcharge Principal and Intereſt upon the ſaid Taxes, Aids, Impoſitions, or Revenues reſpectively, whereby all Perſons concerned at all ſuch Times when the Office ought to be open, may without Trouble or Difficulty ſee what Progreſs is daily made in the Repayment of Loans upon the ſeveral Regiſters kept purſuant to any Act of Parliament in that Behalf.

A Table to be ſet up at the Door of the Auditor's Office, ſhewing the Repayment of the Loans.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Auditor of the Receipt for the time being ſhall from time to time (for his juſt and lawful Fees) duly enter or inroll all Letters Patents, and Letters of Privy Seal, for iſſuing of the King's Treaſure, and ſhall draw the Orders, or make the Debentures for the iſſuing thereof, as he ſhall be from time to time required by the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or the Treaſurer of the Exchequer, for the time being, and ſhall keep Entries thereof in Books to be provided and fairly written for that Purpoſe, and ſhall weekly take the Tellers Accounts, and make Certificate to the ſaid Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or the Treaſurer for the time being, of all Receipts, Iſſues, and Remains of the King's Money there, and ſhall make out the Impreſt

CAP. XXX.

An Act for ſupplying ſome Defects in the Laws for the Relief of the Poor of this Kingdom.

FORASMUCH as many poor Perſons chargeable to the Pariſh, Townſhip or Place, where they live, meerly for Want of Work, would in any other Place where ſufficient Employment is to be had, maintain themſelves and Families, without being burthenſome to any Pariſh, Townſhip or Place, but not being able to give ſuch Security as will or may be expected and required upon their coming to ſettle themſelves in any other Place, and the Certificates that have been uſually given in ſuch Caſes having been oftentimes conſtrued into a Notice in Hand Writing, they are for the moſt Part confined to live in their own Pariſhes, Townſhips or Places, and not permitted to inhabit elſewhere, though their Labour is wanted in many other Places, where the Increaſe of Manufactures would employ more Hands; be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That if any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, that from and after the Firſt Day of May, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, ſhall come into any Pariſh or other Place there to inhabit and reſide, ſhall at the ſame Time procure, bring and deliver to the Churchwardens or Overſeers of the Poor of the Pariſh or Place where any ſuch Perſon ſhall come to inhabit, or to any or either of them, a Certificate under the Hands and Seals of the Churchwardens and Overſeers of the Poor of any other Pariſh, Townſhip or Place, or the major Part of them, or under the Hands and Seals of the Overſeers of the Poor of any other Place where there are no Churchwardens, to be atteſted reſpectively by Two or more credible Witneſſes, thereby owning and acknowledging the Perſon or Perſons mentioned in the ſaid Certificate to be an Inhabitant or Inhabitants legally ſettled in that Pariſh, Townſhip or Place, every ſuch Certificate, having been allowed of and ſubſcribed by Two or more of the Juſtices of the Peace of the County, City, Liberty, Borough or Town Corporate, wherein the Pariſh or Place, from whence any ſuch Certificate ſhall come, doth lie, ſhall oblige the ſaid Pariſh or Place to receive and provide for the Perſon mentioned in the ſaid Certificate, together with his or her Family, as Inhabitants of that Pariſh, whenever he, ſhe or they ſhall happen to become chargeable to, or be forced to aſk Relief of the Pariſh, Townſhip or Place, to which ſuch Certificate was given; and then, and not before, it ſhall and may be lawful for any ſuch Perſon, and his or her Children, though born in that Pariſh, not having otherwiſe acquired a legal Settlement there, to be removed, conveyed and ſettled, in the Pariſh or Place from whence ſuch Certificate was brought.

Perſons coming to inhabit in any Pariſh or Place, and bringing with them a Certificate under the Churchwardens Hands, &c. owning them to be Inhabitants of ſuch other Pariſh, &c. the ſaid other Pariſh to provide for them whenever they aſk Relief of the Pariſh to which ſuch Certificate was given.
Explained by 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 11. and 12 Annæ, ſtat. 1. c. 18. §. 2.
Such Witneſs to ſwear to the Execution of Certificates, &c.
3 Geo. 2. c. 29. §. 8.
And ſhall not be removed before.

II. And to the end that the Money raiſed only for the Relief of ſuch as are as well Impotent as Poor, may not be miſapplied and conſumed by the idle, ſturdy and diſorderly Beggars; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every ſuch Perſon as from and after the Firſt Day of September, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, ſhall be upon the Collection, and receive Relief of any Pariſh or Place, and the Wife and Children of any ſuch Perſon cohabiting in the ſame Houſe (ſuch Child only excepted, as ſhall be by the Churchwardens and Overſeers of the Poor permitted to live at Home, in order to have the Care of and attend an impotent and helpleſs Parent) ſhall upon the Shoulder of the Right Sleeve of the uppermoſt Garment of every ſuch Perſon, in an open and viſible Manner, wear ſuch Badge or Mark as is herein after mentioned and expreſſed, that is to ſay, a large Roman P. together with the firſt Letter of the Name of the Pariſh or Place whereof ſuch poor Perſon is an Inhabitant, cut either in red or blue Cloth, as by the Churchwardens and Overſeers of the Poor it ſhall be directed and appointed: And if any ſuch poor Perſon ſhall at any Time neglect or refuſe to wear ſuch Badge or Mark, as aforeſaid, and in Manner as aforeſaid, it ſhall and may be lawful for any Juſtice of the Peace of the County, City, Liberty, or Town Corporate, where any ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, upon Complaint to him for that Purpoſe to be made, to puniſh every ſuch Offender for every ſuch Offence, either by ordering of his or her Relief or uſual Allowance on the Collection to be abridged, ſuſpended, or withdrawn, or otherwiſe by committing of any ſuch Offender to the Houſe of Correction, there to be whipt and kept to hard Labour, for any Number of Days not exceeding One and twenty, as to the ſaid Juſtice in his Diſcretion it ſhall ſeem moſt meet; and if any ſuch Churchwarden or Overſeer of the Poor, from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of September, ſhall relieve any ſuch poor Perſon, not having and wearing ſuch Badge or Mark, as aforeſaid, being thereof convicted, upon the Oath of One or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, before any Juſtice of the Peace of the County, City, Liberty, or Town Corporate, where any ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, ſhall forfeit for every ſuch Offence the Sum of Twenty Shillings, to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods of every ſuch Offender, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any ſuch Juſtice, One Moiety thereof to be to the Uſe of the Informer, and the other to the Poor of the Pariſh where the Offence ſhall be committed.

Perſons receiving Alms to wear a Badge on the Shoulder of the Right Sleeve.

Penalty on refuſing to wear the Badge.

Penalty on Churchwarden, &c. relieving poor Perſons not wearing ſuch Badge.

III. And

Juſtices, on Appeal to them concerning the Settlement of any poor Perſon, to award Coſts.

III. And for the more effectual preventing of vexatious Removals and frivolous Appeals; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Juſtices of the Peace of any County or Riding, in their General or Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, upon any Appeal before them there to be had, for and concerning the Settlement of any poor Perſon, or upon any Proof before them there to be made, of Notice of any ſuch Appeal to have been given by the proper Officer to the Churchwardens or Overſeers of the Poor of any Pariſh or Place (though they did not afterwards proſecute ſuch Appeal) ſhall, at the ſame Quarter Seſſions, award and order to the Party for whom and in whoſe Behalf ſuch Appeal ſhall be determined, or to whom ſuch Notice did appear to have been given, as aforeſaid, ſuch Coſts and Charges in the Law, as by the ſaid Juſtices in their Diſcretion ſhall be thought moſt reaſonable and juſt, to be paid by the Churchwardens, Overſeers of the Poor, or any other Perſon, againſt whom ſuch Appeal ſhall be determined, or by the Perſon that did give ſuch Notice, as aforeſaid; and if the Perſon ordered to pay ſuch Coſts ſhall happen to live in any County, Riding, City, or Town Corporate, or elſewhere, out of the Juriſdiction of the ſaid Court, it ſhall and may be lawful for any Juſtice of the Peace of the County, Riding, City, Liberty, or Town Corporate, wherein ſuch Perſon ſhall inhabit, and every ſuch Juſtice is hereby required, upon Requeſt to him for that Purpoſe to be made, and a true Copy of the Order for the Payment of ſuch Coſts produced, and proved by ſome credible Witneſs upon Oath, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal to cauſe the Money mentioned in that Order to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods of the Perſon that is ordered and ought to pay the ſame; and if no ſuch Diſtreſs can or may be had, to commit ſuch Perſon to the common Gaol of that County or Liberty, there to remain by the Space of Twenty Days.

Perſon ordered to pay Coſts living out of the Juriſdiction, Juſtice of the County, &c. where ſuch Perſon inhabits, may cauſe the Money to be levied; if no Diſtreſs, Offender to be committed to Gaol.

Single Perſons not deemed to have a good Settlement in any Pariſh under 1 Year's Continuance.

IV. And whereas ſome Doubts have ariſen touching the Settlement of unmarried Perſons, not having Child or Children, lawfully hired into any Pariſh or Town for One Year; be it therefore enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That no ſuch Perſon ſo hired as aforeſaid, ſhall be adjudged or deemed to have a good Settlement in any ſuch Pariſh or Townſhip, unleſs ſuch Perſon ſhall continue and abide in the ſame Service during the Space of One whole Year.

43 Eliz. c. 2.

V. And whereas by an Act made in the Three and fortieth Year of the Reign of Queen ELIZABETH, intituled, An Act for the Relief of the Poor, it is amongſt other Things enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for the Churchwardens and Overſeers of the Poor of any Pariſh, or the greater Part of them, by the Aſſent of Two Juſtices of the Peace, whereof One to be of the Quorum, to bind poor Children Apprentices, where they ſhall ſee convenient; but there being Doubts whether the Perſons to whom ſuch Children are to be bound, are compellable to receive ſuch Children as Apprentices, that Law hath failed of its due Execution; be it therefore enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That where any poor Children ſhall be appointed to be bound Apprentices, purſuant to the ſaid Act, the Perſon or Perſons, to whom they are ſo appointed to be bound, ſhall receive and provide for them, according to the Indenture ſigned and confirmed by the Two Juſtices of the Peace, and alſo execute the other Part of the ſaid Indentures; and if he or ſhe ſhall refuſe ſo to do, Oath being thereof made by One of the Churchwardens, or Overſeers of the Poor, before any Two of the Juſtices of the Peace for that County, Liberty, or Riding, he or ſhe for every ſuch Offence ſhall forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds, to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods of any ſuch Offender, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of the ſaid Juſtices, the ſame to be applied to the Uſe of the Poor of that Pariſh or Place where ſuch Offence was committed; ſaving always to the Perſon, to whom any poor Child ſhall be appointed to be bound an Apprentice, as aforeſaid, if he or ſhe ſhall think themſelves aggrieved thereby, his or her Appeal to the next General or Quarter Seſſions of the Peace for that County or Riding, whoſe Order therein ſhall be final, and conclude all Parties.

Poor Children bound Apprentices purſuant to the Act 43 Eliz. c. 2. thoſe to whom they are bound, to provide for them according to the Indenture ſigned by the Juſtices, &c.

Penalty on Offender.

Perſons to whom poor Children are bound, being aggrieved, may appeal to the Juſtices.

Appeal againſt any Order for Removal of poor Perſon to be determined at the Quarter Seſſions.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, the Appeal againſt any Order for the Removal of any poor Perſon from out of any Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, ſhall be had, proſecuted, and determined, at the General or Quarter Seſſions of the Peace for the County, Diviſion, or Riding, wherein the Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, from whence ſuch poor Perſon ſhall be removed, doth lie, and not elſewhere; any former Law or Statute to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

This Act not to make void Churchwardens, &c. Promiſe to take back any Perſon in caſe of Poverty, nor to hinder Juſtices of Peace at St. Albans from hearing Appeals for ſettling their Poor.

VII. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to make void any Promiſe or Engagement already made by the Churchwardens or Overſeers of the Poor of any Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, to receive and take back any Perſons, in caſe they ſhould become poor, and want Relief.

VIII. Provided, That this Act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall be conſtrued to hinder the Juſtices of the Peace within the Liberty of Saint Albans, from hearing and determining any Appeals for the Settlement of the Poor in their Quarter Seſſions, as they might have done before the making of this Act; any thing therein contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

By 9 Geo. 1. c. 7. §. 7. The like Proviſion is made for the Borough of St. Peter and Hundred of Naſſa Borough in Northamptonſhire.

C A P. XXXI.

An Act for the eaſier obtaining Partitions of Lands in Coparcenary, Joint Tenancy, and Tenancy in Common.

WHEREAS the Proceedings upon Writs of Partition between Coparceners by the Common Law or Cuſtom, Joint Tenants, and Tenants in Common, are found by Experience to be tedious, chargeable, and oftentimes ineffectual, by reaſon of the Difficulty of diſcovering the Perſons and Eſtates of the Tenants of the Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, to be divided, and the defective or dilatory executing and returning of the Proceſs of Summons, Attachment, and Diſtreſs, and other Impediments, in making and eſtabliſhing of Partitions, by reaſon of which divers Perſons having undivided Parts or Purparts are greatly oppreſſed and prejudiced, and the Premiſſes are frequently waſted and deſtroyed, or lie uncultivated and unmanured, ſo that the Profits of the ſame are totally or in a great Meaſure loſt: For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the King's moſt

Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, after Proceſs of Pone or Attachment returned upon a Writ of Partition, Affidavit being made by any credible Perſon of due Notice given of the ſaid Writ of Partition to the Tenant or Tenants to the Action, and a Copy thereof left with the Occupier, or Tenant or Tenants, or if they cannot be found, to the Wife, Son or Daughter (being of the Age of One and twenty Years or upwards) of the Tenant or Tenants, or to the Tenant in actual Poſſeſſion, by virtue of any Eſtate of Freehold, or for Term of Years, or uncertain Intereſt, or at Will, of the Manors, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, whereof the Partition is demanded (unleſs the ſaid Tenant in actual Poſſeſſion be Demandant in the Action) at leaſt Forty Days before the Day of Return of the ſaid Pone or Attachment, if the Tenant or Tenants to ſuch Writ, or any of them, or the true Tenant to the Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments as aforeſaid, ſhall not in ſuch Caſe, within Fifteen Days after Return of ſuch Writ of Pone or Attachment, cauſe an Appearance to be entred in ſuch Court where ſuch Writ of Pone or Attachment ſhall be returnable, then in Default of ſuch Appearance, the Demandant having entred his Declaration, the Court may proceed to examine the Demandant's Title, and Quantity of his Part and Purpart, and accordingly, as they ſhall find his Right, Part and Purpart to be, they ſhall for ſo much give Judgment by Default, and award a Writ to make Partition, whereby ſuch Proportion, Part and Purpart may be ſet out ſeverally; which Writ being executed after Eight Days Notice given to the Occupier, or Tenant or Tenants of the Premiſſes, and returned, and thereupon final Judgment entred, the ſame ſhall be good, and conclude all Perſons whatſoever after Notice as aforeſaid, whatever Right or Title they have, or may at any Time claim to have in any of the Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, mentioned in the ſaid Judgment and Writ of Partition, although all Perſons concerned are not named in any of the Proceedings, nor the Title of the Tenants truly ſet forth.

After Proceſs of Pone or Attachment returned on Writ of Partition, if the Tenant do not enter an Appearance within 15 Days,

Court may proceed to examine the Demandant's Title, give Judgment by Default, and award a Writ to make Partition.

II. Provided always, That if ſuch Tenant or Perſon concerned, or either of them, againſt whom, or their Right or Title, ſuch Judgment by Default is given, ſhall, within the Space of One Year after the firſt Judgment entred, or in caſe of Infancy, Coverture, Non ſanæ Memoriæ, or Abſence out of the Kingdom, within One Year after his, her or their Return, or the Determination of ſuch Inability, apply themſelves to the Court by Motion where ſuch Judgment is entred, and ſhew a good and probable Matter in bar of ſuch Partition, or that the Demandant hath not Title to ſo much as he hath recovered, then in ſuch Caſe the Court may ſuſpend or ſet aſide ſuch Judgment, and admit the Tenant and Tenants to appear and plead, and the Cauſe ſhall proceed according to due Courſe of Law, as if no ſuch Judgment had been given: And if the Court, upon hearing thereof, ſhall adjudge for the Firſt Demandant, then the ſaid Firſt Judgment ſhall ſtand confirmed, and be good againſt all Perſons whatſoever, except ſuch other Perſons as ſhall be abſent or diſabled as aforeſaid; and the Perſon or Perſons ſo appealing, ſhall be awarded thereupon to pay Coſts, or if within ſuch Time or Times aforeſaid, the Tenants or Perſons concerned, admitting the Demandant's Title, Parts and Purparts, ſhall ſhew to the Court an Inequality in the Partition, the Court may award a new Partition to be made, in Preſence of all Parties concerned (if they will appear) notwithſtanding the Return and filing upon Record the former, which ſaid Second Partition returned and filed, ſhall be good and firm for ever againſt all Perſons whatſoever, except as before excepted.

If Tenant or other ſhall in one Year after Judgment entred, or in caſe of Infancy, &c. ſhew a good Matter in bar of ſuch Partition, &c.

the Court may ſet aſide ſuch Judgment.

Perſon appealing to pay Coſts.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Plea in Abatement ſhall be admitted or received in any Suit for Partition, nor ſhall the ſame be abated by reaſon of the Death of any Tenant.

No Plea in Abatement to be admitted.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That when the High Sheriff, by reaſon of Diſtance, Infirmity, or any other Hindrance, cannot conveniently be preſent at the Execution of any Judgment in Partition, in ſuch Caſe the Under Sheriff, in Preſence of Two Juſtices of the Peace of the County where the Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments to be divided do lie, ſhall and may proceed to Execution of any Writ of Partition, by Inquiſition in due Form of Law, as if the High Sheriff were then perſonally preſent; and the High Sheriff thereupon ſhall, and is hereby enabled and required to make the ſame Return, as if he were perſonally preſent at ſuch Execution: And in caſe ſuch Partition be made, returned and filed, he or they that were Tenant or Tenants of any of the ſaid Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, or any Part or Purpart thereof, before they were divided, ſhall be Tenant or Tenants for ſuch Part ſet out ſeverally to the reſpective Landlords or Owners thereof, by and under the ſame Conditions, Rents, Covenants and Reſervations, where they are or ſhall be ſo divided, and the Landlords and Owners of the ſeveral Parts and Purparts ſo divided and allotted as aforeſaid ſhall warrant and make good unto the reſpective Tenants, the ſaid ſeveral Parts ſeverally, after ſuch Partition, as they are or were bound to do by any Copy, Leaſes or Grants of their reſpective Parts before any Partition made; and in caſe any Demandant be Tenant in actual Poſſeſſion to the Tenant to the Action for his Part and Proportion, or any Part thereof, in the Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, to be divided by virtue of a Writ of Partition as aforeſaid, for any Term of Life, Lives or Years, or uncertain Intereſt, the ſaid Tenant ſhall ſtand and be poſſeſſed of the ſaid Purparts and Proportions for the like Term, and under the ſame Conditions and Covenants, when it is ſet out ſeverally in purſuance of this or any other Act, Statute or Law to that Purpoſe.

Where High Sheriff cannot be preſent at the Execution of a Judgment in Partition, Under Sheriff in Preſence of Two Juſtices may proceed thereupon.

Tenants before the Diviſion, to be Tenants under the ſame Conditions, &c.

And Landlords to make good to their Tenants their ſaid Parts, as before Partition made.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the reſpective Sheriffs, their Under Sheriffs and Deputies, and in caſe of Sickneſs or Diſability in the High Sheriff, all Juſtices of Peace, within their reſpective Diviſions, ſhall give due Attendance to the executing ſuch Writ of Partition, unleſs reaſonable Cauſe be ſhewn to the Court upon Oath, and there allowed of, or otherwiſe be liable every of them to pay unto the Demandant ſuch Coſts and Damages as ſhall be awarded by the Court, not exceeding Five Pounds, for which the Demandant or Plaintiff may bring his Action in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed, allowed, nor any more than One Imparlance; and in caſe the Demandant ſhall not agree to pay unto the Sheriffs or Under Sheriffs, Juſtices and Jurors, ſuch Fees as they ſhall reſpectively demand for their Pains and Attendance in the Execution of the ſame, and returning thereof, then the Court ſhall award what each Perſon ſhall receive, having Reſpect to the Diſtance of the Place from their reſpective Habitations, and the Time they muſt neceſſarily ſpend about the ſame, for which they may ſeverally bring their Actions as aforeſaid.

Sheriffs, Under Sheriffs, &c. to give due Attendance for executing Writs of Partition.

Demandant not paying Sheriff, &c. his Fees, Court to award the ſame.

This Act to continue for 7 Years.

VI. Provided always, That this Act ſhall continue for Seven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer. Made perpetual by 3 & 4 Annæ, cap. 18. ſect. 2.

II. And for the making the Purpoſe and Deſign of the ſaid Act more effectual, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the One and twentieth Day of April, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, the Party or Parties proſecuting any Certiorari, to remove any Indictment or Preſentment from the Quarter or General Seſſions of the Peace, may find Two ſufficient Manucaptors, who ſhall enter into a Recognizance before any One of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Court of King's Bench, in the ſame Sum, and under the ſame Condition, as is required by the ſaid Act, whereof Mention ſhall be made on the Back of ſuch Writ, under the Hand of the Juſtice taking the ſame, which ſhall be as effectual and available to all Intents and Purpoſes, to ſtay or ſuperſede any further Proceedings upon any Indictment or Preſentment, for the Removal of which the ſaid Writ of Certiorari ſhall be granted, as if the Recognizance had been taken before any One of the Juſtices of the Peace of the County or Place where ſuch Indictment was found, or Preſentment made; and alſo it ſhall be added to the Condition of every Recognizance taken by virtue of this and the ſaid Act, that the Party or Parties proſecuting ſuch Writ of Certiorari, ſhall appear from Day to Day in the ſaid Court of King's Bench, and not depart until he or they ſhall be diſcharged by the ſaid Court.

Party to appear daily in the King's Bench Court until diſcharged.

CAP. XXXIV.

An Act for the leſſening the Duty upon Tin and Pewter exported, and granting an Equivalent for the ſame by a Duty upon Drugs.

WHEREAS upon due Conſideration of the great Abatement in the Price of Tin ſince the Book of Rates was ſettled, it has been found juſt to reduce the Duty payable on the Exportation thereof to a more reaſonable Par with other Goods of the Product of England; be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Tenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, there ſhall be paid on an Entry of Tin to be exported, for every hundred Weight, containing One hundred and twelve Pounds of ſuch Tin unwrought, the Sum of Three Shillings, and for every hundred Weight of Tin wrought, commonly called Pewter, containing One hundred and twelve Pounds, the Sum of Two Shillings, and ſo in Proportion for any greater or leſſer Quantity of either, and no more; any thing in the Book of Rates to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Tin exported to pay 3 s. per 100 wt. Wrought Tin called Pewter 2 s. per 100 wt.

11 Car. 2. c. 4.

II. And whereas by an Act made in the Twelfth Year of the late King CHARLES the Second, intituled, A Subſidy granted to the King of Tunnage and Poundage, and other Sums of Money, payable upon Merchandizes exported and imported; which Act is to have Continuance until the Firſt Day of Auguſt, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, it is provided, That all Drugs, imported directly from the Place of their Growth in Engliſh built Shipping, be rated One third Part of what is charged in the ſaid Book of Rates, and no more: Now for a full Recompence to ſuch Perſons who may have any Loan upon the ſaid Duty on Tin ſo taken off as aforeſaid; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from the ſaid Tenth Day of May, the Subſidy to be received for all Drugs, imported directly from the Place of their Growth in Engliſh built Shipping, ſhall be according to the full Value on the reſpective Species enumerated in the Book of Rates, and not according to Drugs imported in Engliſh Shipping to pay the full Value, otherwiſe imported treble the Value; Dyers Drugs excepted.

to the ſaid Abatement, and for all Drugs otherwiſe imported Treble ſuch full Value; any thing in the ſaid recited Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

III. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend to the laying a further Duty on any Sort of Drugs uſed in Dying. 8 Geo. 1. c. 15. §. 10.

Duties on Drugs are continued by 6 Annæ, c. 22. for 4 Years, and made perpetual by 7 Annæ, c. 7. §. 26.

CAP. XXXV.

An Act for raiſing the Militia for the Year One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven; although the Month's Pay formerly advanced be not repaid. EXP.

CAP. XXXVI.

An Act for the further Encouragement of the Manufacture of Luſtrings and Alamodes within this Realm, and for the better preventing the Importation of the ſame.

WHEREAS it hath been always found of great Advantage to encourage the ſetting up and making of new Manufactures within this Realm, whereby the Exportation of Money to procure foreign Commodities is prevented, the Wealth of the Kingdom increaſed, and the Poor are employed: And whereas there are great Quantities of Alamodes and Luſtrings conſumed by His Majeſty's Subjects, which till of late Years were imported from foreign Parts, and thereby the Treaſure of this Nation much exhauſted, but are now manufactured in England by the Royal Luſtring Company, to as great Perfection as in any other Country, whereby many Thouſands may be employed: And whereas Proviſion hath been made by divers Laws for the Encouragement of the ſaid Manufacture, and for preventing the Importation of ſuch Foreign Silks without paying the Duties charged thereon, which have been frequently eluded by the ſubtil Practices of evil diſpoſed Perſons: For Remedy thereof, and for the further Encouragement of the ſaid Manufacture, be it enacted, and it is hereby enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That every Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall import any foreign Alamodes or Luſtrings, from Parts beyond the Seas, into any Port or Place within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, without paying the Rates, Cuſtoms, Impoſitions, and Duties, that ſhall be due and payable for the ſame at ſuch Importation, or ſhall import any Alamodes or Luſtrings prohibited by Law to be imported, or ſhall by way of Inſurance or otherwiſe, undertake or agree to deliver, or in purſuance of any Undertaking, Agreement, or Inſurance, ſhall deliver, or cauſe to be delivered, any ſuch Goods or Merchandize, and every Perſon or Perſons who ſhall agree to pay any Sum or Sums of Money, Præmium, or Reward for inſuring or conveying any ſuch Goods or Merchandize, or ſhall knowingly receive or take the ſame into his, her, or their Houſe, Shop, or Warehouſe, Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall and may be proſecuted for any the Offences or Matters aforeſaid, in any Action, Suit, or Information, and thereupon a Capias in the firſt Proceſs, ſpecifying the Sum of the Penalties ſued for, ſhall and may iſſue, and ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be obliged to give ſufficient Bail and Security by natural born Subjects, Perſons naturalized, or Denizens, to the Officer ſerving or executing the Writ or Proceſs on or againſt him, her, or them, to appear in the Court out of which ſuch Writ or Proceſs did iſſue, at the Day of the Return of ſuch Writ or Proceſs, to anſwer ſuch Suit or Proſecution, and ſhall at the Time of ſuch Appearance, give ſufficient Bail or Security by ſuch Perſons as aforeſaid, in the ſaid Court, to anſwer and pay all the Forfeitures and Penalties incurred for ſuch Offence, in caſe he, ſhe, or they ſhall be convict thereof, or to yield his, her, or their Bodies to Priſon.

may be proſecuted, and a Capias thereupon be iſſued, &c.

II. And whereas by an Act made in the Fourth and Fifth Years of King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, intituled, An Act for continuing ſeveral Acts therein mentioned, and for charging certain Joint Stocks, a Penalty of Five hundred Pounds is laid upon Perſons inſuring to import prohibited Goods, or Goods without paying Duties and Cuſtoms, and alſo a Penalty of Five hundred Pounds upon any Perſon who ſhall be ſo inſured: For the more eaſy and certain Recovery of the ſame it is hereby further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons to ſue for or proſecute, and to recover the ſaid Penalty by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law, ſhall be allowed, nor more than One Imparlance.

4&5 W.&M. c. 15.

Penalty in the Act 4 & 5. W. & M c. 15. for inſuring prohibited Goods may be ſued and recovered by Action of Debt, &c.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Black Alamodes and Luſtrings whereſoever manufactured, which ſhall be found in the Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion of any Perſon or Perſons, not marked and ſealed with the Mark and Seal or Marks and Seals of the Cuſtom Houſe, or of the Royal Luſtring Company, ſhall and are hereby declared and adjudged to be forfeited, and ſhall or may be ſeized as forfeited, whether the ſame have been before ſuch Seizure bought and ſold, or not, and the Perſon, in whoſe Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion the ſame ſhall be found, ſhall incur all the Penalties contained in a Clauſe relating to Alamodes and Luſtrings now in force, in a certain Act made in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majeſty certain Duties upon Glaſs Wares and Earthen Bottles, Coals, and Culm, for the carrying on the War againſt France.

Black Alamodes and Luſtrings not having the Cuſtom Houſe or Royal Luſtring Company's Marks to be forfeited. Perſon in whoſe Cuſtody found, liable to the Penalties in 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 18. §. 28.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Alamodes and Luſtrings, that from and after the Tenth Day of April, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, ſhall be ſeized and forfeited by virtue of any Law now in force, ſhall be conſumed or uſed in this Kingdom, but ſhall be exported again, and not ſold otherwiſe than on Condition to be exported: And for preventing their Conſumption in England, the ſame ſhall immediately on Seizure, be carried to the Cuſtom Houſe Warehouſe in London, and there ſuch as are forfeited ſhall be ſold by Inch of Candle, on Condition to be exported, and not delivered to the Buyer or any other Perſon, but only to be carried on Ship board in order to Exportation, and not until ſufficient Security be given, that the ſame and every Part thereof ſhall be exported, and not landed again in any Part of England, Dominion of Wales, or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed; which Security ſhall be diſcharged by Certificate from the Chief Magiſtrate or Officer of the Place or Port where ſuch Goods ſhall be landed, or by Oath made that the ſame were loſt at Sea, and not otherwiſe.

Alamodes and Luſtrings ſeized and forfeited, to be exported again; on Seizure to be carried to the Cuſtom Houſe, and there ſold. Security to be given for Exportation, &c.

V. And

On Exportation of foreign Luſtrings, &c. Exporter to receive no Drawback, &c.

V. And foraſmuch as there is no Reaſon that any of His Majeſty's Subjects ſhould have Luſtrings and Alamodes at a cheaper Rate than the Inhabitants of this Kingdom, or that it ſhould be more profitable to export foreign Luſtrings and Alamodes beyond the Seas, than ſuch as are made in this Kingdom, which would happen, in caſe the Exporter be allowed to draw or receive back, on Exportation, all or any Part of the Duties paid or payable on the ſaid Commodities on Importation of the ſame; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That on Exportation of foreign Luſtrings or Alamodes, the Exporter ſhall not be intitled to receive any Drawback, or be repaid the Duties, Cuſtoms, or Impoſitions paid, payable, or ſecured, on Importation of the ſame, or any Part thereof; any Law, Statute, Cuſtom, or Uſage, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Perſons imbezelling, &c. any Silk delivered to be wrought up, and alſo Buyers, Receivers, &c. to be liable to the Penalties in the Act 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 15. & 20 Car. 2. c. 6.

VI. And whereas the Silk Manufacturers are obliged, from time to time, to deliver to their Agents, Journeymen, Warpers and Winders, great Quantities of Silk to work up, which is often by them embezelled, ſold, or pawned, to the great Detriment of the Silk Manufacturers of this Kingdom; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon or Perſons whoſoever, that ſhall imbezel, pawn, ſell, or detain any of the Silk ſo delivered, or after the ſame is wrought up, and alſo all and every Receiver and Receivers, Buyer and Buyers, or ſuch as take to pawn any of the ſaid Goods, ſhall be ſubject and liable to all the Penalties, Forfeitures, and Puniſhments contained, mentioned, and provided, in One Act of Parliament made in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for regulating the Trade of Silk Throwing; and in another Act made in the Twentieth Year of the ſaid King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act to regulate the Trade of Silk Throwing.

Weavers having Alamodes and Luſtrings by them not ſealed, upon Proof on Oath they were manufactured in England, may have them ſealed gratis at the Luſtring Company's Warehouſe, &c.

VII. And whereas ſeveral Weavers have certain Pieces of Black Alamodes and Luſtrings by them, which have not been ſealed by the Officers of the Cuſtoms, or Royal Luſtring Company, and are liable by Law to be forfeited, if ſold unſealed, as aforeſaid, and the ſaid Weavers would alſo thereby incur other Penalties; yet in Commiſeration of their Condition, it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every ſuch Pieces of Alamodes and Luſtrings, as do or ſhall appear upon Oath made in Writing before any Juſtice of the Peace by One or more credible Witneſſes (who have never been proſecuted for importing Goods without paying the Duties charged on the ſame, or for importing Goods prohibited by Law to be imported) to be manufactured within this Realm, on or before the Tenth Day of April, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, ſhall be brought to the Royal Luſtring Company's Warehouſe, and the Evidence of their being manufactured within this Kingdom being there produced, ſhall be marked and ſealed gratis by the ſaid Company, before the Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, and be lawful to be ſold, as if manufactured by the ſaid Company.

Weavers to give a weekly Account to whom they ſold ſuch Goods ſo ſealed.

VIII. And for preventing the Sale of other Alamodes and Luſtrings under the Colour of theſe ſo marked and ſealed, as aforeſaid; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Weavers ſhall give an Account weekly to the ſaid Company, to whom they have ſold ſuch Goods ſo ſealed and marked as aforeſaid, under the Penalty of double the Value of ſuch Goods ſo ſold, for every ſuch Omiſſion, to be recovered in the ſame Manner as other the Penalties inflicted by this Act are directed and appointed to be recovered, and that the ſaid Company ſhall keep a Regiſter of the ſaid Sales.

CAP. XXXVII.

An Act for explaining and enforcing the Act for paving and cleanſing the Streets within the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and Borough of Southwark, and weekly Bills of Mortality, and Streets adjoining thereunto; and for widening the Street at the South End of London Bridge.

2 W. & M. ſſ. 2. c. 8.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Second Year of the Reign of His Majeſty and the late Queen MARY, intituled, An Act for paving and cleanſing the Streets in the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and Suburbs and Liberties thereof, and Out Pariſhes in the County of Middleſex, and in the Borough of Southwark, and other Places within the weekly Bills of Mortality in the County of Surrey, and for regulating the Markets therein mentioned, there are ſeveral Omiſſions which hinder the Intentions of the ſaid Act; For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Tenth Day of April, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, all and every Perſon and Perſons inhabiting in the ſaid Pariſhes of Middleſex and Weſtminſter, and in the Liberties thereof, and in the Borough of Southwark, or in any of the Streets and Lanes, or Alleys, comprized within the weekly Bills of Mortality, and the Town of Kenſington, ſhall twice in every Week (that is to ſay) on every Wedneſday and Saturday at the leaſt, between the Hours of Six and Nine of the Clock in the Forenoon, ſweep and cleanſe, or cauſe to be ſwept and cleanſed, all the Streets, Lanes, Alleys, and publick Places, before their reſpective Houſes, Buildings, and Walls, and the Buildings and Walls of Churches and other publick Places, to the end the Dirt and Soil in the ſaid Streets may be heaped ready for the Scavenger to carry away, upon Pain to forfeit Ten Shillings for every Offence, to be recovered as other the Penalties and Forfeitures in and by the ſaid recited Act are ordered and directed.

Perſons inhabiting within the Bills of Mortality, to cauſe the Streets, &c. to be ſwept twice a Week.

Penalty on Offender.

Forfeitures how to be applied.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Conviction upon this or the ſaid Act ſhall be by the View or Knowledge of any One or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, then One Half of the Penalty therein mentioned ſhall be to the Relief of the Poor, and the other Moiety (if for a Default of Pavement) to be employed for and towards the repairing, paving, and cleanſing the ſaid Streets and Places, to be paid to the Scavenger of the ſaid Place, and by them employed for that Uſe, or otherwiſe to the Relief of the Poor, as in and by the ſaid recited Act is ordered and directed.

Juſtices to cauſe both Sides of the Streets or Lanes, &c. to be paved as well without the Bills of Mortality as within.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any Place within the Bills of Mortality aforeſaid ſhall be by the Juſtices of the Peace ordered to be paved, and the other Side or Part of the ſaid Street, Lane, or Place, be out of the ſaid Bills of Mortality, that in that Caſe it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Juſtices of Peace to cauſe the ſaid other Part or Side of the ſaid Street, Lane, and Place, to be alſo paved by the reſpective Inhabitants next adjoining, under the ſame Penalty, and in the ſame Manner, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſame had been within the ſaid Bills of Mortality; any thing in the ſaid recited Act, or any other Act whatſoever to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

IV. And whereas by the ſaid Act made in the Second Year of the Reign of His now Majeſty and the late Queen MARY, intituled, An Act for paving and cleanſing the Streets in the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and Suburbs and Liberties thereof, and Out Pariſhes in the County of Middleſex, and in the Borough of Southwark, and other Places within the weekly Bills of Mortality in the County of Surrey, and for regulating the Markets therein mentioned, the breeding, feeding, and keeping any Sort of Swine within the Backſides of paved Streets of the ſaid Cities, Borough or Pariſhes, where the Houſes are contiguous, is prohibited, on Pain of forfeiting all ſuch Swine, which nevertheleſs hath not prevented the ſame, but that the Inhabitants of the ſaid Cities and Borough are ſtill much annoyed, and the Health and Lives of many Families endangered by the unwholſome Savour of ſuch Swine, which are ſtill in great Numbers kept within the Backſides of ſeveral paved Streets of the ſaid Cities and Borough: For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Act, and the Clauſe therein againſt the breeding, feeding, and keeping of Swine, ſhall be from and after the ſaid Tenth Day of April, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, effectually put in Execution againſt all Perſons whatſoever who ſhall preſume to breed, feed, or keep any Manner of Swine, within any Part of the Houſes or Backſides of the paved Streets or Lanes of the ſaid Cities, Borough or Pariſhes, ſo far as the contiguous Buildings of them or any of them ſhall extend, or within the Space of Fifty Yards thereof.

2 W. & M. ſt. 2. c. 8. §. 20.

Clauſe in the Act aforeſaid againſt breeding or feeding of Swine, to be put in Execution.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where there is any Liberty, Precinct or Vill, in any Pariſh or Pariſhes within the weekly Bills of Mortality, that uſes to repair their own Highways, and that are or ſhall be unable to repair the ſame, and alſo to perform the Days Works which they are liable to do to the other Highways within the Pariſh or Pariſhes wherein ſuch Liberty, Precinct or Vill lieth, then from and after the ſaid Tenth Day of April, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Juſtices of the Peace, at their Special Seſſions to be held every Four Months for the Conſideration of the Highways, to allow or appoint ſo many or ſuch a Proportion of the Days Works, as are yearly to be peformed by the reſpective Inhabitants of any ſuch Liberty, Precinct or Vill, as the ſaid Juſtices in their Diſcretions ſhall think fit, to be employed by the ſame Inhabitants of ſuch Liberty, Precinct or Vill, in the repairing of the ſame Highway or Highways, within any ſuch Liberty, Precinct or Vill, which Days Works ſo to be allowed or appointed, the Inhabitants of the ſame Liberty, Precinct or Vill, ſhall do and perform accordingly, and then only the Reſidue of the Days Works as ſuch Inhabitants are liable to do, ſhall be employed in repairing of the other Highways within the Pariſh or Pariſhes wherein ſuch Liberty, Precinct or Vill lieth; any Act, Statute, Uſage or Cuſtom to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

If any Liberty, Precinct, &c. in the weekly Bills of Mortality be unable to repair their own Highways, and perform the Days Work, the Juſtices may allow ſo many Days Works as they think fit for repairing the ſame, &c.

VI. And it is hereby further enacted and declared, for avoiding any Doubt touching the paving, repairing and amending ſo much of the ancient Highway now built on both Sides thereof, leading from Tattenham Court near St. Giles's Pound towards Tiburn, That ſo much of the ſaid ancient Way ſhall be hereafter repaired, paved, and maintained by ſuch Perſon and Perſons as have heretofore uſed to repair, pave or maintain the ſame, under the Penalties aforeſaid; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Highway leading from Tattenham Court towards Tiburn to be paved by ſuch as heretofore uſed to pave the ſame.

VII. And whereas the Mayor, Commonalty, and Citizens of the City of London, have of late Years, with great Charge and Difficulty, pulled down and new built all the Houſes upon London Bridge, and cauſed the Street or common Paſſage over the ſame to be opened and enlarged; which good and publick Intention is not yet perfected by reaſon of certain Tenements on or near the South End of the ſaid Bridge, which yet continue a great Annoyance and Prejudice to Trade and Commerce, by occaſioning frequent Stops, and to the endangering the Lives of many Paſſengers; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That Sir Robert Clayton, Sir William Aſhhurſt, Sir Richard Onſlow Baronet, Denzill Onſlow Eſquire, Anthony Bowyer Eſquire, Charles Cox Eſquire, John Arnold Eſquire, Samuel Lewyn Eſquire, Thomas Wymondeſall Eſquire, William Gulſton Eſquire, Francis Wilkinſon Eſquire, Thomas Roffey Eſquire, John Riches Eſquire, Sir John Fleet, Sir John Parſons, Sir James Houblon, Sir Richard Levett, Spencer Cooper Eſquire, Joſeph Scriven Eſquire, or any Eleven of them, ſhall have full Power and Authority, and are hereby impowered to treat and agree with the Owners and Occupiers of any ſuch Houſes as they ſhall judge fit to be removed, rebuilt, or pulled down, or any Part of them, and upon Payment of ſuch Sum or Sums of Money ſo agreed upon, are hereby authorized to appoint Workmen to pull down the ſaid Houſes, or cauſe the ſaid Owners or Occupiers to rebuild accordingly; and this Act ſhall be ſufficient to indemnify the ſaid Commiſſioners, and all Perſons authorized by them, againſt the Owner or Owners, or Occupiers, and the Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns of any of the ſaid Owners or Occupiers, as if the ſame had been ſold by Deed, Feoffment, Bargain and Sale, or other Aſſurance in the Law, and done by Fine and Recovery, or any other Way whatſoever; and if there ſhall be any Perſons, Bodies Corporate or Collegiate, that ſhall wilfully refuſe to treat and agree as aforeſaid, or through Diſability by Nonage, Coverture or Special Intail, or other Impediment, cannot, that in ſuch Caſes the ſaid Commiſſioners are hereby authorized, by virtue of this Act, to iſſue out a Warrant or Warrants to the Sheriffs of London or Surrey for the time being, as the Caſe ſhall require (who are hereby required accordingly) to impanel and return a Jury before the Commiſſioners, or any Eleven of them, which Jury, upon their Oaths, to be adminiſtred by the ſaid Commiſſioners, are to inquire and aſſeſs ſuch Damage and Recompence as they ſhall judge fit to be awarded to the Owners and Occupiers or either of them of any ſuch Houſes, or any Part thereof, as well in Reſpect to his or their Loſs in Trade, as his or their reſpective Intereſt and Eſtates in the ſaid Houſes, as by the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall be adjudged fit to be pulled down for the Purpoſes aforeſaid; and ſuch Verdict of the Jury, and Judgment of the ſaid Commiſſioners thereupon, and the legal Payment or Tender of the Sum or Sums of Money ſo awarded and adjudged, ſhall be binding to all Intents and Purpoſes againſt the ſaid Parties, their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, and others claiming any Title or Intereſt in the ſaid Houſes, or in the Ground whereon they ſtand, or thereunto belonging, and ſhall be a full Authority for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Commiſſioners Names.

Commiſſioners impowered to treat with the Owners of ſuch Houſes on London Bridge as they ſhall think fit to be pulled down, &c.

Act to indemnify the Commiſſioners againſt the Owners, &c.

In caſe of wilful Refuſal to treat, or through Diſability by Nonage, &c. Sheriffs of London or Surrey to return a Jury to aſſeſs Damage and Recompence, &c.

Verdict of the Jury to be binding.

And a full Authority to the Commiſſioners to cauſe the ſaid Houſes to be removed.

Eleven of them, to cauſe the ſame to be executed, and the ſaid Houſes accordingly to be removed and pulled down, or any Part of them.

Commiſſioners to take their Oaths for executing the Truſt repoſed in them by this Act.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon ſhall be enabled to act as a Commiſſioner, to the Intents and Purpoſes aforeſaid, until he ſhall have firſt taken his corporal Oath before the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of England for the time being, for the due and impartial Execution of the Truſt by this Act repoſed in him. See 2 Geo. 2. cap. 11.

Anno Regni GULIELMI III. nono.

AT the Parliament begun at Weſtminſter the Two and twentieth Day of November, Anno Dom. 1695. in the Seventh Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord WILLIAM the Third, by the Grace of God, of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. And from thence continued by ſeveral Prorogations and Adjournments to the Third [a] Day of December, 1697, being the Third Seſſion of this preſent Parliament.

[a] On the Roll it is to the Fifth Day of July, 1698.

CAP. I.

An Act againſt correſponding with the late King JAMES and His Adherents.

EXP.

WHEREAS upon the Concluſion of Peace between His Majeſty and the French King, it is become neceſſary for the carrying on a Trade and Commerce between England and France, that the Subjects of each Kingdom ſhould have the Freedom of going and coming out of and into the ſaid Kingdoms reſpectively: And whereas ſuch Perſons who have been in Arms againſt His Majeſty, or have been engaged in traiterous Conſpiracies againſt his Sacred Perſon and Government, and other diſaffected Perſons, may take Advantage, and be encouraged from thence to form and carry on treaſonable Deſigns and Practices againſt His Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, unleſs ſome Proviſion be made for Prevention thereof; be it therefore, &c.

King's Subjects who have ſince 11 December, 1688, gone into France without Licence, or borne Arms in the French King's Service, or under the late King James, and ſhall return into England without Licence, guilty of High Treaſon. Subjects aiding or holding Correſpondence with the late King James, &c. or remitting Money for his Uſe, guilty of High Treaſon.

3 & 4 W. & M. c. 13.

IV. And whereas by an Act made at a Seſſion of Parliament held in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty and the late Queen MARY, intituled, An Act againſt correſponding with their Majeſties Enemies, it was amongſt other Things enacted, That if any of their Majeſties Subjects ſhould from and after the Tenth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety one, without Licence from their Majeſties, voluntarily go or repair, or imbark in any Veſſel with an Intent to go into France, or any Dominions of the French King, and ſhould be upon full Proof convicted thereof, he ſhould be taken, deemed, and adjudged to be guilty of High Treaſon, and ſhould ſuffer ſuch Penalties as in caſe of High Treaſon: And whereas ſome Doubt hath ariſen whether the ſaid Clauſe be ſtill in Force: Therefore for avoiding all Diſputes thereupon, be it declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Clauſe was intended to have Continuance only during the late War with France; and that the ſaid Clauſe and every Part thereof is now determined and of no Force.

Clauſe determined.

Perſons returning without Licence, &c. unleſs they obtain Licence to ſtay, guilty of High Treaſon. Perſons accepting Pardons or Grants of Honour, &c. from the late King James, guilty of High Treaſon. Pardons, &c. to be delivered up; and in Default guilty of High Treaſon. Perſons not puniſhable for Grants ſo delivered up. Grant of Eſtate forfeited by this Act void.

CAP. II.

An Act to prevent the further Currency of any hammered Silver Coin of this Kingdom, and for recoining ſuch as is now in being, and for the making out new Exchequer Bills, where the former Bills are or ſhall be filled up by Indorſements.

8 & 9 W. 3. c. 2.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the laſt Seſſion of this preſent Parliament, intituled, An Act for the further remedying the ill State of the Coin of the Kingdom, it was amongſt other Things enacted, That from and after the Firſt Day of December, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſix, no hammered Silver Coin of this Kingdom ſhould be current in any Payment whatſoever (except only ſuch as were therein before mentioned) otherwiſe than by Weight only, after the Rate of Five Shillings and Two Pence for every Ounce of Sterling Silver: And whereas by One other Act made in the ſame Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to His Majeſty, as well by a Land Tax, as by ſeveral Subſidies, and other Duties payable for One Year, it was amongſt other Things enacted (to the end that ſuch hammered Silver Coin might be made current in all Payments at the ſaid Rate of Five Shillings and Two Pence by the Ounce) That from and after the Firſt Day of February, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſix, the Tender of all ſuch hammered Silver Money (except in ſuch Payments where the ſame were by the ſaid firſt recited Act directed to be received at a greater Value) in any Payment or Payments whatſoever, to be made by any Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to any other Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, at the Rate of Five Shillings and Two Pence for every Ounce Troy, ſhould be, and be deemed to be a good and ſufficient Tender in Law: And that the Refuſal thereof in any ſuch Payment or Payments ſhould be, and be adjudged to be a Refuſal of ſo much of the lawful Coins of this Kingdom, as fully and effectually, as if any ſuch Tender and Refuſal be had and made of the lawful and current Coins of this Realm; which ſaid Clauſes and Proviſions, though neceſſary at the Time of the enacting thereof, may nevertheleſs hereafter prove very prejudicial, and of evil Conſequence; be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Tenth Day of January, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, no hammered Silver Coin of this Kingdom ſhall be reputed or eſteemed to be the lawful Coin of this Realm, nor be current in any Payment whatſoever, at any Rate or Value whatſoever, either by Weight or otherwiſe, nor ſhall the Tender of any ſuch hammered Silver Money, at any Time from and after the ſaid Tenth

8 & 9 W. 3. c. 6.

No hammered Silver Coin eſteemed lawful, nor current in any Payment, &c.

Tenth Day of January, be, or be deemed to be a good and ſufficient Tender in Law, nor the Refuſal thereof in any Payment whatſoever be or adjudged to be a Refuſal, of ſo much of the lawful Coins of this Kingdom; any thing in the ſaid recited Acts, or either of them contained, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Old hammered Money may be recoined.

II. Provided, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons to carry into any of His Majeſty's Mints in the Tower of London, or in the Cities of Briſtol, Exeter, Cheſter, Norwich, and York, before the Firſt Day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, any old hammered Money, in order to be recoined; and the reſpective Maſter or Worker of any ſuch Mint, or his Deputy, is hereby authorized and required to receive the ſaid old hammered Money, and to cauſe the ſame forthwith to be melted down, and recoined into the lawful Coins of this Kingdom, and to pay back the ſame ſo recoined on or before the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, to the ſeveral Importers, in ſuch Manner and Method as is now uſed in His Majeſty's Mint in the Tower of London.

III. And whereas in and by an Act made and paſſed in the Seſſion of Parliament which was holden at Weſtminſter, in the Eighth Year of His Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to His Majeſty, as well by a Land Tax, as by ſeveral Subſidies and other Duties payable for One Year, it was amongſt other Things enacted, That the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, or any Three of them, might cauſe Bills to be made forth at the Receipt of the Exchequer, for any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding One million five hundred thouſand Pounds, by virtue of that Act, which were to be current in ſuch Manner and Form as in the ſaid Act, and in ſeveral other Acts of the ſaid Seſſion of Parliament, are mentioned: And in and by another Act made and paſſed in the aforeſaid Seſſion, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majeſty a further Subſidy of Tunnage and Poundage upon Merchandize imported for the Term of Two Years and Three Quarters, and an additional Land Tax for One Year, for carrying on the War againſt France; it was enacted, That the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, or any Three of them, might cauſe further Bills to be made forth at the ſaid Receipt of the Exchequer for any Sum or Sums not exceeding Twelve hundred thouſand Pounds, to have like Currency as the Bills before mentioned, as by the ſaid ſeveral Acts (Relation being thereunto had) may more fully appear: And whereas ſeveral of the Bills above mentioned, have been paid into the publick Receipts for Revenues, Taxes, and Aids, and iſſued out again ſeveral Times, by which they have been ſubject to ſo many Indorſements that they will admit of no further Indorſements to be made thereupon, and conſequently will not be ſo current in Payments as before, which Inconveniency will daily increaſe, unleſs ſome proper Remedy be provided; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in reſpect to ſuch of the ſaid Bills as are or ſhall from time to time be filled up with Indorſements, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, or any Three of them now being, or for the High Treaſurer, or any Three or more of the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury for the time being, to cauſe new Bills to be made forth at the Receipt of the Exchequer, to be delivered from time to time to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall demand the ſame in lieu of ſuch Bills as ſhall be brought in filled up with Indorſements, which old Bills ſhall be cancelled and kept apart from all other Bills whatſoever; and ſuch new Bills ſhall, in all Reſpects, have the like Currency, and there ſhall be inflicted the ſame Puniſhment for forging or counterfeiting the ſame, and they ſhall be ſubject to the ſame Rules, Methods, and Continuance, as by the ſaid former Acts are provided in reſpect to the Bills thereby made forth, or any of them; and ſuch new Bills reſpectively ſhall bear the ſame Numbers, Dates, Principal Sums, and Rate of Intereſt per Diem, as were borne on the old Bills brought in ſo to be cancelled reſpectively; and as to the Intereſt that ſhall have incurred on the ſaid old Bills to the Days of their being brought in to be renewed, the intire Sum of ſuch Intereſt ſhall be ſo computed, as to take off and abate what did accrue whilſt they lay in the Hands of any of His Majeſty's Receivers or Collectors, or in His Majeſty's Exchequer, and ſhall be written upon the ſaid new Bills; any thing in the ſaid former Acts contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

New Bills may be made forth at the Exchequer, in lieu of thoſe filled up with Indorſements.

Old Bills to be cancelled.

CAP. III.

An Act to give further Time for the adminiſtring of Oaths relating to Tallies and Orders, and for the eaſier Diſpatch of publick Buſineſs in the Exchequer, and in the Bank of England. Purchaſers of Orders or Tallies, &c. who have neglected to regiſter their Aſſignments, &c. may do the ſame. Perſons claiming Orders of Loan, &c. not obliged to take the Oath concerning the Præmium, &c. Any Number of Tallies, &c. as follow in Courſe, may be cancelled; and Officer may give as few Tallies in lieu thereof as deſired. No One new Order to contain more than 5,000 l. The Principal and Intereſt to be paid in Courſe.

EXP. 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 20.

IV. And whereas by the Act before recited or mentioned, it was alſo enacted, That the Monies, which from time to time ſhould become due and payable by virtue of any Talley or Order ſubſcribed into the Capital Stock of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England by virtue of the ſaid Act, as ſoon as conveniently might be, after the ſame ſhould be received out of the Exchequer or any publick Office by the ſaid Governor and Company, their Officers, Servants, and Agents, and at fartheſt once in every Four Months, ſhould be divided by the ſaid Governor and Company among the Members of the whole Corporation, rateably and in Proportion to their ſeveral and reſpective Parts, Shares, and Intereſts in the ſaid Capital Stock, for the particular, proper, and only Uſe and Behoof of the ſaid Members, ſeparately and in their private and perſonal Capacities, as by the ſaid Act, Relation being thereunto had, may appear: And whereas ſince the enlarging the Capital Stock of the ſaid Governor and Company of the Bank of England, by Subſcription of Tallies and Orders purſuant to the ſaid Act, the making Dividends of ſuch Monies at the End of every Four Months is found to be very inconvenient, and a great Interruption to the Buſineſs of Transfers, Payments, and other Occaſions of Perſons dealing with the ſaid Bank; be it therefore enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or their Succeſſors, ſhall not be obliged to make Dividends of the Monies, which from time to time ſhall become due or payable to, and be received by the ſaid Governor and Company by virtue of the Tallies and Orders which have been ſo ſubſcribed into the Capital Stock of the ſaid Governor and Company of the Bank of England, purſuant to the ſaid Act of Parliament, once in every Four Months: But the ſaid Governor and Company, and their Succeſſors, are hereby required and enjoined from and after the Five and twentieth Day of March, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, to make ſuch Dividends of the ſaid Monies once in Governor and Company of the Bank to make Dividends once in Six Months.

An Act for ſatisfying and diſcharging the Arrears of ſeveral Annuities, which incurred between the Seventeenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſix, and the Seventeenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven.

Perſons intitled to Annuities for Life, at 14*l.* per Cent. per Ann. 6&7 W.3.c.5.

may for every 100*l.* paid for a ſingle Life, advance 56*l.* more for converting the ſame into a Term certain, for the Reſidue of 96 Years.

FOR raiſing and diſcharging the Sum of Two hundred fifty five thouſand ſix hundred ſixty three Pounds Five Shillings and Eight Pence, which remains due and unpaid to ſatisfy, clear, and pay off the ſeveral Annuities or Sums of Money, which between the Seventeenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſix, and the Seventeenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, incurred and became due, and ought to have been paid as well out of Five ſeventh Parts of the late Duties of Tunnage of Ships and other Veſſels, and out of Two ſeventh Parts of the ſame Duties, as alſo out of certain Duties charged upon Salt; be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons, Natives or Foreigners, having any Eſtate for One Life, of and in any Annuity purchaſed or obtained at the Rate of One hundred Pounds for every Fourteen Pounds per Annum, upon the ſeveral Acts of Parliament mentioned in an Act made and paſſed in the Parliament which was holden at Weſtminſter in the Sixth and Seventh Years of His Majeſty's Reign (intituled, An Act for enabling ſuch Perſons as have Eſtates for Life in Annuities payable by ſeveral former Acts therein mentioned, to purchaſe and obtain further and more certain Intereſts in ſuch Annuities, and, in Default thereof, for admitting other Perſons to purchaſe and obtain the ſame, for raiſing Money for carrying on the War againſt France) or any of them, at any Time before the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, to advance and pay into the Receipt of His Majeſty's Exchequer ſo much Money as every or any ſuch Annuity, being computed for Four Years, doth or ſhall amount unto (that is to ſay) Every ſuch Perſon ſhall and may pay to His Majeſty's Uſe for every One hundred Pounds that was paid for the ſingle Life in any Annuity of Fourteen Pounds per Annum, the Sum of Six and fifty Pounds more, for changing or converting the ſame into a certain Term for the Reſidue which ſhall be then to come of Ninety ſix Years, to be reckoned from the Five and twentieth Day of January, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety five, or for a further Intereſt for the Reſidue of the ſaid Term of Ninety ſix Years, to take Effect after the ſaid Eſtate for Life, and in the ſame Proportion for higher or larger Annuities.

Perſons not paying in the ſaid Conſideration Money by 25 March, 1698.

any other may purchaſe the ſame.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons, being intitled to any Eſtate for One Life in being, in any ſuch preſent Annuity or Annuities, as aforeſaid, or ſuch as they ſhall nominate, ſhall not, before the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, advance and pay into the Receipt of Exchequer, ſuch Rate or Conſideration Money as is before mentioned, for changing ſuch his, her, or their Eſtate for Life into a Term certain, or for a future Intereſt, as aforeſaid, that then and in every ſuch Caſe it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, Natives or Foreigners, having or not having any Property or Intereſt in ſuch Eſtate for Life, at any Time or Times after the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, and on or before the Tenth Day of April, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, to contribute, advance, and pay, into the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer, ſo much Money as any ſuch Annuity being computed for Four Years doth and ſhall amount to; that is to ſay, For every One hundred Pounds that was paid for the ſingle Life, in an Annuity of Fourteen Pounds a Year, there ſhall be paid, in all the Caſes laſt mentioned, the like Sum of Six and fifty Pounds for an Intereſt for the then Reſidue of the ſaid Term of ninety ſix Years, to be reckoned as aforeſaid, and to be charged with, and ſubject to the preſent Eſtate for Life of and in the ſame Annuities reſpectively, and there ſhall be paid a Rate or Conſideration in the ſame Proportion, for Annuities exceeding Fourteen Pounds a Year; and that all and every the Perſon and Perſons ſo paying the Conſideration Money, as aforeſaid, ſhall immediately, upon Payment of their Monies, be intitled by this Act to ſuch Annuity or Annuities ſo to be purchaſed; and the ſame ſhall be charged upon ſuch reſpective Fund or Revenue in the ſaid former Act mentioned, as if the Conſideration Money ſo to be contributed or advanced for the ſame had been actually advanced or contributed within the reſpective Times limited by the ſaid former Act.

Perſons on Payment intitled to the ſaid Annuities, &c.

Or on diſcharging the King of ſo much Arrears as the Conſideration Money amounts to, &c.

III. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons, who are or ſhall be intitled to any Arrears incurred between the Seventeenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſix, and the Seventeenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, upon the ſaid ſeveral Annuities which were charged upon the ſaid Tunnage Duties, or upon the ſaid Duties on Salt, and are hereby intended to be provided for, ſhall, upon their Orders, Tallies, or Lottery Tickets, for ſuch Arrears, diſcharge His Majeſty in the Exchequer, of ſo much as the Conſideration Money to be paid by him or them reſpectively, for purchaſing a further Term or Intereſt as aforeſaid, ſhall amount unto, that then and in every ſuch Caſe, all and every the Perſon and Perſons ſo diſcharging His Majeſty of the Value of the Conſideration Money, as aforeſaid, ſhall immediately, upon ſuch Diſcharge given and entred in the Receipt of His Majeſty's Exchequer (which the proper Officers there are hereby required to enter and regiſter accordingly, without Fee or Charge) be intitled by this Act to ſuch Annuity or Annuities ſo to be purchaſed; and the ſame ſhall be charged upon ſuch reſpective Fund or Revenue in the ſaid former Act mentioned, as if the ſaid Conſideration Money was actually paid in the lawful Coins of this Realm.

IV. And it is hereby enacted, That all and every the Directions, Powers and Clauſes in the ſaid former Act contained, for or concerning the levying of Tallies, the making forth of Orders, or for making Transferrences or Aſſignments, or for the apportioning or applying the Monies ariſing by the ſaid Funds or Revenues, or any of them, or for appointing, ſettling or eſtabliſhing any other Matter or Thing, for or in relation to the reſpective Annuities thereby purchaſed or obtained, ſhall be, and are by force and virtue of this Act revived, and ſhall be duly obſerved, practiſed and put in Execution, for and in reſpect of ſuch Annuities as ſhall be purchaſed or obtained upon this Act, as fully and effectually as if the ſame Powers, Directions and Clauſes were here again expreſſed and particularly repeated.

Powers in the Act 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 5. revived.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all the Monies which ſhall come into the Receipt of His Majeſty's Exchequer, of or for the ſaid Contributions for further or more certain Eſtates in the ſaid Annuities to be purchaſed as aforeſaid, ſhall be iſſued and applied, and the ſame are hereby appropriated to and for the Payment and Satiſfaction of the Arrears of the ſeveral Annuities which are charged upon the Five ſeventh Parts of the ſaid Tunnage Duties, and upon the Two ſeventh Parts of the ſaid Tunnage Duties, and upon the ſaid Duties upon Salt, and which are or ſhall be incurred or become payable out of thoſe Funds reſpectively from the ſaid Seventeenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſix, to the ſaid Seventeenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, ſo that a proportionable Part of the Contributions, ſo ariſing in Money, ſhall be applied to make good each of thoſe Funds, according to the Sum of the Arrears incurred within the Time aforeſaid, which ſhall from time to time be remaining unpaid thereupon, and ſhall not be diverted to any other Uſe, Intent, or Purpoſe whatſoever, upon Pain that any Officer offending therein ſhall for ſuch Offence forfeit his Office, and double the Value of every Sum of Money ſo diverted or miſapplied.

Monies how to be applied.

VI. And whereas by virtue of an Act of Parliament made in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty and of the late Queen of bleſſed Memory, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majeſties certain Rates and Duties of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, for ſecuring certain Recompences and Advantages, in the ſaid Act mentioned, to ſuch Perſons as ſhall voluntarily advance the Sum of Ten hundred thouſand Pounds towards carrying on the War againſt France, and of divers other ſubſequent Acts of Parliament, ſeveral Perſons are intitled to have and receive certain yearly Annuities, Rents, or Payments, out of the ſaid Duties of Exciſe granted by the ſaid Act firſt mentioned, payable quarterly, wherein no Benefit of Survivorſhip is to be had; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Firſt Day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven next enſuing, no Officer or Officers appointed to pay the ſaid Annuities ſhall pay off any quarterly Payment of the ſaid Annuities upon any Order or Orders whatſoever, until all and every Perſon or Perſons intitled to ſuch Annuities and Payments ſhall or may have had and received, his, her or their Annuities and Payments for the precedent Quarter, for which publick Notice ſhall be given by hanging the ſame up in the moſt convenient publick Place in the ſaid Office, that the laſt precedent Quarter is either fully paid, or that the Money is ready in the Office for the Payment of ſuch as have not timely brought their reſpective Orders to be directed, or have not thought fit to call for their Money; and in caſe any Officer ſhall offend herein by making any Payment contrary to the Tenor hereof, or in any other Manner than as aforeſaid, every ſuch Officer ſhall forfeit his Office, and ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds to ſuch Perſon or Perſons who ſhall ſue for the ſame, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege of Parliament, or other Privilege, Wager of Law, Injunction, or Order of Reſtraint, or more than One Imparlance, ſhall be granted or allowed; and in the ſaid Action the Plaintiff upon Recovery ſhall have his full Coſts.

4 & 5 W. & M. c. 3.

No Annuities payable quarterly out of the Duties of Exciſe ſhall be paid off, until the precedent Quarter be firſt diſcharged, &c. whereof publick Notice to be given.

Penalty on Officer offending.

CAP. VI.

An Act that all Retailers of Salt ſhall ſell by Weight.

WHEREAS by an Act made at the Parliament, held in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for continuing to His Majeſty certain Duties upon Salt, Glaſs Wares, Stone and Earthen Wares, and for granting ſeveral Duties upon Tobacco Pipes and other Earthen Wares, for carrying on the War againſt France, and for eſtabliſhing a National Land Bank, and for taking off the Duties upon Tunnage of Ships and upon Coals, it was enacted amongſt other Things, That all Perſons ſelling Salt (except foreign Salt) made for Uſe, ſhould after the Time therein limited, ſell the ſame after the Rate of Six and fifty Pound Weight to the Buſhel, and not otherwiſe, and ſo in Proportion for a greater or leſſer Quantity; and that every Perſon offending therein, ſhall forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds to the Informer, to be recovered in ſuch Manner as is therein expreſſed: And whereas ſeveral Doubts and Difficulties are made and have ariſen upon the Interpretation of the ſaid Clauſe, and other preceding Clauſes in the ſaid Act, touching the Meaſure of Salt, whereby the Badgers and Retailers of Salt have made great Advantages and Gain to themſelves, and uſed great Deceit and Wrong to the Buyers, contrary to the true Meaning of the ſaid Act; for the explaining and clearing of the ſaid Doubts and for Remedy and Prevention of any Deceit by Retailers of Salt for the future, be it declared and enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That no Badger, Retailer, or other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, making or dealing in Salt, or buying Salt to ſell again, ſhall, from and after the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, ſell or put to Sale, exchange or otherwiſe diſpoſe of any Salt to any Perſon or Perſons, or in any County, City or Place whatſoever, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, otherwiſe than by Weight, after the Rate of Six and fifty Pound Weight to the Buſhel, and not by Meaſure, or in any other Manner, and ſo in Proportion for a greater or leſſer Quantity, and that every Perſon offending therein, ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds to the Informer who ſhall proſecute for the ſame.

7 & 8 W. 3. c. 31.

No Badger, Retailer, &c. ſhall ſell Salt otherwiſe than by Weight, after the Rate of 56lb. Weight to the Buſhel.

Penalty.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Forfeitures and Offences made and committed againſt this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall be heard, adjudged, and determined by any Two or more Juſtices of the Peace reſiding near to the Farther provided for by 1 Annæ, ſtat 1. c 21 §. 28.

Juſtices of Peace to hear and determine Offences. Party aggrieved may appeal, &c.

Forfeitures to be levied on Offender's Goods.

For want of Diſtreſs, Offender to be impriſoned.

Place where ſuch Forfeiture ſhall be made, or Offence committed, who are hereby required to hear, adjudge, and determine the ſame; and if the Party finds him or herſelf aggrieved by the Judgment given by the ſaid Juſtices, the ſaid Party ſhall and may appeal to the Juſtices of Peace at the next General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace to be held for the County, City or Borough, within which the ſaid Forfeiture was made, and the Offence committed; who are hereby alſo impowered and authorized to hear and determine the ſame, whoſe Judgment therein ſhall be final; and all Juſtices of the Peace are hereby authorized and required, upon Complaint or Information exhibited or brought to them, or any of them, of any Forfeiture made or Offence committed contrary to this Act, to ſummon the Party accuſed; and, upon his or her Appearance or Contempt, to proceed to the Examination of the Matter of Fact; and, upon due Proof made thereof by the Oath of Two or more credible Witneſſes (which Oath any Two or more Juſtices of the Peace have hereby Power to adminiſter) or by the voluntary Confeſſion of the Party, to give Judgment or Sentence, according as in and by this Act is directed, and to award and iſſue out Warrants under their Hands and Seals for the levying of ſuch Forfeitures, as by this Act is impoſed, upon the Goods and Chattels of the Offender; and to cauſe Sale to be made of the ſaid Goods and Chattels, if the ſame ſhall not be redeemed within Six Days, rendring to the Party the Overplus, if any be; and for want of ſufficient Diſtreſs to impriſon the Party offending until Satiſfaction be made for the Forfeitures.

Officer to attend the weighing out ſuch Salt.

Penalty on Officer neglecting.

III. And for preventing of Delays, which may happen through the Neglect or Default of any of the Officers appointed for the collecting the ſaid Duty, to the great Loſs and Damage of ſuch Perſons as ſhall ſhip off or carry by Land any Salt; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That when ever any Salt ſhall be entred to be put on Board any Boat, Ship, or Veſſel, or carried by Land, and the Duty paid or ſecured to be paid, together with all Monies then or before that Time due and payable, by Bond or otherwiſe, upon Account of Salt before that Time delivered, the Officer with whom ſuch Salt ſhall be entred, and the Duty paid, or ſecured to be paid, as aforeſaid, ſhall, upon due Notice, by himſelf or a ſufficient Deputy, in the Day Time, between Sun riſing and Sun ſetting, attend the weighing out ſuch Salt, without any Loſs or Hindrance of Time to the Perſon or Perſons that ſhall ſhip off or carry the ſame; and in caſe he ſhall neglect or refuſe ſo to do, he ſhall for every ſuch Neglect or Default forfeit the Sum of Forty Shillings, to be ſued for, recovered, levied, and received, or mitigated, by the ſame Means, Rules, Ways, and Methods, as the other Penalties and Forfeitures in this Act mentioned and contained are directed to be recovered.

CAP. VII.

An Act to prevent the Throwing or Firing of Squibbs, Serpents, and other Fire Works.

From 25 Mar. 1698. no Perſon whatſoever ſhall make, ſell, &c. Squibbs, Rockets, Serpents, &c. or Caſes, Moulds, &c. for making ſuch Squibbs.

WHEREAS much Miſchief hath lately happened by throwing, caſting, and firing of Squibbs, Serpents, Rockets, and other Fire Works, ſome Perſons having thereby loſt their Lives, others their Eyes, others have had their Lives in great Danger, and ſeveral other Damages have been ſuſtained by many Perſons, and much more may thereby happen, if not ſpeedily prevented: For Remedy whereof for the future be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, it ſhall not be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons of what Age, Sex, Degree, or Quality ſoever, to make or cauſe to be made, or to ſell or utter, or offer or expoſe to Sale, any Squibbs, Rockets, Serpents, or other Fire Works, or any Caſes, Moulds, or other Implements for the making any ſuch Squibbs, Serpents, Rockets, or other Fire Works, or for any Perſon or Perſons to permit or ſuffer any Squibbs, Serpents, Rockets, or other Fire Works, to be caſt, thrown, or fired from, out of, or in his, her, or their Houſe or Houſes, Lodgings or Habitations, or from, out of, or in any Part or Place thereto belonging or adjoining, into any publick Street, Highway, Road, or Paſſage, or for any Perſon or Perſons, of what Degree, Quality, or Age ſoever, to throw, caſt, or fire, or to be aiding or aſſiſting in the throwing, caſting, or firing of any Squibbs, Serpents, Rockets, or other Fire Works, in or into any publick Street, Houſe, Shop, River, Highway, Road, or Paſſage, and that every ſuch Offence ſhall be, and is hereby adjudged to be, a common Nuſance.

Penalty on Perſon throwing or firing Squibbs, &c.

or ſuffering them, &c. to be thrown or fired from their Houſes.

Forfeitures how to be levied and applied.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons, of what Age, Sex, Degree, or Quality ſoever, from and after the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of March, ſhall make or cauſe to be made, or ſhall ſell, give, or utter, or offer or expoſe to Sale, any Squibbs, Rockets, Serpents, or other Fire Works, or any Caſes, Moulds, or other Implements for the making of any ſuch Squibbs, Rockets, Serpents, or other Fire Works, that then every ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo offending, and being thereof convicted before One or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace of the County, Limit, Diviſion, Corporation, Liberty, or Chief Magiſtrate of the Place, where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, either by the Confeſſion of the Party or Parties ſo offending, or the Oath of Two Witneſſes (which Oath the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices of Peace, or Chief Magiſtrate, is and are hereby impowered and required to adminiſter) ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds: And if any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, from and after the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of March, ſhall permit or ſuffer any Squibbs, Serpents, Rockets, or other Fire Works to be caſt, thrown or fired from, out of, or in his, her or their Houſe or Houſes, Shops, Dwelling, Lodging or Habitation, or from, out of, or in any Part thereof, or Place thereto belonging or adjoining, into any publick Street, Highway, Road or Paſſage, or any other Houſe or Place whatſoever, that then every ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo as aforeſaid laſt offending, and being thereof as aforeſaid convicted, ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit the Sum of Twenty Shillings; the ſaid ſeveral Forfeitures to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of every ſuch Offender, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, or Chief Magiſtrate, before whom ſuch Conviction or Convictions ſhall be as aforeſaid made; the One Half of the ſaid Forfeitures to be to the Uſe of the Poor of the Pariſh where every ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, mitted, and the other Half to the Uſe of him or them who ſhall proſecute, and cauſe ſuch Offender or Offenders to be as aforeſaid convicted.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons of what Age, Sex, Degree or Quality ſoever, from and after the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of March, ſhall throw, caſt or fire, or be aiding or aſſiſting in the throwing, caſting or firing of any Squibbs, Rockets, Serpents or other Fire Works, in or into any publick Street, Houſe, Shop, River, Highway, Road or Paſſage, that then every Perſon ſo offending, and being thereof as aforeſaid convicted, ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit the Sum of Twenty Shillings to the Uſes aforeſaid; and if the Perſon or Perſons ſo as aforeſaid laſt offending, ſhall not immediately (upon his, her or their being thereof as aforeſaid convicted) pay to the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, or Chief Magiſtrate, before whom ſuch Conviction ſhall be as aforeſaid made, the ſaid Forfeiture or Forfeitures, for the Uſes aforeſaid, that then every ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, or Chief Magiſtrate, is and are hereby impowered and required, by Warrant under his or their Hands and Seals, to commit every ſuch Perſon or Perſons, ſo as aforeſaid laſt offending, to the Houſe of Correction within the County, Diviſion, Limit, Corporation, or Liberty, where ſuch Offence as is laſt mentioned ſhall be committed, there to remain to be ſet and kept to hard Labour, without Bail or Mainprize, for any Time not exceeding One Month, unleſs ſuch Offender as is laſt mentioned ſhall ſooner pay ſuch Forfeiture or Forfeitures to the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, or Chief Magiſtrate.

Offender not paying Forfeiture to be committed to the Houſe of Correction, and kept to hard Labour;

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Maſter, Lieutenant, or Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Ordnance for the time being, or any other Perſon or Perſons to be by them or any of them authorized, to give Orders and Directions for the making any Sorts of Fire Works, to be uſed and fired according to ſuch Orders and Directions as ſhall be from time to time given by the ſaid Maſter, Lieutenant, or Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Ordnance, or any other Perſon or Perſons to be by them for that Purpoſe authorized; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Officers of the Ordnance, &c. may order the making of Fire Works, &c.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Artillery Company of the City of London, or any other Artillery Company or Society of Perſons lawfully met together for the Uſe and Exerciſe of Arms, the Trained Bands, the Militia of this Kingdom reſpectively, to make and uſe any Sorts of Fire Works in the Exerciſe and Practice of Arms and Warlike Exploits only, in ſuch Manner as they or any of them might lawfully have done before the making of this Act; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

An Act for the enlarging, repairing and preſerving the Bridge and Key of the Borough of Bridgewater in the County of Somerſet.

C A P. XIII.

An Act for granting to His Majeſty ſeveral Duties upon Coals and Culm.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons aſſembled in Parliament, for a further Supply of Your Majeſty's extraordinary Occaſions, do moſt humbly preſent to Your Majeſty the Gift of the Impoſitions, Rates, and Duties herein after mentioned; and do beſeech Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That for and during the Term of Five Years, commencing from the Fifteenth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, there ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid, unto and for the Uſe of His Majeſty, His Heirs, and Succeſſors, for and upon all Coals and Culm, herein after expreſſed (except Charcoals made of Wood, and Cinders made of Pit Coal) the ſeveral and reſpective Impoſitions, Rates, Duties, and Sums of Money, herein after mentioned (over and above all ſuch Duties as are already payable for or in reſpect of the ſame, or any of them) that is to ſay, Additional Duty to be paid for Coals and Culm, for 5 Years.

For Coals imported from Scotland, ſold by Weight, &c. 5 s. per Tun.

II. For all Coals which at any Time or Times within or during the ſaid Term ſhall be imported or brought into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, from Scotland, or from any Part beyond Sea (in caſe they are ſuch Coals as are moſt uſually ſold by Weight) the Sum of Five Shillings of lawful Engliſh Money for every Tun, reckoning the Tun to conſiſt of Twenty hundred Weight, and every Hundred to conſiſt of One hundred and twelve Pounds Weight of Averdupois, and after that Rate for any greater or leſſer Quantity.

For Scotch Coal, &c. ſold by Chalder, 7 s. 6 d. per Chalder. Importer to pay the Duties for foreign Coals.

III. And for all Coals ſo imported from Scotland, or any Part beyond Sea, being moſt uſually ſold by the Chalder, or by any other Meaſure whatſoever reduceable to the Chalder, the Sum of Seven Shillings Six Pence of like Money for every Chalder, reckoning the Chalder to conſiſt of Six and thirty Buſhels Wincheſter Meaſure, and after that Rate for a greater or leſſer Quantity of ſuch Coals ſo imported or brought in from any foreign Parts; the ſaid Duties for foreign Coals imported or brought in as aforeſaid, to be paid by the reſpective Importer or Importers thereof.

For Coals ſhipped or waterborn in England, 5 s. per Chalder.

IV. For all Sorts of Coals from time to time ſhipped or waterborn in order to be ſhipped or laid on board any Ship or Veſſel, to be carried by Sea, and which ſhall be carried by Sea in any Ship or Veſſel, from any Port or Place within the ſaid Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and which at any Time or Times within or during the ſaid Term ſhall be imported, brought or landed in any other Port or Place, within the Kingdom, Dominion or Town aforeſaid, being moſt uſually ſold by the Chalder, or by any other Meaſure whatſoever reduceable to the Chalder, the Sum of Five Shillings of lawful Engliſh Money for every Chalder, to be reckoned as aforeſaid, and after that Rate for a greater or leſſer Quantity.

For Coals uſually ſold by Weight, 3 s. 4 d. per Tun.

V. And for all Sorts of Coals from time to time ſo ſhipped, or waterborn in order to be ſhipped and carried by Sea from any Port or Place of the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and which at any Time or Times during the ſaid Term ſhall be imported, brought or landed in any other Port or Place of the ſame (in caſe they are ſuch as are moſt uſually ſold by Weight) the Sum of Three Shillings Four Pence for every Tun, and according to that Proportion for more or leſs; the ſaid ſeveral Duties for Coals ſo ſhipped, or waterborn to be ſhipped, and carried by Sea as aforeſaid, from time to time to be paid at the reſpective Ports and Places of Importation or Landing of ſuch Coals, and to be charged upon the reſpective Owner and Owners, Maſter or other Perſon having the Charge of every ſuch Ship or Veſſel, or of the Coals ſo carried, imported or brought in the ſame.

Duties to be paid at the Port where landed.

For all Culm waterborne 12 d. per Chalder, to be paid at the Place of Importation, &c.

These Duties are expired, but the Act is continued by 1 Annæ. ſt. 2. c. 4.

VI. And for all Culm whatſoever, which at any Time, during the ſaid Term of Five Years, ſhall be waterborn in order to be ſhipped within the Kingdom, Dominion, or Town aforeſaid, or brought into the ſame, the Sum of One Shilling per Chalder, and after that Rate, to be paid at the reſpective Ports and Places of Importation or Landing of ſuch Culm, and to be charged upon the reſpective Owner and Owners, or Maſter or Maſters, or other Perſon having the Charge of every ſuch Ship or Veſſel, or of the Culm ſo carried, imported, or brought in the ſame.

Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms to manage theſe Duties, &c.

VII. And for the better levying and raiſing the ſaid ſeveral Duties and Sums of Money by this Act impoſed upon ſuch of the ſaid Coals and Culm as ſhall be imported or brought in from Scotland, or any Parts beyond Sea, as alſo upon ſuch of the ſaid Coals and Culm as ſhall or may be ſhipped, or waterborn to be ſhipped, and carried by Sea from any Part of the ſaid Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, to any other Part of the ſame as aforeſaid, it is hereby enacted, That the ſame ſhall be from time to time under the Management and Government of the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms for the time being, who ſhall cauſe thoſe Duties from time to time to be raiſed, levied, collected and paid, ſo that the Monies ariſing thereby (except the neceſſary Charges of receiving, collecting, levying and managing the ſaid Duties) ſhall be anſwered and paid from time to time into His Majeſty's Exchequer, diſtinct and apart from all other Branches of the publick Revenues.

VIII. And for the better aſcertaining and ſecuring of the ſaid Duties upon Coals and Culm imported from Foreign Parts, or ſhipped, or waterborn to be ſhipped, and carried by Sea from any Part of England, Wales, or Berwick, to any other Part of the ſame as aforeſaid; be it further enacted, That the ſaid ſeveral Duties and Sums of Money for ſuch Coals and Culm ſhall, from time to time, during the ſaid Term of Five Years, be anſwered and paid unto His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, or to ſuch Collector or Perſon as ſhall by His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, or by the ſaid Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms, or any Four or more of them for the time being, under their Hands and Seals, be thereunto appointed, before Bulk of the Ship or Veſſel in which they are imported, brought or carried, ſhall be broken, or any the Coals or Culm therein ſhall be unladen, and before any Meter, Meaſurer or Weigher in that Behalf appointed or to be appointed, ſhall meaſure or weigh the ſame; upon Receipt whereof the Party appointed to receive ſuch Duties ſhall, without Delay, Fee or Reward, deliver a Receipt under his Hand, to the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall pay the ſaid Duty, which Receipt ſhall for ſo much be a ſufficient Diſcharge; of all which Ships and Veſſels, and of the Coals and Culm therein imported or brought, due Entries ſhall from time to time be made in the Cuſtom Houſe, of or belonging to ſuch Port or Place where ſuch Importation ſhall be made (if any Cuſtom Houſe be there) or elſe in the Cuſtom Houſe of the next Port or Place where ſuch Importation ſhall be. And in caſe any of the ſaid Coals or Culm ſo imported, brought or carried by Sea, ſhall be unſhipped to be laid on Land, before the Impoſitions, Duties or Sums aforeſaid reſpectively due for the ſame ſhall be paid or ſecured, that then as well the ſaid Coals and Culm ſo unſhipped, as alſo the Ship or Veſſel out of which the ſame ſhall be ſo unſhipped, with all her Guns, Tackle, Furniture and Ammunition ſhall be forfeited and loſt, One Moiety of which Forfeitures ſhall be unto His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall ſeize, ſue or inform for the ſame, to be recovered in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than One Imparlance ſhall be admitted.

Duties to be paid before Bulk broken, and before meaſured or weighed.

Receipts to be given gratis. Coals to be entred at the Cuſtom Houſe where imported.

If unſhipped before Duty paid, forfeited, &c.

IX. And to the end that the ſaid Impoſitions and Duties may be duly anſwered and paid without Fraud or Covin, and for the better levying and collecting thereof, and for the Diſcovery of the juſt Quantities of all Sorts of Coals and Culm, from time to time ſhipped, or waterborn to be ſhipped or carried by Sea, imported or unladen as aforeſaid; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, or to or for any Four or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms for the time being, by Writing under their Hands and Seals, from time to time, to aſſign and appoint, within every or any Port or Place within the ſaid Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, ſuch and ſo many Meters, Weighers or Meaſurers of the ſaid Coals and Culm, as ſhall within the Term aforeſaid be imported, brought or landed in ſuch Port or Place, wherein or for which ſuch Meters, Weighers or Meaſurers ſhall be aſſigned or appointed as aforeſaid; who ſhall from time to time meaſure and weigh all ſuch Coals and Culm ſo imported or brought; and when and as ſoon as any ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall be unladen, ſhall forthwith deliver a true Certificate in Writing, under his or their Hand or Hands, unto the Perſon or Perſons appointed to receive the ſaid Impoſitions or Duties within ſuch Port or Place, of the Sorts, Quantities, and Numbers of Chalders or Tuns of Coals or Culm reſpectively, which ſhall be meaſured or weighed, and delivered from on Board any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, under the Penalty of One hundred Pounds: And in caſe it ſhall appear by ſuch Certificate, or otherwiſe, that there was on Board any ſuch Ship or Veſſel a greater Number of Chalders or Tuns of Coals or Culm, than for which the ſaid Impoſitions or Duties hereby impoſed ſhall have been anſwered and paid as aforeſaid, that then in every ſuch Caſe there ſhall be paid unto His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, by the Maſter or Owners of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, for every Chalder or Tun of Coals or Culm ſo concealed, over and above the Impoſitions and Duties aforeſaid, the Sum of Ten Shillings, for which, in caſe of Refuſal to pay the ſame, ſuch Ship or Veſſel, with the Tackle, Furniture and Apparel thereof, or any Part thereof, ſhall and may be attached and detained by the Officer or Officers for the time being, in ſuch Port or Place appointed to receive the ſaid Impoſitions or Duties, or to meaſure or weigh the ſaid Coals or Culm, until Payment thereof, and to ſell the ſaid Ship or Veſſel, Tackle, Furniture and Apparel, or any Part thereof, in caſe all the ſaid Impoſitions, Duties or Payments before mentioned, for the ſaid concealed Coals or Culm, ſhall not be paid and ſatisfied, with reaſonable Coſts and Charges for ſuch attaching, detaining or ſelling, rendring the Overplus; which Sale ſhall be good and effectual in the Law.

Commiſſioners may appoint Meters and Weighers of Coals in the ſeveral Ports.

Penalty on Maſter or Owner, concealing Coals or Culm, &c.

X. Provided nevertheleſs, That if the Importer, upon ſuch Certificate delivered in by the Meaſurer or Weigher, ſhall within the Space of Six Days after the Delivery of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, and before her Departure from that Port or Place, give in his Poſt-entry, and ſatisfy and pay the whole Duty for the Surpluſage of the ſaid Coals or Culm, appearing upon the unlading of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, then upon ſuch Payment the Penalty aforeſaid ſhall be diſcharged.

Proviſo.

XI. And for the Manifeſtation of the Truth, and Certainty in the Premiſſes, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Officers to be appointed in each Port and Place for the receiving of the ſaid Impoſitions or Duties, and for the weighing and meaſuring of the ſaid Coals and Culm ſhipped, or waterborn to be ſhipped, imported or landed as aforeſaid, ſhall reſpectively keep One or more Book or Books for every ſuch Port or Place, wherein they ſhall reſpectively enter down a true Account of all ſuch Sums of Money, which ſhall be paid or received for or upon Account of the ſaid Impoſitions or Duties, and of all the Payments and Diſburſements of the ſame, and alſo a true Account of the Numbers of Chalders and Tuns of Coals and Culm ſo imported, landed, and unladen in any ſuch Port or Place, and of the reſpective Sorts thereof.

Officers of the ſeveral Ports to enter a true Account of all Monies received and paid.

And the Number of Chalders and Tuns, &c.

Three Months allowed for paying the Duties, on giving Security.

Ten Pounds per Cent. allowed for prompt Payment.

Coals imported and exported again, no further Duty to be paid.

Coals carried beyond Sea, Duty to be repaid.

XII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be allowed to every Maſter or Owner of any Ship or Veſſel Three Months Time for the Payment of the Duty impoſed by this Act, for ſuch Coals and Culm, from time to time imported, brought or carried by Sea as aforeſaid, good and ſufficient Security being given for the ſame, ſuch as the Collector or other Chief Officer of the Port or Place where ſuch Goods ſhall be imported or brought ſhall approve of; or if ſuch Maſter or Owner ſhall for the ſame pay preſent Money, there ſhall be allowed him after the Rate of Ten Pounds per Centum per Annum, for ſuch prompt Payment; and if any of the Coals or Culm, for which the Duty hereby granted ſhall be once paid or ſecured at the Importation or Landing thereof, ſhall be again exported and carried to any other Place of this Kingdom, there ſhall be no further Duty by this Act paid or demanded for the ſame; and if any of the Coals for which the Duty by this Act ſhall be once paid or ſecured as aforeſaid, ſhall be afterwards carried to any Parts beyond the Seas, then an Allowance out of the Over-ſea Duties, or Repayment, ſhall be made of ſo much as was before paid by this Act for the ſame Coals or Culm.

Perſons ſued may plead the General Iſſue, &c.

XIII. Provided alſo, and be it enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall at any Time be ſued or proſecuted for any Thing by him or them done in Execution of this Act, he or they may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act in Evidence; and if a Verdict paſs for the Defendant, or the Plaintiff be Nonſuit, or forbear Proſecution, the Defendant ſhall have Treble Coſts, to be recovered as in other Caſes where Coſts are given by Law to Defendants.

12 d. per lb. on all Goods and Merchandize imported.

Goods imported, &c. and not rated in the Book of Rates, to pay the Subſidy, &c.

Fiſh and Dyers Goods excepted.

Altered by 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 25. §. 17. as to Whale Fins, Oil and Blubber, &c. and by 9 Geo. 1. c. 21. §. 3. as to Tobacco.

Drugs and Spicery (except Pepper) imported, &c. to pay only a Third Part, &c.

Other Sorts of Goods and Merchandize. See 5 Geo. 1. c. 3. § 34. and 8 Geo. 1. c. 15. §. 17.

Altered by 12 Annæ, ſtat. 2. c. 8.

V. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, That all Drugs chargeable by this Act, which ſhall be imported directly from the Place of their Growth in Engliſh built Shipping, ſhall be rated to pay by this Act One Third Part of what is charged thereupon in the ſaid Book of Rates, and no more; and that all Spicery, except Pepper, which ſhall be imported directly from the Place of its Growth in Engliſh built Shipping, ſhall be rated to pay by this Act One Third Part of what is charged in the ſaid Book of Rates, and no more; and that this Act ſhall not extend to charge Linen imported with the additional Duty of One Moiety of the Rate mentioned in the ſaid Book of Rates; and that all foreign wrought Silks exported within One Year from the Importation, ſhall have Two Thirds of the Rate hereby charged repaid at the Cuſtom Houſe; and this Act ſhall not extend to charge wrought Silks imported with the additional Duty of One Moiety mentioned in the ſaid Book of Rates; or to charge Tobacco of the Engliſh Plantations with the additional Duty of One Penny per Pound, over and above the Subſidy mentioned in the ſaid Book of Rates; or to charge Wines of the Growth of France, Germany, Portugal, or Madeira, with the additional Duty of Three Pounds per Tun, or any other Wines with the additional Duty of Four Pounds per Tun, mentioned in the ſaid former Acts or Book of Rates; and that for all Tobacco of the Engliſh Plantations, which ſhall be imported and exported again within One Year after ſuch Importation, the further Subſidy of One Penny per Pound hereby granted, ſhall be repaid at the Cuſtom Houſe.

Allowances and Abatements.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That out of the ſeveral Subſidies of Tunaage and Poundage by this Act granted, there ſhall be ſuch and the like Allowances and Abatements in all Caſes, as are or were preſcribed in the like Caſes by the ſaid former Act, or by the ſaid Book of Rates, or the Rules thereunto annexed, and to be made and allowed under the ſame Reſtrictions, and in the ſame Manner and Form as are therein expreſſed.

Duties to be levied by the Officers of the Cuſtoms, &c. and paid into the Exchequer.

Powers in the former Tunnage Act 12 Car. 2. c. 4. and Book of Rates, to be in Force, &c.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid ſeveral Subſidies of Tunnage and Poundage hereby granted, ſhall be raiſed, levied and collected by the reſpective Officers of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms for the time being, under the Management and Direction of the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms for the time being; and ſhall be brought and paid, or anſwered into the Receipt of His Majeſty's Exchequer, for the Purpoſes in this Act mentioned (ſuch additional Charge as ſhall be neceſſary for the Management of this Revenue only excepted) and that all and every the Clauſes, Powers, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Matters and Things whatſoever, contained in the ſaid former Act of Tunnage and Poundage, or in the ſaid Book of Rates, or the Rules thereunto annexed, or in any other Laws or Statutes whatſoever now in Force, for raiſing, levying, ſecuring, collecting, anſwering or paying the Subſidy of Tunnage and Poundage thereby granted, ſhall be applied, practiſed, and put in Execution, for the raiſing, levying, collecting, anſwering, and paying the Subſidy of Tunnage and Poundage by this Act granted, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if all and every the ſaid Clauſes, Powers, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Matters and Things were particularly repeated, and again enacted in the Body of this preſent Act.

Subſidy on Sugars imported, to be paid back on Exportation.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the whole further Subſidy laid by this Act upon all Sugars that ſhall be imported from the Engliſh Plantations in America, ſhall and may be drawn and paid back at the Exportation thereof; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Drawback of 3 s. per 100 wt. on Exportation of Muſcovado Sugar refined in England, on Oath that the ſame was refined from Brown Sugar imported from America, &c.

IX. And whereas great Quantities of Brown and Muſcovado Sugars have formerly been refined here in England, and afterwards exported to foreign Markets, whereby a great Number of People have been employed, and a Manufacture carried on very profitable to this Kingdom; which Trade of refining Sugars for Exportation will be loſt, unleſs a Drawback be allowed, when ſuch Sugars are exported, after they are refined here, ſuitable to the Drawback allowed on the Exportation of Brown and Muſcovado Sugars, by reaſon foreign Nations will be thereby enabled to refine them cheaper Abroad than they can be done here at Home; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for every Hundred Weight of Sugar refined in England (and ſo in Proportion for a greater or leſſer Quantity) exported out of this Kingdom after the ſaid laſt Day of January, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, during the Continuance of this Act, there ſhall be repaid at the Cuſtom Houſe to the Exporter, within One Month after Demand thereof, the Sum of Three Shillings, Oath being firſt made by the Refiner, that the ſaid Sugar ſo exported was produced from Brown and Muſcovado Sugar charged by this Act, and that, as he verily believes, the ſame was imported from His Majeſty's Plantations in America, and that, as he verily believes, the Duty of the ſaid Brown and Muſcovado Sugar was duly paid at the Time of the Importation thereof, and that the ſame was duly exported, His Majeſty's Searcher alſo certifying the Shipping thereof, and all other Requiſites duly performed, according to the Book of Rates.

Merchant to have 3 Months for paying the Subſidy on Tobacco, &c. or 10 l per Cent. for prompt Payment.

X. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for the further Subſidy hereby granted upon Tobacco of the Engliſh Plantations in America, the Merchant Importer ſhall have Three Months Time from the Importation to pay the ſame, giving Security for the Payment thereof accordingly; and in caſe of paying the ſame ſooner than the ſaid Three Months, the ſaid Merchant Importer ſhall be allowed a Diſcount after the Rate of Ten Pounds per Centum per Annum for prompt Payment; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Ginger to pay 2 s. per 100 wt.

XI. Provided always, That Ginger of the Engliſh Plantations in the Weſt Indies, which by the ſaid Book of Rates is valued at Sixteen Pence a Pound, ſhall pay for the ſaid former Subſidy One Shilling for every Hundred Weight, and for the Subſidy by this Act One Shilling for every Hundred Weight, and after that Proportion for a greater or leſſer Quantity, and no more; any thing in this Act, or the ſaid former Act, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

XII. And whereas great Quantities of cut Whalebone fit for Uſe are frequently imported in ſhort Lengths and ſmall Parcels, by Means whereof, not only His Majeſty is defrauded of the Duties laid thereupon, but the Merchants importing, and the Manufacturers employed in cutting of Fin Whalebone, are greatly prejudiced and diſcouraged; be it therefore declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, ſhall import or bring into this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, any Cut Whalebone (other than in Fins only) he, ſhe or they ſhall forfeit the Goods, and double the Value of the Cut Whalebone ſo imported, One Moiety thereof to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to him or them that ſhall ſeize or ſue for the ſame in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed, nor any more than One Imparlance; any thing in this Act, or any former Law to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Cut Whalebone imported other than in Fins only, forfeited, and double the Value. By 4 Annæ, c. 12. §. 6. the Importer forfeits 30 l. the Maſter of the Ship, 50 l.

XIII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That in all Caſes where any the Foreign Goods or Merchandizes by this Act charged with the Subſidy of Tunnage or Poundage hereby granted (other than and except Foreign wrought Silk, Tobacco, Sugars, and refined Sugars, touching which other Proviſions are hereby made) ſhall at any Time or Times be again exported by any Merchant Engliſh, within Twelve Calendary Months, or Stranger within Nine Calendary Months, after the Importation thereof, and that due Proof be firſt made by Certificate from the proper Officers, of the due Entry and Payment of the Subſidy hereby granted, of any ſuch Foreign Goods, Wines, or Merchandizes inward, together with the Oath of the Merchant importing and exporting the ſame, affirming the Truth thereof, and that all other Requiſites ſhall be performed, which are by Law required to be performed, in Caſes where the Half Subſidy is repaid by the ſaid former Act, the whole Subſidy by this Act granted, and which ſhall have been actually paid for ſuch Goods, Wines or Merchandizes, ſhall, without any Delay or Reward, be repaid unto ſuch Merchant or Merchants who do export the ſame, within One Month after Demand thereof; or the Security for the ſaid Subſidy by this Act charged ſhall be vacated, as to ſo much as ſhall be ſo exported; and that as to the ſaid foreign wrought Silks, Tobacco, Sugars, and refined Sugars, no Repayment or Drawback of or for the Subſidy by this Act ſhall be made or allowed for the ſame, unleſs they reſpectively be again exported within the Times hereby limited for other Goods; and that the like due Proof be made, and other Requiſites performed, for the ſaid Silks, Tobacco, Sugar, and refined Sugar, as are hereby directed in the like Caſe for other Goods or Merchandizes exported; and that upon ſuch Exportation of foreign wrought Silks, and ſuch due Proof made, and other Requiſites performed for the ſame, not only the Two Thirds of the Subſidies by this Act directed to be repaid for ſuch Silks as aforeſaid, but alſo the remaining One Third of the ſame Subſidy, ſhall be entirely repaid at the Cuſtom Houſe; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Foreign Goods, exported again in 12 Months after Importation, Subſidy ſhall be repaid. Theſe 12 and 9 Months are enlarged to 3 Years by 7 Geo. 1. ſtat. 1. c. 21. §. 10.

Drawback on exporting foreign Silks, Tobacco, Sugar, &c.

XIV. And whereas it is intended, that the yearly Sum of Seven hundred thouſand Pounds ſhall be ſupplied to His Majeſty for the Service of His Houſhold and Family, and for other His neceſſary Expences and Occaſions, out of the Hereditary Rates and Duties of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, which were granted to the Crown in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, and out of the Rates and Duties of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, payable for the Term of His Majeſty's Life, by an Act of Parliament made and paſſed in the Second Year of the Reign of His Majeſty and the late Queen of Bleſſed Memory, after all the Tallies charged upon the weekly Sum of Six thouſand Pounds iſſuing out of the ſaid ſeveral Rates and Duties of Exciſe, purſuant to an Act of Parliament paſſed in the Seventh Year of His Majeſty's Reign in that Behalf, and ſtill remaining unſatisfied (with the Intereſt thereof) ſhall be fully paid off and cleared; and out of the Revenue of the General Letter Office or Poſt Office, or the Office of the Poſtmaſter General, after all the Tallies charged upon the weekly Sum of Six hundred Pounds, iſſuing out of that Revenue, purſuant to the ſaid Act of Parliament for the Seventh Year of His Majeſty's Reign, and ſtill remaining unſatisfied, and all the Intereſt thereof ſhall be fully paid and diſcharged; and out of the ſmall Branches of His Majeſty's Revenues herein after mentioned and expreſſed, that is to ſay, The Firſt Fruits and Tenths of the Clergy; the Fines for Writs of Covenant and Writs of Entry payable in the Alienation Office; the Poſt Fines; the Revenue of the Wine Licences; the Monies ariſing by Sheriffs Profers and Compoſitions in the Exchequer, and by the Seizures of uncuſtomed and prohibited Goods; the Revenue of the Duchy of Cornwall, and any other Revenue ariſing by the Rents of Lands in England or Wales, or for Fines of Leaſes of the ſame, or any of them; and the Duty of Four and an half per Centum in Specie, ariſing in Barbadoes and the Leeward Iſlands in America; and out of the Monies which from and after the Commencement of this Act ſhall ariſe by the further Subſidies and Duties hereby granted; be it therefore further enacted, and it is hereby enacted and provided by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the ſaid great and ſmall Branches and Revenues herein before mentioned, and out of which the ſaid yearly Sum of Seven hundred thouſand Pounds is intended to be ſupplied as aforeſaid, and every or any of them, ſhall produce in clear Money more than the yearly Sum of Seven hundred thouſand Pounds, to be reckoned from the Five and twentieth Day of December, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, that then the Overplus of ſuch Produce (being more than the ſaid yearly Sum of Seven hundred thouſand Pounds) ſhall not be iſſued, diſpoſed, made uſe of or applied to any Uſe or Purpoſe, or upon any Pretext whatſoever, without the Authority of Parliament: And that all Grants and Diſpoſitions whatſoever hereafter to be made of ſuch Overplus, or any Part thereof, from time to time, without the Authority of Parliament, ſhall be utterly void and of none Effect; and the Grantees, or other Perſons to whom ſuch Grants or Diſpoſitions, or any of them, ſhall be made, of ſuch Overplus, or any Part thereof, ſhall be adjudged uncapable in Law to take, hold, keep, detain or enjoy the ſame; any Law, Cuſtom or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

XLIII. Provided always, That this Act or any thing therein contained ſhall not extend to charge with the ſaid Duties, or any of them, any Bills of Exchange, Accounts, Bills of Parcel, Bills of Fees, or any Bills or Notes (not ſealed) for Payment of any Money at Sight, or upon Demand, or at the End of certain Days of Payment.

XLIV. Provided, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend to charge with the ſaid Duties, or any of them, the Probate of any Will, or Letters of Adminiſtration, of any common Seaman or Soldier, who ſhall be ſlain or die in the Service of His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, a Certificate being produced from the Captain of the Ship or Veſſel, or Captain of the Troop or Company, under whom ſuch Seaman or Soldier ſerved at the Time of his Death, and Oath made of the Truth thereof, before the proper Judge or Officer, by whom ſuch Probate or Adminiſtration ought to be granted; which Oath ſuch Judge or Officer is hereby authorized and required to adminiſter, and for which no Fee or Reward ſhall be taken.

XLV. Provided alſo, That this Act, or any Clauſe therein contained, ſhall not be conſtrued to charge with any Duty, any Warrant made by, or Recognizance taken before, any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, or any Surrender of any Copyhold Eſtate, or Copies of ſuch Eſtate, or any Proceedings of any Court Martial, which relate to any Trial of any common Soldier; or any Orders, Decrees or Proceedings before any Commiſſioners of Sewers, or in the Court of Stannaries; but ſuch Warrants, Recognizances, Surrenders, Copies, Orders, Decrees and Proceedings, ſhall and are hereby declared to be exempted from the Payment of any of the Duties before mentioned in this Act.

XLVI. Provided alſo, and it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Officers at Sea ſhall by this Act pay the ſame Duty for their Stamps that the Officers of the Army at Land pay by this Act, and no more upon the ſame Act only; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Sea Officers to pay the ſame Duty as Land Officers.

XLVII. And it is hereby declared, That all the Duties by this Act granted to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, ſhall nevertheleſs be ſubject and liable to ſuch Condition and Power of Redemption by Parliament, as by any Act of this Seſſion is or ſhall be declared and provided.

Duties redeemable by Parliament.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for the better and more effectual levying, collecting and paying unto His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, the ſeveral and reſpective Duties hereby granted for or upon ſtamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper, it ſhall and may be lawful for His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, and to and for the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or any Three or more of them, or the High Treaſurer of England for the time being, from time to time to nominate and appoint ſuch Perſons as they ſhall think fit, to be Commiſſioners, or Officers for the ſtamping and marking of Parchment, Vellum and Paper, and managing the Duties thereupon, purſuant to this Act; and that the Commiſſioners ſo to be appointed, ſhall keep their Head Office in ſome convenient Place within the Cities of London or Weſtminſter; and ſuch Commiſſioners, or the major Part of them, are hereby impowered, under their Hands and Seals, to appoint ſuch other inferior Officers for the marking or ſtamping of Vellum, Parchment and Paper, or for the better collecting or levying the Duties hereby granted to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, as they in their Diſcretion ſhall think fit; and the ſame Commiſſioners ſhall provide from time to time Marks or Stamps proper for the marking and ſtamping of Vellum, Parchment and Paper, according to which Marks or Stamps the King's Duties ought to be paid.

LIX. And it is hereby further enacted, That the Chief Commiſſioners for the ſaid Duties upon Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, by themſelves, or by their Officers employed under them, ſhall, and they are hereby impowered and required forthwith, upon Demand to them made by any Perſon or Perſons, from time to time, to ſtamp or mark, as this Act directs, any Quantities or Parcels of Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, he or they paying to ſuch Officer or Officers, as ſhall be appointed in that Behalf, the reſpective Duties payable to His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors for the ſame, without any other Fee or Reward, and without Delay; which Stamp or Mark ſhall be a ſufficient Diſcharge for the ſeveral and reſpective Duties by this Act payable for the ſaid Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, which ſhall be ſo ſtamped or marked; and if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall ingroſs or write, or cauſe to be ingroſſed or written, upon any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, any of the Matters or Things for which the ſaid Vellum, Parchment, or Paper ought to have a double or ſingle Stamp or Mark, as aforeſaid, before ſuch Time as the ſaid Vellum, Parchment, or Paper ſhall be marked or ſtamped with ſuch double or ſingle Mark or Stamp (as the Caſe requires) or upon which there ſhall not be ſome double or ſingle Marks or Stamps (as the Caſe ſhall require) reſembling the ſame, or ſhall ingroſs or write, or cauſe to be ingroſſed or written, any Matter or Thing, upon any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, that ſhall be marked or ſtamped for any lower Duty or Duties, than the Duty or Duties by this and the ſaid former Acts, or either of them, payable for what ſhall be ſo ingroſſed or written, ſuch Perſon ſo offending ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds (beſides Coſts of Suit) One Moiety of which Penalty of Ten Pounds ſhall be to the King, and the other Moiety thereof to him or them that will inform or ſue for the ſame, in any Court of Record, by Action of Debt, or of the Caſe, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than One Imparlance, ſhall be allowed: And in caſe any Clerk, Officer, or Perſon, who in reſpect of any publick Office or Employment is or ſhall be intitled or intruſted to make, ingroſs, or write any Records, Deeds, Inſtruments, or Writings, charged to pay a Duty or Duties, as aforeſaid, ſhall be guilty of any Fraud or Practice to deceive His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, of any Duty by this or any of the ſaid former Acts payable, by making, ingroſſing, or writing any ſuch Record, Deed, Inſtrument, or Writing, or cauſing the ſame to be made, ingroſſed, or written, upon Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, not marked or ſtamped according to this Act, or upon which there ſhall not be ſome Stamp or Stamps reſembling the ſame, or upon Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, marked or ſtamped with any Mark or Stamp which he ſhall know to be counterfeited, or by ingroſſing or writing any ſuch Deed, Inſtrument or other Writing, upon Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, that ſhall be marked or ſtamped for a lower Duty, as aforeſaid; that then every ſuch Clerk, Officer, or Perſon, ſo guilty of any ſuch Fraud or Practice, and being thereof lawfully convicted, ſhall (over and above the Penalty aforeſaid) forfeit his Office, Place, or Employment reſpectively, and be diſabled to hold or enjoy the ſame for the future; and if any Attorney belonging to any Court whatſoever, ſhall be guilty of any ſuch Fraud or Practice, as aforeſaid, and be convicted thereof, he ſhall be diſabled for the future to practiſe as an Attorney: And if any Deed, Inſtrument, or Writing whatſoever, by this Act intended to be ſtamped, as aforeſaid, ſhall, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning thereof, be written or ingroſſed by any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever (not being a known Clerk or Officer, who in reſpect of any publick Office or Employment is or ſhall be intitled to the making, writing, or ingroſſing the ſame) upon Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, not marked or ſtamped, or not doubly ſtamped (as the Caſe may require) according to this Act, or upon Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, marked or ſtamped for a lower Duty, as aforeſaid; that then and in every ſuch Caſe, there ſhall be due, anſwered, and paid to His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors (over and above the Duty aforeſaid) for every ſuch Deed, Inſtrument, or Writing, the Sum of Ten Pounds; and that no ſuch Record, Deed, Inſtrument, or Writing, ſhall be pleaded or given in Evidence in any Court, or admitted in any Court to be good, uſeful, or available in Law or Equity, until as well the ſaid Duty, as the ſaid Sum of Ten Pounds, ſhall be firſt paid to the Uſe of His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, and a Receipt produced for the ſame, under the Hand or Hands of ſome of the Officers which ſhall be appointed to receive the Duties above mentioned, and until the Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, on which ſuch Deed, Inſtrument, or Writing, ſhall be written or made, ſhall be marked or ſtamped with a lawful Mark or Stamp, or with double Marks or Stamps, according to this Act; and the proper Officer and Officers are hereby enjoined and required, upon Payment or Tender of the ſaid Duty, and the Sum of Ten Pounds unto him or them, to give a Receipt for the ſame, and to mark or ſtamp, or double mark or ſtamp, the ſaid Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, with the Mark or Stamp that ſhall be proper for ſuch Deed, Inſtrument, or Writing reſpectively. And if any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall, at any Time or Times hereafter, counterfeit or forge any Stamp or Mark to reſemble any Stamp or Mark which ſhall be provided, made, or uſed in purſuance of this Act, or ſhall counterfeit or reſemble the Impreſſion of the ſame, upon any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, thereby to defraud His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, of any the ſaid Duties upon Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, or ſhall utter, vend, or ſell any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, with ſuch counterfeit Mark or Marks thereupon, knowing ſuch Mark or Marks to be counterfeit; then every ſuch Perſon ſo offending, being thereof convicted in due Form of Law, ſhall be judged a Felon, and ſhall ſuffer Death, as in Caſes of Felony, without the Benefit of Clergy.

And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners to be appointed purſuant to this Act, or any Two or more of them, and they are hereby directed, appointed, and required, upon the Terms aforeſaid, and upon the Receipt and Security given, as aforeſaid, to grant a Licence, to be by them ſubſcribed, to every Hawker, Pedlar, Petty Chapman, or any other trading Perſon, for him or herſelf, or for him or herſelf with One or more Horſes, Aſſes, or Mules, or other Beaſt, which he or ſhe ſhall travel with, as the Caſe ſhall require, for which Licence there ſhall be taken only One Shilling, unleſs ſuch Hawker, Pedlar, or Petty Chapman, ſhall travel with Horſe, Aſs, or Mule, or other Beaſt of Burden, and in that Caſe there ſhall be paid for ſuch Licence only Two Shillings, over and above the Duties aforeſaid, and no more; and that the ſaid Commiſſioners to be appointed purſuant to this Act, ſhall keep a ſeparate and diſtinct Account of the Duties granted by this Act, and pay the Money ariſing thereby into His Majeſty's Exchequer, upon Wedneſday in every Week, unleſs a Holiday, and if it be a Holiday, then on the Day next after that is not a Holiday; and upon Neglect or Refuſal of the ſame, ſhall incur the Penalties, Forfeitures, Damages, and Coſts, as other the Officers of the Exchequer herein after mentioned ſhall be liable unto; which Money, ſo paid in, ſhall be applied to the Uſes herein after mentioned by this Act; that is to ſay, to pay Intereſt for the ſaid Tranſport Debt, after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum for One whole Year, and ſo proportionably for any greater or leſſer Sum.

Penalty on Perſon forging or counterfeiting Licence.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall forge or counterfeit any Licence or Licences, or travel with ſuch forged or counterfeited Licences, for the Purpoſes aforeſaid, ſuch Perſon ſhall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds; One Moiety thereof to the King, the other Moiety to him that ſhall proſecute or ſue for the ſame, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, in which no Eſſoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than One Imparlance, ſhall be allowed, and ſhall be ſubject to ſuch other Pains and Penalties as may be inflicted on Perſons for Forgery.

Perſons ſued may plead the General Iſſue, &c.

Treble Coſts.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall be ſued, moleſted, or troubled, for putting in Execution any the Powers contained in this Act, or for doing any Matter or Thing purſuant thereunto, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall and may plead the General Iſſue, Not Guilty, and give the ſpecial Matter in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall be nonſuited, or Judgment be given againſt him or them upon Demurrer, or a Verdict paſs for the Defendant, ſuch Defendant ſhall have his or their Treble Coſts, to be recovered in ſuch Manner as where by Law Coſts are given to Defendants.

Penalty on Conſtable, &c. refuſing to aſſiſt in the Execution of this Act.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Conſtable, Headborough, or other Officer or Officers aforeſaid, ſhall refuſe or neglect, upon due Notice, or on their own View, to be aiding and aſſiſting in the Execution of this Act, being thereunto required, and each and every ſuch Officer or Officers being thereof convicted by the Oath of One or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, before any Juſtice of the Peace for the County or Place where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, ſhall forfeit for each and every ſuch Offence, contrary to this Act, the Sum of Forty Shillings, to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Offenders Goods, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of ſuch Juſtice of the Peace, the One Moiety to the Poor of the Pariſh where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, the other Moiety to the Informer who ſhall proſecute for the ſame, rendring the Overplus thereof to the Owner, if any be.

Hawker, &c. may be detained till he produce Licence, and if he trade without Licence, Juſtice to cauſe the Penalty to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of Goods, &c.

VIII. And it is further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, to ſeize and detain any ſuch Hawker, Pedlar, Petty Chapman, or other trading Perſon or Perſons, as aforeſaid, till ſuch Time as he, ſhe, or they ſhall produce a Licence in that Behalf, if he, ſhe, or they have any, or if he, ſhe, or they ſhall be found trading without a Licence, contrary to this Act, for ſuch reaſonable Time as he, ſhe, or they may give Notice to the Conſtable, Headborough, Tythingmen, Churchwardens, Overſeers of the Poor, or ſome other Pariſh Officer or Officers, who are hereby required to carry ſuch Perſon ſo ſeized before ſome of His Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace of the County or Place where ſuch Offence or Offences ſhall be committed; which ſaid Juſtice of the Peace is hereby authorized and ſtrictly required, either upon Confeſſion of the Party offending, or due Proof by Witneſs upon Oath (which he is hereby impowered to adminiſter) that the Perſon ſo brought before him had ſo traded as aforeſaid, and that no ſuch Licence ſhall be produced by ſuch Offender before the ſaid Juſtice, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to cauſe the ſaid Sum of Twelve Pounds to be forthwith levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Offender or Offenders Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes, rendring the Overplus, if any be, to the Owner or Owners thereof, after true Deduction of the reaſonable Charge for taking the ſaid Diſtreſs, and out of the ſaid Sale to pay the ſaid reſpective Penalties and Forfeitures aforeſaid.

Perſons and Things exempted.

IX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That this Act, or any Thing herein contained, ſhall not extend to prohibit any Perſons from ſelling of any Acts of Parliament, Forms of Prayer, Proclamations, Gazettes, licenced Almanacks, or other printed Papers licenced by Authority, or any Fiſh, Fruits, or Victuals; nor to hinder any Perſon or Perſons, who are the real Workers or Makers of any Goods or Wares within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or his, her, or their Children, Apprentices, Agents, or Servants, to ſuch real Workers or Makers of ſuch Goods or Wares only, from carrying abroad, expoſing to Sale, or ſelling any of the ſaid Goods and Wares of his, her, or their own making, in any publick Mart, Fairs, Markets, or elſewhere; nor any Tinkers, Coopers, Glaziers, Plummers, Harneſs-menders, or other Perſons uſually trading in mending Kettles, Tubs, Houſhold Goods, or Harneſs whatſoever, from going about and carrying with him or them proper Materials for mending the ſame.

A Regiſter to be kept in the Exchequer of all Monies paid in by this Act.

X. Provided alſo, and it is further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be provided and kept in His Majeſty's Exchequer, that is to ſay, in the Office of the Auditor of Receipts, one Book or Regiſter, in which all Monies that ſhall be paid into the Exchequer by virtue of this Act ſhall be entred, regiſtred, and kept apart and diſtinct from all other Monies paid or payable to His Majeſty, or upon any other Branch of His Majeſty's Revenue, or upon any other Account whatſoever.

Penalty on Officers diverting or miſapplying the Monies.

XI. Provided, and it is further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Officer in the Exchequer ſhall divert or miſapply any of the Monies that ſhall be paid into the Exchequer by virtue of this Act, to any other Uſes or Purpoſes than are hereby directed, then ſuch Officer ſo offending ſhall forfeit his Office in the Exchequer, and be incapable of any Office or Place of Truſt, and ſhall be liable to pay the Treble Value of any Sum or Sums of Money ſo diverted or miſapplied to any of the Perſons thereby grieved, their reſpective Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, who will ſue for the ſame by any Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Wager of Law, Privilege of Parliament, or other Privilege, or more than One Imparlance, ſhall be granted or allowed; and all Orders and Warrants for iſſuing, paying, or diſpoſing any of the Monies to be raiſed by virtue of this Act, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning thereof, ſhall be utterly void to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever.

This Act not to hinder the ſelling Goods in any publick Market, Fair, &c.

XII. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, That Nothing herein contained ſhall extend or be conſtrued to extend to hinder any Perſon or Perſons from ſelling or expoſing to Sale any Sorts of Goods or Merchandizes, in any publick Mart, Market, or Fair within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, but that ſuch Perſon or Perſons may do therein as they lawfully might have done before the making of this Act; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

If Duties amount to more than is ſufficient to pay the Intereſt of the Tranſport Debt, Surplus to remain in the Exchequer, and not be diſpoſed of but by Parliament.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe it ſhall ſo happen that the ſeveral additional Duties and Impoſitions granted to His Majeſty by ſeveral Acts of Parliament, towards Payment of Intereſt of the ſaid Tranſport Debt, together with the Duties to be raiſed by virtue of this Act, ſhall amount to more than what may prove ſufficient for Payment of Intereſt, at Five Pounds per Centum, for the ſaid Tranſport Debt, according to the ſeveral Debentures made and to be made out, that then, and in ſuch Caſe, ſuch Surplus ariſing by the ſaid Duties, more than ſufficient for Payment of the Intereſt, ſhall remain in the Exchequer, and not be diſpoſed of otherwiſe than by an Act of Parliament expreſly made in that Behalf.

Commiſſioners and their Clerks, &c. may be paid out of the Duties.

XIV. Provided always, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, or the Lord High Treaſurer for the time being, out of the Monies raiſed by this or the ſaid recited Acts, to pay to the ſaid Commiſſioners to be appointed purſuant to this Act, their Clerks, or any other Perſons, ſuch Sums of Money as they or any of them ſhall or may reaſonably deſerve for their Service, or ſhall or may have expended, in the Execution of, or in relation to, this or the ſaid recited Acts.

This Act not to impower Hawkers, &c. to ſell Wares or Merchandize in any City, &c.

XV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act, or any Thing contained therein, ſhall not extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to give any Power for the licencing of any Hawker, Pedlar, or Petty Chapman, to ſell, or expoſe to Sale, any Wares or Merchandizes in any City, Borough, Town Corporate, or Market Town within this Realm, any otherwiſe than might have been done before the making of this Act; any Thing therein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. XXVIII.

An Act for the exporting Watches, Sword-hilts, and other Manufactures of Silver.

7 & 8 W. 3. c. 19.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the Seventh and Eighth Years of His preſent Majeſty King William the Third, intituled, An Act to encourage the bringing Plate into the Mint to be coined, and for the further remedying the ill State of the Coin of this Kingdom, it is amongſt other Things ſo enacted, That after the laſt Day of March then next enſuing, no wrought Plate of this Kingdom can be ſhipped off, under the great Penalties in the ſaid Act contained, whereby no Home wrought manufactured Plate, though never ſo beneficial to the Artificers and Trade of this Kingdom, is permitted to be exported, which was at that Time a good and wholſome Law, and tended to the Benefit of the Kingdom, by keeping Bullion at Home to be coined: Now foraſmuch as by a ſubſequent Act made in the Eighth and Ninth Years of the Reign of His ſaid Majeſty, intituled, An Act for the encouraging the bringing in of wrought Plate to be coined, it is therein enacted, That from and after the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, no Goldſmith, Silverſmith, or other

8 & 9 W. 3. c. 8.

Perſon whatſoever, ſhall work, make or cauſe to be wrought or made any Silver Veſſel, Plate or Manufacture of Silver, leſs in Fineneſs than that of Eleven Ounces and Ten Penny Weight of fine Silver in every Pound Troy, nor put to Sale the ſame until it be marked, as in the ſaid Act is directed; whereby no Profit can ariſe to any Perſon who ſhall export ſuch Plate, as hath been or ſhall be made purſuant to that Act, by loſing the Charge of the Faſhion in melting down the ſame, and ſelling the Silver Abroad, the principal Thing aimed at to be prevented by the firſt recited Act: But on the contrary a great Benefit may accrue to many Artificers, and to the Kingdom in general, by giving Liberty to export Watches, Sword Hilts, wrought Plate, and ſeveral other Silver Manufactures made within this Kingdom, being of the Fineneſs preſcribed in the ſaid laſt recited Act; be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Four and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, it ſhall and may be lawful to export ſuch Watches, Sword-hilts, wrought Plate, and other Silver Manufactures made within this Kingdom, being of the Fineneſs of Eleven Ounces and Ten Penny Weight to every Pound Troy, and ſo proportionably for a greater or leſſer Weight, according to the Rules preſcribed in the ſaid laſt recited Act, as ſhall be yearly allowed by the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms for the time being, or any Three of them; any Law or Statute to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Watches, Sword hilts, wrought Plate, &c. may be exported, as ſhall be yearly allowed by the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms.

II. And whereas great Quantities of empty Boxes, Caſes, and Dial Plates, for Clocks and Watches, have been exported without their Movements, and in foreign Parts made up with bad Movements, and thereon ſome London Watch-makers Names engraven, and ſo are ſold Abroad for Engliſh Work; and alſo there have been the like ill Practices in England by divers Perſons, as well by ſome profeſſing the Art of Clock and Watch-making, as others ignorant therein, in putting counterfeit Names, as alſo the Names of the moſt known London Watch-makers, on their bad Clocks and Watches, to the great Prejudice of the Buyers, and the Diſreputation of the ſaid Art at Home and Abroad: For the preventing therefore of all ſuch ill Practices for the future, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall, after the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of June, export or ſend, or endeavour to export or ſend, out of this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, any outward or inward Box, Caſe or Dial-plate of Gold, Silver, Braſs or other Metal for Clock or Watch, without the Movement in or with every ſuch Box, Caſe or Dial-plate, made up fit for Uſe, with the Clock or Watch-maker's Name engraven thereon; nor any Perſon whatſoever, after the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of June, ſhall make up or cauſe to be made up any Clock or Watch without engraving, or putting, or cauſing to be engraven or put, his or her own Name and Place of Abode or Freedom, and no other Name or Place, on every Clock or Watch he or ſhe ſhall ſo make up, or cauſe to be made up, under the Penalty of forfeiting every ſuch empty Box, Caſe and Dial-plate, Clock and Watch, not made up and engraven as aforeſaid, and alſo for each and every of ſuch Offence the Sum of Twenty Pounds, One Moiety whereof to be to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety ſhall be to him, her or them that ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed, or more than One Imparlance; any thing herein contained, or any Law or Statute to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

No Caſe or Dial Plate, &c. for Clock or Watch ſhall be exported without the Movement, &c. nor made up, without engraving Maker's Name. Penalty.

CAP. XXIX.

An Act to repeal the Act made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for Relief of Creditors, by making Compoſition with their Debtors, in caſe Two Thirds of Number and Value do agree.

8 & 9 W. 3. c. 18. repealed,

WHEREAS an Act made in the Second Seſſion of this preſent Parliament, held in the Eighth and Ninth Years of His Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for Relief of Creditors, by making Compoſitions with their Debtors, in caſe Two Thirds in Number and Value do agree, hath not anſwered the End for which the ſame was intended, in regard that notwithſtanding the Proviſions in the ſaid Act for preventing Frauds in the making ſuch Compoſitions, many fraudulent Practices have been committed, by making pretended Agreements with Perſons who were not real Creditors, and for greater Advantages than what were expreſſed in ſuch Compoſitions; which Practices have (as there is juſt Cauſe to fear) occaſioned much Perjury: For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Twenty fourth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and eight, the ſaid Act, and every Clauſe, Matter and Thing therein contained, ſhall be repealed, determined, and of no Force.

but not to make void Agreements, &c.

nor Orders for Diſcharge of Priſoner.

II. Provided nevertheleſs, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall not extend, or be conſtrued to extend in any wiſe, to prejudice, make void, or impeach any Agreement or Compoſition made, or which before the ſaid Twenty fourth Day of June ſhall be made, bona fide, and without Fraud, and which ſhall be performed from time to time, according to the true Intent and Meaning thereof, nor any Order for the Diſcharge of any Debtor out of Cuſtody, made or which ſhall be made in purſuance of ſuch Agreement and Compoſition, and by virtue of the aboveſaid Act, or which is or ſhall be within the Saving or Benefit thereof, before the ſaid Twenty fourth Day of June, but that every ſuch Agreement or Compoſition, whereupon any ſuch Order of Diſcharge is or ſhall be made as aforeſaid, ſhall be good and effectual to all Intents and Purpoſes, and every ſuch Order of Diſcharge is hereby ratified and confirmed; and every ſuch Agreement or Compoſition, whereupon no ſuch Order of Diſcharge is or ſhall be made as aforeſaid, ſhall be and remain of the ſame Force and Effect (and no other) as if this preſent Act had not been made; nor to pardon, indemnify, or diſcharge any Perſon who hath incurred, or before the ſaid Twenty fourth Day of June ſhall incur any Penalty or Forfeiture, by committing any Offence againſt the ſaid Act, but that every ſuch Offender ſhall be liable to the ſame Forfeitures and Penalties, as if the ſaid Act had continued in full Force.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons, who heretofore have been or ſhall, before the ſaid Twenty fourth Day of June, be diſcharged by virtue of this Act, ſhall be deemed or adjudged to be diſcharged thereby, who to procure any Agreement, Compoſitions, Releaſes or Diſcharges whatſoever, from any of his or their Creditor or Creditors, have before any One of the Judges of either Bench, Barons of the Exchequer, or Maſter in Chancery, Ordinary or Extraordinary, willingly and corruptly made, or before the ſaid Twenty fourth Day of June ſhall make, any falſe Oath, to the defrauding of his or their Creditor or Creditors, but that all and every ſuch Agreement, Releaſes and Diſcharges upon any falſe Oath obtained, and being thereof convicted upon any Indictment or Information, ſhall be void and of none Effect; any thing in this or the ſaid former Act contained to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Releaſe and Diſcharge on falſe Oath to be void.

CAP. XXX.

An Act for increaſing His Majeſty's Duties upon Luſtrings and Alamodes.

WHEREAS the wrought Silks, commonly called Luſtrings and Alamodes, under the Name of wrought Silks, in and by the Book of Rates referred to in the Act of Tunnage and Poundage, which was made and paſſed in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King CHARLES the Second, were valued at Forty Shillings the Pound Weight, containing Sixteen Ounces; and according to that Valuation are and will be liable to pay ſeveral Subſidies, additional and other Duties or Impoſitions to Your Majeſty, by virtue of ſeveral Acts of Parliament ſince that Time made and paſt, referring to the ſaid Book of Rates for the Value of the ſaid Silks: We Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of England in Parliament aſſembled, being ſenſible that the ſaid Silks, called Luſtrings and Alamodes, were much undervalued in the ſaid Book, and that the ſame are ordinarily of a much higher Value than Forty Shillings for ſuch a Pound Weight as aforeſaid, do therefore in all Humility grant, that Your Majeſty's Duties for and upon all Luſtrings and Alamodes imported, now payable by or according to the ſaid Valuation of Forty Shillings the Pound Weight, ſhall be increaſed, anſwered and paid according to the Valuation herein after mentioned; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That all Luſtrings and Alamodes, which from and after the Four and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, ſhall be imported or brought into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, ſhall be valued at Four Pounds for every Pound Weight, containing Sixteen Ounces as aforeſaid: And His Majeſty's ſeveral Subſidies, additional and other Duties and Impoſitions as aforeſaid, during the Continuance of the ſame reſpectively, ſhall be collected, paid and anſwered for and upon the ſaid Luſtrings and Alamodes, according to the ſaid Valuations of Four Pounds for every Pound Weight, as if the ſame had been originally inſerted in the ſaid Book of Rates, and had been particularly referred to (inſtead of the ſaid Rate of Forty Shillings) in the ſeveral Acts before mentioned: And that according to the ſame Rules and Methods, and with ſuch or the like Allowances, and under ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, as are by the ſaid Acts, and every or any of them preſcribed, for the reſpective Duties on the ſaid Commodities; any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. XL.

An Act for the Explanation and better Execution of former Acts made againſt Tranſportation of Wooll, Fullers Earth, and Scouring Clay.

1 W. & M. ſſ. 1. c. 32. 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 24. 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 28.

WHEREAS ſeveral Laws have been made to prevent the Exportation of Wooll and Fullers Earth out of this Kingdom, yet nevertheleſs the ſaid Exportation is ſtill notoriouſly continued, to the great Prejudice and Diſcouragement of the Woollen Trade and Manufacture of England: And whereas in the Firſt Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty King WILLIAM and the late Queen MARY, there paſſed an Act, intituled, An Act for the better preventing the Exportation of Wooll, and encouraging the Woollen Manufactures of this Kingdom; which Act was continued by One other Act made in the Fourth and Fifth Years of their ſaid Majeſties Reign, intituled, An Act for reviving, continuing, and explaining ſeveral Laws therein mentioned, which were expired and near expiring; which ſaid Act was further continued in the Seventh Year of His preſent Majeſty's Reign, with ſome Alterations, intituled, An Act for the more effectual preventing the Exportation of Wooll, and for the encouraging the Importation of Wooll from Ireland, which Act is now near expiring: And whereas for preventing the ſaid Miſchiefs it is neceſſary that the laſt mentioned Act, with ſome convenient Alterations, ſhould be continued, and alſo that there ſhould be ſome more effectual Remedies than have been hitherto provided; be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid laſt mentioned Act, made in the Seventh Year of His Majeſty's Reign, and intituled, An Act for the more effectual preventing the Exportation of Wooll, and for encouraging the Importation of Wooll from Ireland, and every Clauſe, Matter, and Thing therein contained, except what is hereby otherwiſe altered, explained, enlarged, or repealed, ſhall continue and be in full Force, as if the ſame were herein and hereby particularly recited and mentioned.

7 & 8 W. 3. c. 28.

II. And whereas under a Pretention of carrying Fullers Earth and Scouring Clay into Ireland, the ſame is conveyed into Scotland, and other foreign Parts, to the further Prejudice of the Woollen Manufacture of this Kingdom; be it further enacted, That from and after the Four and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, no Fullers Earth or Scouring Clay ſhall be exported out of this Kingdom, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, into Ireland, or Scotland, or any other foreign Parts, upon any Pretence whatſoever, but that the Exporters, being legally convicted, ſhall be liable to the Forfeitures of One Shilling for every Pound Weight.

4 Geo. 1. c. 11.
5 Geo. 1. c. 11.
5 Geo. 2. c. 21.
12 Geo. 2. c. 21.
Penalty on exporting Fullers Earth or Scouring Clay.

III. And whereas it is a common Practice in Romney Marſh and other Places adjacent, for evil diſpoſed Perſons to ſheer their Sheep, and lodge Wooll near the Sea Side, and ſometimes to bring Wooll out of the Country more remote, and lodge it as aforeſaid, where by Fraud and Force in the Night Time, the ſaid Perſons do cauſe the ſame to be tranſported to France, to the Increaſe of the Trade of that Kingdom, and the Deſtruction of the Trade of England: To prevent theſe Practices for the future, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Owner and Owners of Wooll ſhorn or houſed, laid up or lodged, within Ten Miles of the Sea Side, within the Counties of Kent and Suſſex, ſhall be obliged to give an exact Account in Writing, within Three Days after the ſheering thereof, of his, her, or their Number of Fleeces, and where lodged or houſed, to the next adjacent Port or Officer of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms, and the like Notice before he, ſhe, or they ſhall preſume to remove any Part or Parcel thereof, of the ſaid Number of Fleeces and Weight, and the Name and Abode of the Perſon or Perſons to whom it is diſpoſed, and the Place to which it is intended to be carried; and to take a Certificate from the Officer who firſt entred the ſame, upon the Penalty of forfeiting all ſuch Wooll as ſhall not be ſo entred or otherwiſe diſpoſed of, and the Owner or Owners alſo to be liable to the further Penalties of Three Shillings for every Pound Weight of all ſuch Wooll, as if the ſame had been actually tranſported; which ſaid Account the Officers reſpectively are hereby required to take gratis, and to give ſuch Certificate or Certificates, without Delay, to the Party or Parties demanding the ſame, and ſhall therein ſpecify the Name or Names of the Owners and Buyers thereof, and limit it to ſuch Times and Places to be removed; for which Duty and Service the ſaid Officer or Officers ſhall take and demand the Sum of Six Pence and no more for each Certificate, upon any Account or Pretence whatſoever.

Owners of Wooll within 10 Miles of the Sea Side, in Kent or Suſſex, to give an Account of the Number of Fleeces, and where lodged, &c.

Penalty.

IV. And whereas it is a common Practice in the ſaid Marſh, for divers Perſons, not reſident upon the Place, to buy up great Quantities of Wooll, and tranſport, or cauſe the ſame to be tranſported, out of this Kingdom: For preventing ſuch Practices for the future, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons reſiding within Fifteen Miles of the Sea, in the Counties of Kent and Suſſex, ſhall preſume to buy any Wooll, before they do enter into Bond to the King's Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, with Sureties, that all the Wooll they buy ſhall not be ſold by them to any Perſon or Perſons within Fifteen Miles of the Sea; and in caſe any Wooll be found carried towards the Sea Side in the Counties aforeſaid, unleſs ſuch Wooll be firſt entred, and Security given, the ſame ſhall be forfeited, and the Perſon or Perſons offending therein ſhall alſo forfeit Three Shillings for every Pound Weight of all ſuch Wooll.

No Perſon ſhall ſell Wooll within 15 Miles of the Sea Side, in Kent or Suſſex, unleſs entred, &c.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Wooll removed from the Place where it was firſt houſed, lodged, or laid, after ſheering, within Ten Miles, as aforeſaid, ſhall be lodged after the firſt removing within Fifteen Miles of the Sea, in the Counties aforeſaid, upon Pain of forfeiting all ſuch Wooll, if found; but if carried away, then every Perſon or Perſons, who were the Owners of the ſaid Wooll, to forfeit for every Pound Weight the Sum of Three Shillings.

Nor remove it from the Place where it was firſt houſed.

Penalty.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon or Perſons that ſhall lay, or cauſe to be laid or hid, any Wooll within Fifteen Miles of the Sea, and not entred, as aforeſaid, all ſuch Wooll ſhall be ſeized and forfeited; that upon any Seizure of ſuch Wooll, every Perſon, laying Claim to the ſame, ſhall give ſufficient Security in His Majeſty's Court of Exchequer (if caſt upon Trial) to pay Treble Coſts, over and above the Penalties and Forfeitures aforeſaid.

Wooll laid within 15 Miles of the Sea, forfeited, &c.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action or Suit ſhall be brought and proſecuted by any Perſon or Perſons againſt any Perſon employed in the Execution of this Act, for any Matter, Cauſe, or Thing, by them or either of them done, committed, or executed by virtue of this Act, or any Clauſe or Article therein contained; that then and in every ſuch Caſe the Defendant or Defendants may plead the General Iſſue, and give the Special Matter in Evidence at the Trial, that the ſame was done in purſuance and by Authority of this Act; and if upon Examination it ſhall ſo happen to be done, the Jury ſhall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and in ſuch Caſe, or if the Plaintiff ſhall be Nonſuit, or diſcontinue his Action, the Defendant or Defendants ſhall have and recover Treble Coſts, which he or they ſhall ſuſtain or be put unto, by reaſon of his or their wrongful Vexation in Defence of the ſaid Action or Suit.

Perſons ſued may plead the General Iſſue.

Treble Coſts.

VIII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all the Forfeitures and Penalties before in this Act mentioned, ſhall be diſtributed in Manner and Form following, viz. One Third Part to the Uſe of His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Two Thirds to the Uſe of ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall ſeize or ſue for the ſame, by Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of His Majeſty's Courts at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed.

Forfeitures and Penalties, how to be diſtributed.

IX. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second it is enacted, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhould, at any Time thereafter, be impeached for any Offence againſt the ſaid Act, unleſs ſuch Perſons be proſecuted within One Year next enſuing ſuch Offence committed; And whereas a great many Perſons who have been guilty of tranſporting Wooll, but Diſcovery thereof hath not been made till the Expiration of Twelve Months after the Offence committed, to the great Encouragement of ſeveral notorious Offenders; For the Prevention whereof be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for His Majeſty to cauſe ſuch Perſon or Perſons, as are or ſhall be guilty of tranſporting or cauſing to be tranſported any Wooll, Wooll-fells, Fullers Earth, or Scouring Clay, to be ſued and proſecuted at any Time within Three Years after the Offence committed, in the ſame

12 Car. 2. c. 32.

Exporters of Wooll, &c. may be proſecuted in 3 Years after Offence.

Manner as Informations on other penal Statutes have been uſually and may lawfully be proſecuted.

Owners of Wooll ſhorn, and lodged within fifteen Miles of the Borders of Scotland, to give an Account of the Number of Fleeces, &c. 1 W. & M. ſt. 1. c. 32. and make Entry thereof. Penalty.

X. And for the better preventing the carrying of Wooll into Scotland from England, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of June, all and every Owner or Owners of Wooll, ſhorn, laid up, or lodged within Fifteen Miles of the Borders of Scotland, ſhall and are hereby required to give an exact Account of his, her, or their Number of Fleeces, and where lodged or houſed, to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall be appointed and impowered for that Purpoſe, purſuant to the Direction or true Meaning of the aforeſaid Act of Parliament, made in the Firſt Year of his preſent Majeſty and the late Queen; which Perſon or Perſons ſhall give Attendance for that Purpoſe at the ſeveral Ports and Market Towns within the ſaid Diſtance of Fifteen Miles; and ſhall and are hereby required to make a true Entry of ſuch Wooll, in a Book to be kept for that Purpoſe: And in caſe any Owner or Owners of ſuch Wooll ſhall neglect or refuſe to give ſuch Account to ſuch Perſon or Perſons, as ſhall after ſuch Notice given remove ſuch Wooll, or any Part thereof, without Licence from ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall have made ſuch Entry, he, ſhe, or they, ſo neglecting or refuſing, or removing afterwards his, her, or their Wooll, or any Part of it, without Licence, as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit Three Shillings for every Pound Weight of ſuch Wooll; and all the Wooll that ſhall be found within the Diſtance aforeſaid, of the Borders of Scotland, not entred, as aforeſaid, ſhall be and is hereby forfeited, One Third Part to His Majeſty, His Heirs, and Succeſſors, and the other Two Third Parts to him or them who ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, in which no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than One Imparlance ſhall be allowed.

Wooll unentred and found &c. forfeited.

7 & 8 W. 3. c. 28.

XI. And whereas by an Act made in the Parliament held in the Seventh and Eighth Years of His preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for the more effectual preventing the Exportation of Wooll, and for the encouraging the Importation thereof from Ireland, amongſt other Things it is enacted, That the Hundred out of which any Wooll ſhall be exported, be liable to ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures as is mentioned in the ſaid Act; but the Hundred of Winchelſea in the Cinque Ports being divided by a navigable Arm of the Sea, ſo that the Inhabitants on the one Side thereof cannot be privy to or prevent what is done by thoſe of the other Side; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Hundred of Winchelſea ſhall be deemed and taken, in reſpect to the ſaid Act, as Two diſtinct Hundreds (that is to ſay) the Part of the one Side of the ſaid Arm of the Sea as one Hundred, and the Part on the other Side as one other intire Hundred; and the Penalties, which may be forfeited for ſuffering ſuch Exportation, ſhall affect, charge, and be levied on that Part only of the ſaid Hundred which lies on the ſame Side of the ſaid Arm of the Sea, out of which ſuch Exportation was made and permitted; any thing in this or any other Act to the contrary notwithſtanding; Provided nevertheleſs, That nothing in this Act ſhall be conſtrued to extend to divide the ſaid Hundred in any other Particular but in this only.

Hundred of Winchelſea to be taken as two diſtinct Hundreds, &c. as to Wooll.

CAP. XLI.

An Act for the better preventing the Imbezlement of His Majeſty's Stores of War, and preventing Cheats, Frauds, and Abuſes, in paying Seamens Wages.

1 Geo. 1. c. 25. 9 Geo. 1. c. 8.

WHEREAS notwithſtanding divers good Laws made and enacted, for the preventing of the ſtealing and Imbezlement of His Majeſty's Stores of War, and Naval Stores, thoſe Frauds, Thefts, and Imbezlements are frequently practiſed, and the convicting of ſuch Offenders is rendred difficult and impracticable, by Reaſon it rarely happens that direct Proof can be made of ſuch Offender's immediate taking, imbezling, or carrying away any of His Majeſty's ſaid Stores of War and Naval Stores, out of or from His Majeſty's Store-houſes, Docks, Yards, Ships, Ordnance, or other Places for keeping and preſerving the ſame, but only that ſuch Goods are marked with the King's Mark, and found in the Cuſtody and Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Perſon accuſed for ſtealing or imbezling the ſame, to the great Encouragement of ſuch wicked Offenders, and to His Majeſty's and the Kingdom's great Damage: For preventing ſuch Imbezlements for the future, and for the more effectual Execution of the Laws and Statutes already in Force againſt ſuch Imbezlements, and Thefts, be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Four and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, it ſhall not be lawful to or for any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, other than Perſons authorized by contracting with His Majeſty's Principal Officers or Commiſſioners of the Navy, Ordnance, or Victualling Office for His Majeſty's Uſe, to make any Stores of War or Naval Stores whatſoever, with the Marks uſually uſed to and marked upon His Majeſty's ſaid Warlike and Naval or Ordnance Stores; that is to ſay, any Cordage of Three Inches and upwards, wrought with a white Thread laid the contrary Way, or any ſmaller Cordage, to wit, from Three Inches downwards, with a Twine in lieu of a White Thread, laid to the contrary Way as aforeſaid, or any Canvas wrought or unwrought, with a Blue Streak in the Middle, or any other Stores with the broad Arrow, by Stamp, Brand or otherwiſe, upon Pain that every ſuch Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall make ſuch Goods ſo marked as aforeſaid, not being a Contractor with His Majeſty's Principal Officers or Commiſſioners of the Navy, Ordnance, or Victuallers for His Majeſty's Uſe, or employed by ſuch Contractor for that Purpoſe as aforeſaid, ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit ſuch Goods, and the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, together with Coſts of Suit; One Moiety whereof ſhall be to His Majeſty, and the other Moiety to the Informer, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Privilege, Protection, Wager of Law, Injunction, or Order of Reſtraint, nor more than One Imparlance ſhall be allowed.

No warlike or naval Stores, except for the King's Uſe, ſhall be made with the King's Marks, &c.

Penalty.

Penalty on Perſon in whoſe Cuſtody ſuch marked Stores are found, &c.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſuch Perſon or Perſons, in whoſe Cuſtody, Poſſeſſion or Keeping ſuch Goods or Stores marked as aforeſaid ſhall be found, not being employed as aforeſaid, and ſuch Perſon or Perſons who ſhall conceal ſuch Goods or Stores marked as aforeſaid, being indicted and convicted of ſuch Concealment, ment, or of the having ſuch Goods found in his Cuſtody, Poſſeſſion or Keeping, ſhall forfeit ſuch Goods, and the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, together with the Coſts of Proſecution, One Moiety to His Majeſty, and the other Moiety to the Informer, to be recovered as aforeſaid, and ſhall alſo ſuffer Impriſonment, until Payment and Performance of the ſaid Forfeiture, unleſs ſuch Perſon ſhall, upon his Trial, produce a Certificate under the Hand of Three or more of His Majeſty's Principal Officers or Commiſſioners of the Navy, Ordnance or Victuallers, expreſſing the Numbers, Quantities or Weights of ſuch Goods, as he or ſhe ſhall then be indicted for, and the Occaſion and Reaſon of ſuch Goods coming to his or her Hands or Poſſeſſion.

Unleſs he produce a Certificate, &c.
By 9 Geo. 1. c. 8. § 3 & 4. the Penalty of this Act may be mitigated.

III. And foraſmuch as divers wicked Perſons, during the late War and ſince, for Lucre and Gain have perſonated Seamen, who have really ſerved, or are ſuppoſed to have ſerved on Board His Majeſty's Ships, and thereby have received divers Sums of His Majeſty's Money at the Pay Office, or elſewhere, of His Majeſty's Officers appointed for Payment of His Majeſty's Fleet and Ships, in Deceipt, as well of His Majeſty, as of the Perſons who have really ſerved on Board any of His Majeſty's Ships, and have alſo for ſuch wicked Purpoſes forged and counterfeited divers Letters of Attorney or Bills of Sale, Aſſignments or laſt Wills, in the Name or Names of Perſons who have really ſerved, or were ſuppoſed to have ſerved on Board His Majeſty's ſaid Ships, and have and do alſo procure daily, divers Men and Women to perſonate, and divers wicked Perſons do of their own Accord perſonate the Wives, Relations or Creditors of ſuch Seamen, who have, or are ſuppoſed to have, ſerved on Board of His Majeſty's Ships, and thereby have falſly taken out Letters of Adminiſtration to ſuch Seaman or Seamen, having ſerved, or ſuppoſed to have ſerved on Board of His Majeſty's Ships, or have forged and counterfeited Letters of Attorney, Bills of Sale, or other Authorities, in the Names of the Executors or Adminiſtrators of ſuch Seamen, for the Receipt of ſuch Wages as were due, or ſuppoſed to be due, to ſuch Seamen, having ſerved, or ſuppoſed to have ſerved as aforeſaid: For the Prevention of which ſaid wicked Practices for the future, be it enacted, That all and every ſuch Perſon or Perſons, his, her or their Aiders or Abettors, that ſhall be convicted of the ſaid Crimes and Offences, committed from and after the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of June, ſhall for every ſuch Offence, over and above the Penalties to be inflicted by any Laws now in Force, forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, together with the Coſts of Proſecution, One Moiety to His Majeſty, the other Moiety to the Informer, to be recovered as aforeſaid, and ſhall alſo ſuffer Impriſonment until Payment of the ſaid Forfeiture.

Penalty on perſonating any Seaman, or forging Letter of Attorney, Bill of Sale, or laſt Will, &c.
This Clauſe enforced and explained by 1 Geo. 1. ſtat. 2. c. 25. §. 7.

IV. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Principal Officers or Commiſſioners of the Navy, Ordnance or Victualling Office for the time being, may ſell and diſpoſe of any of the Stores aforeſaid, ſo marked as aforeſaid, as they did or might have done before the making of this Act; and that ſuch Perſon or Perſons as heretofore have or ſhall hereafter buy any ſuch Stores, or other Stores ſo marked as aforeſaid, of the ſaid Principal Officers or Commanders, or by their Order, may keep and enjoy the ſame without incurring the Penalty of this Act, or any Law to the contrary whatſoever, upon producing a Certificate or Certificates under the Hand and Seal of Three or more of the ſaid Principal Officers or Commiſſioners of the Navy, Ordnance or Victualling Office, that they bought ſuch Goods from them the ſaid Principal Officers or Commiſſioners, or from ſuch Perſon or Perſons as did buy the ſaid Stores from the ſaid Principal Officers or Commiſſioners at any Time before ſuch Stores were found in their Cuſtody; in which Certificate or Certificates the Quantities of ſuch Stores ſhall be expreſſed, and the Time when and where bought of the ſaid Commiſſioners, who, or any Three or more of them for the time being, are hereby impowered and directed, from time to time, to give to ſuch Perſon or Perſons who ſhall deſire the ſame, and have bought, and ſhall hereafter buy any of the aforeſaid Stores, within Thirty Days after the Sale and Delivery of the ſaid Stores ſo ſold or to be ſold as aforeſaid.

Commiſſioners of the Navy, Ordnance, &c. may ſell any of the ſaid Stores ſo marked, &c.

Buyer to have a Certificate thereof, &c.

Quantities to be expreſſed.

V. And for the better Encouragement of ſuch Perſons who ſhall make Seizures or Diſcoveries of any ſuch Stores imbezilled or ſtolen; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any Perſon or Perſons ſhall be ſued or proſecuted for or by reaſon of their diſcovering or ſeizing any ſuch Stores or Goods ſo marked as aforeſaid, that in every ſuch Caſe, ſuch Perſons ſo ſued or proſecuted may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act and the ſpecial Matter in Evidence: And in caſe that upon the Trial of ſuch Iſſue the Defendants ſo ſued ſhall make Proof, that ſuch Goods or Stores, ſo diſcovered or ſeized by them, were ſo marked as aforeſaid, and that the Plaintiffs or Proſecutors in ſuch Suit or Proſecution ſhall not at ſuch Trial make good Proof that they were ſo employed, or had ſuch Certificate as aforeſaid, before ſuch Diſcovery and Seizure made, and that they did ſhew the ſame unto ſuch Defendants before ſuch Suit or Proſecution commenced or brought, ſuch Defendant ſhall be acquitted and found Not Guilty thereupon; unleſs ſuch Defendants, upon Sight of ſuch Certificate, did not deliver back unto ſuch Plaintiffs or Proſecutors, at their Requeſt, or otherwiſe, all ſuch Goods and Stores ſo ſeized, in as good Plight and Condition, as they were at the Time of ſuch Certificate ſhewn; and in caſe any ſuch Defendants ſhall be ſo or otherwiſe acquitted on ſuch Trial, and that ſuch Plaintiffs or Proſecutors ſhall diſcontinue ſuch their Suit or Proſecution, or be nonſuited therein, ſuch Defendants ſhall recover Treble Coſts.

Perſon ſued may plead the General Iſſue, &c.

VI. And whereas it is neceſſary that Seamen ſhould appoint Attornies who may receive their Pay in their Abſence, but of late an evil Practice is introduced, that in the Letters conſtituting ſuch Attornies, there is added a Clauſe purporting a Will made by ſuch Seamen, whereby they make their Attornies their Executors, and give their whole Eſtate, or great Part thereof, the Seamen being ignorant of the Efficacy and Conſequence of ſuch a Clauſe, whereby the Relations and Families of ſuch Seamen as are killed at Sea often ſuffer great Loſs: For preventing ſuch Inconveniency for the future, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of June, no Will of any Seaman contained, printed or written in the ſame Inſtrument, Paper or Parchment, with a Warrant or Letter of Attorney, ſhall be good or available in Law to any Intent or Purpoſe whatſoever.

Geo. 2. c. 14. §. 10.

No Seaman's Will contained in the ſame Inſtrument with a Letter of Attorney ſhall be good.

VII. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Eccleſiaſtical Court, or any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, under any Pretence, do take or receive any more than the Sum of One Shilling for the Seal, writing, or ſuing forth any Eccleſiaſtical Court, &c. to take only 1 s. for the ſuing forth Letters of Adminiſtration to the Wife, &c. of any Seaman dying in the King's Navy, unleſs the Goods, &c. amount to 20 l.

Letters of Adminiſtration granted, or hereafter to be granted, to the Wife or Children of any Seaman whatſoever, dying in the Pay of His Majeſty's Navy, unleſs the Goods and Chattels of ſuch Seaman do amount to the Sum of Twenty Pounds: And if any Officer or Officers ſhall preſume to take any more than the Sum of One Shilling, the Perſon or Perſons ſo offending ſhall forfeit to the Party grieved the Sum of Ten Pounds, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record, or elſewhere.

King's Stores may be lent to any Ship in Diſtreſs, ſo they be reſtored. Borrower to have a Certificate. 9 Geo. 1. c. 8.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall be conſtrued to hinder any the Principal Officers and Commiſſioners of the Navy, or any Chief Commander of any of His Majeſty's Ships at Sea, to lend any of His Majeſty's Stores to any Merchant Ship or Veſſel in Diſtreſs, or otherwiſe, as might lawfully be done before the making of this Act, in caſe ſuch Goods ſo lent be reſtored with all poſſible Conveniency; and provided ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo borrowing the ſaid Stores, from time to time, have ſuch Certificate as aforeſaid, which the ſaid Principal Officers and Commiſſioners of the Navy, or Commander in Chief, are hereby required to give to the Party or Parties that ſhall ſo borrow the ſame. This made a Publick Act by 1 Geo. 1. ſeſs. 2. cap. 25. ſect. 14.

CAP. XLII.

EXP.

An Act for enlarging the Time for regiſtring of Ships, purſuant to the Act for preventing Frauds, and regulating Abuſes, in the Plantation Trade.

CAP. XLIII.

An Act for the better Encouragement of the Royal Luſtring Company, and the more effectual preventing the fraudulent Importation of Luſtrings and Alamodes.

No foreign Alamodes or Luſtrings to be imported into England, &c. but in the Port of London, &c.

Licence to be taken for importing the ſame.

WHEREAS the Manufacture of Black Luſtrings and Alamodes, ſet up by the Royal Luſtring Company, hath been very advantageous and beneficial to this Kingdom, by employing great Numbers of the Poor, and preventing the Exportation of our Coin for purchaſing of thoſe Commodities in foreign Parts: And whereas notwithſtanding the ſeveral Laws made for the Encouragement of the ſaid Manufacture, and for the preventing the Importation of ſuch foreign Silks without paying the Duties charged thereon, great Quantities of the ſaid foreign Silks have been brought into this Kingdom, without paying any Duty or Cuſtom for the ſame; by Means whereof the ſaid Royal Luſtring Company have been very much diſcouraged in the carrying on the ſaid Manufacture: For Remedy whereof, and that the ſaid Company may have all due Encouragement to enable them to proceed in ſo good an Undertaking, be it enacted, and it is hereby enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Firſt Day of July, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred and ninety eight, no foreign Silks called or known by the Name of Alamodes or Luſtrings, ſhall be imported or brought into any Port or Place whatſoever within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, other than the Port of London only; and that Notice ſhall be given to the Commiſſioners or Chief Managers of the Cuſtoms in the ſaid Port of London for the time being, of the Quality and Quantity, with the Marks, Numbers, and Package of all ſuch Silks intended to be imported, with the Name of the Importer, and the Name of the Ship, and her Burthen, and the Name of the Maſter or Commander on which they are to be laden, and the Place or Port where the ſame are to be ſhipped or taken on Board, and a Licence ſhall be taken under the Hands of the Commiſſioners or Chief Managers of the Cuſtoms in the ſaid Port of London for the time being, or any Three of them, for the lading and importing of the ſame as aforeſaid, which Licence they are hereby authorized and required to grant without any Fee or Reward, or any other Charge to the Perſons demanding the ſame.

Commiſſioners to ſeal Alamodes, &c. imported, and keep an Entry thereof.

Alamodes, &c. brought into any other Port forfeited, and to be ſold, and exported again. 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 36.

II. And for the better preventing the fraudulent Importation of ſuch Silks, without paying the Duties which are or ſhall be due and payable for the ſame; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Commiſſioners or Chief Managers of the Cuſtoms in the ſaid Port of London for the time being, ſhall and are hereby authorized and required, from time to time, to mark and ſeal, or cauſe to be marked and ſealed, all ſuch Alamodes and Luſtrings, which ſhall, from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of July, be imported according to the Directions of this Act, and to keep, or cauſe to be kept an Entry or Regiſtry thereof in the Cuſtom-houſe in the ſaid Port of London, in a Book to be provided for that Purpoſe only, which ſaid Entry or Regiſtry ſhall be made without any Fee or Reward, before the ſaid Goods be delivered out of the Cuſtom-houſe Warehouſe: And in caſe any of the ſaid Silks ſhall be imported or brought into any Port or Place whatſoever within this Realm, other than the Port of London, or ſhall be imported without ſuch Notice firſt given, and Licence taken out as aforeſaid, and the Duties paid for the ſame, or ſhall not be ſo ſealed and marked as aforeſaid, ſuch Silks, or the full Value thereof, ſhall be forfeited; and all ſuch Silks, which ſhall be ſeized and forfeited by virtue of this or any former Act, ſhall be ſold and exported, and the ſame Rules and Methods ſhall be obſerved in the ſelling and exporting thereof, as are mentioned and contained in an Act made in the Eighth and Ninth Years of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for the further Encouragement of the Manufacture of Luſtrings and Alamodes within this Realm.

Penalty on Perſon importing Alamodes, &c. contrary to this Act.

III. And for the better preventing the Importation of the ſame, in relation to Silks therein directed to be exported, and all and every Perſon and Perſons whatſoever, who ſhall import, bring or convey, or cauſe or procure to be imported, brought or conveyed into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, any Alamodes or Luſtrings, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, or who ſhall knowingly receive or take the ſame into his, her or their Houſe, Warehouſe, Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion, or ſhall ſell, barter or offer to Sale, or cauſe to be ſold or bartered, or offered to Sale any ſuch foreign Silks ſo fraudulently imported, and all and every their Aiders, Abettors and Aſſiſtants knowing thereof, ſhall forfeit and loſe the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Commiſſion or Warrant Officer, or other Perſon, who now is, or hereafter ſhall be, in the Service of His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, and ſhall have the Command or Charge of any Ship or Veſſel whatſoever, ſhall import, bring, ſend, or convey, or cauſe, procure, or ſuffer to be imported, brought, ſent, or conveyed, or take or load on board, any Alamodes or Luſtrings, in order to be imported into this Kingdom, or ſhall unſhip, or ſuffer to be unſhipped into any Barge, Hoy, Boat, or other Veſſel, any ſuch Silks, knowing thereof, he ſhall, over and above the Forfeitures and Penalties to which he is liable by this or any other Act, be ipſo facto rendred incapable of ſerving His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, either by Sea or Land, or of having or receiving any Benefit or Advantage which he ſhall or may be intitled to by virtue of ſuch Service; and if any Seaman, Mariner, or other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, belonging or which ſhall belong to any Ship or Veſſel, ſhall diſcover any Alamodes or Luſtrings, which ſhall be imported, brought, ſent, or conveyed in any Ship or Veſſel whatſoever into this Kingdom, or which ſhall be unſhipped into any Barge, Hoy, Boat, or other Veſſel, either at Sea, or in any Harbour, Creek, or Bay in this Kingdom, in order to be imported, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, ſuch Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Diſcovery, ſhall (over and above ſuch Part of the Forfeitures and Advantages to which he or they ſhall be intitled by virtue of this Act) be immediately diſcharged from his or their Service on board ſuch Ship or Veſſel, if he or they ſhall deſire the ſame; and the Captain or Maſter of ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall immediately give him or them a Ticket or Tickets, Certificate or Certificates, which ſhall intitle him or them to all the Wages due to him or them, for his or their Service on board ſuch Ship or Veſſel.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Officers belonging to the Cuſtoms, and all Sheriffs, Mayors, Bailiffs, Conſtables, and other Officers, ſhall be aiding and aſſiſting in the effectual Execution of this Act: And that if any Officer or Perſon of or belonging to the Cuſtoms, ſhall willingly or knowingly connive at the fraudulent Importation, delivering, receiving, buying, or ſelling of any Alamodes or Luſtrings, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act; or if ſuch Officer, or any Informer, or other Perſon or Perſons, ſhall take upon him or them to ſeize any the ſaid Silks, or proſecute any Perſon or Perſons, upon or by Virtue or by Means of this Act, or any other Act, and ſhall by Fraud or Colluſion deſiſt or delay the Proſecution to Condemnation of the ſaid Silks, or any Part thereof, after Seizure or Stay of the ſame, or the Proſecution of any Perſon or Perſons, for any Offence againſt this or any other Act, relating to the fraudulent Importation of ſuch Silks, or the not ſealing and marking ſuch Silks imported; he or they ſo deſiſting or delaying ſhall forfeit and loſe the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, and be incapable of holding any Office or Employment under His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors.

Officers to aid in Execution of this Act.

Penalty on Officer conniving at fraudulent Importation of Alamodes, &c.

VII. Provided always, and be it hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for the more effectual Proſecution of the Offences and Offenders againſt this Act, all and every Perſon and Perſons whatſoever, that ſhall be convicted for any Offence againſt this Act, or any other Law relating to Alamodes or Luſtrings, and ſhall afterwards offend a ſecond or any more Time or Times, ſuch Perſon or Perſons (after Conviction) ſhall, ſo often as he or they ſhall ſo offend, forfeit and pay double the Sum inflicted or impoſed by this Act.

Offenders, &c. to forfeit double for every Offence.

How Offenders ſhall be proſecuted, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon and Perſons, who ſhall be guilty of any Offence or Offences contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, or any other Act relating to Alamodes or Luſtrings, ſhall and may be proſecuted for any ſuch Offence or Offences, in any Action, Suit or Information, and thereupon a Capias in the firſt Proceſs, ſpecifying the Sum of the Penalties ſued for, ſhall and may iſſue; and ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be obliged to give good and ſufficient Bail and Security by natural born Subjects, Perſons naturalized, or Denizens, to the Officer ſerving or executing the Writ or Proceſs on or againſt him, her, or them, to appear in the Court out of which ſuch Writ or Proceſs ſhall iſſue at the Day of the Return of ſuch Writ or Proceſs, to anſwer ſuch Suit or Proſecution, and ſhall, at the Time of ſuch Appearance, give ſufficient Bail or Security by ſuch Perſons as aforeſaid, in the ſaid Court, to anſwer and pay all the Forfeitures and Penalties incurred for ſuch Offence or Offences, in caſe he, ſhe, or they ſhall be convict thereof, or to yield his, her, or their Bodies to Priſon.

How Penalties and Forfeitures are to be recovered and divided.

IX. And for the Encouragement and better enabling all ſuch (whether Officers of the Cuſtoms or others) that ſhall effectually put this Act in Execution, it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all the Penalties and Forfeitures hereby or by any former Law relating to Alamodes or Luſtrings given or impoſed, or which ſhall ariſe or accrue in reſpect thereof, or for the importing, conveying, delivering, receiving, buying, or ſelling of any Alamodes or Luſtrings, ſhall be diſtributed and divided in Manner following (that is to ſay) Two Third Parts thereof to His Majeſty, His Heirs, and Succeſſors, and the remaining Third Part to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall ſeize or ſue for the ſame; the Charge of which Suit and Proſecution ſhall be born by His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, out of His Majeſty's Part of the ſaid Forfeitures and Penalties; any Law, Statute, Cuſtom, or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding: And further, that it ſhall and may be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons to ſue for and proſecute, and to recover the Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted or impoſed by this preſent Act, or by any other Act, relating to Alamodes or Luſtrings, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed, nor more than One Imparlance; and that all and every Perſon and Perſons that ſhall ſeize or ſtay any of the ſaid Silks, or proſecute any of the Offences or Offenders againſt this or any other Act relating to Alamodes or Luſtrings, may lay his or their Information or Action, and try the ſame, in ſuch Place or Places, and uſe ſuch and the like Method and Courſe of Proceedings, in proſecuting and condemning of the ſaid Silks, as are, have been, or may be uſed in or about the ſeizing, condemning, or proſecuting of any Goods or Commodities for Nonpayment of Cuſtoms or other Duties, or any Perſon or Perſons for offending againſt any of the Laws or Statutes relating to the Cuſtoms.

Before Claims entred, Perſon to give Security for anſwering the Penalties, &c. By 5 Annæ, c. 20. §. 4. Claimers are only to give Security for the Coſts, &c. And in Default Goods forfeited.

X. And for the avoiding of Fraud and Delay in proſecuting to Condemnation ſuch Silks ſeized as aforeſaid, by entring vexatious Claims thereto, be it further enacted, That before any Perſon or Perſons ſhall be admitted to enter a Claim to any of the ſaid Silks, he, ſhe, or they ſhall be obliged to give good and ſufficient Security by Recognizance, to be entred into before One of the Barons of the Court of Exchequer, or ſome Judge of the Court where ſuch Claim ſhall be entred, to anſwer and pay the Penalties and Forfeitures incurred by virtue of this Act, with full Coſts of Suit, if, upon a Trial or other Determination in Law, a Verdict ſhall paſs, or Judgment ſhall be entred, for the Plaintiff; and in caſe Default ſhall be in giving ſuch Security within the Time limited by the Rules of the Court for entring Claims, then the ſaid Goods ſhall be adjudged forfeited, and Judgment entred accordingly.

General Act.

XI. And for the preventing of Diſputes touching this Act, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſame, and every Clauſe and Thing therein contained, ſhall be deemed, adjudged, and taken to be a general Law; and that it ſhall and may be lawful to ſhew or ſet forth the ſame, or any Clauſe thereof in Pleading; and that the ſame and all and every Clauſe therein contained, ſhall be conſtrued moſt largely and beneficially for the Advantage of the Proſecutor, and for the preventing of all the Miſchiefs and Abuſes herein provided againſt; and further, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall be ſued, moleſted, or proſecuted for any Thing done by virtue and in purſuance of this Act, ſuch Perſon and Perſons ſhall and may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act and the ſpecial Matter in Evidence; and if afterwards a Verdict ſhall paſs for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff ſhall diſcontinue his Action, or be nonſuited, or Judgment ſhall be given againſt him upon Demurrer, or otherwiſe, then ſuch Defendant or Defendants ſhall have Treble Coſts to him or them awarded againſt ſuch Plaintiff.

Perſon ſued may plead the General Iſſue.

Treble Coſts.

Action to be brought in Two Years after Offence committed.

XII. Provided always, That all Informations, Actions, and Suits to be brought by any Informer for any Offence againſt this Act, ſhall be brought and commenced within Two Years after the Offence committed; any former Act to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

XIII. And whereas the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, together with the late Queen (of bleſſed Memory) by their Letters Patents or Charter under the Great Seal of England, bearing Date the Fifteenth Day of October, in the Fourth Year of their ſaid Majeſties Reign, reciting or taking Notice, that ſeveral Perſons therein named did obtain the late King JAMES the Second's Letters Patents, bearing Date the Three and twentieth Day of November, in the Fourth Year of His Reign, for the ſole Uſe, Exerciſe, and Benefit of a new Invention of making, dreſſing, and luſtrating of Silks, called plain Black Alamodes, Renforcez, and Luſtrings, for the Term of Fourteen Years from the Day of the Date of the ſaid Letters Patents, their ſaid Majeſties did, for the encouraging ſo commendable an Undertaking, give, grant, conſtitute, declare, and appoint Thomas Earl of Pembroke and Montgomery, and ſeveral other Perſons in the ſaid Charter mentioned and contained, and ſuch others as ſhould be admitted into their Society, to be from thenceforth One Body Corporate and Politick, in Deed and in Name, by the Name of The Royal Luſtring Company, for making and dreſſing of Alamodes, Renforcez, and Luſtrings in England, and by that Name to have perpetual Succeſſion; and divers and ſundry Privileges, Liberties, Powers, and Authorities, with other Matters and Things in the ſaid Charter of Incorporation mentioned and expreſſed, were thereby granted to, and veſted in, the ſaid Company, and their Succeſſors, in ſuch Sort, Manner, and Form, as in and by the ſaid Charter, or Letters Patents, or Inrollment thereof, is mentioned and expreſſed, and as thereby it more fully appears: And foraſmuch as the ſaid Company have with great Labour and Charges brought the ſaid Manufacture to Perfection, but by reaſon of the fraudulent Importation of Alamodes and Luſtrings by divers Perſons, more regarding their own Intereſt, than the Welfare of England, their Duty to the King, and Obedience to the Laws of the Land, the ſaid Company have not enjoyed the Benefit and Advantage intended them in and by the ſaid Charter, but waſted their Time and Stock, in conteſting with many Difficulties and Obſtructions, which they have met with ſince the granting thereof: And it appearing that the ſaid Manufacture cannot be ſo well carried on, and ſecured to this Kingdom, by any other Means, as by eſtabliſhing a Company to carry on the ſame; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the aforeſaid Company, and their Succeſſors, ſhall and may at all Times from henceforth ſtand, continue, and be a Body Politick and Corporate in Deed and in Name, by the Name of The Royal Luſtring Company; and that the ſaid Company, and their Succeſſors, ſhall and may have, do, uſe, exerciſe, and enjoy all and ſingular the Liberties, Privileges, Powers, Authorities, Matters, and Things in the ſaid Letters Patents, or Charter of Incorporation, mentioned to be granted to them, as amply, fully, and largely, to all Intents, Conſtructions, and Purpoſes, as if the ſame were Word for Word recited and ſet down at large in this preſent Act.

Royal Luſtring Company and their Succeſſors to be a Body Corporate, &c. and enjoy all Liberties, Privileges, &c. mentioned in the Letters Patents.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Royal Luſtring Company, and their Succeſſors, ſhall and may have and enjoy the ſole Uſe, Exerciſe, and Benefit of making, dreſſing, and luſtrating of plain Black Alamodes, Renforcez, and Luſtrings, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, for and during the Term of Fourteen Years, to be reckoned and accounted from the Four and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſions of Parliament; any thing in the ſaid Letters Patents made and granted by the ſaid late King James, or in the ſaid Letters Patents, or Charter of Incorporation, made and granted by His preſent Majeſty and the ſaid late Queen, or any Law or Statute to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Company to have the ſole Uſe and Benefit of making Alamodes, &c. for 14 Years.

XV. And whereas the ſaid Royal Luſtring Company have Seventeen Bails of Fine Italian Thrown Silk in Amſterdam, which were brought thither over Land before the Concluſion of the Peace, and were deſigned to be imported into this Kingdom, to be uſed in the Manufacture of Alamodes and Luſtrings; but by reaſon of ſeveral Difficulties and Obſtructions, which the ſaid Company have met with in the ſaid Manufacture, the ſaid Silk could not be imported within the Time limited by Law for the Importation thereof; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Company to import into this Kingdom the aforeſaid Seventeen Bails of Silk, at any Time before the Twenty ninth Day of September next, they paying the Duties to His Majeſty, which by Law are to be paid for the ſame; any Law or Statute to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Company may import 17 Bails of Silk from Amſterdam, paying the Duties.

To be paid in the Port from whence exported.

XXI. Which Allowances by this Act ſhall be paid by the Officer appointed to collect the Duties upon Salt payable by this Act, in the ſame Port from whence any ſuch Fiſh ſhall be exported, within Thirty Days after Demand thereof, on a Debenture to be prepared by the Collector of the Cuſtoms, in the Port where ſuch Fiſh ſhall be entred out for Exportation, and verified by the Perſon executing the Office of Searcher in ſuch Port, as to the Quantity of Fiſh actually ſhipped; and that the Oath of the Exporter or Agent be firſt taken before the principal Officers of the ſaid Port, before the Debenture be allowed, who are hereby required and impowered to give the ſaid Oath, that the Fiſh in ſuch Debenture mentioned were Engliſh taken, and really exported to Parts beyond the Seas, and not intended to be relanded in England, Wales, or Berwick; for which Debenture no Fee or Reward ſhall be taken. And in caſe the Officer hereby directed to pay ſuch Debenture, ſhall not have ſufficient Money in his Hands to pay the ſame, then upon Certificate thereof by him made (which Certificate he is hereby required to give the Party gratis, and without Delay) the principal Commiſſioners for managing the Revenue of Exciſe of His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, for the time being, ſhall be chargeable with the ſaid Payment, to be made in Courſe out of the Firſt Money in their Hands ariſing out of the ſaid Duties upon Salt; and any Officer neglecting or refuſing to pay the ſaid Money, or to give ſuch Certificate, as is here directed, ſhall forfeit double the Sum ſo to be paid to the Party grieved, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed.

Officers to deliver Certificates gratis. By 2 & 3 Annæ, c. 14. §. 9. this is declared to extend to Salt exported to Scotland, &c.

XXII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall export beyond the Seas, any Salt, as well Foreign as Engliſh, or any Rock-Salt, the Officer of the Place where the ſaid Salt was made, taken out of Pits, or imported, and the Duty thereof paid or ſecured to be paid, ſhall, upon Demand, deliver gratis, and without Delay, a Certificate under his Hand and Seal, that the Duty impoſed by this Act on ſuch Salt, hath been duly paid or ſecured to be paid; and then the Officer of the Place where the Salt is exported, upon producing the ſaid Certificate, and Oath made of ſhipping off the ſaid Salt, and of its not being relanded in England or Wales, ſhall give a Debenture under his Hand, without Delay, Fee, or Reward, for Repayment of the ſaid Duty; which being produced to the Officer of the Place where the Duty on the ſaid Salt ſhall have been paid or ſecured to be paid, ſuch Security ſhall be diſcharged, and all and every Sum and Sums of Money, paid for the Duty of the ſaid Salt by this Act, ſhall be repaid, upon Demand, by the ſaid Officer without Fee or Reward.

Salt not made in England, Wales, or Berwick, to pay as Foreign.

Scotch Salt to be entred at Carliſle or Berwick.

XXIII. And be it further enacted and declared, That all Salt imported or brought by Sea or Land into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and not of the Product of any of the ſaid Places, ſhall be adjudged and deemed to be Foreign Salt imported, and ſhall be charged as ſuch with the higher Duties by this Act charged upon Salt imported; and that all Scotch Salt brought into England by Land ſhall be entred at Carliſle or Berwick, with the Officer or Officers for that Purpoſe there to be appointed, under the Penalty or Forfeiture of double the Value of, and after the Rate of Ten Shillings per Buſhel for, ſuch Salt ſo brought in.

Perſons ſued on this Act may plead the General Iſſue, &c.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall at any Time be ſued or proſecuted for any Thing by him or them done or executed in purſuance of this Act, he or they ſhall or may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act in Evidence for his Defence; and if upon a Trial a Verdict ſhall paſs for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs be nonſuit, diſcontinue, or forbear proſecuting the ſaid Actions, then ſuch Defendant or Defendants ſhall have double Coſts to him or them awarded againſt ſuch Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, for which Coſts he ſhall have ſuch Remedy, as in other Caſes where Coſts are by Law given to Defendants.

XXV. Provided alſo, and be it enacted, That no Writ or Writs of Certiorari ſhall ſuperſede Execution or other Proceedings upon any Order or Orders made by the ſaid Chief Commiſſioners or Juſtices of the Peace, concerning the ſaid Duties upon Salt, in purſuance of this Act, but that Execution and other Proceedings ſhall and may be had and made thereupon; any ſuch Writ or Writs or Allowance thereof notwithſtanding.

No Salt to be delivered without Notice given to Officer, &c. Penalty.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That no Salt ſhall be delivered from any Salt Works or Pits, without Notice firſt given to the Officer appointed for that Purpoſe, upon Pain of forfeiting of the Salt ſo delivered, and after the Rate of Ten Shillings per Buſhel for the ſame, to be recovered from the Owner or Owners of the Salt Works or Pits, where ſuch Salt ſhall be ſo delivered, the One Moiety or Half-part of which Forfeitures to be to the Uſe of the Proſecutor, and the other Moiety or Half-part to the Uſe of His Majeſty, His Heirs, and Succeſſors.

Penalty on Perſon landing Salt after Duty has been repaid, before the Duty be again paid.

XXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any of the Salt, for which the Duty ſhall have been repaid or diſcharged upon the Exportation thereof, as is herein before directed, ſhall (by Fraud or otherwiſe) be landed in England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, before the Duty be again paid, and ſuch Entry, and all other Things performed, as are herein before required, in caſe where any Foreign Salt is imported, every Perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit double the Value (and after the Rate of Ten Shillings per Buſhel) of ſuch Salt ſo landed, and ſuch other Penalties and Forfeitures as are herein inflicted upon any Perſon, who ſhall land any Foreign Salt contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Merchant or other Perſon, being a Subject of this Realm of England, ſhall ſhip any Salt, or Rock-Salt, that ſhall have paid the Duty to His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, by this Act impoſed, to convey it by Sea to any Part of England, and the Veſſel on which ſuch Salt as aforeſaid is ſhipped ſhall either periſh at Sea, or be taken by Enemies with ſuch Salt on board her, that in ſuch Caſe any Merchant or Perſon, Owner of the ſaid Salt, ſhall, upon Proof made before the Juſtices of the Peace at the Quarter Seſſions held for the County, Riding, Diviſion, or Town, wherein he doth inhabit, of the Loſs of ſuch Salt ſo ſhipped, receive from the ſaid Seſſions a Certificate that ſuch Proof was made before them; and upon producing the ſaid Certificate to any of the Officers appointed to collect the Duty by this Act impoſed, the ſaid Officer or Officers are hereby required to let ſuch Perſons buy the like Quantity of Salt, as is expreſſed in the Certificate to be loſt, without paying to His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, any Duty or Exciſe for the ſame; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Salt after Entry may be removed to convenient Warehouſes.

XXIX. Provided alſo, and be it enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Owners and Proprietors of any Salt-Rock or Rock-Salt, to remove and carry out of and from the Pits or Warehouſes adjoining to or belonging to ſuch Pits, into his or their own Warehouſes, or other Places for ſtoring thereof, for Conveniency of ſelling or ſhipping off the ſame, any of the ſaid Salt-Rock or Rock-Salt, after due Entry made thereof, and a Warrant or Ticket taken for the ſame, from the Officer next to ſuch Salt-pits; which Warrant or Ticket the ſaid Officer is hereby required upon Demand to give without Fee or Reward, as aforeſaid; and that the ſaid Owners or Proprietors ſhall not be obliged to pay or ſecure the Payment of the ſaid Duty, until ſuch Time as the ſaid Salt-Rock or Rock-Salt ſhall be ſold and delivered as aforeſaid.

Contract before 25 Dec. 1698. void. Exception.

XXX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall be obliged, by virtue of any Contract made at any Time before the Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, to deliver any Salt or Rock-Salt, unleſs the Perſon who is to receive the ſame, ſhall, before or at the Time of Delivery of the ſame by ſuch Contract, pay to the Seller thereof ſuch Sum or Sums as he ſhall have paid, or ſecured to pay, for ſo much of the Duties thereupon as are impoſed by virtue of this Act.

Rock-Salt to be entred by Weight. 120lb. wt. to a Buſhel.

And whereas Salt-Rock, or Rock-Salt, taken out of Pits in ſuch great Lumps that cannot be meaſured without breaking the ſame to Powder, would be great Loſs to the Proprietors thereof; be it therefore enacted, That all Salt-Rock or Rock-Salt, taken out of Pits, ſhall be entred by Weight only; and that One hundred and twenty Pounds Weight thereof ſhall be deemed and taken to be a Wincheſter Buſhel, of Eight Gallons Wincheſter Meaſure, and ſhall be entred, rated, and tared accordingly.

Refiners of Rock-Salt, to have an additional Abatement of 2*s.* 4*d. per* Buſhel.

XXXI. And to the Intent that Salt made by melting and refining of Rock-Salt may not, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, be charged more than other Engliſh Salt; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where any ſuch Rock-Salt ſhall be melted and refined, which had before paid the Duty impoſed by this Act, according to the Direction of the ſame, the Perſon who ſhall make ſuch Salt by refining, ſhall (over and above his Allowance by any former Act) receive, by virtue of this Act, an Allowance and Abatement of the Duty on the Salt by him ſo made, after the Rate and Proportion of Two Shillings and Four Pence for every Buſhel of ſuch Rock-Salt, ſo melted and refined, which had paid the Duty, as aforeſaid, and being weighed in the Preſence of the Officer before melted down, and Oath being firſt made before ſome Juſtice of the Peace, near adjoining to ſuch Salt-works, of the particular Quantities of the ſaid Rock-Salt ſo by him employed in making the ſaid Salt by refining, which Oath the ſaid Juſtice of the Peace is hereby impowered to adminiſter, and upon due Proof, by Oath or otherwiſe, made of the Payment of the Duty impoſed by this Act.

Charge of Management to be paid out of the Duties.

XXXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, or to or for the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or any Three or more of them, or the Treaſurer of the Exchequer for the time being, out of the ſaid Duties ariſing upon Salt by this Act, to cauſe ſuch Sum and Sums of Money to be expended and paid from time to time, for Salaries or other incident Charges, as ſhall be neceſſary in and for the receiving, collecting, levying, or managing of the ſame Duties upon Salt; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

What Salt is intended to be charged.

XXXIII. And it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Salt made from Rock-Salt (allowing the Drawback for the ſame, as in this Act is mentioned) and all refined Salt, or Salt made from Salt, either imported or made in England, is and is intended to be charged and chargeable with the ſaid Duties by this Act granted; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

All Salt (except Rock-Salt) to be aſcertained at 56lb. wt. to the Buſhel.

XXXIV. And to the end the ſaid Duties upon Salt may be equally paid, it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Salt at all Salt-works and Salt-pits (Rock-Salt excepted) ſhall be aſcertained, as to the Payment of the ſaid Duty by this Act, at the Rate of Fifty ſix Pounds Weight to the Buſhel, and no more.

Scotch Salt, and all imported Salt, landed before due Entry, forfeited, &c.

XXXV. And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Salt, whether brought from Scotland by Land, and alſo all imported Salt, whether the ſame be of the Product or Manufacture of this Kingdom, or of the Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, brought in, landed, or put on ſhore, before due Entry made with the Officers appointed to receive the ſame, and Payment of the Duties by this Act impoſed, ſhall be forfeited, and after the Rate of Ten Shillings per Buſhel for ſuch Salt, to be recovered from the Offender (to wit) One Moiety thereof to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety thereof to him or them that ſhall or will ſeize, inform, or ſue for the ſame; any thing in this Act to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Collectors to provide Scales at every Salt-work.

XXXVI. And for the better aſcertaining the ſaid Duties on Salt, according to the Buſhel of Fifty ſix Pounds Weight, herein before declared, in all Parts and Places where any Salt-work or Salt-pit is or ſhall be; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Collector or Officer, appointed to receive and collect the ſaid Duties upon Salt, ſhall provide, at every ſuch Salt-work or Salt-pit, a ſufficient Beam, Scale, and Weights, or Stileard, and ſhall have Liberty to fix the ſame in ſome convenient Place in or about ſuch Salt-work, or Salt-pit, for the weighing all Salt that ſhall be delivered from ſuch Salt-work or Salt-pit; and that One or more Perſon or Perſons (as Occaſion ſhall require) living in or near ſuch Salt-work or Salt-pit, ſhall be admitted and ſworn to the due and true weighing all Salt from thence to be delivered, before One or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace near adjoining (which Oath he or they are hereby impowered to adminiſter) without Fee or Reward; and ſuch Weigher and Weighers ſhall be ſatisfied and paid for their Pains in weighing ſuch Salt by the ſaid Collector or Officer for the ſaid Duties.

To be paid in the Port from whence exported.

XXI. Which Allowances by this Act ſhall be paid by the Officer appointed to collect the Duties upon Salt payable by this Act, in the ſame Port from whence any ſuch Fiſh ſhall be exported, within Thirty Days after Demand thereof, on a Debenture to be prepared by the Collector of the Cuſtoms, in the Port where ſuch Fiſh ſhall be entred out for Exportation, and verified by the Perſon executing the Office of Searcher in ſuch Port, as to the Quantity of Fiſh actually ſhipped; and that the Oath of the Exporter or Agent be firſt taken before the principal Officers of the ſaid Port, before the Debenture be allowed, who are hereby required and impowered to give the ſaid Oath, that the Fiſh in ſuch Debenture mentioned were Engliſh taken, and really exported to Parts beyond the Seas, and not intended to be relanded in England, Wales, or Berwick; for which Debenture no Fee or Reward ſhall be taken. And in caſe the Officer hereby directed to pay ſuch Debenture, ſhall not have ſufficient Money in his Hands to pay the ſame, then upon Certificate thereof by him made (which Certificate he is hereby required to give the Party gratis, and without Delay) the principal Commiſſioners for managing the Revenue of Exciſe of His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, for the time being, ſhall be chargeable with the ſaid Payment, to be made in Courſe out of the Firſt Money in their Hands ariſing out of the ſaid Duties upon Salt; and any Officer neglecting or refuſing to pay the ſaid Money, or to give ſuch Certificate, as is here directed, ſhall forfeit double the Sum ſo to be paid to the Party grieved, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed.

Officers to deliver Certificates gratis. By 2 & 3 Annæ, c. 14. §. 9. this is declared to extend to Salt exported to Scotland, &c.

XXII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall export beyond the Seas, any Salt, as well Foreign as Engliſh, or any Rock-Salt, the Officer of the Place where the ſaid Salt was made, taken out of Pits, or imported, and the Duty thereof paid or ſecured to be paid, ſhall, upon Demand, deliver gratis, and without Delay, a Certificate under his Hand and Seal, that the Duty impoſed by this Act on ſuch Salt, hath been duly paid or ſecured to be paid; and then the Officer of the Place where the Salt is exported, upon producing the ſaid Certificate, and Oath made of ſhipping off the ſaid Salt, and of its not being relanded in England or Wales, ſhall give a Debenture under his Hand, without Delay, Fee, or Reward, for Repayment of the ſaid Duty; which being produced to the Officer of the Place where the Duty on the ſaid Salt ſhall have been paid or ſecured to be paid, ſuch Security ſhall be diſcharged, and all and every Sum and Sums of Money, paid for the Duty of the ſaid Salt by this Act, ſhall be repaid, upon Demand, by the ſaid Officer without Fee or Reward.

Salt not made in England, Wales, or Berwick, to pay as Foreign.

Scotch Salt to be entred at Carliſle or Berwick.

XXIII. And be it further enacted and declared, That all Salt imported or brought by Sea or Land into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and not of the Product of any of the ſaid Places, ſhall be adjudged and deemed to be Foreign Salt imported, and ſhall be charged as ſuch with the higher Duties by this Act charged upon Salt imported; and that all Scotch Salt brought into England by Land ſhall be entred at Carliſle or Berwick, with the Officer or Officers for that Purpoſe there to be appointed, under the Penalty or Forfeiture of double the Value of, and after the Rate of Ten Shillings per Buſhel for, ſuch Salt ſo brought in.

Perſons ſued on this Act may plead the General Iſſue, &c.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall at any Time be ſued or proſecuted for any Thing by him or them done or executed in purſuance of this Act, he or they ſhall or may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act in Evidence for his Defence; and if upon a Trial a Verdict ſhall paſs for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs be nonſuit, diſcontinue, or forbear proſecuting the ſaid Actions, then ſuch Defendant or Defendants ſhall have double Coſts to him or them awarded againſt ſuch Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, for which Coſts he ſhall have ſuch Remedy, as in other Caſes where Coſts are by Law given to Defendants.

No Writ of Certiorari to ſuperſede the Orders of the Commiſſioners, &c.

XXV. Provided alſo, and be it enacted, That no Writ or Writs of Certiorari ſhall ſuperſede Execution or other Proceedings upon any Order or Orders made by the ſaid Chief Commiſſioners or Juſtices of the Peace, concerning the ſaid Duties upon Salt, in purſuance of this Act, but that Execution and other Proceedings ſhall and may be had and made thereupon; any ſuch Writ or Writs or Allowance thereof notwithſtanding.

No Salt to be delivered without Notice given to Officer, &c. Penalty.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That no Salt ſhall be delivered from any Salt Works or Pits, without Notice firſt given to the Officer appointed for that Purpoſe, upon Pain of forfeiting of the Salt ſo delivered, and after the Rate of Ten Shillings per Buſhel for the ſame, to be recovered from the Owner or Owners of the Salt Works or Pits, where ſuch Salt ſhall be ſo delivered, the One Moiety or Half-part of which Forfeitures to be to the Uſe of the Proſecutor, and the other Moiety or Half-part to the Uſe of His Majeſty, His Heirs, and Succeſſors.

Penalty on Perſon landing Salt after Duty has been repaid, before the Duty be again paid.

XXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any of the Salt, for which the Duty ſhall have been repaid or diſcharged upon the Exportation thereof, as is herein before directed, ſhall (by Fraud or otherwiſe) be landed in England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, before the Duty be again paid, and ſuch Entry, and all other Things performed, as are herein before required, in caſe where any Foreign Salt is imported, every Perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit double the Value (and after the Rate of Ten Shillings per Buſhel) of ſuch Salt ſo landed, and ſuch other Penalties and Forfeitures as are herein inflicted upon any Perſon, who ſhall land any Foreign Salt contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Merchant or other Perſon, being a Subject of this Realm of England, ſhall ſhip any Salt, or Rock-Salt, that ſhall have paid the Duty to His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, by this Act impoſed, to convey it by Sea to any Part of England, and the Veſſel on which ſuch Salt as aforeſaid is ſhipped ſhall either periſh at Sea, or be taken by Enemies with ſuch Salt on board her, that in ſuch Caſe any Merchant or Perſon, Owner of the ſaid Salt, ſhall, upon Proof made before the Juſtices of the Peace at the Quarter Seſſions held for the County, Riding, Diviſion, or Town, wherein he doth inhabit, of the Loſs of ſuch Salt ſo ſhipped, receive from the ſaid Seſſions a Certificate that ſuch Proof was made before them; and upon producing the ſaid Certificate to any of the Officers appointed to collect the Duty by this Act impoſed, the ſaid Officer or Officers are hereby required to let ſuch Perſons buy the like Quantity of Salt, as is expreſſed in the Certificate to be loſt, without paying to His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, any Duty or Exciſe for the ſame; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Salt after Entry may be removed to convenient Warehouſes.

XXIX. Provided alſo, and be it enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Owners and Proprietors of any Salt-Rock or Rock-Salt, to remove and carry out of and from the Pits or Warehouſes adjoining to or belonging to ſuch Pits, into his or their own Warehouſes, or other Places for ſtoring thereof, for Conveniency of ſelling or ſhipping off the ſame, any of the ſaid Salt-Rock or Rock-Salt, after due Entry made thereof, and a Warrant or Ticket taken for the ſame, from the Officer next to ſuch Salt-pits; which Warrant or Ticket the ſaid Officer is hereby required upon Demand to give without Fee or Reward, as aforeſaid; and that the ſaid Owners or Proprietors ſhall not be obliged to pay or ſecure the Payment of the ſaid Duty, until ſuch Time as the ſaid Salt-Rock or Rock-Salt ſhall be ſold and delivered as aforeſaid.

Contract before 25 Dec. 1698. void. Exception.

XXX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall be obliged, by virtue of any Contract made at any Time before the Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, to deliver any Salt or Rock-Salt, unleſs the Perſon who is to receive the ſame, ſhall, before or at the Time of Delivery of the ſame by ſuch Contract, pay to the Seller thereof ſuch Sum or Sums as he ſhall have paid, or ſecured to pay, for ſo much of the Duties thereupon as are impoſed by virtue of this Act.

Rock-Salt to be entred by Weight. 120lb. wt. to a Buſhel.

And whereas Salt-Rock, or Rock-Salt, taken out of Pits in ſuch great Lumps that cannot be meaſured without breaking the ſame to Powder, would be great Loſs to the Proprietors thereof; be it therefore enacted, That all Salt-Rock or Rock-Salt, taken out of Pits, ſhall be entred by Weight only; and that One hundred and twenty Pounds Weight thereof ſhall be deemed and taken to be a Wincheſter Buſhel, of Eight Gallons Wincheſter Meaſure, and ſhall be entred, rated, and taxed accordingly.

Refiners of Rock-Salt, to have an additional Abatement of 2s. 4*d. per* Buſhel.

XXXI. And to the Intent that Salt made by melting and refining of Rock-Salt may not, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, be charged more than other Engliſh Salt; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where any ſuch Rock-Salt ſhall be melted and refined, which had before paid the Duty impoſed by this Act, according to the Direction of the ſame, the Perſon who ſhall make ſuch Salt by refining, ſhall (over and above his Allowance by any former Act) receive, by virtue of this Act, an Allowance and Abatement of the Duty on the Salt by him ſo made, after the Rate and Proportion of Two Shillings and Four Pence for every Buſhel of ſuch Rock-Salt, ſo melted and refined, which had paid the Duty, as aforeſaid, and being weighed in the Preſence of the Officer before melted down, and Oath being firſt made before ſome Juſtice of the Peace, near adjoining to ſuch Salt-works, of the particular Quantities of the ſaid Rock-Salt ſo by him employed in making the ſaid Salt by refining, which Oath the ſaid Juſtice of the Peace is hereby impowered to adminiſter, and upon due Proof, by Oath or otherwiſe, made of the Payment of the Duty impoſed by this Act.

Charge of Management to be paid out of the Duties.

XXXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, or to or for the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or any Three or more of them, or the Treaſurer of the Exchequer for the time being, out of the ſaid Duties ariſing upon Salt by this Act, to cauſe ſuch Sum and Sums of Money to be expended and paid from time to time, for Salaries or other incident Charges, as ſhall be neceſſary in and for the receiving, collecting, levying, or managing of the ſame Duties upon Salt; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

What Salt is intended to be charged.

XXXIII. And it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Salt made from Rock-Salt (allowing the Drawback for the ſame, as in this Act is mentioned) and all refined Salt, or Salt made from Salt, either imported or made in England, is and is intended to be charged and chargeable with the ſaid Duties by this Act granted; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

All Salt (except Rock-Salt) to be aſcertained at 56lb. wt. to the Buſhel.

XXXIV. And to the end the ſaid Duties upon Salt may be equally paid, it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Salt at all Salt-works and Salt-pits (Rock-Salt excepted) ſhall be aſcertained, as to the Payment of the ſaid Duty by this Act, at the Rate of Fifty ſix Pounds Weight to the Buſhel, and no more.

Scotch Salt, and all imported Salt, landed before due Entry, forfeited, &c.

XXXV. And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Salt, whether brought from Scotland by Land, and alſo all imported Salt, whether the ſame be of the Product or Manufacture of this Kingdom, or of the Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, brought in, landed, or put on ſhore, before due Entry made with the Officers appointed to receive the ſame, and Payment of the Duties by this Act impoſed, ſhall be forfeited, and after the Rate of Ten Shillings per Buſhel for ſuch Salt, to be recovered from the Offender (to wit) One Moiety thereof to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety thereof to him or them that ſhall or will ſeize, inform, or ſue for the ſame; any thing in this Act to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Collectors to provide Scales at every Salt-work.

XXXVI. And for the better aſcertaining the ſaid Duties on Salt, according to the Buſhel of Fifty ſix Pounds Weight, herein before declared, in all Parts and Places where any Salt-work or Salt-pit is or ſhall be; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Collector or Officer, appointed to receive and collect the ſaid Duties upon Salt, ſhall provide, at every ſuch Salt-work or Salt-pit, a ſufficient Beam, Scale, and Weights, or Stilleard, and ſhall have Liberty to fix the ſame in ſome convenient Place in or about ſuch Salt-work, or Salt-pit, for the weighing all Salt that ſhall be delivered from ſuch Salt-work or Salt-pit; and that One or more Perſon or Perſons (as Occaſion ſhall require) living in or near ſuch Salt-work or Salt-pit, ſhall be admitted and ſworn to the due and true weighing all Salt from thence to be delivered, before One or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace near adjoining (which Oath he or they are hereby impowered to adminiſter) without Fee or Reward; and ſuch Weigher and Weighers ſhall be ſatisfied and paid for their Pains in weighing ſuch Salt by the ſaid Collector or Officer for the ſaid Duties.

XXXVII. And

Officers to deliver as many Warrants or Permits to Salt Carriers as they deſire, gratis.

XXXVII. And whereas the Carriers of Salt do frequently load ſeveral Horſes with Salt at One Salt-work, and at One Time, for which they have had but One Warrant or Permit, and are often obliged, for convenient Carriage of the ſaid Salt to ſeveral Places, to ſeparate the ſaid Horſes, and to drive them ſeveral Roads, by which Means ſome of the ſaid Salt may be liable to Seizure: For the Prevention therefore of ſuch Inconveniencies to the ſaid Carriers, it is hereby enacted, and the ſaid Officers are hereby ſtrictly charged and required to deliver gratis, and without Delay, ſuch and ſo many ſeveral Warrants or Permits to each Carrier of Salt as he ſhall demand, for ſuch ſeveral Horſe-loads of Salt, as he ſhall load at One Time, and at One Salt-work.

56 lb. wt a Buſhel of Salt.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Perſons ſelling Salt made for Uſe (except foreign Salt) ſhall ſell the ſame after the Rate of Fifty ſix Pounds Weight to the Buſhel, and not otherwiſe, and ſo in Proportion for a greater or leſſer Quantity; and that every Perſon offending therein, ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds to the Informer, to be ſued for and recovered in ſuch Manner, as other Forfeitures by this Act are to be ſued for and recovered.

Lord Mayor of London, &c. to aſcertain the Price of Salt in London, and Bills of Mortality, and the Juſtices of Peace in other Places.

XXXIX. And for the preventing of Exactions upon Sale of Salt in this Kingdom, and to have the Rates and Prices thereof aſcertained; be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen of the City of London ſhall and may (and are hereby required, in the Court of Aldermen within the City of London, upon or before the Tenth Day of July, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight) ſet, aſcertain, and publiſh in Writing, certain reaſonable Rates and Prices upon all Salt, to be ſold or expoſed to Sale after the ſaid Tenth Day of July, in the City of London and Precincts thereof, and the Bills of Mortality; and that the reſpective Juſtices of the Peace for the reſpective Counties, Ridings, Diviſions, Cities and Places, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, ſhall and may (and are hereby required, upon or before the Firſt Day of Auguſt, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, at the ſeveral and reſpective General Seſſions of the Peace for the ſaid ſeveral and reſpective Counties, Ridings, Diviſions, Cities and Places, wherein they are or ſhall be Juſtices of the Peace) ſet, aſcertain, and duly publiſh in Writing, certain reaſonable Rates and Prices upon all Salt to be ſold or expoſed to Sale, after the ſaid Firſt Day of Auguſt, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, within the ſaid ſeveral and reſpective Counties, Ridings, Diviſions, Cities and Places, wherein they are or ſhall be Juſtices of the Peace; and that the Lord Mayor of London, and the ſaid Court of Aldermen in the Court of Aldermen, and that the ſaid reſpective Juſtices of the Peace of the ſeveral and reſpective Counties, Ridings, Diviſions, Cities and Places aforeſaid, as aforeſaid, at the ſeveral and reſpective General Seſſions of the Peace for the ſaid ſeveral and reſpective Counties, Ridings, Diviſions, Cities and Places, wherein they are or ſhall be Juſtices of the Peace, ſhall and may, and are hereby required from time to time (if neceſſary) at the ſeveral and reſpective General Seſſions of the Peace for the ſaid ſeveral and reſpective Counties, Ridings, Diviſions, Cities and Places, from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of Auguſt, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, by Writing duly made and publiſhed, alter and correct the Rates and Prices of all Salt to be ſold and expoſed to Sale in the ſaid ſeveral and reſpective Places; which Rates and Prices which ſhall be ſo ſet, aſcertained, altered and corrected, are hereby enacted and required to be obſerved, accepted, received and taken, by all and every Perſon and Perſons ſelling or expoſing to Sale any Salt within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed; and if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall ſell any Salt at any higher Price or Rate, or refuſe to ſell any Salt at the Prices and Rates aforeſaid, ſuch Perſon and Perſons ſo offending, ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Pounds, to be levied out of the Goods and Chattels of ſuch Offender or Offenders, by Diſtreſs and Sale thereof, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of the Lord Mayor of the City of London, or of any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace for the Place or Places wherein ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, or Diſtreſs ſhall be to be made: And in Default of ſufficient Diſtreſs for the ſame, it ſhall and may be lawful, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal from the Lord Mayor of the City of London, or from any Juſtice of the Peace as aforeſaid, to impriſon the ſaid Offender or Offenders, until ſuch Offender or Offenders ſhall pay the ſaid Sum of Five Pounds, One Moiety of which Sum of Five Pounds is hereby enacted to be paid to the Uſe of our Sovereign Lord the King, and the other Moiety thereof to be paid to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall inform and proſecute for the ſame before the ſaid Lord Mayor of London, or the ſaid reſpective Juſtices as aforeſaid.

Penalty on Perſons ſelling at higher Prices.

9 & 10 W. 3. c. 25.

The Duties on Salt by this Act granted, are to be kept apart, and paid weekly into the Exchequer:

XL. And whereas in and by One other Act of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, further Duties upon ſtamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper, ſeveral Rates, Impoſitions, Duties, Charges, and Sums of Money therein particularly expreſſed, are to be paid for and upon ſuch Matters and Things as are therein mentioned, for ever, but ſubject to ſuch Power of Redemption, as in and by any other Act of this Seſſion of Parliament was or ſhould be declared or provided concerning the ſame: And whereas it is thought reaſonable for the Satisfaction, Recompence, and Encouragement of ſuch Perſons and Corporations (the Corporation of the Bank of England only excepted) as will voluntarily contribute and advance Monies for or towards the raiſing the Sum of Two Millions of Pounds Sterling, for the Supply of His Majeſty's extraordinary Occaſions, to ſettle and eſtabliſh a good, ſure, and laſting Fund, out of which the ſaid Perſons and Corporations contributing or advancing Money as aforeſaid, and their Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns reſpectively, may have, receive and enjoy certain Annuities or yearly Payments, to be computed after the Rate of Eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the Monies ſo by them to be contributed or advanced, and ſuch ſpecial Benefit of Trade, and other Advantages as are hereafter in this Act expreſſed; ſubject nevertheleſs to ſuch Power of Redemption, as in this Act is provided in that Behalf: Be it therefore enacted, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Commiſſioners and Governors of the Revenue or Receipt of Exciſe for the time being, at the Head Office in London, from time to time, ſhall ſeparate and keep apart all and every the Sum and Sums of Money ariſing by the ſeveral Rates and Duties for or upon Salt, and Rock-Salt, by this Act granted, as the ſame ſhall from time to time ariſe, or be paid into the ſaid Office of Exciſe by the Receivers or or Collectors of the ſame, or by any other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever; and that the Chief Commiſſioners for marking and ſtamping of Vellum, Parchment and Paper, or for managing the Duties thereupon for the time being, ſhall at their Head Office cauſe to be ſeparated and kept apart in like Manner, all and every the Monies ariſing by the reſpective Rates and Duties granted by the Act before mentioned, for and upon Vellum, Parchment and Paper, as the ſame ſhall from time to time ariſe or be paid into their Office: And as well the ſaid Commiſſioners and Governors of Exciſe, as the ſaid Commiſſioners for the ſaid Duties upon Vellum, Parchment and Paper reſpectively for the time being, are hereby required and ſtrictly enjoined from time to time, for ever, to pay Weekly, to wit, on Wedneſday in every Week, if it be not a Holiday, and if it be, then the next Day after that is not an Holiday, all and every the Monies ariſing, as well by the ſeveral and reſpective Rates and Duties hereby granted for or upon Salt and Rock-Salt, as the ſaid ſeveral Duties granted or payable by the Act herein before mentioned, for and upon ſtamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper reſpectively, into the Receipt of the Exchequer of His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, diſtinct and apart from all other Monies which the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall ſeverally receive for the Uſe of His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors.

A Regiſter to be kept thereof.

XLI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be, from time to time, for ever, provided and kept in the Exchequer (that is to ſay) in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipts, ſeveral Books, in which all the Monies which ought to be paid in Weekly as aforeſaid, and which ſhall be brought into the ſame Receipt, ſhall be entred apart and diſtinct from all other Monies paid or payable to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, upon any Account whatſoever.

Penalty on Commiſſioners not paying it duly into the Exchequer, &c.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That if the ſaid Commiſſioners of Exciſe, or the ſaid Commiſſioners for the Duties on Vellum, Parchment and Paper for the time being reſpectively, ſhall refuſe or neglect to pay, or cauſe to be paid into the Exchequer, all or any the Sums appointed to be paid by them ſeverally as aforeſaid, in ſuch Manner as they are reſpectively required by this Act, or ſhall divert or miſapply any Part of the ſame, then they and every of them ſo offending, ſhall forfeit their ſeveral Offices and Places, and ſhall be incapable to ſerve His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, in any Office or Place of Profit or Truſt whatſoever, and ſhall be liable to pay double the Value of all and every Sum and Sums of Money, ſo diverted or miſapplied, to any Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, who ſhall be intitled to any Annuity or Payment out of the Fund by this Act ſettled, and will ſue for ſuch Forfeiture by Action of Debt, or of the Caſe, Bill, Suit or Information, founded upon this Act, in any Court of Record of His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than One Imparlance ſhall be granted or allowed.

Exciſe and Stamp Office to be for ever continued, with Commiſſioners and Comptrollers of the ſaid Duties.

XLIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Head Office of Exciſe, and the Chief Office for the ſaid Duties upon Vellum, Parchment and Paper, ſhall for ever be continued, with a ſufficient Number of Commiſſioners, and a Comptroller in either of them, for performing and executing ſuch Matters and Things as are by this Act enjoined to be done or performed by ſuch Commiſſioners and Comptrollers reſpectively, according to the true Meaning hereof.

Comptrollers to keep diſtinct Accounts.

XLIV. And be it enacted, That the reſpective Comptrollers in the ſaid Offices for the time being, ſhall keep perfect and diſtinct Accounts in Books fairly written, of all the Monies which ſhall ariſe of or for the ſaid Duties upon Salt, and of or for the ſaid Duties upon Vellum, Parchment and Paper reſpectively, as the ſame ſhall from time to time ariſe or be raiſed; to which Books all Perſons concerned ſhall have free Acceſs at all ſeaſonable Times without Fee or Charge; and if any ſuch Comptroller as aforeſaid, ſhall neglect his Duty therein, then he or they for ſuch Offence ſhall forfeit his Office or Place, and be rendred incapable as aforeſaid, and ſhall alſo forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds to any Perſon or Perſons, Body Politick or Corporate, intitled to any Annuity or Payment by this Act, and that will ſue for the ſame as aforeſaid.

Penalty in caſe of Neglect.

Penalties on Collector detaining Money, &c.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That if any Collector or Receiver of any the Duties by this Act granted upon Salt, or Rock-Salt, or of any the further Duties granted by the Act before mentioned, for or upon Vellum, Parchment and Paper, ſhall detain all or any Part of the Monies by him collected or received contrary to his Duty, then he or they for ſuch Offence ſhall be diſmiſſed from his Employment, and be charged with Intereſt for the ſame, after the Rate of Twelve Pounds per Centum per Annum, and be liable to anſwer Treble Damages to all and every Perſon and Perſons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, that ſhall be grieved by ſuch Detention; and if any Collector or Receiver of any the ſaid Duties upon Salt, Rock-Salt, Vellum, Parchment and Paper, ſhall divert or miſapply all or any Part of the Monies by him collected or received, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, then he or they for every or any ſuch Offence ſhall be diſmiſſed from his Employment, and rendred incapable to ſerve His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors as aforeſaid, and ſhall moreover forfeit double the Sum or Sums ſo by him or them diverted or miſapplied, to any Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, who ſhall be intitled to any Annuity or Payment out of the Fund by this Act ſettled, and will ſue for the ſame as aforeſaid.

and for miſapplying any Part thereof.

160,000*l.* out of the ſaid additional Duties, &c. to be the yearly Fund for anſwering Annuities of 8*l per Cent.* to the Subſcribers of 2,000,000*l.* See 10 Annæ, c. 28.

XLVI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That Yearly and every Year, reckoning the Firſt Year to begin from the Nine and twentieth Day of September, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, the full Sum of One hundred and ſixty thouſand Pounds, by or out of the Monies to ariſe by the ſaid ſeveral Duties, as well upon Salt, and Rock-Salt, by this Act granted, as upon Vellum, Parchment and Paper, granted by the Act as aforeſaid, and every of them, and to be brought into the Receipt of Exchequer, by Weekly or other Payments as aforeſaid (in caſe the ſame Payments ſhall extend thereunto) ſhall be the whole and entire yearly Fund; and in caſe the ſaid weekly or other Payments ſhall not amount to One hundred and ſixty thouſand Pounds per Annum, then the ſaid weekly Monies or Payments, ſo far as the ſame will extend, ſhall be Part of the yearly Fund, for and towards the anſwering and paying the ſeveral and reſpective Annuities or yearly Payments in this Act hereafter expreſſed.

Weekly Payments not amounting to ſo much, then to be Part of the ſaid Fund, &c.

Appropriation of theſe additional Duties, &c.

Penalty on Officers of the Exchequer not iſſuing, or miſapplying the Monies, &c.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That all the Sums of Money ariſing by the ſaid ſeveral Duties upon Salt, Rock-Salt, Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, as aforeſaid, which ſhall be from time to time brought into the Receipt of Exchequer, or ſo much thereof as ſhall be ſufficient to make up and compleat the ſaid yearly Fund of One hundred and ſixty thouſand Pounds, or the proportionable Part thereof, to be payable in reſpect of the Monies which ſhall be actually advanced in purſuance of this Act, ſhall be appropriated, ſet apart, and applied, and the ſame are hereby appropriated for and towards the raiſing and making good of the ſaid yearly Fund, or ſuch proportionable Part of the ſame, and ſhall be iſſued and paid out of the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer, by the reſpective Officers of the ſame, without any Fee or Charge, and without any further or other Warrant, to be ſued for, had, or obtained from His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, in that Behalf, and ſhall be applied to and for the Uſes and Purpoſes in and by this Act expreſſed and intended, and to no other Uſe, Intent, or Purpoſe whatſoever; and that the reſpective Officers in the Exchequer, who ſhall make any Delay in iſſuing or paying the ſaid Money to the ſaid Uſes by this Act intended, or ſhall be guilty of diverting or miſapplying any of the ſaid Monies to any other Uſe or Purpoſe, contrary to this Act, for any ſuch Offence ſhall be forejudged from their reſpective Offices and Places, and be rendred uncapable to ſerve His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, as aforeſaid, and alſo ſhall be liable to pay double the Value of any Sum or Sums ſo delayed to be paid, or ſo diverted or miſapplied, as aforeſaid, to any Corporation, or other Perſon or Perſons that ſhall be grieved thereby, and who ſhall ſue for the ſame, to be recovered as aforeſaid.

King may appoint Commiſſioners for taking Subſcriptions from any Perſons (except the Bank of England) for Two Millions.

A Caſhier to be appointed.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for His Majeſty, by Commiſſion under the Great Seal of England, to authorize and appoint any Number of Perſons to take and receive all ſuch voluntary Subſcriptions, as ſhall be made on or before the ſaid Nine and twentieth Day of September, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, by or for any Perſon or Perſons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate (the Governor and Company of the Bank of England only excepted) of any Sum of Money whatſoever, not leſs than One hundred Pounds, for and towards the raiſing and paying into the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer the Sum of Two Millions: Which Commiſſioners are hereby ordered and directed, as ſoon as conveniently they can, to provide and prepare One or more convenient Houſe or Houſes within the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, or One of them, to be the publick Office or Place, Offices or Places, to which all or any Perſons ſhall or may reſort for the making of the ſaid Subſcriptions, and to give ſuch publick Notice thereof, as they the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Five or more of them, ſhall think will moſt conduce to the promoting the ſaid Subſcriptions: And the ſaid Commiſſioners for taking Subſcriptions are hereby directed, as ſoon as conveniently may be, to provide, or cauſe to be provided, One or more Book or Books made of Vellum or Parchment, for the ſaid Subſcriptions to be made thereupon; which Book or Books ſhall from thenceforth lie open every Day in the Week (Sunday only excepted) at the ſaid publick Office or Offices as aforeſaid daily, and from the Hour of Eight to the Hour of Twelve in the Morning, and from the Hour of Two to the Hour of Six in the Afternoon of each Day, until the ſaid Nine and twentieth Day of September, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, unleſs the Subſcriptions for the whole Sum of Two Millions ſhall be ſooner compleated; and that it ſhall and may be lawful to and for His Majeſty, by His Commiſſion aforeſaid, to direct the Commiſſioners how and in what Manner they ſhall proceed to execute the ſame, in all Matters and Things relating to this Service, and by the ſame Commiſſion, or by Letters of Privy Seal, or by any Inſtrument under His Majeſty's Royal Sign Manual, to appoint from time to time the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Number of them, by themſelves or their Caſhier or Caſhiers (the ſaid Caſhier or Caſhiers being firſt approved by His Majeſty under His Royal Sign Manual, and giving Security to His Majeſty for the due Performance of his or their Truſt or Truſts) to receive for His Majeſty's Uſe the ſeveral Payments of the Monies, which ſhall be ſo ſubſcribed, to be paid by any Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, as aforeſaid.

Sums (not leſs than 100*l.*) may be ſubſcribed, and anſwered by Ten equal Payments.

Each ſubſequent Payment to be made at the End of every Two Months.

Laſt Payment liable to make good any Deficiency in the Produce of the ſaid Duties.

XLIX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That during the Time hereby limited for taking the ſaid Subſcriptions, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for all and every Perſon and Perſons, Natives and Foreigners, Bodies Politick and Corporate, by and for themſelves, or any of them, or by themſelves, or any of them, in Truſt for any other Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, or any of them (except as aforeſaid) freely to ſubſcribe any Sum of Money (not leſs than One hundred Pounds) for or towards the ſaid Sum of Two Millions; and all the Monies ſo to be ſubſcribed ſhall be anſwered and paid, by the reſpective Subſcribers thereof, to ſuch as ſhall be appointed to receive the ſame for His Majeſty's Uſe, in Manner following; that is to ſay, One full Tenth Part (the whole in Ten equal Parts to be divided) of every Sum of Money ſo ſubſcribed by or for any Perſon or Perſons, or by or for any Body Politick or Corporate reſpectively, ſhall be paid by him or them to His Majeſty's Uſe, as aforeſaid, at or before the Time of making each Subſcription reſpectively; and that One other Tenth Part of every Sum ſo ſubſcribed ſhall be paid, in like Manner, at or before the End of Two Months next after the Time hereby limited for the Firſt Payment, as aforeſaid (which Time of Two Months ſhall be reckoned to conſiſt of Sixty Days) and ſo onwards at the End of every ſuch Two Months ſucceſſively, One full Tenth Part of every Sum ſo ſubſcribed ſhall be paid to His Majeſty's Uſe, as aforeſaid, until the full Sum of every Subſcription ſhall be entirely cleared and paid off; nevertheleſs the laſt of the ſaid Payments upon every Subſcription, to be made as aforeſaid, ſhall be ſubject and liable to make good any Deficiency (if ſuch ſhould happen to be) which at any Time or Times, before the Time hereby limited for making ſuch laſt Payment or Payments, ſhall appear to be in the Produce of the ſaid Duties hereby granted or appropriated, for anſwering ſo much as before the ſaid Time hereby limited for ſuch laſt Payment or Payments, ſhall incur or grow due for or upon the yearly Fund by this Act ſettled or eſtabliſhed, and ſo much out of the ſaid laſt Payments as ſhall be ſufficient to anſwer and make good ſuch Deficiency (if any be) ſhall and may be defaulked, or otherwiſe applied to that Uſe, although His Majeſty's jeſty's Supply by this Act intended be thereby leſſened; any Matter or Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

L. And it is hereby further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, who ſhall have ſubſcribed as aforeſaid, do not pay down the Firſt Tenth Part upon his or their Subſcription, or at the Time of making thereof, as aforeſaid, then every ſuch Subſcription, without ſuch Payment, ſhall be utterly void and of none Effect; and if any Perſon or Perſons, Body Politick or Corporate, who ſhall have ſubſcribed as aforeſaid, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, Succeſſors, or Aſſigns, having paid to the King's Uſe any Part or Parts of the Sum or Sums ſo by him, her, or them ſubſcribed, ſhall make Default in any of the ſubſequent Payments, which ought to be made by him, her, or them, upon ſuch Subſcription reſpectively, then, and in every ſuch Caſe, the Firſt Tenth Part paid down upon every ſuch Subſcription ſhall be forfeited and loſt to His Majeſty; and the reſpective Annuity or yearly Sum, which ſhall be payable out of the ſaid Fund, for or in reſpect of ſuch Subſcription, after the Rate of Eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, ſhall be reduced, leſſened, or proportioned, according to the Money actually paid to His Majeſty's Uſe upon every ſuch Subſcription reſpectively, after an Abatement or Deduction ſhall be made of the Firſt Tenth Part, to be forfeited, as aforeſaid. And to the end the ſaid Subſcription Monies ſo to be payable at ſeveral Days and Times, and by ſuch Proportions, as aforeſaid, may be the ſooner made uſe of for the Supply of His Majeſty's extraordinary Occaſions, the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, or any Three or more of them now being, or the Treaſurer of the Exchequer, or any Three or more of the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being, are hereby authorized and impowered to cauſe Tallies of Aſſignment, or Tallies of Anticipation for the ſame, or any Part thereof, to be levied upon the Commiſſioners, Receiver or Receivers General, or Caſhier, who ſhall be appointed or authorized to receive the ſame; and that an Intereſt not exceeding the Rate of Eight Pounds per Centum per Annum ſhall be annexed to, attend and go along with the Principal Monies contained in all and every ſuch Talley and Tallies, to be paid every Three Months out of ſuch Subſcription Monies, from the Date of every ſuch Talley, until Satiſfaction of the Principal thereupon, and that the Principal upon every ſuch Talley ſhall be paid in Courſe, according to the Date thereof reſpectively.

Firſt Payment not made at the Time of ſubſcribing, ſuch Subſcription void.

Subſequent Payments not complied with, the Firſt Tenth Part to be forfeited, and the Annuity reduced according to the Money actually paid, &c.

How Tallies of Aſſignment or Anticipation may be levied.

The ſaid Tallies to bear an Intereſt of 8 l. per Cent. per Ann.

LI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Commiſſioners, to be nominated by His Majeſty for taking Subſcriptions, as aforeſaid, ſhall take Care that the Sums ſubſcribed be written as well in Words at Length as in Figures; and that the Day of the Month and Year on which every Subſcription ſhall be made, be truly ſet and expreſſed againſt the ſame; and that the Subſcriptions, ſo to be made from time to time, be atteſted under the Hands and Seals of Five or more of the Commiſſioners who ſhall be preſent at the making of ſuch Subſcriptions; and that the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Five or more of them, do, without Delay, after the ſaid Nine and twentieth Day of September, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, or after the ſaid Subſcriptions for the ſaid Two Millions ſhall be compleated (which ſhall firſt happen) make, or cauſe to be made, true Duplicates or Copies, fairly written in Parchment, of the ſaid whole Book or Books of Subſcriptions, and deliver the ſaid Duplicate or Duplicates of the ſaid Book or Books, atteſted by Five or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners, into the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt in the Exchequer, before the Twentieth Day of October, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight at fartheſt; and the ſaid Auditor of the Receipt is hereby authorized and required forthwith to regiſter or enrol, and the Clerk of the Pells in the ſaid Receipt is hereby required forthwith to record, the ſaid Duplicate or Duplicates, amongſt the Regiſters or Records of their reſpective Offices, that ſo it may appear how much ſhall have been ſubſcribed, and by whom, and likewiſe how the ſaid yearly Fund, or a proportionable Part thereof, is to be iſſued and applied by virtue of this Act; and that every Perſon concerned ſhall have free Acceſs at all ſeaſonable Times, and Liberty to view and peruſe the ſaid Regiſter, Enrolment, or Record, without Fee or Charge; and that true Copies of ſuch Book or Books ſo enrolled and recorded, under the Hands and Seals of the ſaid Auditor of the Receipt and Clerk of the Pells, ſhall be delivered by them gratis to the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Five or more of them, demanding the ſame, for the Benefit of the ſaid Subſcribers.

Sums ſubſcribed to be written in Words at Length, &c.

Duplicates of the Subſcriptions to be returned into the Exchequer.

Auditor of the Receipt and Clerk of the Pells to regiſter the ſaid Duplicates.

All Perſons to have free Acceſs to the Regiſters.

Copies of the Books to be delivered to the Commiſſioners, &c. gratis.

LII. And it is hereby further enacted, ordained, and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Perſon and Body Politick, who ſhall ſubſcribe as aforeſaid, and be named or contained in the ſaid Book or Books, his, her, or their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators, Succeſſors, and Aſſigns reſpectively, ſhall have, receive, and enjoy for ever, out of the Fund by this Act ſettled and provided, One Annuity or certain yearly Sum, for the whole Sum by him, her, or them ſubſcribed, according to the Rate or Proportion of Eight Pounds per Centum per Annum; that is to ſay, all and every Perſon and Perſons, or Corporation, ſubſcribing One hundred Pounds, ſhall be intitled to an Annuity of Eight Pounds per Annum out of the ſaid Fund, and ſo proportionably for higher or larger Subſcriptions; the ſame Annuities or yearly Payments to commence from the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangel, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, and to be paid and payable at the Four moſt uſual Feaſts in the Year; that is to ſay, the Feaſts of the Birth of our Lord Chriſt, the Annunciation of the Bleſſed Virgin Mary, the Nativity of Saint John Baptiſt, and Saint Michael the Archangel, by even and equal Portions: The Firſt Payment thereof to be made at the Feaſt of the Nativity of our Lord Chriſt, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight; which ſaid Annuities or yearly Payments ſhall nevertheleſs be ſubject or liable to the Condition and Power of Redemption hereafter in this Act expreſſed; and alſo to the Clauſe before in this Act contained, for reducing or leſſening ſuch Annuities, where Failure ſhall be made in ſome of the Payments of the Subſcription Money for the ſame.

Subſcriber to have an Annuity after the Rate of 8 l. per Cent. per Ann.

To commence from Michaelmas, 1698. and be paid quarterly.

Firſt Payment.

Subject nevertheleſs to Redemption, &c.

LIII. And for the further Encouragement of the ſaid Subſcribers, it is hereby alſo enacted, That every Perſon or Body Politick, ſubſcribing and paying down One Tenth Part of his or their Subſcription Money, as aforeſaid, ſhall and may out of the ſame Defaulk and Recount, or ſhall be repaid (in Conſideration of his or their prompt Subſcription and Payment) ſo much as an Allowance after the Rate of Ten Pounds per Centum per Annum doth amount unto, being computed upon his or their whole Subſcription Money, from the Day of making his or their Subſcription and firſt Payment, until the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangel, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight.

Allowance to Perſon paying down One Tenth Part of his Subſcription for Prompt Payment, &c.

Commiſſioners or Caſhier to give Receipts for the Money they receive, and enter the ſame, &c.

Account thereof to be delivered to the Auditor of the Receipt, &c.

Commiſſioners of the Treaſury to iſſue Monies for incident Charges, &c.

LIV. And it is hereby further enacted, That the reſpective Commiſſioners, or ſuch a Number of them, or ſuch Caſhier or Caſhiers, who ſhall be authorized by His Majeſty to receive all or any the ſaid Payments upon the ſaid Subſcriptions, for His Majeſty's Uſe, ſhall immediately, from time to time, give to the Perſons or Corporations paying the ſame a Receipt in Writing for the ſeveral Sums ſo received; and ſhall cauſe an Entry thereof to be made in a Book or Books, expreſſing the Day on which every Payment ſhall be made, with the Names and proper Additions of thoſe that make ſuch Payments; and deliver a true Account, fairly written in Parchment, of all the ſaid Receipts, atteſted by Five or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners, into the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of Exchequer, on or before the Four and twentieth Day of June, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred; and the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, and the Treaſurer, and Under Treaſurer of the Exchequer for the time being, are hereby impowered and commanded, out of any of His Majeſty's Treaſure not appropriated by Act of Parliament, to iſſue and pay ſuch Sums as ſhall be neceſſary to be expended or laid out, as incident Charges in the Execution of ſuch Commiſſion.

Commiſſioners may be Subſcribers.

LV. Provided always, That any Perſons, ſo to be named Commiſſioners, may be Subſcribers, and their Subſcriptions and Payments ſhall and may be received by the other Commiſſioners, or ſuch of them as ſhall be appointed in that Behalf.

King may incorporate the Subſcribers.

LVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for His Majeſty, by Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England, to incorporate all and every the Perſon and Perſons, Natives and Foreigners, Bodies Politick and Corporate, who ſhall ſo ſubſcribe, or for whom ſuch Subſcriptions ſhall be made, and upon whoſe Subſcriptions the Firſt Tenth Part ſhall be paid as aforeſaid, and all and every Perſon and Perſons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, who as Executors, Adminiſtrators, Succeſſors or Aſſigns, or by any other lawful Title, derived or to be derived from, by or under the ſaid original Subſcribers, of or towards the ſaid Sum of Two Millions, at any Time or Times hereafter, ſhall have or be intitled to any Part, Share or Intereſt of or in the yearly Fund by this Act ſettled as aforeſaid, ſo long as they reſpectively ſhall have any ſuch Part, Share, or Intereſt therein, to be One Body Politick and Corporate, by the Name of The General Society intitled to the Advantages given by an Act of Parliament, for advancing a Sum not exceeding Two Millions, for the Service of the Crown of England, and by that Name ſhall have perpetual Succeſſion, and a common Seal; and that they and their Succeſſors, by the Name aforeſaid, ſhall be able and capable in Law to have, purchaſe, receive, enjoy, poſſeſs and retain, to them and their Succeſſors, Lands, Rents, Tenements and Hereditaments, of what Kind, Nature or Quality ſoever, and alſo to ſell, grant, demiſe, aliene or diſpoſe of the ſame, and by the ſame Name to ſue and implead, be ſued and impleaded, anſwer and be anſwered, in Courts of Record or any other Place whatſoever, and to do and execute all and ſingular other Matters and Things by the Name aforeſaid, that to them ſhall or may appertain to do; ſubject nevertheleſs to the Proviſo or Condition of Redemption, and to ſuch Reſtrictions and Limitations, as are hereafter in this Act expreſſed.

Sum total of all the Subſcriptions to be called The Principal Stock of the ſaid Corporation.

LVII. And it is hereby declared, That the Sum total of all the ſaid Subſcriptions ſhall be, and be called, The Principal Stock of the ſaid General Society, and all and every Perſon and Perſons, his and their Executors, Adminiſtrators, Succeſſors and Aſſigns, according and in Proportion to the Sum or Sums by him, her or them reſpectively ſubſcribed, ſhall have, and be deemed to have an Intereſt or Share in the ſaid Principal Stock, and of and in the yearly Fund hereby ſettled.

Subſcribers to elect 24 Truſtees by way of Balloting.

No Elector to have more than One Vote. Each Truſtee to ſubſcribe 2,000 l. at leaſt in his own Right. Perſons elected to be inſerted in Charter of Incorporation.

LVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for His Majeſty to impower all and every Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall ſeverally or reſpectively have ſubſcribed in the ſaid Book or Books any Sum or Sums not leſs than Five hundred Pounds, and ſhall have ſeverally paid One Tenth Part of the Sum or Sums ſo by them ſubſcribed, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, Succeſſors or Aſſigns, to aſſemble and meet together at the Guildhall within the City of London, at or upon the Tenth Day of October, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, or within Twenty Days after the Subſcription ſhall be compleated (which ſhall firſt happen) then and there to elect and chooſe the firſt Truſtees, to manage, govern, and direct the ſaid General Society, and they, or the major Part of them ſo aſſembled, ſhall and may chooſe, by way of Balloting, out of the whole Number of Subſcribers (whereof none to have more than One Vote) Four and twenty Perſons, each of which ſhall ſeverally have ſubſcribed, in their own Rights, the Sum of Two thouſand Pounds at the leaſt, who ſhall be the firſt Truſtees of the ſaid General Society; which Elections ſhall ſeverally be determined by the Majority of Votes then preſent, by way of Ballot as aforeſaid, and if they be equal, then by His Majeſty's Commiſſioners for taking the ſaid Subſcriptions, or the major Part of them then preſent; which Perſons ſo to be elected, ſhall afterwards be inſerted in His Majeſty's Charter of Incorporation of the ſaid General Society, as the firſt Truſtees, for ſuch Time, and with ſuch Succeſſion, and ſubject to ſuch further Qualifications, as His Majeſty in ſuch Charter of Incorporation ſhall be pleaſed to appoint; and that in ſuch Charter ſuch further Rules, Powers and Clauſes for carrying on the ſaid Trade, and purſuing the Ends and Intent of this Act, ſhall and may be inſerted, as ſhall be lawfully and reaſonably deſired in that Behalf.

If Two Millions be not ſubſcribed, Subſcribers to have only a proportionable Part of the yearly Fund.

LIX. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, That in caſe the whole Sum of Two Millions ſhall not be ſubſcribed as aforeſaid, before the ſaid Nine and twentieth Day of September, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, that then the Subſcribers and Contributors for and towards raiſing the ſaid Sum of Two Millions, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, Succeſſors and Aſſigns, ſhall only have and receive ſo much, and ſuch Part and Proportion of the ſaid yearly Fund, as ſhall be after the Rate of Eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, for ſuch Sum or Sums of Money as ſhall be ſo reſpectively ſubſcribed.

LX. And

After Charter is paſſed, yearly Sum, or a proportionable Part thereof, is to be paid to the General Society, &c.

LX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the granting of the ſaid Letters Patents for Incorporation of the General Society as aforeſaid, the ſaid yearly Sum of One hundred and ſixty thouſand Pounds as aforeſaid, or ſo much thereof as ſhall be proportionable to the ſeveral Sum or Sums to be ſubſcribed as aforeſaid, ſhall be iſſued and paid to the ſaid General Society and their Succeſſors, or to ſuch Treaſurer or Receiver General, as they ſhall appoint by their Common Seal to receive the ſame; who ſhall from time to time have and receive the ſaid Monies, in Truſt for the ſeveral and reſpective Members of the ſaid General Society, whether they be Bodies Politick or Natural, according to the Proportion of their ſeveral Shares and Intereſts in the General Stock.

If Two Millions be ſubſcribed within the Time limited, the Subſcribers, &c. may trade to the Eaſt Indies.

LXI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe the ſaid whole Sum of Two Millions, or One Moiety, or any greater Part of the ſaid Sum of Two Millions, ſhall be ſubſcribed as aforeſaid, on or before the ſaid Nine and twentieth Day of September, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, that then and from thenceforth all and every the Perſon and Perſons, Natives and Foreigners, Bodies Politick and Corporate, by or for whom ſuch Subſcriptions ſhall be made, and all and every Perſon and Perſons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, who as Executors, Adminiſtrators, Succeſſors or Aſſigns, or by any other lawful Title derived or to be derived from, by or under the ſaid original Subſcribers, at any Time or Times hereafter, ſhall have or be intitled to any Part, Share or Intereſt, of and in the yearly Fund by this Act ſettled as aforeſaid, and of and in a proportionable Part of the Principal Stock of the ſaid General Society, ſo long as they reſpectively ſhall continue to have any Part, Share or Intereſt therein, and all and every Perſon and Perſons, who for any Time ſhall be licenced by ſuch Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to trade in the Stead of them, or any of them, ſhall and lawfully may for ever hereafter, by themſelves ſeverally, or by ſuch Factors, Agents or Servants, as they ſeverally ſhall think fit to intruſt, freely traffick and uſe the Trade of Merchandize, in ſuch Places, and by ſuch Ways and Paſſages, as are already frequented, found out, or diſcovered, or which hereafter ſhall be found out or diſcovered, and as they ſeverally ſhall eſteem and take to be fitteſt or beſt for them, into and from the Eaſt Indies, in the Countries and Parts of Aſia and Africa, and into and from the Iſlands, Ports, Havens, Cities, Creeks, Towns and Places of Aſia, Africa, and America, or any of them, beyond the Cape of Bona Eſperanza, to the Streights of Magellan, where any Trade or Traffick of Merchandize is or may be uſed or had, and to and from every of them; which Trade, Traffick, or Merchandizing, ſhall be and is by virtue of this Act for ever limited and reſtrained, ſo and in ſuch Manner, as that no Perſon or Corporation hereby authorized to trade or traffick as aforeſaid, ſhall in any One Year (every Year to be reckoned from the ſaid Nine and twentieth Day of September, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight) ſucceſſively, by him or themſelves, or by Perſons licenced to trade inſtead of them, or any of them as aforeſaid, or by their reſpective Factors, Agents or Servants, ſhip, lade, put on Board, ſend or cauſe to be ſent, or deſign to ſend to or for the Eaſt Indies, or other Parts within the Limits aforeſaid, from England, or any other Country or Place whatſoever, any Quantity of Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, Coins, Bullion, or Commodities whatſoever, of greater Value than in this Act are expreſſed; that is to ſay, the Perſon or Perſons, or Body Politick, who ſhall be intitled to any Annuity or yearly Payment of Eight Pounds per Annum, and conſequently to a Share of One hundred Pounds in the Principal Stock of the ſaid General Society, for every ſuch Stock or Share of One hundred Pounds, ſhall or may by himſelf, or themſelves, or others as aforeſaid, ſhip, lade, put on Board, or cauſe to be ſent Yearly for the ſaid Eaſt Indies, or Parts within the Limits aforeſaid, Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, Coins, Bullion, or other Commodities (being ſuch as may lawfully be exported or ſent thither) as ſhall amount in Value to the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and every Perſon and Corporation intitled to a larger Annuity out of the ſaid yearly Fund, and in that Reſpect to a greater Share than One hundred Pounds in the ſaid Principal Stock, ſhall and may yearly ſhip and ſend to the Eaſt Indies, and other Parts within the Limits aforeſaid, a proportionable Value in Goods, or other Things as aforeſaid, after the ſaid Rate of One hundred Pounds for every One hundred Pounds Stock.

None to trade for more than the Amount of his Stock.

Perſons intitled to particular Shares in the Principal Stock, may be incorporated into a Company, to trade with a Joint Stock, &c.

LXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the ſaid whole Sum of Two Millions, or One Moiety, or any greater Part thereof, ſhall be ſubſcribed on or before the ſaid Nine and twentieth Day of September, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, and all or any Corporations, or other Perſon or Perſons, having particular Shares or Intereſts in the Principal Stock of the ſaid General Society, or in proportionable Annuities, or yearly Payments iſſuing out of the ſaid yearly Fund, ſhall be willing and deſirous to unite or join together ſuch their ſeveral Shares and Intereſts, and to be incorporated ſo as they may be able to manage their Trade (in Proportion to their Intereſts) as a Company, and by a Joint Stock, that then it ſhall and may be lawful to and for His Majeſty, by Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England, to incorporate all ſuch Perſons and Corporations by ſuch proper Name as His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors ſhall think fit, to be One Company, with Power to manage and carry on their Trade to the Eaſt Indies, and other the Limits aforeſaid, by a Joint Stock, and to have a perpetual Succeſſion, and a Common Seal, and with Power to grant and take, ſue and be ſued, and to chooſe their own Managers or Directors, and Officers, from time to time, and ſuch other Powers and Clauſes as ſhall be neceſſary or requiſite for the carrying on of ſuch Trade, and ſhall be reaſonable for His Majeſty to grant; nevertheleſs ſuch Company, ſo to be created with Power to trade with a Joint Stock as aforeſaid, ſhall be reſtrained to ſuch Proportion of the Trade in the Whole, as all the particular Members thereof would have been intitled to at the Rate before mentioned, in caſe ſuch new Company were not made; and the Directors or Managers, and other Members of the ſame, ſhall be ſubject to ſuch further Rules, Qualifications and Appointments, as His Majeſty in their Charter ſhall think neceſſary or reaſonable to be inſerted.

by ſuch proper Name as His Majeſty ſhall think fit.

LXIII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That after the incorporating of any ſuch Company to trade with a Joint Stock as aforeſaid, the proportionable Part or Parts of the ſaid yearly Fund iſſuing out of the Exchequer, and belonging to the Members

After incorporating any ſuch Company, the proportionable Part of the yearly Fund belonging to the Members thereof, is to be paid to the ſaid Company, &c. See 10 Annæ, c. 28. Payments thereof to be made at the Exchequer.

bers of ſuch new Company, ſhall from time to time (under the like Penalties, as aforeſaid) be iſſued at the ſaid Receipt of the Exchequer, to ſuch Company, or to ſuch Treaſurer or Treaſurers, as ſhall be appointed under their Common Seal to receive the ſame, in Truſt for the ſeveral and reſpective Members of ſuch Company, according to their reſpective Proportions or Shares in the Joint or United Stock of ſuch Company; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding: And that the Payment thereof ſhall and may be made weekly, or as faſt as the ſaid Duties ſhall produce Money into the Exchequer for the ſame, ſo as by ſuch weekly or other Payments the whole of the Annuities due to ſuch Company at the End of any One Quarter be not exceeded.

Every Member of the General Society to take an Oath, &c. not to trade for more than by this Act is allowed.

LXIV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon and Perſons, who as a Member or Members of the ſaid General Society, ſhall have Power to trade by or for himſelf, or themſelves, and not in a Company, in ſuch Meaſure or Proportion as aforeſaid, before he or they ſhall be allowed to exerciſe or make Uſe of ſuch Power, ſhall take a corporal Oath before Two or more of the Truſtees for the ſaid General Society (who have hereby Power to adminiſter the ſame) that ſuch Members ſhall be faithful to the ſaid General Society, and (according to the beſt of his or her Skill and Underſtanding) give his or her Advice, Counſel, and Aſſiſtance, for the Support and good Government of the ſaid Society, and that he or ſhe will not at any Time or Times ſhip, lade, ſend, direct, or cauſe to be ſent from England, or any other Country, to the Eaſt Indies, or other the Parts within the Limits aforeſaid, any Goods, Coins, or other Merchandizes of greater Value than ſuch as he or ſhe may lawfully ſend thither by this Act; and that all and every Perſon and Perſons, who ſhall be licenced to trade, as aforeſaid, before he or they ſhall be allowed to uſe or enjoy the Benefit of any ſuch Licence, ſhall cauſe the ſame to be entred or regiſtred at large in the Books of the ſaid General Society, and ſhall alſo take a corporal Oath, before Two or more of the Truſtees of the ſaid General Society, that ſuch Perſon trading by ſuch Licence ſhall be faithful to the ſaid General Society, and will not at any Time or Times ſhip, lade, ſend, direct, or cauſe to be ſent, to the Eaſt Indies, or other the Places within the Limits aforeſaid, any Goods, Coins, or other Merchandizes of greater Value than what he or ſhe may lawfully ſend thither by virtue of this Act; and that no Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall be incorporated, or be a Member or Members of any Company or Corporation, having or that ſhall have Power to trade to the Eaſt Indies, and other the Parts within the Limits aforeſaid, by a Joint Stock, in purſuance of this Act, during ſuch Time as he or they reſpectively ſhall continue a Member or Members of ſuch Company or Corporation, ſhall trade otherwiſe than in the Joint Stock of ſuch Corporation, of which he or they are Members reſpectively; and every ſuch Member or Members, before he or they ſhall be allowed to receive any Benefit, in or by ſuch Corporation, or to do, or intermeddle in any of the Affairs of the ſame, ſhall take a corporal Oath before Two or more of the Truſtees, or other Perſons, who ſhall have the Direction of the Affairs of any ſuch Company or Corporation (who have hereby Power to adminiſter the ſame) that he or ſhe ſhall be faithful to ſuch Company or Corporation, and (according to the beſt of his or her Skill and Underſtanding) give his or her Advice, Counſel, and Aſſiſtance, for the Support and good Government of the ſaid Company or Corporation; and that he or ſhe, during his or her Continuance in ſuch Company or Corporation, will not at any Time or Times ſhip, lade, ſend, direct, or cauſe to be ſent from England, or any other Country, to the Eaſt Indies, or other Parts within the Limits aforeſaid, for his or their private Accounts, any Goods, Coins, or other Merchandizes, contrary to this Act; and that no Perſon or Perſons, that ſhall have the Order, Rule, Direction, or Management of the Voyages, or other Affairs of the ſaid Company or Corporation, or that ſhall be intruſted or employed to trade upon the Joint Stock, or for a Company, as aforeſaid, ſhall be allowed to ſhip, or cauſe to be ſhipped, laded, or put on board, or to ſend or cauſe to be ſent from the Eaſt Indies, or other Parts, within the Limits aforeſaid, any Goods, Foreign Coins, or other Merchandizes whatſoever from England, or any other Country, until he or they reſpectively ſhall have taken a corporal Oath, before Two or more of the Truſtees, or other Directors of ſuch Company, or before the Barons of the Exchequer for the time being, or ſome of them, that he or they reſpectively will be faithful to ſuch Company or Corporation, and (according to the beſt of his or her Skill and Underſtanding) give his or her Advice, Counſel, and Aſſiſtance, for the Support and good Government of the ſame, and that he or ſhe, during his or her Continuance in ſuch Company or Corporation, will not at any Time or Times ſhip, lade, ſend, direct, or cauſe to be ſent from England, or any other Country for the Eaſt Indies, or other the Parts within the Limits aforeſaid, any Goods, Coins, or other Merchandizes, but ſuch as he or ſhe may lawfully ſend thither, for the Account of ſuch Company, according to this Act.

Perſons trading by Licence, to enter their Licences, &c. and take an Oath, &c.

No Member, &c. of other Corporations ſhall trade otherwiſe than in the Joint Stock thereof. Every Member, &c. to take an Oath not to trade to the Indies, &c. on any private Account.

Quakers may make a ſolemn Declaration.

LXV. Provided always, That ſuch Perſons as are known or commonly reputed to be Quakers, inſtead of any Oath or Oaths by this Act preſcribed, ſhall and may make a ſolemn Declaration in Writing to the ſame Effect, and in the ſame Manner; and every ſuch Declaration in Writing ſhall be of the ſame Validity, as if he or they had taken a corporal Oath, as aforeſaid; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

All Perſons trading in purſuance of this Act, &c. ſhall enter the Goods they export, &c.

LXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon and Perſons whatſoever, that ſhall or may, in purſuance of this Act, trade or ſend, or cauſe to be ſent any Goods, Foreign Coins, or other Merchandizes, for the Eaſt Indies, or other the Parts within the Limits aforeſaid, before ſuch Goods, Foreign Coins, or other Merchandizes, or any of them (the Goods, Foreign Coins, or other Merchandizes of ſuch Company as ſhall or may be erected, if any ſuch be, to trade with a Joint Stock, as aforeſaid, only and always excepted) ſhall be ſhipped, laded, or put on board any Ship, or into any Lighter, Boat, or other Veſſel for that Purpoſe, ſhall make, or cauſe to be made, an Entry or Entries of the ſame, in a Book or Books for that Purpoſe, ſpecifying in ſuch Entry or Entries, the true and full Quantities, Kinds, and Values of all the Goods, Foreign Coins, or other Merchandizes ſo intended to be ſent for the Eaſt Indies, or other the Parts within the Limits aforeſaid, from England, or from any other Country whatſoever, with the Name of the Ship, and of the Commander or Maſter thereof; to the end it may be ſeen by Inſpection of ſuch Book or Books (to which all Perſons concerned ſhall have free Acceſs at all ſeaſonable Times, without Fee or Charge) from time to time, whether ſuch Traders do or do not ſend more Goods, Coins, or Merchandizes in the ſaid Trade than they reſpectively are allowed to ſend by this Act; and all and every ſuch Perſon and Perſons, upon ſuch Entry or Entries made, from time to time, ſhall make and ſign an Affirmation in Writing, in which he or they ſhall declare or affirm (upon the Oath or ſolemn Declaration which he or they ſhall previouſly have taken or made, as aforeſaid, in that Behalf) that ſuch Entry or Entries do contain the true and full Value and Values of all the Goods, Coin, or Merchandizes, to be ſhipt by or for him or them on ſuch Ship for that Voyage; all which Entries and Affirmations ſhall be made before Two or more of the Truſtees for the General Society aforeſaid, and in Books to be kept by them for that Purpoſe, until a Company with Power to trade upon a Joint Stock ſhall be erected, as aforeſaid; and after ſuch Company ſhall be erected, then the ſame ſhall be made before Two or more of the Directors or Managers of ſuch Company, and in Books to be kept by them for that Purpoſe.

Perſons concerned may view the Books, &c.
The ſaid Entries to be atteſted on Oath, &c.

LXXIII. And be it further enacted, That any Guardian or Truſtee for any Infant may, for the Benefit of ſuch Infant, ſubſcribe, advance, and contribute, upon this Act, a Sum not exceeding One Moiety of the Monies within his or her Truſt, upon the Advantages in this Act mentioned, and ſuch Infant, upon Payment of ſuch Sum, ſhall become the Contributor thereof, and the Guardian or Truſtee ſhall be diſcharged from the ſame.

No Member, &c. in reſpect of his Stock only ſhall be adjudged a Bankrupt. Stock not liable to foreign Attachment.

LXXIV. And be it enacted, That no Member of any Society or Company to be erected in purſuance of this Act ſhall, in reſpect of his Stock therein only, be or be adjudged liable to be a Bankrupt, within the Intent and Meaning of all or any the Statutes made againſt or concerning Bankrupts; and that no Stock in ſuch Society or Company ſhall be ſubject or liable to any Foreign Attachment by the Cuſtom of the City of London or otherwiſe.

8 & 9 W. 3. c. 20.

LXXV. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Eighth and Ninth Years of His Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for making good the Deficiencies of ſeveral Funds therein mentioned, and for enlarging the Capital Stock of the Bank of England, and for raiſing the Publick Credit, it is (amongſt other Things) enacted, That during the Continuance of the Corporation of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, no other Bank, or any other Corporation, Society, Fellowſhip, Company, or Conſtitution, in the Nature of a Bank, ſhall be erected or eſtabliſhed, permitted, ſuffered, countenanced, or allowed by Act of Parliament, within this Kingdom, as in and by the ſaid Act more at large may appear: Now for the better ſecuring the Privileges of the ſaid Governor and Company of the Bank of England, granted to them by Parliament, and to prevent the Corporation or Corporations, Society or Societies, Fellowſhip or Fellowſhips, Company or Companies, Conſtitution or Conſtitutions, which ſhall or may be eſtabliſhed by virtue of this Act, from interfering with, or being prejudicial to, the ſaid Governor and Company of the Bank of England; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall [a] not be lawful to or for the Corporation or Corporations, Society or Societies, Fellowſhip or Fellowſhips, Company or Companies, Conſtitution or Conſtitutions, which ſhall or may be eſtabliſhed by virtue of this Act (as a Corporation, Society, Fellowſhip, Company, or Conſtitution) to borrow, owe, or give Security for any Sum or Sums of Money, on Credit of any publick Fund or Funds hereby granted, or any Part thereof; and that it ſhall not be lawful for the ſaid Corporation or Corporations, Society or Societies, Fellowſhip or Fellowſhips, Company or Companies, Conſtitution or Conſtitutions, which ſhall or may be eſtabliſhed by virtue of this Act, to borrow, owe, or give Security for any other or greater Sum or Sums of Money, than ſuch as ſhall be really and bona fide expended and laid out in and for the buying of Goods, Bullion, or Commodities to be exported for the proper Account of the ſaid Corporation or Corporations, Society or Societies, Fellowſhip or Fellowſhips, Company or Companies, Conſtitution or Conſtitutions, which ſhall or may be eſtabliſhed by virtue of this Act, or ſhall be otherwiſe employed in their Trade; all which Sum or Sums of Money, ſo to be borrowed for the Purpoſe aforeſaid, ſhall be borrowed only on their Common Seal, and ſhall not be made payable, or bona fide, agreed to be paid, at any Time leſs than Six Months, from the Time of the borrowing thereof; and that it ſhall not be lawful for the Corporation or Corporations, Society or Societies, Fellowſhip or Fellowſhips, Company or Companies, Conſtitution or Conſtitutions, which ſhall or may be eſtabliſhed by virtue of this Act, to diſcount any Bills of Exchange or other Bills or Notes whatſoever, or to keep any Books or Caſh, of or for any Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate whatſoever, other than only the proper Monies and Caſh of the ſaid Corporation or Corporations, Society or Societies, Fellowſhip or Fellowſhips, Company or Companies, Conſtitution or Conſtitutions, which ſhall or may be eſtabliſhed by virtue of this Act.

[a] In the Record it is, Shall and may be lawful.

Not lawful for the General Society, &c. to borrow on Credit of the Funds by this Act granted, nor any other Sums than employed in Trade.

Monies ſhall be borrowed only on their Common Seal, and not made payable in leſs than Six Months.

Company may not diſcount Bills of Exchange, &c. or keep Caſh for any Perſon whatſoever.

An additional Duty of 5 l. per Cent. laid on all Eaſt India Goods imported, &c. Continued by 10 Annæ, c. 28.

To be paid over to the General Society, &c. for maintaining Ambaſſadors, &c.

LXXVI. And the ſaid Commons of England in Parliament aſſembled, for the Ends and Purpoſes in this Act expreſſed, have alſo given and granted unto His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, the further Rates and Duties herein after mentioned; and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for and upon all Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes whatſoever, of the Growth, Product, or Manufacture of the Eaſt Indies, or any other Countries or Places within the Limits aforeſaid, to wit, beyond the ſaid Cape to the Streights of Magellan, which from and after the ſaid Nine and twentieth Day of September, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, at any Time or Times ſhall be imported or brought into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, by any Corporation, Perſon or Perſons, trading within the Limits aforeſaid, by virtue or in purſuance of this Act, there ſhall be yielded and paid to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors (over and above all other Duties payable for the ſame) a Duty after the Rate of Five Pounds for every One hundred Pounds of the true and real Value of the ſaid Goods; to be paid over from time to time to the ſaid General Society of Subſcribers, and their Succeſſors, or ſuch Treaſurer or Treaſurers, as ſuch Society ſhall appoint to receive the ſame, unleſs a Company, upon the Deſire of the Subſcribers or any of them, ſhall be erected in purſuance of this Act, to trade with a Joint Stock, as aforeſaid; and from and after the erecting or ſettling of ſuch Company, then the ſaid Duty of Five Pounds per Centum ſhall be paid over to ſuch Company, and their Succeſſors, or to their Treaſurer, to the end that the ſaid General Society, and the ſaid Company reſpectively, may out of the Produce of the ſaid Duty of Five Pounds per Centum maintain ſuch Ambaſſadors, or other Miniſters, as His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors (at the Nomination of the Truſtees, Directors, or Managers, of or for the General Society aforeſaid, or of ſuch Company ſo to be impowered to trade with a Joint Stock, as aforeſaid) ſhall be pleaſed to ſend to any Emperor, Prince, or State within the Parts aforeſaid, and defray any other extraordinary or neceſſary Expences, in carrying on the ſaid Trade; and if at any Time or Times there be an Overplus of the Produce of the ſaid Duty, to diſpoſe the ſame, from time to time, to and for the Benefit of all the Members of the ſaid General Society, until a Company to trade with a Joint Stock ſhall be erected, as aforeſaid; and after ſuch Company ſhall be erected, then to and for the Benefit of all the Overplus, if any, how to be diſpoſed.

Members thereof, according to their reſpective Shares or Intereſts in the Principal or Capital Stock of the ſame.

Security to be given for Payment of the ſaid additional Duty, &c.

LXXVII. And for the better raiſing, levying, and ſecuring the ſaid Duty, after the Rate of Five Pounds in the Hundred, it is hereby further enacted, That upon the Importation of any ſuch Goods, as aforeſaid, liable thereunto, an Entry or Entries thereof ſhall be made in the Cuſtom-houſe where ſuch Goods ſhall be imported, and before the Landing thereof the Importer or Importers of the ſame ſhall give Security (which the Commiſſioners or proper Officers of the Cuſtoms are hereby required and impowered to take) for Payment of the ſaid Duties, after the Rate of Five Pounds in the Hundred upon the ſaid Goods, as ſoon as the ſame ſhall be ſold, the Value thereof to be reckoned according to the groſs Price at which ſuch Goods ſhall be ſold; and that in caſe any ſuch Goods ſhall be landed or put on Shore out of any Ship or Veſſel, before due Entry be made thereof at the Cuſtom-houſe, in the Port or Place where the ſame ſhall be imported, and the Duties hereby impoſed ſhall be ſecured, or without a Warrant for the landing or delivering of the ſame, firſt ſigned by the Commiſſioners, Collectors, or other proper Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms reſpectively, that all ſuch imported Goods as ſhall be ſo landed, or put on Shore, or taken out of any Ship or Veſſel, contrary to the true Meaning hereof, or the Value of the ſame, ſhall be forfeited, and ſhall and may be recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof; to wit, One Moiety of the ſame to the Uſe of His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to the Uſe of ſuch Perſon or Perſons as will ſeize the ſaid Goods, or ſue for the ſame, or the Value thereof, by Action, Bill, Suit, or Information, as aforeſaid.

Goods landed before Duty ſecured, &c. ſhall be forfeited.

These Duties to be managed by the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms.

LXXVIII. And it is hereby further enacted, That the ſaid Duty of Five Pounds in the Hundred ſhall be from time to time under the Management and Government of the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms for the time being, who ſhall cauſe the ſame to be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid, to the Hands of the Receiver or Receivers General of the Revenue of the Cuſtoms for the time being, and ſuch Receiver or Receivers General for the time being ſhall anſwer and pay over all the Monies ariſing thereby (the neceſſary Charges of raiſing, collecting, and anſwering the ſame only excepted) in ſuch Manner, and for ſuch Purpoſes, as are before in this Act appointed.

On 3 Years Notice after the 29 Sept. 1711. and Repayment by Parliament of the ſaid 2,000,000*l.* &c. this Act to ceaſe and determine.
Reſtrained by 10 Annæ, c. 28. to 3 Years Notice after 25 March, 1733.

LXXIX. Provided always, and it is hereby declared and enacted, That at any Time upon Three Years Notice, after the Nine and twentieth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and eleven, upon Repayment by Parliament of the ſaid Sum of Two Millions, or ſuch Part thereof as ſhall be paid or advanced as aforeſaid, unto the reſpective Subſcribers and Contributors of the ſame, or to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as by, from, or under them ſhall be intitled to the ſaid Annuities or Shares of the ſaid yearly Fund or Capital Stock in reſpect of the ſame, and of all Arrears of the ſaid Annuities or yearly Payments, then and from thenceforth as well the ſaid Duties upon Salt, and Rock-Salt, as the ſaid Duties upon ſtamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, and alſo the ſaid yearly Fund charged thereupon, and the ſaid Annuities iſſuing out of the ſame, and the ſaid Duty of Five Pounds in the Hundred, for the ſaid imported Goods, and alſo all the ſaid Corporations to be erected by or in purſuance of this Act, and the Benefit of Trade hereby given, or intended to be given to them or any of them, ſhall abſolutely ceaſe and determine; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

LXXX. And the ſaid Commons of England in Parliament aſſembled, as a further Supply for His Majeſty's extraordinary Occaſions, have moreover freely given and granted unto His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, the further Rates and Duties herein after mentioned: And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for and upon all wrought Silks, which from and after the ſaid Nine and twentieth Day of September, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, at any Time or Times ſhall be imported or brought from the Eaſt Indies, or from Perſia, or from any other the Countries or Places within the Limits before mentioned, into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, there ſhall be yielded and paid to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors (over and above all other Duties payable for the ſame) the Sum of One Shilling and Ten Pence for every Pound Weight, reckoning Sixteen Averdupoize Ounces to the Pound, to be paid by the Importer or Importers thereof, and to be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid, to the Uſe of His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, by ſuch Ways, Rules, and Methods, and under ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, and in ſuch Manner and Form, as any other Duties upon Silks imported by the Act of Tunnage and Poundage, made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, or by any other ſubſequent Act for continuing the ſame, or by any other Law now in Force relating to the Cuſtoms, are to be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid.

Additional Duty of 1*s.* 10*d. per* lb. wt. on all wrought Silks imported from the Eaſt Indies.

LXXXIX. And whereas by an Act made and paſſed in the Seſſion of Parliament held in the Eighth and Ninth Years of His Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better Obſervation of the Courſe antiently uſed in the Receipt of Exchequer, it is (amongſt other Things) enacted and declared, That from and after the Twentieth Day of April, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, no Teller in the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer ſhould charge himſelf by his Bill with the Receipt of any Monies in the Exchequer, but at ſuch Times as the Officers of the Talley Court, their Deputies or Subſtitutes, ſhould be there preſent, to levy a Talley or Tallies for the ſame, nor ſhould any Teller, or other Perſon employed by him, throw down or cauſe to be thrown down into the ſaid Court, any Bill or Bills, owning or purporting the receiving any Sum or Sums of Money, from any Lender of Money, Receiver, or any other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, upon which Bill or Bills a Talley or Tallies are to be levied, according to the Courſe of the ſaid Receipt, unleſs ſuch Teller reſpectively, or his Clerks, or Perſons employed by him, ſhould have actually received, and have then in his Office the very Money which ſhould be ſpecified in ſuch Bill or Bills reſpectively (except as therein is excepted) under the Penalties therein mentioned; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treaſurer, or any Three or more of the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury for the time being, if he or they ſhall think fit, and it be found ſafe and expedient for His Majeſty's Service, to permit and direct the Tellers of the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer, or their Clerks, from and after the Tenth Day of July, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, to receive from Commiſſioners, Receivers, Collectors, or other Perſons making any Payments to His Majeſty at the ſaid Receipt of His Exchequer, upon any Account whatſoever, or upon Loans, Bills under the Seal of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, commonly called Bank Bills, as ſhall be tendred in Payment for any Aids, Taxes, Revenues or Loans whatſoever, unto the end of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer; any thing in the ſaid recited Act, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament, or any Cuſtom or Uſage to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding; provided that none of the ſaid Bank Bills ſhall be ſo taken in the Exchequer, when the ſame are at any Diſcount.

CAP. XLV.

CAP. XLV.

An Act for taking away half the Duties impoſed on Glaſs Wares, and the whole Duties lately laid on Stone and Earthen Wares, and Tobacco Pipes; and for granting (in lieu thereof) new Duties upon Whale Fins, and Scotch Linen.

6 W. 3. c. 18.

7 W. 3. c. 31.

WHEREAS in and by an Act made and paſſed in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the Sixth Year of His Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majeſty certain Duties upon Glaſs Wares, Stone and Earthen Bottles, Coals and Culm, for carrying on the War againſt France, ſeveral Rates and Duties therein mentioned were laid upon all Glaſs, and Glaſs Wares, Stone and Earthen Bottles, which at any Time or Times during the Term of Five Years, from and after the Nine and twentieth Day of September, which was in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety five, ſhould be made within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or imported or brought into the ſame; and in and by another Act made and paſſed in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the Seventh Year of His Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for continuing to His Majeſty certain Duties upon Salt, Glaſs Wares, Stone and Earthen Wares, and for granting ſeveral Duties upon Tobacco Pipes, and other Earthen Wares, for carrying on the War againſt France, and for eſtabliſhing a national Land Bank, and for taking off the Duties upon Tunnage of Ships, and upon Coals, the aforeſaid Rates and Duties upon Glaſs, or Glaſs Wares, Stone Bottles, and Earthen Bottles, are continued and granted to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors for ever; and it was thereby further enacted, That from and after the Seventeenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſix, there ſhould be raiſed and paid to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors for ever, for and upon all Sorts of Tobacco Pipes, and for and upon all ſuch Stone or Earthen Wares as are therein mentioned, certain Rates and Duties therein expreſſed, as by the ſaid ſeveral Acts of Parliament, Relation being thereunto ſeverally had, may more fully appear: And whereas it is found by Experience, that the ſaid Rates and Duties upon Glaſs and Glaſs Wares are too great, ſo that the Makers of thoſe Manufactures in this Kingdom are thereby diſcouraged; and that the ſaid Duties upon Stone Bottles, Earthen Bottles, and other Stone and Earthen Wares, and the ſaid Duties upon Tobacco Pipes are vexatious and troubleſome, and very chargeable in the levying and collecting of the ſame: Be it therefore enacted, &c.

By 10 & 11 W. 3. cap. 18. all Glaſs Duties are determined, for which Reaſon Sect. I, VI, VII, VIII. in this Act relating thereto are omitted.

From 10 July, 1698. (made perpetual as to Whale-fins by 9 Annæ, c. 21. §. 1.) for eight Years the following additional Duties to be paid:

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Tenth Day of July, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, there ſhall be anſwered and paid to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, for and during the Term of Eight Years from thence next enſuing, for and upon all Whale Fins and Scotch Linens herein after mentioned, as ſhall be imported or brought into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, (over and above all Impoſitions, Duties and Charges already impoſed and payable upon and for the ſame, by the Book of Rates or otherwiſe) the further Rates and Duties following; that is to ſay,

For Whale Fins imported by the Greenland Company, &c. 3 d. per lb. wt. and by Foreigners 6 d. By 5 Geo 2. c. 28. Whale Fins, &c. may be freely imported by Britiſh Subjects.

III. For all Whale Fins that are or ſhall be taken, caught and imported in and by any Ships or Veſſels whatſoever, of or belonging to the Company eſtabliſhed for the Greenland Trade, the Sum of Three Pence for every Pound Weight thereof; and after that Rate for a greater or leſſer Quantity: And for all Whale Fins which are or ſhall be taken, caught, or imported by Foreigners, or by any Ships or Veſſels not belonging to the ſaid Company, the Sum of Six Pence for every Pound Weight thereof; and after that Rate for a greater or leſſer Quantity; to be paid by the Importer or Importers of the ſame.

IV. For all Linen of the Manufacture of Scotland, commonly called by the Name of Twill, which ſhall be imported or brought in as aforeſaid, the Sum of Ten Shillings for every Hundred, containing One hundred and twenty Ells; and for all Linen of the Manufacture of Scotland, commonly called by the Name of Ticking, which ſhall be imported or brought in as aforeſaid, the Sum of Six Shillings and Eight Pence for every Hundred, containing One hundred and twenty Ells; and after thoſe Rates for any greater or leſſer Quantities; to be alſo paid by the Importer or Importers of the ſame.

Importer to have 12 Months to pay the Duties, or Allowance after the Rate of 10 l. per Cent. for prompt Payment.

Goods exported again in 9 Months, Duty to be repaid. Theſe 12 and 9 Months enlarged to 3 Years by 7 Geo. 1. ſtat. 1. c. 21. §. 10.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for the additional Duties hereby impoſed upon the aforementioned Goods, the Importer, giving Security at the Cuſtom-houſe, ſhall have Time, not exceeding Twelve Months, for the Payment of the ſame, from the Importation, to be paid by Four equal and quarterly Payments; or in caſe ſuch Importer ſhall pay ready Money, he ſhall have after the Rate of Ten Pounds per Centum of the ſaid Duty for a Year abated to him; and if the Goods and Merchandizes aforementioned, imported as aforeſaid, for which the Duties hereby granted ſhall be paid or ſecured at the Importation thereof, be again exported by any Merchant Engliſh within Twelve Months, or by Strangers within Nine Months after the Importation, then the aforeſaid Duty ſhall be wholly repaid, or the Security vacated as to what ſhall be ſo exported.

Goods landed before Entry forfeited, and may be recovered of Importer, &c.

IX. And it is hereby further enacted, That upon the Importation of any Whale Fins, Scotch Linen or Tickings hereby charged as aforeſaid, an Entry or Entries thereof ſhall be made in the Cuſtom-houſe where ſuch Goods ſhall be imported; and in caſe any ſuch Goods ſhall be landed or put on Shore, out of any Ship or Veſſel, before due Entry be made as aforeſaid, and the Duties hereby impoſed thereupon ſhall be paid or ſecured, or without a Warrant for the landing or delivering the ſame firſt ſigned by the Commiſſioners, Collectors, or other proper Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms reſpectively, then all ſuch imported Goods as ſhall be ſo landed or put on Shore, or taken out of any Ship or Veſſel, contrary to the true Meaning hereof, or the Value of the ſame, ſhall be forfeited and loſt, and ſhall and may be recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof (to wit) One Moiety of the ſaid Forfeitures to the Uſe of the King, and the other Moiety to the Uſe of ſuch Perſon or Perſons as will ſeize the ſaid Goods, or ſue for the ſame or the Value thereof, by Action, Bill, Suit, or Information as aforeſaid.

X. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Duties hereby granted and payable for Whale Fins, and ſuch Scotch Linen as aforeſaid, ſhall be from time to time under the Management and Government of the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms for the time being, who ſhall cauſe the ſame to be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid to the Hands of the Receiver or Receivers General of the Revenue of the Cuſtoms for the time being: And ſuch Receiver or Receivers General ſhall from time to time bring the Produce thereof (the neceſſary Charges of raiſing and anſwering the ſame only excepted) into the Receipt of the Exchequer: And that the Officers of the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer for the time being, to whom it ſhall appertain, ſhall from time to time iſſue, pay and apply, as well the ſaid Duties upon Whale Fins and ſuch Scotch Linens as aforeſaid, ariſing by this Act, as alſo ſuch Part of the ſaid Duties upon Glaſs and Glaſs Wares, as is not taken away by this Act, to and for the Payment and Satisfaction of ſuch Principal and Intereſt Monies, whereunto the whole Duties upon Glaſs and Earthen Wares and Tobacco Pipes, by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force, ought to have been applied, if this preſent Act had never been made; and that in ſuch Order and Form, and under the like Penalties and Forfeitures, as by any ſuch Act or Acts now in Force are or were provided or preſcribed for the iſſuing, paying and applying of the ſaid whole Duties upon Glaſs and Earthen Wares, and Tobacco Pipes; any-thing in this Act, or any former Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. III.

An Act to prohibit the Exportation of any Corn, Malt, Meal, Flour, Bread, Biſcuit or Starch for One Year, from the Tenth Day of February, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight.

EXP.

Anno Regni GULIELMI III. decimo & undecimo.

CAP. IV.

An Act to prohibit the exceſſive diſtilling of Spirits and Low Wines from Corn, and againſt the exporting of Beer and Ale, and to prevent Frauds in Diſtillers.

WHEREAS it is found by Experience, that the drawing, diſtilling and making of Brandies or Spirits from Malt is one Cauſe of the preſent Dearneſs of Corn, eſpecially of Barley, in this Realm, and by Reaſon of the great Scarcity of Corn in Foreign Parts, and the Reſtraints which are or may be made there of diſtilling Spirits from Corn, great Demands are and may be made of Spirits drawn from malted Corn in this Kingdom, to ſupply the Occaſions of thoſe Foreign Parts, which muſt needs tend to a further enhancing of the Price of Corn here, and prove a great Grievance to many of His Majeſty's good Subjects, if a ſpeedy Remedy be not provided: Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, from and after the laſt Day of January, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, and before the Firſt Day of February, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, ſhall directly or indirectly draw, diſtill or make, or cauſe or procure to be drawn, diſtilled or made, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, any Brandy, Aqua Vitæ, Spirits, or Low Wines whatſoever, other than ſuch Quantities as are allowed by this Act, and under ſuch Reſtrictions, and in ſuch Manner and Form as are herein preſcribed, from any Malt, Corn or Grain, or from any Waſh or Liquors, produced or to be produced from any Malt, Corn or Grain whatſoever, under the Penalties and Forfeitures herein after mentioned (that is to ſay) that all the Brandy, Aqua Vitæ, Spirits and Low Wines, ſo made or drawn, ſhall be forfeited, and that every Offender and Offenders therein ſhall forfeit and pay the Sum of Ten Shillings for every Gallon of Brandy, Aqua Vitæ, Spirits, or Low Wines, which ſhall be drawn, diſtilled, or made, contrary to this Act, and moreover, that all the Stills, Backs, Caſks, and other Utenſils and Veſſels employed in the diſtilling, drawing, making or keeping the ſame, or any Part thereof, ſhall be forfeited; the Moiety of all which Penalties and Forfeitures ſhall be to the King's Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to him or them that ſhall diſcover, inform or ſue for the ſame; and the ſaid Penalties and Forfeitures ſhall and may be recovered in the ſame Manner, and by the ſame Means, as any Penalties and Forfeitures by any of the Laws and Statutes for the Exciſe now in Force, for any Offence or Offences againſt the ſame, are or may be recovered: And that all Servants and others, who ſhall be wittingly or willingly aiding or aſſiſting in the making of the ſaid Spirits or Low Wines contrary to this Act, and being thereof duly convicted in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or at the General Quarter Seſſions of the County, City, Riding, or Place, where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, or where ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be apprehended or arreſted for ſuch Offence, ſhall ſuffer Impriſonment by the Space of Six Months without Bail or Mainprize.

Penalty on diſtilling greater Quantities of Brandy, &c. than are allowed by this Act.

Yeaſt may be uſed for Fermentation of Waſh.

II. Provided always, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons drawing Spirits, Brandy, or Low Wines from any Foreign Materials, or any Engliſh Materials, other than ſuch as are prohibited by this Act, to make uſe of a reaſonable Quantity of Yeaſt for the Fermentation of their Waſh, in order to the diſtilling of the ſame; any thing in this or any other Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

III. And whereas it is found by Experience, That His Majeſty hath been very much defrauded of His Duties upon Low Wines and Spirits by many Diſtillers and other Perſons, who keep or ſet up private and concealed Warehouſes, Storehouſes, Cellars or other Places, or private or concealed Stills, Backs or other Veſſels for the making, preparing or keeping Waſh, Low Wines, Spirits or other Materials fit for Diſtillation, and by private Pipes and Stop-cocks, and other private Conveyances, have Communication between their private and publick Backs and other Veſſels, by which they do privately convey their Waſh or other Liquors fit for Diſtillation from one Back or other Veſſel to another, by Means whereof the Officers cannot take and keep a true and diſtinct Account of ſuch Waſh and other Liquors fit for Diſtillation, nor of the Low Wines and Spirits made or drawn from the ſame: And whereas the Gaugers and Officers of Exciſe are not ſufficiently impowered by Law, upon Suſpicion or Knowledge of ſuch Frauds, to enter the Houſes or Places where the ſame are practiſed without Conſent of the Poſſeſſors thereof, or upon Entry and Diſcovery of ſuch Frauds, cannot find out or diſcover the Perſon or Perſons concerned therein, by Reaſon that the true Owner or Owners of ſuch Warehouſes, Storehouſes, Cellars or other Places, Stills, Backs or other Veſſels, Spirits, Low Wines, Waſh or other Materials fit for Diſtillation, will not appear or claim any Intereſt therein, but frequently diſown the ſame; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Diſtiller having and keeping any private Pipe or Stop-cock, or other private Conveyance, by which any Waſh or other Liquors fit for Diſtillation may be conveyed from one Back or Veſſel to another, or from any ſuch Back or other Veſſel to their Still or Stills, or into any other Place, ſhall, before the Eight and twentieth Day of February, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, take up or demoliſh every ſuch Pipe, Stop-cock, or other private Conveyance, and ſhall alſo ſtop up every Hole in every ſuch Back or Waſhbatch, by which any Waſh or other Liquors fit for Diſtillation may be conveyed into or out of ſuch Back or Waſhbatch, or any of them, and that no Diſtiller, from and after the ſaid Eight and twentieth Day of February, ſhall have or keep any private Pipe, Stop-cock, or other private Conveyance, by which any Waſh or other Liquors fit for Diſtillation may be conveyed from one Back or other Veſſel to another, or from any ſuch Back or other Veſſel to his or her Still or Stills, or into any other Place, nor ſhall have or keep any Hole in any ſuch Back or Waſhbatch, by which any Waſh, or any other Liquors fit for Diſtillation, may be conveyed into or out of ſuch Back or Waſhbatch, or any of them: On Pain to forfeit for every ſuch Pipe, Stop-cock, Conveyance and Hole, the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Private Pipe Stop-cock, &c. to be taken up.

Penalty on Diſtiller.

Exciſe Officers may ſearch for ſuch Pipes, &c.

IV. And for the better diſcovering of all ſuch Pipes, Stop-cocks, and other private Conveyances aforeſaid, be it further enacted, That from and after the ſaid Eight and twentieth Day of February, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Gaugers and Officers of Exciſe, or any of them, in the Day-time, and in the Preſence of a Conſtable, or other lawful Officer for the Peace (who are hereby required to be aiding and aſſiſting therein) on Requeſt firſt made and Cauſe declared, to break up the Ground in any Diſtilling Houſe, or the Ground near adjoining, or any Wall, Partition, or other Place, to ſearch for any ſuch Pipe, Stop-cock, or any other private Conveyance; and upon finding ſuch Pipe or other Conveyance, to break up the Ground, Houſe, Wall or other Partition or Place, through or into which any ſuch Pipe or other Conveyance ſhall lead, and to break up or cut any ſuch Pipe or other Conveyance, and to turn any Cock or Cocks, to try and examine whether ſuch Pipe or other Conveyance, may or can convey any Waſh or other Liquors fit for Diſtillation, out of one Back or Veſſel into another, or from any ſuch Back or Veſſel into any Still or Stills, or into any other Place.

V. Provided always, That in caſe upon ſuch Search, no ſuch Pipe or other private Conveyance ſhall be found, ſuch Gaugers and Officers of Exciſe ſhall make good the Ground, Wall, Houſe, or other Place ſo broken up, as aforeſaid, or make reaſonable Satiſfaction to the Owner or Owners thereof, to be adjudged by Two of the next Juſtices of the Peace, whereof One to be of the Quorum; or the Party injured ſhall be at Liberty to bring his Action for the Damages by him ſuſtained; and what ſhall be adjudged by the ſaid Juſtices, or recovered upon ſuch Action, ſhall be paid out of His Majeſty's Revenue of Exciſe, by the Commiſſioners thereof for the time being: And if any Diſtiller, or any other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, ſhall oppoſe, obſtruct, or hinder any ſuch Gauger or Officer in the due Execution of the Powers hereby given and granted, every ſuch Diſtiller, and other Perſon ſhall forfeit and loſe, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

In caſe no Pipe be found, Officer to make Satiſfaction to Owner.

Penalty on Diſtiller obſtructing Officer.

VI. Provided nevertheleſs, and it is hereby declared, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Diſtiller to keep and make uſe of any Pipe, Stop-cock, or other Conveyance above Ground, which are publick, and in open View, from One End thereof to the other, for the letting his Waſh out of his publick Coolers into his publick Backs or Waſh-batches, and for conveying his Waſh or Worts out of ſuch publick Back or Waſhbatch into his publick Stills; any thing in this Act, or any other Law or Statute to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Diſtiller may uſe Pipes above Ground.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe the Gaugers or Officers of Exciſe, or any of them, ſhall know, or have cauſe to ſuſpect any ſuch private or concealed Still, Back, or other Veſſel, Spirits, Low Wines, Waſh, or other Materials preparing for Diſtillation, to be ſet up or kept in any Houſe or Place, and ſhall make Affidavit before One or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace for the County or Place where he ſhall ſo know or ſuſpect ſuch private or concealed Still, Back, or other Veſſel, Spirits, Low Wines, or Materials preparing for Diſtillation, are or ſhall be ſo ſet up or kept, and ſhall in ſuch Affidavit declare the Grounds of ſuch his Knowledge or Suſpicion, then and in ſuch Caſe, it ſhall and may be lawful for ſuch Officer or Officers, in the Day-time, and in the Preſence of a Conſtable, or other lawful Officer of the Peace (who are hereby required to be aiding and aſſiſting therein) by Warrant from ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace before whom ſuch Affidavit ſhall be made, to be directed to ſuch Officer or Officers of Exciſe (which Warrant the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace are hereby authorized and required to grant) to break open the Door, or any Part of ſuch Houſe or Place, where he or they ſhall ſo know or ſuſpect ſuch private or concealed Still, Back, or Veſſel, Spirits, Low Wines, or Materials for Diſtillation are ſo ſet up or kept; and to enter into ſuch Houſe or Place, and to ſeize all ſuch Stills, Backs, or other Veſſels, and alſo all ſuch Spirits, Low Wines, Waſh, or other Materials for Diſtillatian that ſhall be found therein, and to detain and keep the ſame in ſuch Houſe or other Place where he or they ſhall find the ſame ſo kept private or concealed; and in caſe the ſame ſhall not, within Twenty Days next after ſuch Seizure, be claimed by the true and lawful Owner thereof, then the ſaid Stills, Backs, and other Veſſels, Spirits, Low Wines, and Materials for Diſtillation ſhall be abſolutely forfeited, and ſhall and may be ſold at the next general Day of Sale, to be appointed by the Commiſſioners of Exciſe, or their Officer or Officers reſpectively, after the ſaid Twenty Days are expired; One Moiety of the Proceed thereof (all neceſſary Charges being firſt deducted out of the whole) to be paid to the Uſe of His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to the Party or Parties who ſhall ſo diſcover and ſeize the ſame; and in caſe ſuch Stills, Backs, and other Veſſels, Spirits, Low Wines, and Materials for Diſtillations, ſhall within the ſaid Twenty Days be claimed by any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, the Perſon or Perſons ſo claiming the ſame, ſhall forfeit and loſe for every ſuch Warehouſe, Storehouſe or other Place, in which any ſuch Still, Back, or other Veſſel ſhall be found, and alſo for every ſuch Still, Back, and other Veſſel found therein, the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

and if not claimed in 20 Days, ſhall be forfeited and ſold.

Penalty on Perſon claiming ſuch Still, &c.

VIII. Provided always, That in caſe upon ſuch breaking open any ſuch Door or Houſe, no ſuch private or concealed Back, Still, or other Veſſel, Spirits, Low Wines, Waſh, or other Materials for Diſtillation, ſhall be found, ſuch Gauger and Officers of Exciſe ſhall make good the Houſe or Place ſo broken up, as aforeſaid, or make reaſonable Satiſfaction to the Owner or Owners thereof, to be adjudged by Two of the next Juſtices of the Peace, whereof One to be of the Quorum; or the Party injured ſhall be at Liberty to bring his Action for the Damages by him ſuſtained; and what ſhall be adjudged by the ſaid Juſtices, or recovered upon ſuch Action, ſhall be paid out of His Majeſty's Revenue of Exciſe, by the Commiſſioners thereof for the time being; and if any Diſtiller, or any other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, ſhall oppoſe, obſtruct, or hinder any ſuch Gauger or Officer ſo authorized, as aforeſaid, in the due Execution of the Powers hereby given and granted, every ſuch Diſtiller, or other Perſon, ſhall forfeit and loſe the Sum of Two hundred Pounds; all which ſaid Penalties ſhall be recovered and levied by the ſame Means and Methods, as any Fine or Penalty impoſed by any Law of Exciſe now in force is recoverable; One Moiety of which ſaid Forfeitures ſhall be to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to him or them that will diſcover, inform, or ſue for the ſame, as aforeſaid.

If no private Still be found, Officer to make good the Damage.

Penalty on Perſon oppoſing Officer.

IX. And whereas many Diſtillers, on Pretence of rectifying of Spirits, do mix Spirits with Waſh and other Liquors, and afterwards diſtil the ſame, whereby His Majeſty's Duties on Low Wines are avoided, and not duly anſwered and paid, as by the former Acts is directed and appointed: For Prevention whereof be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Spirits made or drawn by any Diſtiller from any Mixture of Spirits with any Kind of Waſh or other Liquor (except common Water) ſhall be deemed and taken to be Low Wines, and ſhall be chargeable with the Duties already ſet and impoſed on Low Wines drawn from foreign Materials.

All Spirits made from Mixture of Spirits with Waſh, deemed Low Wines, and chargeable with the Duties.

Proviſo.

X. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in ſuch Houſe and Houſes, and other Edifices which were uſed as publick or open Diſtilleries for the drawing or diſtilling of Spirits or Low Wines from Wort or Drink brewed from malted Corn, during the Year ended on the Thirtieth Day of September, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and eight, or during any Part thereof (and in no other Houſe or Place whatſoever) it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Owners and Occupiers of the ſaid Houſes and Diſtilleries reſpectively, at any Time or Times between the laſt Day of January, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and eight, and the Firſt Day of February, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and nine, to draw, diſtil, and make, or cauſe to be drawn, diſtilled, and made, any Spirits or Low Wines from Drink or Wort brewed from malted Corn, ſo as the whole Quantity of Low Wines or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, which between the ſaid laſt Day of January, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and eight, and the ſaid Firſt Day of February, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and nine, ſhall be drawn, diſtilled, or made in every ſuch Diſtillery reſpectively, from any Malt, Corn, or Grain, or from the Produce thereof, do not in the whole exceed half the Quantity of Low Wines or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, which in the Year already ended, as aforeſaid, were drawn, diſtilled, or made within the ſame Houſe or Diſtillery reſpectively, from Drink or Wort brewed with malted Corn, and ſo as the Quantity of Low Wines or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, which in the Firſt, Second, Third, and every other Kalendary Month of the Year, reckoned from the ſaid laſt Day of January, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and eight, ſhall be drawn, diſtilled, or made in every ſuch Diſtillery reſpectively, from Malt, Corn, or Grain, or from the Produce thereof, do not exceed half the Quantity of Low Wines or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, which in the like Firſt, Second, Third, and every other Kalendary Month of the Year, ended as aforeſaid, were drawn, diſtilled, or made within the ſame Houſe or Diſtillery reſpectively, from Drink or Wort brewed with malted Corn; and in caſe any Doubt or Controverſy ſhall ariſe concerning the Quantity of Spirits or Low Wines which were drawn or diſtilled in any Houſe or Diſtillery within or during the ſaid Year, ended on the ſaid Thirtieth Day of September, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and eight, or any Month of the ſame, from Drink or Worts brewed from malted Corn, or concerning the exceeding of half that Quantity or Proportion in the Year to be reckoned from the ſaid laſt Day of January, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and eight, or in any Month thereof, then the ſame ſhall be determined by the Accounts or Vouchers returned into the Head Office of the Exciſe, containing the Quantities of ſuch Low Wines or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction made in every ſuch Houſe or Diſtillery within or during the Year already ended, as aforeſaid, whereby His Majeſty's Duties were charged or chargeable, or by the Entries of the ſame, to which all Perſons concerned (upon reaſonable Requeſt) ſhall have free Acceſs without Fee or Charge; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

XI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Commiſſioners of the Exciſe, or any Three or more of them, upon Requeſt to them made, ſhall make forth and deliver in Writing under their Hands, gratis, to the Owners or Occupiers aforeſaid, or ſuch as they ſhall appoint, a true Account of the Quantities of Low Wines or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, charged in the ſaid Vouchers, as were made in every reſpective Diſtillery in each reſpective Month of the Year, ended at the Thirtieth Day of September, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and eight, as aforeſaid, from Drink or Worts brewed with malted Corn.

From 28 Feb. 1698. to 1 Feb. 1699. no Beer, Ale, &c. to be exported.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, from and after the laſt Day of February, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and eight, and before the Firſt Day of February, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and nine, ſhall directly or indirectly export, tranſport, carry out, convey, or cauſe or procure to be exported or tranſported, carried, or conveyed out of or from the ſaid Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or any of them, or load or lay on board, or cauſe or procure to be loaden or laid on board in any Ship, Veſſel, or Boat, in order to be exported or carried out of the Kingdom, Dominion, or Town aforeſaid, for any foreign Parts, any Beer, Ale, or any Waſh or Worts drawn from Corn, or any Ale or Beer from which Spirits may be extracted, under the Pains and Forfeitures herein after mentioned; that is to ſay, For every Barrel of Beer, Ale, Waſh, or Worts ſo exported, the Sum of Five Pounds, and ſo in Proportion for any greater or leſſer Quantity, One Moiety thereof to His Majeſty, and the other Moiety to the Informer, to be recovered as other Penalties by this Act are directed to be recovered.

Penalty.

Proviſo.

XIII. Provided always, That this Act or any thing therein contained ſhall not extend to prohibit the Exportation or carrying out of ſuch Beer or Ale as ſhall be neceſſary to be carried in any Ship or other Veſſel or Veſſels, from this Kingdom, or the Dominion aforeſaid, or in their Return to the ſame, only for the Suſtenance or Drink of the Commanders, Maſters, Mariners, Paſſengers, or others in the ſame Ships, and not to be ſold in foreign Parts, or for the Supply of any of His Majeſty's Ships in foreign Parts; any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

XIV. Provided alſo, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend to any Beer or Ale, which ſhall be exported, or ſhipped to be exported out or from any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or Dominion of Wales, unto ſuch of His Majeſty's Colonies in America, Perſia, or the Eaſt Indies, that have been uſually ſupplied with ſuch Liquors from this Kingdom, or from the Dominion of Wales, aforeſaid, or for the Suſtentation of the ſaid Iſlands and Colonies, Forts, Caſtles, or Factories therein only, ſo as the Exporters, before the ſhipping or laying on board the ſame for the Iſlands or Colonies for which the ſaid Liquor is deſigned, do give ſufficient Security, in treble the Value, to the Commiſſioners or Officers of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms reſpectively, who have hereby Power to take ſuch Security, in His Majeſty's Name, and to His Majeſty's Uſe, That ſuch Liquors ſhall not be landed in any Parts whatſoever, other than the Iſlands and Colonies for which the ſame ſhall be ſo declared; for taking which Security no Fee or Reward ſhall be demanded or received; and the ſaid Bond or Bonds, or other Securities, if not proſecuted within Three Years, ſhall be void.

Charles Bennett Diſtiller.

XV. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend to prevent or hinder Charles Bennett Diſtiller, from drawing or diſtilling Spirits or Low Wines from Worts or Drink brewed from malted Corn, from the laſt Day of January, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, to the Firſt Day of February, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine; always ſo as the whole Quantity of Low Wines or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, which between the ſaid laſt Day of January, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, and the ſaid Firſt Day of February, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, ſhall be drawn, diſtilled, or made in his now Diſtillery from any Malt, Corn or Grain, or from the Produce thereof, do not in the whole exceed Half the Quantity of Low Wines or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, by him drawn and extracted in the Year already ended on the Thirtieth of September, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, and ſo as the ſaid Charles Bennett doth obſerve and perform all Things elſe, as all other Diſtillers are by this Act obliged to obſerve and perform.

CAP. VI.

An Act to enlarge the Trade to Ruſſia.

WHEREAS King Philip and Queen Mary, by their Letters Patents dated at Weſtminſter the Sixth Day of February, in the Firſt and Second Years of their Reign, being willing to animate, advance and further the Perſons in the ſaid Letters Patents named, in their good Purpoſe and profitable Adventure, for the diſcovering, deſcrying and finding out Iſles, Lands and Territories unknown, lying to the Northward, and by Engliſh Subjects before then not commonly frequented by Sea, as well for the Glory of God, as for illuſtrating the Royal Dignity in the Increaſe of the Revenues of the Crown, and the general Wealth of this Realm, and of the Subjects of the ſame (as in the ſaid Letters Patents is particularly expreſſed) did incorporate the ſaid Perſons by the Name of Merchants Adventurers for the Diſcovery of Lands, Territories, Iſles, and Seigniories unknown, and not by the Seas and Navigations, before their ſaid late Adventure or Enterprize by Sea or Navigation, commonly frequented, with Power to make Statutes, Acts, and Ordinances for the good Government of the ſaid Fellowſhip, and alſo to admit unto the ſaid Fellowſhip Perſons to be free of the ſame; and that every Perſon or Perſons ſo to be admitted, ſhould from the Time of his or their Admittances be free of the ſaid Fellowſhip; and that the ſaid Fellowſhip ſhould have and enjoy the ſole Trade to all the main Lands, Iſles, Ports, Havens, Creeks and Rivers of the Emperor of Ruſſia, and to all and ſingular other Lands, Dominions, Territories, Ports, Creeks and Arms of the Sea whatſoever, in the ſaid Letters Patents particularly mentioned and deſcribed; as by the ſaid Letters Patents (among other Things therein contained) more at large may and doth appear: And whereas the Liberties, Powers and Privileges granted by the ſaid Letters Patents, were afterwards by an Act of Parliament made in the Eighth Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, ratified and confirmed to the ſaid Fellowſhip and their Succeſſors, by the Name of The Fellowſhip of Engliſh Merchants for Diſcovery of New Trades, with Power to have and enjoy all and ſingular the Liberties, Privileges, Juriſdictions, Powers and Authorities, as well in the ſaid Letters Patents as Act of Parliament mentioned or contained, with a Prohibition, that no Subject or Denizen of this Realm ſhould traffick to, viſit, or frequent any of the Places granted by the ſaid Act to the ſaid Fellowſhip to trade in, but by Order, Agreement or Conſent of the Governor, Conſuls and Aſſiſtants of the ſaid Fellowſhip for the time being, or the major Part of them, upon Pain that every Perſon and Perſons offending in that Behalf, ſhould forfeit and loſe (ipſo facto) every ſuch Ship and Ships with the Appurtenances, and all ſuch Goods and Things whatſoever, as by any ſuch Perſons ſhould be by any Means, directly or indirectly, carried, conducted, brought or exchanged in, at or to, through or from any of the Places prohibited, contrary to the true Intent of the ſaid Act, One Moiety thereof to the Queen's Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety thereof to the ſaid Fellowſhip and their Succeſſors, as by the ſaid Act of Parliament (amongſt other Things therein contained) more at large may and doth appear: And whereas the eaſy Admiſſion of Perſons into the ſaid Company or Fellowſhip, will in all Probability tend very much to the enlarging the ſaid Trade for the publick Good, and for that there is no Mention made either in the ſaid Letters Patents, or Act of Parliament, upon what Terms Perſons ſhall be admitted, or what certain Fine ſhall be taken by the Fellowſhip for the admitting Perſons to be free thereof, the aſcertaining whereof would very much tend to the increaſing the Number of Traders to the ſaid Places; therefore for the aſcertaining hereafter what Fine ſhall be taken by the ſaid Fellowſhip for the ſaid Admiſſions, and for enlarging and encouraging the Trade to Ruſſia, and other the Places in the ſaid Charter and Act of Parliament mentioned and deſcribed; be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and of the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Five and twentieth Day of March, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, every Subject of this Realm deſiring Admiſſion into the ſaid Fellowſhip of Engliſh Merchants for Diſcovery of new Trades, commonly called or known by the Name of The Ruſſia Company, on Requeſt in that Behalf to be made to the Governor, Conſuls and Aſſiſtants for the time being of the ſaid Fellowſhip, or any Three or more of them, ſhall be admitted into the ſaid Fellowſhip, and ſhall have, uſe, and enjoy all the Liberties, Privileges, Juriſdictions, Franchiſes, Powers and Authorities granted to the ſaid Fellowſhip, either by the ſaid Letters Patents or Act of Parliament, as largely, fully and amply, to all Intents, Conſtructions and Purpoſes, as any other Member of the ſaid Fellowſhip could, can or may have, uſe or enjoy the ſame by virtue of the ſaid Letters Patents, and Act of Parliament, or either of them, ſuch Subject paying for ſuch his Admiſſion, for the Uſe of the ſaid Fellowſhip only, the Sum of Five Pounds, and no more.

Stat. 8 Eliz.

From 25 Mar. 1699. Perſons may be admitted into the Ruſſia Company, paying 5 l.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of March, the Sum of Five Pounds only, and no more, ſhall be demanded, taken or accepted by the ſaid Fellowſhip, for any Admiſſion to the Freedom thereof; of; any By-law, Statute or Ordinance of the ſaid Fellowſhip, made or to be made to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Admiſſion by Agent.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where any Perſon or Perſons reſiding in any Out-port, or any other Place within this Realm, the Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, ſhall make Requeſt to be admitted into the ſaid Fellowſhip as aforeſaid, by his Agent or Deputy, making Tender of Five Pounds for his Admiſſion, the ſaid Governor, Conſuls and Aſſiſtants, ſhall under the Common Seal of the ſaid Fellowſhip, within Ten Days after ſuch Requeſt, appoint One or more Perſon or Perſons to admit ſuch Perſon or Perſons into the Freedom of the ſaid Fellowſhip, and to adminiſter to him and them the Oath to be taken by the Freemen of the ſaid Fellowſhip; which Oath they are hereby impowered to adminiſter; which Admiſſion and Adminiſtration of the ſaid Oath ſhall be as good and effectual, as if the ſame were actually done by the ſaid Governor, Conſuls and Aſſiſtants.

Oath.

Such Admiſſion good.

Parliament to have a yearly Account of Naval Stores imported from Ruſſia.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms ſhall, at every Seſſion of Parliament, lay before both Houſes a true Account in Writing, under their Hands, of what Naval Stores ſhall have been imported into this Kingdom by any Perſons trading to Ruſſia.

CAP. VII.

An Act for preventing irregular Proceedings of Sheriffs and other Officers, in making the Returns of Members choſen to ſerve in Parliament.

FOR preventing Abuſes in the Returns of Writs of Summons for the calling and aſſembling of any Parliament for the future, or Writs for the Choice of any new Member to ſerve in Parliament; and to the end ſuch Writs may, by the proper Officer or his Deputy, be duly returned and delivered to the Clerk of the Crown, to be by him filed, according to the ancient and legal Courſe; be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That the Sheriff, or other Officer having the Execution and Return of any ſuch Writ which ſhall be iſſued for the future, ſhall, on or before the Day that any future Parliament ſhall be called to meet, and with all convenient Expedition, not exceeding Fourteen Days after any Election made by virtue of any new Writ, either in Perſon, or by his Deputy, make Return of the ſame to the Clerk of the Crown in the High Court of Chancery, to be by him filed; and the Sheriff, or other Perſon making ſuch Return, ſhall pay to the ſaid Clerk of the Crown the antient and lawful Fees of Four Shillings, and no more, for every Knight of a Shire, and Two Shillings, and no more, for every Citizen, Burgeſs, or Baron of the Cinque Ports, returned into the ſaid Court, to be by him filed; and the ſaid Sheriff or Officer ſhall, by virtue of this Act, charge the ſame to His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, and have Allowance thereof in his Account in the Exchequer or elſewhere.

Writ when returnable.

and charge the ſame to the King.

7 & 8 W. 3. c. 25.

II. And whereas by an Act made in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for the further regulating Elections of Members to ſerve in Parliament, and for the preventing irregular Proceedings of Sheriffs and other Officers in the electing and returning ſuch Members, it is provided and enacted, That the Officer, on the Receipt of any ſuch Writ, ſhall, within Three Days after ſuch his Receipt, by himſelf or proper Agent, deliver or cauſe to be delivered, a Precept or Precepts to the proper Officer of every Borough, Town Corporate, Port or Place within his Juriſdiction, to whom the Execution of ſuch Precept doth belong or appertain, which by Experience hath been found too ſhort a Time for the Performance of the ſame in the Cinque Ports; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from henceforth the proper Officer of the Cinque Ports ſhall be allowed Six Days from the Receipt of ſuch Writ for the Delivery of the Precept, according to the Purport of the ſaid Act; any thing in the ſaid Act, or any other Law, Statute or Uſage to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Officer of the Cinque Ports allowed 6 Days from Receipt of Writ.

Penalty on Sheriff, &c. not making Return.

III. And it is further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Sheriff or other Officer or Officers aforeſaid, who ſhall not make the Returns according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, ſhall forfeit for every ſuch Offence the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, One Moiety whereof ſhall be to His Majeſty, and the other Moiety to him or them that ſhall ſue for the ſame, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed, nor any more than One Imparlance.

CAP. X.

An Act to prevent the Exportation of Wooll out of the Kingdoms of Ireland and England into Foreign Parts; and for the Encouragement of the Woollen Manufactures in the Kingdom of England.

This Act made more effectual by 5 Geo. 2. c. 21.

FORASMUCH as Wooll and the Woollen Manufactures of Cloth, Serge, Bays, Kerſeys, and other Stuffs made or mixed with Wooll, are the greateſt and moſt profitable Commodities of this Kingdom, on which the Value of Lands, and the Trade of the Nation do chiefly depend: And whereas great Quantities of the like Manufactures have of late been made, and are daily increaſing in the Kingdom of Ireland, and in the Engliſh Plantations in America, and are exported from thence to Foreign Markets, heretofore ſupplied from England, which will inevitably ſink the Value of Lands, and tend to the Ruine of the Trade, and the Woollen Manufactures of this Realm: For the Prevention whereof, and for the Encouragement of the Woollen Manufactures within this Kingdom, be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, from and after the Four and twentieth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, ſhall directly or indirectly export, tranſport, ſhip off, carry or convey, or cauſe or procure to be exported, tranſported, ſhipped off, carried, or conveyed out of, or from the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, into any Foreign Realm, States, or Dominions, or into any Parts or Places whatſoever, other than the Parts within the Kingdom of England, or the Dominion of Wales, any the Wooll, Woollfells, Shortlings, Mortlings, Woollflocks, Worſted, Bay, or Woollen Yarn, Cloth, Serge, Bays, Kerſeys, Says, Frizes, Druggets, Cloth-Serges, Shalloons, or any other Drapery Stuffs or Woollen Manufactures whatſoever, made up or mixed with Wooll or Woollflocks, or ſhall directly or indirectly load, or cauſe to be loaden upon any Horſe, Cart, or other Carriage, or load or lay on board, or cauſe to be laden or laid on board in any Ship or Veſſel, in any Place or Parts within or belonging to the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, any ſuch Wooll, Woollfells, Shortlings, Mortlings, Woollflocks, Worſted, Bay, or Woollen Yarn, Cloth, Bays, Kerſeys, Serges, Says, Frizes, Druggets, Cloth-Serges, Shalloons, or any other Drapery or Woollen Manufactures, to the Intent or Purpoſe to export, tranſport, ſhip off, carry or convey the ſame, or cauſe the ſame to be exported, tranſported, ſhipped off, carried or conveyed out of the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, or out of any Port or Place belonging to the ſame, or with Intent or Purpoſe, that any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhould ſo export, tranſport, ſhip off, carry or convey the ſame out of the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, into any Ports or Places, except as aforeſaid.

From 24 June, 1699,

no Wooll, Woollfells, Shortlings, &c. to be exported out of Ireland, to any Place but England, &c.

Wooll laid near the Sea, &c. in order to be exported, is forfeited by 5 Geo. 1. c. 11. § 21.

Penalties on Offenders.

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every of the Offender and Offenders, Offence and Offences, aforeſaid, ſhall be ſubject and liable to the reſpective Pains, and Penalties, and Forfeitures hereafter following (that is to ſay) The ſaid Wooll, Woollfells, Shortlings, Mortlings, Woollflocks, Worſted, Bay, or Woollen Yarn, Cloth, Serge, Bays, Kerſeys, Says, Frizes, Druggets, Cloth-Serges, Shalloons, or any other Draperies, Stuffs, or any other Manufactures, made of or mixed with Wooll or Woollflocks, ſo exported, tranſported, ſhipped off, or carried, conveyed, or loaden, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, ſhall be forfeited; and that every of the Offender and Offenders therein ſhall likewiſe forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds for every ſuch Offence; and all and every Ship, Veſſel, Barge, Boat, or other Bottom whatſoever, wherein any of the ſaid Commodities are or ſhall be ſhipped or laid on board, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, ſhall be forfeited, with all her Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture to them and every of them belonging; and the Maſters and Mariners thereof, or any Porters, Carriers, Waggoners, Boatmen, or other Perſons whatſoever, knowing ſuch Offence, and wittingly aiding and aſſiſting therein, ſhall forfeit Fourty Pounds; of which One Moiety ſhall be to him or them that ſhall ſue for the ſame by Bill, Plaint, or Information in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record in England, or Ireland, and the other Moiety thereof to the Encouragement of ſetting up the Linen Manufactures in Ireland, to be diſpoſed of by the Court of Exchequer there for that Uſe only; in which Suit no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than One Imparlance ſhall be allowed.

By 3 Geo. 1. c. 21. § 4. One Moiety is given to the King.

III. And to prevent evading the Penalties of this Act, by Pretention of Proſecution or Acquittals in Ireland; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Acquittal, nor any Indictment, Information, or Suit (unleſs the Offender be thereupon convicted) in Ireland, for any Offence provided againſt in this Act, ſhall be pleaded or allowed in Bar or Delay of any Indictment, Information, Suit, or Proſecution within the Kingdom of England.

No Acquittal, &c. in Ireland, allowed in Bar of any Proſecution in England.

Any Perſon may ſeize all ſuch Wooll, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons to ſeize, take, ſecure, and convey to His Majeſty's next Warehouſe, all ſuch Wooll, Woollfells, Shortlings, Mortlings, Woollflocks, Worſted, Bay, or Woollen Yarn, Cloth, Serges, Bays, Kerſeys, Says, Frizes, Druggets, Cloth-Serges, Shalloons, Stuffs, and other Draperies and Woollen Manufactures, or mixed with Wooll or Woollflocks, as he or they ſhall happen to ſee, find, know, or diſcover to be laid on board in any Ship, Veſſel, or Boat, or to be brought, carried, or laid on ſhore, at or near the Sea, or any navigable River or Water, to the Intent or Purpoſe to be exported or conveyed out of the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, or to be laden upon any Horſe, Cart, or other Carriage, to the Intent or Purpoſe to be exported, conveyed, or carried into any Foreign Parts or Places, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof; and alſo that it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon and Perſons to ſeize and ſecure all and every ſuch Ship, Hulk, Veſſel, Barge, or Boat, of what Kind ſoever, or whereſoever found or diſcovered, wherein any of the aforeſaid Commodities ſhall happen to be ſhipped or put on board, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; and that ſuch Perſon or Perſons that ſhall happen ſo to ſeize, take, or ſecure any of the

Seizer indemnified for ſo doing.

the Commodities aforeſaid, or any ſuch Ship, Veſſel, Hulk, Barge, or Boat, as aforeſaid, ſhall be indemnified for ſo doing, to all Intents and Purpoſes.

Bond to be given for Ship taking on board Woollen Commodities.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for every Ship or Veſſel, which from and after the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of June, ſhall ſet out and ſail from the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, in order to export or carry off any of the Commodities aforeſaid to this Kingdom, Bond ſhall be given by Two ſufficient Perſons, known Inhabitants of and reſiding in or near the Place where the Bond is or ſhall be given, to the Chief Officers of the Cuſtoms, belonging to the ſaid Port or Place in the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, from whence the ſaid Ship or Veſſel ſhall ſet Sail, in double the Value of any the aforeſaid Goods, intended to be tranſported, as aforeſaid, before the ſaid Ship or Veſſel ſhall be permitted to lade on board any of the Commodities aforeſaid, with Condition that if the ſaid Ship or Veſſel ſhall lade or take on board any of the ſaid Goods, in the Kingdom of Ireland, that then and in ſuch Caſe all the ſaid Goods ſhall be brought, by the ſame Ship or Veſſel, to ſome Port or Ports within the Kingdom of England, or the Dominion of Wales, as aforeſaid, and ſhall there unlade or put on ſhore the ſame, and pay the Cuſtom and Duties thereof, the Danger of the Seas only excepted. And that every Ship or Veſſel, which ſhall lade or take on board any of the ſaid Goods, until ſuch Bond be given, ſhall be forfeited, to be recovered and employed in Manner as aforeſaid.

Ship taking Goods on board before Bond given, to be forfeited.

A Regiſter to be kept of Goods imported from Ireland.

VI. And for the more effectual Execution of the Powers granted by this Act; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That a Regiſter be kept at the Cuſtom Houſe in London, of all the aforeſaid Goods, from time to time imported from Ireland, into any of the Ports within this Kingdom, or Dominion of Wales, with the particular Qualities and Quantities thereof, the Maſter's and Owners Names, and to whom conſigned.

Cockets, &c. to be written on Paper, and ſigned.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Cockets and Warrants for the carrying or tranſporting of any of the aforeſaid Goods, from the Kingdom of Ireland, to any Port or Ports aforeſaid, within this Kingdom, ſhall be written upon Paper, and not Parchment, and ſigned by Three of the Chief Officers of ſuch reſpective Port at leaſt, and all Certificates of landing the ſame in any the Ports aforeſaid, within this Kingdom, or Dominion of Wales, ſhall be ſigned in like Manner; and that all the Goods aforeſaid, both at ſhipping and landing, ſhall be viewed and examined by the Surveyor or Searcher, or Land-waiter, attending the ſhipping or Diſcharge of any the aforeſaid Goods; and that the exact Quantities and Qualities, Marks, and Numbers of the Goods aforeſaid, ſo ſhipped in Ireland, ſhall be particularly expreſſed and indorſed upon the Cocket, by which the ſaid Goods are or were to be ſhipped, and likewiſe upon the Warrant for landing the ſame in England, and alſo upon the Certificate or Certificates, given or to be given, for diſcharging the Bond or Bonds taken in Ireland for the ſame.

Goods to be viewed by Surveyor, &c.

Quantities to be expreſſed on the Cocket, &c.

Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms of Ireland to tranſmit the Quantities, &c. of Goods exported, to the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in England, and Duplicates of the Bonds, &c. as alſo Dates of Certificates.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Commiſſioners of the Revenue, or Farmers of the Cuſtoms, or of the Revenue of the Kingdom of Ireland, for the time being, ſhall from time to time, and at all Times hereafter, once within every Six Months, or within Thirty Days after the End thereof, tranſmit or cauſe to be tranſmitted unto the Commiſſioners or Farmers of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms in England, of all ſuch Goods as aforeſaid, as ſhall from time to time be exported from the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, the Qualities and Quantities thereof, and Duplicates of the Bonds taken for lading the ſame, and by whom and in what Ships exported, and where and to what Port in the Kingdom of England, or Dominion of Wales, conſigned, and the Names of the Perſons ſigning the Certificates of the landing the ſame in England, and the Date of the ſaid Certificates, and where the ſame are or were laden, and alſo of the Qualities and Quantities, Marks, and Numbers contained in the ſaid Certificates, in order that the ſame may be compared with the regiſtred Account, appointed by this Act to be kept by the Commiſſioners or Farmers of the Cuſtoms of this Kingdom.

Certificates to be written on Paper, &c.

IX. And for preventing the Miſchief of raſing, obliterating, or interlining ſuch Certificates, as aforeſaid; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all ſuch Certificates ſhall be written upon Paper, and not Parchment, and that the Quantities and Qualities, Marks, and Numbers therein expreſſed ſhall not be obliterated or interlined upon any Pretence whatſoever.

Ports for exporting and importing Goods. By 4 Annæ, c. 7. Goods may be export- from New Roſs.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all ſuch Goods as aforeſaid, as ſhall from time to time be exported from the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, into the Ports of this Kingdom, or Dominion of Wales, in Manner as aforeſaid, ſhall be ſhipped off and entred at the Ports of Dublin, Waterford, Youghall, Kingſale, Cork, and Drogheda, in the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, and at or from no other Port or Place within the ſaid Kingdom; nor ſhall the ſame be imported into any Parts of the Kingdom of England, or Dominion of Wales, other than the Ports of Biddiford, Barnſtable, Minehead, Bridgewater, Briſtol, Milford Haven, Cheſter, and Liverpool; any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Penalty on Commiſſioner or Officer of the Cuſtoms, &c.

XI. And to the Intent and Purpoſe that this Act may more effectually be put in Execution, for preventing the growing Miſchiefs that daily do or may ariſe to this Kingdom, from the Exportation of ſuch Goods as aforeſaid, or any of them, out of the Kingdom of Ireland, ſhould the ſame ſtill be ſuffered to be ſent from thence to ſupply the Foreign Markets, that are or have been ſupplied from England; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners, Farmer or Farmers of the Revenue of Ireland, or Officer or Officers employed under them in the Management of the ſaid Revenue there, ſhall, from and after the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of June, take or ſuffer to be taken any Entry outward, or ſign any Cocket, Warrant or Sufferance, for the ſhipping and exporting any ſuch Goods, as aforeſaid, into any Kingdom, State, or Dominion whatſoever (except as aforeſaid) or ſhall wittingly or willingly permit, contrive, or ſuffer the ſame to be done, directly or indirectly, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, that then, and in every ſuch Caſe, ſuch Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners, Farmer or Farmers, Officer or Officers, ſo offending in the ſigning ſuch Cocket, Warrant, or Sufferance for the ſhipping or exporting any of the ſaid Goods into any other Kingdom, State, or Dominion, or Place whatſoever (except as aforeſaid) or paſſing ſuch Entry for the ſame, or any wiſe conniving thereat, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, or ſhall otherwiſe fail or neglect to perform all other Duties required by this preſent Act, ſhall for every ſuch Offence or Neglect forfeit his Office, and ſhall moreover for every ſuch Offence forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, to be recovered and employed in Manner and Form as aforeſaid.

Offences where triable.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Offence which ſhall be done or committed contrary to this Act, ſhall and may be inquired of, tried, heard, and determined in the County where any ſuch Goods, as aforeſaid, ſhall be ſo laden or put on board, as aforeſaid, or elſe in the County, either in England or Ireland, where ſuch Offender ſhall happen to be apprehended or arreſted for ſuch Offence, or where any ſuch of the Goods aforeſaid, or the ſaid Ship or Ships, Veſſels, Hulks, Barks, or Boats ſhall happen to be ſeized or taken, or brought in; and that the ſaid Trial ſhall be in ſuch Manner and Form, and in ſuch Effect, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſame Offence had been wholly done and committed in the ſame County.

Defendant to have Treble Coſts.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action, Bill, Plaint, Suit, or Information ſhall be commenced or proſecuted againſt any Perſon, for what he ſhall do in purſuance of this Act, ſuch Perſon ſo ſued ſhall and may file a Common Bail, or enter into a Common Appearance, and plead the General Iſſue, Not Guilty, and upon Iſſue joined may give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence, and if the Plaintiff or Proſecutor ſhall become Nonſuit, or ſuffer Diſcontinuance, or if a Verdict paſs againſt him, or if upon Demurrer Judgment paſs againſt him, the Defendant ſhall recover Treble Coſts and Damages for the Moleſtation.

And for the further Encouragement of the Woollen Manufactures of England; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful, from and after the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of June, to import from the ſaid Ports of Dublin, Waterford, Youghall, Kingſale, Cork, and Drogheda, in the Kingdom of Ireland, any Woolls, Woollfells, Shortlings, Mortlings, Woollflocks, Worſted, Bay, or Woollen Yarn, Cloth, Serges, Bays, Kerſeys, Frizes, Druggets, Shalloons, Stuffs, Cloth-Serges, or any other Drapery made of or mixed with Wooll, or Woollflocks, and manufactured in the Kingdom of Ireland, into ſuch Ports of this Kingdom or Dominion of Wales only, as aforeſaid, ſo as Notice be firſt given to the Commiſſioners or Chief Managers of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms in this Kingdom, or to the Chief Cuſtomer or Collector in the Port to which the ſame is intended to be brought, of the Quantity, Quality, and Package, together with the Marks and Numbers thereof, with the Name of the Ship and Maſter or Commander, on which the ſaid Goods are to be laden, and the Place or Port into which they are intended to be imported, and ſo as Bond be firſt entred into, to the Uſe of His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, with One or more ſufficient Sureties, in treble the Value of the Goods ſo intended to be imported, That the ſame ſhall (the Dangers of the Seas excepted) be landed accordingly, and ſo as a Licence be alſo firſt taken, under the Hands of the Commiſſioners or Chief Managers of the Cuſtoms for the time being, or Three of them, or from the Chief Cuſtomer or Collector where ſuch Bond is given, for the landing and importing thereof, as aforeſaid; which Licence they are hereby authorized and required to grant, without any Fee or Reward, or any other Charge to the Perſon demanding the ſame; any Law, Statute, or Uſage to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Forfeitures on Bonds not aſſignable:

All ſuch Aſſignments void.

XV. And for the more effectual preventing the Tranſportation of Wooll, Woollfells, Shortlings, Mortlings, or Woollflocks, Worſted, Bay, or Woollen Yarn, or any Manufactures of Wooll or Woollflocks, or mixed with the ſame, into Foreign Parts; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Penalties and Forfeitures of the Bonds, which by this Act or any other former Law or Uſage are to be given, or have been given in the Kingdom of Ireland, for any Wooll, or any of the Commodities aforeſaid, intended to be exported from that Kingdom, to be brought into the Ports of this Kingdom, or Dominion of Wales, as aforeſaid, ſhall not, on any Conſideration whatſoever, be granted or aſſigned over to any Perſon whatſoever; and that all ſuch Grants or Aſſignments are and ſhall be void to all Intents and Purpoſes; any Law, Uſage, or Statute to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Cruſing Ships to ſeize Wooll exporting to foreign Parts.

Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms to have a Liſt of the Cruizers.

XVI. And for the better preventing the Exportation of Wooll out of this Kingdom or Ireland, into Foreign Parts; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Lord High Admiral of England, or Commiſſioners for executing the Office of High Admiral for the time being, ſhall direct and appoint Two Ships of the Fifth Rate, and Two Ships of the Sixth Rate, and Eight armed Sloops, conſtantly to cruize on the Coaſts of England and Ireland, particularly between the North of Ireland and Scotland, with Orders to take and ſeize all Ships, Veſſels, and Boats, which ſhall export any Wooll with Intent to carry it into Foreign Parts; and that the Lord High Admiral, or Commiſſioners, as aforeſaid, ſhall ſend a Liſt of all ſuch Ships and Sloops, and the Names of the Commanders, together with true Copies of their ſeveral Inſtructions that are or ſhall be given, to the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in London, within Ten Days after ſuch Orders, as aforeſaid, are or ſhall be given.

All Wooll, Ships, &c. ſo ſeized to be forfeited, and ſold by Inch of Candle.

Produce how to be divided.

XVII. And for the Encouragement of the Commanders and Mariners belonging to the Ships and Sloops aforeſaid; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Wooll, Ships, Veſſels, or Boats that ſhall be ſo ſeized or taken, ſhall be forfeited, and all ſuch Wooll ſhall be lodged in the King's Warehouſe, in ſuch Port where it is or ſhall be taken or ſeized, or into which it ſhall be brought, until it ſhall be condemned according to Law; and being ſo condemned, ſhall be expoſed publickly to Sale, after One and twenty Days, publick Notice being given in Writing at the Cuſtom-houſe of the ſaid Port, and on the Royal Exchange of London, by Inch of Candle, to the laſt and beſt Bidder; and all Ships, Veſſels, or Boats that ſhall be ſo ſeized and condemned, as aforeſaid, ſhall, together with all their Guns, Tackle, Furniture, and Apparel, be expoſed to Sale in like Manner; and that One Fourth Part of the Produce of the Wooll, Ships, Veſſels, and Boats ſo ſold, as aforeſaid, ſhall be to the Commander, One other Fourth Part to the Officers of the Ship or Ships, Sloop or Sloops that took the ſame, One other Fourth Part to the Mariners belonging to ſuch Ship, Veſſel, or Sloop, to be equally divided and paid amongſt the ſaid Mariners, by the Collectors of the ſaid Port, or ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall be authorized to pay the ſame, and the other Fourth Part thereof to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, after a Deduction made out of the laſt Fourth Part of all the Charges of Proſecution and Condemnation.

Penalty on Commander neglecting his Duty.

XVIII. And for preventing of all Compoſition or Confederacy by any Commander of any Ship, Veſſel, or Sloop, with any Perſon whatſoever concerned in ſuch Wooll or Ship, Veſſel or Boat, as aforeſaid; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Commander of ſuch Ship or Sloop, neglecting his Duty by this Act required, or compounding for any Wooll, Ship, Veſſel, or Boat, as aforeſaid, or conniving at the Exportation of any Wooll, ſhall loſe and forfeit all Pay and Wages due to him or them, and ſuffer Six Months Impriſonment, and be for ever incapable of ſerving His Majeſty in any Office in the Navy.

No Wooll, &c. of the Produce of the Engliſh Plantations in America, ſhall be exported,

XIX. And for the more effectual Encouragement of the Woollen Manufacture of this Kingdom; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Firſt Day of December, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, no Wooll, Woollfells, Shortlings, Mortlings, Woollſtocks, Worſted, Bay, or Woollen Yarn, Cloth, Serge, Bays, Kerſeys, Says, Frizes, Druggets, Cloth-Serges, Shalloons, or any other Drapery Stuffs or Woollen Manufactures whatſoever, made or mixed with Wooll or Woollſtocks, being of the Product or Manufacture of any of the Engliſh Plantations in America, ſhall be loaden or laid on board in any Ship or Veſſel, in any Place or Parts within any of the ſaid Engliſh Plantations, upon any Pretence whatſoever; as likewiſe that no ſuch Wooll, Woollfells, Shortlings, Mortlings, Woollſtocks, Worſted, Bay, or Woollen Yarn, Cloth, Serge, Bays, Kerſeys, Says, Frizes, Druggets, Cloth-Serges, Shalloons, or any other Drapery Stuffs, or Woollen Manufactures whatſoever, made up or mixt with Wooll or Woollſtocks, being of the Product or Manufacture of any of the Engliſh Plantations in America, as aforeſaid, ſhall be loaden upon any Horſe, Cart, or other Carriage, to the Intent and Purpoſe to be exported, tranſported, carried or conveyed out of the ſaid Engliſh Plantations to any other of the ſaid Plantations, or to any other Place whatſoever; upon the ſame and like Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, to and upon all and every the Offender and Offenders herein, within all and every of the ſaid Engliſh Plantations reſpectively, as are preſcribed and provided by this Act for the like Offences committed within the Kingdom of Ireland; and all Governors or Commanders in Chief of the ſaid reſpective Plantations, as alſo all Officers employed in the Cuſtoms, or other Branches of His Majeſty's Revenue there, are hereby authorized, charged, and required to take effectual Care, that the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, ſo far forth as it relates to the ſaid reſpective Plantations, be duly put in Execution.

under the like Penalties, &c.

Offenders may be ſued in any of the Courts at Weſtminſter, and be obliged to give ſufficient Bail.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon and Perſons, who after the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of June, ſhall be guilty of any Offence or Offences, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this or any other Act of Parliament made for the preventing the Exportation of Wooll, ſhall and may be proſecuted for any ſuch Offence or Offences by Action, Suit, or Information in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, and thereupon a Capias ſhall and may iſſue the Firſt Proceſs, ſpecifying the Sum of the Penalty ſued for; and ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be obliged to give good and ſufficient Bail and Security, by natural born Subjects or Denizens, to the Officer ſerving or executing ſuch Proceſs againſt him or them, to appear in the Court out of which ſuch Capias ſhall iſſue, at the Day of the Return of ſuch Writ, to anſwer ſuch Suit or Proſecution, and ſhall likewiſe at the Time of ſuch Appearance give ſufficient Bail or Security by ſuch Perſons, as aforeſaid, in the ſaid Court, to anſwer and pay the Forfeitures and Penalties incurred for ſuch Offence or Offences, in caſe he, ſhe, or they ſhall be convict thereof, or to yield his, her, or their Bodies to Priſon.

Act to be given in charge by the Judges of Ireland at the Aſſizes, who are to take Accounts of the Execution thereof, and acquaint the Lord Deputy, &c. therewith.

XXI. Provided alſo, and it is hereby further enacted, That after the nine and twentieth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, the Lord Lieutenant, Lord Deputy, or Lords Juſtices for the time being for the Kingdom of Ireland, or any of them, are hereby required to give Direction in Council, that this Act ſhall be given in charge by the ſeveral Judges of the Kingdom of Ireland, at all the Aſſizes that ſhall be held in that Kingdom, to the end that this Act may be ſtrictly put in Execution, according to the true Intent and Meaning thereof; which ſaid Judges are hereby impowered and required, from time to time, to take particular Accounts throughout their reſpective Circuits, of the due Execution of this Act, and at their Returns to Dublin, at the End of every Circuit, ſhall acquaint the ſaid Lord Lieutenant, Lord Deputy, or Lords Juſtices of that Kingdom for the time being in Council, with all Accounts or Informations they ſhall have ſo received of any Breach of the ſaid Act, or Negligence or Faults in any of the Officers to whom the Execution of this Act is committed, to the end that the ſaid Chief Governors, or any of them, for the time being, may be the better informed and enabled to look to and provide for the ſtrict and punctual Obſervation of this Act, throughout that Kingdom; of which the ſaid Chief Governors, or any of them, for the time being, ſhall once every Year, lay a particular Account in Writing, under his or their Hands, before the King, His Heirs and Succeſſors, in Council.

CAP. XIV.

An Act for limiting certain Times, within which Writs of Error ſhall be brought for the reverſing Fines, Common Recoveries and Antient Judgements.

WHEREAS Fines and Common Recoveries are the principal Aſſurances of Mens Eſtates, and Titles and Poſſeſſions depend thereon, and are protected and ſecured thereby, and by antient Judgments, which nevertheleſs are reverſible at any Time, without Reſtraint or Limitation, for any Error or Defect which happens therein by the Ignorance or Careleſneſs of Clerks, and ſometimes by unavoidable Accidents: For the Remedy whereof, and for the quieting Mens Titles and Poſſeſſions under antient Fines and Recoveries, and antient Judgments, be it enacted and ordained by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That no Fine or Common Recovery, nor any Judgment in any real or perſonal Action, ſhall from and after the Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, be reverſed or avoided, for any Error or Defect therein, unleſs the Writ of Error or Suit for the reverſing ſuch Fine, Recovery or Judgment, be commenced, or brought and proſecuted with Effect, within Twenty Years after ſuch Fine levied, or ſuch Recovery ſuffered, or Judgment ſigned or entred of Record.

No Fine or Recovery, &c. ſhall be reverſed, unleſs Writ of Error be brought in 20 Years after Fine levied, &c.

Proviſo.

II. Provided always, That if any Perſon who is or ſhall be intitled to any ſuch Writ of Error as aforeſaid, ſhall, at the Time of ſuch Title accrued, be within the Age of Twenty one Years, or Covert, Non compos Mentis, impriſoned, or beyond the Seas, That then ſuch Perſon, his or her Heirs, Executors or Adminiſtrators (notwithſtanding the ſaid Twenty Years expired) ſhall and may bring his, her or their Writ of Error, for the reverſing any ſuch Fine, Recovery or Judgment, as he, ſhe or they might have done, in caſe this Act had not been made, ſo as the ſame be done within Five Years after his or her full Age, Diſcoverture, coming of ſound Mind, Enlargement out of Priſon, or returning from beyond the Seas, or Death, but not afterwards, or otherwiſe.

CAP. XV.

An Act for continuing the Act for the more eaſy Recovery of ſmall Tithes.

7 & 8 W. 3. c. 6. continued for 7 Years.

WHEREAS an Act made in the Seventh and Eighth Years of His preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the more eaſy Recovery of ſmall Tithes, has been by Experience found very uſeful and neceſſary; and whereas the ſaid Act was to continue but Three Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and is now near expiring; be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid recited Act, with all the Clauſes and Powers therein contained, ſhall continue and be in Force for the Space of Seven Years, from and after the Expiration thereof as aforeſaid, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer.

CAP. XVI.

An Act to enable poſthumous Children to take Eſtates as if born in their Father's Life-time.

WHEREAS it often happens, that by Marriage and other Settlements, Eſtates are limited in Remainder to the Uſe of the Sons and Daughters, the Iſſue of ſuch Marriage, with Remainders over, without limiting an Eſtate to Truſtees to preſerve the contingent Remainders limited to ſuch Sons and Daughters, by which Means ſuch Sons and Daughters, if they happen to be born after the Deceaſe of their Father, are in Danger to be defeated of their Remainder by the next in Remainder after them, and left unprovided for by ſuch Settlements, contrary to the Intent of the Parties that made thoſe Settlements; be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That where any Eſtate already is or ſhall hereafter, by any Marriage or other Settlement, be limited in Remainder to, or to the Uſe of the Firſt or other Son or Sons of the Body of any Perſon lawfully begotten, with any Remainder or Remainders over to, or to the Uſe of any other Perſon or Perſons, or in Remainder to, or to the Uſe of a Daughter or Daughters lawfully begotten, with any Remainder or Remainders to any other Perſon or Perſons, that any Son or Sons, or Daughter or Daughters of ſuch Perſon or Perſons lawfully begotten or to be begotten, that ſhall be born after the Deceaſe of his, her or their Father, ſhall and may, by virtue of ſuch Settlement, take ſuch Eſtate ſo limited to the Firſt and other Sons, or to the Daughter or Daughters, in the ſame Manner, as if born in the Life-time of his, her or their Father, although there ſhall happen no Eſtate to be limited to Truſtees, after the Deceaſe of the Father, to preſerve the contingent Remainder to ſuch afterborn Son or Sons, Daughter or Daughters, until he, ſhe or they come in eſſe, or are born, to take the ſame; any Law or Uſage to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Eſtates limited in Remainder to the lawful Iſſue of the Body of any Perſon;

Son or Daughter born after the Deceaſe of the Father, may take ſuch Eſtate as if born in his Life-time, &c. although there be no Limitation to Truſtees, &c.

Proviſo.

II. Provided always, That nothing in this Act ſhall extend or be conſtrued to extend to diveſt any Eſtate in Remainder, that by virtue of any Marriage or other Settlement, is already come to the Poſſeſſion of any Perſon or Perſons, or to whom any Right is accrued, though not in actual Poſſeſſion, by Reaſon or Means of any afterborn Son or Sons, or Daughter or Daughters not happening to be born in the Life-time of his, her or their Father.

CAP. XVII.

An Act for ſuppreſſing of Lotteries.

WHEREAS ſeveral evil-diſpoſed Perſons, for divers Years laſt paſt, have ſet up many miſchievous and unlawful Games, called Lotteries, not only in the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and in the Suburbs thereof, and Places adjoining, but in moſt of the eminent Towns and Places in England, and in the Dominion of Wales, and have thereby moſt unjuſtly and fraudulently got to themſelves great Sums of Money from the Children and Servants of ſeveral Gentlemen, Traders and Merchants, and from other unwary Perſons, to the utter Ruin and Impoveriſhment of many Families, and to the Reproach of the Engliſh Laws and Government, by Colour of ſeveral Patents or Grants under the Great Seal of England for the ſaid Lotteries, or ſome of them; which ſaid Grants or Patents are againſt the common Good, Trade, Welfare and Peace of His Majeſty's Kingdoms: For Remedy whereof be it enacted, adjudged and declared, and it is hereby enacted, adjudged and declared by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all ſuch Lotteries, and all other Lotteries, are common and publick Nuiſances, and that all Grants, Patents and Licences for ſuch Lotteries, or any other Lotteries, are void and againſt Law.

Lotteries declared publick Nuiſances, and all Grants thereof void.

From 29 Dec. 1699. no Perſon to keep open ſuch Lottery, &c.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Nine and twentieth Day of December, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord God One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall publickly or privately exerciſe, keep open, ſhew or expoſe to be plaid at, drawn at, or thrown at, or ſhall draw, play or throw at any ſuch Lottery, or any other Lottery, either by Dice, Lots, Cards, Balls, or any other Numbers or Figures, or any other Way whatſoever; and that every Perſon or Perſons that ſhall, after the ſaid Nine and twentieth Day of December, exerciſe, expoſe, open or ſhew to be plaid, thrown or drawn at, any ſuch Lottery, Play or Device, or other Lottery, ſhall forfeit for every ſuch Offence the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, to be recovered by Information, Bill, Plaint or Action at Law in any of His Majeſty's Courts at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Wager of Law, nor any more than One Imparlance ſhall be allowed, One third Part thereof to the Uſe of His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, One other third Part thereof to the Uſe of the Poor of the Pariſh where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, and the other Third Part thereof, together with double Coſts, to the Party that ſhall inform and ſue for the ſame; and the ſaid Parties ſo offending ſhall likewiſe be proſecuted as common Rogues, according to the Statutes in that Caſe made and provided.

Penalty on Perſon playing at ſuch Lotteries. 12 Geo. 2. c. 28.

III. And be it further enacted, That every Perſon or Perſons, that after the ſaid Nine and twentieth Day of December, ſhall play, throw, or draw at any ſuch Lottery, Play, or Device, or other Lotteries, ſhall forfeit for every ſuch Offence the Sum of Twenty Pounds, to be recovered by Information, Bill, Plaint, or Action at Law, in any of His Majeſty's Courts at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Wager of Law, nor any more than One Imparlance, ſhall be allowed, One Third Part thereof to the Uſe of His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, One other Third Part thereof to the Uſe of the Poor of the Pariſh where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, and the other Third Part thereof, together with double Coſts, to the Party that ſhall inform and ſue for the ſame.

Royal Oak Lottery to continue for the Term granted by Patent only.

IV. Provided nevertheleſs, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend or be construed to extend to effect or to inforce the ſuppreſſing of a Lottery, commonly called, The Royal Oak Lottery, for the Remainder only of the Term for which it now ſtands granted by Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England; any thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

This Act not to affect the Lottery for Greenwich Hoſpital.

V. Provided alſo, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend to effect, reſtrain, or prejudice the Undertaking now in being, called, The charitable Adventure for the Benefit of Greenwich Hoſpital, by the preſent Undertakers thereof, with the Approbation of the Governors and Commiſſioners appointed for the Management of the ſaid Hoſpital, for any Time before the Four and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred.

CAP. XVIII.

An Act for taking off the remaining Duties upon Glaſs Wares.

6 W. 3. c. 18.

7 W. 3. c. 31.

9 W. 3. c. 45.

WHEREAS in and by an Act made and paſſed in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the Sixth Year of His Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majeſty certain Duties upon Glaſs Wares, Stone and Earthen Bottles, Coals, and Culm, for carrying on the War againſt France, ſeveral Rates and Duties, therein mentioned, were laid upon all Glaſs and Glaſs Wares, Stone and Earthen Bottles, which at any Time or Times, during the Term of Five Years, from the Nine and twentieth Day of September, which was in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety five, ſhould be made within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or imported, or brought into the ſame; and in and by another Act made and paſſed in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the Seventh Year of His Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for continuing to His Majeſty certain Duties upon Salt, Glaſs Wares, Stone and Earthen Wares, and for granting ſeveral Duties upon Tobacco Pipes, and other Earthen Wares, for carrying on the War againſt France, and for eſtabliſhing a national Land Bank, and for taking off the Duties upon Tunnage of Ships, and upon Coals, the aforeſaid Rates and Duties upon Glaſs or Glaſs Wares, Stone Bottles, and Earthen Bottles, are continued and granted to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, for ever: And whereas by another Act made and paſſed in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the Ninth Year of His Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for taking away half the Duties impoſed on Glaſs, and the whole Duties lately laid on Stone and Earthen Wares, and Tobacco Pipes, and for granting (in lieu thereof) new Duties upon Whale Fins and Scotch Linen, it is (amongſt other Things) enacted, That from and after the Firſt Day of Auguſt, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, One Moiety or Half-part of the ſeveral Rates and Duties by the aforeſaid Acts, or either of them, charged and made payable for or upon the ſaid Glaſs and Glaſs Wares, ſhould ceaſe, determine, and be no longer payable to His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors; as by the ſaid ſeveral Acts of Parliament, Relation being thereunto ſeverally had, may more fully appear: And whereas it is found by Experience, that the remaining Duties on Glaſs and Glaſs Wares are very vexatious and troubleſome in the levying and collecting the ſame, and of ſmall Advantage to the Crown, and, ſhould the ſame be continued, would leſſen the Duty on Coals, much more than the ſaid Duties on Glaſs Wares will amount to, will hinder the employing great Numbers of Poor, and endanger the Loſs of ſo beneficial a Manufacture to this Kingdom; be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Firſt Day of Auguſt, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, the remaining Moiety or Half-part of the ſeveral Rates and Duties by the aforeſaid Acts, any or either of them, charged or impoſed, for and upon the ſaid Glaſs or Glaſs Wares, ſhall ceaſe, determine, and be no longer payable, paid, or collected to or to the Uſe of His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, in any Manner of wiſe; any thing in the ſaid Acts, any or either of them, contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Remaining Duties on Glaſs and Glaſs Wares determined.

CAP. XIX.

CAP. XXI.

An Act for laying further Duties upon Sweets, and for leſſening the Duties as well upon Vinegar, as upon certain Low Wines, and Whale Fins, and the Duties upon Brandy imported, and for the more eaſy raiſing the Duties upon Leather, and for charging Cynders, and for permitting the Importation of Pearl Aſhes, and for preventing Abuſes in the brewing of Beer and Ale, and Frauds in Importation of Tobacco.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

Duties to be paid on Sweets.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of England, in Parliament aſſembled, as a further Supply for Your Majeſty's neceſſary Occaſions, have given and granted unto Your Majeſty the Rates and Duties herein after mentioned, and do humbly beſeech Your Majeſty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That there ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid, to and for the Uſe of Your Majeſty, Your Heirs and Succeſſors, for and upon all Sweets made or to be made within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, for Sale (over and above all former Duties already granted upon Sweets, and which are to continue during the reſpective Terms granted in the ſame) the Rates and Duties following; that is to ſay, Sweets made before 20 July, 1699. 12 s. per Barrel.

II. For every Barrel of Sweets made for Sale, after the Tenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, and before the Twentieth Day of July, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, the Sum of Twelve Shillings.

And before 25 March, 1701. 24 s. per Barrel.

III. For every Barrel of Sweets made for Sale, after the Nineteenth Day of July, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, and before the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, the Sum of Twenty four Shillings.

Before 25 March, 1706. 36 s. per Barrel by the Maker.

IV. And for every Barrel of Sweets made for Sale, from and after the Twenty fourth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred, and before the Five and twentieth Day of March, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, the Sum of Six and thirty Shillings: The ſaid Duties to be paid by the Maker and Makers of the ſaid Sweets, and ſo in proportion for greater or leſſer Quantities.

Liquors deemed to be Sweets. 10 Geo. 2. c. 17.

Duties chargeable by the Barrel. Maker of Sweets.

V. And it is hereby declared, That all Liquors made by Infuſion, Fermentation, or otherwiſe, from foreign Fruit or Sugar, or from Fruit or Sugar mixt with other Materials, and commonly made uſe of for recovering, increaſing, or making of any Kinds of Wine or Cyder, or of any Liquor called Wine, ſhall be deemed to be Sweets within the Meaning of this and all former Acts for laying Duties on Sweets; and that the reſpective Duties impoſed on Sweets by every of the ſaid former Acts are chargeable by the Barrel, and ſo in Proportion for any greater or leſſer Quantity; and that any Perſon who is a Retailer of, or ſhall at any Time ſell or make uſe of, any the Liquors aforeſaid, for any the Purpoſes before mentioned, and in whoſe Cuſtody any Quantity of ſuch Sweets, exceeding Two Gallons, ſhall be found, ſhall be deemed and taken to be a Maker of Sweets for Sale within the Meaning of this and the ſaid former Acts.

Proviſo. Refiners of Sugar.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Refiners of Sugar, who ſhall before the Firſt Day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, enter into a Bond or Bonds to His Majeſty, of the penal Sum of Five hundred Pounds, upon Condition that he or they ſhall not ſell, deliver out, or diſpoſe of any Sweets or Liquors, commonly called Syrups, made from Sugar (except Mellaſſuſes) or make uſe of the ſame, in making or increaſing, or improving any Wine, Cyder, or Perry, or any Liquor called Wine, ſhall not be chargeable with the Duties of Sweets or Syrups hereby impoſed, which he or they ſhall make from Sugar, until he or they ſhall ſo ſell, diſpoſe, or make uſe of ſuch Sweets or Liquors made from Sugar.

Duties how appropriated.

8 W. 3. c. 22.

VII. And it is enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Duties on Sweets hereby granted ſhall be applied, and are hereby appropriated, for the ſame Uſes and Purpoſes, to which Part of the preſent Duties on Sweets, with all the Duties on Malt, are appropriated, by an Act of Parliament made in the Eighth Year of His Majeſty's Reign.

VIII. And whereas by virtue of ſeveral Acts of Parliament now in Force, there are ſeveral different Rates and Duties impoſed on Vinegar, Vinegar Beer, or Liquors prepared for Vinegar, made within this Kingdom for Sale, by which Means the ſame Liquor is twice charged in different Operations; and it is found by Experience, that Vinegar made by paſſing through Rape is much better for any Uſe at home, and fitter for Exportation, than any other Sort of Engliſh Vinegar; and that the high Duties chargeable on Rape Vinegar by the former Acts are ſo great a Diſcouragement to the Makers thereof, that little or none is made, whereby His Majeſty is defeated of the ſaid High Duties, and the Nation deprived of a good and ſound Commodity; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Tenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, all the Duties on Vinegar, Vinegar Beer, and Liquors preparing for Vinegar, which might be chargeable after the ſaid Tenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, by virtue of the ſaid former Acts, or any of them, ſhall ceaſe and determine.

From 10 May, 1699. Duties on Vinegar, &c. to ceaſe.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Tenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, there ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected and paid, for and upon every Barrel of Vinegar, Vinegar Beer, or Liquors preparing for Vinegar, which ſhall be brewed or made of any Engliſh or foreign Materials, by any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, for Sale, and ſo in Proportion for a greater or leſſer Quantity, the Sum of Eight Shillings, to be paid by the Maker thereof, in the Manner hereafter in this Act expreſſed.

From 10 May, Maker to pay 8 s. per Barrel for Vinegar, &c.

Vinegar made for Pickles for Sale to pay Duty by 8 Annæ, c. 7. §. 4.

X. And it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Duties on Vinegar, Vinegar Beer, and Liquors preparing for Vinegar hereby granted, ſhall be raiſed and paid during the reſpective Terms hereafter mentioned, and no longer: And the Monies thereby ariſing ſhall be paid, applied and diſpoſed to and for the reſpective Uſes and Purpoſes following, that is to ſay, Six Pence, Part of the ſaid Duty of Eight Shillings for every Barrel of Vinegar, Vinegar Beer, or Liquor preparing for Vinegar, ſhall be raiſed, collected and paid to His Majeſty during His Life, in lieu of the like Duty of Six Pence charged on every Barrel of Vinegar Beer, by an Act made in the Second Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty and the late Queen, intituled, An Act for granting to Their Majeſties for their Lives, and the Life of the Survivor of them, certain Impoſitions upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, and ſhall be paid, applied and diſpoſed of, to and for the ſame Uſes and Purpoſes, as the Duties granted by the ſame Act are directed to be applied and diſpoſed of; Six Pence more, Part of the ſaid Eight Shillings, to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, in lieu of the like Duty of Six Pence charged on every Barrel of Vinegar Beer, by an Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of the late King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite, and by Knights Service, and Purveyance, and for ſettling of a Revenue upon His Majeſty in lieu thereof, and ſhall be applied and diſpoſed of to and for the ſame Uſes and Purpoſes, as the Duties granted by the ſame Act are directed to be applied and diſpoſed of; Two Shillings and Four Pence, Part of the ſaid Eight Shillings, to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, during the Remainder of a Term of ninety nine Years, commencing from the Twenty eighth Day of January, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety two, in lieu of certain Duties impoſed on Vinegar, and Vinegar Beer, and Liquors prepared for Vinegar, by an Act made in the Fourth Year of His preſent Majeſty and the ſaid late Queen, intituled, An Act for granting to Their Majeſties certain Rates and Duties of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, for ſecuring certain Recompences and Advantages in the ſaid Act mentioned, to ſuch Perſons as ſhall voluntarily advance the Sum of Ten hundred thouſand Pounds, towards carrying on the War againſt France, and ſhall be applied and diſpoſed of to and for the ſame Uſes and Purpoſes, as the Duties granted by the ſame Act are directed to be applied and diſpoſed of; Two Shillings and Four Pence, Part of the ſaid Eight Shillings, to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, during the Remainder of a Term of Sixteen Years, commencing from the Seventeenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, in lieu of certain Duties impoſed on Vinegar, Vinegar Beer, and Liquors prepared for Vinegar, by an Act made in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty and the ſaid late Queen, intituled, An Act for granting to Their Majeſties certain Rates and Duties upon Salt, and upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, for ſecuring certain Recompences and Advantages in the ſaid Act mentioned, to ſuch Perſons as ſhall voluntarily advance the Sum of Ten hundred thouſand Pounds, towards carrying on the War againſt France, and ſhall be applied and diſpoſed of to and for the ſame Uſes and Purpoſes, as the Duties granted by the ſame Act are directed to be applied and diſpoſed of; Two Shillings and Four Pence, Reſidue of the ſaid Eight Shillings, to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, in lieu of certain Duties impoſed on Vinegar, Vinegar Beer, and Liquors prepared for Vinegar, by another Act made in the ſame Years, intituled, An Act for granting to Their Majeſties certain Rates and Duties upon Tunnage of Ships and Veſſels, and upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, for ſecuring certain Recompences and Advantages in the ſaid Act mentioned, to ſuch Perſons as ſhall voluntarily advance the Sum of Fifteen hundred thouſand Pounds, towards carrying on the War againſt France, and ſhall be applied and diſpoſed of to and for the ſame Uſes and Purpoſes, as the Duties granted by the ſame Act are directed to be applied and diſpoſed of.

The Terms of Payment.

XI. And for avoiding Diſputes and Controverſies which may ariſe touching Liquors preparing for Vinegar, be it enacted and declared, That all Stale Beer, Returns of Beer or Ale, Cyder, Verjuice or any other Liquors proper to be made into Vinegar, which at any Time after the ſaid Tenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, ſhall be found in the Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion of any common Vinegar Maker (except ſuch Beer, Ale and other Liquors as are to be drank in his Family, and which ſhall be kept ſeparate and apart for that Purpoſe) ſhall be deemed and taken to be Vinegar or Liquors preparing for Vinegar within the Meaning of this Act.

What Liquors ſhall be deemed Vinegar, &c.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Tenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, no Vinegar Maker ſhall receive into his Cuſtody any Stale Beer, Returns of Beer or Ale, Cyder, Verjuice or other Liquors, proper to be made into Vinegar, nor carry or deliver out any Vinegar in Casks, or by the Gallon, without Notice thereof firſt given to the Officer of Exciſe for the Place or Diviſion where ſuch Maker ſhall inhabit, to the Intent that ſuch Officer may be preſent, to ſee and take an Account of the ſame, unleſs at ſuch Times as herein after are mentioned; that is to ſay, From the Nine and twentieth Day of September, to the Five and twentieth Day of March Yearly, between the Hours of Seven in the Morning and Five in the Evening, and from the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of March, to the Nine and twentieth Day of September Yearly, between the Hours of Five in the Morning and Seven in the Evening; upon

No Vinegar Maker ſhall receive or deliver out Liquors, &c. without Notice to Officer, &c.

Penalty.

upon Pain that every Maker doing contrary thereunto, ſhall forfeit for every ſuch Offence the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

Maker to ſhew Gager the Liquors before mixt.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Tenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, every Vinegar Maker, receiving into his Cuſtody any of the Liquors aforeſaid, ſhall ſhew the ſame to the Gager of the Diviſion where ſuch Maker ſhall live, before he mix the ſaid Liquors ſo received, or any Part thereof, with any other Liquors, Rape or other Materials, on Pain to forfeit for every ſuch Omiſſion or Neglect the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Penalty.

Penalty on Vinegar Maker neglecting to give Notice.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Vinegar Maker ſhall at any Time after the ſaid Tenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and nine, without firſt giving Notice thereof, at the next Office of Exciſe, make uſe of any Storehouſe, Warehouſe, Cellar or other Place for the making, laying or keeping any Vinegar, Vinegar Beer, or Liquors preparing for Vinegar, every ſuch Vinegar Maker ſhall forfeit and loſe for every ſuch private Storehouſe, Warehouſe, Cellar, and other Place ſo made uſe of without ſuch Notice as aforeſaid, the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

34 Gallons ſhall be accounted a Barrel of Vinegar, &c.

XV. And whereas the Duties on Vinegars and Vinegar Beer, charged by the former Acts, were computed by different Meaſures, whereby Diſputes and Controverſies have ariſen touching the charging of the ſame: For preventing whereof for the future, be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Thirty and four Gallons taken by the Gage, according to the Standard of the Ale Quart (Four whereof ſhall be deemed a Gallon) remaining in the Cuſtody of the Chamberlains of His Majeſty's Exchequer, from and after the ſaid Tenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, ſhall be reckoned, accounted and returned by the Gager for a Barrel of Vinegar, Vinegar Beer, or Liquor preparing for Vinegar; any thing in the ſaid former Acts, or any of them, or any other Law, Statute or Proviſion to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Stock how chargeable.

XVI. And whereas ſeveral Makers of Vinegar may have in their Cuſtody ſeveral Quantities of Vinegar Beer, or Liquors preparing for Vinegar, on the ſaid Tenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, for which they may then ſtand charged with, or have anſwered to His Majeſty, ſome of the Duties impoſed by the former Acts; be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That every ſuch Vinegar Maker ſhall, by virtue of this Act, be chargeable for ſuch Vinegar Beer, or Liquors preparing for Vinegar, with ſo much only as ſhall make the Duties charged thereon by virtue of the former Acts, Eight Shillings for every Barrel thereof, and no more; any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

7 W. 3. c. 30.

XVII. And whereas it is found by Experience, That the Art of diſtilling Spirits or Brandy in this Kingdom is of late Years very much improved, and that Spirits or Brandy made here from Melaſſes and Sugar, which are the Produce of the Engliſh Plantations, is near as good as Brandy imported from Foreign Parts: And whereas by an Act made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for laying ſeveral Duties upon Low Wines or Spirits of the firſt Extraction, and for preventing the Frauds and Abuſes of Brewers, Diſtillers, and other Perſons chargeable with the Duties of Exciſe, there is a Duty of Eight Pence impoſed upon every Gallon of Low Wines or Spirits of the firſt Extraction, made or drawn from any foreign or imported Materials, or any Mixture with foreign Materials, and a Duty of Three Pence upon every Gallon of Low Wines or Spirits of the firſt Extraction made or drawn from any Engliſh Materials, other than Drink made or brewed from malted Corn, or from Brewers Waſh or Tilts, which ſaid high Duties are a great Diſcouragement to the making of the ſaid Commodities, and do occaſion undue Practices in the ſame; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Tenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, Four Pence per Gallon, Part of the ſaid Duty of Eight Pence impoſed upon every Gallon of Low Wines and Spirits of the firſt Extraction, made or drawn from any foreign or imported Materials, or any Mixture with foreign Materials, and One Moiety or Half Part of the ſaid Duty of Three Pence upon every Gallon of Low Wines or Spirits of the firſt Extraction, made or drawn from any Engliſh Materials (other than Drink made or brewed from malted Corn, or from Brewers Waſh or Tilts) granted by the ſaid former Act, ſhall ceaſe and determine, and be no longer payable to His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, in any Manner of wiſe; any thing in the ſaid Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

From 10 May, 1699. One Moiety of the Duties on Low Wines, &c. to ceaſe.

Act not to void the Payment of Duties already due.

XVIII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That this Act, or any Thing herein contained, ſhall not extend to take away, leſſen or make void the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money accruing or becoming due to His Majeſty, for any Low Wines or Spirits of the firſt Extraction, actually made or drawn from any the Materials before mentioned, before the ſaid Tenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, and which ſhall be then due and owing to His Majeſty; and that all and every the Clauſes, Matters and Things in the laſt mentioned Act contained, for charging, ſecuring, raiſing, levying or paying the whole Duties on the ſaid Low Wines and Spirits of the firſt Extraction, which were thereby granted, and for diſpoſing, applying and appropriating the ſame to the Uſes and Purpoſes therein mentioned, ſhall be applied, practiſed and put in Execution for the charging, ſecuring, levying, raiſing and paying the ſaid remaining Parts of the ſaid Duties upon Low Wines or Spirits (not hereby taken away) and for diſpoſing, applying and appropriating thereof to the ſame Uſes and Purpoſes, as fully and effectually as if the ſaid Clauſes, Matters and Things were for that Purpoſe again repeated and particularly re-enacted by this preſent Act.

Former Act 7 W. 3. c. 30. continued.

12 Car. 2. c. 24.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every the Powers, Authorities, Directions, Rules, Methods, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauſes, Matters and Things, which in and by an Act of Parliament made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite, and by Knights Service, and Purveyance, and for ſettling a Revenue upon His Majeſty in lieu thereof, or by any other Law now in Force relating to His Majeſty's Revenue of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, are provided, ſettled or eſtabliſhed for raiſing, levying, collecting, recovering, adjudging or aſcertaining the Duties thereby granted, or any of them (other than in ſuch Caſes for which other Penalties or Proviſions are made and preſcribed by this Act) ſhall be exerciſed, practiſed, applied, uſed, levied, recovered and put in Execution for the raiſing, levying, collecting, recovering, and paying, as well the ſaid Duties upon Sweets, as the ſaid Duties upon Vinegar, Vinegar Beer, or Liquors preparing for Vinegar, and the ſeveral Duties upon Low Wines or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, during the Continuance of the ſame, or any of them, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if all and every the ſaid Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Methods, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauſes, Matters, and Things were particularly repeated and again enacted in the Body of this preſent Act.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, by this Act impoſed, ſhall be ſued for, levied, and recovered by ſuch Ways, Means, and Methods, as any Fine, Forfeiture, and Penalty, is or may be recovered by any Law or Laws of Exciſe, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter; and that One Moiety of every ſuch Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, ſhall be to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to him or them that ſhall diſcover, inform, or ſue for the ſame.

Fines, Penalties, &c. how recovered.

XXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall at any Time be ſued or proſecuted for any Thing by him or them done or executed in purſuance of this Act, or any other Act relating to His Majeſty's Revenue of Exciſe, he or they ſhall and may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act and the ſaid reſpective Acts in Evidence for his or their Defence, and if upon the Trial a Verdict ſhall paſs for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs be nonſuited, then ſuch Defendant or Defendants ſhall have Treble Coſts to him or them awarded againſt ſuch Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

General Iſſue.

Treble Coſts.

XXII. And whereas it is found by Experience, that any Quantity of Waſh made of Melaſſes, will, upon Diſtillation, produce One Fourth Part of the ſame Quantity into Low Wines or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction; and that ſuch Low Wines or Spirits upon the Second Diſtillation will produce Two Third Parts of the Quantity of the ſame Low Wines or Spirits into Proof Spirits, or Spirits of the Second Extraction: And whereas many Diſtillers do hide and conceal great Quantities of ſuch Low Wines and Spirits from the Sight and View of the Gager, before he can come to charge the ſame, by Means whereof His Majeſty is very much defrauded in His Duties on ſuch Low Wines and Proof Spirits: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Tenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Gagers and Officers of Exciſe to keep an Account of all ſuch Waſh, which ſhall from time to time be found by him or them in the Hands of any Diſtiller, and upon any Decreaſe thereof, to charge ſuch Diſtiller with ſo much Low Wines or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, as One Fourth Part of the Waſh ſo decreaſed ſhall amount unto; and alſo with ſo much Proof Spirits, or Spirits of the Second Extraction, as Two Third Parts of the Low Wines or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, ſo charged as aforeſaid, ſhall amount unto; and ſuch Diſtiller ſhall pay the reſpective Duties of the Low Wines and Spirits ſo charged, as by the former Act is directed and appointed; any thing in the ſaid Act, or any other Statute, to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Gagers to keep Account of Waſh, &c.

Diſtiller to pay the Duties.

XXIII. And whereas by an Act next herein after recited, it is enacted, That upon the Diſcovery of any private Still, Back, or other Veſſel, according to the Directions of the ſaid Act, every ſuch Still, Back, and other Veſſel, ſhall be ſeized, and that the Owner or Owners of every ſuch Still, Back, and other Veſſel, who ſhall claim the ſame within Twenty Days after ſuch Seizure, ſhall forfeit and loſe for every ſuch Still, Back, and other Veſſel, the Sum of Two hundred Pounds: And whereas upon the Diſcovery of ſeveral private Stills and Backs ſince the Commencement of the ſaid Act, ſome Doubt hath been made whether the Owners of ſuch Stills and Backs, by refuſing to claim the ſame within the Time limited by the ſaid Act, may not avoid the Penalties thereby impoſed; be it enacted, That from and after the Tenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, the Proprietor of any ſuch private Still, Back, or other Veſſel, which ſhall be diſcovered according to the Directions of the ſaid Act, or the Perſon in whoſe Cuſtody the ſame ſhall be found, ſhall forfeit and loſe for every ſuch Still, Back, and other Veſſel, the ſaid Penalty of Two hundred Pounds; any thing in the ſaid Act, or any other Law or Statute, to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

10 & 11 W. 3. c. 4. §. 7.

XXIV. And whereas by an Act made in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act to prohibit the exceſſive diſtilling of Spirits and Low Wines from Corn, and againſt the exporting of Beer and Ale, and to prevent Frauds in Diſtillers, it is enacted, That no Perſon whatſoever, from and after the laſt Day of January, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, and before the Firſt Day of February, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, ſhall draw, diſtill, or make any Brandy, Aqua Vitæ, Spirits, or Low Wines whatſoever, other than ſuch Quantities as are allowed by the ſaid Act, from any Malt, Corn, or Grain whatſoever, under the Penalties and Forfeitures therein mentioned: And whereas ſeveral Diſtillers of this Kingdom, their Servants and Agents, had incurred the Penalties of the ſaid Law, without any Knowledge thereof, by diſtilling in the Two Months betwixt the laſt of January, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, and the Firſt of April, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, greater Quantities of Spirits or Low Wines from Corn than the ſaid Act doth allow; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every ſuch Diſtiller, his Servant, or Agent, who in the next ſucceeding Month or Months after the One and thirtieth Day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, ſhall abate of the Quantities of ſuch Low Wines and Spirits, which he might lawfully draw in the ſame, ſo much as he exceeded the Quantities allowed in the ſaid Two Months, ſhall not be proſecuted, or have any Penalty inflicted upon him, for or on Account of ſuch Breach of the ſaid Act in the ſaid Two Months; any thing in the ſaid Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

10 & 11 W. 3. c. 4.

XXV. And whereas the Pecuniary Penalties inflicted by an Act made in the Eighth Year of His Majeſty's Reign, for laying ſeveral Duties upon Leather, for the Term of Three Years, are directed to be ſued for by Action of Debt, or on the Caſe, or by Bill, Suit, or Information, in ſome Court of Record, whereby the Recovery of thoſe Penalties are not only tedious and chargeable, but troubleſome and vexatious, by Multitudes of popular Actions and Informations brought by common Informers: For the preventing whereof, and more eaſy and ſpeedy recovering the Pecuniary Penalties inflicted by the ſaid Act, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Tenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Two or more of the Juſtices of the Peace, reſiding near to the Place where any ſuch Forfeiture ſhall be made, or Offence committed, to hear and determine the ſame, who are hereby authorized and required, upon any Information exhibited or brought for any of the Pecuniary Penalties by the ſaid Act inflicted, to ſummon the Party accuſed, and alſo the Witneſſes on either Side, and upon the Appearance, or Contempt of the Party accuſed in not appearing (upon Proof of Notice given) to proceed to the Examination of the Witneſſes upon Oath (which Oath they are hereby impowered to adminiſter) and to give Judgment or Sentence accordingly; and where the Party accuſed ſhall be convicted of the Offence alledged againſt him, to award and iſſue Warrants under their Hands for the levying of ſuch Penalty or Penalties on the Goods of the Offender, and to cauſe Sale to be made thereof, in caſe they ſhall not be redeemed within Six Days, rendring to the Party the Overplus, if any be; and if either Party ſhall find himſelf aggrieved by the Judgment of the ſaid Juſtices, then he or they may appeal to His Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, at the next Quarter Seſſions, in like Manner as by the ſaid recited Act is mentioned in caſe of Appeal. EXP.

Juſtiees may mitigate the Penalty.

XXVI. Provided nevertheleſs, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid reſpective Juſtices, where they ſhall ſee cauſe, to mitigate or leſſen ſuch Penalty, in ſuch Manner as they in their Diſcretion ſhall think fit, the reaſonable Coſts and Charges of the Officers, as well in making the Diſcovery, as in the Proſecution of the ſame, being always allowed over and above ſuch Mitigation, and ſo as ſuch Mitigation do not reduce the Fine to leſs than One Fourth Part thereof, over and beſides the ſaid Coſts and Charges; any thing in the ſaid recited Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

XXVII. And whereas by One Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, a Duty of Four Pence was impoſed upon every Gallon of Strong Waters perfectly made, imported from beyond the Seas, to be paid for ever; and by One other Act, made in the Second Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, and the late Queen of Bleſſed Memory, the like Duty of Four Pence per Gallon thereupon, is payable during His Majeſty's Life; and by another Act, made in the Fourth Year of their ſaid Majeſties Reign, there is a Duty of Six Pence impoſed upon every Gallon of Single Brandy imported, and a Duty of Twelve Pence on every Gallon of Double Brandy imported, for the Term of Ninety nine Years, commencing on the Twenty fifth Day of July, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety two; and by One other Act, made in the Fifth Year of their ſaid Majeſties Reign, there is a Duty of Two Shillings impoſed upon every Gallon of Single Brandy, and Four Shillings upon every Gallon of Double Brandy imported, for the Term of Sixteen Years, commencing the Seventeenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven; and by One other Act, made in the ſame Year, there is a Duty of Six Pence upon all Single Brandy, and One Shilling on all Double Brandy imported, granted in Perpetuity; all which Duties upon Single Brandy do amount to Three Shillings and Eight Pence for every Gallon, and upon Double Brandy to Six Shillings and Eight Pence for every Gallon for the Exciſe thereof, over and above other Duties which are payable for the Cuſtoms of the ſame: And it is nevertheleſs doubted, that by the general Words of an Act of Parliament, made in the Eighth Year of His Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for making good the Deficiencies of ſeveral Funds therein mentioned, and for enlarging the Capital Stock of the Bank of England, and for raiſing the Publick Credit, a further Duty of Two Shillings for every Gallon of Single Brandy, and of Four Shillings for every Gallon of Double Brandy imported (which had been granted in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His Majeſty and the ſaid late Queen) were and are (in ſtrictneſs) impoſed or chargeable from the laſt Day of February, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſix, until the Firſt Day of Auguſt, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, which (if required or inſiſted upon) would amount to a Prohibition of the ſaid Commodities; be it therefore enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Act, For making good the Deficiencies of ſeveral Funds therein mentioned, and for inlarging the Capital Stock of the Bank of England, and for raiſing the Publick Credit, or any Thing therein contained, ſhall not extend, or be conſtrued to extend to charge Single Brandies imported with the laſt mentioned Duty of Two Shillings for every Gallon, or Double Brandy imported with the laſt mentioned Duty of Four Shillings for every Gallon, or any Part thereof, from the Commencement or during the Continuance of the Act laſt mentioned; any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Act 8 W. 3. c. 20. not to charge Single or Double Brandy with the Duties of 2 s. and 4 s. per Gallon.

Duties to be paid for Cynders for Four Years.
5 s. per Chalder, to be charged on the Owner.
Duties to be under Management of the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms.
9 W. 3. c. 13.

XXVIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid unto and for the Uſe of His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, for all Cynders made of Pit Coal, which at any Time or Times, during the Term of Four Years, commencing from the Fifteenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, ſhall be ſhipped, or water-born in order to be ſhipped, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or brought into the ſame, the Sum of Five Shillings, of lawful Engliſh Money, for every Chalder, reckoning the Chalder to conſiſt of Thirty ſix Buſhels Wincheſter Meaſure, and after that Rate for a greater or leſſer Quantity, to be paid at the reſpective Ports and Places of Importation or Landing of ſuch Cynders, and to be charged upon the reſpective Owner and Owners, Maſter and Maſters, or other Perſons, having the Charge of the Ship or Veſſel in which the ſaid Cynders ſhall be carried, imported, or brought; and that the ſaid Duties upon Cynders ſhall be under the Management and Government of the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms for the time being; and ſhall be raiſed, levied, and collected by ſuch Ways and Means, and under the like Penalties and Forfeitures, and with ſuch Allowances, and according to ſuch Rules and Methods, as in and by an Act of Parliament made in the Ninth Year of His Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majeſty ſeveral Duties upon Coals and Culm, are preſcribed, authorized, or mentioned, for raiſing, levying, and collecting the Duties thereby granted.

No Tobacco ſhall be imported but in Cask, Cheſt, &c.
Each Caſk to contain 200 lb. Weight.

XXIX. And whereas the Importation of Tobacco in Bulk hath given abundant Opportunity to ill diſpoſed Perſons to run the ſame on Shore, without paying His Majeſty's Cuſtoms due thereon, to the great impairing of the Revenue, and the no leſs Prejudice of the fair Trader: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Twenty ninth Day of September, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred, no Tobacco be brought or imported into this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, in any Ship or Veſſel from any of His Majeſty's Plantations on the Continent of America, nor ſhipped in any of the ſaid Plantations in order to be ſo imported, otherwiſe than in Cask, Cheſt, or Caſe only, each Cask, Cheſt, or Caſe whereof, ſhall contain Two hundred Weight of neat Tobacco at the leaſt, and each Hundred thereof ſhall contain contain One hundred and twelve Pounds, under the Penalties and Forfeitures following, that is to ſay, That all the Tobacco ſo imported, or ſhipped to be imported, contrary to this Act, ſhall be forfeited, and every Perſon or Perſons offending, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, ſhall forfeit Six Pence for every Pound Weight thereof, Two third Parts thereof to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Third Part thereof to ſuch Perſon as ſhall ſeize and ſue for the ſame: Provided nevertheleſs, That ſuch ſmall Quantities as ſhall be neceſſary for the Ships Companies ſmoaking in the ſaid Voyage, ſhall not be deemed or conſtrued any Breach of this Act; the ſaid Forfeitures and Penalties to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, in which no Eſſoin, Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed, nor more than One Imparlance.

Penalties.

Pearl Aſhes may be imported, paying Cuſtom as Pot-aſhes.

XXX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, from and after the ſaid Tenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, to import into England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, from Germany, Pearl Aſhes, being the Product of Germany, paying His Majeſty His Cuſtoms and Duties as Pot Aſhes; any Law, Cuſtom or Uſage to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

New England Whale Fin, &c. to pay the ſame Duties as Greenland Whale Fin. 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 45. 5 Geo. 2. c. 28. 22 Geo. 2. c. 45.

XXXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Whale Fin taken and caught by the People and Inhabitants of New England, New York, and Penſilvania, or any other His Majeſty's Plantations and Colonies in America, and imported from thence, ſhall be chargeable with and pay to His Majeſty (by virtue of an Act of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for taking away half the Duties impoſed on Glaſs Wares, and the whole Duties lately laid on Stone and Earthen Wares, and Tobacco Pipes, for granting in lieu thereof, new Duties upon Whale Fins and Scotch Linen) the like Duties, as Whale Fin caught and imported in and by any Ships or Veſſels whatſoever, of or belonging to the Company eſtabliſhed for the Greenland Trade are chargeable withal, and no further or other Duty by Means or Virtue of the ſaid Act only; any thing in the ſaid laſt mentioned Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

8 & 9 W. 3. c. 22.

XXXII. And whereas the Duties granted to His Majeſty by One Act of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majeſty certain Duties upon Malt, Mum, Sweets, Cyder and Perry, as well towards carrying on the War againſt France, as for the neceſſary Expences of His Majeſty's Houſhold, are likely to expire before they have fully anſwered and ſatisfied the Ends and Purpoſes for which they were granted: And whereas the Commons in Parliament aſſembled have declared they will make good all ſuch Deficiencies as ſhall happen upon the falling ſhort of the ſaid Duties: And whereas there is a ſmall Intereſt of One Farthing a Day allowed by the laſt recited Act, upon ſeveral Bills or Tickets, commonly called Malt Lottery Tickets: Now for the advancing the Credit and Value of the ſaid Bills or Tickets, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Twenty fifth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, upon every ſuch Bill or Ticket carrying the ſaid Intereſt of One Farthing a Day (other than ſuch Bills or Tickets as ſhall be paid off and diſcharged by the Duty now chargeable with the ſame) an additional Intereſt of One Farthing a Day ſhall be allowed and paid reſpectively upon every ſuch Bill or Ticket, until ſuch Bill or Ticket ſhall be fully paid off and diſcharged.

Addition of a Farthing a Day Intereſt to the Malt Tickets unpaid.

XXXIII. And whereas by an Act paſſed in the Eighth Year of His Majeſty's Reign (wherein certain Duties were granted upon Malt and other Things) ſeveral Tickets were made forth for ſeveral Sums of Money, payable with Intereſt; ſeveral of which Tickets are ſince burnt, loſt or otherwiſe deſtroyed; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in all Caſes where it ſhall appear by Affidavit, to be made before any of the Barons of the Exchequer, that any Ticket or Tickets, being in Courſe of Payment, out of the Monies ariſen or to ariſe, on or before the Tenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, into the Receipt of the Exchequer for the Duties aforeſaid, is or are burnt, deſtroyed, or otherwiſe loſt, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Officer or Officers, appointed to pay or diſcharge the ſaid Annuities, on producing a Certificate from the ſaid Baron, of ſuch Affidavit made before him, which Affidavit the ſaid Barons, or any of them, is and are hereby authorized to take, and which Certificate he or they are hereby required to grant without Fee or Reward; and on Security given to the ſaid Officer to his good Liking, to indemnify him againſt all other Perſons whatſoever, for or concerning the Monies contained or ſpecified in ſuch Ticket or Tickets, or which was due thereon, he the ſaid Officer ſhall and is hereby required to pay and diſcharge the ſaid Tickets, being ſuch as came in Courſe within the Time aforeſaid, as if the ſaid Tickets had been produced, and ſhall be allowed ſuch Payment in his Accounts; any thing in this or any other Act contained to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Malt Tickets burnt or loſt on Affidavit made thereof and Certificate, Officer required to pay ſuch Tickets, &c.

Penalty on Brewer uſing Melaſſes, &c.

XXXIV. And whereas it is found by Experience, That notwithſtanding any Law now in Force, many Common Brewers do uſe great Quantities of Melaſſes in the brewing Ale and Beer, whereby the Conſumption of Malt is very much hindred, and His Majeſty defrauded of a great Part of the Duties of ſuch Ale and Beer ſo brewed as aforeſaid; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Common Brewer, or Retailer of Beer or Ale, ſhall, after the ſaid Tenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, make uſe of any Melaſſes, coarſe Sugar, Honey, or Compoſition or Extract of Sugar, in the brewing, making or working of any Ale or Beer, or if any Common Brewer ſhall receive or take into his Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion any Quantity of Melaſſes, coarſe Sugar, Honey, or Compoſition or Extract of Sugar, exceeding Ten Pounds, every ſuch Brewer and Retailer ſhall forfeit and loſe for every ſuch Offence reſpectively the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and every Servant of ſuch Brewer, and every other Perſon, who ſhall be aiding and aſſiſting in the uſing any Melaſſes, coarſe Sugar, Honey, or Extract of Sugar, in the brewing or working of ſuch Ale or Beer, or in carrying or conveying the ſame into the Houſe, Brewhouſe or other Place belonging to ſuch Brewer, ſhall alſo forfeit and loſe, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of Twenty Pounds, and in Default of Payment thereof ſhall ſuffer Three Months Impriſonment.

Penalty on Brewers Servants.

10 & 11 W. 3. c. 9.

XXXV. And whereas by an Act of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majeſty the Sum of One Million four hundred eighty four thouſand and fifteen Pounds, one Shilling, eleven Pence three Farthings, for diſbanding the Army, providing for the Navy, and for other neceſſary Occaſions, it is amongſt other Things enacted, That a Sum not exceeding the Sum of Six hundred thouſand Pounds, of the Monies to be paid into the Exchequer by virtue of the ſaid Act, ſhould be and is thereby appropriated in the firſt Place to the paying and diſbanding the Forces enacted to be diſbanded, and the Reſidue of the ſaid Sum of Six hundred thouſand Pounds, for and towards the Subſiſtence and Clearings of His Majeſty's Guards and Garriſons within the Kingdom of England, and the Dominions thereunto belonging (Ireland excepted) for the Year One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, and to other the Purpoſes in the ſaid Act mentioned: And whereas it is or may be doubted, whether any Part of the ſaid Money, ſo appropriated to the Subſiſtence and Clearings of His Majeſty's Guards and Garriſons, may or ought to be applied towards the paying the Arrear of Subſiſtence due to the ſaid Garriſons before the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, according to the Courſe of Payment, and true Intention of the ſaid laſt mentioned Act; be it therefore enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Money ſo appropriated and applicable to the Subſiſtence and Clearings of the Guards and Garriſons, for the Year One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, ſhall and may be applied as well to the Payment of the ſaid Arrear of Subſiſtence, due to the ſaid Garriſons at any Time before the ſaid Twenty fifth Day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, as for and towards the Subſiſtence and Clearings of the ſaid Guards and Garriſons for the Year One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine; any thing in the ſaid laſt mentioned Act to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Money for clearing the Guards and Garriſons how to be applied.

XXXVI. And whereas ſo much of the ſaid Sum of Six hundred thouſand Pounds, mentioned in an Act of this Seſſion of Parliament (wherein a Land Tax is granted to His Majeſty) as is or ſhall be ſufficient for paying off and diſbanding the Regiments, Troops and Companies appointed and enacted to be diſbanded as is therein mentioned, is appropriated for that Purpoſe; it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That out of the Money ſo appropriated or appointed for paying off and diſbanding of Regiments, Troops and Companies as aforeſaid, any Sum not exceeding Twenty thouſand Pounds, ſhall and may be iſſued, applied and diſtributed towards clearing the diſbanded Officers of the Scotch Regiments which were on the Engliſh Eſtabliſhment, and the diſbanded Officers of the Three Engliſh Regiments, lately of Colonel Henry Holt, Colonel Luke Lillingſton, and Colonel Ruſſell, which were in the Weſt Indies, and for whom no Half Pay is allowed; any thing in the ſaid Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

10 & 11 W. 3. c. 9.

20,000 l. to be applied for paying off diſbanded Officers of the Scotch Regiments, &c. and the 3 Engliſh Regiments of Holt, Lillingſton, and Ruſſell.

C A P. XXII.

An Act for the more full and effectual charging of the Duties upon Rock Salt.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of England in Parliament aſſembled, taking Notice that by divers Acts of Parliament now in Force, ſeveral Duties, whereof ſome are for Terms of Years yet unexpired, and others in Perpetuity, are impoſed upon all Salt and Rock Salt made within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or taken out of any Pit or Pits within the ſame, to be raiſed, diſpoſed and applied to and for the ſeveral Uſes and Purpoſes in the ſame, or by ſome other Act or Acts of Parliament in that Behalf, expreſſed and declared; and being ſenſible that Rock Salt, which in and by the ſaid Acts, or ſome of them, is chargeable with the ſaid Duties, after the Rate of One hundred and twenty Pounds Weight to the Buſhel, may be and is uſed in Kind for curing Fiſh, Fleſh and other Purpoſes, without being refined into white Salt, and all white Salt made from Brine, or otherwiſe, being chargeable with the ſaid Duties, after the Rate of Fifty ſix Pounds Weight to the Buſhel, and that One hundred and twenty Pounds Weight of Rock Salt, uſed in Kind, will ſerve the Uſe of almoſt Two Buſhels of White Salt, reckoned at Fifty ſix Pounds Weight as aforeſaid, whereby the Makers of Salt from Brine have been and are extremely diſcouraged, and His Majeſty's Duties intended by the ſaid Acts have been and are very much impaired, have therefore reſolved to increaſe Your Majeſty's Duties upon all Rock Salt and Salt Rock, by reducing the Buſhel, according to which the Duties thereof ſhall be paid for the future in the Manner hereafter mentioned.

II. And be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Fifteenth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, Every ſeventy five Pounds Weight of Rock Salt, or Salt Rock, taken out of any Pit or Pits within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, ſhall be deemed and taken to be a Wincheſter Buſhel, of Eight Gallons Wincheſter Meaſure, and ſhall be entred, rated and taxed accordingly, to and for the ſeveral Duties upon Salt Rock and Rock Salt, by the ſaid ſeveral Acts of Parliament charged or made payable, inſtead of the Buſhel of One hundred and twenty Pounds Weight in the ſaid Acts or any of them mentioned, and greater or leſſer Quantities of the ſaid Salt Rock, or Rock Salt, ſhall be reckoned proportionably; any thing in the ſaid former Acts, or any other Law or Statute whatſoever to the contrary notwithſtanding.

75 l. Weight of Rock Salt deemed a Wincheſter Buſhel, and rated accordingly.

III. And whereas by the ſaid former Acts, or ſome of them, it is provided, That all Makers and Proprietors of Rock Salt ſhould make true Entries with His Majeſty's Officers, of the Quantities of Salt by them taken out of any Pit or Pits, and ſhould have a Warrant or Ticket from ſome One of the Officers, to carry away the ſame, before the ſaid Salt made or taken out of any Pit or Pits, ſhould be removed or carried from the reſpective Pits, and that ſuch Warrant ſhould be given gratis unto ſuch Maker or Proprietor, upon paying or giving Security for Payment of His Majeſty's Duties within Six Months after ſuch Entry made; nevertheleſs the Owners or Proprietors of Rock Salt having by the ſaid Acts, or ſome of them, Liberty to remove their Rock Salt into his or their own Warehouſes, or other Places for ſecuring thereof, for Conveniency of ſelling or ſhipping off the ſame, after due Entry made, and a Warrant or Ticket taken for the ſame from the Officer next to ſuch Salt Pits, and to pay and ſecure the Duty when the ſaid Rock Salt ſhall be ſold and delivered, it is found by Experience, that there is not a ſufficient Charge made and kept upon the ſaid Owners or Proprietors, for all the Rock Salt or Salt Rock taken out of his or their Pit or Pits, but between the Pits and the ſaid Storehouſes (which are in many Places contrived ſo as to be remote from the Pits) or elſe before the Selling and Delivery of the ſaid Rock Salt, great Quantities thereof are run and imbezilled, and never charged, to His Majeſty's great Damage, and the Injury of ſuch Workers as juſtly pay His Majeſty's Dues: For Remedy whereof be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Owner or Proprietor of any ſuch Rock Pit or Pits, who after the ſaid Fifteenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, ſhall take any Rock Salt or Salt Rock out of any ſuch Pit, ſhall, before the Removal thereof, cauſe the ſame to be weighed in the Preſence of the Officer appointed for the Duties on Salt; which Officer is hereby authorized and required to attend at ſuch Salt Pits, at all reaſonable Hours in the Day-time, to ſee and take Account of all ſuch Rock Salt and Salt Rock ſo weighed, and thereof to make Return or Report, in Writing under his Hand, to the Commiſſioners of Exciſe, or to ſuch Perſon as they ſhall appoint to receive the ſame, leaving a true Copy of ſuch Return, in Writing under his Hand, with ſuch Proprietor, and ſuch Report or Return ſhall be a Charge upon ſuch Proprietor reſpectively; and if any ſuch Proprietor ſhall refuſe to weigh any ſuch Rock Salt and Salt Rock, in the Preſence of the Officer, when taken out of any Pit, as aforeſaid, or ſhall remove or convey, or ſuffer to be conveyed from ſuch Pit, any ſuch Rock Salt and Salt Rock, before the ſame ſhall have been weighed, as aforeſaid, every ſuch Proprietor ſhall forfeit and loſe for every ſuch Offence the Sum of Twenty Pounds, and alſo double the Value of the Rock Salt and Salt Rock ſo removed, as aforeſaid.

Rock Salt to be weighed before Removal, in Preſence of an Officer.

Owner to have a Copy of the Return.

Penalty on Proprietor refuſing to weign Rock Salt, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted, That every Proprietor of ſuch Rock Pits ſhall pay and clear off the Duties of all Rock Salt and Salt Rock ſo charged, as aforeſaid, within Two Days after ſuch Charge was made, or ſhall within the ſaid Two Days give Security to pay the ſame within Nine Months; and every ſuch Proprietor, who ſhall not pay and clear off, nor give Security to pay, as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit double the Value of the ſaid Duties.

Duties to be cleared off in Two Days after Charge made.

Theſe Nine enlarged to 12 Months by 5 Annæ, c. 29. §. 5.

Penalty.

V. Provided always, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall within the ſaid Two Days after ſuch Charges, as aforeſaid, pay down the Duty charged by this Act, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be allowed after the Rate of Ten Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the ſaid Time of Nine Months.

Allowance for Prompt Payment.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where any ſuch Rock Salt or Salt Rock, for which His Majeſty's Duties, after the Rate of Seventy five Pounds Weight to the Buſhel, ſhall have been firſt duly charged and paid or ſecured, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, ſhall be melted and refined, the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall refine the ſame into White Salt (which White Salt is charged by the ſaid Acts with new Duties, after the Rate of Fifty ſix Pounds to the Buſhel) ſhall have an Allowance or Abatement out of the Duties of the ſaid White Salt, of ſo much as was charged on the ſaid Rock ſo melted and refined, after the Rate of Seventy five Pounds to the Buſhel, and not after the Rate of One hundred twenty Pounds to the Buſhel, as by the ſaid former Acts was preſcribed, ſo as the Rock ſo refined was before the melting thereof weighed in the Preſence of the Officer, and ſo as Oath be firſt made before ſome Juſtice of Peace near adjoining to ſuch Salt Works, of the particular Quantities of ſuch Rock Salt or Salt Rock ſo by ſuch Refiner employed in making the ſaid White Salt, and that he or any other Perſon or Perſons, by his Privity or Knowledge, did not increaſe the ſaid Rock Salt or Salt Rock, by mixing or other undue Practice, and that no former Allowance or Abatement for the ſaid Rock Salt or Salt Rock had been made or obtained to his Uſe or Benefit (which Oath the ſaid Juſtice of the Peace is hereby impowered to adminiſter) and ſo as due Proof be made upon Oath, or otherwiſe, that the Duties for the ſaid Rock Salt or Salt Rock ſo refined were duly charged and paid, or ſecured to be paid, after the Rate of Seventy five Pounds to the Buſhel, according to this Act, and not otherwiſe; any thing in the ſaid former Acts to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Allowance for Rock Salt refined into White Salt,

Oath being firſt made,

and Duties paid or ſecured.

VII. And to the end that Rock Salt or Salt Rock in Kind, and Salt refined and made from Rock Salt or Salt Rock may be exported, and the Duties charged thereon be repaid; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for all ſuch Rock Salt, Salt Rock, and refined Salt, made from Rock Salt or Salt Rock, as ſhall be exported from any Port or Place in this Kingdom, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, into Parts beyond the Seas, by any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, there ſhall be allowed and paid for every Buſhel of ſuch Rock Salt or Salt Rock, whereof the Duties ſhall have been charged and paid, as aforeſaid, after the Rate of Seventy five Pounds Weight to the Buſhel, and for every Buſhel of ſuch refined Salt made from Rock Salt or Salt Rock, whereof the Duties ſhall have been charged and paid or allowed, after the Rate of Fifty ſix Pounds to the Buſhel, the Duties which ſhall have been ſo paid for every ſuch Buſhel of Rock Salt, Salt Rock, or refined Salt, ſo exported, to the Perſon or Perſons exporting the ſame, by the Officer or Officers appointed to collect the Duties on Salt in the ſame Port from whence any ſuch refined Salt ſhall be exported, within Two Days after Demand thereof, on a Debenture to be prepared by the Collector of the Cuſtoms in the Port where ſuch Rock Salt, Salt Rock, or refined Salt ſhall be entred out for Exportation, and verified by the Perſon executing the Office of Searcher in ſuch Port, as to the Quantity of ſuch Rock Salt, Salt Rock, or refined Salt actually ſhipped; and that the Oath of the Exporter, or his Agent, be firſt taken before the Principal Officers of the ſaid Port, before the Debenture be allowed, who are hereby required and impowered to give the ſaid Oath, That the Duties, as aforeſaid, for the Rock Salt, Salt Rock, or refined Salt, in ſuch Debenture mentioned, were firſt actually paid, and that ſuch Rock Salt, Salt Rock, or refined Salt is really exported, or ſhipped to be exported, to Parts beyond the Seas, and not intended to be relanded in England, Wales, or Berwick; for which Debenture no Fee or Reward ſhall be taken: And in caſe the Officer, hereby directed to pay ſuch Debenture, ſhall not have ſufficient Money in his Hands to pay the ſame, then upon Certificate thereof by him made (which Certificate he is hereby required to give the Party gratis, and without Delay) the principal Commiſſioners for managing the Revenue of Exciſe of His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, for the time being, ſhall be chargeable with the ſaid Payment, to be made out of the Firſt Money in their Rock Salt, &c. exported, Duties to be repaid.

Farther Proviſions relating hereto, 5 Annæ, c. 29. §. 16.

Exporter to make Oath that it ſhall not be relanded in England, &c.

Explained by 2 & 3 Annæ, c. 14. §. 9. as to Salt exported to Scotland, &c.

Penalty on Officer refuſing to pay.

Hands ariſing out of the Duties upon Salt, and any Officer neglecting or refuſing to pay the ſaid Money, or to give ſuch Certificate as he is hereby directed, ſhall forfeit double the Sums ſo to be paid, to the Party grieved, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed.

Duties how to be raiſed, &c.

And Fines, Penalties, &c. recovered.

VIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Duties upon Rock Salt and Salt Rock, which ſhall be charged in purſuance of this Act, ſhall be raiſed, levied, and recovered, by ſuch Ways and Means, and in ſuch Manner and Form, in all Caſes (unleſs in ſuch where other Methods or Directions are hereby preſcribed) as the Duties upon Salt or Rock Salt, chargeable by the ſaid former Acts, or any of them, were thereby appointed to be raiſed, levied, and recovered: And that all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, by this Act impoſed, ſhall and may be ſued for, levied, and recovered, in ſuch Manner and Form, and with ſuch Power of Mitigation, as any Fine, Forfeiture, or Penalty, is or may be recovered, by any Law or Laws of Exciſe, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter; and that One Moiety of every ſuch Fine, Forfeiture, or Penalty, ſhall be to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to him or them that ſhall inform or ſue for the ſame; and that all the Duties which ſhall be charged by virtue of this Act, as aforeſaid, ſhall be brought in, applied, iſſued, and diſpoſed of, to the ſame Uſes and Purpoſes, and in the ſame Proportions, as the Duties upon Salt and Rock Salt, charged by the ſaid former Acts reſpectively, are appointed to be brought in, iſſued, and applied, and under the ſame Penalties for delaying, diverting, or miſapplying any Part of the Monies ariſing for the ſaid Duties to be charged by this Act, as in and by the ſaid former Acts, or any of them, in the like Caſe and Caſes are preſcribed; any thing in this or the ſaid former Acts contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Perſons aggrieved may appeal.

IX. And for the greater Equality, in determining Differences touching the Duties upon all Salt whatſoever, and the Penalties and Forfeitures concerning the ſame; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Fifteenth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall find him, her, or themſelves aggrieved by any Order or Judgment of any Two Juſtices of the Peace, relating to the Duties upon Salt, or to any Forfeiture or Offence concerning the ſame, that then it ſhall and may be lawful to and for ſuch Perſon or Perſons to appeal to the Juſtices at the next Quarter Seſſions of the Peace to be holden for that County, Liberty, Riding, Diviſion, or Place, where the ſaid Order or Judgment ſhall be made or given, and the ſaid Juſtices at ſuch Quarter Seſſions are hereby impowered and authorized to hear and determine the ſame, whoſe Judgment therein ſhall be final; any thing in this or any former Act or Acts to the contrary notwithſtanding.

All Salt whatſoever to be weighed at the Place where ſhipped, and not put on board till weighed, and Permit obtained.

Penalty.

Officer to give Permit gratis.

X. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Fifteenth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and nine, all Rock Salt, and Salt Rock, and White Salt whatſoever, that ſhall be ſhipped or taken on board any Ship, Boat, or Veſſel whatſoever, to be delivered as a Commodity, either to be exported to Ireland, or any other Place beyond the Seas, or to be unladen in any Port, Creek, Haven, or other Place, on the Coaſts of England, or elſewhere, ſhall be weighed at the Place or Creek where the ſaid Salt is to be taken on board, by ſuch Officer or Officers, as the Commiſſioners of the Exciſe, or the major Part of them for the time being, ſhall from time to time direct and appoint; and that no ſuch Salt ſhall be carried on board any Ship, Boat, or Veſſel whatſoever, till the ſame ſhall be ſo weighed or tendred to be weighed, and a Permit or Certificate, containing the Quantity of ſuch Salt ſo weighed or tendred to be weighed, as aforeſaid, be firſt had and obtained, under the Penalty of forfeiting the ſaid Salt, not ſo weighed or tendred to be weighed, and over and above Ten Shillings per Buſhel, for the ſame, and after that Rate for a greater or leſſer Quantity, to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, ſo carried on board any Ship, Boat, or Veſſel, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof; which ſaid Permit or Certificate ſuch Officer ſhall give to the Party requiring the ſame gratis, on the Penalty of Five Pounds to the Party grieved.

Officer refuſing to weigh ſuch Salt,

Owner may ſhip the ſame.

XI. Provided always, That if the ſaid Officer or Officers ſhall refuſe to weigh ſuch Salt ſo to be taken on board, as aforeſaid, or ſhall not attend to weigh the ſame at ſuch Place where the ſame is to be taken on board, as aforeſaid, or, after the weighing the ſame, ſhall refuſe to give ſuch Permit or Certificate, that then, and in every ſuch Caſe, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Owner or Poſſeſſor of the Salt, to carry the ſaid Salt on board any Ship, Boat, or Veſſel, without incurring any Penalty for ſo doing; any thing herein contained to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

If Salt on unlading be found more in Weight than contained in Permit, Surpluſage forfeited.

Maſter refuſing to ſhew Permit.

Officer may ſeize the Salt.

XII. And be it likewiſe enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Officer and Officers, ſo to be appointed as aforeſaid, at every unlading Port or Creek of ſuch Ship, Boat, or Veſſel, to go on board the ſame before the Delivery thereof, and to demand a Sight of ſuch Permit or Certificate, ſo to be given as aforeſaid, and to weigh the ſaid Salt upon the unlading the ſame; and if the Salt, on the weighing of the ſame, ſhall be found to be more in Weight than what is contained in the ſaid Permit or Certificate, that then the Surpluſage that ſhall exceed the Quantity contained in the ſaid Permit or Certificate ſhall be forfeited, the One Moiety thereof to the Uſe of His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety thereof to the Perſon that ſhall inform or ſue for the ſame: And if the Maſter of ſuch Ship, Boat, or Veſſel, ſhall refuſe to ſhew unto ſuch Officer the ſaid Permit or Certificate, upon due Requeſt made, to the end he may ſee whether the Salt ſo unladen be the ſame Quantity with that contained in the Permit or Certificate, that then and in ſuch Caſe it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Officer to ſeize the ſaid Salt, and detain the ſame, until the ſaid Permit or Certificate be produced.

If not ſhewn in 4 Days, Salt forfeited.

XIII. Provided always, That if the ſaid Permit or Certificate, having been given as aforeſaid, be not ſhewn to ſuch Officer within Four Days after the Seizure thereof, that then and in ſuch Caſe the Salt ſo ſeized ſhall be forfeited.

8 & 9 W. 3. c. 28.

XIV. And whereas by an Act made and paſſed in the Seſſion of Parliament held in the Eighth and Ninth Years of His Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better Obſervation of the Courſe anciently uſed uſed in the Receipt of Exchequer, it is (amongſt other Things) enacted and declared, That from and after the Twentieth Day of April, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, no Teller in the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer ſhould charge himſelf by his Bill with the Receipt of any Monies in the Exchequer, but at ſuch Times as the Officers of the Talley Court, their Deputies or Subſtitutes, ſhould be there preſent, to levy a Talley or Tallies for the ſame; nor ſhould any Teller, or other Perſon employed by him, throw down, or cauſe to be thrown down into the ſaid Court, any Bill or Bills, owning or purporting the receiving any Sum or Sums of Money from any Lender of Money, Receiver, or any other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, upon which Bill or Bills a Talley or Tallies are to be levied, according to the Courſe of the ſaid Receipt, unleſs ſuch Teller reſpectively, or his Clerks, or Perſons employed by him, ſhould have actually received, and have then in his Office, the very Money which ſhould be ſpecified in ſuch Bill or Bills reſpectively (except as therein is excepted) under the Penalties therein mentioned: Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treaſurer, or any Three or more of the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury for the time being (if he or they ſhall think fit, and it be found ſafe and expedient for His Majeſty's Service) to permit and direct the Tellers of the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer, or their Clerks, from and after the Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, to receive from Commiſſioners, Receivers, Collectors, or other Perſons making any Payments to His Majeſty, at the ſaid Receipt of His Exchequer, upon any Account whatſoever, or for Loans, Bills under the Seal of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, commonly called Bank Bills, as ſhall be tendred in Payment for any Aids, Taxes, Revenues or Loans whatſoever, unto the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer; any thing in the ſaid recited Act, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament, or any Cuſtom or Uſage to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding: Provided, That none of the ſaid Bank Bills ſhall be ſo taken in the Exchequer, when the ſame are at any Diſcount.

5 W. & M. c. 7.

XV. And whereas in and by One Act made in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His Majeſty and the late Queen MARY of Bleſſed Memory, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majeſties certain Rates and Duties upon Salt, and upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, for ſecuring certain Recompences and Advantages in the ſaid Act mentioned, to ſuch Perſons as ſhall voluntarily advance the Sum of Ten hundred thouſand Pounds, towards carrying on the War againſt France, it is (amongſt other Things) enacted, That the Sum of One hundred and forty thouſand Pounds ſhall be a yearly Fund for anſwering the Annuities therein mentioned: And whereas certain Tickets were iſſued out to the Proprietors of the ſaid Annuities, many of which Tickets are ſince burnt, loſt or otherwiſe deſtroyed, whereby the ſaid Proprietors are in Danger of loſing their Money contained in ſuch Tickets: Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in all Caſes where it ſhall appear by Affidavit, to be made before any of the Barons of the Exchequer, that any Ticket or Tickets, for any Payment or Payments on the ſaid Annuities incurred or become due at or before the Nine and twentieth Day of September, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and eight, is or are burnt, deſtroyed, or otherwiſe loſt, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Officer or Officers appointed to pay and diſcharge the ſaid Annuities, on producing a Certificate from the ſaid Baron, of ſuch Affidavit made before him (which Affidavit the Barons, or any of them, is and are hereby authorized to take, and which Certificate he or they are hereby required to grant without Fee or Reward) and on Security given to the ſaid Officer, to his good Liking, to indemnify him againſt all other Perſons whatſoever, for or concerning the Monies contained or ſpecified in ſuch Ticket or Tickets, or which was due thereon, he the ſaid Officer ſhall and is hereby required to pay and diſcharge the ſaid Annuities, by the ſaid Tickets incurred and grown due as aforeſaid, as if the ſaid Tickets had been produced, and ſhall be allowed ſuch Payments in his Accounts; any thing in this, or any other Act, contained to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Tickets for Payment of Annuities, &c. that are burnt or loſt, on Affidavit and Certificate,

Officer required to pay the ſaid Tickets, and be allowed them in his Accounts.

CAP. XXIII.

An Act for the better apprehending, proſecuting and puniſhing of Felons that commit Burglary, Houſebreaking, or Robbery in Shops, Warehouſes, Coach-houſes or Stables, or that ſteal Horſes.

WHEREAS the Crimes of Burglary and breaking open of Houſes in a felonious Manner, and the Crime of ſtealing Goods privately out of Shops and Warehouſes, commonly called Shoplifting, and the ſtealing of Horſes, are of late Years much increaſed, to the great Detriment and unſpeakable Loſs of many of Your Majeſty's good Subjects, occaſioned for want of due Proſecution and Puniſhment of Offenders therein, and for want of Encouragement to ſuch as ſhall vigorouſly endeavour the apprehending of ſuch Malefactors: For preventing whereof be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all and every Perſon and Perſons, that ſhall at any Time or Times, by Night or in the Day-time, from and after the Twentieth Day of May, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, in any Shop, Warehouſe, Coach-houſe or Stable, privately and feloniouſly ſteal any Goods, Wares or Merchandizes, being of the Value of Five Shillings or more (although ſuch Shop, Warehouſe, Coach-houſe or Stable be not actually broke open by ſuch Offender or Offenders, and although the Owners of ſuch Goods, or any other Perſon or Perſons, be or be not in ſuch Shop, Warehouſe, Coach-houſe or Stable, to be put in Fear) or ſhall aſſiſt, hire or command any Perſon or Perſons to commit ſuch Offence, being thereof convicted or attainted by Verdict or Confeſſion, or being indicted thereof ſhall ſtand mute, or will not directly anſwer to the Indictment, or ſhall peremptorily challenge above the Number of Three and twenty Perſons returned to be of the Jury, ſhall by virtue of this Act be abſolutely debarred and excluded of and from the Benefit of the Clergy.

Perſon ſtealing Goods in any Shop, Warehouſe, &c. of 5 s. Value or more, or aſſiſting therein,

excluded from Benefit of Clergy.

Proſecutor of Felon to have a Certificate.

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Twentieth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, all and every Perſon and Perſons, who ſhall apprehend and take any Perſon guilty of any the Felonies before mentioned, and proſecute him, her or them ſo apprehended and taken, until he, ſhe or they be convicted of any the aforeſaid Felonies, ſuch Apprehenders and Takers, for his, her or their Reward, upon every ſuch Conviction, without any Fee or Reward to be paid for the ſame, ſhall have forthwith after every ſuch Conviction a Certificate, which ſhall be under the Hand or Hands of the Judge, Juſtice or Juſtices before whom every ſuch Conviction ſhall be had, certifying ſuch Conviction, and alſo within what Pariſh or Place the Felony was committed, whereof any ſuch Perſon or Perſons was or were convicted as aforeſaid, and alſo that ſuch Felon or Felons was or were diſcovered and taken, or diſcovered, or taken, by the Perſon or Perſons ſo diſcovering or apprehending any the ſaid Felon or Felons; and in caſe any Diſpute ſhall happen to ariſe between any of the Perſons ſo diſcovering or apprehending any the ſaid Felon or Felons ſo convict as aforeſaid, touching their Right or Title to the ſaid Certificate, that then the ſaid Judge, Juſtice or Juſtices, or the major Part of them, ſo reſpectively making ſuch Certificate as aforeſaid, ſhall in and by his or their Certificate, direct and appoint the ſaid Certificate into ſo many Shares, to be divided amongſt the Perſons therein concerned, as to the ſaid Judge, Juſtice or Juſtices, or the major Part of them ſhall ſeem juſt and reaſonable, which Certificate ſhall and may be once aſſigned over, and no more, and the Original Proprietor of ſuch Certificate, or the Aſſignee of the ſame, whomſoever of them ſhall have the Intereſt therein, by virtue thereof and of this preſent Act, ſhall and may be diſcharged of and from all and all Manner of Pariſh and Ward Offices, within the Pariſh or Ward wherein ſuch Felony or Felonies ſhall be committed, and ſuch Party or Aſſignee is hereby declared to be diſcharged therefrom; which ſaid Certificate ſhall be inrolled by the Clerk of the Peace of the County in which the ſame ſhall be granted; for which Inrollment the ſaid Clerk of the Peace of the County or City, in which the ſame ſhall be granted, ſhall have for his Fee the Sum of One Shilling, and no more.

In caſe of Diſpute, Judge to appoint the Certificate into Shares. Altered by 6 Geo. 1. c. 23. §. 8. By 5 Annæ, c. 31. §. 1. Apprehenders of Burglars and Houſe-breakers have a farther Reward of 40 l.

Certificate may be once aſſigned.

Aſſignee diſcharged from Pariſh and Ward Offices.

Certificate to be inrolled.

Fee.

Proviſo.

III. Provided nevertheleſs, That if any Perſon having ſuch Certificate, ſhall at any Time make uſe of the ſaid Certificate to exempt him from any Pariſh or Ward Office, ſuch Perſon ſo making uſe of the ſaid Certificate, or any other Perſon or Perſons claiming any Intereſt therein, ſhall not aſſign over the ſaid Certificate to any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever.

If Perſons be ſlain in Purſuit of Houſe-breakers, &c. Executor to have the Certificate without Fee.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in caſe any Perſon or Perſons ſhall happen to be ſlain by any ſuch Houſe-breakers, Horſe-ſtealers, or other Felon aforeſaid, by endeavouring to apprehend, or in making Purſuit after him, her or them, or any of them, that then the Executors or Adminiſtrators of ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo ſlain, to whom the Right of Adminiſtration of the perſonal Eſtate of every Perſon ſo ſlain ſhall belong, ſhall have the ſaid Certificate in Manner as aforeſaid, without Fee or Reward as aforeſaid.

Houſe-breakers, &c. diſcovering two or more Felons, intitled to the King's Pardon,

V. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons, from and after the ſaid Twentieth Day of May, in the ſaid Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and nine, ſhall commit any Burglary, Houſe-breaking, or Felony in ſtealing of any Horſe or Horſes, or any Money, Wares or Goods, from whom the Benefit of the Clergy is by this Act taken away, and being out of Priſon, ſhall diſcover Two or more Perſon or Perſons, who already hath or hereafter ſhall commit any ſuch Burglary, Horſe-ſtealing or Felony as aforeſaid, and ſhall be convicted thereof, or cauſe to be diſcovered and apprehended Two Perſons or more, who ſhall be convicted as aforeſaid, every ſuch Diſcoverer ſhall have, and is hereby intitled to His Majeſty's moſt Gracious Pardon for the Burglaries, Houſe-breakings, Horſe-ſtealings or Felonies as aforeſaid, which he, ſhe or they ſhall have committed at any Time or Times before ſuch Diſcovery made; which Pardon ſhall be likewiſe a good Bar to any Appeal brought or to be brought for any ſuch Burglary, Houſe-breaking, Horſe-ſtealing or Felony.

to be a good Bar to Appeal.

VI. And foraſmuch as many evil-diſpoſed Perſons might be deterred from offending, ſhould the Puniſhment by Law to be inflicted on ſuch Perſons be made more viſible; be it further enacted, That from and after the ſaid Twentieth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, all and every Perſon and Perſons who ſhall be convicted of or for any Theft or Larceny, and ſhall have the Benefit of the Clergy allowed thereupon, or ought to be burnt in the Hand for ſuch Offence, inſtead of being burnt in the Hand, ſhall with the uſual Mark wherewith ſuch Offenders, according to the Laws now in Force, ought to be burnt in the Hand, be burnt in the moſt viſible Part of the left Cheek neareſt the Noſe, which Puniſhment ſhall be inflicted in open Court, in the Preſence of the Judge, who is hereby directed and required to ſee the ſame ſtrictly and effectually executed; any former Law or Statute to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Perſons convicted of Theft or Larceny, inſtead of burning in the Hand, to be burnt in the left Cheek in open Court. Repealed by 5 Annæ, c. 6. §. 1.

VII. And whereas the great Fees that are often demanded and received by Clerks of Aſſize, of Perſons that appear as Witneſſes againſt Felons, tend very much to the diſcouraging their Conviction, to the great Damage of His Majeſty's good Subjects: To remedy the ſame for the future be it enacted, That no Clerk of Aſſize, Clerk of the Peace, or other Perſon whatſoever, ſhall demand, take or receive any Fee or Reward of any Perſon whatſoever that ſhall be bound by any Juſtice of the Peace to appear to give Evidence againſt any Traitor or Felon, for the Diſcharge of any Recognizance for ſuch Appearance, nor ſhall demand or receive more than Two Shillings for the drawing any Bill of Indictment againſt any ſuch Felon, upon the Pain of forfeiting to the Perſon aggrieved, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of Five Pounds, with full Coſts of Suit.

Evidence to pay no Fee, &c.

Fee for Bill of Indictment.

VIII. And whereas it often happens that Clerks of Aſſiſe, Clerks of the Crown, Clerks of the Peace, Clerks of the Indictments, or other proper Officers, their Clerks or Deputies, do draw Bills defective; be it enacted, That if any Clerk of Aſſize, Clerk of the Crown, Clerk of the Peace, Clerk of the Indictments, or other proper Officer, or their Clerks or Deputies, ſhall draw any Bill defective, they ſhall draw new Bills without demanding any Fee or Reward whatſoever, or forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds, with full Coſts of Suit, and that all the Forfeitures aforeſaid ſhall be recovered by him, her or them that will ſue for the ſame, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed.

Clerk of Aſſize, &c. drawing defective Bill, to draw a new one gratis.

Penalty.

CAP. XXIV.

An Act for making Billingſgate a free Market for Sale of Fiſh.

WHEREAS the publick Wealth, Honour, and Safety of this Kingdom, as well as the Maintenance of Trade, and Support of Navigation, as in many other Reſpects, depend on the Improvement and Encouragement of the Fiſhery, and Billingſgate having, Time out of Mind, been a Free Market for all Manner of Floating and Salt Fiſh, as alſo for all Manner of Lobſters and Shell Fiſh; nevertheleſs, divers Abuſes, evidently deſtructive to that Trade, have been of late Years practiſed, by raiſing new Impoſitions and Tolls, and by foreſtalling of the Markets, and other Methods uſed by the Fiſhmongers, in not permitting the Fiſherwomen and others to buy the ſaid Fiſh of the ſaid Fiſhermen, to ſell them again in London and elſewhere, by which Means the Fiſhermen are obliged to ſell their Fiſh to the ſaid Fiſhmongers at their own Rates, to the great Diſcouragement of the ſaid Fiſhermen: For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Tenth Day of May, which ſhall be in the Year One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, Billingſgate Market, within the ſaid City of London, ſhall be every Day in the Week (except Sundays) a free and open Market for all Sorts of Fiſh whatſoever; and that it ſhall and may be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons to buy or ſell any Sort of Fiſh in the ſaid Market without any Diſturbance or Moleſtation whatſoever.

Billingſgate a free Market for Fiſh.

Fiſh taken by Foreigners not to be imported, 1 Geo. 1. ſtat. 2. c. 18. §. 1.

II. And for the better encouraging the ſaid Fiſhery, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Fiſherman or other Perſon or Perſons, ſelling any Sort of Sea Fiſh in the ſaid Market, ſhall, from and after the ſaid Tenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, pay to any Perſon or Perſons any other Toll or Duty whatſoever, for coming with his Boat or Veſſel, or landing, ſtanding, being or ſelling, in or at the ſaid Market of Billingſgate, than is herein after mentioned, that is to ſay, Fiſherman, &c. to pay Toll.

III. For every Veſſel with Salt Fiſh, for Groundage, Eight Pence per Day, and Twenty Pence per Voiage for every ſuch Veſſel, and no more, in full for all Duties and Demands, to be diſpoſed of and diſtributed, as the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen ſhall yearly order and direct, according to the Right of the reſpective Perſons intitled thereunto.

Veſſel with Salt Fiſh 8 d. per Day Groundage. And 20 d. per Voiage.

IV. For every Lobſter Boat, for Groundage per Day Two Pence, and per Voiage Thirteen Pence, and no more, in full for all Duties and Demands, to be diſpoſed of and diſtributed, as aforeſaid.

Lobſter Boat 2 d. per Day Groundage, and 13 d. per Voiage.

V. For every Veſſel of Freſh Sea Fiſh, for Groundage per Day Two Pence, and per Voiage Thirteen Pence, and no more, in full for all Duties and Demands, to be diſpoſed of and diſtributed, as aforeſaid.

Veſſel with freſh Sea Fiſh.

VI. For every Dogger Boat or Smack with Sea Fiſh, for Groundage per Day Two Pence, and per Voiage Thirteen Pence, and no more, in full for all Duties and Demands, to be diſpoſed of and diſtributed as aforeſaid.

Dogger Boat or Smack.

VII. For every Oiſter Veſſel or Cock, for Groundage per Day Two Pence, for Metage One Halfpenny per Buſhel and no more, and per Voiage Thirteen Pence and no more, in full for all Duties and Demands, to be diſpoſed of and diſtributed, as aforeſaid.

Oiſter Veſſel.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, who ſhall buy any Fiſh in the ſaid Market, to ſell the ſame again in any other Market, Place or Places within the ſaid City of London or elſewhere, by Retail, except nevertheleſs, that none but Fiſhmongers ſhall be permitted to ſell in publick or fixed Shops or Houſes, being ſound and wholſom Fiſh, without any Let or Diſturbance from any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever for ſo doing; any Law or Statute to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Fiſh bought in the ſaid Market may be ſold in any other.

Exception.

IX. Provided nevertheleſs, That this Act ſhall not extend to alter any Law now in being, concerning Fiſh caught by Foreigners.

Proviſo.

X. And whereas in the Fifth Year of the Reign of Queen ELIZABETH, among other Things it was enacted, That from and after the Firſt Day of May, then next coming, it ſhould not be lawful to any Perſon and Perſons, in any Port, City, Town, or Market, or other Place within this Realm, to ſet Price, make any Reſtraint, or take or demand Toll or Tax of any Sea Fiſh to be brought into this Realm, or any Part thereof, being taken by any of Her Majeſty's Subjects, in Ships and other Veſſels of the ſame Subjects, upon Pain, to every Perſon offending contrary to the Meaning thereof, to forfeit the Value of the Fiſh ſo reſtrained, prized, tolled, or taken; any Liberty, Cuſtom, Grant, Privilege, or other Matter whatſoever to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding; yet contrary to the true Meaning thereof, ſeveral Tolls, Samples, and other Exactions, have been demanded and taken of Sea Fiſh; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Tenth Day of May, any Perſon or Perſons, taking or demanding any Toll or Sample, or any other Impoſition, or ſet Price, of any Sea Fiſh whatſoever of Engliſh Catching, ſhall forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds, the One Moiety thereof to His Majeſty, and the other Moiety to ſuch Perſon as ſhall ſue for the ſame.

5 Eliz. c. 5.

Penalty on Perſon demanding Toll or Sample of Sea Fiſh.

XI. And whereas of late Years, an evil Practice hath been uſed by the Fiſhmongers, in employing One or Two Perſons at the moſt to buy up all or the greateſt Part of the Fiſh which is brought to the ſaid Market at Billingſgate, and afterwards dividing the ſame amongſt the Fiſhmongers by Lots, by reaſon whereof the Fiſhmongers buy and ſell at what Rates they pleaſe; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no ſuch Practices ſhall be at any Time hereafter uſed or allowed.

Evil Practice of Fiſhmongers not allowed.

XII. And for the better preventing the ſame, or the like evil Practices, for the Time to come; be it further enacted, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall at any Time after the ſaid Tenth Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, employ or be employed by any other Perſon or Perſons, in buying in or at the ſaid Market of Billingſgate, any Quantity of Fiſh, to be divided by Lots or in Shares amongſt any Fiſhmongers, or other Perſons, in order to be afterwards put to Sale by Retail or otherwiſe; nor ſhall any Fiſhmonger, at any Time after the ſaid Tenth Day of May, ingroſs or buy, in the ſaid Market of Billingſgate, any Quantity of Fiſh, but what ſhall be for his own Sale or Uſe, and not for or on the Behalf of any other Fiſhmonger to expoſe to Sale, under Pain of forfeiting for Fiſh not to be bought up, to be divided by Lots, and afterwards retailed. Penalty.

each ſuch Offence the Sum of Twenty Pounds, One Moiety thereof to the Uſe of the Poor of the Pariſh where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, and the other Moiety to his or their own Uſe who ſhall ſue for the ſame; and that from and after the ſaid Tenth Day of May, no Fiſherman, or other Perſon or Perſons, ſhall bring on Shore, or put to Sale, any Lobſters, that are not Eight Inches from the Peak of the Noſe unto the End of the Middle Fin of the Tail, under Pain of forfeiting for every ſuch Lobſter the Sum of One Shilling, the One Moiety to the Poor of the Pariſh where the Offence ſhall be committed, the other Moiety to the Proſecutor, to be recovered upon Conviction before the Chief Magiſtrate of any City or Town Corporate, or before the next Juſtice of Peace where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed.

Size of Lobſters for Sale.

Penalty.

Fiſh to be imported in Engliſh Shipping. Forfeiture. By 1 Geo. 1. ſtat. 2. c. 18. §. 10. Foreigners may import Lobſters and Turbots.

XIII. And for the better Encouragement of the Fiſhery of this Kingdom, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Tenth Day of May, no Fiſh (except Stock Fiſh and Live Eels) taken or caught by any Foreigners, Aliens to this Kingdom (except Proteſtant Strangers inhabiting within this Kingdom) ſhall be imported in any foreign Ship, Veſſel, or Bottom, not being wholly Engliſh Property, and uttered, ſold, or expoſed to Sale, in this Kingdom, under the Pain of the Forfeiture of ſuch Ship, Veſſel, or Bottom, with the Tackle thereunto belonging, and of all ſuch Fiſh ſo imported and ſold contrary to the true Intent and Meaning thereof, One Moiety thereof to the Uſe of the Poor of the Pariſh where the ſame ſhall be ſo found or ſeized, the other Moiety to his or their own Uſe who ſhall ſo ſeize the ſame.

Anchovies, Sturgeon, &c. not prohibited.

XIV. Provided nevertheleſs, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall be conſtrued to prohibit the Importation of Anchovies, Sturgeon, Botargo, or Cavear, nor ſelling of Mackarel before or after Divine Service on Sundays.

Cod and Ling continued as uſual.

XV. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall be conſtrued to take away an ancient Duty of Cod and Ling, payable to the Kings of this Realm, for the Service of their Houſhold, by ſuch Merchants as trade to Weſtmoney and Iſeland, but that the ſame may be taken by His Majeſty's Officers, in ſuch Manner as the ſame hath been lawfully uſed to be taken before the making of this Act.

C A P. XXV.

An Act to encourage the Trade to Newfoundland.

WHEREAS the Trade of and Fiſhing at Newfoundland is a beneficial Trade to this Kingdom, not only in the employing great Numbers of Seamen and Ships, and exporting and conſuming great Quantities of Proviſions and Manufactures of this Realm, whereby many Tradeſmen and poor Artificers are kept at work, but alſo in bringing into this Nation, by Returns of the Effects of the ſaid Fiſhery from other Countries, great Quantities of Wine, Oil, Plate, Iron, Wooll, and ſundry other uſeful Commodities, to the Increaſe of His Majeſty's Revenue, and the Encouragement of Trade and Navigation; be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from henceforth it ſhall and may be lawful for all His Majeſty's Subjeſty's reſiding within this His Realm of England, or the Dominions thereunto belonging, trading or that ſhall trade to Newfoundland, and the Seas, Rivers, Lakes, Creeks, Harbours in or about Newfoundland, or any of the Iſlands adjoining or adjacent thereunto, to have, uſe, and enjoy the free Trade and Traffick, and Art of Merchandize and Fiſhery, to and from Newfoundland, and peaceably to have, uſe, and enjoy, the Freedom of taking Bait and Fiſhing in any of the Rivers, Lakes, Creeks, Harbours, or Roads, in or about Newfoundland, and the ſaid Seas, or any of the Iſlands adjacent thereunto, and Liberty to go on Shore on any Part of Newfoundland, or any of the ſaid Iſlands, for the curing, ſalting, drying, and husbanding of their Fiſh, and for making of Oil, and to cut down Wood and Trees there for building and making or repairing of Stages, Ship-rooms, Trainfats, Hurdles, Ships, Boats, and other Neceſſaries for themſelves and their Servants, Seamen, and Fiſhermen, and all other Things which may be uſeful or advantagious to their Fiſhing Trade, as fully and freely as at any Time heretofore hath been uſed or enjoyed there by any of the Subjects of His Majeſty's Royal Predeceſſors, without any Hindrance, Interruption, Denial, or Diſturbance of or from any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever; and that no Alien or Stranger whatſoever (not reſiding within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed) ſhall at any Time hereafter take any Bait, or uſe any Sort of Trade or Fiſhing whatſoever in Newfoundland, or in any of the ſaid Iſlands or Places abovementioned.

King's Subjects to have free Trade to Newfoundland.

No Alien to bait or fiſh in Newfoundland.

No Ballaſt, &c. to be thrown out of any Ship into the Harbours, but carried on Shore.

II. And for the preſerving the ſaid Harbours from all Annoyances; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred, now next coming, no Ballaſt, Preſt Stones, or any Thing elſe hurtful to or annoying any of the Harbours there, ſhall be thrown out of any Ship or otherwiſe, by any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, to the Prejudice of any of the ſaid Harbours, but that all ſuch Ballaſt and other Things ſhall be carried on Shore, and be laid where they may do no Annoyance.

No Perſon to deſtroy any Stage or Cook Room, &c.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall (at his Departure out of the ſaid Country, or at any other Time) deſtroy, deface, or do any Detriment to any ſuch Stage or Cook Room, or to the Flakes, Spikes, Nails, or any other Thing whatſoever thereto belonging, as he or they ſhall fall into at his or their coming into the ſaid Country, but that he or they ſhall (during his or their Stay there) content him and themſelves with ſuch Stage or Stages only as are needful for him or them, and ſhall alſo (at his or their Departure thence) leave all ſuch his or their Stage or Stages, without doing or cauſing to be done any wilful Damage to any of them; and that for the repairing of ſuch Stage or Stages as he or they ſhall ſo take, during his or their Abode there, the ſame ſhall be done with Timber fetcht out of the Woods there, and not by the ruining, breaking down, demoliſhing, prejudicing, or any wiſe injuring the Stage or Stages of any other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That (according to the ancient Cuſtom there uſed) every ſuch Fiſhing Ship from England, Wales, or Berwick, or ſuch Fiſhermen as ſhall, from and after the ſaid Twenty fifth Day of March, firſt enter any Harbour or Creek in Newfoundland, in Behalf of his Ship, ſhall be Admiral of the ſaid Harbour or Creek during that Fiſhing Seaſon, and for that Time ſhall reſerve to himſelf only ſo much Beech or Flakes, or both, as are needful for the Number of ſuch Boats as he ſhall there uſe, with an Overplus only for the Uſe of One Boat more than he needs, as a Privilege for his firſt coming thither; and that the Maſter of every of ſuch Second Fiſhing Ship, as ſhall enter any ſuch Harbour or Creek, ſhall be Vice Admiral of ſuch Harbour or Creek during that Fiſhing Seaſon; and that the Maſter of every ſuch Fiſhing Ship next coming, as ſhall enter any ſuch Harbour or Creek, ſhall be Rear Admiral of ſuch Harbour or Creek during that Fiſhing Seaſon; and that the Maſter of every Fiſhing Ship there, ſhall content himſelf with ſuch Beech or Flakes, as he ſhall have neceſſary Uſe for, without keeping or detaining any more Beech or Flakes, to the Prejudice of any ſuch other Ship or Veſſel as ſhall arrive there; and that ſuch Perſon or Perſons as are poſſeſſed of ſeveral Places in ſeveral Harbours or Creeks there, ſhall make his or their Election of ſuch Place as he or they ſhall chooſe to abide in; and ſhall alſo, within Eight and forty Hours after any After-comer or After-comers into ſuch Place or Places ſhall demand ſuch his or their Reſolution touching ſuch his or their Election (if the Weather will ſo ſoon permit, or ſo ſoon after as the Weather will permit) give or ſend his or their Reſolution to ſuch After-comer or After-comers, touching ſuch his or their Election of ſuch Place as he or they ſhall ſo chooſe to abide in for the Fiſhing Seaſon, to the end that ſuch After-comer or After-comers may likewiſe chooſe his or their Place or Places of his or their Abode there; and in caſe any Difference ſhall ariſe touching the ſaid Matters, the Admirals of the reſpective Harbours where ſuch Differences ſhall ariſe, or any Two of them, ſhall proportion the Place to the ſeveral Ships, in the ſeveral Harbours they fiſh in, according to the Number of Boats which each of the ſaid Ships ſhall keep.

Every Fiſhing Ship firſt entring Harbour, ſhall be Admiral during that fiſhing Seaſon, &c.

Second Ship Vice Admiral.

Next Ship Rear Admiral.

Perſon poſſeſſed of ſeveral Places ſhall make his Election which to abide in, and give his Reſolution to any After comer in 48 Hours after Demand.

In caſe of Difference, Admirals to proportion the Place.

V. And whereas ſeveral Inhabitants in Newfoundland, and other Perſons, have, ſince the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred eighty five, ingroſſed and detained in their own Hands, and for their own private Benefit, ſeveral Stages, Cook-rooms, Beeches, and other Places in the ſaid Harbours and Creeks (which before that Time belonged to Fiſhing Ships, for taking of Bait, and fiſhing and curing their Fiſh) to the great Prejudice of the Fiſhing Ships that arrive there in the Fiſhing Seaſon, and ſometimes to the Overthrow of ſome of their Voyages, and to the great Diſcouragement of the Traders there; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every ſuch Perſon and Perſons, as ſince the ſaid Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred eighty five, have or hath taken, ſeized or detained any ſuch Stage, Cook-room, Beech or other Place for taking Bait or Fiſhing, or for the drying, curing or husbanding of Fiſh, ſhall on or before the ſaid Twenty fifth Day of March, relinquiſh, quit and leave, to the publick Uſe of the Fiſhing Ships arriving there, all and every the ſaid Stages, Cook-rooms, Beeches and other Places for taking Bait and Fiſhing, and for the drying, curing and husbanding of Fiſh.

Perſons who ſince 1685. have detained any Stage, Cook-room, &c. ſhall relinquiſh the ſame, to the publick Uſe of Fiſhing Ships, &c.

VI. And for the preventing the ingroſſing and detaining of all ſuch Stages, Cook-rooms, Beeches and other Places, by any Perſon or Perſons for the Time to come; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Fiſherman or Inhabitant of Newfoundland, or any other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, ſhall, at any Time after the ſaid Twenty fifth Day of March, ſeize, take up or poſſeſs any of the Stages, Cook-rooms, Beeches or other Places, which at any Time ſince the ſaid Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred eighty five, did or at any Time hereafter ſhall belong to any Fiſhing Ship or Ships, for taking Bait or Fiſhing, or for drying, curing or husbanding of Fiſh, before the Arrival of the Fiſhing Ships out of England, Wales, and Berwick, and until all ſuch Ships ſhall be provided with Stages, Cook-rooms, Beeches and other Places for taking Bait and Fiſhing, and for drying, curing and husbanding of Fiſh.

No Fiſherman or Inhabitant of Newfoundland, to poſſeſs any Stage &c. until all Fiſhing Ships be provided, &c.

VII. Provided always, That all ſuch Perſons as ſince the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred eighty five, have built, cut out or made, or at any Time hereafter ſhall build, cut out or make, any Houſes, Stages, Cook-rooms, Train-fats, or other Conveniencies for fiſhing there, that did not belong to Fiſhing Ships ſince the ſaid Year One thouſand ſix hundred eighty five, ſhall and may peaceably and quietly enjoy the ſame to his or their own Uſe, without any Diſturbance of or from any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever.

Proviſo.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, that ſhall go over with their Servants to Newfoundland, to keep Boats on a Fiſhing Voyage, commonly called By-boat Keepers, ſhall not pretend to or meddle with any Houſe, Stage, Cook-room, Train-fat, or other Conveniency, that did belong to Fiſhing Ships ſince the Year One thouſand ſix hundred eighty five, or ſhall be cut out or made by Ships, from and after the ſaid Twenty fifth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred.

By-boat Keepers not to meddle with Houſe, Stage, &c. belonging to any Fiſhing Ships.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Maſter of a By-boat or By-boats ſhall carry with him at leaſt Two freſh Men in Six (viz.) One Man that hath made no more than One Voyage, and One Man who hath never been at Sea before; and that every Inhabitant ſhall be obliged to employ Two ſuch freſh Men, as the By-boat Keepers are obliged for every Boat kept by them; and further, that all Maſters of Fiſhing Ships ſhall carry with them, in their Ship's Company, at leaſt One ſuch freſh Man that never was at Sea before, in every Five Men they carry; and that the Maſter of each ſuch By-boat, and each ſuch Fiſhing Ship, ſhall make Oath before the Collector, or other principal Officer of the Cuſtoms of the Port or Ports from whence ſuch Ship intends to ſail, that each Ship and By-boat's Company have ſuch freſh Men therein as this Act directs; and that the ſaid Officer or Officers is and are hereby impowered and required to adminiſter the aforeſaid Oath to the ſaid Maſters of Ships and By-boats, and give a Certificate thereof under his Hand, without any Fee, Gratuity or Reward for ſo doing.

And to carry 2 freſh Men in 6. Inhabitant obliged to employ 2 ſuch freſh Men. Maſter of Fiſhing Ship to carry 1 freſh Man in 5. And make Oath thereof.

Certificate gratis.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Maſter or Owner of any Fiſhing Ship going to Newfoundland (after the ſaid Twenty fifth Day of March) ſhall have in his Ship's Company every Fifth Man a Green-man (that is to ſay) not a Seaman, or having been ever at Sea before.

Every Fifth Man a Greenman.

Marks of Boats or Train-fats not to be obliterated, &c.

without Conſent of Owner.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall at any Time, after the ſaid Twenty fifth Day of March, obliterate, expunge, cut out, deface, or any wiſe alter or change the Mark or Marks of any Boat or Boats, Train-fat or Train-fats, belonging to any other Perſon or Perſons, whereby to defraud or prejudice the right Owner or Owners thereof, nor convert to his or their own Uſe any Boat or Boats, Train-fat or Train-fats, belonging to any other Perſon or Perſons, without his or their Conſent or Approbation, nor remove nor take away any ſuch Boat or Train-fat from the Place or Places where they ſhall be left by the Owner or Owners thereof, except in Caſe of Neceſſity, and alſo upon giving Notice thereof to the Admiral of the Harbour or Place where ſuch Boat or Train-fat ſhall be left by the Owner or Owners, to the end that the right Owners thereof may know what is become of them.

Standing Trees not to be rinded, nor Woods fired.

Sayns not to be annoyed,

nor Nets, Baits, &c. ſtolen,

XII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall, at any Time after the ſaid Twenty fifth Day of March, rind any of the Trees there ſtanding or growing upon any Occaſion whatſoever, nor ſhall by any Ways or Means whatſoever ſet on Fire any of the Woods of the ſaid Country, or do or cauſe to be done any Damage, Detriment or Deſtruction to the ſame, for any Uſe or Uſes whatſoever, except only for neceſſary Fuel for the Ships and Inhabitants, and for the building and neceſſary Repairs of Houſes, Ships, Boats and Train-fats, and of the Stages, Cook-rooms, Beeches and other Places for taking Bait and Fiſhing, and for drying, curing and huſbanding Fiſh there; and alſo that no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall, at any Time after the ſaid Twenty fifth Day of March, caſt Anchor, or do any other Matter or Thing, to the Annoyance or hindring of the haling of Sayns in the accuſtomary baiting Places, or ſhoot his or their Sayn or Sayns within or upon the Sayn or Sayns of any other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever; and alſo that no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall, at any Time after the ſaid Twenty fifth Day of March, ſteal, purloin or take out of the Net or Nets of any other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, lying adrift, or drover, for Bait by Night, nor ſteal, purloin or take away any Bait out of any Fiſhing Boat or Boats, or any Net or Nets belonging to any other Perſon or Perſons.

Robberies, &c. in Newfoundland may be tried in any County in England, by Commiſſion of Oyer and Terminer.

XIII. And whereas ſeveral Perſons that have been guilty of Thefts, Robberies, Murders and other Felonies upon the Land in Newfoundland, and the Iſlands thereunto adjacent, have many Times eſcaped unpuniſhed, becauſe the Trial of ſuch Offenders hath heretofore been ordered and adjudged in no other Court of Juſtice, but before the Lord High Conſtable, and Earl Marſhal of England: For Reformation thereof, and for the more ſpeedy and effectual Puniſhment of ſuch Offences for the Time to come, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Robberies, Murders and Felonies, and all other capital Crimes whatſoever, which, at any Time or Times after the ſaid Twenty fifth Day of March, ſhall be done and committed in or upon the Land in Newfoundland, or in any of the Iſlands thereunto belonging, ſhall and may be enquired of, tried, heard, determined and adjudged in any Shire or County of this Kingdom of England, by virtue of the King's Commiſſion or Commiſſions of Oyer and Terminer, and Gaol Delivery, or any of them, according to the Laws of this Land uſed for the Puniſhment of ſuch Robberies, Murders, Felonies, and other capital Crimes done and committed within this Realm.

Admirals in Newfoundland to ſee the Rules &c. in this Act executed, keep a Journal, &c. and deliver a Copy thereof to the Privy Council.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Admirals of and in every Port and Harbour in Newfoundland for the time being, be and are hereby authorized and required (in order to preſerve Peace and good Government amongſt the Seamen and Fiſhermen, as well in their reſpective Harbours, as on the Shore) to ſee the Rules and Orders in this preſent Act contained, concerning the Regulation of the Fiſhery there, duly put in Execution; and that each of the ſaid Admirals do Yearly keep a Journal of the Number of all Ships, Boats, Stages and Train-fats, and of all the Seamen belonging to and employed in each of their reſpective Harbours, and ſhall alſo (at their Return to England) deliver a true Copy thereof, under their Hands, to His Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council.

Admirals to determine Differences between Maſters of Fiſhing Ships and Inhabitants.

Party aggrieved may appeal.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any Difference or Controverſy ſhall ariſe in Newfoundland, or the Iſlands thereunto adjoining, between the Maſters of Fiſhing Ships and the Inhabitants there, or any By-boat Keeper, for or concerning the Right and Property of Fiſhing Rooms, Stages, Flakes, or any other Building or Conveniency for Fiſhing or curing of Fiſh, in the ſeveral Harbours or Coves, the ſaid Differences, Diſputes and Controverſies, ſhall be judged and determined by the Fiſhing Admirals, in the ſeveral Harbours and Coves; and in caſe any of the ſaid Maſters of Fiſhing Ships, By-boat Keepers or Inhabitants, ſhall think themſelves aggrieved by ſuch Judgment or Determination, and ſhall appeal to the Commanders of any of His Majeſty's Ships of War, appointed as Convoys for Newfoundland, the ſaid Commander is hereby authorized and impowered to determine the ſame, purſuant to the Regulation in this Act.

Inhabitants to obſerve the Lord's Day, and not ſell any Liquors thereon.

XVI. And to the end that the Inhabitants, Fiſhermen, Seamen, and all and every other Perſon and Perſons reſiding or being at Newfoundland, or any the ſaid Iſlands, or other Places, may with all Devotion join in their ſolemn Prayers and Addreſſes to Almighty God, for the obtaining of his Bleſſing upon their Perſons and Endeavours; be it hereby enacted, That all and every the Inhabitants of Newfoundland, or the ſaid Iſlands or Places adjacent near thereto, ſhall ſtrictly and decently obſerve every Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday; and that none of the ſaid Inhabitants (who keep any Tavern, Alehouſe, or other publick Houſe for Entertainment) ſhall entertain or ſell, vend, utter or diſpoſe of to any Fiſherman, Seaman or other Perſon whatſoever, upon any Lord's Day or Sunday, any Wine, Beer, Ale, Cyder, Strong Waters or Tobacco, or any other Liquor or Liquors whatſoever.

or whereof the late K. James II. was ſeiſed, &c. and all Judgments, Securities, Debts, &c. ſhall be veſted in the Truſtees following, and their Heirs, &c.

in the actual and real Poſſeſſion and Seiſin of Sir Cyril Wyche Knight, Francis Anneſley Eſquire, James Hamilton Eſquire, John Baggs Eſquire, John Trenchard Eſquire, John Iſham Eſquire, Henry Langford Eſquire, James Hooper Eſquire, John Cary Gentleman, Sir Henry Sheeres Knight, Thomas Harriſon Eſquire, William Fellowes Eſquire, and Thomas Rawlins Eſquire, (Truſtees nominated and appointed for putting in Execution the Powers and Authorities herein after enacted relating to the ſaid forfeited and other Eſtates and Intereſts in Ireland) and their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns reſpectively, from the Second Day of November, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and nine, according to the ſeveral Eſtates and Intereſts, which the ſaid Perſons convicted or attainted, or to be convicted or attainted, or any in Truſt for them, or any of them, or to their or any of their Uſe or Uſes, had therein on the ſaid Thirteenth Day of February, One thouſand ſix hundred eighty eight, or at any Time afterwards, or the ſaid late King, or any in Truſt for him, had in any of the Premiſſes at the Time of his Acceſſion to the Crown of England, to the end the ſame may be bargained, ſold, diſpoſed of, and applied by the ſaid Truſtees, and the Survivors of them, to and for ſuch Uſes, Intents, and Purpoſes, as are herein after expreſſed, mentioned, and declared; and where any of the Perſon or Perſons aforeſaid were ſeiſed of an Eſtate Tail only in the ſaid Honours, Manors, Baronies, Caſtles, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, or other the Premiſſes, either in Poſſeſſion, Reverſion, or Remainder, the ſame are hereby enacted and declared to be veſted in the ſaid Truſtees and their Heirs, in Fee Simple, to the end the ſame may be abſolutely ſold and diſpoſed of, as aforeſaid; any thing herein before contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

that the ſame may be ſold, &c. for the Uſes in this Act.

Eſtates Tail veſted in the ſaid Truſtees, &c. to be ſold.

II. And for the avoiding all Grants, Alienations, and Diſpoſitions, at any Time ſince the ſaid Thirteenth Day of February, One thouſand ſix hundred eighty eight, made or granted of the ſaid forfeited or forfeitable Eſtates or Intereſts, or of any other the Premiſſes, or any Part or Parcel thereof, or of all or any the Quit Rents, Crown Rents, Compoſition Rents, or Chiefries belonging to the Crown of Ireland; be it enacted, That all and every Grant, Demiſe, Surrender, Releaſe, Cuſtodiam, Leaſe, Confirmation, or other Alienation, or Diſpoſition whatſoever, at any Time ſince the ſaid Thirteenth Day of February, One thouſand ſix hundred eighty eight, made or granted, or mentioned to be made or granted under the Great Seal of England or Ireland, or Seal of the Exchequer in Ireland, or by any Act or Acts of Parliament in Ireland, or otherwiſe, of any of the ſaid forfeited or forfeitable Eſtates or Intereſts, or of the Eſtate of the ſaid late King JAMES, or any Part thereof, or of any the Quit Rents, Crown Rents, Compoſition Rents, or Chiefries, belonging to the Crown of Ireland, ſhall be and are hereby declared to be null and void to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever.

All Grants, &c. ſince the ſaid 13 Febr. 1688. under the Great Seal, &c. or by Act of Parliament in Ireland, of any of the ſaid forfeited Eſtates, or of the Eſtate of the ſaid late K. James II. declared null and void.

But Grantees not accountable for the Profits of ſuch Lands, Tenements, &c.

III. Provided nevertheleſs, That nothing herein contained ſhall be conſtrued or taken to make any ſuch Grantees, their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, accountable for the Rents, Iſſues, and Profits of any ſuch Honours, Manors, Baronies, Caſtles, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, and Hereditaments, by them, or any of them had, received, or taken, by or before the ſaid Second Day of November, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and nine, but that they, and every of them, may have, retain, keep, and poſſeſs the ſame to their own Uſes, as well againſt Your Majeſty, Your Heirs and Succeſſors, as againſt the ſaid Truſtees herein before named, and the Survivors of them, and the Heirs, Executors, and Adminiſtrators of ſuch Survivor, without any Account to be rendred for the ſame.

Perſons having Right or Intereſt in any of the Eſtates veſted in the ſaid Truſtees, or if their Heirs, &c. have ſurrendred ſuch Eſtate, &c. and accepted a new Grant thereof, ſuch Perſons are reſtored, &c.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons, having any Eſtate, Right, Title, or Intereſt, in or to any of the Eſtates or Intereſts, ſo as aforeſaid veſted in the ſaid Truſtees, before and upon the ſaid Thirteenth Day of February, One thouſand ſix hundred eighty eight, or if the Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns of any ſuch Perſon or Perſons have or hath ſurrendred or releaſed unto His Majeſty and the late Queen, or unto His Majeſty, ſuch Eſtate, Right, Title, or Intereſt, and ſince accepted from His Majeſty and the ſaid late Queen, or from His Majeſty, any new Grant or Demiſe thereof, every ſuch Perſon is hereby declared to be reſtored to the ſame Eſtate, Right, Title, or Intereſt, which he might or would have had in or to ſuch Premiſſes, if no ſuch Surrender or Releaſe had been made; any thing herein before contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

But not to prejudice any Eſtate, Right, &c. of Perſons comprized in the Articles of Limerick or Galloway, &c.

V. Provided alſo, That nothing herein before contained ſhall be conſtrued to take away, impeach, or prejudice any Eſtate, Right, Title, Intereſt, Claim or Demand whatſoever, which any Perſon or Perſons (who by virtue or in purſuance of any pretended Authority, Power, or Juriſdiction of the Council Board in Ireland, or of any Commiſſion under the Great Seal of Ireland for that Purpoſe, hath or have been adjudged to be comprized within, or to be intitled unto, the Benefit of the Articles of Limerick or Galloway) or the Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns of any ſuch Perſon or Perſons had, have, hath, or may claim, in, to, or out of any Part of the ſaid forfeited or forfeitable Premiſſes; and for compoſing the Minds of all Your Majeſty's Subjects concerned therein, every ſuch Adjudication is hereby confirmed.

nor any Perſon's perſonal Eſtate, who ſubmitted, &c.

VI. Provided alſo, That nothing herein contained ſhall impeach or prejudice any Property or Intereſt of any Perſon or Perſons in or to any Goods or perſonal Chattels whatſoever, who, in purſuance of any Declaration of their Majeſties, ſubmitted to their Majeſties Authority, by the Time therein preſcribed, upon any Aſſurance therein contained, to be ſecured in their Goods, and all their Chattels perſonal whatſoever, in caſe of ſuch Submiſſion.

The Reſt of this Act, relating to the Truſt, which is executed, is omitted.

Truſtees to take the Oaths 1 W. & M. ſſ. 1. c. 8. And appoint Regiſters, &c. who are to take an Oath, and not to purchaſe any Part of the Premiſſes. CAP. III.

An Act for laying further Duties upon Wrought Silks, Muſlins, and ſome other Commodities of the Eaſt Indies, and for enlarging the Time for purchaſing certain reverſionary Annuities therein mentioned.

All wrought Silks, &c on which a Duty was granted by this Act, were prohibited (after Expiration hereof) by a ſubſequent Act of this Seſſion, c. 10. but the Duty of 15*l. per Cent.* on Muſlins is further continued until 1706. by 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 11. Further Duties laid on wrought Silks, Bengals, &c. From 25 March 1700. to 30 Sept. 1701. 15 l per Cent. Explained as to Muſlins and Calicoes 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 11. §. 14. farther continued by 3 & 4 Annæ, c. 4. 6 Annæ, c. 22. and perpetuated by 7 Annæ, c. 7. §. 26. The like Duty on Muſlins.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

MAY it pleaſe Your moſt Excellent Majeſty, we Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of England in Parliament aſſembled, as a further Supply for Your Majeſty's Occaſions in this Act mentioned, have cheerfully and unanimouſly given and granted, and do hereby give and grant to Your Majeſty the further Rates, Payments, Duties, and Sums of Money herein after mentioned. And be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That for and upon all wrought Silks, and for and upon all Bengals and Stuffs made of or mixed with Silk or Herba, of the Manufacture of Perſia, China, or the Eaſt Indies, and for and upon all Calicoes painted, dyed, printed or ſtained there, which from and after the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred, and before the Thirtieth Day of September, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, ſhall be imported or brought into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, by any Perſon or Perſons, or Bodies Politick or Corporate whatſoever, there ſhall be yielded and paid to His Majeſty (over and above all Cuſtoms, Subſidies, Impoſitions and Duties already due and payable for the ſame) a further Duty after the Rate of Fifteen Pounds for every One hundred Pounds of the true and real Value of the ſaid Goods, to be aſcertained as is herein after mentioned; and for and upon all Muſlins which from and after the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred, and before the Thirtieth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, ſhall be imported or brought into the Kingdom, Dominion or Town aforeſaid, there ſhall be yielded and paid to His Majeſty (over and above all other Duties now payable for the ſame) a further Duty after the Rate of Fifteen Pounds for every One hundred Pounds of the true and real Value of the ſaid Muſlins, to be alſo aſcertained as is herein after mentioned.

Goods to be entred at the Cuſtom-houſe where imported. Importer to give Security for Payment of Duty. Theſe 12 Months enlarged to 3 Years by 7 Geo. 1. ſtat. 1. c. 21. §. 11.

II. And for the better raiſing, levying and ſecuring the ſaid Duties, after the Rate of Fifteen Pounds in the Hundred, it is hereby further enacted, That upon the Importation of any ſuch Goods as aforeſaid liable thereunto, an Entry or Entries thereof ſhall be made in the Cuſtom-houſe where ſuch Goods ſhall be imported, and before the landing thereof the Importer or Importers of the ſame ſhall give Security by Bond, with Two or more ſufficient Sureties (which the Commiſſioners or proper Officers of the Cuſtoms are hereby required or impowered to take) for Payment of the ſaid Duties after the Rate of Fifteen Pounds in the Hundred upon the ſaid Goods, as ſoon as the ſame ſhall be ſold, and for expoſing the Goods ſo imported to Sale openly and fairly, by way of Auction, or by Inch of Candle, within the City of London, within the Time of Twelve Months after the Importation thereof.

How Goods ſhall be valued.

Penalty on landing them before Entry.

III. And it is hereby enacted and declared, That the Value of the ſaid Goods, according to which the ſaid Rate is to be paid, ſhall be reckoned according to the groſs Price at which ſuch Goods ſhall be ſold; and that in caſe any ſuch Goods ſhall be landed or put on Shore out of any Ship or Veſſel, before due Entry be made thereof at the Cuſtom-houſe in the Port or Place where the ſame ſhall be imported, and the Duties hereby impoſed ſhall be ſecured as aforeſaid, or without a Warrant for the landing or delivering of the ſame firſt ſigned by the Commiſſioners, Collectors, or other proper Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms reſpectively, that all ſuch imported Goods as ſhall be ſo landed or put on Shore, or taken out of any Ship or Veſſel, contrary to the true Meaning hereof, or the Value of the ſame, ſhall be forfeited, and ſhall and may be recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof (to wit) Two Third Parts of the ſame to the Uſe of His Majeſty, His Heirs, and Succeſſors, and the other Third Part to the Uſe of ſuch Perſon or Perſons as will ſeize the ſaid Goods, or ſue for the ſame, or the Value thereof, by Action, Bill, Suit, or Information, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, ſhall be allowed.

Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms to manage theſe Duties. Made perpetual by 7 Annæ, c. 7. and Part of the Aggregate Fund. 3. Geo. 1. c. 8.

IV. And it is hereby further enacted, That the ſaid Duties of Fifteen Pounds in the Hundred ſhall be from time to time under the Management and Government of the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms for the time being, who ſhall cauſe the ſame to be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid to the Hands of the Receiver or Receivers General of the Revenue of the Cuſtoms for the time being; and ſuch Receiver or Receivers General for the time being ſhall anſwer and pay over all the Monies ariſing thereby (the neceſſary Charges of raiſing, collecting, and anſwering the ſame only excepted) into the Receipt of His Majeſty's Exchequer, for the Purpoſes in this Act mentioned.

Goods exported again, Duty to be repaid.

Theſe 12 Months are enlarged to 3 Years by 7 Geo. 1. ſtat. 1. c. 21. §. 11.

V. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe the Goods or Merchandizes upon which the ſaid further Duties of Fifteen Pounds in the Hundred are paid, or ſecured to be paid, as aforeſaid, be again exported at any Time or Times within Twelve Months after the Importation thereof, and that due Proof be firſt made upon Oath, that the Goods or Merchandizes, ſo exported, be the ſame for which the ſaid Duties are paid, or ſecured to be paid, as aforeſaid, then and in ſuch Caſe (and not otherwiſe) the ſame Duties ſhall, without any Delay or Reward, be wholly repaid by the Receiver General of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms for the time being, out of ſuch Monies as ſhall be in his Hands of the ſaid Duties of Fifteen per Cent. ariſing by this Act, unto the Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, making the ſaid Exportations, or the ſaid Security ſhall be vacated, as to ſo much of the ſaid Goods or Merchandizes as ſhall be ſo exported; any thing in this Act, or in any former Act or Acts of Parliament, contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Allowance on prompt Payment.

VI. Provided alſo, and it is hereby enacted, That in caſe any of the ſaid Goods which ſhall have been entred, and for which Security ſhall have been given, as aforeſaid, ſhall, within the Time hereby limited, be fairly ſold by Way of Auction, as aforeſaid, that then the Importer paying down, in ready Money, His Majeſty's ſaid Duties of Fifteen Pounds per Centum for ſuch Goods, within Twenty Days after ſuch Sale, ſhall have an Allowance for ſuch prompt Payment after the Rate of Five Pounds for every hundred Pounds of the Duties ſo paid.

Perſons having or not having Eſtates for Life in Annuities of 14*l. per Cent. per Ann.*

6 & 7 W. 3. c. 5.

may for 70*l.* change the ſame into a Term certain for the Reſidue of 96 Years, &c.

Purchaſers, on Payment, intitled to ſuch Annuities, &c.

VII. And for the more effectual raiſing the Money which is neceſſary for the Supply of Your Majeſty's Occaſions before mentioned, we Your Majeſty's ſaid dutiful and loyal Subjects do chearfully and unanimouſly grant unto Your Majeſty a farther Aid, to ariſe by Contributions for Annuities, to be purchaſed in ſuch Manner as is herein after expreſſed. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons, Natives or Foreigners, having or not having any Eſtate for One Life, of and in any Annuity purchaſed or obtained at the Rate of One hundred Pounds for every Fourteen Pounds per Annum, upon the ſeveral Acts of Parliament mentioned in an Act made and paſſed in the Parliament which was holden at Weſtminſter in the Sixth and Seventh Years of His Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for enabling ſuch Perſons as have Eſtates for Life in Annuities, payable by ſeveral former Acts therein mentioned, to purchaſe and obtain further and more certain Intereſts in ſuch Annuities; and in Default thereof, for admitting other Perſons to purchaſe and obtain the ſame, for raiſing Money for carrying on the War againſt France, at any Time before the Second Day of November, One thouſand ſeven hundred, to contribute, advance, and pay, into the Receipt of His Majeſty's Exchequer, ſo much Money as every or any ſuch Annuity, being computed for Five Years, doth or ſhall amount unto (that is to ſay) every ſuch Perſon having or being intitled to ſuch Eſtate for Life, ſhall or may pay to His Majeſty's Uſe, for every One hundred Pounds that was paid for the ſingle Life in any Annuity of Fourteen Pounds per Annum the Sum of Seventy Pounds, for changing or converting the ſame into a certain Term for the Reſidue which ſhall be then to come of Ninety ſix Years, to be reckoned from the Five and twentieth Day of January, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety five, or for an Intereſt in ſuch Annuity for the Reſidue of the ſaid Term of Ninety ſix Years, to take effect after the ſaid Eſtate for Life; and every Perſon not having ſuch Eſtate for Life, ſhall or may contribute or pay to His Majeſty's Uſe for every One hundred Pounds that was paid for the ſingle Life in any ſuch Annuity of Fourteen Pounds per Annum, the like Sum of Seventy Pounds for an Intereſt in ſuch Annuity for the Reſidue of the ſaid Term of Ninety ſix Years, to be charged with and ſubject to the preſent Eſtate for Life of and in the ſame Annuities reſpectively, and in the ſame Proportion there ſhall be paid a Rate or Conſideration for higher or larger Annuities; and that all and every the Perſon or Perſons ſo paying the Conſideration Money, as aforeſaid, ſhall immediately, upon Payment of their Monies, be intitled by this Act to ſuch Annuity or Annuities ſo to be purchaſed, and the ſame ſhall be charged upon ſuch reſpective Fund or Revenue in the ſaid former Act mentioned, as if the Conſideration Money ſo to be contributed or advanced for the ſame, had been actually advanced or contributed within the reſpective Times limited by the ſaid former Act.

Powers, &c. in 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 5. revived.

VIII. And it is hereby further enacted, That all and every the Directions, Powers, and Clauſes in the ſaid former Act contained, for or concerning the levying of Tallies, the making forth of Orders, or for making Transferrences or Aſſignments, or for the apportioning or applying the Monies ariſing by the ſaid Funds or Revenues, or any of them, or for appointing, ſettling, or eſtabliſhing any other Matter or Thing for or in relation to the reſpective Annuities thereby purchaſed or obtained, ſhall be and are by force and virtue of this Act revived, and ſhall be duly obſerved, practiſed, and put in Execution, for or in reſpect of ſuch Annuities as ſhall be purchaſed and obtained upon this Act, as fully and effectually, as if the ſame Powers, Directions, and Clauſes were here again expreſſed and particularly repeated.

II. And for the better raiſing, levying and ſecuring the ſaid Duties, after the Rate of Fifteen Pounds in the Hundred, it is hereby further enacted, That upon the Importation of any ſuch Goods as aforeſaid liable thereunto, an Entry or Entries thereof ſhall be made in the Cuſtom-houſe where ſuch Goods ſhall be imported, and before the landing thereof the Importer or Importers of the ſame ſhall give Security by Bond, with Two or more ſufficient Sureties (which the Commiſſioners or proper Officers of the Cuſtoms are hereby required or impowered to take) for Payment of the ſaid Duties after the Rate of Fifteen Pounds in the Hundred upon the ſaid Goods, as ſoon as the ſame ſhall be ſold, and for expoſing the Goods ſo imported to Sale openly and fairly, by way of Auction, or by Inch of Candle, within the City of London, within the Time of Twelve Months after the Importation thereof.

How Goods ſhall be valued.

Penalty on landing them before Entry.

III. And it is hereby enacted and declared, That the Value of the ſaid Goods, according to which the ſaid Rate is to be paid, ſhall be reckoned according to the groſs Price at which ſuch Goods ſhall be ſold; and that in caſe any ſuch Goods ſhall be landed or put on Shore out of any Ship or Veſſel, before due Entry be made thereof at the Cuſtom-houſe in the Port or Place where the ſame ſhall be imported, and the Duties hereby impoſed ſhall be ſecured as aforeſaid, or without a Warrant for the landing or delivering of the ſame firſt ſigned by the Commiſſioners, Collectors, or other proper Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms reſpectively, that all ſuch imported Goods as ſhall be ſo landed or put on Shore, or taken out of any Ship or Veſſel, contrary to the true Meaning hereof, or the Value of the ſame, ſhall be forfeited, and ſhall and may be recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof (to wit) Two Third Parts of the ſame to the Uſe of His Majeſty, His Heirs, and Succeſſors, and the other Third Part to the Uſe of ſuch Perſon or Perſons as will ſeize the ſaid Goods, or ſue for the ſame, or the Value thereof, by Action, Bill, Suit, or Information, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, ſhall be allowed.

IV. And it is hereby further enacted, That the ſaid Duties of Fifteen Pounds in the Hundred ſhall be from time to time under the Management and Government of the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms for the time being, who ſhall cauſe the ſame to be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid to the Hands of the Receiver or Receivers General of the Revenue of the Cuſtoms for the time being; and ſuch Receiver or Receivers General for the time being ſhall anſwer and pay over all the Monies ariſing thereby (the neceſſary Charges of raiſing, collecting, and anſwering the ſame only excepted) into the Receipt of His Majeſty's Exchequer, for the Purpoſes in this Act mentioned.

Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms to manage theſe Duties. Made perpetual by 7 Annæ, c. 7. and Part of the Aggregate Fund. 3. Geo. 1. c. 8.

V. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe the Goods or Merchandizes upon which the ſaid further Duties of Fifteen Pounds in the Hundred are paid, or ſecured to be paid, as aforeſaid, be again exported at any Time or Times within Twelve Months after the Importation thereof, and that due Proof be firſt made upon Oath, that the Goods or Merchandizes, ſo exported, be the ſame for which the ſaid Duties are paid, or ſecured to be paid, as aforeſaid, then and in ſuch Caſe (and not otherwiſe) the ſame Duties ſhall, without any Delay or Reward, be wholly repaid by the Receiver General of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms for the time being, out of ſuch Monies as ſhall be in his Hands of the ſaid Duties of Fifteen per Cent. ariſing by this Act, unto the Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, making the ſaid Exportations, or the ſaid Security ſhall be vacated, as to ſo much of the ſaid Goods or Merchandizes as ſhall be ſo exported; any thing in this Act, or in any former Act or Acts of Parliament, contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Goods exported again, Duty to be repaid.

Theſe 12 Months are enlarged to 3 Years by 7 Geo. 1. ſtat. 1. c. 21. §. 11.

VI. Provided alſo, and it is hereby enacted, That in caſe any of the ſaid Goods which ſhall have been entred, and for which Security ſhall have been given, as aforeſaid, ſhall, within the Time hereby limited, be fairly ſold by Way of Auction, as aforeſaid, that then the Importer paying down, in ready Money, His Majeſty's ſaid Duties of Fifteen Pounds per Centum for ſuch Goods, within Twenty Days after ſuch Sale, ſhall have an Allowance for ſuch prompt Payment after the Rate of Five Pounds for every Hundred Pounds of the Duties ſo paid.

Allowance on prompt Payment.

VII. And for the more effectual raiſing the Money which is neceſſary for the Supply of Your Majeſty's Occaſions before mentioned, we Your Majeſty's ſaid dutiful and loyal Subjects do chearfully and unanimouſly grant unto Your Majeſty a farther Aid, to ariſe by Contributions for Annuities, to be purchaſed in ſuch Manner as is herein after expreſſed. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons, Natives or Foreigners, having or not having any Eſtate for One Life, of and in any Annuity purchaſed or obtained at the Rate of One hundred Pounds for every Fourteen Pounds per Annum, upon the ſeveral Acts of Parliament mentioned in an Act made and paſſed in the Parliament which was holden at Weſtminſter in the Sixth and Seventh Years of His Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for enabling ſuch Perſons as have Eſtates for Life in Annuities, payable by ſeveral former Acts therein mentioned, to purchaſe and obtain further and more certain Intereſts in ſuch Annuities; and in Default thereof, for admitting other Perſons to purchaſe and obtain the ſame, for raiſing Money for carrying on the War againſt France, at any Time before the Second Day of November, One thouſand ſeven hundred, to contribute, advance, and pay, into the Receipt of His Majeſty's Exchequer, ſo much Money as every or any ſuch Annuity, being computed for Five Years, doth or ſhall amount unto (that is to ſay) every ſuch Perſon having or being intitled to ſuch Eſtate for Life, ſhall or may pay to His Majeſty's Uſe, for every One hundred Pounds that was paid for the ſingle Life in any Annuity of Fourteen Pounds per Annum the Sum of Seventy Pounds, for changing or converting the ſame into a certain Term for the Reſidue which ſhall be then to come of Ninety ſix Years, to be reckoned from the Five and twentieth Day of January, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety five, or for an Intereſt in ſuch Annuity for the Reſidue of the ſaid Term of Ninety ſix Years, to take effect after the ſaid Eſtate for Life; and every Perſon not having ſuch Eſtate for Life, ſhall or may contribute or pay to His Majeſty's Uſe for every One hundred Pounds that was paid for the ſingle Life in any ſuch Annuity of Fourteen Pounds per Annum, the like Sum of Seventy Pounds for an Intereſt in ſuch Annuity for the Reſidue of the ſaid Term of Ninety ſix Years, to be charged with and ſubject to the preſent Eſtate for Life of and in the ſame Annuities reſpectively, and in the ſame Proportion there ſhall be paid a Rate or Conſideration for higher or larger Annuities; and that all and every the Perſon or Perſons ſo paying the Conſideration Money, as aforeſaid, ſhall immediately, upon Payment of their Monies, be intitled by this Act to ſuch Annuity or Annuities ſo to be purchaſed, and the ſame ſhall be charged upon ſuch reſpective Fund or Revenue in the ſaid former Act mentioned, as if the Conſideration Money ſo to be contributed or advanced for the ſame, had been actually advanced or contributed within the reſpective Times limited by the ſaid former Act.

Perſons having or not having Eſtates for Life in Annuities of 14*l. per Cent. per Ann.*

6 & 7. W. 3. c. 5.

may for 70*l.* change the ſame into a Term certain for the Reſidue of 96 Years, &c.

Purchaſers, on Payment, intitled to ſuch Annuities, &c.

VIII. And it is hereby further enacted, That all and every the Directions, Powers, and Clauſes in the ſaid former Act contained, for or concerning the levying of Tallies, the making forth of Orders, or for making Transferrences or Aſſignments, or for the apportioning or applying the Monies ariſing by the ſaid Funds or Revenues, or any of them, or for appointing, ſettling, or eſtabliſhing any other Matter or Thing for or in relation to the reſpective Annuities thereby purchaſed or obtained, ſhall be and are by force and virtue of this Act revived, and ſhall be duly obſerved, practiſed, and put in Execution, for or in reſpect of ſuch Annuities as ſhall be purchaſed and obtained upon this Act, as fully and effectually, as if the ſame Powers, Directions, and Clauſes were here again expreſſed and particularly repeated.

Powers, &c. in 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 5. revived.

Dr. Allix may import 5000 Ream of great Demy Paper, Cuſtom Free.

IX. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for His Majeſty, by any Warrant under His Royal Sign Manual, to be counterſigned by any Three or more of the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, or the High Treaſurer for the time being, to give Licence and Power to Doctor Peter Allix, or his Aſſigns, to import and bring into the Port of London any Quantity of Paper, called Great Demy Paper, to be uſed in the printing of a Hiſtory of the ſeveral Councils to be ſet forth by the ſaid Doctor Allix, not exceeding in the whole Five thouſand Reams, and that the Quantity of Paper, ſo licenced, ſhall and may be imported and paſſed, without Payment of any Cuſtom, Subſidy, or other Duty for the ſame, upon the Importation thereof; any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithſtanding.

On Death of Nominee, Purchaſer of the reverſionary Annuity to have a new Talley and Order, &c.

X. And whereas ſeveral Perſons have purchaſed upon former Acts ſeveral Annuities, which were reſpectively to take Effect after One Life, then ſuppoſed to be in being, for the Remainder of the ſaid Term of Ninety and ſix Years, and at the Time of the Purchaſe of ſuch Annuities, ſome of the Nominees, upon whoſe Lives ſuch Annuities depended, or were ſuppoſed to depend, or expect, were actually dead, but not known to be ſo; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe it ſhall appear to the Lord High Treaſurer of England, or the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury for the time being, or any Three or more of them, that any ſuch reverſionary Annuity hath been ſo purchaſed, as aforeſaid, and at the Time of ſuch reſpective Purchaſe, the Nominee or Nominees, upon whoſe Life or Lives ſuch Reverſion or Reverſions did depend or were ſuppoſed to depend, or expect, was or were actually dead, that then and in ſuch Caſe, the reſpective Perſon or Perſons that have ſo purchaſed ſuch Reverſion or Reverſions, and his, her, or their Aſſignees thereof reſpectively, upon delivering up of the Tallies and Orders for ſuch reſpective reverſionary Annuities to the Officers of His Majeſty's Exchequer, ſhall in lieu thereof there receive from them, by Warrant or Order from the ſaid Lord High Treaſurer, or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being, as aforeſaid, who are hereby impowered to grant the ſame, One or more Tallies or Orders for the like Reverſion of the ſame yearly Sum or Annuity as is mentioned in ſuch Tallies or Orders ſo to be delivered up, expectant and to commence upon the Death of a Nominee and Nominees who ſhall be then actually living; any thing in this or any former Act or Acts of Parliament contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

If Annuity be not demanded in 2 Years, nor Certificate produced of the Life of Nominee, ſuch Nominee, &c. ſhall be taken to be dead, and the Purchaſer of the Reverſion ſhall receive the ſame.

XI. And whereas ſome of the ſaid Nominees, for whoſe Lives ſome of the ſaid Annuities are or have been held, cannot be found or heard of, and the Parties that are or were intitled to ſuch Annuities do not come or ſend to demand the ſaid Annuities, whereby it is become uncertain whether ſuch Nominees be living or dead, or were ſo at the Time of the purchaſing ſuch Reverſions, whereby the Titles of ſuch Purchaſers of ſuch Reverſions are become and will become diſputable: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any of the ſaid Annuity or Annuities (whereupon the Reverſion or Reverſions are or ſhall be purchaſed, as aforeſaid) are or ſhall not be demanded at the Exchequer for the Space of Two Years next after the ſame ſhall become payable, and in caſe Certificates of the Life or Lives of any Nominee or Nominees, upon whoſe Life or Lives any Annuities do depend, ſhall not be produced to the Officers of His Majeſty's Exchequer, or ſufficient Proof made thereof, according to the Rules preſcribed by the former Acts, within Two Years next after the ſaid Annuities ſhall from time to time become payable, then and from thenceforth, from and after the Expiration of the ſaid Two Years, ſuch Nominee and Nominees, of whoſe Life or Lives no ſuch Certificate ſhall be produced, or Proof made, ſhall be taken to be dead, and the Perſon or Perſons that hath or ſhall hereafter purchaſe ſuch Reverſion or Reverſions of ſuch Annuity or Annuities, expectant upon the Death of ſuch Nominee or Nominees, of whoſe Life or Lives no ſuch Certificate ſhall be produced, or Proof made, ſhall receive the ſaid reſpective Annuity and Annuities, from time to time, until ſuch Certificate ſhall be produced, or Proof made, and ſhall not be accountable for ſuch Part of the ſaid Annuity as he ſhall then have actually received for Default of ſuch Certificate or Proof; any thing in this or in any former Act or Acts of Parliament contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

9 W. 3. c. 24.

XII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made and paſſed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty and the late Queen MARY, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majeſties certain Rates and Duties of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, for ſecuring certain Recompences and Advantages in the ſaid Act mentioned, to ſuch Perſons as ſhall voluntarily advance the Sum of Ten hundred thouſand Pounds, towards carrying on the War againſt France, it is (amongſt other Things) enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any Contributor, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, by any Writing under Hand and Seal, or by his laſt Will in Writing, to aſſign or deviſe any One or more Share or Shares of the Fund therein mentioned to any Perſon or Perſons, and no ſuch Aſſignment to be revocable, ſo as an Entry or Memorandum thereof be made in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt within the Space of Two Months after ſuch Aſſignment or Death of the Deviſor, and upon producing ſuch Aſſignment or Will, the Party is to bring an Affidavit of the Execution thereof, to be filed, as is therein ſpecified: And whereas in purſuance of an Act of Parliament made in the Ninth Year of His Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for enlnrging the Time for purchaſing certain Eſtates or Intereſts in ſeveral Annuities therein mentioned, ſeveral reverſionary Tallies have been ſtruck, and Orders thereupon drawn, for Payment of reverſionary Annuities, in the Name of Richard Earl of Ranelagh of the Kingdom of Ireland, and by him iſſued out to ſuch Uſes as in and by the ſaid Act is directed, but ſome Doubt ariſing whether the Aſſignments made by the ſaid Earl, on the Back of the ſaid Orders, be according to the Form preſcribed by the firſt recited Act, whereby the ſeveral and reſpective Aſſignees may not have ſuch legal Titles to the ſaid Tallies and Orders, as by the ſaid laſt recited Act was intended they ſhould, which may obſtruct the Sale or conveying away the ſame, and their receiving any Annuity due or to grow due thereon; To the end therefore that all Perſons who now are or at any Time hereafter ſhall or may be poſſeſſed of or intereſted in any of the ſaid Tallies and Orders, may have and be inveſted in a good and lawful Title to the ſame, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every the ſaid indorſed Aſſignments now made or hereafter to be made by the ſaid Earl of Ranelagh, or other Perſon or Perſons authorized to make the ſame, for conveying the ſaid Tallies and Orders to ſuch Perſons, and to ſuch Uſes, as in the ſaid recited Act are ſpecified, and all other Aſſignments, whether indorſed or otherwiſe, made by virtue of and ſubſequent to ſuch indorſed Aſſignments, ſo as an Entry or Memorandum of Indorſed Aſſignments made on Reverſionary Tallies by the Earl of Ranelagh, &c. adjudged good. Explained by 5 Geo. 1. c. 2. § 8.

ſuch ſubſequent Aſſignments be made in the ſaid Office of the Receipt, before the Nine and twentieth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred, ſhall be and are hereby deemed and adjudged to be as good to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever in Law, as if each and every of the ſaid Aſſignments had been executed in every Particular, purſuant to the Form and Manner in the firſt above recited Act more at large preſcribed and enacted.

XIII. And whereas ſeveral Tickets, commonly called Malt Tickets, which are unpaid, and ſeveral of the Bills, commonly called Exchequer Bills, not diſcharged, are by Caſualty or Miſchance, burnt, loſt, or otherwiſe deſtroyed, it is hereby further enacted, That in all Caſes, where it ſhall appear by Affidavit to be made before any of the Barons of the Exchequer, that any ſuch Ticket or Tickets, or any ſuch Exchequer Bills, as aforeſaid, before the Third Day of April, One thouſand ſeven hundred, have been or are burnt, deſtroyed, or otherwiſe loſt, it ſhall and may be lawful for the reſpective Officers appointed to pay or diſcharge the ſaid Tickets or Bills, upon the producing a Certificate from the ſaid Baron, of ſuch Affidavit made before him (which Affidavit the ſaid Barons or any of them is and are hereby authorized to take, and which Certificate he or they are hereby required to grant, without Fee or Reward) and on Security given to the ſaid reſpective Officers to their good liking, to indemnify them reſpectively againſt all other Perſons whatſoever, for or concerning the Money contained or ſpecified in ſuch Ticket or Tickets, Bill or Bills, or which was due thereon, they the ſaid Officers reſpectively ſhall, and are hereby required to pay and diſcharge the ſaid Tickets or Bills, as he or they ſhould have paid or diſcharged the Original Tickets or Bills, if the ſame had been produced, and ſhall be allowed ſuch Payment in their reſpective Accounts; any thing in this or any other Act contained to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Malt Tickets or Exchequer Bills burnt or loſt, &c. ſhall be paid and diſcharged.

XIV. And whereas in and by an Act made and paſſed in the Eighth Year of His Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for making good the Deficiencies of the ſeveral Funds therein mentioned, and for enlarging the Capital Stock of the Bank of England; and for raiſing the publick Credit, it was amongſt other Things enacted, That no Aſſignment or Transferrence, which from and after the Tenth Day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, ſhould be made of any the Orders or Tallies therein mentioned, or any the Monies contained therein, upon the ſelling, buying, or bargaining of the ſame, ſhould be good, unleſs ſuch Aſſignment or Transferrence be made and ſigned, or ſealed, and be, within Ten Days after the ſigning thereof, entred or regiſtred, and that Oath be thereupon made concerning the Premium, Gratuity, or Conſideration in the Manner and Form preſcribed by the ſaid Act, as by the ſaid Act, Relation being thereunto had, may more fully appear: And whereas the Proviſion ſo made concerning the Sale of Tallies and Orders, was at the Time of making thereof, and afterwards, of great Service to the Publick; but by reaſon ſuch Tallies and Orders, as aforeſaid, are now generally riſen in their Value and Eſtimation, and the ſaid Proviſion is become needleſs, and in ſome Reſpects inconvenient, be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Clauſes of the ſaid Act herein recited, for or concerning the making, entring, and regiſtring ſuch Aſſignments, as aforeſaid, and for making Oath concerning the Premium, Gratuity, or Conſideration Money, as aforeſaid, are and ſhall be repealed and utterly void, and that all Aſſignments made or to be made, of or upon any the ſaid Orders or Tallies, ſhall be of ſuch or the like Force and Effect, as the ſame would have been, if the ſaid recited Clauſes concerning the ſame, had not been inſerted in the ſaid Act; any thing in the ſaid Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

8 W. 3. c. 20.

Part thereof repealed.

XV. And whereas great Numbers of the Poor of this Kingdom are employed in the Manufacture of Bone-lace: For the Encouragement thereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred, it ſhall and may be lawful, for all Perſons, Natives and Foreigners, to export to the Engliſh Plantations in America, or to any other Parts beyond the Seas, or into Scotland, all Sorts of Engliſh Bone-lace, Needle-work, Point or Cut-work, without paying any Cuſtom or Duty for the ſame, Oath being firſt made, that the ſame was made or manufactured within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed; any Law or Statute to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Engliſh Bone-lace, &c. may be exported into America or Scotland, &c. Cuſtom Free.

XVI. And whereas Tallow Candles imported into this Kingdom, are chargeable by ſeveral Acts of Parliament, with the Subſidies of Tunnage and Poundage, and other Impoſitions, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Tenth Day of April, One thouſand ſeven hundred, the One Moiety and no more of all the ſaid Subſidies and Impoſitions, payable only for ſuch Tallow Candles as ſhall be exported, according to the Rules and Methods by the ſaid Acts appointed, ſhall be repaid, or diſcharged upon the Security for the ſame; any Law or Statute to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Tallow Candles imported, on Exportation again, One Moiety of the Duties to be repaid.

XVII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That over and above the Sum of Twenty ſeven thouſand Pounds, by another Act of this Seſſion of Parliament, appointed to be paid for the Uſes therein mentioned, out of the Money to be advanced by Farmers or Contractors for the Duties of Exciſe, and certain Duties upon Salt, upon a Farm or Contract (if any ſuch ſhall be) for a Term not exceeding Three Years, to commence from the Four and twentieth Day of June next, there ſhall be and is hereby appropriated and applied out of ſuch Advance Money a further Sum not exceeding Twenty five thouſand Pounds, as well for diſcharging One Year's Intereſt upon the Four and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, upon the Tickets commonly called the Malt Tickets, as alſo to go in aid of the Arrears of the late Duties upon Malt, to make up the Sixty fifth Payment in Courſe of the Malt Tickets; that is to ſay, to compleat the Sixty fifth Sum of Ten thouſand Pounds payable thereupon; and the proper Officer and Officers concerned in the Payment of the ſaid Tickets, are hereby required to indorſe the Intereſt ſo paid upon every Ticket, and to keep a fair Account of ſuch Payments in a Book for that Purpoſe; and if any of the ſaid Tickets, or any of the Exchequer Bills, ſhall be applied to the purchaſing of any forfeited Eſtates in Ireland, the ſame ſhall be firſt tried or proved with the Counterparts thereof in the reſpective Offices for the ſame in England, and be certified to be true Bills or Tickets by the proper Officers there; and ſuch further Sum not exceeding Twelve thouſand Pounds, as ſhall be neceſſary for the diſcharging the Half-pay of diſbanded Officers, to the Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred, ſhall (over and above the Sum of Forty one thouſand Pounds already appropriated for the Half-pay of ſuch Officers) be Clauſe of Appropriation.

be likewiſe furniſhed and ſupplied out of ſuch Advance-money, to be paid by ſuch Farmers or Contractors as aforeſaid (if any ſuch be) and all the reſt and Reſidue of the ſaid Monies to be advanced by ſuch Farmers or Contractors as aforeſaid (if any ſuch be) is hereby appropriated, and ſhall be applied, to and for the making good of the ſeveral and reſpective Funds, and to the ſeveral and reſpective Uſes and Purpoſes, whereunto the ſeveral Branches of the ſaid Exciſe and Salt Duties are appropriated or directed by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force, and in the ſame Proportions, Order and Form, as the ſaid Duties themſelves are hereby appropriated or applicable; any thing in this or any former Act or Acts of Parliament contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

20,000 l. towards the Debt for ſick and wounded Seamen.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Lord Treaſurer, or the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury for the time being, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby directed, to pay or cauſe to be paid out of the Money appropriated to the Uſe of the Navy for this preſent Year, One thouſand ſeven hundred, the Sum of Twenty thouſand Pounds towards the diſcharging Part of the Debt due for ſick and wounded Seamen; any thing in this or any other Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. IV.

An Act for the further preventing the Growth of Popery.

to be paid by the Sheriff, &c.

In caſe of Diſpute about ſharing the Reward, Judge to proportion the ſame.

Penalty on Sheriff making Default of Payment.

WHEREAS there has been of late a much greater Reſort into this Kingdom than formerly of Popiſh Biſhops, Prieſts and Jeſuits, and they do very openly, and in inſolent Manner, affront the Laws, and daily endeavour to pervert His Majeſty's natural-born Subjects, which has been occaſioned by Neglect of the due Execution of the Laws already in Force: For preventing the further Growth of Popery, and of ſuch treaſonable and execrable Deſigns and Conſpiracies againſt His Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and the eſtabliſhed Religion, as have lately, as well as frequently heretofore, been brought to Light, and happily defeated by the wonderful Providence of God; be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand and ſeven hundred, all and every Perſon and Perſons, who ſhall apprehend and take One or more Popiſh Biſhop, Prieſt or Jeſuit, and proſecute him or them ſo apprehended and taken, until he or they be convicted of ſaying Maſs, or of exerciſing any other Part of the Office or Function of a Popiſh Biſhop or Prieſt within theſe Realms, ſhall have and receive from the Sheriff or Sheriffs of the County where ſuch Conviction ſhall be made (without paying any Fee for the ſame) for every ſuch Offender ſo convicted, the Sum of One hundred Pounds within Four Months after ſuch Conviction, and Demand thereof made, by tendring a Certificate to the ſaid Sheriff or Sheriffs, under the Hand or Hands of the Judge or Juſtices before whom ſuch Conviction ſhall be made, certifying the Conviction of ſuch Popiſh Biſhop, Prieſt or Jeſuit, and alſo that ſuch Popiſh Biſhop, Prieſt or Jeſuit, Popiſh Biſhops, Prieſts or Jeſuits, was or were taken by the Perſon or Perſons claiming the ſaid Reward: And in caſe any Diſpute ſhall happen to ariſe between the Perſons ſo apprehending any Popiſh Biſhop, Prieſt or Jeſuit, touching their Right and Title to the ſaid Reward, that then the ſaid Judge or Juſtices ſo reſpectively certifying as aforeſaid, ſhall in and by their ſaid Certificate direct and appoint the ſaid Reward to be paid unto and amongſt the Parties claiming the ſame, in ſuch Share and Proportion as to the ſaid Judge or Juſtices ſhall ſeem juſt and reaſonable; and if it ſhall happen any ſuch Sheriff or Sheriffs ſhall die, or be removed, before the Expiration of Four Months after ſuch Conviction and Demand made of the ſaid Reward (not being paid as aforeſaid) that then the next ſucceeding Sheriff or Sheriffs of the ſaid County ſhall pay the ſame, within Two Months after Demand, and Certificate brought as aforeſaid; and if Default of Payment of the ſaid Sum or Sums of Money ſhall happen to be made by any Sheriff or Sheriffs, ſuch Sheriff or Sheriffs, ſo making Default, ſhall forfeit to the Perſon or Perſons to whom ſuch Money is due as aforeſaid, Two hundred Pounds, to be recovered by him or them, or his or their Executors or Adminiſtrators, in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, wherein but One Imparlance, and no Eſſoin, Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed, with full Coſts of Suit by him or them expended in the Recovery of the ſame.

Sheriffs to be repaid by the Treaſury.

II. And it is hereby further enacted, That all Sheriffs, their Succeſſors, Executors or Adminiſtrators, upon producing ſuch reſpective Certificates, or a Duplicate or Duplicates thereof, ſhall have the Monies contained in ſuch Certificate paid to them by the Lord Treaſurer, or Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury for the time being, out of the Revenue of the Crown.

Penalty on Popiſh Biſhop, Prieſt, &c. ſaying Maſs, &c.

or keeping School, &c.

III. And for a further Remedy againſt the Growth of Popery, over and beyond the good Laws already made, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Popiſh Biſhop, Prieſt or Jeſuit whatſoever, ſhall ſay Maſs, or exerciſe any other Part of the Office or Function of a Popiſh Biſhop or Prieſt within theſe Realms, or the Dominions thereunto belonging, or if any Papiſt, or Perſon making Profeſſion of the Popiſh Religion, ſhall keep School, or take upon themſelves the Education or Government, or Boarding of Youth in any Place within this Realm, or the Dominions thereto belonging, ſuch Perſon or Perſons being thereof lawfully convicted, that then every ſuch Perſon ſhall on ſuch Conviction be adjudged to perpetual Impriſonment, in ſuch Place or Places within this Kingdom, as the King by Advice of His Privy Council ſhall appoint.

Papiſts not taking the Oaths in 6 Months after 18 Years of Age,

IV. And be it alſo further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Nine and twentieth Day of September, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred, if any Perſon educated in the Popiſh Religion, or profeſſing the ſame, ſhall not within Six Months after he or ſhe ſhall attain the Age of Eighteen Years, take the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, and alſo ſubſcribe the Declaration ſet down and expreſt in an Act of Parliament made in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of the late King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for the more effectual preſerving the King's Perſon and Government, by diſabling Papiſts from ſitting in either Houſe of Parliament, to be by him or her made, repeated and ſubſcribed ſubſcribed in the Courts of Chancery, or King's Bench, or Quarter Seſſions of the County where ſuch Perſon ſhall reſide, every ſuch Perſon ſhall in reſpect of him or herſelf only, and not to or in reſpect of any of his or her Heirs or Poſterity, be diſabled and made incapable to inherit or take by Deſcent, Deviſe or Limitation, in Poſſeſſion, Reverſion or Remainder, any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed: And that during the Life of ſuch Perſon, or until he or ſhe do take the ſaid Oaths, and make, repeat and ſubſcribe the ſaid Declaration in Manner as aforeſaid, the next of his or her Kindred, which ſhall be a Proteſtant, ſhall have and enjoy the ſaid Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, without being accountable for the Profits by him or her received during ſuch Enjoyment thereof as aforeſaid: But in caſe of any wilful Waſte committed on the ſaid Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, by the Perſon ſo having or enjoying the ſame, or any other by his or her Licence or Authority, the Party diſabled, his or her Executors and Adminiſtrators, ſhall and may recover Treble Damages for the ſame, againſt the Perſon committing ſuch Waſte, his or her Executors or Adminiſtrators, by Action of Debt in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter; and that from and after the Tenth Day of April, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred, every Papiſt, or Perſon making Profeſſion of the Popiſh Religion, ſhall be diſabled, and is hereby made incapable, to purchaſe, either in his or her own Name, or in the Name of any other Perſon or Perſons, to his or her Uſe, or in Truſt for him or her, any Manors, Lands, Profits out of Lands, Tenements, Rents, Terms or Hereditaments, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed; and that all and ſingular Eſtates, Terms, and any other Intereſts or Profits whatſoever out of Lands, from and after the ſaid Tenth Day of April, to be made, ſuffered or done, to or for the Uſe or Behoof of any ſuch Perſon or Perſons, or upon any Truſt or Confidence, mediately or immediately, to or for the Benefit or Relief of any ſuch Perſon or Perſons, ſhall be utterly void and of none Effect, to all Intents, Conſtructions and Purpoſes whatſoever.

Incapable to inherit any Lands, &c. Next of Kin, being a Proteſtant, to enjoy the ſame, and not accountable, &c. except for wilful Waſte. Explained by 3 Geo. 1. c. 18. §. 4.

Papiſt, &c. incapable to purchaſe Lands, &c.

V. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall be conſtrued to extend to any Popiſh Prieſt for ſaying Maſs, or officiating as a Prieſt, within the Dwelling-houſe of any Foreign Miniſter reſiding here, ſo as ſuch Prieſt be not One of His Majeſty's natural-born Subjects, nor naturalized within any of His Kingdoms or Dominions, and ſo as the Name of ſuch Prieſt, and the Place of his Birth, and the Foreign Miniſter to whom he ſhall belong, be entred and regiſtred in the Office of the Principal Secretary of State.

Act not to extend to Popiſh Prieſt ſaying Maſs, &c. in foreign Miniſter's Houſe, ſo as he be not King's natural-born Subject, &c.

VI. And whereas by an Act made in the Third Year of King JAMES the Firſt, intituled, An Act to prevent and avoid Dangers which may grow by Popiſh Recuſants, whoſoever ſhall be convicted of ſending, or cauſing to be ſent, any Child, or any other Perſon under their Government, into Parts beyond the Seas out of the King's Obedience, to the Intent that ſuch Child or Perſon ſo ſent ſhould be educated in the Romiſh Religion, contrary to the ſaid Act, is to forfeit One hundred Pounds, One Half to the King's Majeſty, and the other Half to him that ſhall ſue for the ſame: For the greater Encouragement and Reward of thoſe who ſhall diſcover ſuch Offenders, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Sum of One hundred Pounds ſhall be to the ſole Uſe and Benefit of him or her who ſhall diſcover and convict any Perſon ſo offending, to be recovered in ſuch Manner as in the ſaid recited Act is enacted; any thing in the ſaid Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

3 Jac. 1. c. 5.

Perſon convicted of ſending Child, &c. beyond Sea, to be educated in the Romiſh Religion, to forfeit 100 l.

VII. And to the end that the Proteſtant Children of Popiſh Parents may not in the Life-times of ſuch their Parents, for want of fitting Maintenance, be neceſſitated, in Compliance with their Parents, to embrace the Popiſh Religion, contrary to their own Inclinations; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred, if any ſuch Parent, in order to the compelling ſuch his or her Proteſtant Child to change his or her Religion, ſhall refuſe to allow ſuch Child a fitting Maintenance, ſuitable to the Degree and Ability of ſuch Parent, and to the Age and Education of ſuch Child, then upon Complaint thereof made to the Lord High Chancellor of England, or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal, or Commiſſioners for the Great Seal for the time being, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Commiſſioners, to make ſuch Order therein as ſhall be agreeable to the Intent of this Act.

Popiſh Parent refuſing to allow his Proteſtant Child, &c. fitting Maintenance, on Complaint thereof, Lord Chancellor, &c. to make Order therein.

CAP. VI.

An Act to enable His Majeſty's natural-born Subjects to inherit the Eſtate of their Anceſtors, either lineal or collateral, notwithſtanding their Father or Mother were Aliens.

WHEREAS divers Perſons, born within the King's Dominions, are diſabled to inherit and make their Titles by Deſcent from their Anceſtors, by Reaſon that their Fathers or Mothers, or ſome other Anceſtor (by whom they are to derive their Deſcent) was an Alien, and not born within the King's Dominions: For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all and every Perſon or Perſons, being the King's natural-born Subject or Subjects within any of the King's Realms or Dominions, ſhall and may hereafter lawfully inherit and be inheritable as Heir or Heirs to any Honours, Manors, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, and King's natural-born Subjects ſhall inherit as Heirs to any Honours, Manors, &c. though their Parents were born out of the King's Dominions, &c.

make their Pedigrees and Titles by Deſcent from any of their Anceſtors lineal or collateral, although the Father and Mother, or Fathers or Mothers, or other Anceſtor of ſuch Perſon or Perſons, by, from, through, or under whom he, ſhe, or they ſhall or may make or derive their Title or Pedigree, were or was, or is or are, or ſhall be born out of the King's Allegiance, and out of His Majeſty's Realms and Dominions, as freely, fully, and effectually, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if ſuch Father or Mother, or Fathers or Mothers, or other Anceſtor or Anceſtors, by, from, through, or under whom he, ſhe, or they ſhall or may make or derive their Title or Pedigree, had been naturalized, or natural-born Subjects, or Subjects within the King's Dominions; any Law or Cuſtom to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. VII.

An Act for the more effectual Suppreſſion of Piracy.

28Hen.8.c.15. Amended by 18Geo.2.c.30.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the Twenty eighth Year of the Reign of King HENRY the Eighth, it is enacted, That Treaſons, Felonies, Robberies, Murders, and Confederacies committed on the Sea, ſhall be enquired of, tried, and determined according to the common Courſe of the Laws of this Land uſed for ſuch Offences upon the Land within this Realm; whereupon the Trial of thoſe Offenders before the Admiral, or his Lieutenant, or his Commiſſary, hath been altogether diſuſed: And whereas, that ſince the making of the ſaid Act, and eſpecially of late Years, it hath been found by Experience, that Perſons committing Piracies, Robberies, and Felonies on the Seas, in or near the Eaſt and Weſt Indies, and in Places very remote, cannot be brought to condign Puniſhment without great Trouble and Charges in ſending them into England to be tried within the Realm, as the ſaid Statute directs, inſomuch that many idle and profligate Perſons have been thereby encouraged to turn Pirates, and betake themſelves to that Sort of wicked Life, truſting that they ſhall not, or at leaſt cannot eaſily, be queſtioned for ſuch their Piracies and Robberies, by reaſon of the great Trouble and Expence that will neceſſarily fall upon ſuch as ſhall attempt to apprehend and proſecute them for the ſame: And whereas the Numbers of them are of late very much increaſed, and their Inſolencies ſo great, that unleſs ſome ſpeedy Remedy be provided to ſuppreſs them, by a ſtrict and more eaſy Way for putting the ancient Laws in that Behalf in Execution, the Trade and Navigation into remote Parts will very much ſuffer thereby; be it therefore declared and enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all Piracies, Felonies, and Robberies committed in or upon the Sea, or in any Haven, River, Creek, or Place, where the Admiral or Admirals have Power, Authority, or Juriſdiction, may be examined, inquired of, tried, heard, and determined, and adjudged, according to the Directions of this Act, in any Place at Sea, or upon the Land, in any of His Majeſty's Iſlands, Plantations, Colonies, Dominions, Forts, or Factories, to be appointed for that Purpoſe by the King's Commiſſion or Commiſſions under the Great Seal of England, or the Seal of the Admiralty of England, directed to all or any of the Admirals, Vice-Admirals, Reer-Admirals, Judges of Vice-Admiralties, or Commanders of any of His Majeſty's Ships of War, and alſo to all or any ſuch Perſon or Perſons, Officer or Officers, by Name, or for the time being, as His Majeſty ſhall think fit to appoint; which ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall have full Power jointly or ſeverally, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of them, or any One of them, to commit to ſafe Cuſtody any Perſon or Perſons, againſt whom Information of Piracy, Robbery, or Felony upon the Sea, ſhall be given upon Oath (which Oath they or any One of them ſhall have full Power, and are hereby required to adminiſter) and to call and aſſemble a Court of Admiralty on Ship-board, or upon the Land, when and as often as Occaſion ſhall require; which Court ſhall conſiſt of Seven Perſons at the leaſt.

How and where Piracies, Felonies, &c. committed on the Sea may be tried.

By 4 Geo. 1. c. 11. §. 7. Offenders againſt this Act may be tried as directed by 28 H. 8. c. 15.

Admiralty Court to conſiſt of Seven Perſons.

II. And if ſo many of the Perſons aforeſaid cannot conveniently be aſſembled, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That any Three of the aforeſaid Perſons (whereof the Preſident or Chief of ſome Engliſh Factory, or the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Member of His Majeſty's Councils in any of the Plantations or Colonies aforeſaid, or Commander of One of His Majeſty's Ships, is always to be One) ſhall have full Power and Authority, by virtue of this Act, to call and aſſemble any other Perſons on Ship-board, or upon the Land, to make up the Number of Seven.

Perſons qualified to ſit and vote, &c.

III. Provided, That no Perſons but ſuch as are known Merchants, Factors, or Planters, or ſuch as are Captains, Lieutenants, or Warrant Officers in any of His Majeſty's Ships of War, or Captains, Maſters, or Mates of ſome Engliſh Ship, ſhall be capable of being ſo called, and ſitting and voting in the ſaid Court.

Power of Court ſo called in caſe of Trial of Pirate, &c.

IV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſuch Perſons, called and aſſembled as aforeſaid, ſhall have full Power and Authority, according to the Courſe of the Admiralty, to iſſue Warrants for bringing any Perſons accuſed of Piracy or Robbery, before them to be tried, heard, and adjudged; and to ſummon Witneſſes, and to take Informations and Examinations of Witneſſes upon their Oath; and to do all Things neceſſary for the hearing and final Determination of any Caſe of Piracy, Robbery, and Felony; and to give Sentence and Judgment of Death, and to award Execution of the Offenders convicted and attainted as aforeſaid, according to the Civil Law, and the Methods and Rules of the Admiralty; and that all and every Perſon and Perſons ſo convicted and attainted of Piracy or Robbery, ſhall have and ſuffer ſuch Loſſes of Lands, Goods, and Chattels, as if they had been attainted and convicted of any Piracies, Felonies, and Robberies according to the aforementioned Statute made in the Reign of King HENRY the Eighth.

King's Commiſſion to be firſt read.

Preſident to take the following Oath.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſo ſoon as any Court ſhall be aſſembled, as aforeſaid, either on Ship-board or upon the Land, the King's Commiſſion ſhall firſt be openly read, and the ſaid Court then and there ſhall be ſolemnly and publickly called and proclaimed; and then the Preſident of the Court ſhall, in the firſt Place, publickly in open Court take the following Oath, viz.

I A. B. do ſwear in the Preſence of Almighty God, That I will truly and impartially try and adjudge the Priſoner or Priſoners which ſhall be brought upon his or their Trials before this Court, and honeſtly and duly, on my Part, put His Majeſty's Commiſſion for the trying of them in Execution, according to the beſt of my Skill and Knowledge: And that I have no Intereſt, directly or indirectly, in any Ship or Goods, for the Piratically taking of which any Perſon ſtands accuſed, and is now to be tried:

So help me God.

And then to adminiſter the ſame to the other Members.

VI. And he having taken the Oath in Manner aforeſaid, ſhall immediately adminiſter the ſame Oath to every Perſon who ſhall ſit, and have and give a Voice in the ſaid Court upon the Trial of ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners, as aforeſaid; and immediately thereupon the ſaid Priſoner or Priſoners ſhall be formally brought before them; and then the Regiſter of the ſaid Court ſhall openly and diſtinctly read the Articles againſt ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners, upon which they or any of them is or are to be tried; wherein ſhall be ſet forth the particular Fact or Facts of Piracy, Robbery, and Felony, with the Time and Place when and where, and in what Manner it was committed; and then each Priſoner ſhall be asked, Whether he be guilty of the ſaid Piracy and Robbery, or Felony, or not guilty? Whereupon every ſuch Priſoner ſhall immediately plead thereunto, Guilty, or Not Guilty, or elſe it ſhall be taken as confeſſed, and he ſhall ſuffer ſuch Pains of Death, Loſs of Lands, Goods, and Chattels, and in like Manner, as if he or they had been attainted or convicted upon the Oath of Witneſſes, or his own Confeſſion; but if any Priſoner ſhall plead Not Guilty, Witneſſes ſhall be produced by the Regiſter, and duly ſworn and examined openly, viva voce, in the Priſoner's Preſence; and after a Witneſs hath anſwered all the Queſtions propoſed by the Preſident of the Court, and given his Evidence, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Priſoner to have the Witneſs croſs-examined, by firſt declaring to the Court what Queſtions he would have asked, and thereupon the Preſident of the Court ſhall interrogate the Witneſs accordingly; and every Priſoner ſhall have Liberty to bring Witneſſes for his Defence, who ſhall be ſworn, and examined upon Oath, as the Witneſſes were that teſtified againſt him; and afterwards the Priſoner ſhall be fairly heard what he can ſay for himſelf; all which being done, the Priſoner ſhall be taken away and kept in ſafe Cuſtody, and all other Perſons, except the Regiſter, ſhall withdraw from the ſaid Court, and then the Court ſhall conſider of the Evidence which hath been given, and debate the Matters and Circumſtances of the Priſoner's Caſe, and the Preſident of the Court ſhall collect all the Votes of the Perſons who do ſit and have Voices in the ſaid Court, beginning at the Junior firſt, and ending with himſelf; and according to the Plurality of Voices, Sentence and Judgment ſhall be then given and pronounced publickly in the Preſence of the Priſoner or Priſoners, being called in again; and according to ſuch Sentence and Judgment the Perſon or Perſons attainted ſhall be executed and put to Death, at ſuch Time, in ſuch Manner, and in ſuch Place upon the Sea, or within the ebbing or flowing thereof, as the Preſident or the major Part of the Court, by Warrant directed to a Provoſt Marſhal (which the Preſident or ſaid major Part ſhall have Power to conſtitute) ſhall appoint.

How Priſoners ſhall be brought before them and tried.

Priſoners pleading Not Guilty, Witneſſes ſhall be examined viva voce.

How Sentence ſhall be executed.

Regiſter of the Court to be a Publick Notary.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſome Perſon, being a Publick Notary, ſhall be Regiſter of the Court; and in caſe of his Abſence, Death, or Incapacity, or for want of a Perſon ſo qualified, the Preſident of the Court ſhall and may appoint a Regiſter, giving him an Oath (which he is hereby impowered to adminiſter) duly, faithfully, and impartially to execute his Office; which Regiſter ſhall prepare all Warrants and Articles, and take care to provide all Things requiſite for any Trial, according to the ſubſtantial and eſſential Parts of Proceedings in a Court of Admiralty, in the moſt ſummary Way; and ſhall take Minutes of the whole Proceedings, and enter them duly in a Book by him to be kept for that Purpoſe; and ſhall from time to time, as opportunity offers, tranſmit the ſame, with the Copies of all Articles and Judgments given in any ſuch Caſes, in any Court whereof he ſhall be Regiſter, unto the High Court of Admiralty of England.

King's Subjects, &c. committing Piracy on others of the King's Subjects by Commiſſion from any foreign Prince, ſhall be adjudged Pirates, &c. and ſuffer Death.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any of His Majeſty's natural-born Subjects, or Denizens of this Kingdom, ſhall commit any Piracy or Robbery, or any Act of Hoſtility, againſt others His Majeſty's Subjects upon the Sea, under Colour of any Commiſſion from any foreign Prince or State, or Pretence of Authority from any Perſon whatſoever, ſuch Offender and Offenders, and every of them, ſhall be deemed, adjudged, and taken to be Pirates, Felons, and Robbers; and they and every of them being duly convicted thereof, according to this Act, or the aforeſaid Statute of King Henry the Eighth, ſhall have and ſuffer ſuch Pains of Death, Loſs of Lands, Goods, and Chattels, as Pirates, Felons, and Robbers upon the Seas ought to have and ſuffer.

Commander or Mariner who ſhall betray his Truſt, or turn Pirate, &c.

IX. And be it further enacted, That if any Commander or Maſter of any Ship, or any Seaman or Mariner, ſhall, in any Place where the Admiral hath Juriſdiction, betray his Truſt, and turn Pirate, Enemy, or Rebel, and piratically and feloniouſly run away with his or their Ship or Ships, or any Barge, Boat, Ordnance, Ammunition, Goods, or Merchandizes, or yield them up voluntarily to any Pirate, or ſhall bring any ſeducing Meſſages from any Pirate, Enemy, or Rebel, or conſult, combine, or confederate with, or attempt or endeavour to corrupt any Commander, Maſter, Officer, or Mariner to yield up or run away with any Ship, Goods, or Merchandizes, or turn Pirate, or go over to Pirates, or if any Perſon ſhall lay violent Hands on his Commander, whereby to hinder him from fighting in Defence of his Ship and Goods committed to his Truſt, or that ſhall confine his Maſter, or make, or endeavour to make a Revolt in the Ship, ſhall be adjudged, deemed, and taken to be a Pirate, Felon, and Robber, and being convicted thereof, according to the Directions of this Act, ſhall have and ſuffer Pains of Death, Loſs of Lands, Goods, and Chattels, as Pirates, Felons, and Robbers upon the Seas ought to have and ſuffer.

or Perſon laying violent Hands on his Commander, &c. ſhall be adjudged a Pirate, and ſuffer Death.

X. And whereas ſeveral evil-diſpoſed Perſons, in the Plantations and elſewhere, have contributed very much towards the Increaſe and Encouragement of Pirates, by ſetting them forth, and by aiding, abetting, receiving, and concealing them and their Goods, and there being ſome Defects in the Laws for bringing ſuch evil-diſpoſed Perſons to condign Puniſhment; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid,

That

Perſons ſetting forth, or aiding or aſſiſting any Pirate, &c.

ſhall be adjudged Acceſſaries.

The like for concealing Pirate, &c.

How Acceſſaries ſhall be tried.

That all and every Perſon and Perſons whatſoever, who, after the Twenty ninth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred, ſhall either on the Land or upon the Seas, knowingly or wittingly ſet forth any Pirate, or aid and aſſiſt, or maintain, procure, command, counſel or adviſe any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, to do or commit any Piracies or Robberies upon the Seas, and ſuch Perſon and Perſons ſhall thereupon do or commit any ſuch Piracy or Robbery, then all and every ſuch Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, ſo as aforeſaid ſetting forth any Pirate, or aiding, aſſiſting, maintaining, procuring, commanding, counſelling or adviſing the ſame, either on the Land or upon the Sea, ſhall be and are hereby declared, and ſhall be deemed and adjudged to be acceſſary to ſuch Piracy and Robbery done and committed; and further, That after any Piracy or Robbery is or ſhall be committed by any Pirate or Robber whatſoever, every Perſon and Perſons, who knowing that ſuch Pirate or Robber has done or committed ſuch Piracy and Robbery, ſhall, on the Land or upon the Sea, receive, entertain or conceal any ſuch Pirate or Robber, or receive or take into his Cuſtody any Ship, Veſſel, Goods or Chattels, which have been by any ſuch Pirate or Robber piratically and feloniouſly taken, ſhall be and are hereby likewiſe declared, deemed and adjudged to be acceſſary to ſuch Piracy and Robbery; and that after the ſaid Nine and twentieth Day of September, all ſuch Acceſſaries to ſuch Piracies and Robberies ſhall and may be enquired of, tried, heard, determined and adjudged after the common Courſe of the Laws of this Land, according to the ſaid Statute made in the Twenty eighth Year of King HENRY the Eighth, as the Principals of ſuch Piracies and Robberies may and ought to be, and no otherwiſe; and being thereupon attainted, ſhall ſuffer ſuch Pains of Death, Loſſes of Lands, Goods and Chattels, and in like Manner, as the Principals of ſuch Piracies, Robberies and Felonies ought to ſuffer, according to the ſaid Statute of King HENRY the Eighth, which is hereby declared to be and continue in full Force; any thing in this preſent Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Encouragement for Commanders and Mariners to defend their Ships againſt Pirates, &c.

XI. And foraſmuch as it will alſo conduce to the ſuppreſſing of Robberies on the Sea, if due Encouragement be given, and Rewards allowed, to ſuch Commanders, Maſters, and other Officers, Seamen, and Mariners, as ſhall either bravely defend their own Ships, or take, ſeize and deſtroy Pirates, Sea Rovers, and Enemies; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That when any Engliſh Ship ſhall have been defended againſt any Pirates, Enemies, or Sea Rovers by Fight, and brought to her deſigned Port, in which Fight any of the Officers or Seamen ſhall have been killed or wounded, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Judge of His Majeſty's High Court of Admiralty, or his Surrogate in the Port of London, or the Mayor, Bailiff, or Chief Officer in the ſeveral Out-ports of this Kingdom, upon the Petition of the Maſter or Seamen of ſuch Ship, ſo defended as aforeſaid, to call unto him Four or more good and ſubſtantial Merchants, and ſuch as are no Adventurers or Owners of the Ship or Goods ſo defended, and have no Manner of Intereſt therein, and by Advice with them to raiſe and levy upon the reſpective Adventurers and Owners of the Ship and Goods ſo defended, by Proceſs out of the ſaid Court, ſuch Sum or Sums of Money as himſelf and the ſaid Merchants, by Plurality of Voices, ſhall determine and judge reaſonable, not exceeding Two Pounds per Centum of the Freight, and of the Ship and Goods ſo defended, according to the firſt Coſts of the Goods; which Sum or Sums of Money ſo raiſed, ſhall be diſtributed among the Captain, Maſter, Officers, and Seamen of the ſaid Ship, or Widows and Children of the Slain, according to the Direction of the Judge of the ſaid Court, or his Surrogate in the Port of London, or the Mayor, Bailiff or Chief Officer in the ſeveral Out-ports of this Kingdom, with the Approbation of the Merchants aforeſaid, who ſhall proportion the ſame, according to their beſt Judgment, unto the Ship's Company as aforeſaid, having ſpecial Regard unto the Widows and Children of ſuch as ſhall have been ſlain in that Service, and ſuch as have been wounded or maimed.

and how to be paid.

XII. And for the better and more effectual Prevention of Combinations and Confederacies, for the running away with or deſtroying of any Ship, Goods or Merchandizes; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That a Reward of Ten Pounds for every Ship or Veſſel of One hundred Tuns or under, and Fifteen Pounds for every Ship or Veſſel of a greater Burthen, ſhall be paid by the Captain, Commander, or Maſter of every Ship or Veſſel, wherein any ſuch Combination or Confederacy ſhall be ſet on Foot, for the running away with or deſtroying any ſuch Ship, or the Goods and Merchandizes therein laden, to ſuch Perſon as ſhall firſt make a Diſcovery thereof, upon due Proof of ſuch Combination or Confederacy; the ſame to be paid at the Port where the Wages of the Seamen of the ſaid Ship are or ought to be paid, after ſuch Diſcovery and Proof made.

Act to be in Force for 7 Years Made perpetual by 6 Geo. 1. c. 19. and enforced by 8 Geo. 1. c. 24.

XIII. Provided alſo, That this Act ſhall be in Force for Seven Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament after the Expiration of the ſaid Seven Years, and no longer.

Commiſſioners &c. ſhall have Power to try the aforeſaid Crimes in all the Colonies, &c. in America.

Governors of the ſaid Colonies, &c. to aſſiſt Commiſſioners, &c.

XIV. And for the more effectual Proſecution and Puniſhment of Piracies, Felonies and Robberies upon the Sea, and of all other Offences aforementioned; be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Commiſſioners appointed or to be appointed by the aforementioned Statute of King HENRY the Eighth, or the Commiſſioners for Trial of Pirates appointed by this Act, ſhall, from and after the ſaid Nine and twentieth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred, have the ſole Power and Authority of trying, hearing, and determining the ſaid Crimes and Offences, within all or any of the Colonies and Plantations in America, governed by Proprietors, or under Grants or Charters from the Crown, and of bringing the Offenders to condign Puniſhment; and ſhall and may iſſue forth their Warrant or Warrants for the ſeizing and apprehending of any Pirates, Felons, or Robbers upon the Sea, or their Confederates or Acceſſaries, being within any of the ſaid Colonies and Plantations, in order to their being brought to Trial within the ſame, or any other Plantation in America, according to this Act, or ſent into England to be tried there; and that all and every Governor and Governors, Perſon and Perſons in Authority in the ſaid Colonies and Plantations governed by Proprietors, or under Charters as aforeſaid, ſhall aſſiſt the Commiſſioners and their ſubordinate Officers in doing their Duty, and alſo in the Execution of ſuch Warrants and otherwiſe, and ſhall deliver up to ſuch Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners, Officer or Officers, any Pirates, Felons and Robbers upon the Sea, and their Confederates and Acceſſaries, in order to their being tried or ſent into England as aforeſaid; any Letters Patents, Grants or Charters of Government, in and about the ſaid Plantations, or other Uſages heretofore had or made to the contrary notwithſtanding.

and deliver up Pirates, &c.

XV. And be it hereby further declared and enacted, That if any of the Governors in the ſaid Plantations, or any Perſon or Perſons in Authority there, ſhall refuſe to yield Obedience to this Act, ſuch Refuſal is hereby declared to be a Forfeiture of all and every the Charters granted for the Government or Propriety of ſuch Plantation.

Penalty on Governor, &c. not yielding Obedience to this Act.

XVI. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That whenſoever any Commiſſion for the Trial and Puniſhment of the Offences aforeſaid, or any of them, ſhall be directed or ſent to any Place within the Juriſdiction of the Cinque Ports, that then every ſuch Commiſſion ſhall be directed unto the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports for the time being, or to his Lieutenant, and unto ſuch other Perſons as the Lord High Chancellor, or Keeper of the Great Seal of England for the time being, or Commiſſioners for the Cuſtody of the Great Seal, ſhall name and appoint; and likewiſe that every Inquiſition and Trial, to be had by virtue of ſuch Commiſſion ſo directed and ſent to any Place in the ſaid Cinque Ports, ſhall be made and had by the Inhabitants of the ſaid Cinque Ports, or the Members of the ſame; any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

How Commiſſions for trying of Offences within the Juriſdiction of the Cinque Ports ſhall be directed, and Inquiſition made.

XVII. And for the Prevention of Seamen deſerting of Merchant Ships Abroad in Parts beyond the Seas, which is the chief Occaſion of their turning Pirates, and of great Detriment to Trade and Navigation in general; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all ſuch Seamen, Officers or Sailors, who ſhall deſert the Ships or Veſſels wherein they are hired to ſerve for that Voyage, ſhall for ſuch Offence forfeit all ſuch Wages as ſhall be then due to him or them.

Seamen deſerting Merchant Ships to loſe their Wages.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any Maſter of a Merchant Ship or Veſſel ſhall, after the Nine and twentieth Day of September, One thouſand and ſeven hundred, during his being Abroad, force any Man on Shore, or wilfully leave him behind in any of His Majeſty's Plantations, or elſewhere, or ſhall refuſe to bring Home with him again all ſuch of the Men which he carried out with him, as are in a Condition to return, when he ſhall be ready to proceed in his Homeward-bound Voyage, every ſuch Maſter ſhall, being thereof legally convicted, ſuffer Three Months Impriſonment without Bail or Mainprize.

Penalty on Maſter, &c. forcing Seaman on Shore, or refuſing to bring him Home.

II. And whereas the holding of Perſons inhabiting within the ſaid Principality of Wales, and Counties Palatine, to ſpecial Bail in ſmall Actions, is oppreſſive and vexatious to the Subject: For Remedy whereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Sheriff or other Officer within the ſaid Principality or Counties Palatine, upon any Writ or Proceſs iſſuing out of any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, ſhall hold any Perſon to ſpecial Bail, unleſs an Affidavit be firſt made in Writing, and filed in that Court, out of which ſuch Writ or Proceſs is to iſſue, ſignifying the Cauſe of Action, and that the ſame is Twenty Pounds and upwards; and where the Cauſe of Action is Twenty Pounds and upwards, Bail ſhall not be taken for more than the Sum expreſſed in ſuch Affidavit.

No Sheriff, &c. in Wales, &c. ſhall hold Perſons to ſpecial Bail, unleſs Cauſe of Action be 20*l*.

CAP. X.

An Act for the more effectual employing the Poor, by encouraging the Manufactures of this Kingdom.

WHEREAS it is moſt evident, that the Continuance of the Trade to the Eaſt Indies, in the ſame Manner and Proportions as it hath been for Two Years laſt paſt, muſt inevitably be to the great Detriment of this Kingdom, by exhauſting the Treaſure thereof, and melting down the Coin, and taking away the Labour of the People, whereby very many of the Manufacturers of this Nation are become exceſſively burdenſome and chargeable to their reſpective Pariſhes, and others are thereby compelled to ſeek for Employment in foreign Parts: For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and After 29 Sept. 1701. no Wrought Silks, &c. of Perſia, China, or India, or Calicoes, &c. ſhall be worn, &c.

Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Twenty ninth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, all Wrought Silks, Bengalls, and Stuffs mixed with Silk or Herba, of the Manufacture of Perſia, China, or Eaſt India, and all Calicoes, painted, dyed, printed, or ſtained there, which are or ſhall be imported into this Kingdom, ſhall not be worn, or otherwiſe uſed within this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, but under ſuch Limitations as are herein after mentioned and expreſſed.

after Entry thereof ſhall be put into Warehouſes, and ſhall be exported again, and not landed in England, &c.

Theſe Securities when to be void, 8 Annæ, c. 13. §. 24.

II. And for the better effecting the ſame, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Twenty ninth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, all ſuch Wrought Silks, Bengalls, and Stuffs mixed with Silk or Herba, of the Manufacture of Perſia, China, or Eaſt India, as aforeſaid, and all Calicoes, painted, dyed, printed, or ſtained there, which are or ſhall be imported into this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, ſhall, after Entry thereof, be forthwith carried and put into ſuch Warehouſe or Warehouſes, as ſhall be for that Purpoſe approved of by the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms for the time being, ſo as none of them ſhall be taken or carried out thence upon any Account whatſoever, other than in order for Exportation, and not until ſufficient Security be firſt given to the King's Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors (which the ſaid Commiſſioners are hereby required and impowered to take) that the ſame and every Part thereof ſhall be exported, and not landed again in any Part of this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed; which ſaid Securities ſhall be diſcharged without any Fee or Reward, upon Certificate returned under the Common Seal of the Chief Magiſtrate in any Place or Places beyond the Seas, or under the Hands and Seals of Two known Engliſh Merchants upon the Place, that ſuch Goods were there landed, or upon Proof by credible Perſons that ſuch Goods were taken by Enemies, or periſhed in the Seas; the Examination and Proof thereof being left to the Judgment of the ſaid Commiſſioners; and all ſuch of the aforeſaid Goods, whether the ſame ſhall be mixed, ſewed, or made up together for Sale, with any other Goods or Materials, or otherwiſe, which ſhall be found in any Houſe, Shop, or Warehouſe, or other Place whatſoever (other than in ſuch Warehouſes as ſhall be approved of by the ſaid Commiſſioners, as aforeſaid) ſhall be forfeited, and ſubject and liable to be ſearched for, and ſeized, in like Manner as prohibited and uncuſtomed Goods are, by an Act (intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds, and regulating Abuſes in His Majeſty's Cuſtoms) made in the Fourteenth Year of the Reign of our late Sovereign Lord King CHARLES the Second; and all ſuch Goods, ſo forfeited as aforeſaid, ſhall, upon Seizure thereof, be carried to the next Cuſtom Houſe, and after Condemnation ſhall be ſold to the beſt Advantage for Exportation, at publick Sale by Candle; the Buyer and Buyers giving Security for the Exportation thereof, in Manner as aforeſaid; and One Third Part of the Monies to be raiſed by ſuch Sale ſhall be paid to the King's Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Two Third Parts thereof to him, her, or them that ſhall ſeize or proſecute for the ſame; and over and above the Loſs of the ſaid Goods, the Perſon or Perſons in whoſe Cuſtody, knowing thereof, the ſame ſhall be found or ſeized, or that ſhall ſell or diſpoſe thereof to any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, ſhall forfeit and loſe the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, One Third Part thereof to the King's Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Two Third Parts thereof to ſuch Perſon or Perſons that ſhall ſue for the ſame, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, Suit, or Information, in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, ſhall be allowed, or any more than One Imparlance.

Penalty.

14 Car. 2. c. 11.

Goods forfeited to be ſold, &c.

Penalty on importing ſuch Goods, otherwiſe than into the Port of London, and there making Entry thereof.

III. And for preventing all clandeſtine importing or bringing into this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, any of the aforeſaid Goods hereby prohibited, or intended to be prohibited, from being worn or uſed in England; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons, or Bodies Corporate, from and after the ſaid Twenty ninth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, ſhall import or bring into any Port of or in this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, other than the Port of London, any of the aforeſaid prohibited Goods, or into the Port of London, and ſhall not make due Entries of ſuch Goods ſo imported, or brought in, the ſame ſhall be, and is hereby adjudged, deemed, accounted, and taken to be clandeſtine running thereof, and ſuch Perſon or Perſons, or Bodies Corporate, ſo offending therein, and their Abettors, ſhall not only forfeit and loſe the ſaid Goods ſo clandeſtinely run, as aforeſaid, but alſo the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, to be recovered and divided in ſuch Manner as aforeſaid.

Proof where Goods were manufactured to lie on the Owner.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if any Queſtion or Doubt ſhall ariſe where the ſaid Goods were manufactured, the Proof ſhall lie upon the Owner or Owners thereof, and not upon the Proſecutor; any Law, Uſage, or Cuſtom to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Treble Coſts.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action, Bill, Plaint, Suit, or Information, ſhall be commenced or proſecuted againſt any Perſon or Perſons, for any Seizure, or other Thing to be made or done, in purſuance or in execution of any Thing before in this Act contained, ſuch Perſon or Perſons, ſo ſued in any Court whatſoever, may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act and the ſpecial Matter in Evidence, for their Excuſe or Juſtification; and if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, or Proſecutor or Proſecutors, ſhall become Nonſuit, or forbear Proſecution, or ſuffer Diſcontinuance, or if a Verdict paſs againſt him, her, or them, in any ſuch Action, Bill, Plaint, Suit, or Information, as aforeſaid, the Defendant or Defendants ſhall have Treble Coſts, for which they ſhall have the like Remedy, as in any Caſe where Coſts by Law are given to the Defendant.

Warehouſe-keepers to enter all Goods brought in or carried out of their Warehouſes, &c.

VI. And for preventing clandeſtinely carrying out of the ſaid Warehouſes any of the ſaid Goods hereby prohibited, and by this Act intended for Exportation, as aforeſaid; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Warehouſe-keeper or Warehouſe-keepers ſhall keep One or more Book or Books, wherein he or they ſhall fairly enter or write down an exact, particular, and true Account of all and every Cheſt, Bale, and Number of Pieces therein contained, of ſuch of the aforeſaid Goods only, which ſhall be brought into, and carried out of, his or their ſaid Warehouſe or Warehouſes, and the Days and Times when the ſame ſhall be ſo brought in and carried out; and ſhall every Six Months in the Year tranſmit in Writing an exact Account thereof, upon Oath, to the ſaid Commiſſioners, together with an exact Account how much ſhall be remaining in his or their ſaid Warehouſe or Warehouſes reſpectively; and the ſaid Commiſſioners are hereby impowered and injoined, within One Month after the ſame ſhall be tranſmitted to them, as aforeſaid, to appoint One or more Perſon or Perſons to inſpect the ſaid Book or Books, Warehouſe or Warehouſes, and examine the ſaid Accounts, and to lay a true Account of the ſame before the Parliament, within the firſt Week of every Seſſions thereof; and if upon Examination it ſhall appear, that any of the aforeſaid Goods were carried out, unleſs for Exportation, or before ſufficient Security given for their Exportation, as aforeſaid, that then the Warehouſe-keeper or Warehouſe-keepers, ſo offending therein, ſhall not only forfeit and loſe the Value of the ſaid Goods ſo carried out, as aforeſaid, and be for ever diſabled from any publick Employment for the future, but ſhall alſo forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds for every ſuch Offence, to be recovered and divided in Manner as aforeſaid.

and give Account every 6 Month to Commiſſioners of Cuſtoms, &c.

Penalty.

VII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That this Act ſhall not extend to any Silks, Bengals, Stuffs mixed with Silk or Herba, or painted, dyed, printed, or ſtained Calicoes manufactured in Perſia, China, or Eaſt India, which ſhall have been made up and uſed in any Sort of Apparel or Furniture, before the ſaid Twenty ninth of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one.

Not to extend to Apparel, &c.

The Benefit of this Proviſo applied by 10 Geo. 1. c. 11. to Furniture made up before 25 Dec. 1722.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Proprietor or Proprietors of the ſaid Goods ſo lodged in any Warehouſe or Warehouſes, as aforeſaid, to affix One Lock to every ſuch Warehouſe or Warehouſes, the Key of which ſhall remain in the Cuſtody of the ſaid Proprietor or Proprietors; and that he or they may view, ſort, or deliver the ſaid Goods, in order for Exportation, as aforeſaid, in the Preſence of the ſaid Warehouſe-keeper or Warehouſe-keepers, who is and are hereby obliged, at ſeaſonable Times, to give Attendance for that Purpoſe.

Proprietors of ſuch Goods may affix One Lock to Warehouſe, &c.

IX. Provided alſo, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Perſon or Perſons, or Bodies Corporate, who ſhall, on or before the ſaid Twenty ninth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, import into this Kingdom, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, any of the Commodities aforeſaid, and ſhall, within the Space of Three Years from ſuch Importation, export the ſame again, ſhall be allowed and paid the ſeveral Duties payable upon the Exportation thereof, as fully as if the ſame had been exported within Twelve Months after the Importation thereof.

Goods imported before 29 Sept. and exported again 3 Years after, Duties on Exportation to be allowed.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Twenty ninth Day of September, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, there ſhall be no Cuſtoms or Duties whatſoever paid or ſecured to be paid for any of the ſaid Goods or Commodities, which ſhall be imported at any Time from and after the ſaid Twenty ninth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, other than and except the Half Subſidy, which is to remain by Law after the Goods are exported; but that all other Cuſtoms and Duties, now chargeable upon or payable for the ſaid Goods, ſhall from that Time ceaſe and determine.

After 29 Sept. no Duties to be paid for ſuch Goods imported, except the Half Subſidy.

CAP. XI.

An Act to repeal an Act made in the Ninth Year of His Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for rendring the Laws more effectual for preventing the Importation of Foreign Bone Lace, Loom Lace, Needle-work, Point and Cut-work, Three Months after the Prohibition of the Woollen Manufactures in Flanders ſhall be taken off.

WHEREAS great Complaints are daily made of the Decay of the Woollen Manufactures in this Kingdom, to the Impoveriſhment of many Thouſands of poor Families: And whereas by Experience it is found, that an Act made in the Ninth and Tenth Years of His now Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for rendring the Laws more effectual, for preventing the Importation of Foreign Bone Lace, Loom Lace, Needle-work, Point and Cut-work, has been One great Cauſe thereof, by being the Occaſion that our Woollen Manufactures are prohibited to be imported into Flanders: For Remedy therefore of the Miſchief aforeſaid, be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That at the End of Three Months, to commence from the Time of taking off the Prohibition of the Engliſh Woollen Manufactures in Flanders, the ſaid Act, and every Clauſe, Matter, and Thing therein contained, ſhall be and become hereby repealed, determined, and of no force.

CAP. XIV.

An Act for raiſing the Militia for the Year One thouſand ſeven hundred, although the Month's Pay formerly advanced be not repaid. EXP.

CAP. XV.

An Act for the aſcertaining the Meaſures for retailing Ale and Beer.

All Retailers of Ale and Beer to ſell the ſame by Standard Meaſure.

in Veſſels of Wood, Earth, &c. marked according to the Standard.

WHEREAS by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm all Inn-keepers, Alehouſe-keepers, and Victuallers, ought to utter and ſell their Ale and Beer by the Ale Quart, according to the Standard thereof, remaining in the Cuſtody of the Chamberlains of His Majeſty's Exchequer; the neglecting the Obſervance whereof, and ſelling and retailing their Ale and Beer in uncertain Meaſures, much leſs than the ſaid Standard, is found to be of evil Conſequence in hindring the Conſumption of malted Corn, and leſſening His Majeſty's Revenues of Exciſe, and a great Wrong and Prejudice to wayfaring Men, Travellers, Manufacturers, Labourers and others, and alſo to ſuch poor People whoſe Neceſſities force them to buy Ale and Beer from them: For Remedying whereof may it pleaſe Your moſt Gracious Majeſty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Four and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred, all Inn-keepers, Alehouſe-keepers, Sutlers, Victuallers, and other Retailers of Ale or Beer, and every Perſon and Perſons keeping any Publick-houſe, and retailing and ſelling Ale or Beer in any City, Town Corporate, Borough, Market Town, Village, Hamlet, Pariſh, Part, or Place whatſoever, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, ſhall retail, utter, and ſell their Ale and Beer, in and from their reſpective Houſes, by a full Ale Quart or Ale Pint, according to the ſaid Standard, or in Proportion thereunto, in a Veſſel made of Wood, Earth, Glaſs, Horn, Leather, Pewter, or of ſome other good and wholſome Metal, made, ſized, and equalled unto the ſaid Standard, and ſigned, ſtamped, or marked to be of the Content of the ſaid Ale Quart or Ale Pint, according to the ſaid Standard, either from the ſaid Exchequer, or from the City of London, or from ſome City, Town Corporate, Borough, or Market Town, where a Standard Ale Quart or Ale Pint, made from the ſaid Standard, ſhall be kept for that Purpoſe, and ſhall not retail and utter any Ale or Beer to any Perſon or Perſons in any other Veſſel not ſigned and marked as aforeſaid, on Pain to forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, nor leſs than Ten Shillings, for every ſuch Offence, to be recovered as herein after is provided.

Penalty on Retailer ſelling Ale or Beer in Veſſels not marked.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Inn-keeper, Alehouſe-keeper, Victualler, Sutler, or other Retailer aforeſaid, ſhall from and after the Nine and twentieth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred, retail, utter, or ſell any Ale or Beer in any Veſſel not ſigned, ſtamped or marked as aforeſaid, to any Traveller, or other Perſon or Perſons, or if in giving any Account or Reckoning in Writing or otherwiſe, ſuch Inn-keeper, Alehouſe-keeper, or other Retailer as aforeſaid, ſhall refuſe or deny to give in the particular Number of Quarts or Pints of Ale or Beer, for which Demand is made in ſuch Account, it ſhall not be lawful for any ſuch Inn-keeper, Alehouſe-keeper, or other Retailer as aforeſaid, for Default of Payment of ſuch Reckoning, to detain any Goods, or other Thing or Things belonging to the Perſon or Perſons from whom ſuch Reckoning ſhall be due, but ſhall be left to his Action at Law for the ſame; any Cuſtom or Uſage to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Collectors of the Exciſe to provide Ale Quarts, and Ale Pints of Braſs Standard Meaſure, for the Mayor, &c. of each City, &c. in their Diviſion, where no ſuch is already, &c.

Penalty on Collector making Default.

III. And for the better Execution of this Act, and to the Intent that Veſſels containing the ſaid Ale Quart and Ale Pint reſpectively, may be from time to time ſized and equalled according to the ſaid Standard, and ſigned, ſtamped and marked as aforeſaid, by the Mayor or other Chief Officer of each City, Town Corporate, Borough, and Market Town in England, Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, for all Inn-keepers, Alehouſe-keepers, Victuallers, and other Retailers as aforeſaid, procuring and deſiring the ſame; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Sub-Commiſſioners or Collectors of His Majeſty's Revenues of Exciſe, within their reſpective Circuits or Diviſions, ſhall forthwith provide and procure a ſubſtantial Ale Quart and Ale Pint, according to the Standard of the Meaſures aforeſaid remaining in the ſaid Exchequer, of Braſs, to be made, ſealed and certified from the ſaid Chamberlains of the ſaid Exchequer, without any Fee or Reward, for the Mayor or Chief Officer in each City, Town Corporate, Borough, and Market Town within his ſaid Diviſion, in which there is not already a Braſs Standard Ale Quart and Ale Pint, made and certified either from the ſaid Exchequer, or from the Lord Mayor of the City of London, in the Cuſtody or Power of ſuch Mayor or Chief Officer, and ſhall, on or before the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of June, cauſe the ſame to be delivered unto the Mayor or other Chief Officer in every City, Town Corporate, Borough, and Market Town within his ſaid Diviſion (which Chief Officer is hereby required to give a Receipt for the ſame; and the ſaid Standard Meaſures ſhall be delivered to every ſucceeding Officer) in which there is not already ſuch Braſs Standard Ale Quart and Ale Pint as aforeſaid, to be by them reſpectively ſafely kept for the Purpoſes aforeſaid; on Pain that each Sub-Commiſſioner or Collector, for every Default herein, ſhall forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds, to be recovered as aforeſaid.

Collector to charge the ſaid Meaſures in his Accounts, and be allowed the ſame.

IV. And it is hereby further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Sub-Commiſſioners or Collectors of Exciſe reſpectively, to deduct and detain their reſpective reaſonable Charges and Expences in the procuring, providing and delivering of ſuch Braſs Ale Quarts and Ale Pints to each Mayor or other Chief Officer within his ſaid Diviſion as aforeſaid, and to inſert the ſame in his next Account to be made or given to the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Revenues of Exciſe, who are hereby authorized and directed to allow of the ſame accordingly.

Mayor, &c. to cauſe all Meaſures ſized with ſuch Standard, to be marked,

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Mayor or Chief Officer of each City, Town Corporate, Borough or Market Town for the time being, from and after the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of June, ſhall from time to time, on Requeſt to him or them reſpectively made, cauſe or procure all ſuch Ale Quarts and Ale Pints made of Wood, Earth, Glaſs, Horn, Leather, Pewter, or other good and wholſome Metal, as ſhall be brought to him or them reſpectively, to be meaſured, compared, ſized and equalled with ſuch Standard Ale Quart and Ale Pint in their Cuſtodies; and ſhall then cauſe the ſame, and every of them, to be plainly and apparently ſigned, ſtamped, and marked with W. R. and a Crown, teſtifying that ſuch Ale Quarts and Ale Pints reſpectively have been ſo meaſured, compared, ſized, and equalled with ſuch their Standard, as aforeſaid; which Stamps or Marks the ſaid Mayor or Chief Officer are hereby reſpectively required to provide, and for which their ſtamping or marking they ſhall not demand or receive above One Farthing for each Meaſure; and in caſe any ſuch Mayor, or other Chief Officer, as aforeſaid, ſhall neglect or refuſe to perform and execute his Duty herein, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, he ſhall forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds, to be recovered as aforeſaid, and ſhall alſo render to the Party thereby grieved his treble Damages, together with Coſts of Suit, to be ſued for and recovered in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record, in which Suit there ſhall be no Protection, Wager of Law, or other Delay, other than One Imparlance.

and provide Stamps.
One Farthing a Meaſure to be paid for ſtamping.
Penalty on Mayor, &c.
The Univerſi'y Privileges are provided for by 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 11. §. 19.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act impoſed or inflicted ſhall be divided, One Half Part thereof to the Uſe of the Poor of the Pariſh where ſuch Forfeiture ſhall be made or committed, and the other Part to him or them that ſhall proſecute or ſue for the ſame, to be recovered by the Oath of One or more credible Witneſs, made before One or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace of the County, City, or Place, where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, who are hereby required and impowered to adminiſter an Oath to that Purpoſe, ſuch Perſon being proſecuted for ſuch Offence within Thirty Days next after ſuch Offence committed; and the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices are hereby reſpectively authorized to hear and determine the ſame, and to cauſe the Penalty to be levied (by Warrant under his or their Hands and Seals) upon the Goods and Chattels of the Offender, rendring to the Party the Overplus, if any ſhall be, deducting thereout the reaſonable Charges.

How Forfeitures ſhall be divided.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend or be conſtrued to extend to ſubject any Perſon or Perſons to the Penalties in this Act contained, or any of them, ſo as all ſuch Beer or Ale as ſhall be retailed, uttered, or ſold by ſuch Perſon or Perſons, to be ſpent out of the Houſe of ſuch Perſon or Perſons, be meaſured out by the Standard, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, although ſuch Drink be carried away in any other Veſſel, or of any other Quantity or Quality than the Ale Quart before mentioned.

Act not to ſubject Retailers to Penalty for Drink ſold out of their Houſes, ſo it be meaſured by the Standard.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action or Suit ſhall be brought and proſecuted by any Perſon or Perſons againſt any Juſtice of the Peace, or other Perſon or Perſons imployed by them, or any of them, in the Execution of this Act, for any Matter, Cauſe, or Thing by them, or either of them, done, committed, or executed, by Virtue or Reaſon of this Act, or any Clauſe or Article therein contained, that then, and in every ſuch Caſe, the Action ſhall be laid in the proper County where the Fact was done and committed, and not elſewhere; and the Defendant and Defendants may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act and the ſpecial Matter in Evidence at the Trial, that the ſame was done in purſuance and by Authority of this Act; and if upon ſuch Action or Actions Verdict be given for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff become Nonſuit, or diſcontinue his Action, then the Defendant or Defendants ſhall have Treble Coſts, which he or they ſhall ſuſtain, or be put unto, by reaſon of his or their wrongful Vexation in Defence of the ſaid Action or Suit.

Action to be laid in the County where Fact is.
General Iſſue,
Treble Coſts.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Juſtices of the Peace within the ſeveral Counties and Cities of this Kingdom are hereby required, at their reſpective General Quarter Seſſions, to give the Matters contained in this Act in Charge to the Grand Juries of the reſpective Counties and Cities within this Kingdom.

Juſtices at the Seſſions to give this Act in Charge.

X. Provided, and it is hereby declared and enacted, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend or be conſtrued to extend to any Colleges or Halls in either of the Univerſities of this Kingdom; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Act not to extend to Colleges, &c.

CAP. XVI.

An Act for the better aſcertaining the Tithes of Hemp and Flax.

WHEREAS an Act made in the Third Year of the Reign of His Majeſty and the late Queen, intituled, An Act for the better aſcertaining the Tithes of Hemp and Flax, was made to continue but for Seven Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament after ſuch Term ended, and is now expired: And whereas the ſaid Act hath by Experience been found very uſeful and neceſſary; be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Five and twentieth Day of March, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred, all and every Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall ſow or cauſe to be ſown any Hemp or Flax in any Pariſh or Place in the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, ſhall pay or cauſe to be paid to every Parſon, Vicar, or Impropriator of any ſuch Pariſh or Place, yearly and every Year, the Sum of Five Shillings, and no more, for each Acre of Hemp and Flax ſo ſown, before the ſame be carried off the Ground, and ſo proportionably for more or leſs Ground ſo ſown; for the Recovery of which Sum or Sums of Money, the Parſon, Vicar, or Impropriator, ſhall have the common and uſual Remedy allowed of by Laws of the Land.

CAP. XIX.

An Act to enable Juſtices of Peace to build and repair Gaols in their reſpective Counties.

Made perpetual 6 Geo. 1 c. 19.

Juſtices of Peace on Preſentment of the Grand Jury, &c. of the Inſufficiency, &c. of any Gaol, &c. may agree on a Sum for building or repairing a publick Gaol, and may charge the Sums to be levied on the ſeveral Hundreds, &c. of the County.

WHEREAS for want of due Repair, ſeveral Gaols and Priſons within this Realm are become prejudicial to the Health of Priſoners, and inſufficient for the ſafe Cuſtody of them; be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Juſtices of the Peace, or the greater Number of them, within the Limits of their Commiſſions, upon Preſentment of the Grand Jury or Grand Juries, at the Aſſize, Great Seſſions, and general Gaol Delivery held for the ſaid County, of the Inſufficiency or Inconveniency of their Gaol or Priſon, to conclude and agree upon ſuch Sum or Sums of Money, as upon Examination of able and ſufficient Workmen ſhall be thought neceſſary for the building, finiſhing, or repairing a publick Goal or Goals belonging to the Shire or County whereof they are Juſtices of the Peace; and by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, or under the Hands and Seals of the greater Number of them, by equal Proportion to diſtribute and charge the Sum or Sums of Money to be levied for the Uſes aforeſaid, upon the ſeveral Hundreds, Lathes, Wapentakes, Rapes, Wards, or other Diviſions of the ſaid County; and the Juſtices of the Peace are hereby authorized and impowered at the General Quarter Seſſions held for the reſpective Diviſion of the ſaid County, to direct their Warrants or Precepts to High Conſtables, Petty Conſtables, Bailiffs, or other Officer or Officers, as they in their Diſcretion ſhall think moſt convenient, for levying and collecting the ſame.

If Perſons refuſe to pay the Aſſeſſment,

Collector may levy the ſame by Diſtreſs.

II. And be it further enacted and declared, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall refuſe or neglect to pay his or their Aſſeſſment, by the Space of Four Days after Demand thereof by the proper Officer appointed to collect the ſame, or ſhall convey away his or their Goods or Eſtate, whereby the Sum or Sums of Money ſo aſſeſſed cannot be levied, then it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Collectors, by Warrants from any One of the Juſtices of the Peace preſent at the ſaid General Quarter Seſſions, as aforeſaid, to levy the Sum ſo aſſeſſed by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of ſuch Perſons ſo refuſing or neglecting to pay, and the Goods and Chattels then and there found, and the Diſtreſs ſo taken, to keep by the Space of Four Days at the Coſts and Charges of the Owner thereof; and if the ſaid Owner do not pay the Sum or Sums of Money ſo rated or aſſeſſed, within the Space of the ſaid Four Days, then the ſaid Diſtreſs to be appraiſed by Two or more of the Inhabitants, where the ſame ſhall be taken, or other ſufficient Perſons, and to be ſold by the Collector for Payment of the ſaid Money, and the Overplus of ſuch Sale (if any be) over and above the Sum ſo aſſeſſed, and Charges of taking and keeping of the Diſtreſs, to be immediately returned to the Owner thereof; and the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace are hereby authorized and impowered, under their Hands and Seals, or under the Hands and Seals of the greater Number of them, to conſtitute and appoint One or more ſufficient Perſon or Perſons to be Receiver of the Money ſo aſſeſſed; the ſaid Receiver, firſt giving Security to be accountable, when thereunto required, for all Sums of Money received or diſburſed by him in purſuance of ſuch Order as he ſhall have received, under the Hands and Seals of the Juſtices of the Peace, or the greater Number of them; and if the ſaid Receiver or Receivers, High Conſtable, Petty Conſtable, or other Officers, ſhall, by the Space of Four Days after Demand, refuſe to account for all Sums of Money received by them, in purſuance of this Act, then it ſhall and may be lawful for the Juſtices of the Peace, or the greater Number of them, to commit him or them to Priſon, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, until he or they ſhall have made a true Account, ſatisfied, or paid ſuch Sum or Sums of Money, as ſhall appear to remain in his or their Hands; and the Receipt of ſuch Receiver ſhall be a ſufficient Diſcharge to all High Conſtables, Petty Conſtables, or other Officer or Officers paying their Proportion of ſuch Aſſeſſments; and the Diſcharge under the Hands and Seals of the Juſtices of the Peace, or the greater Number of them, at the Aſſize, Great Seſſions, and general Gaol Delivery, to ſuch their Receivers, ſhall be deemed and allowed as a good and ſufficient Releaſe, Acquittance, or Diſcharge in any Court of Law or Equity, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatever; and the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace are hereby authorized and impowered to covenant, contract, and agree with any Perſon or Perſons, for the well and ſufficient building, finiſhing, or repairing of the ſaid Gaol or Gaols.

Juſtices to appoint a Receiver, who ſhall give Security.

Penalty on Receiver, Collector, &c. refuſing to account.

Receiver's Receipt a Diſcharge to Collectors.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Murderers and Felons ſhall be impriſoned in the ſaid Common Gaol, and not elſewhere, and that the Sheriff ſhall have the keeping of the ſaid Gaols.

Murderers and Felons to be kept in the Common Gaols.

IV. Provided always, That this Act be not in any wiſe hurtful or prejudicial to any Perſon or Perſons, having any Common Gaol by Inheritance for Term of Life, or for Years, but that they ſhall have and enjoy the ſaid Gaols, and the Profits, Fees, and Commodities of the ſame, as they had or might lawfully have had before making this Act, and as if this Act never had been made.

Act not to prejudice Gaols held by Inheritance, &c.

V. Provided, That this Act ſhall not extend to charge any Perſon inhabiting in any Liberty, City, Town, or Borough Corporate, which have Common Gaols for Felons taken in the ſame, and Commiſſions of Aſſize, or Gaol Delivery of ſuch Felons, for any Aſſeſſment to the making the Common Gaol or Gaols of the reſpective Shire or County.

Inhabitants in any Liberty, &c. who have a Common Gaol, not chargeable.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action, Plaint, Suit, or Information ſhall be commenced or proſecuted againſt any Perſon or Perſons, for what he or they ſhall do in purſuance or in execution of this Act, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo ſued in any Court whatever, ſhall and may plead the General Iſſue, Not Guilty, and upon any Iſſue joined may give this Act and the ſpecial Matter in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff or Proſecutor ſhall become Nonſuit, or forbear further Proſecution, or ſuffer a Diſcontinuance, or if a Verdict paſs againſt him, the Defendants ſhall recover their Treble Coſts, for which they ſhall have the like Remedy, as in any caſe when Coſts by the Law are given to Defendants.

General Iſſue,

Treble Coſts.

VII. And be it further enacted, That where any Priſons or Gaols belonging to any County of this Realm, or the Dominions of Wales, are ſituate upon any Lands or Hereditaments of or belonging to the King's Majeſty in Right of the Crown, that the ſaid Lands and Hereditaments, with their and every of their Appurtenances, ſhall not at any Time be alienated from the Crown, but remain and be for the publick Service and Benefit of the County.

If Gaols be ſituate on the Crown Lands, ſuch Lands ſhall not be alienable.

VIII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That it ſhall not be lawful for any Collector or other Officer to enter into the Manſion-houſe of any Peer or Peereſs of this Realm, to diſtrain for the Duties aforeſaid.

No Officer to enter into Peer's Houſe to diſtrain, &c.

IX. Provided, That this Act ſhall continue and be in force for the Space of Ten Years, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer. Made perpetual by 6 Geo. 1. cap. 19. ſect. 1.

Act to continue 10 Years.
1 Geo. 1. c. 26.

CAP. XX.

An Act for taking away the Duties upon the Woollen Manufactures, Corn, Grain, Bread, Biſcuit, and Meal exported.

WHEREAS certain Subſidies or Duties, which were payable upon the Exportation of the Woollen Manufactures, as well of the old as the new Draperies, by the Act of Tunnage and Poundage, made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, and by the Book of Rates thereunto annexed (except ſuch Part thereof as hath been taken away by an Act made in the Five and twentieth Year of the Reign of the ſaid late King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for taking off Aliens Duties upon Commodities of the Growth, Product, and Manufacture of the Nation) are, by an Act of Parliament, made and paſſed in the Eighth Year of His now Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for making good the Deficiencies of ſeveral Funds therein mentioned, and for enlarging the Capital Stock of the Bank of England; and for raiſing the publick Credit, granted to continue until the Firſt Day of Auguſt, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix: And whereas by an Act of Parliament, which was made in the Fourteenth Year of the Reign of the ſaid late King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds, and regulating Abuſes, in His Majeſty's Cuſtoms, all Woollen Manufactures, exported from any Port of this Kingdom, capable of a Ship or Veſſel of Two hundred Tuns upon an ordinary full Sea, to any Part or Place of the Mediterranean Sea, beyond the Port of Malaga, in any Ship or Veſſel that hath not Two Decks, and doth carry leſs than Sixteen Pieces of Ordnance mounted, together with Two Men for each Gun, and other Ammunition proportionable, are (amongſt other Things) liable to a further Duty of One per Centum; as by the ſaid ſeveral Acts, Relation being thereunto had, may more fully appear: And whereas the Wealth and Proſperity of this Kingdom doth, in a great Meaſure, depend upon the Improvement of its Woollen Manufactures, and the profitable Trade carried on by the Exportation of the ſame, which Trade ought, by all proper Means, to be encouraged; be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Thirtieth Day of March, One thouſand and ſeven hundred, all and every the Subſidies, Duties, and Sums of Money, by the Acts before-mentioned, or any of them, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament, or Law whatſoever now in force, granted, continued, due, or payable, or to grow due or payable, for or upon the Exportation of any Long Cloths, Short Cloths, Kerſeys, Bays, or Serges, Cottons, Stuffs, Stockings, Hats, Caps, or any other Manufactures of Wooll, or made of Sheeps Wooll, or Coney Wooll, or mixed with any or either of them, and which are or ſhall be made or manufactured within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, ſhall ceaſe, determine, and be no longer due or payable to His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, for ſo much as ſhall be exported after the ſaid Thirtieth Day of March; the aforeſaid Acts of Parliament or any of them, or any other Law, Statute, Ordinance, Cuſtom, Preſcription, or Proviſion whatſoever to the contrary notwithſtanding.

IV. And for the greater Encouragement of Tillage, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Thirtieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred, the Subſidy and all other Duties whatſoever payable for or upon the Exportation of Wheat, Rye, Barley, Malt, Beans, Peaſe, and other Sorts of Corn and Grain whatſoever, ground or unground, and for and upon the Exportation of Bread, Biſcuit, and Meal, or any of them, out of or from the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, as to ſo much of the ſaid Commodities, or any of them, as ſhall be ſo exported after the ſaid Thirtieth Day of March, ſhall ceaſe, determine, and be no longer due or payable to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors; any Law, Statute, Uſage, or Preſcription to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. XXI.

An Act for the Explanation and better Execution of former Acts made touching Watermen and Wherrymen rowing on the River of Thames, and for the better ordering and governing the ſaid Watermen, Wherrymen, and Lightermen, upon the ſaid River between Graveſend and Windſor.

Further Proviſions in relation to Matters, &c. in this Act by 2 Geo. c. c. 26.

WHEREAS, notwithſtanding the Laws that have been heretofore made for good Order, Rule, and Government amongſt the Watermen and Wherrymen, uſing and rowing on the ſaid River of Thames, it hath oftentimes happened, that divers People paſſing by Water upon the ſaid River, have been put in Danger of their Lives and Goods, and many Times have periſhed and been drowned, and this occaſioned by the Unſkilfulneſs and Want of Experience in Wherrymen and Watermen, and Perſons out of the Rule of any Maſter or Governor; and for that in and by the ſaid Acts, the Rulers and Overſeers of the Company or Society of Watermen are not ſufficiently impowered to make Rules, Orders, and Conſtitutions, for the Order, Rule, and Government of the Watermen and Wherrymen rowing on the ſaid River, with Pains and Penalties to enforce their due Obedience to ſuch Orders, Rules, and Conſtitutions, and eaſy Recovery of the ſaid Penalties: And whereas the Lightermen, rowing on the ſaid River of Thames, are grown very numerous, and are at preſent without Rule and Government amongſt them, by whoſe Rudeneſs and Unſkilfulneſs in working of Lighters and other large Craft, Ships and Veſſels are hindred in the Delivery of Coals, and thereby frequently ſtopped in the Proceed of their Voyages, and the Goods and Lives of divers of His Majeſty's Subjects are likewiſe frequently endangered and loſt, and notorious Diſorders are occaſioned: For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all and every Law and Statute now in force, touching or concerning Watermen and Wherrymen, and every Article and Thing in them contained, and not herein or hereby altered or repealed, ſhall be duly put in Execution by all Perſons therein concerned, according to the Tenor of the ſaid Laws, and under the Penalties therein contained; and that all and every Perſon being a Lighterman or Owner of any Lighter or Lighters, or having and keeping any Lighter or other large Craft, or working in the ſame between Graveſend and Windſor, ſhall be, and be deemed and taken to be of One and the ſame Society or Company with the ſaid Wherrymen and Watermen; and the ſaid Wherrymen, Watermen, and Lightermen, are declared to be, and are hereby made and conſtituted, One Society and Company, and as ſuch ſhall be hereafter deemed and taken.

All Laws concerning Watermen, &c. to be put in Execution.

Lightermen, Wherrymen, &c. made One Company.

Lightermen to be regiſtred at Watermens Hall.

Exception.

See 4 Annæ, c. 19. §. 18.

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon and Perſons, who now keep, or ſhall hereafter keep or work, or ſhall be employed in rowing or any ways navigating any Lighter or Lighters, or other great Craft, on the River of Thames (Trinity Men, Fiſhermen, Ballaſt Men, Weſtern Barges, and Mill Boats, Chalk Hoys, Faggot and Wood Lighters, and other Craft carrying the ſame excepted) ſhall be duly and truly regiſtered in a Book or Books for that Purpoſe to be kept by the Company of Watermen and Lightermen, and ſhall likewiſe be liable to ſuch Orders, Rules, and Conſtitutions, made or to be made, for the better Rule and Government of the ſaid Society or Company of Watermen and Lightermen, and the Pains and Penalties to enforce due Obedience thereunto.

Rulers, &c. to be elected yearly,

III. And be it alſo enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be yearly appointed, elected, and choſen, by the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London for the time being, the Number of Eight Perſons, of the moſt wiſe, diſcreet, and beſt Sort of Watermen, and the Number of Three Perſons, out of Twelve Perſons to be yearly nominated by the Lightermen, of the moſt wiſe, diſcreet, and beſt Sort of Lightermen, being Houſholders, having Two Lighters or Flat Boats upon the ſaid River, between Graveſend and Windſor; which Elections ſhall be yearly at the Firſt Court of Aldermen to be holden within the ſaid City, next after the Firſt Day of June; and the ſaid Eleven Perſons ſo elected ſhall be named and called The Overſeers and Rulers of all the Wherrymen, Watermen, and Lightermen, that from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of June, ſhall uſe, occupy, or exerciſe any Rowing upon the ſaid River of Thames betwixt Graveſend and Windſor aforeſaid; which ſaid Overſeers and Rulers ſhall keep and maintain good Orders and Obedience amongſt the ſaid Watermen and Lightermen, according to the true Meaning of this preſent and former Acts; and the ſaid Eleven Overſeers and Rulers, or the greater Part of them, are hereby authorized from time to time to convene and call before them, at the Hall of the ſaid Company, within the City of London and Liberties thereof, all and every ſuch Perſon or Perſons, which from and after the Nine and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred, ſhall keep or uſe in rowing or any ways navigating any Lighter or other great Craft (except as before excepted) betwixt Graveſend and Windſor aforeſaid, and ſhall enter and regiſter the Name and Names of them and every of them for Lightermen Overplus how applied.

XIII. And whereas great Numbers of idle and looſe Watermen and Boys do work on the Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday, and exact large Prices from Paſſengers, whoſe neceſſary Occaſions oblige them to paſs and repaſs the River of Thames, and generally ſpend ſuch their Gains in Drunkenneſs and Profaneneſs the ſucceeding Week: For Prevention whereof, and to the end that what ſhall be got thereby, may be applied to the charitable Relief of ſuch aged and maimed Watermen and Lightermen, their Widows and Children, whoſe Circumſtances want Aſſiſtance; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Firſt Day of June next, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Rulers and Overſeers, Auditors and Aſſiſtants, of the ſaid Society and Company for the time being, or the major Part of them, on their reſpective Court Days, to appoint any Number of Watermen, not exceeding Forty, to ply and work on every Lord's Day between Vaux Hall above London Bridge, and Lime-houſe, below the ſame Bridge, at ſuch common Stairs or Places of plying, as to the Rulers and Overſeers, Auditors and Aſſiſtants, or the major Part of them, ſhall ſeem moſt convenient, for the carrying and recarrying of Paſſengers croſs the ſaid River, between the Limits aforeſaid, at One Penny each Perſon ſo to be carried; and all the Watermen ſo to be appointed on every the Days aforeſaid, ſhall, on every Monday Morning reſpectively, pay unto the Order of the ſaid Overſeers and Rulers, Auditors and Aſſiſtants, all ſuch Sum and Sums of Money as by them reſpectively ſhall be received for conveying Paſſengers on the Lord's Day as aforeſaid; and the ſaid Overſeers and Rulers, Auditors and Aſſiſtants, or the major Part of them, or their Order, ſhall pay to each reſpective Waterman working as aforeſaid, for his Day's Labour ſo much as they ſhall agree for, and the Overplus ſhall from time to time be applied to the Uſe of the poor, aged, decayed, and maimed Watermen and Lightermen of the ſaid Society and Company, and their Widows; and if any Perſon appointed to work, as aforeſaid, ſhall neglect to pay on every Monday to the Order aforeſaid, the full Sum of Money that he ſhall have earned and received on the Lord's Day next before, he ſhall for every ſuch Omiſſion or ſhort Payment forfeit and pay to the Order of the ſaid Overſeers and Rulers, Auditors and Aſſiſtants, or the major Part of them, the Sum of Forty Shillings, to be recovered, as aforeſaid.

Penalty on Waterman not paying the Money received.

XIV. Provided always, That this Act, or any Thing therein contained, ſhall not extend, or be conſtrued to extend to the leſſening, taking away, abridging, hindring, prejudicing, or otherwiſe howſoever impeaching of any Right belonging to or lawfully claimed by the late Charles Duke of Richmond and Lenox, Lord of the Manor of Graveſend, his Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, for the holding a certain Court within the ſaid Manor, called Curia curſus aquæ, or, The Court of the Watercourſe, for the better Government of Barges, Boats, and Veſſels, uſing the Ferry or Paſſage from the Town of Graveſend, to London, and of the Perſons owning or working the ſame, or of any other Rights, Liberties, Powers, and Privileges whatſoever belonging to the ſaid late Duke, his Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, relating to the ſaid Ferry or Paſſage, or to the Barges, Tilt-boats, or other Boats and Veſſels uſing the ſaid Ferry or Paſſage, or plying at the Bridge of the ſaid Town of Graveſend, or the Perſons owning or working the ſame, or otherwiſe howſoever.

Act not to abridge the late Duke of Richmond's Right of holding a Court in Graveſend, &c. called Curia curſus aquæ.

XV. Provided always, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend, or be conſtrued to extend to the leſſening, taking away, abridging, hindring, prejudicing, or impeaching of any Grants, Liberties, Franchiſes, Cuſtoms, Privileges, or Uſages, now or heretofore lawfully uſed, held, or enjoyed, by the Mayor, Jurats, and Capital Inhabitants of the Villages and Pariſhes of Graveſend and Milton in the County of Kent, touching, concerning, or relating to the Paſſage and Ferry upon the ſaid River of Thames, from the ſaid Villages and Pariſhes of Graveſend and Milton, to the ſaid City of London, or touching or concerning the Government or Gubernation of the ſaid Paſſage and Ferry; but that the ſaid Mayor, Jurats, and Inhabitants, and their Succeſſors, ſhall and may do and execute all and every ſuch lawful Act and Acts, Powers and Authorities, touching the ſaid Paſſage and Ferry, and the Government thereof, as they might or could have done, if this Act had not been made; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Nor to leſſen, &c. the Liberties, &c. of the Inhabitants of Graveſend, &c. relating to the Ferry from Graveſend to London, &c.

XVI. Provided always, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to hinder or prevent the Watermen of the Pariſh of Saint Margaret, Weſtminſter, from plying or working croſs the River of Thames from Weſtminſter Bridge to Standgate, and from the Horſe Ferry to Lambeth Bridge, on every Lord's Day, in their ſeveral Turns, as they have lately accuſtomed and uſed to do; and the Money earned by them or any of them on that Day is hereby directed to be, from time to time, employed for the Uſe of the poor, aged, decayed, and maimed Watermen and their Widows of the Pariſh of Saint Margaret, Weſtminſter; and any Two Juſtices of the Peace of the ſaid Pariſh are hereby authorized, from time to time, to call the Watermen, ſo working, to account for the Monies by them earned on the Lord's Day, as aforeſaid, and to cauſe the ſame to be applied and diſpoſed as aforeſaid; and that the ſaid Watermen of the ſaid Pariſh of Saint Margaret for the time being ſhall chooſe Two Stewards and a Clerk on the Three and twentieth Day of April in every Year yearly, and ſuch Watermen of the ſaid Pariſh, or the major Part of them, which ſhall be preſent at a Meeting of their Society, ſhall, and have hereby Power to appoint ſuch of the Watermen of the ſaid Pariſh, as ſhall in their reſpective Turns work on the Lord's Days, as aforeſaid; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

E X P.

An Act for renewing the Bills of Credit, commonly called, Exchequer Bills.

CAP. II.

An Act for the further Limitation of the Crown, and better ſecuring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject.

1 W. & M. ſſ. 2. c. 2.

WHEREAS in the Firſt Year of the Reign of Your Majeſty, and of our late moſt gracious Sovereign Lady Queen MARY (of bleſſed Memory) an Act of Parliament was made, intituled, An Act for declaring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, and for ſettling the Succeſſion of the Crown, wherein it was (amongſt other Things) enacted, eſtabliſhed, and declared, That the Crown and Regal Government of the Kingdoms of England, France, and Ireland, and the Dominions thereunto belonging, ſhould be and continue to Your Majeſty and the ſaid late Queen, during the joynt Lives of Your Majeſty and the ſaid Queen, and to the Survivor: And that after the Deceaſe of Your Majeſty and of the ſaid Queen, the ſaid Crown and Regal Government ſhould be and remain to the Heirs of the Body of the ſaid late Queen: And for Default of ſuch Iſſue, to her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs ANNE of Denmark, and the Heirs of her Body: And for Default of ſuch Iſſue, to the Heirs of the Body of Your Majeſty. And it was thereby further enacted, That all and every Perſon and Perſons that then were, or afterwards ſhould be reconciled to, or ſhould hold Communion with the See or Church of Rome, or ſhould profeſs the Popiſh Religion, or marry a Papiſt, ſhould be excluded, and are by that Act made for ever uncapable to inherit, poſſeſs, or enjoy the Crown and Government of this Realm, and Ireland, and the Dominions thereunto belonging, or any Part of the ſame, or to have, uſe, or exerciſe any Regal Power, Authority, or Juriſdiction within the ſame: And in all and every ſuch Caſe and Caſes the People of theſe Realms ſhall be and are thereby abſolved of their Allegiance: And that the ſaid Crown and Government ſhall from time to time deſcend to and be enjoyed by ſuch Perſon or Perſons, being Proteſtants, as ſhould have inherited and enjoyed the ſame, in caſe the ſaid Perſon or Perſons, ſo reconciled, holding Communion, profeſſing, or marrying, as aforeſaid, were naturally dead. After the making of which Statute, and the Settlement therein contained, Your Majeſty's good Subjects, who were reſtored to the full and free Poſſeſſion and Enjoyment of their Religion, Rights, and Liberties, by the Providence of God giving Succeſs to Your Majeſty's juſt Undertakings and unwearied Endeavours for that Purpoſe, had no greater temporal Felicity to hope or wiſh for, than to ſee a Royal Progeny deſcending from Your Majeſty, to whom (under God) they owe their Tranquillity, and whoſe Anceſtors have for many Years been principal Aſſertors of the Reformed Religion and the Liberties of Europe, and from our ſaid moſt Gracious Sovereign Lady, whoſe Memory will always be precious to the Subjects of theſe Realms: And it having ſince pleaſed Almighty God to take away our ſaid Sovereign Lady, and alſo the moſt hopeful Prince WILLIAM Duke of Glouceſter (the only ſurviving Iſſue of Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs ANNE of Denmark) to the unſpeakable Grief and Sorrow of Your Majeſty and Your ſaid good Subjects, who under ſuch Loſſes being ſenſibly put in mind, that it ſtandeth wholly in the Pleaſure of Almighty God to prolong the Lives of Your Majeſty and of her Royal Highneſs, and to grant to Your Majeſty, or to her Royal Highneſs, ſuch Iſſue as may be inheritable to the Crown and Regal Government aforeſaid, by the reſpective Limitations in the ſaid recited Act contained, do conſtantly implore the Divine Mercy for thoſe Bleſſings: And Your Majeſty's ſaid Subjects having daily Experience of Your Royal Care and Concern for the preſent and future Welfare of theſe Kingdoms, and particularly recommending from Your Throne a further Proviſion to be made for the Succeſſion of the Crown in the Proteſtant Line, for the Happineſs of the Nation, and the Security of our Religion; and it being abſolutely neceſſary for the Safety, Peace, and Quiet of this Realm, to obviate all Doubts and Contentions in the ſame, by reaſon of any pretended Title to the Crown, and to maintain a Certainty in the Succeſſion thereof, to which Your Subjects may ſafely have Recourſe for their Protection, in caſe the Limitations in the ſaid recited Act ſhould determine: Therefore for a further Proviſion of the Succeſſion of the Crown in the Proteſtant Line, we Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, do beſeech Your Majeſty that it may be enacted and declared, and be it enacted and declared by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the moſt Excellent Princeſs SOPHIA, Electreſs and Dutcheſs Dowager of Hanover, Daughter of the moſt Excellent Princeſs ELIZABETH, late Queen of Bohemia, Daughter of our late Sovereign Lord King JAMES the Firſt, of happy Memory, be and is hereby declared to be the next in Succeſſion, in the Proteſtant Line, to the Imperial Crown and Dignity of the ſaid Realms of England, France, and Ireland, with the Dominions and Territories thereunto belonging, after His Majeſty, and the Princeſs ANNE of Denmark, and in Default of Iſſue of the ſaid Princeſs ANNE, and of His Majeſty reſpectively: And that from and after the Deceaſes of His ſaid Majeſty, our now Sovereign Lord, and of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs ANNE of Denmark, and for Default of Iſſue of the ſaid Princeſs ANNE, and of His Majeſty reſpectively, the Crown and Regal Government of the ſaid Kingdoms of England, France, and Ireland, and of the Dominions thereunto belonging, with the Royal State and Dignity of the ſaid Realms, and all Honours, Stiles, Titles, Regalities, Prerogatives, Powers, Juriſdictions and Authorities, to the ſame belonging and appertaining, ſhall be, remain, and continue to the ſaid moſt Excellent Princeſs SOPHIA, and the Heirs of her Body, being Proteſtants: And thereunto the ſaid Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, ſhall and will, in the Name of all the People of this Realm, moſt humbly and faithfully ſubmit themſelves, their Heirs and Poſterities; and do faithfully promiſe, That after the Deceaſes of His Majeſty, and Her Royal Highneſs, and the Failure of the Heirs of their reſpective Bodies, to ſtand to, maintain, and defend the ſaid Princeſs SOPHIA, and the Heirs of Her Body, being Proteſtants, according to the Limitation and Succeſſion of the Crown in this Act ſpecified and contained, to the utmoſt of their Powers, with their Lives and Eſtates, againſt all Perſons whatſoever that ſhall attempt any thing to the contrary.

Princeſs Sophia declared next Succeſſor to the Crown, after the King and Princeſs Anne of Denmark and their Iſſue, &c.

and to the Heirs of her Body, being Proteſtants.

II. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That all and every Perſon and Perſons, who ſhall or may take or inherit the ſaid Crown, by virtue of the Limitation of this preſent Act, and is, are or ſhall be reconciled to, or ſhall hold Communion with, the See or Church of Rome, or ſhall profeſs the Popiſh Religion, or ſhall marry a Papiſt, ſhall be ſubject to ſuch Incapacities, as in ſuch Caſe or Caſes are by the ſaid recited Act provided, enacted, and eſtabliſhed; and that every King and Queen of this Realm, who ſhall come to and ſucceed in the Imperial Crown of this Kingdom, by virtue of this Act, ſhall have the Coronation Oath adminiſtred to him, her or them, at their reſpective Coronations, according to the Act of Parliament made in the Firſt Year of the Reign of His Majeſty, and the ſaid late Queen MARY, intituled, An Act for eſtabliſhing the Coronation Oath, and ſhall make, ſubſcribe, and repeat the Declaration in the Act firſt above recited mentioned or referred to, in the Manner and Form thereby preſcribed.

and ſubſcribe the Declaration.

III. And whereas it is requiſite and neceſſary that ſome further Proviſion be made for ſecuring our Religion, Laws and Liberties, from and after the Death of His Majeſty and the Princeſs ANNE of Denmark, and in Default of Iſſue of the Body of the ſaid Princeſs, and of His Majeſty reſpectively; be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, Conditions for ſecuring the Religion, Laws, &c. in Default of Iſſue of the Princeſs Anne and the King.

THAT whoſoever ſhall hereafter come to the Poſſeſſion of this Crown, ſhall join in Communion with the Church of England, as by Law eſtabliſhed.

That in caſe the Crown and Imperial Dignity of this Realm ſhall hereafter come to any Perſon, not being a Native of this Kingdom of England, this Nation be not obliged to engage in any War for the Defence of any Dominions or Territories which do not belong to the Crown of England, without the Conſent of Parliament.

That no Perſon who ſhall hereafter come to the Poſſeſſion of this Crown, ſhall go out of the Dominions of England, Scotland, or Ireland, without Conſent of Parliament.

Repealed by 1 Geo. 1. ſtat. 2. c. 51.

That from and after the Time that the further Limitation by this Act ſhall take Effect, all Matters and Things relating to the well governing of this Kingdom, which are properly cognizable in the Privy Council by the Laws and Cuſtoms of this Realm, ſhall be tranſacted there, and all Reſolutions taken thereupon ſhall be ſigned by ſuch of the Privy Council as ſhall adviſe and conſent to the ſame.

Repealed by 4 Annæ, c. 8. §. 24.

Repealed by 1 Geo. 1. ſtat. 2. c. 51.

That after the ſaid Limitation ſhall take Effect as aforeſaid, no Perſon born out of the Kingdoms of England, Scotland, or Ireland, or the Dominions thereunto belonging (although he be naturalized or made a Denizen, except ſuch as are born of Engliſh Parents) ſhall be capable to be of the Privy Council, or a Member of either Houſe of Parliament, or to enjoy any Office or Place of Truſt, either Civil or Military, or to have any Grant of Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments from the Crown, to himſelf or to any other or others in Truſt for him.

This Clauſe extends not to Perſons naturalized at or before the Acceſſion of King Geo. 1. to the Crown.

That no Perſon who has an Office or Place of Profit under the King, or receives a Penſion from the Crown, ſhall be capable of ſerving as a Member of the Houſe of Commons.

4 Ann. c. 8.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be an able and ſkilful man, experienced in aſſaying of Gold and Silver, elected by the ſaid Company of Goldſmiths in each of the ſaid Cities reſpectively, for whom it ſhall and may be lawful to detain Eight Grains only from every Pound Troy of Silver he ſhall aſſay, Four Grains whereof ſhall be put into the Box of Diet, and the other Four Grains ſhall be allowed him towards his Waſte and Spillings in making the ſaid Aſſays; and who immediately after his Election, ſhall take the Oath following, viz.

An Aſſayer to be elected in each City, and allowed 8 Grains per Pound Troy of Silver.

I A. B. do ſwear, That I will be faithful and true to our Sovereign Lord King William, and will ſo long as I ſhall continue an Aſſayer, well and faithfully behave myſelf in the ſaid Office, and no undue Profit to myſelf take, to the hurting or hindrance of any Perſon that is Owner or Bringer in of any Gold or Silver in Plate to be aſſayed, except of Plate wrought only Four Grains of every Pound Weight, to be taken and put into the Box of Diet, and other Four Grains to be taken likewiſe of every Pound Weight of Plate wrought (and not otherwiſe) towards my Waſte and Spillings in making the ſaid Aſſays; and that I will touch no Gold nor Silver, but what ſhall be of the Goodneſs of, and according to the Standard of this Kingdom, which for the time being is or ſhall be appointed by Law for Wrought Plate; and all ſuch Gold or Silver as ſhall be brought to me to be touched, I will truly ſet down in Writing, and the ſame at all Times, as I ſhall be required, will duly and truly deliver again (except Eight Grains, as aforeſaid) and will true Accounts make thereof, when thereunto required by the Wardens of the Companies wherein I am choſen Aſſayer; and that I will no Aſſays make of Things new wrought before they be marked with the Mark of the Maker or Owners thereof; and that I will not put into the aforeſaid Box any Silver, but that Silver which I ſhall have ſcraped and taken from the Plate which I ſhall aſſay and paſs for Standard.

So help me God.

Aſſayer's Oath.

Mayor to adminiſter the Oath.

V. Which Oath the Mayor in the reſpective Cities aforeſaid is hereby required and impowered to adminiſter to ſuch Aſſayer.

Diet Box to be locked with Three Lock.

Box may be annually conveyed to the Mint in the Tower, &c.

Penalty on Company.

Penalty on Aſſayer.

VI. And it is hereby further enacted, That the Box or Boxes wherein the Diet of all ſuch Plate as ſhall be tried by the Aſſayers aforeſaid, is put, ſhall be locked up with Three different Locks, and the reſpective Keys thereof ſhall be kept by the Wardens and Aſſayers of ſuch reſpective Company, by whom ſuch Aſſayers ſhall be elected and choſen: Which Box or Boxes ſhall be at the Charge of each reſpective Company, conveyed annually (if required by the Lord Chancellor or Keeper of the Great Seal of England for the time being) to His Majeſty's Royal Mint at the Tower of London; and the ſaid Diet therein contained ſhall be tried as the Pix of the Coin of this Kingdom is tried; and if in any of the ſaid Diets there ſhall be found any Falſhood or Deceit, then every ſuch Company, for every ſuch Offence, ſhall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds, to be recovered, in Manner as aforeſaid, againſt ſuch Company, or any Member thereof in his private Capacity, and to be diſpoſed of, as aforeſaid: And if any Plate ſhall be touched, allowed, or marked, for Good, by any of the Aſſayers of the reſpective Places aforeſaid, and if in the ſame there ſhall be found any Deceit, then ſuch Aſſayer, who ſo marked the ſame, ſhall forfeit double the Value of the Plate ſo marked, to be recovered and diſpoſed as aforeſaid.

Goldſmith, &c. of any City where no Aſſayer is appointed ſhall enter his Name, &c. with the Wardens of the Company of ſuch City where an Aſſayer is appointed.

Penalty on Goldſmith, &c.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That on or before the Nine and twentieth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, every Goldſmith, Silverſmith, or Plateworker, inhabiting in any of the Cities aforeſaid, or in any other Town or Place within this Kingdom, where an Aſſayer is not, or ſhall not be appointed, and alſo every Perſon who at any Time after the ſaid Nine and twentieth Day of September, ſhall be a Goldſmith, Silverſmith, or Plateworker, and ſhall inhabit in any of the Cities aforeſaid, or in any other Town or Place within this Kingdom, where an Aſſayer is not, or ſhall not be appointed, before he takes upon him to exerciſe any of the ſaid Trades, ſhall enter his Name and his Mark, and Place of Abode, with the Wardens of ſuch Company of that City or Place where an Aſſayer is or ſhall be appointed; which ſhall be done by the ſaid Wardens, upon Demand, without Fee or Reward; and if any ſuch Goldſmith, Silverſmith, or Plateworker, ſhall not enter his Name, and Mark, and Place of Abode, as aforeſaid, or ſhall ſtrike any other Mark on Plate, but what is ſo entred, ſuch Goldſmith, Silverſmith, or Plateworker, ſo offending, ſhall forfeit double the Value of the Plate ſo marked, to be recovered and diſpoſed as aforeſaid.

Penalty on Perſon counterfeiting Stamps. Repealed, and 100*l. inflicted by* 12 Geo. 2. c. 26.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon ſhall counterfeit any of the Stamps appointed by this Act to be uſed by the ſaid Wardens or Aſſayers for marking Wrought Plate, or any of the Stamps uſed by the Wardens of the Company of Goldſmiths of the City of London, ſuch Perſon ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, to be recovered and diſpoſed as aforeſaid.

If Standard, Aſſayers to mark the ſame, and have 6*d. per* Pound Troy.

Penalty on Goldſmith, &c.

IX. And whereas it is not the Intent and Meaning of this Act to hinder any Goldſmith, Silverſmith, or Plateworker, not inhabiting within any of the Cities aforeſaid, from exerciſing his or their Trade of Goldſmith, Silverſmith, or Plateworker; yet for preventing of Abuſe and Corruption therein, it is hereby further enacted, That all and every Goldſmith, Silverſmith, and Plateworker, inhabiting in any Town or Place, where an Aſſayer is not or ſhall not be appointed, elected, or choſen, ſhall firſt fix his or their Mark upon all his and their Plate which ſhall be made from and after the ſaid Nine and twentieth Day of September (except ſuch Things as by reaſon of their Smallneſs are not capable of receiving the Touch) and ſhall then bring or ſend the ſame to ſome City or Place where an Aſſayer is or ſhall be appointed, elected, or choſen, and the ſame ſhall be there aſſayed according to this Act; and if by the ſaid Aſſayer it ſhall be found to be of the Fineneſs of the Standard, which for the time being is or ſhall be by Law appointed for Wrought Plate, then the ſame ſhall be marked by the ſaid Aſſayer, as he is by this Act required to mark the Plate of the reſpective Company by which he ſhall have been choſen an Aſſayer; and ſhall be allowed, ſatisfied, and paid towards his Charge and Trouble in making ſuch Aſſays, by the Owner or Owners, Bringer or Bringers of ſuch Plate ſo aſſayed, a Sum not exceeding Six Pence for every Pound Troy, and ſo proportionably for every greater or leſſer Quantity of Plate ſo aſſayed and marked; and if any ſuch Goldſmith, Silverſmith, or Plateworker ſhall work or make, or cauſe to be wrought or made any Silver Veſſel, Plate, or Manufacture of Silver leſs in Fineneſs than according to the Standard, which for the time being is or ſhall be by Law appointed for Wrought Plate, or ſhall put to ſale, exchange, or ſell any Silver Veſſel, Plate, or Manufacture of Silver, made after the ſaid Nine and twentieth Day of September (unleſs it be ſuch Things as in reſpect of their Smallneſs are not capable of receiving a Touch) before ſuch Veſſel, Plate, or Manufacture of Silver ſhall be aſſayed and marked, as aforeſaid, every ſuch Goldſmith, Silverſmith, and Plateworker, ſo offending, ſhall forfeit the ſaid Plate, or the Value thereof, to be recovered and diſpoſed as aforeſaid.

CAP. V.

An Act for continuing a former Act to prevent falſe and double Returns of Members to ſerve in Parliament.

7 W. 3. c. 7.

WHEREAS in the Firſt Seſſion of the Parliament, begun the Two and twentieth Day of November, in the Seventh Year of His preſent Majeſty's Reign, an Act was made, intituled, An Act to prevent falſe and double Returns of Members to ſerve in Parliament, which is thereby enacted to continue for the Term of Seven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer; which ſaid Act has been found by Experience to be very uſeful for the Preſervation of the Rights of the ſeveral Counties, Cities, and Boroughs of this Kingdom, in the Election of Members to ſerve in Parliament; be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Act, and every Clauſe therein contained, ſhall hereafter remain and be in full force, and is hereby continued, for and during the Term and Space of Eleven Years, and from thence to the End of the Firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament, and no longer.

CAP. VI.

An Act for continuing the Acts therein mentioned, for preventing Theft and Rapine upon the Northern Borders of England.

WHEREAS in the Seſſion of Parliament, holden in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of our late Sovereign King CHARLES the Second, An Act was made, intituled, An Act for preventing of Theft and Rapine upon the Northern Borders of England; which was thereby to continue in Force for and during the Term of Five Years: And whereas another Act was made in the Eighteenth Year of the ſaid late King, intituled, An Act to continue a former Act, to prevent Theft and Rapine upon the Northern Borders of England; both which Acts were revived and continued by another Act, made in the Twenty ninth and Thirtieth Years of the Reign of the ſaid late King, intituled, An Act for continuing of Two former Acts for preventing of Theft and Rapine upon the Northern Borders of England, for and during the Space and Term of Seven Years, and alſo from thence until the End of the Firſt Seſſion of the then next Parliament; which Three aforementioned Acts were continued by an Act made in the Firſt Year of the late King JAMES the Second, for and during the Space and Term of Eleven Years, and alſo from thence until the End of the Firſt Seſſion of the then next Parliament; and were further continued by another Act made in the Seventh and Eighth Years of His preſent Majeſty's Reign, for and during the Space and Term of Five Years, and from thence to the End of the Firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament; which Laws have been found neceſſary for the Preſervation of thoſe Places from that great Number of lewd, diſorderly and lawleſs Perſons, that uſually frequented and infeſted thoſe Parts, and are now near expiring: Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Acts, and all and every of them, and all and every Matter, Clauſe and Clauſes therein contained, and all and every the Powers and Authorities thereby given, be and continue, and are hereby continued in full Force, from and after the Expiration of the laſt mentioned Act, for and during the Space and Term of Eleven Years, and from thence to the End of the Firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament, and no longer.

Diſtiller on Oath exporting Brandy, &c. drawn from malted Corn, &c.

to be allowed 3 d. per Gallon on Exportation.

VII. And for the Encouragement of Diſtillers and others to brew and make Spirits and Brandies from Drink brewed or made from malted Corn, and to export the ſame, as Merchandizes, into Parts beyond the Seas; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Diſtillers, or others, upon Oath made before any Two or more of the Commiſſioners of the Exciſe for the time being, or Two or more Juſtices of the Peace for the County or Place from whence any Brandy, Spirits, or Strong Waters made from malted Corn only, ſhall be exported (which Brandy, Spirits, or Strong Waters, ſhall have been made, during the Time before mentioned) that the ſame were or was, made and drawn from Drink brewed, or made from malted Corn, without any Mixture with any other Materials, and that the ſame is not mixed with any Low Wines not drawn a Second Time, nor with any other Brandy or Spirits made from any other Materials, either native or foreign, and that the Duties for the ſame are paid or duly entred in order to be paid, and that the ſame, and every Part thereof, are exported as Merchandize, and are to be ſpent beyond the Seas, to export ſuch Spirits and Brandies made from Drink brewed or made from malted Corn only, as aforeſaid, and upon Certificate under the Hands of the Officers of Exciſe for the Port or Place where ſuch Spirits or Brandies were ſhipt off, of the Quantity ſo ſhipt, and that the ſame was ſhipt in the Preſence of ſuch Officers, ſuch Diſtillers, or others, ſo exporting ſuch Spirits or Brandies, ſhall be allowed or paid back by the Commiſſioners of Exciſe for the time being, or their Collector for the Port or Place where ſuch Spirits and Brandies ſhall be ſo ſhipt off, out of the Duties on Low Wines, Spirits, and Strong Waters, and Aqua Vitæ, for every Gallon of ſuch Spirits or Brandy ſo ſhipt off, the Sum of Three Pence.

Clauſe in 2 W. & M. ſſ. 2. c. 9. continued.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That a certain Clauſe in an Act made in the Second Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty and the late Queen MARY, of bleſſed Memory, intituled, An Act for the encouraging the diſtilling of Brandy and Spirits from Corn, and for laying ſeveral Duties on Low Wines or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, relating to Strong Waters, Brandies, Aqua Vitæ, and other exciſeable Liquors brought from the Iſlands of Guernſey, Jerſey, Sark or Alderney, and all the Charges, Duties and Penalties, and every Article and Thing therein contained, ſhall continue and be of Force and Virtue during the Continuance of this Act, in as full and ample Manner, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſaid Clauſe was herein Word for Word repeated and enacted.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Penalties and Forfeitures, hereby impoſed for any Offence relating to the ſaid Duties upon Low Wines or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, ſhall be One Moiety to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to him or them that ſhall inform or ſue for the ſame; and that the ſame Penalties and Forfeitures, for any Offence relating to the ſaid Duties upon Low Wines or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, ſhall be recovered and levied by the ſame Ways, Means and Methods, as any Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures, are or may be recovered by any of the Laws of Exciſe, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection or Wager of Law, nor any more than One Imparlance ſhall be allowed.

Penalties, &c. how levied, &c.

X. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all the Rates, Duties, additional Duties, Impoſitions, and Sums of Money whatſoever, granted to His Majeſty by the Act paſſed in the Sixth Year of His Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majeſty ſeveral additional Duties upon Coffee, Tea, Chocolate and Spices, towards Satiſfaction of the Debts due for Tranſport Service for the Reduction of Ireland, which were thereby charged or impoſed upon Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa Paſte, Tea, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, Pictures, or any other Matters or Things thereby charged, from the Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety five, until the Second Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, and which, by an Act made in the Ninth Year of His Majeſty's Reign, were continued from the Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, until the Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, ſhall be continued from the Thirtieth Day of April, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, and be raiſed, levied, collected, anſwered and paid unto His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, until the Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix; and that the ſaid Act of the Sixth Year of His Majeſty's Reign, concerning the ſaid Coffee and other the enumerated Commodities aforeſaid, and all the Powers, Privileges, Proviſions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Articles and Clauſes therein contained (and not hereby altered) which were to have Continuance until the ſaid Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, ſhall continue and be in full Force and Effect, until the ſaid Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, and ſhall be practiſed and executed for raiſing, levying, collecting and anſwering the Duties hereby continued, for the Uſes and Purpoſes in this Act expreſſed, and to no other Uſe, Intent or Purpoſe whatſoever.

Duties on Coffee, &c. and all Powers in 6 W. 3. c. 7. & 9 W. 3. c. 14. continued till 1 May, 1706.

7 Ann. c. 7. §. 26.

XI. And whereas in the Eighth Year of His Majeſty's Reign an Act was made for licencing of Hawkers and Pedlars, which Act, and the Impoſitions therein contained, had Continuance till the Four and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight; and in the Ninth Year of His Majeſty's Reign another Act was made for licencing of Hawkers and Pedlars, which Act, with the Impoſitions therein mentioned, were to continue from the Four and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, until the Four and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one; it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Three and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, until the Four and twentieth Day of June, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, the Duties, Impoſitions and Sums of Money to be paid by every Hawker, Pedlar, Petty Chapman, and ſuch other trading Perſons as are deſcribed in the ſaid Act of the Ninth Year of His Majeſty's Reign for licencing Hawkers and Pedlars, and all the Powers for granting Licences and other Powers, Clauſes, Rules, Directions, Allowances, Penalties and Forfeitures, Articles, Matters and Things therein contained (and not hereby altered) ſhall be continued, and ſhall be practiſed, obſerved and put in Execution, from the ſaid Three and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, until the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, as fully and effectually, as if the ſame were particularly repeated and again enacted by this preſent Act; nevertheleſs the ſaid Duties or Sums of Money to be paid by ſuch Hawkers, Pedlars, Petty Chapmen and others as aforeſaid, ſhall be for the Uſes and Purpoſes in this Act expreſſed, and for no other Uſe, Intent or Purpoſe whatſoever; any thing in the ſaid recited Acts, or any of them, contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

8 W. 3. c. 25.

9 W. 3. c. 27.

made for licencing Hawkers and Pedlars, and the Duties thereby paid, &c. continued until 24 June, 1706.

Wholeſale Traders in Bone Lace are not Hawkers within this Act 4 Geo. 1. c. 6.

XII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Duty upon Muſlins, after the Rate of Fifteen Pounds for every One hundred Pounds of the true and real Value thereof, which was impoſed by an Act made in the Eleventh Year of His Majeſty's Reign, whereby further Duties were laid upon wrought Silk, Muſlins, and ſome other Commodities of Perſia, China, and the Eaſt Indies, which ſhould be imported after the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred, and before the Thirtieth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, ſhall be continued for and upon all Muſlins which from and after the Nine and twentieth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, and before the Thirtieth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, ſhall be imported or brought into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, over and above all other Duties payable for the ſaid Muſlins; and that all the Rules, Directions, Powers, Allowances, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauſes, Matters and Things in the ſaid laſt mentioned Act contained (and not hereby altered) for or concerning the aſcertaining, ſecuring, levying or raiſing the Duties thereby impoſed, ſhall be revived, practiſed and put in Execution, for aſcertaining, ſecuring, levying and raiſing the Duties upon Muſlins hereby impoſed during the Time aforeſaid, for the Uſes and Purpoſes in this Act expreſſed, and to no other Uſe, Intent or Purpoſe whatſoever.

11 W. 3. c. 3. concerning Duty on Muſlins, continued until 30 Sept. 1706.

If Muſlins for which Duty is paid be again exported within 12 Months, Duty to be repaid. Theſe 12 Months enlarged to 3 Years by 7 Geo. 1. ſtat. 1. c. 21. §. 11.

XIII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That if the ſaid Muſlins hereby charged, or any of them, upon which the ſaid further Duties of Fifteen Pounds in the Hundred are paid or ſecured to be paid as aforeſaid, be again exported at any Time or Times within Twelve Months after the Importation thereof, and that due Proof be firſt made upon Oath, that the Goods or Merchandizes ſo exported be the ſame for which the ſaid Duties are paid or ſecured to be paid as aforeſaid, then and in ſuch Caſe, and not otherwiſe, the ſame Duties ſhall without any Delay or Reward be repaid by the Receiver General of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms for the time being, out of ſuch Monies as ſhall be in his Hands of the ſaid Duties of Fifteen Pounds per Centum ariſing by this Act, unto the Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, making the ſaid Exportations, or the ſaid Security ſhall be vacated as to ſo much of the ſaid Goods or Merchandizes as ſhall be ſo exported; any thing in this Act, or in any former Act or Acts of Parliament contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

25 Car. 2. c. 8.
1 Jac. 2. c. 7.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That an Act made in the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for encouraging of Coinage, and another Act made in the Five and twentieth Year of the Reign of the ſaid late King Charles, intituled, An Act for continuing a former Act concerning Coinage, both which ſaid Acts were revived by an Act made in the Firſt Year of the Reign of the late King James the Second, and were further continued by an Act made in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty and the late Queen of Bleſſed Memory, to be in Force for the Space of Seven Years, from the Thirteenth Day of February, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety two, and from thence to the End of the Firſt Seſſion of Parliament then next following, ſhall be and are by virtue of this Act continued, and ſhall be in Force for the Space of Seven Years, from the Firſt Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, and from thence to the End of the Firſt Seſſion of Parliament then next following, and no longer, to defray the neceſſary Expences of His Majeſty's Mint.

4 W. & M. c. 24. for encouraging of Coinage, continued for 7 Years.

Proviſo concerning Diſtiller, &c.

XVII. Provided alſo, That no Information ſhall be brought, laid or proſecuted againſt any common Diſtiller, Vinegar-maker or Cyder-maker, for any Falſe or Miſ-Entry, or Offence made or committed, from and after the Four and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, unleſs the ſame Information or Informations be laid and entred before ſuch Perſons appointed to determine the ſame, within Three Months next after every ſuch Offence committed, and that Notice thereof be given to ſuch Perſon or Perſons (againſt whom ſuch Information ſhall be laid) in Writing, or left at their Dwelling-houſes, within One Week after the laying and entring ſuch Information, to the End a timely Proviſion may be had and made in defending the ſame; any thing in this Act, or other Law to the contrary notwithſtanding.

No Perſon to ſell Brandy or other diſtilled Liquors by Retail, without Licence. By 1 Annæ, ſtat. 2. c. 14. this Clauſe is repealed as to Diſtillers.

XVIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall, from and after the Nine and twentieth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, ſell Brandy or other diſtilled Liquors by Retail, to be drank in his, her or their Houſe or Houſes, but ſuch Perſons only as ſhall be thereunto licenced and allowed, in the ſame Manner as common Alehouſe-keepers; and every Perſon or Perſons ſo ſelling Brandy or other diſtilled Liquors by Retail as aforeſaid, ſhall be ſubject to the ſame Rules, Penalties and Forfeitures for ſelling Drink without Licence, as common Alehouſe-keepers now are; and the ſeveral Juſtices of the Peace of this Kingdom, and other Officers, are hereby impowered and authorized to have and exerciſe the ſame Juriſdiction, Powers and Authorities, over ſuch Retailers of Brandy and other diſtilled Liquors, which they now have or exerciſe over common Alehouſe-keepers by any Law or Statute whatſoever.

11 W. 3. c. 15. concerning Meaſures for retailing Ale and Beer,

XIX. And whereas by an Act made in the Eleventh Year of His Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for aſcertaining the Meaſures for retailing Ale and Beer, it is enacted, That every Mayor or Chief Officer of each City, Town Corporate, Borough or Market Town, from and after the Twenty fourth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred, ſhall from time to time cauſe or procure all Ale Quarts and Ale Pints brought to him or them reſpectively to be meaſured, compared, ſized and equalled with the Standard, and then ſigned, ſtamped and marked, as in the ſaid Act is mentioned and deſcribed; be it enacted and declared, That nothing in the ſaid recited Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued or taken to extend, to deprive the Two Univerſities of this Kingdom, or either of them, of their Right, Privilege and Uſage of ſizing, equalling, ſigning, ſtamping and marking of Meaſures for Ale and Beer, within their reſpective Limits and Juriſdictions, but that they and each of them reſpectively, ſhall and may have and enjoy their ſaid Right, Privilege, and Uſage; any thing in the ſaid recited Act to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

not to deprive the Two Univerſities of their Right of ſizing, &c. their Meaſures.

Foreign Brandy or Spirits imported to be forfeited.

XX. And for the preventing all ſecret and unlawful Importation of foreign Spirits or Brandy; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any foreign Brandy or Spirits of any Kind whatſoever, ſhall from and after the Nine and twentieth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, be imported into this Kingdom, or be brought into any Port, Creek, or Haven of this Realm, in any Ship or Veſſel, under the Burden of Fifteen Tuns (except for the Uſe of the Seamen on board ſuch Ship or Veſſel only, not exceeding One Gallon for each Seaman) ſuch Brandy or Spirits ſhall be forfeited, One Moiety thereof to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, the other Moiety to ſuch Perſon as ſhall ſeize or ſue for the ſame, by Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter.

King may borrow 300,000*l.* on Credit of this Act,

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for His Majeſty, or His Majeſty's Officers in the Receipt of his Exchequer, to borrow or take in by way of Loan to His Majeſty's Uſe, on Credit of the ſaid Rates and Duties upon Low Wines or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, and of the ſaid Duties upon Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa Paſte, Tea, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, and Pictures, and any other Things therewith charged, as aforeſaid, and of the ſaid Impoſitions and Sums of Money payable by Hawkers, Pedlars, and Petty Chapmen, and of the ſaid further Duties impoſed upon Muſlins, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding Three hundred thouſand Pounds, from any Perſon or Perſons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, as ſhall be willing to advance or lend the ſame, and that Intereſt for the Forbearance thereof, not exceeding the Rate of Six Pounds per Centum per Annum for the Firſt One hundred and fifty thouſand Pounds, and Seven Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the remaining One hundred and fifty thouſand Pounds, which ſhall be ſo lent, ſhall be allowed and paid out of the ſame Rates and Duties; and that the Money ſo to be lent ſhall not be rated or aſſeſſed to any publick Tax or Aſſeſſment whatſoever.

at 6*l. per Cent.* Intereſt for 150,000*l.* and 7*l. per Cent.* for the other 150,000*l.* Money lent not to be taxed.

XXII. And to the end all the Money that ſhall be ſo lent to His Majeſty on the ſaid Duties on Low Wines, and other the Duties before particularly expreſſed, may be well and ſufficiently ſecured and repaid with Intereſt, as aforeſaid, out of the ſame, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all the Monies ariſing by the ſaid Duties, upon which the ſaid Loans are to be made, ſhall be brought and paid from time to time weekly into the Receipt of the Exchequer (that is to ſay) upon Wedneſday in every Week, if it be not an Holiday, and if it be, then the next Day after that is not an Holiday; and that there ſhall be provided and kept in His Majeſty's Exchequer (that is to ſay) in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt, One Book in which all the ſaid Monies which ſhall be ſo paid into the Exchequer ſhall be entred apart and diſtinct from all other Monies paid or payable to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, upon any Account whatſoever.

Monies to be paid weekly into the Exchequer.

Auditor to enter the ſaid Monies apart.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from time to time, upon making ſuch Loans, as aforeſaid, on Credit of the ſaid Duties on Low Wines, and other the Duties before mentioned, as aforeſaid, Tallies of Loan ſhall be levied for all and every Sum and Sums of Money ſo to be lent, and that Orders, according to the Courſe of the Exchequer, ſhall be drawn and ſigned for Repayment of the ſame, and for Payment of ſuch Intereſt, as aforeſaid, for the Forbearance thereof, the ſaid Intereſt to be paid every Three Months, until Satisfaction of the Principal Sum; and that all and every ſuch Order and Orders, and the Monies therein to be contained, or any Part thereof, ſhall be aſſignable and transferrable, without Power of Revocation, ſo as the Aſſignments thereof be indorſed upon the reſpective Orders, and entred or notified in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of the Exchequer, in a Book to be there kept for that Purpoſe; and that a diſtinct Regiſter ſhall be kept in the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer, of all the ſaid Orders of Repayment, not exceeding Three hundred thouſand Pounds, in which the ſaid Orders ſhall be regiſtred in Courſe, according to the Date of the Tallies reſpectively, without any other Preference of One before another; and that every Perſon ſhall be paid in Courſe as his Order ſhall ſtand entred in ſuch Regiſter Book, out of the ſaid Duties upon Low Wines, and the ſaid other Duties whereupon the ſaid Loans ſhall be made, as aforeſaid, which are hereby appropriated thereunto, and that no Fee, Reward, or Gratuity, directly or indirectly, ſhall be demanded or taken for providing or making any ſuch Book or Regiſter, or for any View or Search in the ſame, by any of His Majeſty's Officers, their Clerks, or Deputies, on Pain of forfeiting treble Damages to the Party grieved, to be recovered by Action of Debt, or of the Caſe, Bill, Plaint, or Information in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, by any Perſon or Perſons who will ſue for the ſame, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Wager of Law, Privilege of Parliament, or other Privilege, or more than One Imparlance ſhall be granted or allowed, either for demanding or taking any ſuch Fee or Gratuity, or for giving any undue Preference in Point of Regiſtry or Payment.

Tallies and Orders to be levied and ſigned for Repayment, and Intereſt paid every Three Months. Orders to be aſſigned, &c.

and regiſtred in Courſe without undue Preference, without Fee.

Penalty.

XXIV. Provided always, That if it ſhall happen that ſeveral of thoſe Tallies and Orders bear Date, or be brought the ſame Day to the Auditor of the Receipt to be regiſtred, it ſhall be interpreted no undue Preference which of thoſe be entred firſt.

No undue Preference where Tallies bear Date the ſame Day, nor where Teller pays ſubſequent Orders, &c.

XXV. Provided alſo, That it ſhall not be interpreted any undue Preference to incur any Penalty in Point of Payment, if the Auditor direct, or the Clerk of the Pells record, and the Tellers do pay ſubſequent Orders of Perſons that come and demand their Monies, and bring their Orders, before other Perſons that did not come to demand their Monies, and bring their Orders in their Courſe, ſo as there be ſo much Money reſerved as will ſatisfy precedent Orders, which ſhall not be otherwiſe diſpoſed, but kept for them; yet ſo as that Intereſt of Loan ſhall in that Caſe ceaſe from the Time the Money is ſo reſerved and kept in Bank for them.

but Intereſt to ceaſe.

XXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all the Money to be lent by virtue of this Act upon Credit of the ſeveral Duties and Impoſitions hereby granted, Monies lent on this and the following Acts, and all the Monies ariſing by this Act, of and for the ſame Duties and Impoſitions reſpectively (the Monies of the ſaid Duties and Impoſitions which are to go in Repayment of the Loans, and for Satiſfaction of the Intereſt thereof, and the Charges of raiſing and levying the ſaid ſeveral Duties and Impoſitions by this Act granted, always excepted) and all the Monies lent at the Receipt of Exchequer, between the Eighteenth Day of February, One thouſand ſeven hundred, and the Tenth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, not exceeding Seven hundred thouſand Pounds, for which the Orders are appointed to be transferred to the Regiſter of Orders payable out of Two Third Parts of the Monies ariſing by another Act of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to His Majeſty for defraying the Expence of His Navy, Guards, and Garriſons for One Year, and for other neceſſary Occaſions, and all the Monies which ſhall be further lent to His Majeſty upon Credit of the ſaid Two Third Parts of the Monies ariſing by the Act laſt mentioned, and ſo much of the ſaid Two Third Parts, as after Repayment of all the Loans transferred, made or to be made thereupon, and the Intereſt thereof, and the making of ſuch Allowances as are to be made by the Act laſt mentioned, ſhall or may ariſe or be brought into the ſaid Receipt of the Exchequer; and all the Monies which ſhall be lent or advanced to His Majeſty upon Credit of the weekly Sum of Three thouſand ſeven hundred Pounds of lawful Engliſh Money, by any other Act or Acts of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, to be taken out of certain Branches of the Exciſe, for Five Years from the Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred, and the Monies ariſing by ſuch weekly Payments (ſo much thereof as is to go in Repayment of Loans thereupon, and the Intereſt of ſuch Loans, always excepted) and all the Overplus of the ſeveral Funds, which by certain Clauſes in the Act for the Land Tax made in the Eleventh Year of His Majeſty's Reign, were appropriated for Sea Services therein particularly mentioned, and for Land Service in the Office of His Majeſty's Ordnance, and for the Charge of circulating Exchequer Bills, and for Half-pay to disbanded Officers, and for His Majeſty's Guards and Garriſons for One Year therein mentioned, and for Arrears due to the ſame; which ſaid Overplus is hereby declared to conſiſt of ſo much Monies as ſhall remain of thoſe appropriated Funds, after the ſaid Uſes and Services are or ſhall be fully ſatisfied and diſcharged, as the Act laſt mentioned did direct (the Money due and to be paid to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, out of the ſaid Overplus Monies, to make good the Deficiency of their Fund for the Year ended on the Firſt Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred, only excepted) and all the Monies to ariſe by the Arrears of the Subſidy of Tunnage and Poundage, and other Duties upon Goods and Merchandizes imported and exported, which were granted for Five Years, ending upon the Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, and are yet unſatisfied, over and above the Debentures and other legal Allowances which are to be firſt ſatisfied out of the ſaid Arrears; and all the Monies which from the Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred, until the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and two, ſhall ariſe by the Duty of Five Shillings per Tun upon French Shipping, purſuant to an Act of Parliament in that Behalf made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second; XXVII. And to the End the Sums by this Act appropriated may not be diverted or applied to any other Purpoſes than are hereby declared and intended; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Rules and Directions appointed and enacted in One Act made in the Firſt Year of His Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to Their Majeſties an Aid of Two Shillings in the Pound for One Year, for the ſpeedy Payment of Money thereby granted into the Receipt of the Exchequer by the Collectors and Receivers, and for the Diſtribution and Application thereof, and keeping diſtinct Accounts of the ſame, and all other Proviſions, Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures thereby enacted, in caſe of Diverſion or Miſapplication of any Money thereby appropriated, are hereby revived and enacted to be in Force, and ſhall be practiſed, applied, executed and put in Ure, for and concerning the Diſtribution and Application of the ſaid Sums hereby appropriated, as fully, amply and effectually, as if the ſame were here again particularly repeated and re-enacted.

Rules in an Act 1 W. & M. ſſ. 2. c. 1. revived for the Appropriation of the Monies hereby given.

XXVIII. And whereas ſeveral Sums of Money have, during the Continuance of the late War againſt France, and ſince, been impreſted at the Receipt of Exchequer to the reſpective Treaſurers of the Navy, and to the ſeveral Paymaſters of the Land Forces, for the Service of the ſaid Navy and Land Forces, and for the Service of ſeveral Offices ſubordinate to them, by Tallies of fictitious Loans, with Orders for principal Sums equal to the Sums ſo impreſted, and for Intereſt thereof, at ſeveral Rates payable to the ſaid reſpective Treaſurers and Paymaſters, or their Aſſigns, with Power to them reſpectively to make Aſſignments of or upon ſuch Orders, for the reſpective Services aforeſaid; by it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid reſpective Treaſurers and Paymaſters, and all the Officers in the ſaid ſubordinate Offices, who are to render Accounts for the Money ſo impreſted in the Exchequer, ſhall fully charge themſelves upon Oath (which the ſaid Auditors of the Impreſts, or either of them, for the time being, have hereby Power to adminiſter to the ſaid Treaſurers, Paymaſters, and other Officers, and to their Agents reſpectively) with all the Intereſt Monies by the ſaid Treaſurers, Paymaſters, and other Officers reſpectively, or by their reſpective Agents, received at the Exchequer, or otherwiſe, for or upon Account of any ſuch Tallies and Orders, or any of them, or any Part thereof, at any Time or Times before any Aſſignment or Aſſignments made of or upon ſuch Orders, or any of them, by the ſaid Treaſurers, Paymaſters, or other Officers reſpectively, which Intereſt-monies ought, in Juſtice, to be accounted for to the Uſes aforeſaid, and ſhall ſpecify therein every particular Sum ſo received for Intereſt, and the Order or Talley upon which the ſame were ſo received, and the Perſons to whom the Aſſignments were made Treaſurers of the Navy, and Paymaſters of the Land Forces and their Officers, &c. ſhall charge themſelves on Oath with the Intereſt-monies by them received in Tallies or Orders, &c.

Charge to be examined by the Auditor of the Receipt, and atteſted, &c. Farther provided for by 1 Annæ, ſtat. 1. c. 13. §. 21. and 2 & 3 Ann. c. 17.

made upon the ſaid Tallies or Orders, for which the ſaid Intereſt was received; and that every ſuch Charge ſhall be examined by the Auditor of the Receipt of the Exchequer for the time being, with the Entries or Vouchers remaining in the ſaid Receipt, and ſhall be atteſted by the ſaid Auditor of the Receipt, who (if any Omiſſion or Omiſſions be made in the ſaid Charge) ſhall take Care to add and ſurcharge the ſame before the reſpective Account or Accounts of the ſaid Treaſurers, Paymaſters, and other Officers before mentioned, ſhall be declared.

XXIX. And whereas many Perſons who pay Duties of Exciſe, and Salt, and ſome Collectors of the ſaid Duties, and of the late Duties on Malt and Leather, have by Accidents failed in their Credit, and may hereafter fail, and they and their Securities become inſolvent, being indebted to His Majeſty for the ſaid Duties, or for Monies collected for the ſame, and though incapable to pay all the Monies due or to grow due from them to His Majeſty, may notwithſtanding, by the Aſſiſtance of Friends and Relations, be capacitated to pay Part of their ſaid Debts, which they would in many Caſes do, if a Compoſition could be made for the ſame, and ſuch Perſons could be diſcharged of the Remainders of the ſaid Debts; but for want of ſufficient Authority to make ſuch Compoſitions, ſuch Debts do and may frequently become wholly and utterly loſt: For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, or any Three or more of them, or Lord High Treaſurer, or Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury for the time being, for any ſuch Debts incurred before the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, to make ſuch reaſonable Compoſitions as to him or them ſhall ſeem meet, and upon Payment of the Money compounded for, in caſe he or they ſhall think it reaſonable, by Warrant to the Commiſſioners of Exciſe, to diſcharge the Remainder of the Debt or Debts ſo compounded.

Commiſſioners, &c. may compound with Collectors of Exciſe, Salt, &c. who have failed.

Monies due to the 4 Marine Regiments to be diſcharged.

XXX. And it is hereby enacted and declared, That the Monies remaining due to the Officers and Soldiers of the Four Marine Regiments lately commanded by Colonel William Seymour, Colonel Edward Dutton Colt (ſince deceaſed) Colonel Harry Mordant, and Colonel Thomas Brudenell, ſhall and may be diſcharged and ſatisfied to them or their Aſſigns, out of ſuch Monies as were iſſued to the Earl of Orford, late Treaſurer of the Navy, for the Service thereof, and are ſtill undiſpoſed, or out of ſuch Monies as are or ſhall be iſſued for Wages to the preſent Treaſurer of the Navy.

Hellen Arthur, Widow, may enter her Claim before the Truſtees in Ireland, appointed by 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 2.

XXXI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for Hellen Arthur, Widow and Relict of Robert Arthur of Hacketts Town in the County of Dublin Eſquire, deceaſed, to go into Ireland, and in Behalf of herſelf and of her Children, to enter her and their reſpective Claim and Claims before the Truſtees appointed by an Act made in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of His Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to His Majeſty by Sale of the forfeited and other Eſtates and Intereſts in Ireland, and by a Land Tax in England, for the ſeveral Purpoſes therein mentioned, or before any Seven or more of them, to and for her and their reſpective Rights and Titles to any Manors, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, and to the reſpective Portions of the ſaid Children, at any Time before the First Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one: And further, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for all and every other Perſon or Perſons, who have, by Petition to the Houſe of Commons, prayed Relief either for not entering his, her or their Claim or Claims within the Time limited by the ſaid Act, or for not doing thereof according to the Directions of the ſaid Act, and who are mentioned in the Report from a Committee of the Commons appointed to ſeparate the Petitions relating to the ſaid Iriſh Forfeitures, to enter his, her and their reſpective Claims before the ſaid Truſtees, or any Seven or more of them, in Manner and within the Time aforeſaid; and the ſaid reſpective Claims being ſo entred, ſhall be heard, adjudged and determined by the ſaid Truſtees, according to the Direction of the ſaid Act; any thing in the ſaid former Act to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The like to any other Perſon, who hath prayed Relief, &c.

11 & 12 W. 3. c. 2.

XXXII. And whereas ſeveral Perſons have exhibited Petitions to the Houſe of Commons for Relief in divers Matters relating to an Act of Parliament made in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of His preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to His Majeſty, by Sale of the forfeited and other Eſtates and Intereſt in Ireland, and by a Land Tax in England, for the ſeveral Purpoſes therein mentioned, which ſaid Petitions have been by them referred to Sir Henry Sheers Knight, Francis Anneſley, and John Trenchard, Eſquires, Three of the Truſtees in the ſaid Act mentioned; and Reports have been thereupon made: And whereas it was reſolved by the ſaid Houſe, That the ſaid Petitions (except ſuch Caſes as are certified under the Hands of the Twelve Truſtees, and except ſuch of the ſaid Petitions as the Iriſh Truſtees in England have certified the Matter of Fact to be true) be referred to the Truſtees in Ireland, to examine upon Oath the Matter of Fact, and repreſent the ſame to the ſaid Houſe; and the ſaid Houſe appointed a Committee to ſeparate the ſame, according to the ſaid Reſolution, which were ſeparated accordingly, and reported to the ſaid Houſe: And whereas ſome of the ſaid Petitions now lie before the ſaid Houſe, upon the ſaid Report, and the reſt of them are to be further examined by the Truſtees nominated by the ſaid Act in order to aſcertain the Facts therein contained; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſeveral and reſpective Eſtates, Rights, Titles, Poſſeſſions and Intereſts claimed by the ſaid Petitions, ſhall not be ſold, aliened, transferred, removed, or prejudiced by the ſaid Truſtees in the ſaid Act mentioned, or any of them, until after the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, except ſuch Claims as have been already adjudged by the Truſtees; and as to the ſaid Petitions ſo to be further examined as aforeſaid, the ſame are hereby referred to the Truſtees nominated in the ſaid Act, to examine the reſpective Allegations contained in the ſaid ſeveral Petitions, and to report the ſame within the Space of Ten Days after the Commencement of the next Seſſion of Parliament; and ſuch Petitions as lie before the ſaid Houſe upon the ſaid Report as aforeſaid, they and every of them ſhall and may be proceeded upon, and taken into Conſideration the next Seſſion of Parliament.

Petitions relating to the Iriſh Forfeitures, and referred, &c. Lands ſhall not be ſold, &c. till the End of the next Seſſion. Exception.

CAP. XII.

An Act for appropriating Three thouſand ſeven hundred Pounds weekly, out of certain Branches of Exciſe, for publick Uſes, and for making a Proviſion for the Service of His Majeſty's Houſhold and Family, and other his neceſſary Occaſions.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and paſſed in the Ninth Year of His Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majeſty a further Subſidy of Tunnage and Poundage, towards raiſing the yearly Sum of Seven hundred thouſand Pounds, for the Service of His Majeſty's Houſhold, and other Uſes therein mentioned, during His Majeſty's Life, the yearly Sum of Seven hundred thouſand Pounds was intended to be ſupplied to His Majeſty, for the Service of His Houſhold and Family, and for other His neceſſary Expences and Occaſions, out of the Hereditary Rates and Duties of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, which were granted to the Crown in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, and out of the Rates and Duties of Exciſe on Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, payable for the Term of His Majeſty's Life, by an Act of Parliament made and paſſed in the Second Year of the Reign of His Majeſty and the late Queen of Bleſſed Memory, and out of the Revenue of the General Letter Office, or Poſt Office, or the Office of the Poſtmaſter General, and out of the ſmall Branches of His Majeſty's Revenues herein after mentioned and expreſſed (that is to ſay) The Firſt Fruits and Tenths of the Clergy; the Fines for Writs of Covenant and Writs of Entry, payable in the Alienation Office; the Poſt Fines; the Revenue of the Wine Licences; the Monies ariſing by the Sheriffs Profers and Compoſitions in the Exchequer, and by the Seizures of uncuſtomed and prohibited Goods; the Revenue of the Duchy of Cornwall, and any other Revenue ariſing by the Rents of Lands in England or Wales, or for Fines of Leaſes of the ſame, or any of them; and the Duty of Four and half per Centum in Specie, ariſing in Barbadoes, and the Leeward Iſlands in America; and out of the Monies which ſhould ariſe by the ſaid Act for the ſaid further Subſidy of Tunnage and Poundage: And it was thereby further enacted, That if the ſaid great and ſmall Branches and Revenues, herein before mentioned, ſhould produce in clear Money more than the yearly Sum of Seven hundred thouſand Pounds, from the Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, then the Overplus of ſuch Produce, being more than the ſaid yearly Sum of Seven hundred thouſand Pounds, ſhould not be iſſued, diſpoſed, made uſe of, or applied to any Uſe or Purpoſe, or upon any Pretext whatſoever, without the Authority of Parliament, as by the ſaid Act, Relation being thereunto had, may more fully appear: And whereas the Neceſſity of the publick Affairs doth require, that the weekly Sum of Three thouſand ſeven hundred Pounds of lawful Engliſh Money for every Week, to be reckoned from the Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred, and to be taken out of the ſaid Hereditary Revenue or Branch of Exciſe, and out of the ſaid Duties of Exciſe, payable during His Majeſty's Life, and either or any of them, be applied and diſpoſed to and for the publick Uſe and Service, during His Majeſty's Life; and that the Monies ariſing by ſuch weekly Payments, during the Term of Five Years, to be accounted from the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred, be now made a Security or Fund of Credit for raiſing thereupon any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding Eight hundred and twenty thouſand Pounds, for the immediate Service of His Majeſty's Navy, Guards, and Gariſons, Land Forces, and other publick Uſes; and it is intended, that all the reſt and reſidue of the ſaid particular Branches of Exciſe, and all the ſaid other great and ſmall Branches and Revenues, herein before particularly enumerated and expreſſed, ſhall from the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred, be for the Service of His Majeſty's Houſhold and Family, and for other His neceſſary Expences and Occaſions, during His Majeſty's Life; be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred, for and during the whole Term of Five Years from thence next and immediately enſuing, the full, clear, and entire weekly Sum of Three thouſand ſeven hundred Pounds of lawful Engliſh Money, out of all the Monies ariſing by the ſaid Hereditary Duties of Exciſe, and by the ſaid Duties of Exciſe payable during His Majeſty's Life, and by every or any of them, if all thoſe Duties of Exciſe ſhall ſo long continue; and if the ſaid Duties of Exciſe, payable during His Majeſty's Life (which God long preſerve) ſhall happen to determine before the End of the ſaid Term of Five Years, then out of the Monies ariſing entirely by the ſaid Hereditary Duties of Exciſe, for and during all the Reſidue which ſhall be then to come and unexpired of the ſaid Term of Five Years, ſhall be brought and paid by the Commiſſioners, Farmers, Receiver and Receivers General, for the time being, of the ſaid Duties of Exciſe (who are hereby injoined and required to bring and pay the ſame accordingly) into the Receipt of Exchequer, diſtinctly and ſeparately from all other Monies whatſoever that are or ſhall be payable by them into the ſaid Receipt, the ſame to be brought and paid into the ſaid Receipt in Manner and Form following (that is to ſay) The Sum of Ninety ſix thouſand two hundred Pounds for the Firſt Twenty ſix Weeks, to be reckoned from the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred, and to end upon Wedneſday the Five and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, ſhall be brought and paid into the ſaid Receipt as by this Act is ſpecially provided in that Behalf; and from and after the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, during all the then Reſidue of the ſaid Term of Five Years, the ſaid weekly Sum or Payment of Three thouſand ſeven hundred Pounds ſhall, upon Wedneſday in every Week, if it be not an Holiday, and if it be, then upon the next Day that is not an Holiday, as One Week ſhall ſucceſſively and immediately follow and ſucceed another, be brought and paid into the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer, for the Purpoſes in this Act expreſſed; and in caſe in any Week or Weeks the whole Receipt of the Monies of the ſaid ſeveral Branches or Duties of Exciſe, hereby charged as aforeſaid, ſhall not be ſufficient to anſwer the weekly Payment or Payments hereby directed, for ſuch particular Week or Weeks, that then and ſo often the Deficiency and Deficiencies thereof ſhall be ſupplied and made good out of the whole Receipt of the ſaid particular Branches of Exciſe, and every or any of them, ariſing in the next Week or Weeks, when the Receipt or Receipts will be ſufficient to bear the ſame.

thouſand ſeven hundred, and ending upon Wedneſday the Five and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, as aforeſaid, it is hereby enacted, That the ſaid Sum of Ninety ſix thouſand two hundred Pounds ſhall be brought and paid into the Receipt of Exchequer out of the Duties of Exciſe aforeſaid, by Two thouſand three hundred Pounds a Week, for One and forty Weeks, to be reckoned from the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, ſucceſſively, and by paying Nineteen hundred Pounds, to compleat the ſaid Ninety ſix thouſand two hundred Pounds, at the End of the Two and fortieth Week, to be reckoned from the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, over and above the conſtant weekly Payment of Three thouſand ſeven hundred Pounds aforementioned, for the Purpoſes in this Act expreſſed; and that all the Monies hereby appointed to be weekly paid into the ſaid Receipt, as aforeſaid, and every Part thereof, ſhall be applied and diſpoſed, and the ſame are hereby appropriated, for and towards the Repayment and Satiſfaction of the Sum not exceeding Eight hundred and twenty thouſand Pounds hereby authorized to be borrowed thereupon, and the Intereſt thereof, as is herein after mentioned, and to no other Uſe, Intent, or Purpoſe whatſoever; any former Act or Acts of Parliament, or other Matter or Thing whatſoever to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Reſidue of the Branches of Exciſe, &c. chargeable with the yearly Sum of 700,000 l. to be for the Uſe of the King's Houſhold and Family, &c.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all the reſt and reſidue of the ſaid particular Branches of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, which ſhall from time to time remain after the ſaid weekly Payments ſhall be made out of the ſame, and the ſaid Revenues ariſing in the ſaid General Letter Office or Poſt Office, and by the ſaid ſmall Branches herein before particularly expreſſed, and by the ſaid further Subſidy of Tunnage and Poundage, and all other the Branches and Revenues herein before mentioned, which were chargeable with the ſaid yearly Sum of Seven hundred thouſand Pounds, as aforeſaid, ſhall, from time to time, during His Majeſty's Life, be for the Uſe and Service of His Majeſty's Houſhold and Family, and for other His neceſſary Expences and Occaſions; the ſaid Act made in the Ninth Year of His Majeſty's Reign, herein before recited, or any Clauſe, Matter, or Thing therein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Clauſes touching the Overplus in the Act 9 W. 3. c. 23. repealed.

IV. And it is hereby declared and enacted, That all and every the Clauſes contained in the ſaid recited Act of Parliament for, touching, or concerning the Overplus or Produce of the ſaid Branches and Revenues, over and above the ſaid yearly Sum of Seven hundred thouſand Pounds, are and ſhall be repealed, void, and of none Effect.

Commiſſioners of Exciſe to make the ſaid weekly Payments into the Exchequer.

V. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Commiſſioners of Exciſe for the time being, at the Head Office in London, ſhall from time to time ſeparate and keep apart all the Monies ariſing by the ſaid particular Branches of Exciſe, herein before mentioned, as the ſame ſhall, from time to time, ariſe or be paid into the ſaid Office of Exciſe by the Receivers or Collectors of the ſame, or by any other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever; and ſhall, out of the Monies ſo ariſing, make the ſaid weekly Payments into the Exchequer, for Repayment of Loans, and the Intereſt thereof, according to the Purport of this preſent Act.

Penalty.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if the ſaid Commiſſioners of Exciſe for the time being ſhall refuſe or neglect to pay or cauſe to be paid into the Exchequer the ſaid weekly Sums hereby appointed, or ſhall divert or miſapply any Part of the Monies which ſhould make good the ſame, then they, and every of them ſo offending, ſhall forfeit their ſeveral Offices and Places, and be incapable to ſerve the King in any Office or Place of Truſt or Profit, and ſhall be liable for every ſuch Offence to pay double the Value of the Money ſo diverted or miſapplied, to any Perſon or Perſons, who will inform or ſue for the ſame, by Action of Debt, or of the Caſe, Bill, Suit, or Information, in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than One Imparlance, ſhall be granted or allowed.

Comptroller of Exciſe to keep Account of all the Monies ariſing by the particular Branches of Exciſe. Penalty.

VII. And be it enacted, That the Comptroller of the Exciſe for the time being ſhall keep a perfect and diſtinct Account, in a Book or Books fairly written, of all the Monies which ſhall ariſe by the ſaid particular Branches of Exciſe, out of which the ſaid weekly Payments are to be made, as aforeſaid, as the ſame ſhall from time to time ariſe or be raiſed (to which Books all Perſons concerned ſhall, at all ſeaſonable Times, have free Acceſs, without Fee or Charge) and ſuch Comptroller, in Default thereof, ſhall forfeit his Office or Place, and be rendred incapable, as aforeſaid, and ſhall alſo forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds for every ſuch Default, to any Perſon or Perſons who will inform or ſue for the ſame, as is before mentioned.

Auditor to enter in a Book the Monies brought in weekly.

VIII. And to the end the ſaid weekly Sum of Three thouſand ſeven hundred Pounds, and all the Payments hereby directed to be made into the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer, for or upon Account of the ſame, may be made a Fund or Security for borrowing thereupon any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding Eight hundred and twenty thouſand Pounds, and for Repayment thereof, with Intereſt for the ſame, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of Exchequer One Book, in which all the Monies which ought to be paid in weekly as aforeſaid, for or upon Account of the ſaid weekly Sums out of the ſaid particular Branches of Exciſe, and which ſhall be brought to the ſaid Receipt, ſhall be entred apart and diſtinct from all other Monies paid into the ſaid Receipt, on any other Account whatſoever.

Perſons may lend 820,000 l. on the weekly Payments, &c. By 6 Geo. 1. c. 4. §. 1. theſe Annuities may be taken in by the South Sea Company.

IX. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to advance and lend to His Majeſty, at the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding the Sum of Eight hundred and twenty thouſand Pounds, upon Credit of the weekly Payments hereby appointed to be made, as aforeſaid, out of the ſaid particular Branches of Exciſe; and that Tallies of Loans ſhall be levied for all and every Sum and Sums of Money ſo lent, and that Orders, according to the Courſe of the Exchequer, ſhall be drawn, ſigned, and iſſued for the Repayment of the ſame, and for Payment of Intereſt for the Forbearance of every ſuch Sum of Money, after the Rate of Six Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the Firſt Four hundred thouſand Pounds, and Seven Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the remaining Four hundred and twenty thouſand Pounds; which which Intereſt ſhall be payable every Three Months from the reſpective Dates of the ſaid Tallies of Loan, until the Satisfaction of the ſaid reſpective Principal Sums; and all and every ſuch Order and Orders, and the Monies therein to be contained, or any Part thereof, ſhall be aſſignable and transferrable, without Power of Revocation, ſo as the Aſſignments thereof be indorſed on the reſpective Orders, and entred or notified in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of Exchequer, in a Book to be there kept for that Purpoſe; and that all and every the Sum and Sums of Money ſo to be lent to His Majeſty, upon Credit of the ſaid weekly Payments, ſhall be free from all Manner of publick Taxes and Impoſitions whatſoever; and that a diſtinct Regiſter ſhall be kept in the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer, of all the Orders for Repayment of the ſaid Sum not exceeding Eight hundred and twenty thouſand Pounds, in which all the ſaid Orders ſhall be regiſtered in Courſe, according to the Dates of the Tallies reſpectively, without any other Preference of One before another; and that all and every Perſon and Perſons ſhall be paid in Courſe, according as their Orders ſhall ſtand entred in the ſaid Regiſter; and that all the Monies to come in by this Act, of or for the ſaid weekly Payments appropriated for Repayment of Loans, and the Intereſt thereupon, as aforeſaid, ſhall be in the ſame Order liable to the Satisfaction of the reſpective Lenders, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns reſpectively, according to the Dates of their Tallies, and ſhall not be diverted or divertible to any other Uſe, Intent, or Purpoſe whatſoever; and that no Fee, Reward, or Gratuity, directly or indirectly, be demanded or taken for providing or making of any Books, Entries, Regiſters, Views, or Search, in or for Payment of Money lent upon the ſaid weekly Payments, out of the ſaid Branches of Exciſe, or Intereſt, as aforeſaid, by any of His Majeſty's Officer or Officers, their Clerks or Deputies, on Pain of Payment of treble Damages to the Party aggrieved by the Party offending, with Coſts of Suit, or if the Officer himſelf take and demand any ſuch Fee or Reward, then to loſe his Place alſo; and if any undue Preference of One before another ſhall be made, either in Point of Regiſtry or Payment, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, in reference to the ſaid Principal and Intereſt payable out of the ſaid weekly Sums charged on the ſaid particular Branches of Exciſe, then the Party offending ſhall be liable, by Action of Debt or on the Caſe, to pay the Value of the Debt, Damages, and Coſts to the Party aggrieved, and ſhall be forejudged of his Place or Office; and if ſuch Preference be unduly made by any his Deputy or Clerk, without Direction or Privity of his Maſter, then ſuch Deputy or Clerk ſhall alſo be liable to ſuch Action of Debt, Damages, and Coſts, and ſhall be for ever after incapable of any Place or Office; and in caſe the Auditor ſhall not direct the Order, or the Clerk of the Pells record, or the Teller make Payment, according to each Perſon's due Place and Order, as afore directed, in reference to the ſaid weekly Sum of Three thouſand and ſeven hundred Pounds, or the ſaid Principal and Intereſt to be paid out of the ſame, then he or they ſhall be adjudged to forfeit, and they and their reſpective Deputies and Clerks herein offending, to be liable to ſuch Action, Debt, Damages, and Coſts, in ſuch Manner as aforeſaid; all which ſaid Penalties and Forfeitures to be incurred by any of the Officers of the Exchequer, or any their Deputies and Clerks, ſhall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, Injunction, or Order of Reſtraint ſhall be in any wiſe granted or allowed.

No undue Preference where Orders bear Date the ſame Day,

X. Provided always, and be it hereby declared, That if it happen that ſeveral Tallies of Loan, or Orders for Repayment of Money lent upon the ſaid weekly Sums out of the ſaid Branches of Exciſe, bear Date or be brought the ſame Day to the Auditor of the Receipt to be regiſtred, then it ſhall be interpreted no undue Preference which of thoſe he enters firſt, ſo he enters them all the ſame Day.

nor if the Tellers pay ſubſequent Orders, &c.

XI. Provided alſo, That it ſhall not be interpreted any undue Preference to incur any Penalty in Point of the Payment laſt mentioned, if the Auditor direct, or the Clerk of the Pells record, and the Tellers do pay, ſubſequent Orders of Perſons that come and demand their Monies, and bring their Orders, before other Perſons that did not come to demand their Money, and bring their Orders, in their Courſe, ſo as there be ſo much Money reſerved as will ſatisfy precedent Orders; which ſhall not be otherwiſe diſpoſed, but kept for them; Intereſt upon Loan being to ceaſe from the Time the Money is ſo reſerved and kept in Bank for them.

Charge of collecting, &c. how to be defrayed.

XII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That the Charge of collecting, managing, and levying the ſaid particular Branches of Exciſe, and other Branches and Duties before mentioned, which were liable to the ſaid yearly Sum of Seven hundred thouſand Pounds, ſhall be born and defrayed out of the ſaid reſt and reſidue of the ſame Branches and Revenues hereby appointed for the Service of His Majeſty's Houſhold and Family, and other His neceſſary Expences and Occaſions, as aforeſaid; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Monies may be lent on the laſt 420,000 l. without ſtaying till the preceding 400,000 l. be lent, &c.

XIII. Provided alſo, and it is hereby enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, at any Time or Times after the paſſing of this Act, and before ſuch Time as Four hundred thouſand Pounds Principal Monies in the whole ſhall be firſt lent thereupon, ſhall be willing to advance and lend to His Majeſty any Sum or Sums of Money, for or in Part of the Sum of Four hundred and twenty thouſand Pounds, being the laſt Part of the Sum not exceeding Eight hundred and twenty thouſand Pounds, authorized to be borrowed upon this Act, that then it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any ſuch Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to make ſuch Loans for or in Part of the ſaid laſt Four hundred and twenty thouſand Pounds, without ſtaying till the preceding Four hundred thouſand Pounds ſhall be firſt lent; and that the Principal Monies upon the Orders of Loan, for or in Part of the ſaid laſt Four hundred and twenty thouſand Pounds, ſhall be regiſtred and paid in Courſe as this Act directs, but ſhall take Place, in point of Regiſtry and Payment, next after Four hundred thouſand Pounds Principal Monies, which ſhall be firſt regiſtred, or be reſerved to be regiſtred upon this Act; and that the Intereſt of the ſaid Loans, for or in Part of the ſaid Four hundred and twenty thouſand Pounds, ſo to ſtand laſt upon the ſaid Regiſter, ſhall be paid every Three Months from the reſpective Dates of the Tallies of Loans for the ſame, out of the ſaid Monies to ariſe weekly from the ſaid particular Branches of Exciſe, as aforeſaid, under the like Penalties, Forfeitures, and Diſabilities, for not duly regiſtring or repaying the Monies ſo to be lent, for or in Part of the ſaid Four hundred and twenty thouſand Pounds, or for not duly paying the Intereſt thereof, as are by this Act provided for not duly regiſtring or repaying any other Part of the ſaid Monies, not exceeding Eight hundred and twenty thouſand Pounds, by this Act authorized to be borrowed, as aforeſaid, or Intereſt of the ſame; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Proviſo concerning the Bank of England, &c.

8 W. 3. c. 20.

9 W. 3. c. 3.

XIV. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, until ſuch Time as they ſhall be fully ſatiſfied and repaid all the Principal Monies which they ſhall lend upon Credit of this Act, for or in Part of the ſaid Sum not exceeding Four hundred and twenty thouſand Pounds, before mentioned, and the Intereſt thereof, ſhall not be obliged to make any Dividend or Dividends of the Monies, which hereafter ſhall become due and payable to, and be received by, the ſaid Governor and Company, their Servants and Agents, out of the Exchequer, or any publick Office, upon or by virtue of any Tallies or Orders ſubſcribed into the Capital Stock of the ſaid Governor and Company, purſuant to the Act of Parliament made in the Eighth Year of His Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for making good the Deficiencies of ſeveral Funds therein mentioned, and for enlarging the Capital Stock of the Bank of England, and for raiſing the Publick Credit, but at ſuch Times only as ſhall be ordered by a General Court of the ſaid Governor and Company; any Clauſe or Clauſes, Matters, or Things whatſoever in the Act laſt mentioned, or in One other Act of the Ninth Year of His Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act to give further Time for the adminiſtring of Oaths relating to Tallies and Orders, and for the eaſier Diſpatch of the publick Buſineſs in the Exchequer, and in the Bank of England, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament whatſoever contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

In lieu of the perpetual annual Payments out of the Exciſe granted by K. Charles 2. the Hereditary Exciſe after 25 Dec. 1705. ſhall ſtand charged with the yearly Payments of 3 l. per Cent. See 13 Geo. 1. c. 3. §. 7.

XV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in Lieu and Diſcharge of certain perpetual annual Payments, and of all Arrears thereof, granted by His late Majeſty King CHARLES the Second, by Letters Patent, out of the ſaid Hereditary Revenue of Exciſe, in Satiſfaction of certain Principal Sums mentioned in the ſaid Letters Patent to be then due from His ſaid late Majeſty to the reſpective Patentees therein named, the ſaid Hereditary Revenue of Exciſe ſhall, from and after the Twenty ſixth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, be and ſtand charged and chargeable for ever with the Payment of annual Sums after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the Principal Sums mentioned in the ſaid reſpective Letters Patent, to be iſſued and paid out of the ſaid Revenue by quarterly Payments, out of the Receipt of His Majeſty's Exchequer, by the Officers of the ſame, unto the reſpective Owners and Proprietors of ſuch annual Sums, and to their Heirs and Aſſigns for ever, without any Fee or Charge, and any further or other Warrant, to be iſſued forth, had, or obtained in that Behalf; the ſaid annual Payments, after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum, to be ſubject nevertheleſs to be redeemed upon Payment of a Moiety of the Principal Sums mentioned in the ſaid reſpective Letters Patent.

CAP. III.

An Act for the Attainder of the pretended Prince of WALES of High Treaſon.

WHEREAS the pretended Prince of WALES hath, ſince the Deceaſe of the late King JAMES, by the Incitation and Encouragement of the French King (being bred up and inſtructed to introduce the Romiſh Superſtition and French Government into theſe Your Majeſty's Kingdoms) openly and traiterouſly, with Deſign to dethrone Your Majeſty, aſſumed the Name and Title of JAMES the Third, King of England, Scotland, and Ireland, and cauſed himſelf to be ſo proclaimed in the Kingdom of France, in manifeſt Violation of Your Majeſty's moſt lawful and rightful Title to the Crown of theſe Realms, and of the ſeveral Acts of Parliament made, as well for recognizing of the ſame, as for ſettling the Succeſſion of the Crown, contrary to the Duty of his Allegiance, and to the diſturbing of the Peace to theſe Your Majeſty's Kingdoms: To the end therefore that Your Majeſty's good and loyal People of England, aſſembled in Parliament, may in the moſt ſolemn Manner expreſs their utmoſt Reſentment of ſo great an Indignity done to Your Majeſty's moſt Sacred Perſon and Government, and that the ſaid Traitor may be brought more certainly and ſpeedily to condign Puniſhment; may it pleaſe Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid pretended Prince of WALES ſtand and be convicted and attainted of High Treaſon, and that he ſuffer Pains of Death, and incur all Forfeitures, as a Traitor convicted and attainted of High Treaſon.

Pretended Prince of Wales attainted of High Treaſon:

II. And for preventing traiterous Correſpondence between Your Majeſty's Subjects and the ſaid pretended Prince of WALES, or his Adherents; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any of the Subjects of the Crown of England, from and after the Firſt Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, ſhall, within this Realm or without, hold, entertain, or keep any Intelligence or Correſpondence in Perſon, or by Letters, Meſſages, or otherwiſe, with the ſaid pretended Prince of WALES, or with any Perſon or Perſons imployed by him, knowing ſuch Perſon to be ſo imployed, or ſhall by Bill of Exchange, or otherwiſe, remit or pay any Sum or Sums of Money for the Uſe or Service of the ſaid pretended Prince of WALES, knowing ſuch Money to be for ſuch Uſe or Service, ſuch Perſon ſo offending, being lawfully convicted, ſhall be taken, deemed, and adjudged to be guilty of High Treaſon, and ſhall ſuffer and forfeit as in Caſes of High Treaſon.

King's Subjects holding Correſpondence, &c. with him, or with any employed by him; or remitting Money for his Uſe, guilty of High Treaſon.

III. And be it further enacted, That where any of the Offences againſt this Act ſhall be committed out of this Realm, the ſame may be alledged, and laid, inquired of, and tried, in any County of this Kingdom of England.

Offences committed out of the Realm may be tried in England.

1 W. & M. c. 2. §. 36.

12 W. 3. c. 2.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Firſt Year of the Reign of Your moſt Excellent Majeſty and Your late Royal Conſort Queen MARY, of ever bleſſed Memory, intituled, An Act declaring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, and ſettling the Succeſſion of the Crown, it was enacted, eſtabliſhed and declared, That the Crown and Regal Government of the Kingdoms of England, France, and Ireland, and the Dominions thereunto belonging, ſhould be and continue to Your ſaid Majeſties, and the Survivor of You, during Your joint Lives, and the Life of the Survivor of Your Majeſties; and that after the Deceaſe of Your Majeſty and of the ſaid late Queen MARY, the ſaid Crown and Regal Government ſhould be and remain to the Heirs of the Body of the ſaid late Queen; and for Default of ſuch Iſſue, to Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs ANNE of Denmark, and the Heirs of Her Body; and for Default of ſuch Iſſue, to the Heirs of the Body of Your Majeſty: And whereas by One other Act made in the Twelfth Year of Your Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the further Limitation of the Crown, and better ſecuring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, it was enacted, That the Crown and Regal Government of the ſaid Kingdoms, and the Dominions thereunto belonging, with the Royal State and Dignity of the ſaid Realms, and all Honours, Stiles, Titles, Regalities, Prerogatives, Powers, Juriſdictions and Authorities, to the ſame belonging and appertaining, after the Deceaſe of Your Majeſty, and of the ſaid Princeſs ANNE of Denmark, and in Default of Iſſue of the ſaid Princeſs ANNE of Denmark, and of Your Majeſty reſpectively, ſhould be, remain, and continue to the moſt Excellent Princeſs SOPHIA, Electreſs and Dutcheſs Dowager of Hanover, Daughter of the moſt Excellent Princeſs ELIZABETH late Queen of Bohemia, Daughter of our late Sovereign Lord King JAMES the Firſt, and the Heirs of the Body of the ſaid Princeſs SOPHIA, being Proteſtants: And whereas the French King, in Hopes of diſturbing the Peace and Repoſe of Your Majeſty and Your Kingdoms, and creating Diviſions therein, hath, ſince the making the ſaid Act, cauſed the pretended Prince of Wales to be proclaimed in Your Majeſty's ſaid Kingdom of France, by the Name, Stile and Title of JAMES the Third, King of England, Scotland, and Ireland, whereupon the ſaid pretended Prince hath aſſumed the ſaid Stile and Title, in open Defiance of the Proviſions made for the Eſtabliſhment of the Title and Succeſſion of the Crown, by the ſaid ſeveral Acts of Parliament; on which ſaid Acts the Safety of Your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, the Continuance of the Monarchy of England, the Preſervation of the Proteſtant Religion, the Maintenance of the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſhed, the Security of the ancient and undoubted Rights and Liberties, and the future Peace and Tranquillity of this Kingdom, do (under God) entirely depend: To the Intent therefore that the ſaid Acts may be for ever inviolably preſerved, and that all future Queſtions and Diviſions by Reaſon of any pretended Titles to the Crown may be prevented; we Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, do humbly beſeech Your moſt Excellent Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That all and every Perſon and Perſons, as well Peers as Commoners, that ſhall bear any Office or Offices, Civil or Military, or ſhall receive any Pay, Salary, Fee or Wages, by Reaſon of any Patent or Grant from His Majeſty, or ſhall have Command or Place of Truſt from or under His Majeſty, or from any of His Majeſty's Predeceſſors, or by His or Their Authority, or by Authority derived from Him or Them, within the Realm of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or in His Majeſty's Navy, or in the ſeveral Iſlands of Jerſey and Guernſey, or ſhall be of the Houſhold or in the Service or Employment of His Majeſty, or of His Royal Highneſs Prince GEORGE, or Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs ANNE of Denmark, and all Eccleſiaſtical Perſons, all Members of Colleges and Halls in either Univerſity, that are or ſhall be of the Foundation (being of the Age of Eighteen Years) and all Perſons teaching Pupils in either Univerſity, or elſewhere, and all Schoolmaſters and Uſhers, and all Preachers and Teachers of ſeparate Congregations, and every Perſon that ſhall act as a Serjeant at Law, Counſellor at Law, Barriſter, Advocate, Attorney, Solicitor, Proctor, Clerk, or Notary, by practiſing in any Manner as ſuch in any Court or Courts whatſoever, who ſhall inhabit, reſide, or be within the Cities of London or Weſtminſter, or within Thirty Miles Diſtant from the ſame, on the Firſt Day of Eaſter Term, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and two, or at any Time during the ſaid Term, ſhall perſonally appear before the End of the ſaid Term, or of Trinity Term next following, in His Majeſty's High Court of Chancery, or in His Majeſty's Court of King's Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer, and there in publick and open Court, between the Hours of Nine of the Clock and Twelve in the Forenoon, take the Oath herein after mentioned; that is to ſay,

All Perſons having any Office, &c. under the King,

in England, &c.

or in the Service of Prince George and Princeſs Anne, and all Eccleſiaſtical Perſons, &c. Practiſers of the Law, &c.

reſiding in London, &c. ſhall, in one of the Courts of Weſtminſter, in Eaſter Term, &c.

I A. B. do truly and ſincerely acknowledge, profeſs, teſtify and declare, in my Conſcience before God and the World, That our Sovereign Lord King WILLIAM is lawful and rightful King of this Realm, and of all other His Majeſty's Dominions and Countries thereunto belonging. And I do ſolemnly and ſincerely declare, That I do believe in my Conſcience, that the Perſon pretended to be Prince of Wales, during the life of the late King JAMES, and ſince his Deceaſe pretending to be and taking upon himſelf the Stile and Title of King of England, by the Name of JAMES the Third, hath not any Right or Title whatſoever to the Crown of this Realm, or any other the Dominions thereto belonging: And I do renounce, refuſe, and abjure any Allegiance or Obedience to him. And I do ſwear, That I will bear Faith and true Allegiance to His Majeſty King WILLIAM, and him will defend to the utmoſt of my Power, againſt all traiterous Conſpiracies and Attempts whatſoever, which ſhall be made againſt His Perſon, Crown, or Dignity. And I will do my beſt Endeavour to diſcloſe and make known to His Majeſty and His Succeſſors all Treaſons and traiterous Conſpiracies, which I ſhall know to be againſt Him or any of Them. And I do

I do faithfully promiſe, to the utmoſt of my Power, to ſupport, maintain, and defend the Limitation and Succeſſion of the Crown, againſt him the ſaid JAMES, and all other Perſons whatſoever, as the ſame is and ſtands limited (by an Act intituled, An Act declaring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, and ſettling the Succeſſion of the Crown) to His Majeſty during His Majeſty's Life, and after His Majeſty's Deceaſe, to the Princeſs ANNE of Denmark, and the Heirs of Her Body, being Proteſtants; and for Default of ſuch Iſſue, to the Heirs of the Body of His Majeſty, being Proteſtants: And as the ſame by One other Act, intituled, An Act for the further Limitation of the Crown, and better ſecuring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, is and ſtands limited after the Deceaſe of His Majeſty and the Princeſs ANNE of Denmark, and for Default of Iſſue of the ſaid Princeſs, and of His Majeſty reſpectively, to the Princeſs SOPHIA, Electreſs and Dutcheſs Dowager of Hanover, and the Heirs of Her Body, being Proteſtants. And all theſe Things I do plainly and ſincerely acknowledge and ſwear, according to theſe expreſs Words by me ſpoken, and according to the plain and common Senſe and Underſtanding of the ſame Words, without any Equivocation, mental Evaſion, or ſecret Reſervation whatſoever. And I do make this Recognition, Acknowledgement, Abjuration, Renunciation and Promiſe, heartily, willingly and truly, upon the true Faith of a Chriſtian.

So help me God.

II. CAP. VI.

An Act for the further Security of His Majeſty's Perſon, and the Succeſſion of the Crown in the Proteſtant Line, and for extinguiſhing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and all other Pretenders, and their open and ſecret Abettors.

1 W. & M. c. 2. §. 36.

12 W. 3. c. 2.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Firſt Year of the Reign of Your moſt Excellent Majeſty and Your late Royal Conſort Queen MARY, of ever bleſſed Memory, intituled, An Act declaring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, and ſettling the Succeſſion of the Crown, it was enacted, eſtabliſhed and declared, That the Crown and Regal Government of the Kingdoms of England, France, and Ireland, and the Dominions thereunto belonging, ſhould be and continue to Your ſaid Majeſties, and the Survivor of You, during Your joint Lives, and the Life of the Survivor of Your Majeſties; and that after the Deceaſe of Your Majeſty and of the ſaid late Queen MARY, the ſaid Crown and Regal Government ſhould be and remain to the Heirs of the Body of the ſaid late Queen; and for Default of ſuch Iſſue, to Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs ANNE of Denmark, and the Heirs of Her Body; and for Default of ſuch Iſſue, to the Heirs of the Body of Your Majeſty: And whereas by One other Act made in the Twelfth Year of Your Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the further Limitation of the Crown, and better ſecuring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, it was enacted, That the Crown and Regal Government of the ſaid Kingdoms, and the Dominions thereunto belonging, with the Royal State and Dignity of the ſaid Realms, and all Honours, Stiles, Titles, Regalities, Prerogatives, Powers, Juriſdictions and Authorities, to the ſame belonging and appertaining, after the Deceaſe of Your Majeſty, and of the ſaid Princeſs ANNE of Denmark, and in Default of Iſſue of the ſaid Princeſs ANNE of Denmark, and of Your Majeſty reſpectively, ſhould be, remain, and continue to the moſt Excellent Princeſs SOPHIA, Electreſs and Dutcheſs Dowager of Hanover, Daughter of the moſt Excellent Princeſs ELIZABETH late Queen of Bohemia, Daughter of our late Sovereign Lord King JAMES the Firſt, and the Heirs of the Body of the ſaid Princeſs SOPHIA, being Proteſtants: And whereas the French King, in Hopes of diſturbing the Peace and Repoſe of Your Majeſty and Your Kingdoms, and creating Diviſions therein, hath, ſince the making the ſaid Act, cauſed the pretended Prince of Wales to be proclaimed in Your Majeſty's ſaid Kingdom of France, by the Name, Stile and Title of JAMES the Third, King of England, Scotland, and Ireland, whereupon the ſaid pretended Prince hath aſſumed the ſaid Stile and Title, in open Defiance of the Proviſions made for the Eſtabliſhment of the Title and Succeſſion of the Crown, by the ſaid ſeveral Acts of Parliament; on which ſaid Acts the Safety of Your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, the Continuance of the Monarchy of England, the Preſervation of the Proteſtant Religion, the Maintenance of the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſhed, the Security of the ancient and undoubted Rights and Liberties, and the future Peace and Tranquillity of this Kingdom, do (under God) entirely depend: To the Intent therefore that the ſaid Acts may be for ever inviolably preſerved, and that all future Queſtions and Diviſions by Reaſon of any pretended Titles to the Crown may be prevented; we Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, do humbly beſeech Your moſt Excellent Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That all and every Perſon and Perſons, as well Peers as Commoners, that ſhall bear any Office or Offices, Civil or Military, or ſhall receive any Pay, Salary, Fee or Wages, by Reaſon of any Patent or Grant from His Majeſty, or ſhall have Command or Place of Truſt from or under His Majeſty, or from any of His Majeſty's Predeceſſors, or by His or Their Authority, or by Authority derived from Him or Them, within the Realm of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or in His Majeſty's Navy, or in the ſeveral Iſlands of Jerſey and Guernſey, or ſhall be of the Houſhold or in the Service or Employment of His Majeſty, or of His Royal Highneſs Prince GEORGE, or Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs ANNE of Denmark, and all Eccliſieaſtical Perſons, all Members of Colleges and Halls in either Univerſity, that are or ſhall be of the Foundation (being of the Age of Eighteen Years) and all Perſons teaching Pupils in either Univerſity, or elſewhere, and all Schoolmaſters and Uſhers, and all Preachers and Teachers of ſeparate Congregations, and every Perſon that ſhall act as a Serjeant at Law, Counſellor at Law, Barriſter, Advocate, Attorney, Solicitor, Proctor, Clerk, or Notary, by practiſing in any Manner as ſuch in any Court or Courts whatſoever, who ſhall inhabit, reſide, or be within the Cities of London or Weſtminſter, or within Thirty Miles Diſtant from the ſame, on the Firſt Day of Eaſter Term, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and two, or at any Time during the ſaid Term, ſhall perſonally appear before the End of the ſaid Term, or of Trinity Term next following, in His Majeſty's High Court of Chancery, or in His Majeſty's Court of King's Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer, and there in publick and open Court, between the Hours of Nine of the Clock and Twelve in the Forenoon, take the Oath herein after mentioned; that is to ſay,

All Perſons having any Office, &c. under the King,

in England, &c.

or in the Service of Prince George and Princeſs Anne, and all Eccleſiaſtical Perſons, &c. Practiſers of the Law, &c.

reſiding in London, &c. ſhall, in one of the Courts of Weſtminſter, in Eaſter Term, &c.

I A. B. do truly and ſincerely acknowledge, profeſs, teſtify and declare, in my Conſcience before God and the World, That our Sovereign Lord King WILLIAM is lawful and rightful King of this Realm, and of all other His Majeſty's Dominions and Countries thereunto belonging. And I do ſolemnly and ſincerely declare, That I do believe in my Conſcience, that the Perſon pretended to be Prince of Wales, during the life of the late King JAMES, and ſince his Deceaſe pretending to be and taking upon himſelf the Stile and Title of King of England, by the Name of JAMES the Third, hath not any Right or Title whatſoever to the Crown of this Realm, or any other the Dominions thereto belonging: And I do renounce, refuſe, and abjure any Allegiance or Obedience to him. And I do ſwear, That I will bear Faith and true Allegiance to His Majeſty King WILLIAM, and him will defend to the utmoſt of my Power, againſt all traiterous Conſpiracies and Attempts whatſoever, which ſhall be made againſt His Perſon, Crown, or Dignity. And I will do my beſt Endeavour to diſcloſe and make known to His Majeſty and His Succeſſors all Treaſons and traiterous Conſpiracies, which I ſhall know to be againſt Him or any of Them. And

I do faithfully promiſe, to the utmoſt of my Power, to ſupport, maintain, and defend the Limitation and Succeſſion of the Crown, againſt him the ſaid JAMES, and all other Perſons whatſoever, as the ſame is and ſtands limited (by an Act intituled, An Act declaring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, and ſettling the Succeſſion of the Crown) to His Majeſty during His Majeſty's Life, and after His Majeſty's Deceaſe, to the Princeſs ANNE of Denmark, and the Heirs of Her Body, being Proteſtants; and for Default of ſuch Iſſue, to the Heirs of the Body of His Majeſty, being Proteſtants: And as the ſame by One other Act, intituled, An Act for the further Limitation of the Crown, and better ſecuring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, is and ſtands limited after the Deceaſe of His Majeſty and the Princeſs ANNE of Denmark, and for Default of Iſſue of the ſaid Princeſs, and of His Majeſty reſpectively, to the Princeſs SOPHIA, Electreſs and Dutcheſs Dowager of Hanover, and the Heirs of Her Body, being Proteſtants. And all theſe Things I do plainly and ſincerely acknowledge and ſwear, according to theſe expreſs Words by me ſpoken, and according to the plain and common Senſe and Underſtanding of the ſame Words, without any Equivocation, mental Evaſion, or ſecret Reſervation whatſoever. And I do make this Recognition, Acknowledgement, Abjuration, Renunciation and Promiſe, heartily, willingly and truly, upon the true Faith of a Chriſtian.

So help me God.

and ſubſcribe the ſame.

Perſons beyond Sea to take the Oath in three Months after Return.

IV. Provided, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend to any Perſon now beyond the Seas, who by virtue of this Act ought to take the ſaid Oath, ſo as ſuch Perſon do, within Three Months after his Return into England, take the ſaid Oath, and ſubſcribe thereunto, according to the Appointment of this Act.

Penalty on Perſon refuſing or neglecting to take the Oath;

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every the Perſon and Perſons aforeſaid, that do or ſhall neglect or refuſe to take the ſaid Oath, and ſubſcribe thereto as aforeſaid, in the ſaid Courts and Places, and at the reſpective Times aforeſaid, ſhall be ipſo facto adjudged incapable and diſabled in Law, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever, to have, occupy or enjoy the ſaid Office or Offices, Imployment or Imployments, or any Part of them, or any Matter or Thing aforeſaid, or any Profit or Advantage appertaining to them or any of them; and every ſuch Office or Place, Imployment and Imployments ſhall be void, and is hereby adjudged void.

and afterwards executing any Office, &c.

VI. And be it further enacted, That all and every ſuch Perſon and Perſons who ſhall neglect and refuſe to take the ſaid Oath within the Times, and at the Places aforeſaid, and yet after ſuch Neglect or Refuſal ſhall by himſelf or themſelves, his or their Deputy or Truſtee, execute any of the ſaid Offices or Imployments, after the ſaid Time is expired, wherein he or they ought to have taken the ſaid Oath, and being thereof lawfully convicted in or upon any Information, Preſentment, or Indictment in any of the King's Courts at Weſtminſter, or at the Aſſizes, every ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be diſabled from thenceforth to ſue or uſe any Action, Bill, Plaint, or Information in Courſe of Law, or to proſecute any Suit in any Court of Equity, or to be Guardian of any Child, or Executor or Adminiſtrator of any Perſon, or capable of any Legacy or Deed of Gift, or to be in any Office within this Realm of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and ſhall forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, to be recovered by him or them that ſhall ſue for the ſame, to be proſecuted by any Action of Debt, Suit, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of His Majeſty's Courts at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall lie.

Courts of Weſtminſter to adminiſter the Oath, &c. Manner of ſubſcribing the ſame.

25 Car. 2. c. 2.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the reſpective Courts aforeſaid to give and adminiſter the Oath aforeſaid to the Perſon and Perſons aforeſaid; and upon due Tender of any Perſon or Perſons to take the ſaid Oath, the ſaid Courts are hereby required and enjoined to adminiſter the ſame; of the taking and ſubſcribing whereof the like Regiſter ſhall be kept, as by the ſaid Act made in the Five and twentieth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second was directed to be kept, of the ſubſcribing the Declaration therein mentioned.

Perſons forfeiting Office by Neglect, &c. may have a new Grant thereof, on taking the Oath.

VIII. Provided always, That any Perſon who by any Neglect or Refuſal, according to this Act, ſhall loſe or forfeit any Office, may be capable of a new Grant of the ſaid Office, or of any other, and have and hold the ſame again, ſuch Perſon taking the ſaid Oath in ſuch Manner as aforeſaid, ſo as ſuch Office be not granted to, or actually enjoyed by, ſome other Perſon at the Time of the regranting thereof.

Perſons on board the Fleet, &c to take the Oath in Three Months after Return.

IX. Provided alſo, That nothing herein contained ſhall be conſtrued to extend to any Perſon in His Majeſty's Service on board the Fleet, or beyond the Seas, or who ſhall go beyond the Seas in His Majeſty's Service before the Twentieth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and two, ſo as ſuch Perſon take the ſaid Oath, and ſubſcribe thereunto, as aforeſaid, according to the Appointment of this Act, within Three Months after his Return into England.

No Peer or Member of the Houſe of Commons ſhall vote or ſit in either Houſe, unleſs he take the Oath, &c.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Five and twentieth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and two, no Perſon that now is, or hereafter ſhall be, a Peer of this Realm, or Member of the Houſe of Peers, ſhall vote or make his Proxy in the Houſe of Peers, or ſit there during any Debate in the ſaid Houſe of Peers; nor any Perſon that now is, or hereafter ſhall be a Member of the Houſe of Commons, ſhall vote in the Houſe of Commons, or ſit there during any Debate in the ſaid Houſe of Commons, after their Speaker is choſen, until ſuch Peer or Member ſhall from time to time reſpectively take the Oath aforeſaid, and ſubſcribe the ſame in Manner following (that is to ſay) the ſaid Oath ſhall be in this and every ſucceeding Parliament ſolemnly and publickly made and ſubſcribed, between the Hours of Nine in the Morning and Four in the Afternoon, by every ſuch Peer and Member of the Houſe of Peers, at the Table in the Middle of the ſaid Houſe, before he take his Place in the ſaid Houſe of Peers, and whilſt a full Houſe of Peers is there, with their Speaker in his Place; and by every ſuch Member of the Houſe of Commons, at the Table in the Middle of the ſaid Houſe, and whilſt a full Houſe of Commons is there duly ſitting, with their Speaker in his Chair.

Penalty on Peer or Member, &c.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon that now is, or hereafter ſhall be, a Peer of this Realm, or Member of the Houſe of Peers, or Member of the Houſe of Commons, in this or any ſucceeding Parliament, ſhall, after the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of March, preſume to vote, or make his Proxy, not having taken the ſaid Oath, and ſubſcribed the ſame, as aforeſaid, every ſuch Peer or Member ſo offending ſhall from thenceforth be deemed and adjudged a Popiſh Recuſant Convict, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever, and ſhall forfeit and ſuffer as a Popiſh Recuſant Convict, and ſhall be diſabled to hold or execute any Office or Place of Profit or Truſt, Civil or Military, in any of His Majeſty's Realms of England or Ireland, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or in any of His Majeſty's Iſlands or Foreign Plantations to the ſaid Realms belonging, and ſhall be diſabled from thenceforth to ſit or vote in either Houſe of Parliament, or make a Proxy in the Houſe of Peers, or to ſue or uſe any Action, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in Courſe of Law, or to proſecute any Suit in any Court of Equity, or to be Guardian of any Child, or Executor or Adminiſtrator of any Perſon, or capable of any Legacy or Deed of Gift, and ſhall forfeit for every wilful Offence againſt this Act the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, to be recovered and received by him or them that ſhall ſue for the ſame, and to be proſecuted by any Action of Debt, Suit, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of His Majeſty's Courts at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall lie.

Act not to vacate any Office of Inheritance, &c.

25 Car. 2. c. 2.

XII. Provided always, That neither this Act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall extend, be judged, or interpreted to take away or make void, any Office of Inheritance, ſo as ſuch Perſon or Perſons having an Office of Inheritance do or ſhall ſubſtitute and appoint his or their Deputy or Deputies, according to a Proviſo in the Act made in the Five and twentieth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second (intituled, An Act for preventing Dangers which may happen from Popiſh Recuſants) and ſo as ſuch Deputy or Deputies do take and ſubſcribe the Oath in and by this preſent Act required and expreſſed, and ſo as ſuch Deputy or Deputies be from time to time approved of by the King's Majeſty, under His Privy Signet.

Perſons authorized to adminiſter the Oath.

1 W. & M. ſt. 1. c. 8.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons lawfully authorized to adminiſter or tender the Oaths, mentioned and appointed to be taken by an Act of Parliament made in the Firſt Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty and of the late Queen, intituled, An Act for the abrogating the Oaths of Supremacy and Allegiance, and appointing other Oaths, to adminiſter and tender the Oath herein before appointed to be taken, to any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever; and if any Perſon or Perſons, to whom the ſaid Oath ſhall be ſo tendred, ſhall neglect or refuſe to take the ſame, the Perſon and Perſons tendring the ſaid Oath ſhall certify the Refuſal thereof to the next Quarter Seſſions of the County, Riding, Liberty, Borough, Town Corporate, or Place, in which ſuch Refuſal ſhall be made; and the ſaid Refuſal ſhall be recorded amongſt the Rolls of that Seſſions, and ſhall be from thence certified by the Clerk of the Peace of ſuch County, Riding, Liberty, Borough, Town Corporate, or Place, into His Majeſty's Court of Chancery or King's Bench, there to be recorded amongſt the Rolls of the ſaid Courts, in a Roll or Rolls there to be provided and kept for that Purpoſe only.

Refuſals to be recorded.

Not to extend to High or Petty Conſtables, &c.

XIV. Provided always, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to the Office of any High Conſtable, Petty Conſtable, Tithingman, Headborough, Overſeer of the Poor, Churchwardens, Surveyors of the Highways, or any like inferior Civil Office, or to any Office of Foreſter, or Keeper of any Park, Chaſe, Warren, or Game, or Bailiff of any Manor or Lands, nor to any like private Offices, nor to any Perſon or Perſons having only any the before mentioned or the like Offices.

High Treaſon to compaſs or imagine the Death of the Princeſs Anne of Denmark, &c.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons, at any Time after the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and two, ſhall compaſs or imagine the Death of Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Anne of Denmark, or endeavour to deprive or hinder Her from ſucceeding to the Imperial Crown of this Realm, and the Dominions and Territories thereunto belonging, after the Demiſe of His Majeſty (whom God long preſerve) and the ſame maliciouſly, adviſedly, and directly ſhall attempt, by any Overt Act or Deed, every ſuch Offence ſhall be adjudged High Treaſon, and the Offender and Offenders therein, their Abettors, Procurers, and Counſellers, and all and every their Aiders and Comforters, knowing the ſaid Offence to be done, being thereof convicted or attainted according to the Laws and Statutes of this Realm, ſhall be deemed and adjudged Traitors, and ſhall ſuffer Pains of Death, and all Loſſes and Forfeitures, as in Caſes of High Treaſon.

7 W. 3. c. 27.

XVI. And whereas by an Act made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for the better Security of His Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, the Perſons therein mentioned were obliged to ſubſcribe the Aſſociation therein contained, whereby the Perſons ſubſcribing the ſame do, amongſt other Things, mutually promiſe and engage to ſtand by and aſſiſt each other to the utmoſt of their Power, in the Support and Defence of His Majeſty's moſt Sacred Perſon and Government, againſt the late King James and all his Adherents: And whereas by the Death of the ſaid late King James the ſaid Clauſe is become uſeleſs; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of March, there ſhall be omitted and left out of the ſaid Aſſociation theſe Words [againſt the late King James and all his Adherents] and in the Room and Place thereof there ſhall be inſerted theſe Words [againſt all His Majeſty's Enemies whatſoever.]

Words to be omitted in the Aſſociation; others inſerted.

by further enacted, That all the Reſt and Reſidue of the ſaid particular Branches of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, which ſhould from time to time remain after the ſaid weekly Payments ſhould be made out of the ſame, and the Revenue ariſing in the General Letter Office or Poſt Office, or the Office of Poſt Maſter General, and by the ſaid further Subſidy of Tunnage and Poundage, and by the ſmall Branches of His Majeſty's Revenues herein after particularly expreſſed, that is to ſay, The Firſt Fruits and Tenths of the Clergy, the Fines for Writs of Covenant and Writs of Entry, payable in the Alienation Office, the Poſt Fines, the Revenue of Wine Licences, the Monies ariſing by Sheriffs Profers and Compoſitions in the Exchequer, and by Seizures of uncuſtomed and prohibited Goods, the Revenue of the Duchy of Cornwal, and any other Revenue ariſing by the Rents of Land in England and Wales, and for Fines of Leaſes of the ſame, or any of them, and the Duty of Four and an Half per Centum in Specie ariſing in Barbadoes and the Leeward Iſlands in America, and all other the Branches and Revenues therein mentioned, which were before chargeable with the yearly Sum of Seven hundred thouſand Pounds therein expreſſed, ſhould from time to time, during the Life of His ſaid late Majeſty King William, be for the Uſe and Service of His ſaid late Majeſty's Houſhold and Family, and for other His neceſſary Expences and Occaſions: And it is thereby further enacted, That in Lieu and Diſcharge of certain perpetual annual Payments, and of all Arrears thereof, granted by His late Majeſty King Charles the Second, by Letters Patent, out of the ſaid Hereditary Revenue of Exciſe, in Satisfaction of certain Principal Sums mentioned in the ſaid Letters Patent, to be then due from His ſaid late Majeſty King Charles the Second, to the reſpective Patentees therein named, the ſaid Hereditary Revenue of Exciſe ſhould, from and after the Twenty ſixth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, be and ſtand charged and chargeable for ever with the Payment of the annual Sums, after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the Principal Sums mentioned in the ſaid reſpective Letters Patent, to be iſſued and paid out of the ſaid Revenue by quarterly Payments out of the Receipt of His Majeſty's Exchequer, by the Officers of the ſame, unto the reſpective Owners and Proprietors of ſuch annual Sums, and to their Heirs and Aſſigns for ever, in the Manner in the ſame Act mentioned; the ſaid annual Payments, after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum, to be ſubject nevertheleſs to be redeemed upon Payment of the Moiety of the Principal Monies mentioned in the ſaid reſpective Letters Patent; as by the ſeveral Acts afore recited (Relation being thereunto reſpectively had) may more fully appear: Now we Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of England in Parliament aſſembled, well knowing that the Security, Peace, and Proſperity of Your Majeſty's Realms and Dominions are concerned in ſupporting the Honour of the Crown of England, by ſettling a Revenue ſuitable to the neceſſary Expences of the ſame; and with due Gratitude to Almighty God (by whoſe Goodneſs Your Majeſty happily ſucceeds to the Royal Dignity of theſe Realms after a King that conſtantly maintained the true Religion, Laws and Liberties therein eſtabliſhed) reflecting upon Your Majeſty's moſt Excellent Diſpoſition to preſerve and continue Your People in the full and free Enjoyment of the ſame Religion, Laws and Liberties, and of all other Bleſſings which good Subjects can hope for in the moſt auſpicious Reign, whereby our Hearts are inflamed with a dutiful Affection to Your Majeſty; and being deſirous of ſettling upon Your Majeſty, for the Expences of Your Civil Government, a Revenue equal at leaſt to the Revenue enjoyed for that Purpoſe by any of Your Royal Predeceſſors, to make a ſpecial Acknowledgment to Your Majeſty for Your great Grace and Favour to us Your Commons, have therefore freely and unanimouſly reſolved to give and grant, and do hereby give and grant to You our moſt Gracious Sovereign Lady Queen Anne (whom God long preſerve) the ſeveral Rates, Duties, Impoſitions and Charges herein after mentioned, during Your Majeſty's Life; and do moſt humbly beſeech Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Ninth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, for and during the Term of the natural Life of Her Majeſty Queen Anne (whom God long preſerve) the ſaid Rates and Duties of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, granted to His ſaid late Majeſty King Charles the Second, by the ſaid Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His ſaid late Majeſty King Charles the Second, intituled, A Grant of certain Impoſitions upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, for the Increaſe of His Majeſty's Revenue during His Life, and which were granted to Their late Majeſties King William and Queen Mary, by the ſaid Act made in the Second Year of Their Reign, for their Lives, and the Life of the Survivor of them (other than and except the ſaid Duty of Six Pence for every Barrel of Vinegar Beer granted by the ſame Acts) and alſo the ſaid Duty of Six Pence, Part of the ſaid Duty of Eight Shillings, granted to His late Majeſty King William, for and upon every Barrel of Vinegar, Vinegar Beer, or Liquor preparing for Vinegar, which ſhall be brewed or made of any Engliſh Materials by any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever for Sale, and ſo in Proportion for a greater or leſſer Quantity, by the ſaid Act made in the Tenth Year of His Reign, ſhall be levied, collected and paid to Her Majeſty, in the ſame Manner and Form, and by ſuch Rules, Ways, Means and Methods, and under ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, as are mentioned and expreſſed in the before mentioned Acts, or any of them, relating to the ſaid Duties of Exciſe, or any of them, or by any other Law now in Force relating to the Revenue of Exciſe; and that all and every the ſaid Laws relating to the Revenue of Exciſe ſhall be of full Force and Effect to all Intents and Purpoſes, for the levying, receiving, aſcertaining and recovering the ſaid Duties of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors hereby granted, in the ſame Manner as if the ſame were repeated and enacted in the Body of this preſent Act.

Duties granted for the Queen's Life, viz.

Exciſe on Beer, Ale, &c. granted to King William and Queen Mary for Life, &c. 12 Car. 2 c. 23. 2 W. & M. ſſ. 1. c. 3. (Except 6 d. a Barrel on Vinegar Beer) and 6 d. Part of the Duty of 8 s. per Barrel for Vinegar, &c. granted by 10 W. 3 c. 21.

In what Manner Duties ſhall be levied.

All Laws of Exciſe to be in Force.

9 W. 2. c. 23.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid further Subſidies of Tunnage and Poundage, and other Duties upon Wines, Goods and Merchandizes, granted by the ſaid Act made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His ſaid late Majeſty King William, ſhall, from and after the ſaid Ninth Day of March, during Her Majeſty's Life, be raiſed, levied, collected, paid and ſatisfied unto Her Majeſty, by the ſame Ways, Means and Methods, and by the ſame Rules and Directions, and with the ſame Allowances, as are mentioned in the ſame Act made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His ſaid late Majeſty King William; and the ſame Act, and every Article, Rule, and Clauſe therein contained, or thereby referred to, ſo far as the ſame relates to the raiſing, levying, collecting and making Allowances out of the ſaid Subſidies and other Duties, ſhall be of full Force and Effect to all Intents and Purpoſes, during Her Majeſty's Life, as if the ſame were particularly and at large repeated and ſet down in the Body of this Act.

Duties of Exciſe, Poſt Office, &c ſhall be for the Support of the Queen's Houſhold, &c.

III. And it is hereby enacted and declared, That the ſaid Hereditary Rates and Duties of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, and the ſaid Duties of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, hereby granted to Her Majeſty for the Term of Her Life (ſubject nevertheleſs to the Incumbrances herein after mentioned) and the ſaid Revenue of the General Letter Office or Poſt Office, or the Office of Poſt Maſter General, and the ſaid ſmall Branches of Her Majeſty's Revenue (that is to ſay) The Firſt Fruits and Tenths of the Clergy, the Fines for Writs of Covenant and Writs of Entry, payable in the Alienation Office, the Poſt Fines, the Revenue of the Wine Licences, the Monies ariſing by Sheriffs Profers and Compoſitions in the Exchequer, and by the Seizures of uncuſtomed and prohibited Goods, the Revenue of the Duchy of Cornwal, and any other Revenue ariſing by the Rents of Lands in England and Wales, or for Fines for Leaſes of the ſame, or any of them, and the Monies ariſing by the ſaid further Subſidies of Tunnage and Poundage, and other Duties hereby granted, and all other the Branches and Revenues which were chargeable with the ſaid yearly Sum of Seven hundred thouſand Pounds (the ſaid Duty of Four and an Half per Centum in Specie ariſing in Barbadoes and the Leeward Iſlands in America, always excepted and foreprized) ſhall be for the Support of Her Majeſty's Houſhold, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown; yet nevertheleſs the ſaid Hereditary Rates and Duties of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, and the ſaid Rates and Duties of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, hereby granted to Her Majeſty, during Her Life, and every of them, ſhall be liable and ſubject to the ſaid weekly Payment of Three thouſand ſeven hundred Pounds, according to the Tenure and Effect of the ſaid Act of Parliament, made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His ſaid late Majeſty King William, in the ſame Manner as the ſaid Hereditary Rates and Duties of Exciſe, and the ſaid Rates and Duties of Exciſe which were granted in the Second Year of the Reign of Their ſaid late Majeſties, and every of them, jointly or ſeverally, would have been liable to the ſame weekly Payment, if His ſaid Majeſty had continued in this Life, during the ſaid Term of Five Years; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Duties of Exciſe ſubject to the weekly Payment of 3,700 l. for 5 Years from 1700.

2 W & M. ſſ. 1. c. 3.

After Expiration of the ſaid 5 Years, how to be applied.

IV. Provided alſo, and it is hereby enacted and declared, That from and after the Expiration of the ſaid Term of Five Years, ſo much Money as together with the ſaid Payments, after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, then to commence and to be applied for Satiſfaction of the ſaid Patentees, and thoſe claiming under them, as aforeſaid, ſhall make up the Sum of Three thouſand ſeven hundred Pounds for every Week, during Her Majeſty's Life, ſhall and may be taken out of the ſaid Hereditary Rates and Duties of Exciſe, and out of the Rates and Duties of Exciſe hereby granted to Her Majeſty for Her Life, and either or any of them; and the ſaid Payments after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, being deducted out of the Hereditary Part thereof, the Reſidue of the ſaid Three thouſand ſeven hundred Pounds per Week, be applied and diſpoſed of to and for the Publick Uſe and Service; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

For the farther Application of the Duty ariſing by this Act, ſee 12 Annæ, ſtat. 1. c. 11. §. 27.

V. And whereas the neceſſary Expences of ſupporting the Crown, or the greateſt Part of them, were formerly defrayed by a Land Revenue, which hath from time to time been impaired and diminiſhed by the Grants of former Kings and Queens of this Realm, ſo that Her Majeſty's Land Revenues at preſent can afford very little towards the Support of Her Government; nevertheleſs from time to time, upon the Determination of the particular Eſtates, whereupon many Reverſions and Remainders in the Crown do now depend or expect, and by ſuch Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments as may hereafter deſcend, eſcheat, or otherwiſe accrue or come to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs or Succeſſors, the Land Revenues of the Crown, in Fines, Rents, and other Profits thereof, may hereafter be increaſed, and conſequently the Burthen upon the Eſtates of the Subjects of this Realm may be eaſed and leſſened in all future Proviſions to be made for the Expences of the Civil Government: To the End therefore that the Land Revenues of the Crown may be preſerved, improved and increaſed for the beſt Advantage thereof, be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Grant, Leaſe, or other Aſſurance, which from and after the Five and twentieth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and two, ſhall be made or granted by Her Majeſty, Her Heirs or Succeſſors, Kings or Queens of this Realm, under the Great Seal of England, Exchequer Seal, Seals of the Duchy and County Palatine of Lancaſter, or any of them, or by Copy of Court Roll or otherwiſe howſoever, of any Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Tithes, Woods, or other Hereditaments (Advowſons of Churches and Vicarages only excepted) within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or any of them, or any Part thereof, now belonging or hereafter to belong to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs or Succeſſors, or to any other Perſon or Perſons in Truſt for Her Majeſty, Her Heirs or Succeſſors, in Poſſeſſion, Reverſion, Remainder, Uſe or Expectancy, whether the ſame be or ſhall be in Right of the Crown of England, or as Part of the Principality of Wales, or of the Duchy or County Palatine of Lancaſter, or otherwiſe howſoever, to any Perſon or Perſons, Body Politick or Corporate whatſoever, whereby any Eſtate or Intereſt whatſoever, in Law or Equity, ſhall or may paſs from Her Majeſty, Her Heirs or Succeſſors, ſhall be utterly void and of none Effect, unleſs ſuch Grant, Leaſe, or Aſſurance be made for ſome Term or Eſtate, not exceeding One and thirty Years, or Three Lives, or for ſome Term of Years determinable upon One, Two, or Three Lives; and unleſs ſuch Grant, Leaſe or Aſſurance reſpectively, be made to commence from the Date or making thereof; and if ſuch Grant, Leaſe or Aſſurance, be made to take Effect in Reverſion or Expectancy, that then the ſame, together with the Eſtate or Eſtates in Poſſeſſion of and in the Premiſſes therein contained, do not exceed Three Lives, or the Term of One and thirty Years in the whole; and unleſs ſuch Grant, Leaſe or Aſſurance reſpectively be ſo made, that the Tenant be liable to Puniſhment for Waſte; and unleſs there be reſerved upon every ſuch Grant, Leaſe or Aſſurance reſpectively, the ancient or moſt uſual Rent, or more, or ſuch Rent

Forpreſerving, &c. the Land Revenue, of the Crown, no Grant ſhall be made of any Manors, Lands, &c. belonging to the Crown, unleſs for 31 Years or 3 Lives, &c.

Tenant puniſhable for Waſte. Ancient Rent reſerved, &c.

Rent as hath been reſerved, yielded, and paid for ſuch of the ſaid Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Tithes, or other Hereditaments, as ſhall be therein contained, for the greater Part of Twenty Years before the making thereof; and where no ſuch Rent ſhall have been reſerved or payable, that then upon every ſuch Grant, Leaſe, or Aſſurance, there be reſerved a reaſonable Rent, not being under the Third Part of the clear yearly Value of ſuch of the ſaid Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, Tithes, or other Hereditaments, as ſhall be contained in ſuch Leaſe or Grant; and unleſs ſuch reſpective Rents be made payable to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs or Succeſſors, who ſhall make ſuch Leaſe or Grant, and to her or their Heirs or Succeſſors, during the whole Term or Time of the Continuance thereof reſpectively.

and payable to the Queen, &c.

Tenements, &c. belonging to the Crown, and wanting Reparation, or to be re-edified, &c. Queen may grant ſuch Tenements for 50 Years or 3 Lives, &c.

VI. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That from time to time, where the greateſt Part of the yearly Value of any Tenements or Hereditaments belonging, or hereafter to belong, to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs or Succeſſors, doth or ſhall, at the Time of making any Leaſe or Grant thereof, conſiſt of the Building or Buildings thereupon, which may want to be repaired or re-edified, in all and every ſuch Caſe and Caſes, to encourage the Rebuilding or Reparation thereof, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, at any Time after the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and two, to demiſe or grant ſuch Tenements or Hereditaments to any Perſon or Perſons for any Term or Eſtate, ſo as ſuch Term or Eſtate do not exceed Fifty Years, or Three Lives, and ſo as ſuch Leaſe or Grant be made to commence from the Date or making thereof; or if ſuch Grant or Leaſe be made to take Effect in Reverſion or Expectancy, that then the ſame, together with the Eſtate or Eſtates in Poſſeſſion, of and in the ſame Tenements or Hereditaments, do not exceed Fifty Years, or Three Lives, from the Date or making, as aforeſaid, and ſo as the ſame be not made diſpuniſhable of Waſte, and ſo as there be reſerved and payable upon every ſuch Leaſe or Grant, during ſuch Term, not exceeding Fifty Years, or Three Lives, as much Rent as is by this Act required to be reſerved for the ſame Tenements or Hereditaments reſpectively, in caſe of a Leaſe, not exceeding One and thirty Years, or Three Lives, as aforeſaid, and not otherwiſe; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

not diſpuniſhable of Waſte;

and Rent reſerved to be paid.

VII. And to the Intent the Inheritance which Her Majeſty hath of and in the ſaid Hereditary Duties of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, and of and in the ſaid Revenue ariſing in the ſaid general Letter Office or Poſt Office, and in the ſmall Branches of Her Majeſty's Revenue herein after mentioned (that is to ſay) The Firſt Fruits and Tenths of the Clergy, the Fines for Writs of Covenant and Writs of Entry, payable in the Alienation Office, the Poſt Fines, the Revenue of the Wine Licences, and the Revenue ariſing by Sheriffs Profers, and Compoſitions in the Exchequer, and by Seizures of uncuſtomed and prohibited Goods, may be preſerved in the Crown, for the future Benefit thereof; be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Hereditary Duties of Exciſe, and the ſaid Revenue ariſing in the ſaid general Letter Office or Poſt Office, and the ſaid ſmall Branches of Her Majeſty's Revenue laſt mentioned, or any of them, or any Part thereof, ſhall not hereafter be alienable or grantable by Her Majeſty, Her Heirs or Succeſſors, for any Eſtate or Term whatſoever, to endure longer than the Life of Her Majeſty, or of ſuch King or Queen as ſhall make ſuch Alienation or Grant reſpectively; and that all Gifts, Grants, Alienations, Leaſes, and Aſſurances whatſoever, to be had or made of any the ſaid Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Tithes, or other Hereditaments, or of any the ſaid Revenues or Branches, or any Part thereof, contrary to the Proviſions of this Act, or any of them, ſhall be null and void, without any Inquiſition, Scire facias, or other Proceeding, to determine or make void the ſame.

Duties, &c. hereby granted not alienable by the Crown, &c.

Grants, &c. made contrary to this Act void.

Queen may make Leaſes, &c. in her Duchy of Cornwall by virtue of an Act 12 W. 3. c. 13.

and grant away or reſtore Eſtates forfeited for Treaſon, &c. or ſeized on Outlawry, or taken in Execution, and cuſtomary Grants of Copyhold Eſtates. Truſtees for Fee Farm Rents may execute their Truſt, &c.

VIII. Provided always, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to diſable Her Majeſty, Her Heirs or Succeſſors, to make ſuch Leaſes, Copies, or Grants, as ſhe or they may make by virtue of an Act of Parliament made and paſſed in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His ſaid late Majeſty King WILLIAM, for making Leaſes or Copies of Offices, Lands, or Hereditaments, Parcel of the Duchy of Cornwall, or annexed to the ſame, or to alter or prejudice any the Powers, Matters, or Things therein contained, or to be done in purſuance thereof, or to diſable Her Majeſty, Her Heirs or Succeſſors, to make any Grant or Reſtitution of any Eſtate or Eſtates hereafter to be forfeited for any Treaſon or Felony whatſoever, or to diſable Her Majeſty, Her Heirs or Succeſſors, to grant, demiſe, or aſſign any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, which ſhall be ſeized or taken into Her or their Hands upon any Outlawry, at the Suit of Her or their Subjects, as hath been uſual, or any Eſtate whatſoever, which is or ſhall be ſeized, extended, or taken in Execution for any Debt owing or to be due to the Crown, as ſhe or they ſhall think fit, or to make any Grants or Admittances, which of Right or Cuſtom ought to be made, of any Copyhold Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, Parcel of any Manor or Manors of Her Majeſty, Her Heirs or Succeſſors, or to diſable the Truſtees for Sale of Fee Farm and other Rents, to execute any the Truſts, Powers, or other Matters or Things by them to be executed, done, or performed, in purſuance of the ſeveral Acts of Parliament concerning the Sale of the ſaid Rents, or the making of ſuch Reprizes as ought to be made by them; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Saving of Right, &c.

IX. Saving always to all and every Perſon and Perſons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, their Heirs and Succeſſors, Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, other than to our ſaid Sovereign Lady, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, all ſuch Rights, Titles, Eſtates, Cuſtoms, Intereſts, Claims, and Demands whatſoever, of, in, or to, or out of the Revenues, Hereditaments, and other the Premiſſes aforeſaid, or any of them, as they or any of them had or ought to have had before the making of this Act, as fully, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if this Act had never been made; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP.

CAP. VIII.

An Act for explaining a Clauſe in an Act made at the Parliament begun and holden at Weſtminſter, the Two and twentieth of November, in the Seventh Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for the better Security of His Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government.

7 W. 3. c. 27.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made at the Parliament begun and holden at Weſtminſter the Two and twentieth Day of November, in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for the better Security of His Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, it was among other Things enacted, That no Commiſſion, either Civil or Military, ſhould ceaſe, determine, or be void by reaſon of the Death or Demiſe of His ſaid Majeſty, or of any of His Heirs or Succeſſors, Kings or Queens of this Realm, but that every ſuch Commiſſion ſhould be, continue, and remain in full Force and Virtue, for the Space of Six Months next after any ſuch Death or Demiſe, unleſs in the mean Time ſuperſeded, determined, or made void by the next and immediate Succeſſor, to whom the Imperial Crown of this Realm, according to the Act of Settlement, in the ſame recited Act mentioned, is limited and appointed to go, remain, or deſcend: And foraſmuch as ſome Doubt may be conceived concerning the Extent of that Clauſe; therefore for the avoiding of any Diſpute or Queſtion that may ariſe concerning the Conſtruction thereof; be it declared and enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That no Patent or Grant of any Office or Employment, either Civil or Military, ſhall be taken, conſtrued, or adjudged, to ceaſe, determine, or be void, by reaſon of the Death or Demiſe of His ſaid late Majeſty, but that every ſuch Patent or Grant ſhall be, continue, and remain in full Force and Virtue, from and after the Seventh Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, for the Space of Six Months then next enſuing, unleſs in the mean Time ſuperſeded, determined, or made void by Her preſent Majeſty.

No Patent, &c. to ceaſe by the late King's Death, but continued for 6 Months, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That no Patent or Grant of any Office or Employment, either Civil or Military, hereafter to be made, ſhall ceaſe, determine, or be void, by reaſon of the Death or Demiſe of Her preſent Majeſty (whom God Almighty long preſerve to reign over this Realm) or any of Her Heirs or Succeſſors, Kings or Queens of this Realm, but that every ſuch Patent or Grant ſhall be, continue, and remain, in full Force and Virtue, for the Space of Six Months next after any ſuch Death or Demiſe, unleſs in the mean Time ſuperſeded, determined, or made void by the next and immediate Succeſſor, to whom the Imperial Crown of this Realm is limited and appointed to go, remain, or deſcend.

No Patent, &c. to ceaſe after the Queen's Death, but to continue for 6 Months, &c.

III. And be it enacted and declared, That the Juſtices of Aſſize, Oyer and Terminer, Gaol Delivery, and Niſi prius, and Juſtices of the Peace, may proceed at their ſeveral Aſſizes and Seſſions, as they might have done if His ſaid late Majeſty King WILLIAM the Third were living, but as Her Majeſty's Juſtices, and in Her Name; and that no Writ, Plea, Proceſs, or any other Proceeding upon any Indictment or Information for any Offence or Miſdemeanor, nor any Writ, Proceſs, or Proceeding whatſoever, for any Debt or Account that was due or to be made to His late Majeſty, or concerning any Lands, Tenements, or other Revenue that did belong to His late Majeſty, depending at the Time of the Demiſe of His ſaid late Majeſty, ſhall be diſcontinued or put without Day, by reaſon of His Death or Demiſe, but ſhall continue and remain in full Force and Virtue, to be proceeded upon in like Manner as if His ſaid Majeſty were living.

Juſtices may proceed, &c. as if the King had been living, but in the Queen's Name.

No Writ, &c. to be diſcontinued, &c. Archiep. Armagh. v. Regem, in domo Procerum. 1728.

IV. And be it further enacted, That no Writ, Plea, or Proceſs, or any other Proceeding upon any Indictment or Information for any Offence or Miſdemeanor, or any Writ, Proceſs, or Proceeding, for any Debt or Account that ſhall be due or to be made to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs or Succeſſors, for or concerning any Lands, Tenements, or other Revenue that ſhall belong to Her or them, that ſhall be depending at the Time of Her Majeſty's Demiſe (whom God long preſerve) or of any of Her Heirs or Succeſſors, ſhall be diſcontinued or put without Day, by reaſon of Her or any of their Deaths or Demiſes, but ſhall continue and remain in full Force and Virtue, to be proceeded upon notwithſtanding any ſuch Death or Demiſe.

The like on the Queen's Death, &c.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Commiſſion of Aſſociation, Writ of Admittance, or Si non omnes, Original Writ, Writ of Niſi prius, Writ of Aſſiſtance, nor any Commiſſion, Proceſs, or Proceedings whatſoever, in or iſſuing out of any Court of Equity, nor any Proceſs or Proceeding upon any Office or Inquiſition, nor any Writ of Certiorari or Habeas Corpus, in any Matter or Cauſe, either Criminal or Civil, nor any Writ of Attachment or Proceſs for Contempt, nor any Commiſſion of Delegacy or Review, for any Matters Eccleſiaſtical, Teſtamentary, or Maritime, or any Proceſs thereupon, ſhall be determined, abated, or diſcontinued by the Demiſe of the ſaid late King, but all and every ſuch Writ, Commiſſion, Proceſs, and Proceedings, ſhall be and are hereby revived and continued, and ſhall be in full Force and Virtue, and ſhall and may be proceeded upon as if His late Majeſty were living; nor hereafter by the Demiſe of Her preſent Majeſty, or any King or Queen of this Realm, ſhall any Commiſſion of Aſſize, Oyer and Terminer, general Gaol Delivery, or of Aſſociation, Writ of Admittance, Writ of Si non omnes, Writ of Aſſiſtance, or Commiſſion of the Peace, be determined; but every ſuch Commiſſion and Writ ſhall be and continue in full Force and Virtue, for the Space of Six Months next enſuing, notwithſtanding any ſuch Demiſe, unleſs ſuperſeded and determined by Her Majeſty, Her Heirs or Succeſſors: And alſo no Original Writ, Writ of Niſi prius, Commiſſion, Proceſs or Proceedings whatſoever, in or iſſuing out of any Court of Equity, nor any Proceſs or Proceeding upon any Office or Inquiſition, nor any Writ of Certiorari or Habeas Corpus in any Matter or Cauſe, either Criminal or Civil, nor any Writ of Attachment, or Proceſs for Contempt, nor any Commiſſion of Delegacy or Review, for any Matters Eccleſiaſtical, Teſtamentary, or Maritime, or any Proceſs thereupon, ſhall be determined, abated, or diſcontinued, by the Demiſe of Her Majeſty, or any King or Queen of this Realm; but every ſuch Writ, Commiſſion, Proceſs, and Proceeding, ſhall remain in full Force and Virtue,

No Proceedings in any Court of Equity, &c. to ceaſe; but be continued; nor hereafter by Her Majeſty's Death, but be in force for 6 Months.

to be proceeded upon, as if Her Majeſty, or ſuch other King or Queen had lived, notwithſtanding any ſuch Death or Demiſe.

Act to extend to Ireland, Jerſey, and Guernſey, &c.

VI. And be it further enacted, That all and ſingular the Proviſions, Clauſes, Matters and Things whatſoever contained in this Act, and in that Part of the Act made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of the late King, which is recited in this preſent Act, ſhall extend, and be conſtrued to extend to the Kingdom of Ireland, to the Iſlands of Jerſey and Guernſey, and to all Her Majeſty's Dominions in America and elſewhere.

and to commence from 8 March, 1701.

VII. And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That this preſent Act, and all other Acts to which the Royal Aſſent ſhall be given after the Eighth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, and before the End of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, ſhall commence and begin, and be taken, conſtrued and adjudged in Law, to commence and begin upon the ſaid Eighth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, unleſs in ſuch Acts ſome other Time for Commencement thereof be ſpecially limited and appointed.

CAP. IX.

An Act for continuing the Act made in the Eighth Year of His late Majeſty's Reign, for better preventing the counterfeiting the Current Coin of this Kingdom.

8 W. 3. c. 26.
9 W. 3. c. 21.

WHEREAS an Act of Parliament made in the Eighth Year of His late Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better preventing the counterfeiting the Current Coin of this Kingdom, was, by a Clauſe in another Act made in the Ninth Year of His ſaid Majeſty's Reign, continued in Force unto the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament: And whereas the ſaid Act hath been found of good Uſe, for ſuppreſſing the counterfeiting the Current Coin of this Kingdom by ſuch Tools and Inſtruments as are therein prohibited: be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Act made in the Eighth Year of His late Majeſty's Reign, and every Article and Clauſe therein contained, ſhall from henceforth continue and be in Force until the Five and twentieth Day of March, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and nine, and from thenceforth unto the End of the Firſt Seſſion of Parliament then next enſuing, and no longer.

II. And whereas in the aforeſaid Act it is ordained, That no Proſecution ſhall be made for any Offence againſt the ſaid Act, unleſs ſuch Proſecution be commenced within Three Months after ſuch Offence committed; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Proſecution of ſuch Perſon or Perſons as offend againſt the ſaid Act, by making or mending, or beginning, or proceeding to make or mend any coining Tool or Inſtrument therein prohibited, or by marking of Money round the Edges with Letters or Grainings, may be commenced at any Time within Six Months after ſuch Offence committed; any thing in the ſaid Act to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Offenders may be proſecuted in 6 Months after Offence. 7 Ann. c. 25. §. 2.

12 W. 3. c. 4.

III. And whereas by an Act of the laſt Parliament, in the Twelfth Year of His late Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for appointing Wardens and Aſſay Maſters, for aſſaying Wrought Plate in the Cities of York, Exeter, Briſtol, Cheſter, and Norwich, the ſaid Cities of York, Exeter, Briſtol, Cheſter, and Norwich, were appointed for the aſſaying and marking of Wrought Plate, and for executing the Powers, Authorities, and Directions given by the ſaid Act: And whereas in and by the ſaid Act of Parliament it was further enacted, That all and every Goldſmith, Silverſmith, and Plate-worker, inhabiting in any Town or Place where an Aſſayer is not, or ſhall not be appointed, ſhall bring all his or their Wrought Plate to ſome of the ſaid Cities or Places to be aſſayed and marked, upon Penalty of Forfeiture of all ſuch Plate or Manufacture of Silver, or the Value thereof, as ſhall be ſold or exchanged before the ſame be marked and aſſayed: And whereas in the Town of Newcaſtle upon Tyne there is, and Time out of Mind hath been, an ancient Company of Goldſmiths, which, with their Families, by the ſaid Penalty are like to be ruined, and the ſaid Trade utterly loſt in the ſaid Town: And whereas by the Statute of the Second of Henry the Sixth, the Town of Newcaſtle upon Tyne is one of the Places appointed to have Touches for Wrought Silver Plate; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Town of Newcaſtle upon Tyne be and is hereby appointed for the aſſaying and marking of Wrought Plate, and for executing the ſeveral Powers, Authorities, and Directions mentioned and contained in and by the ſaid Act of the Twelfth Year of our ſaid late Sovereign Lord King William, as fully and amply, to all Intents, Conſtructions and Purpoſes, as if the ſaid Town had been expreſly named in the ſaid Act.

2 Hen. 6. c. 14.

Goldſmiths, &c. of Newcaſtle incorporated a Company, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Goldſmiths, Silverſmiths, and Plate-workers, who are or ſhall be Freemen of, and inhabiting in the ſaid Town of Newcaſtle, and having ſerved an Apprenticeſhip to the ſaid Trade of a Goldſmith, Silverſmith, or Plate Worker, ſhall be and are hereby incorporated a Company of and belonging to the ſaid Town, and ſhall be called or known by the Name of The Company of Goldſmiths of the ſaid Town of Newcaſtle upon Tyne; which ſaid Company ſhall be enabled, and are hereby authorized annually to chooſe Two Perſons to be Wardens of the ſaid Company; which ſaid Wardens ſhall continue for the Space of One Year, and no longer, unleſs re-elected by the ſaid Company; and if either of the ſaid Wardens ſhall happen to die, or remove out of the ſaid Town, then the ſaid Company ſhall within One Month after ſuch Death or Removal chooſe another Perſon of the ſaid Company to be Warden in his Room; and ſuch Perſon ſo choſen ſhall and is hereby authorized and required to act accordingly.

and may chooſe Wardens.

Silver Plate how to be made and marked, &c.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Silver Plate or Manufacture of Silver (except ſuch Things as by Reaſon of their Smallneſs are not capable of receiving the Touch) ſhall be made and wrought of the ſame Fineneſs, and made, aſſayed, and marked with the Arms of the ſaid Town, and other the Marks mentioned in the ſaid Act, in ſuch Manner and Form as in the ſaid Act of the Twelfth Year of His late Majeſty's Reign is mentioned; and that an Aſſay-maſter ſhall from time to time be elected by the ſaid Company of Goldſmiths in the ſaid Town, who ſhall take ſuch Oath as is therein preſcribed, before the Mayor of Newcaſtle upon Tyne for the time being, who is hereby appointed to adminiſter the ſame; and that the ſaid Aſſay-maſter, and all and every the Goldſmiths, Silverſmiths, Company may elect an Aſſay-maſter, &c.

ſmiths, and Plate-workers, inhabiting in the ſaid Town, ſhall from time to time, and at all Times hereafter, obſerve and perform all ſuch Matters and Things, and be ſubject to all ſuch Orders, Rules, Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures, as in the ſame Act is mentioned, for and concerning the ſeveral Matters, Things and Offences therein contained, as fully, effectually and amply, to all Intents, Conſtructions and Purpoſes, as if the ſaid Town had been therein expreſly mentioned; and the ſaid Pains and Penalties ſhall be levied, recovered, diſpoſed of and taken, in ſuch Manner and Form as in and by the ſame Act is directed.

CAP. XI.

An Act for reviving the Act, intituled, An Act for exempting Apothecaries from ſerving the Offices of Conſtable, Scavenger, and other Pariſh and Ward Offices, and from ſerving upon Juries.

WHEREAS an Act made in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of His late Majeſty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for exempting Apothecaries from ſerving the Offices of Conſtable, Scavenger, and other Pariſh and Ward Offices, and from ſerving upon Juries, has been by Experience found very uſeful and neceſſary: And whereas the ſaid Act was to continue but for Seven Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and is now near expiring; be it therefore enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid recited Act, with all the Clauſes and Powers therein contained, ſhall continue and be in Force for the Space of Eleven Years, from and after the Expiration thereof, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſions of Parliament.

CAP. XII.

An Act for granting an Aid to Her Majeſty by divers Subſidies and a Land Tax. The Iriſh Truſtees may before 24 June, 1703. ſell the forfeited Eſtates, &c. veſted in them. Barracks erected on the ſaid forfeited Eſtates, &c. ſhall be conveyed to the Truſtees for the Barracks, &c. for ever. Clothing, &c. may be exported out of Ireland for the Three Regiments in the Weſt Indies, &c.

11 W. 3. c. 2. 12 W. 3. c. 10. 4 s. in the Pound.

CXII. And whereas there have lately been imported into Your Majeſty's Dominions, Wines of the Growth of Hungary, and ſome Doubts have ariſen touching the Rates and Duties payable for the ſame upon ſuch Importation; be it declared and enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to import from Hamburgh into the Port of London, and the Members thereof, or into any other Ports of this Kingdom, or the Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, Wines of the Growth of Hungary, and upon the Importation of any ſuch Wines, there ſhall be paid ſuch Rates and Duties only as by any Law now in Force are due and payable for any Rheniſh Wines, or Wines of the Growth of Germany, imported into this Your Realm, or the Dominions thereof, by all Your Majeſty's natural-born Subjects, and by all Strangers and Aliens reſpectively.

Hungary Wines may be imported from Hamburgh paying Duties as for Rheniſh Wines.

CXIII. And whereas the General Society intitled to the Advantages given by an Act of Parliament for advancing a Sum not exceeding Two Millions, for the Service of the Crown of England, by a Covenant in the Charter to them granted by His late Majeſty King WILLIAM the Third, bearing Date the Third Day of September, in the Tenth Year of His Reign, is obliged to furniſh into Her Majeſty's Stores (if demanded) Five hundred Tuns of Salt Petre Yearly for the Firſt Coſt, Freight, Duties, and other Charges thereupon, to be aſcertained in the Manner therein mentioned; and the Engliſh Company trading to the Eaſt Indies, as a Member of the ſaid General Society, is by a Covenant in the Charter granted to the ſaid Company, bearing Date the Fifth Day of September, in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His ſaid late Majeſty King WILLIAM, obliged to furniſh Yearly, a proportionable Part of the ſaid Five hundred Tuns (if demanded) and the Governor and Company of Merchants of London trading into the Eaſt Indies, alſo as a Member of the ſaid General Society, are obliged to furniſh Yearly another Proportion of the ſaid Five hundred Tons (if demanded) and the particular Members of the ſaid General Society (other than the ſaid Companies) are obliged to furniſh Yearly the Remainder of the ſaid Five hundred Tuns (if demanded) for the Coſt, Freight, Duties, and other Charges aforeſaid: And whereas the ſaid Governor and Company of Merchants of London trading into the Eaſt Indies, and the ſaid Engliſh Company, have agreed to unite their Capital Stock in the ſaid Two Millions, and trade to the Eaſt Indies, and other Parts within the Limits of their Charters whereunto they ſeverally are intitled, under the Act of Parliament of the Ninth Year of His ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for raiſing a Sum not exceeding Two Millions, upon a Fund for Payment of Annuities after the Rate of Eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, and for ſettling the Trade to the Eaſt Indies, whereupon a new Charter is intended to be paſſed: Now it is hereby provided and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from the Twenty ninth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, until the ſaid Union ſhall be perfected under the Great Seal of England, Four hundred ninety four Tuns and One Quarter of good, clean and merchantable Salt Petre, ſhall Yearly (if it be demanded) be delivered into the Stores of Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, at the certain Price herein after limited (that is to ſay) by the ſaid Governor and Company of Merchants of London trading into the Eaſt Indies, for their Proportion, Seventy eight Tuns and Three Quarters; and by the ſaid Engliſh Company, Four hundred and fifteen Tuns and a Half; and that after the perfecting of the ſaid Union, and during the Continuance thereof in a joint Management, the like Quantity of Four hundred ninety four Tuns and One Quarter of ſuch Salt Petre, ſhall Yearly (if demanded) be delivered into the ſaid Stores by the ſaid Engliſh Company, and its Succeſſors, out of the ſaid United Trade: And after the Determination of ſuch joint Management, then by the ſaid Engliſh Company ſingly, during ſo long Time as the ſaid Engliſh Company ſhall have Right and Power to trade to the Eaſt Indies, under the ſaid Act of Parliament in that Behalf; and that in like Manner from the Twenty ninth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, the Quantity of Five Tuns and Three Quarters of good, clean and merchantable Salt Petre, ſhall Yearly (if demanded) be delivered into the ſaid Stores at the ſame certain Price, by the other Members of the ſaid General Society for the time being.

9 W. 3. c. 44.

After 29 Sept. 1701. until the Union of the Two Eaſt India Companies be perfected, 494 Tuns and a Quarter of Salt Petre ſhall be delivered into Her Majeſty's Stores, and after the ſaid Union, 494 Tuns and a Quarter Yearly, &c.

5 Tuns and 3 Quarters of Salt Petre to be delivered by the other Members of the ſaid General Society.

CXIV. And

Price of Salt Petre.

CXIV. And it is hereby enacted and declared, That the Price of all the ſaid Salt Petre, to be ſerved in Time of Peace, ſhall be Five and forty Pounds per Tun, and in Time of War ſhall be Fifty three Pounds per Tun; and that upon the refining the ſaid Salt Petre, whether it be brown or white, if the Refraction be above Fifteen Pounds in every One hundred and twelve Pounds Weight, then the Overplus of ſuch Refraction, at the Rate aforeſaid, ſhall be repaid to Her Majeſty, by the ſaid Companies and Members reſpectively, out of the ſaid Price; and if the Refraction be under Fifteen Pounds in every One hundred and twelve Pounds Weight, then the ſaid Companies, and other Members of the ſaid general Society, ſhall be allowed and paid, at the Price aforeſaid, ſo much more as the Difference between the real Refraction of their Petre, and the ſaid ſtated Refraction of Fifteen Pounds per Centum, ſhall amount to.

Companies obliged to deliver their Proportions at the Prices aforeſaid.

CXV. And it is hereby further declared, That in any Charter to be granted to the ſaid Companies, or either of them, they ſhall be obliged by Covenant to deliver their Proportions of the ſaid Salt Petre, being paid for the ſame at the certain Prices aforeſaid, according to this Act, inſtead of the Quantities which the ſaid Two Companies, or either of them, or the ſaid particular Members, by the ſaid former Charters are obliged to furniſh, for the firſt Coſt, Freight, Duties, and other Charges as aforeſaid; any thing in the ſaid former Charters, or any of them, contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. XIII.

An Act for making good Deficiencies, and for preſerving the Publick Credit.

WHEREAS ſeveral Bills of Credit, commonly called Exchequer Bills, were made forth and iſſued by divers Acts of Parliament, which were made and paſſed in the Reign of His late Majeſty King WILLIAM the Third (of bleſſed Memory) and many of the ſaid Bills have been already diſcharged out of ſeveral Aids or Supplies, which were provided by ſeveral Acts of Parliament, for or towards the diſcharging and cancelling the ſame; but over and above the Monies already applied towards the diſcharging and cancelling of the ſaid Bills, and over and above the Monies which are yet to ariſe from the ſaid Aids or Supplies formerly provided for that Purpoſe, it is computed, that there is and will be wanting the Sum of Five hundred and fifteen thouſand one hundred ſixty five Pounds Four Shillings and Seven Pence Farthing, to diſcharge all the principal Monies contained in ſuch of the ſaid Bills as are now ſtanding out and unſatiſfied, and ſo much more as will be ſufficient to diſcharge all the Intereſt due, and to grow due thereupon:
And whereas it appears that the Pound Rate or Land Tax of Three Shillings in the Pound, granted to 8 W. 3. c. 6. His ſaid late Majeſty, by an Act of Parliament in the Eighth Year of His Reign, hath not been ſufficient to ſatisfy all the Loans which were made upon the Credit of the ſame Pound Rate or Land Tax; and that over and above all Arrears of the ſaid Pound Rate, not yet recovered, there is and will be deficient, and wanting, to diſcharge all the principal Money ſo lent, the Sum of Four hundred and fifteen thouſand ninety nine Pounds, and ſo much more as will be ſufficient to diſcharge the Intereſt after the Rate of Eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, due and to grow due thereupon: And whereas the Duties upon Paper, Paſteboard, Vellum, and Parchment, which were granted to His late Majeſty for Two Years, from the Firſt Day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſix, by an Act paſſed in the Eighth Year of His Reign, did prove inſufficient to ſatisfy all the Monies which were borrowed upon Credit of that Act, ſo that there is deficient and wanting the Sum of Fifteen thouſand four hundred Pounds, to diſcharge all the principal Monies ſo borrowed, and ſo much more as will ſatisfy the Intereſt, due and to grow due for the ſame, after the Rate of Eight Pounds per Centum per Annum: And whereas ſeveral Tickets were made forth and iſſued by virtue of an Act made and paſſed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of His ſaid 8 W. 3. c. 22. late Majeſty, whereby certain Duties were laid upon Malt and other Things therein mentioned, and many of the ſaid Tickets have already been diſcharged out of the ſame Duties, or otherwiſe; but it is computed, that there is deficient and wanting to diſcharge all the principal Monies contained in ſuch of the ſaid
Tickets as are now ſtanding out and unſatisfied, the Sum of Five hundred ſeventy nine thouſand and ſixty Pounds, beſides what will be neceſſary to diſcharge the Intereſt due, and to grow due, upon the ſaid unſatisfied Tickets, or ſuch of them as do bear Intereſt after the Rate of an Halfpeny per Diem, for each Ten Pounds thereof: And whereas it is evident, that the Duties upon Leather, which were granted to His 8 W. 3. c. 21. ſaid late Majeſty by an Act paſſed in the Eighth Year of His Reign, for Three Years, from the Twentieth Day of April, One thouſand ſix hundred and ninety ſeven, and which were thereby appropriated to and for the Payment of ſo much as then remained unpaid of the Sum of Five hundred ſixty four thouſand ſeven hundred Pounds, formerly lent upon certain Duties upon Coals and other Things therein mentioned, and the Intereſt thereof, have not been ſufficient for that Purpoſe, ſo that there is wanting, to diſcharge the principal Money ſtill remaining unpaid of the Sum laſt mentioned, the Sum of Five hundred and four thouſand four hundred thirty eight Pounds, beſides the Intereſt thereof, due and to grow due, after the Rate of Seven Pounds per Centum per Annum: And that the Monies granted to His ſaid late Majeſty, by the Act
9 W. 3. c. 38. paſſed in the Ninth Year of His Reign, for an Aid by a quarterly Poll for One Year, including therein ſuch Arrears of the ſaid Poll as are ſtill recoverable, do not extend to ſatisfy all the principal Monies which were borrowed upon the ſame Act, by the Sum of Two hundred and twelve thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy Pounds, Seventeen Shillings, which with the Intereſt thereof, due and to grow due, after the Rate of Eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, are and will be likewiſe deficient: And that the Monies granted to 10 W. 3. c. 9. His ſaid late Majeſty by the Act paſſed in the Tenth Year of His Reign, for granting the Sum of One million four hundred eighty four thouſand and fifteen Pounds, One Shilling and Eleven Pence, Three Farthings, for diſbanding the Army, providing for the Navy, and for other neceſſary Occaſions, whereupon a Credit was given for any Sum not exceeding One million four hundred thouſand Pounds, to be repaid with Intereſt after the Rate of Seven Pounds per Centum per Annum, have not extended to pay off all the Monies borrowed upon the ſame Act, and the Intereſt thereof; but that there is a Deficiency of Twenty five thouſand eight hundred twenty three Pounds, Two Shillings, and Nine Pence, which, together with all Arrears of the Aid laſt mentioned, not yet recovered, are wanting to clear off the Remainder of the principal Monies ſo borrowed, beſides what ſhall be neceſſary to diſcharge the Intereſt of the ſame: And whereas at Michaelmas,
One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, the Sum of Seventy thouſand eight hundred ſeventy two Pounds, Eleven Shillings, and One Peny Halfpeny, was wanting to compleat the Payments then due and incurred, for and upon the yearly Sum of One hundred and ſixty thouſand Pounds, which by an Act paſſed in the 9 W. 3. c. 44. Ninth Year of His ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, was intended to be paid out of certain Duties upon Salt, and upon ſtampt Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, for the Purpoſes therein mentioned, and ought to have been made good in purſuance of the ſame Act; all which ſaid Sums of Money ſo reckoned to be deficient or wanting, to pay off the principal Money borrowed as aforeſaid, or contained in the ſaid Exchequer Bills and Malt Tickets, do amount in the whole to the Sum of Two millions three hundred thirty eight thouſand ſix hundred twenty eight Pounds, Fifteen Shillings, and Five Pence Three Farthings, beſides the Intereſt due and to grow due, as aforeſaid. XV. And whereas by the ſaid Act of the Eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King WILLIAM, intituled, An Act for making good the Deficiencies of ſeveral Funds, therein mentioned, and for enlarging the Capital Stock of the Bank of England, and for raiſing the publick Credit, it was enacted, That all the Monies which ſhould ariſe and be brought into the Exchequer of or for the Subſidy of Tunnage and Poundage, and other Duties upon Merchandizes, therewith continued by that Act, from the Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, till the Firſt Day of Auguſt, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, and of and for Impoſitions upon Wines, Vinegar, Tobacco, Eaſt India Goods, Wrought Silks, and other Duties therewith continued by the ſame Act, from the Eight and twentieth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, until the ſaid Firſt Day of Auguſt, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix; and of or for the ſaid additional and other Rates, Duties, Impoſitions, and Charges upon ſeveral Sorts of Goods and Merchandizes, thereby continued from the laſt Day of February, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſix, to the ſaid Firſt Day of Auguſt, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix; and of or for the Duties upon Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, by the ſame Act continued from the Eight and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, until the ſaid Firſt Day of Auguſt, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix; and of or for the Rates and Duties upon Marriages, Births, Burials, Batchelors, and Widowers, thereby continued, from the Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred, until the ſaid Firſt Day of Auguſt, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix; and of or for the ſeveral Rates or Duties upon Houſes thereby continued, from the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and three, until the ſaid Firſt Day of Auguſt, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, and all the Monies (if any ſuch ſhould be) which after Satisfaction of ſuch Principal and Intereſt Monies as are therein mentioned, ſhould ariſe by the Impoſitions upon Wines, Vinegar, Tobacco, Eaſt India Goods, Wrought Silks, and other Goods, by an Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of the ſaid late King WILLIAM, whereby the ſame were granted and continued until the ſaid Nine and twentieth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one; and all the Monies which after Satisfaction of ſuch Monies and Bills, as are therein mentioned, ſhould ariſe by the Duties upon Houſes formerly granted for Seven Years, from the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſix; and all the Monies which after Satisfaction of the Sums therein mentioned, and the Intereſt thereof, ſhould ariſe or be brought into the Exchequer, of and for the Duties upon Salt, which were granted to His ſaid late Majeſty King WILLIAM the Third, His Heirs and Succeſſors, by an Act of Parliament which paſſed in the Seventh Year of His Reign (together with the Duties upon Glaſs Wares, Stone and Earthen Wares, and Tobacco Pipes, which are ſince taken away by Acts of Parliament) ſhould be the General Fund for making good the particular Funds in the ſaid Act of the Eighth Year of His ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, expreſſed and computed to be deficient, and ſhould be appropriated, iſſued, and applied, for and towards the making good of the ſame deficient Funds, by the Payment and Satisfaction of the Principal and Intereſt, due and to grow due thereupon, in ſuch Manner and Form as in the ſaid Act of the Eighth Year of His ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, is more fully expreſſed: And whereas by the abovesaid Act of the Ninth Year of His ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, for laying the ſaid Duties upon Whale Fins, and Scotch Linens for Eight Years, from the Tenth Day of July, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, the ſame are directed to be applied to and for the Payment and Satisfaction of ſuch Principal and Intereſt Monies, whereunto the ſaid Duties upon Glaſs Wares, Stone and Earthen Wares, and Tobacco Pipes (ſince wholly taken away) ought to have been applied, as by the ſaid ſeveral Acts of Parliament, Relation being thereunto reſpectively had, may more fully appear: Now to the end the above mentioned Deficiencies, for which no Proviſion hath hitherto been made, and which in this Act are computed to amount to Two Millions three hundred thirty eight thouſand ſix hundred twenty eight Pounds, Fifteen Shillings, and Five Pence Three Farthings, as aforeſaid, for principal Monies (beſides Intereſt) may be made good, and that all ſuch principal Monies, and the Intereſt thereof, may be well and ſufficiently ſecured, and duly paid, and ſatisfied. CAP. XVIII.

An Act to explain and alter the Act made in the Two and twentieth Year of King HENRY the Eighth, concerning repairing and amending of Bridges in the Highways: And for repealing an Act made in the Twenty third Year of Queen ELIZABETH, for the re-edifying of Cardiffe Bridge in the County of Glamorgan: And alſo for changing the Day of Election of the Wardens and Aſſiſtants of Rocheſter Bridge.

22 H. 8. c. 5. concerning the amending of Bridges,

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament in the Two and twentieth Year of the Reign of King HENRY the Eighth, intituled, An Act concerning repairing and amending of Bridges in the Highways, it is amongſt other Things therein enacted, That in every Caſe where it cannot be known and proved what Perſons, Lands, Tenements, and Bodies Politick ought to make and repair ſuch Bridges, that for ſpeedy Reformation and Amending of ſuch Bridges, the Juſtices of the Peace within their ſeveral Counties, Shires, Ridings and Diviſions, Cities and Towns Corporate, or any Four of them, whereof One to be of the Quorum, ſhall within the Limits of their ſeveral Commiſſions call before them the Conſtables of every Town and Pariſh, or elſe Two of the moſt honeſt Inhabitants of every Town and Pariſh, and with the Aſſent of the ſaid Conſtables or Inhabitants, ſhall tax and ſet every Inhabitant in ſuch City, Town, and Pariſh, to ſuch reaſonable Aid, and Sums of Money, as they ſhall think by their Diſcretions convenient for the repairing of ſuch Bridges, and after ſuch Taxation made, ſhall cauſe the Names and Sums of every particular Perſon ſo by them taxed, to be written in a Roll indented, One Part whereof is to be delivered under the Hands and Seals of the ſaid Juſtices, to Two Collectors appointed by the ſaid Juſtices for every Hundred, who are thereby impowered to collect the ſame; which Method and Manner of taxing and collecting the ſaid Money for Repair of decayed Bridges, and the Highways thereunto adjoining, having by long Experience been found very troubleſome, burthenſome, and chargeable to the ſeveral Counties, Cities, Towns Corporate, Ridings and Diviſions: And whereas in many Places within this Kingdom, more Money than is neceſſary for the Repair of ſuch Bridges hath been taxed and collected, or the Money which hath been ſo taxed and collected hath been miſimployed, and not laid out in the Repair of ſuch Bridges as was intended: For Remedy of all which Miſchiefs and Inconveniencies for the future, may it pleaſe Your moſt Excellent Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all and every the Clauſes, Matters and Things in the ſaid Act of the Two and twentieth Year of the Reign of the ſaid King Henry the Eighth, not hereby altered, ſhall be and continue in full Force and Virtue, to all Intents, Conſtructions and Purpoſes whatſoever, relating to the repairing of decayed Bridges, and the Highways thereunto adjoining.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for the more eaſy taxing and collecting of the Money for the Repair of decayed Bridges, and that the ſame may be duly applied to the Purpoſes for which it is intended, the Juſtices of the Peace, within the ſeveral Limits of their Commiſſions, ſhall, at their General or Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, from and after the Firſt Day of May, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and two, have full Power and Authority, upon due Preſentment to them made, that any Bridge within their reſpective Commiſſions or Authorities is out of Repair, and which by them hath uſually, or ought to have been repaired and maintained, to aſſeſs upon every Town, Pariſh or Place within their reſpective Commiſſions, in Proportions upon each reſpective Town and Pariſh, as they uſually have been aſſeſſed towards the Repair of Bridges; which Money ſo aſſeſſed as aforeſaid, ſhall be levied and collected by the reſpective Conſtables of each Pariſh, Townſhip, Hamlet or Vill, or by ſuch other Perſon and Perſons, and in ſuch Manner, as the ſaid Juſtices, by their Order at ſuch Seſſions, ſhall in that Behalf direct and appoint, and the Money thereby raiſed ſhall (by ſuch Conſtables, or other Perſons, ſo as aforeſaid by them collected) be paid over by them to the High Conſtables of every Hundred, in any ſuch County, City, Riding or Diviſion, in Six Days after they ſhall have received the ſame, and the High Conſtables ſhall and are hereby required, in Ten Days after their Receipt, to pay the ſame into the Hands of ſuch Perſon and Perſons as the ſaid Juſtices, by their Order, at ſuch Seſſions ſhall direct and appoint to be Treaſurers and Receivers of the ſame, and the Money thereby raiſed ſhall be imployed and accounted for, according to the Orders and Directions of the ſaid Juſtices, for and towards the amending of ſuch decayed Bridges, and the Highways at the End of the ſaid Bridges, from time to time, as Need ſhall require; and the ſaid Aſſeſſments ſhall be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods of every Perſon ſo aſſeſſed, not paying the ſame within Ten Days after Demand, rendring the Overplus of the Value of the Goods ſo diſtrained to the Owner and Owners thereof, the neceſſary Charges of making and ſelling ſuch Diſtreſs being firſt deducted.

For collecting Money for Repair of decayed Bridges, Juſtices of Peace may aſſeſs every Town, &c. in Proportion.

Aſſeſſments how to be levied, &c.

Treaſurers to be appointed, and Monies how imployed.

On Nonpayment to be levied by Diſtreſs.

III. And to the end that the Money which is hereby intended to be aſſeſſed and levied, may be duly collected, paid and applied to the ſeveral Purpoſes for which it is intended, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every High Conſtable, Churchwarden, Overſeer of the Poor, or Petty Conſtable, or other Perſon that ſhall neglect to aſſeſs, collect or pay the Money hereby intended to be raiſed, as is herein before directed, ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit the Sum of Forty Shillings; and every Treaſurer that ſhall pay any Money but by Order of ſuch Juſtices of the Peace, at ſuch Seſſions (which Order the ſaid Juſtices are hereby required and commanded to make only for the building, repairing, or amending ſuch Bridges, and the Highways at the End of ſuch Bridges as aforeſaid) ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds.

Penalty on Conſtable, &c.

IV. And whereas upon Preſentments and Indictments for not repairing ſuch Bridges, and the Highways at the End of ſuch Bridges, the Fines impoſed and ſet upon ſuch Preſentments and Indictments, and other Fines and Iſſues for not repairing, building and amending ſuch Bridges, and the Highways at the End of ſuch Bridges, are returned into the Court of Exchequer, or other Courts; be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Fine, Iſſue, Penalty or Forfeiture, ſhall hereafter be returned into the Court of Exchequer, or other Court, but ſhall be levied and paid into the Hands of the Treaſurer or Treaſurers, ſo as aforeſaid appointed by the ſaid Juſtices, to be accounted for by the ſaid Treaſurer, and to be applied by the ſaid Juſtices towards the building, repairing or amending ſuch Bridges, and the Highways at the End of ſuch Bridges, and to no other End or Purpoſe whatſoever.

Fines, &c. to be paid to the Treaſurer.

V. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Matters concerning the repairing and amending of the Bridges and Highways herein before mentioned, ſhall be determined in the County where they lie, and not elſewhere; and that no Preſentment or Indictment for not repairing ſuch Bridges, or the Highways at the End of ſuch Bridges, ſhall be removed by Certiorari out of the ſaid County into any other Court.

Matters concerning Repair of Bridges, &c. where to be determined.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace at ſuch General Quarter Seſſions as aforeſaid, ſhall have full Power and Authority to allow ſuch Perſons concerned in the Execution of this preſent Act, any Sum not exceeding Three Pence in the Pound.

Juſtices to allow 3 d. in the Pound, &c.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action or Suit ſhall be hereafter commenced or proſecuted againſt any Perſon or Perſons by this Act authorized to put the ſame in Execution, every Perſon or Perſons ſo ſued may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act, or the ſaid recited Act made in the Two and twentieth Year of the Reign of King HENRY the Eighth, and the ſpecial Matter, in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff ſhall become Nonſuit, or forbear further Proſecution, or ſuffer Diſcontinuance, or if a Verdict paſs againſt him or her, the ſaid Defendant and Defendants ſhall recover his and their Double Coſts, for which he and they ſhall have the like Remedy, as in Caſes where Coſts by Law are given to Defendants.

General Iſſue.

Double Coſts.

Perſons and Things exempted.

VIII. Provided always, That this Act nor any thing therein contained ſhall excuſe or diſcharge any particular Perſons, Eſtates, or Places from repairing any Bridge, which they have heretofore uſually repaired.

Penalties how to be levied.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all the Penalties and Forfeitures incurred by this Act ſhall be applied towards the repairing the ſaid Bridges, and Highways at the Ends of the ſame.

23 Eliz. c. 11. repealed.

X. And whereas great Inconveniencies have been occaſioned by the uncertain Meaning of an Act made in the Twenty third of Queen ELIZABETH, intituled, An Act for the re-edifying of Cardiffe Bridge in the County of Glamorgan; be it therefore enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That the Act aforeſaid be from henceforth repealed, and the ſame is hereby declared to be repealed, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever.

Cardiffe Bridge deemed a Common Bridge: How it ſhall be repaired.

XI. And whereas the Town of Cardiffe in the ſaid County was, before the ſaid Act of Queen ELIZABETH, obliged to pay and diſcharge the whole Expence for the Repair of the ſaid Bridge, but in Regard of the Poverty of the ſaid Town, Five Parts of the ſaid Expence was by the ſaid Act directed to be raiſed on the County, and the Sixth Part only on the ſaid Town of Cardiffe: And whereas the Poverty of the ſaid Town is ſince much increaſed, by reaſon of the great Decay of Trade in the ſaid Town; be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, for a more effectual Proviſion for the Time to come, That the Bridge aforeſaid, commonly called Cardiffe Bridge, ſhall from henceforth be reputed and adjudged to be a Common and a Publick Bridge, to be repaired from time to time by the County of Glamorgan; and that the Juſtices of the Peace for the time being for the County of Glamorgan ſhall have full Power and Authority, from time to time, as Occaſion ſhall require, at their General Quarter Seſſions, to make Orders, and execute the ſame, as well within the Town of Cardiffe, as elſewhere within the County of Glamorgan, touching the rebuilding and repairing of the Bridge aforeſaid, and Wears thereto adjoining or belonging, in the ſame Manner as any the Juſtices of any other County have, or may have, concerning other Common and Publick Bridges, by this or any other Law whatſoever.

Orders heretofore made not to be annulled.

XII. Provided nevertheleſs, That nothing herein contained ſhall be conſtrued or extend to make void or annul any Order heretofore made touching the Repair of the Bridge and Wears aforeſaid.

Evidence of Inhabitants to be taken in Informations.

XIII. And whereas many private Perſons, or Bodies Politick or Corporate, are of Right obliged to repair ſuch decayed Bridges, and the Highways thereunto adjoining, but becauſe the Inhabitants of the County, Riding, or Diviſion, in which ſuch decayed Bridge or Highways lie, have not been allowed, upon Informations or Indictments brought againſt ſuch Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, for not repairing ſuch decayed Bridges, and the Highways thereunto adjoining, by the Judges before whom ſuch Information or Indictment is to be tried, to be legal Witneſſes; be it enacted and declared, That in all Informations or Indictments to be brought and tried in any of Her Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or at the Aſſizes or Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, the Evidence of the Inhabitants, being credible Perſons, or any of them, of the Town, Corporation, County, Riding, or Diviſion, in which ſuch decayed Bridge or Highway lies, ſhall be taken and admitted in all ſuch Caſes, in the Courts aforeſaid; any Cuſtom, Rule, Order, or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

18 Eliz. c. 17.

XIV. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of Queen ELIZABETH, of Bleſſed Memory, intituled, An Act for the perpetual Maintenance of Rocheſter Bridge, it is amongſt other Things enacted and appointed, That the Election of the Wardens and Aſſiſtants of the ſaid Bridge ſhould be made on the Morrow after the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace holden for the County of Kent, next after the Feaſt of Eaſter: And whereas the ſaid Time of the Election, appointed by the ſaid Act, hath been found to be very inconvenient, in reſpect of the Uncertainty of the ending of the ſaid Seſſions, whereby the Inhabitants of the Pariſhes, and others that are to attend the ſaid Election, have been put to great Expence and Trouble; be it therefore enacted, That all and every the future and ſucceeding Wardens and Aſſiſtants of the ſaid Bridge ſhall be yearly choſen, at the uſual Place of ſuch Election, at or upon One certain Day yearly (that is to ſay) Friday in the Week next following the Week of Eaſter yearly: And that all and every the Wardens and Aſſiſtants reſpectively, ſo to be elected upon Friday in the Week next following the Week of Eaſter, ſhall ſucceſſively have, uſe, exerciſe, and enjoy the ſame Power, Authority, Capacity, and Privileges reſpectively, as any former or other Wardens or Aſſiſtants of the ſaid Bridge reſpectively have had, uſed, exerciſed, and enjoyed; and that all other due Requiſites, Matters, Circumſtances, and Things hereafter uſed and obſerved, in and about the Election of the ſaid Wardens and Aſſiſtants reſpectively, ſhall be uſed, performed, and obſerved; and that all and every the Inhabitants and Houſholders of any Pariſh or Pariſhes, and all and every other Perſon and Perſons, who by reaſon of any Law, Statute, Uſage, or Cuſtom, have uſed, or ought to be preſent, and give their Attendance at the Elections of the Wardens and Aſſiſtants of the ſaid Bridge, ſhall be preſent, and give the like Attendance, and do and perform all other Things in and about the Election of all and every future Wardens and Aſſiſtants of the ſaid Bridge, upon every Friday in the Week next following the Week of Eaſter yearly, as they have heretofore uſed, done, and performed, upon the Morrow after the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace next after the Feaſt of Eaſter.

Wardens, &c. of Rocheſter Bridge to be choſen annually on Friday after Eaſter Week, and enjoy the ſame Power.

Penalty on Refuſal.

III. And whereas great Quantities of Salt are frequently found in the Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion of ſeveral Perſons who live near the Salt Works or Sea Coaſts, which Salt is not duly entred, nor any Duties paid for the ſame, and if diſcovered by the Officers for the ſaid Duties, the Perſons in whoſe Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion the ſame is found, pretend that the ſame doth not belong to them, ſo that the Penalties by Law impoſed on the Perſons that landed ſuch Salt, or removed the ſame from the Salt Work, without Entry or Payment of Duties, cannot be inflicted on ſuch Offenders: For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Perſon in whoſe Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion any Salt ſhall be ſo found, which hath not been duly entred, and the Duties thereof paid, or ſecured to be paid, ſhall, in caſe the ſame be foreign Salt, be liable to the ſame Penalties and Forfeitures, as if ſuch Perſon had landed the ſame without Entry or Payment of Duties, or giving Security for the ſame; or in caſe the ſame ſhall be Engliſh Salt, then to be liable to ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, as if ſuch Perſon had removed ſuch Salt from the Salt Works, without Entry, or paying or ſecuring the Duties thereof, and without any Ticket or Licence obtained for removing the ſame, unleſs the Perſon or Perſons, in whoſe Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion ſuch Salt ſhall be found, ſhall make it appear, upon the Trial or Hearing of the Information for ſuch Offence, that he bought ſuch foreign or Engliſh Salt of a Maker, Retailer, or Importer of Salt, and of whom he ſo bought the ſame.

Penalty on Salt found, and not entred, or Duty paid.

IV. And whereas ſeveral Perſons, eſpecially Salt Carriers, do frequently carry Salt from the Salt Works and Storehouſes of the Makers of Salt, without Entry or Payment of Duties, or giving Security for the ſame; and when they find themſelves purſued by the Officers for the ſaid Duties, with Force obſtruct and hinder the Officers from making Seizures thereof, and frequently beat and abuſe them, whereby they are very much diſcouraged in Performance of their Duties; and ſometimes the ſaid Perſons ſcatter the ſaid Salt on the Ground, or caſt the ſame into Water, to prevent the Seizure thereof; and the ſaid Offenders being for the moſt Part very poor, are not able to pay the Penalties by Law impoſed on them for ſuch Offences, and ſometimes before ſuch Penalties can be adjudged againſt them, make their Eſcapes to remote Parts, and cannot be found: For Remedy thereof be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Salt Carrier, or other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, ſhall, from and after the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of June, remove or convey any Salt from any Salt Works, or Place thereunto belonging, without due Entry of the ſame, and Payment of the Duties thereof, or giving Security for ſuch Duties, or without Warrant, Ticket, or Licence for carrying or removing the ſame, that then, and in every ſuch Caſe, it ſhall be lawful for the Officers for the ſaid Duties, not only to ſeize the Salt ſo removed, but alſo to apprehend the ſaid Offender or Offenders, and carry him, her and them before One of Her Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace of the County or Place where the Offence ſhall be committed: And in caſe the ſaid Offence ſhall be proved before the ſaid Juſtice of the Peace, and the Offender or Offenders ſhall not forthwith pay down the Penalties by the Laws relating to the ſaid Duties impoſed on ſuch Offender or Offenders, for the Offence ſo proved on ſuch Offender or Offenders, and no ſufficient Diſtreſs can be found whereupon to levy the ſame, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Juſtice of the Peace to commit ſuch Offender or Offenders to the Houſe of Correction, there to be whipt and kept to hard Labour, for any Time not exceeding One Month: And if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall obſtruct or hinder any Officer or Officers for the ſaid Duties in the Execution of his or their Offices, or the Powers given them by this Act, or any other Law relating to the ſaid Duties, or ſhall beat or abuſe the ſaid Officers, or any of them, in the Execution of his or their Offices, ſuch Perſon and Perſons ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit and loſe the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and for Nonpayment thereof, and in Default of Diſtreſs whereby to levy the ſame, it ſhall and may be lawful for any of Her Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, upon due Proof of ſuch Offence, to commit ſuch Offender or Offenders to the Houſe of Correction, there to be whipt and kept to hard Labour, for any Time not exceeding One Month.

Penalty on Perſon uſing Brine for curing and pickling of Fleſh or Fiſh, &c.
The like Penalty on Perſons carrying Brine from the Pits, except Proprietors of Pans, &c.
5 Geo. 1. c. 18. §. 17.

V. And whereas ſeveral Perſons do make uſe of Brine taken out of Brine Pits or Brine Pans, for curing or pickling of Fleſh and Fiſh, or for preſerving of other Proviſions, without boiling the ſame into Salt, and alſo of Rock Salt or Salt Rock, without refining the ſame into White Salt, whereby Her Majeſty's Duties on Salt are much prejudiced: For Prevention thereof be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and two, no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall make uſe of any ſuch Brine before the ſame is boiled into Salt, or of any Rock Salt or Salk Rock, before the ſame is refined into White Salt, for the pickling or curing of Fleſh or Fiſh, or for the preſerving of any Proviſions, upon Pain of forfeiting the Sum of Forty Shillings for every Gallon of ſuch Brine or Pound of Rock Salt or Salt Rock ſo made uſe of, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and ſo in Proportion for a greater or leſſer Quantity.

84 Pounds Weight deemed a Buſhel of foreign Salt.

VI. And whereas Her Majeſty is very much defrauded of Her Duties upon foreign Salt, by the different and uncertain meaſuring of the ſame, upon the Importation and Exportation thereof: For Remedy thereof be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of June, Eighty four Pounds Weight of foreign Salt ſhall be deemed and taken to be a Buſhel of foreign Salt, both upon the Importation and Exportation thereof; any thing herein, or in any former Law to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Officer may compel Ship laden with Salt, and hovering on the Coaſt, to come into Port, &c. and on Refuſal may enter, &c.

Salt forfeited, &c.

VII. And whereas the Importers of foreign Salt do bring the ſame in Veſſels on the ſeveral Coaſts of this Kingdom, and Dominion of Wales, and lie hovering off the ſaid Coaſts, and will not bring the ſame into Port, or land the ſaid Salt, until they can get an Opportunity of running ſuch Salt without Entry or Payment of Duties; and in many Caſes where they do bring the ſame into Port, yet continue ſuch Salt in Port on Board their Veſſels, and refuſe to enter or land the ſame, and in the Night-time, or Abſence of the Officers from on Board ſuch Veſſels, privately run the ſaid Salt on Shore, without Entry or Payment of Duties, or giving Security for the ſame: For Prevention thereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of June, where any Ship or Veſſel laden with Salt ſhall be found hovering on the Coaſts of England or Wales, not directly proceeding on her Voyage to ſome Port, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Officers of the Cuſtoms, or the Officers for the ſaid Duty on Salt, to go on Board ſuch Veſſels, and compel the ſame to come into Port, and to continue on Board ſuch Ships or Veſſels until the Salt ſhall be unladen, or the ſaid Ship or Veſſel ſhall depart from the ſaid Port, on her intended Voyage, to ſome other Place; and if the Perſons on Board ſuch Ship or Veſſel, or any other Ship or Veſſel importing Salt, ſhall neglect or refuſe to enter or unlade ſuch Salt, for the Space of Twenty Days after the ſame is come into Port, or within that Time to depart and proceed regularly on their Voyage to ſome other Place, unleſs permitted by the Chief Officer of the Cuſtoms for that Port to make a longer Stay, then and in ſuch Caſe, all the Salt on Board ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall be forfeited, and double the Value thereof, to be recovered of the Maſter of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, or the Perſon commanding the ſame in that Voyage.

No foreign Salt to be imported in any Veſſel leſs than 20 Tuns.
Exception.
Penalty.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of June, no foreign Salt ſhall be imported from Parts beyond the Seas, in any Ship or Veſſel of leſs Burthen than Twenty Tuns, and in Bulk only (except for the neceſſary Proviſions of the Ships) upon Pain of forfeiting the ſaid Salt, and double the Value thereof, to be recovered of the Perſon importing the ſame.

65 Pounds Weight of Rock Salt deemed a Buſhel.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of June, Sixty five Pounds Weight of Rock Salt ſhall be deemed and taken to be a Buſhel of Rock Salt; any thing in the ſaid former Acts contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

No Rock Salt to be refined but within 10 Miles of the Pit.

Farther Proviſions 5 Annæ, c. 29. §. 16.
8 Geo. 2. c. 12. §. 2.

X. And it is hereby alſo enacted, That from and after the ſaid Four and twentieth Day or June, no Rock Salt whatſoever ſhall be refined or made into White Salt in any Place or Places whatſoever, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed (except ſuch Places as are or ſhall be within Ten Miles Diſtance of the reſpective Pit or Pits from whence ſuch Rock Salt ſhall be taken, or at ſuch Places as upon or before the Tenth Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and two, ſhall have been uſed for the refining of Rock Salt) under the Pain of Forty Shillings for every Buſhel of Rock Salt that ſhall be melted or refined in any Houſe, Place or Places, not by this Act allowed for that Purpoſe, and ſo in Proportion for a greater or leſſer Quantity.

XI. And whereas by the ſeveral Acts for laying Duties upon Salt, any Perſon exporting Salt to Parts beyond the Seas, is intitled to a Drawback of the whole Duty of the Salt ſo exported; and it is found by Experience, that many Exporters of Salt and Rock Salt, after they have obtained the ſaid Drawback, or a Debenture for the ſame, do privately reland ſuch Salt or Rock Salt in England or Wales, without out paying the Duties thereof upon ſuch Relanding: For Prevention thereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of June, no Debenture ſhall be made or granted, or Drawback allowed to be paid, for or upon Account of the Exportation of any Salt or Rock Salt for Ireland, until the Exporter of the ſaid Salt or Rock Salt ſhall produce, to the Officer appointed to make ſuch Debenture, a Certificate under the Hand of the Collector of the Cuſtoms of the Port in Ireland, where ſuch Salt or Rock Salt ſhall be landed, or the Perſon executing his Office, of the particular Quantity of Salt or Rock Salt actually landed, to be computed after the Rate of Fifty ſix Pounds Weight to the Buſhel, in caſe the ſame ſhall be Engliſh White Salt, and after the Rate of Sixty five Pounds to the Buſhel, in caſe the ſame ſhall be Engliſh Rock Salt, and after the Rate of Eighty four Pounds to the Buſhel, in caſe the ſame ſhall be foreign Salt; which Salt and Rock Salt is hereby directed and required to be weighed by the ſaid Collectors or Perſons executing their reſpective Offices, and the ſaid Certificate to be made gratis and without Delay. And it is hereby enacted, That no Drawback ſhall be allowed or paid for more Salt or Rock Salt, of the Quantity exported in ſuch Veſſel, than what ſhall appear by ſuch Certificate to have been actually landed in Ireland.

No Drawback allowed on Exportation of Salt, without Certificate of the Quantity landed, &c.

By 4 Annæ, c. 12. §. 11. a Drawback is to be allowed for Salt loſt, &c.

Collectors to weigh ſuch Salt, and make Certificate gratis, &c.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Ship or Veſſel laden with Salt exported, to be carried to Parts beyond the Seas, ſhall, from and after the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of June, by Streſs of Weather, or otherwiſe, be drove or come into any Port, Creek, Harbour or other Place within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Officer of Exciſe on Salt for Such Place, appointed or to be appointed for that Purpoſe by the Commiſſioners of Exciſe, to enter or come on Board ſuch Ship or Veſſel, and there to continue and be, till the ſaid Ship or Veſſel ſhall unlade her Cargo, or return to Sea to go her intended Voyage, under the Penalty of Twenty Pounds, to be recovered of the Maſter of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, who ſhall refuſe ſuch Officer ſo to come and continue on Board as aforeſaid. And if the ſaid Maſter, or any other Perſon, ſhall unlade or put on Shore any Part of the ſaid Salt, before due Entry or Repayment of the Duty, as by the Statutes in that Behalf made is provided, that then, and in every ſuch Caſe, not only the ſaid Salt ſo unladen, but alſo the whole Cargo of Salt in ſuch Ship or Veſſel remaining, ſhall be forfeited and loſt.

If Salt Ship be drove into Port by Streſs of Weather, &c.

Officer may come on Board &c.

Penalty on refuſing to admit him.

If Salt be put on Shore before Entry, &c. Cargo forfeited.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where any Salt, as well foreign as Engliſh, ſhall be laid on Board any Ship or Veſſel, either to be tranſported to Parts beyond the Seas, or carried Coaſtwiſe, to be relanded in England, Wales, or Berwick, the Officer of the Cuſtoms of the Port where the ſaid Salt ſhall be laden on Board any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, ſhall in the Cocquets made out and delivered for ſuch Ship or Veſſel (which Cocquet ſhall be alſo ſigned by the Officer in the ſaid Port appointed by the Commiſſioners of Exciſe for the Duty on Salt, and given without Fee or Delay) expreſs the particular Quantity of Salt ſo laden on Board: And in caſe ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall come into any Port, Creek, Harbour or Place in England, Wales, or Berwick, it ſhall be lawful for the Officers of the Cuſtoms, or other Officers for the ſaid Duties, to go on Board any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, and demand a Sight of ſuch Cocquet, and in caſe he or they ſhall have juſt Cauſe to ſuſpect that there is not ſo much Salt on Board as the Quantity expreſſed in ſuch Cocquet, and ſhall make Affidavit thereof before the Collector or Cuſtomer of the ſaid Port, or Perſon executing their or either of their Offices, to weigh all the Salt remaining on Board; and in caſe, upon ſuch Weighing, there ſhall appear not to be ſo much Salt on Board as the Quantity expreſſed in ſuch Cocquet, making reaſonable Allowance for the Waſte of the ſaid Salt ſince its Exportation, and making alſo Allowance (for Salt going Coaſtwiſe) of Salt delivered at another Port, and indorſed in the Salt Permit, going with the ſaid Veſſel, as delivered at ſuch Port, then and in ſuch Caſe the ſaid Salt ſo remaining on Board ſhall be forfeited and loſt.

Salt ſhipped to be tranſported, &c.

Officers to expreſs in the Cocquet the Quantity thereof, &c.

Further Proviſions relating hereto, 5 Geo. 1. c. 18. §. 25.

Penalty.

XIV. And for Prevention of Frauds frequently practiſed in curing Fiſh at Sea with Salt, which hath not, or ſhall not have been entred, nor the Duties thereof paid, or ſecured to be paid, according to the Directions of the former Laws, or with Salt exported from England or Wales, the Duties whereof ſhall have been repaid upon ſuch Exportation, or Debentures obtained, in order to the drawing back of the ſame; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Nine and twentieth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and two, no Fiſh, for which Allowances are by Law given upon Exportation, ſhall be imported, brought in, or landed within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, unleſs the Owner or Proprietor of ſuch Fiſh, or the Maſter of the Veſſel, ſhall make Oath before the Officer for the ſaid Duties, in the Port or Place where ſuch Fiſh ſhall be imported, brought in, or landed (who ſhall adminiſter the ſame without Fee or Charge) That all the Salt wherewith the ſaid Fiſh was cured, was laden or put on Board from ſome Port of England, Wales, or Berwick, and that no Drawback or Allowance, or Debenture for the ſame, hath to his Knowledge or Belief been had or obtained, or is intended to be had or obtained, upon the Exportation or carrying out of the ſaid Salt, or any Part thereof, upon Pain of forfeiting ſuch Fiſh that ſhall be imported, brought in or landed, contrary to the Intent or Meaning hereof, and double the Value thereof, to be recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof.

No Fiſh, &c. ſhall be imported, but what was cured with Salt for which Duty is paid, and no Drawback allowed, &c.

Penalty.

XV. And whereas the Officers appointed by the Commiſſioners of Exciſe to take Care of the Duties on imported Salt, and to prevent Frauds in the undue obtaining Debentures for Drawbacks, and Allowances out of the ſaid Duties, are not, by any of the Laws relating to the ſaid Duties, ſufficiently impowered to go on Board Ships and Veſſels for that Purpoſe, although the Duties on Salt are under the Management of the ſaid Commiſſioners and their Officers; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from henceforth it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Officers appointed by the Commiſſioners of Exciſe for the ſaid Duties on Salt, from time to time, to go on Board all Ships importing or exporting any Salt or Fiſh, and to continue on Board ſuch Ships, to take an Account of ſuch Salt and Fiſh, and ſee the ſame weighed, landed or exported; and if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall obſtruct or hinder any of the ſaid Officers in Performance of their Duties aforeſaid, then, and in every ſuch Caſe, the Perſon offending therein ſhall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XVI. And whereas Her Majeſty's Duties on Salt are much leſſened by the Exportation of great Quantities of Fiſh, in Regard the Exporters thereof, after the ſame are carried out of Port, and Allowances, or Debentures for Allowances out of the Duties on Salt, had or obtained on ſuch Exportation, do frequently bring back ſuch Fiſh into Port, and re-export the ſame, and obtain a Second or more Allowances for the very ſame Fiſh: For Remedy thereof be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and two, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Officers for the ſaid Duties on Salt, in the ſeveral and reſpective Ports of the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, upon the Exportation of any Codfiſh, Ling, or Hake, and before the ſame ſhall be laid on board for Exportation, to cut off Part of the Tail of every ſuch Codfiſh, Ling, or Hake, before the ſame ſhall be ſo exported, to the Intent it may be known that ſuch Codfiſh, Ling, or Hake hath been ſo exported, and Allowances obtained on Exportation thereof, in caſe the ſame ſhall be relanded or re-imported; and alſo, that it ſhall be lawful upon the Exportation of any Pilchards, Scads, White Herrings, Red Herrings, Salmon, or dried Red Sprats, and before the ſame ſhall be laid on board for Exportation, to mark any Caſk, Barrel, or other Veſſel, wherein any ſuch Pilchards, Scads, White Herrings, Red Herrings, Salmon, or dried Red Sprats, ſhall be exported, to the Intent it may be known that ſuch Pilchards, Scads, White Herrings, Red Herrings, Salmon, or dried Red Sprats, have been exported, and Allowances obtained on Exportation of the ſame, in caſe the ſame, or any of them, ſhall be relanded or re-imported.

On Exportation of Codfiſh, Ling, &c. Officer may cut off Part of the Tail, &c.

and mark Caſks of Pilchards, Scads, &c.

Codfiſh, &c. exported and fraudulently relanded,

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any Codfiſh, Ling, or Hake, or any Pilchards, Scads, White Herrings, Red Herrings, Salmon, or dried Red Sprats, ſhall, after the ſame ſhall be exported, be fraudulently relanded in England, or Wales, the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or re-imported, all the ſaid Fiſh, ſo relanded or re-imported, ſhall be forfeited and loſt, and double the Value thereof, to be recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof.

forfeited, &c.

Salt Maker not to act as Juſtice of Peace, in Caſes relating to the Duties on Salt, &c.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Salt Maker, or Dealer in Salt, ſhall act as a Juſtice of the Peace in any Matter or Thing relating to the Duties on Salt, or any Offence committed againſt the Laws relating to the ſame; and in caſe there ſhall not be a ſufficient Number of Juſtices of the Peace in any Corporation (that are not Makers or Dealers in Salt) ſufficient to hear and determine the Offences relating to the ſaid Duties, then, and in ſuch Caſe, the Juſtices of the Peace of the County next adjoining to ſuch Corporation ſhall have hereby Power and Authority, from time to time, to hear and determine all Offences, Matters, and Things, relating to the ſaid Duties on Salt, in the ſame Manner as if they were Juſtices of the Peace for ſuch Corporation reſpectively; any Law, Statute, or Proviſion to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Penalties and Forfeitures how to be recovered,

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſeveral Penalties and Forfeitures, hereby given and impoſed, ſhall be recovered and levied by the ſame Ways, Means, and Methods, as any Penalties and Forfeitures can or may be recovered and levied by any of the Laws of Exciſe, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of Her Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed, nor any more than One Imparlance: And that the ſaid Penalties and Forfeitures ſhall be diſtributed in Manner following (viz.) One Moiety thereof to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to him or them that will ſue or inform for the ſame.

and diſtributed.

XX. And whereas the Allowances given by the ſeveral Acts relating to the Duties on Salt, upon the Exportation of Codfiſh, Ling, and Hake, therein mentioned, do much exceed the Duty of the Salt uſually imployed in the curing the ſame, ſo that many Perſons, for the Sake of the ſaid Allowances only, do export ſuch Fiſh not duly cured, and Fiſh of very ſmall Size, not having a due Quantity of Salt made uſe of in curing the ſame, which is not only a Prejudice to Her Majeſty in Her ſaid Duties on Salt, but alſo a great Diſparagement to the Trade of Engliſh Fiſh in Foreign Markets; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in lieu of the ſeveral Allowances given out of the ſaid Duties on Salt, by the Acts relating to the ſame, upon the Exportation of any Codfiſh, Ling, or Hake, there ſhall be allowed and paid the ſeveral and reſpective Sums herein after mentioned, for the ſeveral and reſpective Sorts of Codfiſh, Ling, or Hake, herein after mentioned, which ſhall be exported from any Port or Place in England, Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, from and after the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of June; that is to ſay, Allowances on Exportation of Codfiſh, Ling, &c.

For Codfiſh, &c. 24 Inches long, 50*s.* per Hundred;

XXI. For every Hundred of Codfiſh, Ling, and Hake (other than and except Dried Cod, Ling, or Hake, commonly called Haberdines) which ſhall contain in Length Four and twenty Inches and upwards, from the Bone in the Fin to the Third Joint in the Tail of ſuch Fiſh, the Sum of Fifty Shillings, and ſo in Proportion for a greater or leſſer Quantity.

of 18 Inches, 25*s.* per Hundred.

XXII. For every Hundred of Codfiſh, Ling, or Hake (other than and except Dried Cod, Ling, or Hake, commonly called Haberdines) which ſhall be of the Length of Eighteen Inches, or more, and under the Size of Four and twenty Inches, from the Bone of the Fin to the Third Joint in the Tail of ſuch Fiſh, the Sum of Five and twenty Shillings, and ſo in Proportion for a greater or leſſer Quantity.

For Haberdines One Moiety, &c.

XXIII. For every Hundred of Dried Codfiſh, Ling, or Hake, commonly called Haberdines, One Moiety of the Allowance given by this Act for other Codfiſh, Ling, and Hake, of the ſame Dimenſions; upon Debentures, to be prepared according to the Directions of the ſeveral Acts relating to the ſaid Duties, and doing and performing ſuch other Matters and Things, as by the ſaid former Acts, and this preſent Act, are required and preſcribed, in order to the obtaining ſuch Allowances.

In caſe Salt Duties ceaſe, Allowances to be leſſened, &c.

XXIV. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any of the ſaid Duties upon Salt ſhall ceaſe, determine, or be redeemed by Parliament, then, and in any of the ſaid Caſes, the ſaid Allowances upon Exportation of Codfiſh, Ling, or Hake, hereby ſettled, ſhall be leſſened in Proportion to the Duties on Salt that ſhall ſo ceaſe, determine, or be redeemed.

XXV. And it is hereby declared and enacted, That no Allowance ſhall be paid out of the ſaid Duties on Salt, for or on Account of the Exportation of any Fiſh, that are or ſhall not be well cured, or ſhall be unmerchantable, nor for any Conger.

No Allowance to be made for Fiſh not well cured; &c. nor for Conger.

XXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for Her Majeſty (if She pleaſes) from time to time to conſtitute and appoint particular Commiſſioners, ſeparate and apart from the Commiſſioners and Governors of the Receipt of Exciſe, for the Receipt, Management, and Government of the ſaid Duties on Salt, during Her Majeſty's Pleaſure; and upon Her Majeſty's conſtituting and appointing ſuch particular Commiſſioners for the ſaid Duties on Salt, and during ſuch Time only as Her Majeſty ſhall from time to time think fit to continue the ſame under the Receipt and Management of ſuch particular Commiſſioners, all and every the Powers and Authorities given by this Act, and by the ſeveral Acts relating to the ſaid Duties on Salt, or any of them, to the Commiſſioners and Governors of the Receipt of Exciſe, and the Collectors and other Officers for the ſaid Duties under them, ſhall be and are hereby veſted and transferred to ſuch particular Commiſſioners as Her Majeſty ſhall ſo from time to time conſtitute and appoint, for the Receipt, Government, and Management of the ſaid Duties on Salt; and the Collectors and Officers to be, from time to time, appointed by ſuch particular Commiſſioners, or the major Part of them reſpectively, and all and every the Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Methods, Clauſes, Matters, and Things, which in and by the ſaid Acts, relating to the ſaid Duties upon Salt, are directed to be exerciſed, practiſed, applied, uſed, and put in Execution by the ſaid Commiſſioners and Governors of the Receipt of Exciſe, and their Officers under them reſpectively, with relation to the ſaid Duties on Salt, or any Penalties, Forfeitures, Frauds, or Offences againſt the ſaid Acts, or any of them, relating to the ſame, ſhall, during ſuch Time as Her Majeſty ſhall pleaſe to continue the ſaid Duties on Salt under the Receipt and Management of ſuch particular Commiſſioners, be exerciſed, practiſed, applied, uſed, and put in Execution by ſuch particular Commiſſioners, and the Officers under them reſpectively for the time being.

Queen may appoint particular Commiſſioners for Salt.

XXVII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where any Salt or Rock Salt ſhall be entred according to the former Laws relating to the ſaid Duties on Salt, and the ſame ſhall be intended to be exported to Parts beyond the Seas, then, and in ſuch Caſe the Officers for the ſaid Duties on Salt ſhall be and are hereby authorized and impowered to take ſufficient Security from the Merchant or Merchants that intend to export ſuch Salt or Rock Salt, for the due Payment of the Duties thereof, without inſiſting, that the original Proprietor of ſuch Salt or Rock Salt be bound in ſuch Security.

Officers to take Security for Salt entred to be exported.

XXVIII. And whereas notwithſtanding the Act of Parliament for obliging all Perſons to ſell Salt by Weight, the ſame is not obſerved, by reaſon the Perſons that buy the ſame refuſe to buy the ſame of the Proprietors otherwiſe than by Meaſure, to the great Prejudice of the ſaid Proprietors: For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of June, no Perſon ſhall buy any Salt otherwiſe than by Weight, and not by Meaſure, under the Penalty of Ten Shillings for every Buſhel of Salt which ſhall be bought contrary to the true Meaning hereof, and ſo in Proportion for a greater or leſſer Quantity, to be paid by the Perſon or Perſons ſo buying the ſame, to be recovered and diſtributed, as any the Penalties by this Act inflicted are hereby directed to be recovered and diſtributed.

9 & 10 W. 3. c. 6.

No Perſon to buy Salt but by Weight. Penalty.

XXIX. And whereas the Salt Proprietors having a Liberty to pay the Duty in ready Money, or give Security to pay the ſame, in Nine Months for the Rock, and in Six Months for other Salt, tends only to the Benefit of the richer Sort of Proprietors, but is deſtructive to the Salt Trade in general, through the Difficulties attending ſuch as have not ready Money, thereby cauſing ſeveral Bonds to be ſued, when by a due Encouragement to ſuch, as well as other Proprietors, it might in a great meaſure be prevented, and the Duty ſooner paid; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon and Perſons who ſhall give ſuch Security, as aforeſaid, ſhall have Liberty, at any Time within Twenty eight Days after giving the ſame, to pay the Duty thereby ſecured, and on Payment thereof ſhall have and receive a Diſcount after the Rate of Ten Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the Remainder of the Time for which ſuch Security ſhall be given.

Perſons paying Duty in 28 Days after Security given, to have a Diſcount, &c.

XXX. And whereas ſeveral Fiſhermen who uſed the North Sea Fiſhery, did, in the Year One thouſand ſeven hundred, ſhip ſeveral Quantities of Salt at North and South Shields near Newcaſtle upon Tine, giving Bonds for the Duties thereof, and then exported the ſaid Salt to the North Seas, where they ſpent it in curing and ſalting of Fiſh caught in thoſe Seas, believing that upon Affidavit of ſhipping off the ſaid Salt, and its not being relanded in England or Wales, they might be intitled to a Drawback of the Duties which ſome other Fiſhermen in the like Caſe had obtained, as if ſuch Salt had been actually exported to Parts beyond the Seas; and upon bringing home their ſaid Fiſh, ſold the ſame to ſeveral Retailers at Home Markets, at a low Price accordingly: Now, foraſmuch as ſuch Fiſhermen might be ignorant that they were liable to pay the ſaid Duties, notwithſtanding ſuch Salt was ſpent in curing of Fiſh, and they not being enabled by the Price thereof to pay the ſame, a Proſecution upon ſuch their Bonds would ruin them and their Families: For Prevention whereof, upon due Proof to be made before the Commiſſioners for the Exciſe or Salt Duties, that ſuch Salt ſo ſhipped off was by them ſpent in curing and ſalting of Fiſh caught in the North Seas, that the ſaid Fiſh was afterwards ſold to Retailers at Home Markets, at a low Price, and that no Drawback or Allowance has been already made or paid by the ſaid Commiſſioners for the Exciſe or Salt Duties; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all ſuch Bonds as were ſo given at North and South Shields near Newcaſtle, for the Duties of ſuch Salt ſo expended, as aforeſaid, and for which no Drawback or Allowance has already been made upon Exportation thereof, ſhall be, and the ſame are hereby made and declared void, and of none Effect: And the Commiſſioners for the Exciſe or Salt Duties for the time being are hereby impowered and directed to cancel or deliver up the ſame to the reſpective Perſons therein concerned, who ſhall deſire ſuch Bonds, or any of them; and that all Proſecutions at Law upon the ſaid Bonds do ceaſe and determine.

Bonds given by Fiſhermen who uſed the North Sea Fiſhery, Anno 1700, &c. made void. Commiſſioners to cancel the ſame, and Proſecutions to ceaſe.

Pilchards.

XXXI. And whereas divers Frauds have been committed in curing and packing of Pilchards, by which Means a great Diſrepute is brought on the ſaid Commodity beyond the Seas, which tends as well to the great Diſhonour of the Engliſh Nation, as to the Deſtruction of their Trade: For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of June, no Perſon or Perſons do preſume to cure or pack Pilchards for Sale, unleſs he or they be Owner or Owners, or Part Owners of ſome Seyn or Seyns, or of Drift-net or Drift-nets, or have the Conſent of ſuch Owners in Writing, and that on each Cask or Hogſhead of Pilchards, the Word Seyn or Drift (according to the Manner of their being taken) ſhall be burnt with an Iron in ſome viſible Part thereof, together with the Name and Surname of the Owner or Owners of the ſame, as alſo the Number of Pilchards contained in each Cask or Hogſhead, under the Penalty of the Forfeiture of double the Value of the ſaid Fiſh for every ſuch Offence, to be recovered and diſpoſed as other Penalties by this Act are to be recovered and diſpoſed.

XXXII. And whereas by an Act made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King WILLIAM the Third, ſeveral additional Duties upon Coffee, Tea, Chocolate and Spices were granted to His ſaid late Majeſty, from the Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety five, to the Second Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight; and it was thereby enacted, That Two Thirds of the ſaid Duties of ſuch of the ſaid Goods as ſhould be exported within the Times by the ſaid Act limited, ſhould be repaid to the Exporter thereof; which ſaid Duties were afterwards continued to the Firſt of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one, and afterwards further continued to the Firſt of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix: And whereas by another Act made in the Eleventh Year of His ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, an additional Duty of Fifteen per Centum was granted to His ſaid late Majeſty, upon all Wrought Silks, Bengals and Stuffs, made or mixed with Silk or Herba, of the Manufacture of Perſia, China, or the Eaſt Indies, and upon all Callicoes painted, dyed, printed or ſtained there, as alſo upon all Muſlins, from the Five and twentieth of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred, to the Thirtieth of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and one; and it was thereby further enacted, That the ſaid Duty upon ſuch of the ſaid Goods, as ſhould be exported within Twelve Months after the Importation thereof, ſhould be repaid, or that the Security given for the ſame ſhould be vacated; which ſaid Duty of Fifteen per Centum on Muſlins is by another Act continued to the Thirtieth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix: And whereas alſo by another Act made in the Eighth Year of His ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, there was granted to His ſaid late Majeſty an additional Subſidy of Tunnage and Poundage, and other Duties therein mentioned, upon certain Goods and Merchandizes, from the Firſt of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, to the Firſt Day of February, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine; and by the ſaid Act it is further enacted, That the ſaid Subſidy, and other Duties upon ſuch of the ſaid Goods, as ſhould be again exported within the Time limited by the ſaid Act, ſhall be repaid to the Exporter thereof; which ſaid Subſidy and other Duties were afterwards continued, during His ſaid late Majeſty's Life, and are by an Act of this preſent Parliament granted to Her preſent Majeſty, during Her Majeſty's Life (which God long preſerve). And whereas ſeveral of the ſaid Commodities were imported, and the Duties thereof paid upon ſuch of the ſaid Acts as are expired, and the ſame Commodities have been ſince exported, and the Exporters thereof are become intitled to a Drawback of the ſaid Duties, or ſome Part thereof, according to the Proviſions made in the ſaid reſpective Acts for that Purpoſe: But in regard the ſaid Duties have been paid into the Exchequer, and from thence iſſued to the Purpoſes for which they were by the ſaid reſpective Acts appropriated, there doth not remain ſufficient of the ſaid Duties for the Payment of the ſaid Drawbacks; and there being no expreſs Proviſion made in the ſeveral Acts, whereby the ſaid Duties are reſpectively continued, ſome Doubt hath ariſen, whether the Duties which have or ſhall accrue ſince the Continuation of the ſame, ſhall be liable to the Payment of the ſaid Drawbacks of the ſaid Duties upon the ſaid expired Acts; and thereby the ſaid Exporters are kept out of their Money, and the Trade in the ſaid Commodities very much diſcouraged: For Remedy whereof be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Debentures for the ſaid Drawbacks of the Duties which were paid upon the ſaid Acts expired as aforeſaid, ſhall be ſatisfied out of the Monies ariſing by the ſaid reſpective Acts now in Force for the Duties continued as aforeſaid; that is to ſay, The Debentures which ſhould have been paid out of the ſaid additional Duties upon Coffee, Tea, Chocolate and Spices, determined as aforeſaid, ſhall be paid out of the ſaid preſent Duties continued as aforeſaid upon the ſame Commodities: And the ſaid Debentures which ought to have been ſatisfied out of the ſaid expired Duties of Fifteen per Centum, ſhall be paid out of the ſaid preſent Duty of Fifteen per Centum upon Muſlins; and ſuch of the ſaid Debentures as ought to have been ſatisfied out of the ſaid additional Subſidy of Tunnage and Poundage expired as aforeſaid, ſhall be paid out of the ſaid preſent Duty of Tunnage and Poundage now payable to Her preſent Majeſty.

Debentures for the Drawbacks due on the aforeſaid expired Acts, ſhall be ſatisfied out of the Monies ariſing by the aforeſaid Acts continued.

CAP. XXII.

An Act to declare the Alterations in the Oath appointed to be taken by the Act, intituled, An Act for the further Security of His Majeſty's Perſon, and the Succeſſion of the Crown in the Proteſtant Line, and for extinguiſhing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and all other Pretenders, and their open and ſecret Abettors, and for declaring the Aſſociation to be determined.

13 W. 3. c. 6.

Oath in the Act 13 W. 3. to be adminiſtred as here ſet down, viz.

WHEREAS by the Demiſe of His late Majeſty King WILLIAM the Third, and the Acceſſion of Her preſent Majeſty Queen ANNE, to the Imperial Crown and Dignity of theſe Realms, the Form of an Oath contained in an Act made in the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of His ſaid late Majeſty, intituled, An Act for the further Security of His Majeſty's Perſon, and the Succeſſion of the Crown in the Proteſtant Line, and for the extinguiſhing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and all other Pretenders, and their open and ſecret Abettors, is now become neceſſary to be altered; be it therefore declared and enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Twentieth Day of April, One thouſand ſeven hundred and two, the Oath in the ſaid recited Act mentioned, be adminiſtred in ſuch Manner and Form as is herein after ſet down and preſcribed (that is to ſay)

I A. B.

I A. B. do truly and ſincerely acknowledge, profeſs, teſtify and declare, in my Conſcience before God and the World, That our Sovereign Lady Queen ANNE, is lawful and rightful Queen of this Realm, and of all other Her Majeſty's Dominions and Countries thereunto belonging. And I do ſolemnly and ſincerely declare, That I do believe in my Conſcience, that the Perſon pretended to be Prince of Wales, during the Life of the late King JAMES, and ſince His Deceaſe pretending to be and taking upon himſelf the Stile and Title of King of England, by the Name of JAMES the Third, hath not any Right or Title whatſoever to the Crown of this Realm, or any other the Dominions thereto belonging: And I do renounce, refuſe, and abjure any Allegiance or Obedience to him. And I do ſwear, That I will bear Faith and true Allegiance to Her Majeſty Queen ANNE, and Her will defend to the utmoſt of my Power, againſt all traiterous Conſpiracies and Attempts whatſoever, which ſhall be made againſt Her Perſon, Crown, or Dignity. And I will do my beſt Endeavour to diſcloſe and make known to Her Majeſty and Her Succeſſors all Treaſons and Traiterous Conſpiracies, which I ſhall know to be againſt Her or any of Them. And I do faithfully promiſe, to the utmoſt of my Power, to ſupport, maintain, and defend the Limitation and Succeſſion of the Crown, againſt him the ſaid JAMES, and all other Perſons whatſoever, as the ſame is and ſtands limited (by an Act intituled, An Act declaring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, and ſettling the Succeſſion of the Crown) to Her preſent Majeſty and the Heirs of Her Body, being Proteſtants; and as the ſame by one other Act, intituled, An Act for the further Limitation of the Crown, and better ſecuring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, is and ſtands limited after the Deceaſe of Her Majeſty, and for Default of Iſſue of Her Majeſty, to the Princeſs SOPHIA, Electoreſs and Dutcheſs Dowager of Hanover, and the Heirs of Her Body, being Proteſtants. And all theſe Things I do plainly and ſincerely acknowledge and ſwear, according to theſe expreſs Words by me ſpoken, and according to the plain and common Senſe and Underſtanding of the ſame Words, without any Equivocation, mental Evaſion, or ſecret Reſervation whatſoever. And I do make this Recognition, Acknowledgement, Abjuration, Renunciation, and Promiſe, heartily, willingly, and truly, upon the true Faith of a Chriſtian.

II. And that all and every Perſon and Perſons, who are enjoined or required to adminiſter, take or ſubſcribe the Oath in the ſaid recited Act mentioned, ſhall adminiſter, take and ſubſcribe the ſame, according to the Form herein ſet down and preſcribed; any thing in the ſaid recited Act to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Oath to be taken in the Form preſcribed.

III. And whereas by an Act made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His ſaid late Majeſty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for the better Security of His Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, it is recited, That for the better Preſervation of His ſaid Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, great Numbers of His Majeſty's good Subjects had entred into and ſubſcribed an Aſſociation in the Words contained in the ſaid Act, which Aſſociation is by the ſame Act required to be ſubſcribed in ſuch Manner, and by ſuch Officers and Perſons, and under ſuch Forfeitures, Penalties, Incapacities, and Diſabilities, for the Neglect or Refuſal to ſubſcribe the ſame, as in the ſaid Act is mentioned and contained: And whereas ſince the Death of the late King JAMES, and by the Demiſe of His ſaid late Majeſty King WILLIAM the Third, the ſubſcribing the ſaid Aſſociation is not neceſſary to be any longer continued, ſuch Part thereof as relates to the Support and Defence of the Succeſſion to the Crown therein mentioned, being more fully provided for by the ſaid recited Oath; be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſo much of the ſaid recited Act of the Seventh Year of His ſaid late Majeſty King WILLIAM the Third, as relates to the ſaid Aſſociation therein contained, or the requiring any Officers or other Perſons in the ſaid Act mentioned, to ſubſcribe the ſame, or for the enacting any Forfeitures, Penalties, Incapacities, or Diſabilities, upon any Perſon for the Neglect or Refuſal to ſubſcribe the ſame, or that requires any Court or Courts to tender the ſaid Aſſociation, or to regiſter the Subſcription thereof, and all and every the Clauſe or Clauſes in the ſaid Act, or any other ſubſequent Act or Acts contained, relating to the ſaid Aſſociation, be and are hereby declared to be void and of no Effect, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever.

7 W. 3. c. 27.

Aſſociation made void.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted and declared, That ſuch Members of the Houſe of Peers, and alſo ſuch Members of the Houſe of Commons, who have taken and ſubſcribed the Oath in the ſaid firſt recited Act contained, according to the Form agreed upon in each Houſe reſpectively, ſhall not be obliged again to take or ſubſcribe the Oath according to the Form declared by this Act, during the Continuance of this preſent Parliament, for or in reſpect of their being Members of either Houſe reſpectively, nor in reſpect of any Commiſſion, Office or Place of Truſt, Fee, Salary or Wages, which ſuch Member did hold and enjoy at the Time of the taking and ſubſcribing the ſaid Oath.

Peers and Members who have taken the Oath not obliged to take the ſame again, during this Parliament.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon or Perſons, who in Her Majeſty's High Court of Chancery, or in Her Court commonly called the King's Bench, or the Quarter Seſſions, may or are, or ſhall be obliged to take the Oaths mentioned in an Act of Parliament, made in the Firſt Year of the Reign of the late King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, intituled, An Act for abrogating of the Oaths of Supremacy and Allegiance, and appointing other Oaths, and to make and ſubſcribe the Declaration mentioned in an Act of Parliament made in the Five and twentieth Year of the Reign of the late King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for preventing Dangers which may happen from Popiſh Recuſants, may for ever hereafter, at their Elections, take the ſaid Oaths, and make and ſubſcribe the ſaid Declaration, and deliver the Certificates of receiving the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, and make Proof of the Truth thereof, which ſhall be enquired of and put upon Record, according to the ſaid laſt mentioned Act, in Her Majeſty's Court of Common Pleas, or in Her Court of Exchequer at Weſtminſter, in ſuch Manner, and at ſuch Times, as by the ſaid Acts, or either of them, they are obliged; or may take the ſaid Oaths, and make and ſubſcribe the ſaid Declaration, and deliver and prove ſuch Certificates, to be enquired of, and put upon Record in the ſaid Court of Chancery, or Court of King's Bench; and ſuch taking the Oaths, making and ſubſcribing the ſaid Declaration, and delivering of ſuch Certificates, proving the Truth thereof, inquiring of, and putting upon Record, in the ſaid Court of Common Pleas, and Court of Exchequer, ſhall be as effectual to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſame had been taken, made and delivered, inquired of, proved, and put upon Names of Perſons taking the Oaths to be inrolled, &c.

VI. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Names of all Perſons and Officers aforeſaid, that do or ſhall take the Oaths aforeſaid, in the Court of Common Pleas or Court of Exchequer, ſhall be inrolled in the ſaid Courts where the ſame ſhall be taken reſpectively, with the Day and Time of their taking the ſame, in Rolls made and kept only for that Intent and Purpoſe, and for no other; the which Rolls, as for the Court of Common Pleas, ſhall be publickly hung up in the Office of the Chief Prothonotary of the ſaid Court; and the Roll for the Exchequer, in the Office of the Queen's Remembrancer of the ſaid Court, and there remain during the whole Term, every Term, for every one to reſort to, and to look upon, without Fee or Reward; and likewiſe none of the Perſons aforeſaid ſhall give or pay any Fee or Reward to any Officer or Officers belonging to either of the ſaid Courts of Common Pleas or Exchequer, above the Sum of Twelve Pence, for his or their Entry of his or their taking of the ſaid Oaths.

and not to pay above 12 d. for taking the ſame.

II. And whereas it often happens, that ſmall Quantities and Parcels of Corn and Hops are brought as aforeſaid to the City of London, and the Fees exacted by the Officers aforeſaid have exceeded the Charge of the Freight thereof; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Tenth Day of May, the Sum of One Shilling and Eight Pence Halfpenny, and no more, ſhall be reſpectively diſtributed to and amongſt the Officers aforeſaid, Fee for Corn, &c. brought to London.

ſaid, when the Quantity of ſuch Corn or Grain as aforeſaid exceeds not Fifty Quarters, or when the Quantity of Hops exceeds not Fifty Bags in any one ſuch Hoy or Veſſel as aforeſaid.

III. And whereas upon the carrying of Goods from Port to Port, Bonds are given for returning Certificates of the landing or diſcharging of the Goods in the Ports to which they are carried, and when ſuch Bonds are tranſmitted into the Exchequer, the Certificates relating thereunto have been uſually annexed to ſuch Bonds, but by Fraud or Careleſneſs the Certificates are ſometimes disjoined from the reſpective Bonds, whereby Perſons who have duly complied with the Conditions thereof, have been put to unjuſt Vexation and Charge: For Prevention whereof for the future it is hereby enacted, That the proper Officers for tranſmitting the ſaid Bonds into the Exchequer ſhall truly and faithfully indorſe, on the Backſide of every ſuch Bond, the Subſtance of the Certificate, if there be any relating thereto, and ſign ſuch Indorſement, to ſerve as an Intimation to the Court of Exchequer, concerning the Performance or Non-performance of the Conditions of ſuch Bonds reſpectively, under the Penalty of forfeiting Treble Damages, beſides Coſts of Suit, to be recovered by the Party grieved againſt the Officer who ſhall offend therein, by Action of Debt or the Caſe, or by Bill, Suit or Information, in any Court of Record, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than One Imparlance ſhall be granted or allowed.

Certificates on Bonds tranſmitted into the Exchequer, to be indorſed on the Back of the Bond, &c. Penalty.

IV. Provided, and it is hereby enacted, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to the leſſening or taking away the Tolls or Duties due and payable to the Mayor, and Commonalty, and Citizens of the City of London, or to the Mayor of the ſaid City for the time being; any thing herein to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Act not to take away any Tolls, &c. payable to the City of London.

ſuch Rectories Impropriate, Tithes, Advowſons, or other Things, ſo veſted in the ſaid Truſtees, and directed to be conveyed in Truſt, as aforeſaid, are charged with, or liable unto any Debts, Charges, or Incumbrances jointly with any other Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, by the ſaid Act veſted in the ſaid Truſtees, ſuch other Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, in the Firſt Place be liable to, and ſhall anſwer and ſatisfy ſuch Debts, Charges, and Incumbrances; and the ſaid Truſtees, or any Seven of them, are hereby authorized and required, to make Sale of ſuch other Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or of a competent Part thereof, for or towards the paying off, clearing, and diſcharging ſuch Debts, Charges, and Incumbrances: And as ſoon as conveniently may be, from and after ſuch Sale, and the clearing and diſcharging ſuch Debts and Incumbrances, ſuch Rectories Impropriate, Tithes, Advowſons, and other Things, ſo veſted in the ſaid Truſtees, and directed to be conveyed in Truſt, as aforeſaid, as are, together with ſuch other Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, jointly charged or incumbred, ſhall be conveyed, and the ſaid Truſtees, or any Seven of them, are hereby authorized and required to convey the ſame, to ſuch Perſon and Perſons, and in ſuch Manner, and to ſuch Uſes, Intents, and Purpoſes, as in the ſaid recited Act is directed and appointed, freed and diſcharged of and from all ſuch Debts, Charges, and Incumbrances, be the ſame by Matter of Record, Mortgage, or otherwiſe.

CAP. XXXII.

An Act for the Relief of the Proteſtant Purchaſers of the forfeited Eſtates in Ireland.

11 W. 3. c. 2.

WHEREAS by One Act made in a Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of our late Sovereign Lord King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for granting unto His Majeſty an Aid by Sale of the forfeited and other Eſtates and Intereſts in Ireland, and by a Land Tax in England, for the ſeveral Purpoſes therein mentioned, it is provided, That the Sum of One and twenty thouſand Pounds, therein mentioned, ſhould be paid to and amongſt the ſeveral Perſons, who were Purchaſers of any Eſtate of Inheritance, of any of the forfeited Lands or Eſtates in Ireland, under the Grantees thereof, who ſhould prove the actual Payment of their Purchaſe-money, before the Truſtees mentioned in the ſaid Act for Sale of the forfeited Eſtates in Ireland, on or before the Tenth Day of Auguſt, One thouſand ſeven hundred, to be divided amongſt ſuch Purchaſers, in Proportion to the Sums by them reſpectively paid for their ſeveral Puachaſes: And whereas in purſuance of the ſaid Act, ſeveral Perſons did, before the ſaid Truſtees, prove the actual Payment of the Sum of Fifty nine thouſand five hundred and two Pounds, for the Purchaſes of the ſeveral Eſtates of Inheritances to the ſeveral Grantees thereof (which ſaid Sum of One and twenty thouſand Pounds, Part of the ſaid Purchaſe-money, was by the ſaid Act charged on the Lands ſo purchaſed reſpectively) according to the Directions of the ſaid Act: And whereas no conſiderable Part, if any, of the ſaid Sum of One and twenty thouſand Pounds, hath been as yet paid to the ſaid Purchaſers: And whereas it may very much conduce to the Strengthning and Preſervation of the Proteſtant Intereſt in Ireland, to continue the ſaid Purchaſers in the Poſſeſſion of the reſpective Lands by them reſpectively purchaſed, and that ſome further Relief may be given the ſaid Purchaſers; may it pleaſe Your Majeſty (at the moſt humble Suit of the ſaid Purchaſers) that it may be enacted, &c.

Perſons who purchaſed Eſtates under the Grantees, &c. ſhall enjoy the ſame, paying 13 Years Purchaſe for an Eſtate of Inheritance, and 6 Years and a half for an Eſtate for Life, &c. according to the Rents, Anno 1701. Quit Rents, &c. deducted. Purchaſers of Eſtates of Inheritance, to have a Diſcount, &c. on Payment of the Surplus, &c. In Default of paying Remainder of Purchaſe-money, Truſtees may ſell the Lands, &c.

VII. And to the end that none of the ſaid purchaſed Premiſſes may ever deſcend or come to any Papiſt or Papiſts, or Perſons profeſſing the Popiſh Religion, but that the ſame ſhall deſcend and come, and remain to be held and enjoyed by Proteſtants, for the ſtrengthning and ſupporting of the Engliſh Intereſt, and the Proteſtant Religion in Ireland; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon educated in the Popiſh Religion, or profeſſing the ſame, and being under the Age of Eighteen Years, ſhall not, within Six Months after he or ſhe ſhall attain the Age aforeſaid, take the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, and alſo ſubſcribe the Declaration ſet down and expreſt in an Act of Parliament made in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of the late King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for the more effectual preſerving the King's Perſon and Government, by diſabling Papiſts from ſitting in either Houſe of Parliament, to be by him or her made, repeated, and ſubſcribed in the Courts of Chancery, or King's Bench, in England or Ireland, or Quarter Seſſions in any County in England or Ireland, where ſuch Perſon ſhall reſide (which ſaid Oaths and Declaration the ſaid Courts and Quarter Seſſions are ſeverally hereby impowered to adminiſter) and continue to be a Proteſtant after the taking the ſaid Oaths and Declaration aforeſaid, every ſuch Perſon ſhall, in reſpect of him or herſelf only, and not to or in reſpect of his or her Heirs or Poſterity, be diſabled, and is hereby made incapable to inherit or take by Deſcent, Deviſe, or Limitation, in Poſſeſſion, Reverſion, or Remainder, any of the Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Premiſſes aforeſaid, or any Rent or Profit iſſuing out of the ſame, or any Part thereof; and that during the Life of ſuch Perſon, or until he or ſhe ſhall take the ſaid Oaths, and make, repeat, and ſubſcribe the ſaid Declaration in Manner aforeſaid, the next of his or her Kindred, who ſhall be a Proteſtant, ſhall have and enjoy the ſaid Premiſſes, without being accountable for the Profits by him or her received, during ſuch Enjoyment as aforeſaid.

and continuing Proteſtant afterwards, incapable of inheriting any Lands, &c.

but they ſhall go to the next of Kin, who is a Proteſtant, &c.

Papiſt, &c. made incapable to purchaſe any the Lands aforeſaid.

VIII. And it is further enacted, That every ſuch Papiſt, or Perſon making Profeſſion of the Popiſh Religion, ſhall be diſabled, and is hereby made incapable to purchaſe, either in his or her own Name, or in the Name of any other Perſon or Perſons, to his or her own Uſe, or in Truſt for him or her, any of the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or Premiſſes aforeſaid, or any Rents, Profits, Terms, or Intereſts in or out of the ſame; and that all and ſingular Eſtates, Terms, and any other Intereſts and Profits whatſoever, in or out of the Premiſſes, and all Conveyances and Declarations of Truſt concerning the ſame, which ſhall be made, ſuffered, or done, to or for the Uſe, Benefit, and Behoof of any ſuch Perſon, ſhall be utterly void and of none Effect, to all Intents, Purpoſes, and Conſtructions whatſoever.

IX. And

Leaſes, &c. to be made only to Proteſtants, &c.

IX. And it is hereby further enacted, That all Leaſes for Life or Lives, or for any Term of Years, or otherwiſe, which ſhall at any Time hereafter be made of any the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments hereby directed to be conveyed by the ſaid Truſtees, as is aforeſaid, ſhall be made to ſuch Perſons only as are of the Proteſtant Religion, and to none other. And if any Leaſe for Life or Lives, or for Years, or otherwiſe, ſhall at any Time hereafter be made of any the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments aforeſaid, to or in Truſt for any Papiſt; or if any Leaſe of any ſuch Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments ſhall be made to a Proteſtant, and the ſame ſhall afterwards be aſſigned to or in Truſt for any Papiſt; every ſuch Leaſe ſo made to or in Truſt for any Papiſt, and likewiſe every ſuch Aſſignment, ſhall be void, and the ſame is and are hereby adjudged and declared to be ipſo facto null and void to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever: And in ſuch Caſe, as well the Perſon making any ſuch Leaſe or Aſſignment, as the Perſon to whom, or for whoſe Uſe or Benefit the ſame ſhall be made (in caſe ſuch Perſon ſhall accept ſuch Leaſe or Aſſignment) or ſhall occupy any the Lands or Tenements therein contained, ſhall forfeit treble the full yearly Value of all the Lands ſo let, aſſigned, or occupied; One Moiety thereof to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs, and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to ſuch Perſon (being a Proteſtant) who ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of Her Majeſty's Courts of Record at Dublin, by any Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or Imparlance ſhall be allowed.

Penalty on Perſon accepting Leaſe in Truſt for Papiſt, &c.

Act not to make void any Cottage Leaſe, &c.

X. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend to make void any Leaſe, that is or ſhall be made of any Cottage or Cabin, under the yearly Value of Thirty Shillings per Annum, to any Day Labourer whatſoever.

nor to extend to Rectories Impropriate, &c.

XI. Provided alſo, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall be conſtrued to extend to any Rectories Impropriate, or Vicarages, Tithes, Oblations, Obventions, Glebes, or other Things, to the ſame Rectories or Vicarages ſeverally and reſpectively belonging or appertaining, which were, by a Clauſe in the aforeſaid Act, veſted in the Truſtees in the ſaid Act named, to the Uſes, Intents, and Purpoſes therein mentioned; but that all ſuch Rectories and Vicarages, Tithes, Oblations, Obventions, Glebes, and other Things thereunto belonging, with their Appurtenances, ſhall ſtill continue to be veſted in the ſaid Truſtees, to ſuch Uſes as are in and by the ſaid Act directed and appointed; any thing in this Act to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding. But in ſuch Caſe, the ſaid Truſtees are to make a Deduction and Allowance, after the Rate of Thirteen Years Purchaſe, out of the Purchaſe-money to be paid unto them for ſuch Rectories or Vicarages, or other Matters aforeſaid, to all and every Perſon or Perſons who had purchaſed the ſame, their Heirs, or Aſſigns.

Truſtees to deduct for ſuch Rectories, &c.

and be diſcharged from Rents, received, &c.

XII. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That the Truſtees in the ſaid Act named for Sale of the forfeited Eſtates in Ireland, ſhall be and are hereby acquitted and diſcharged of and from all Rents or Profits, or other Sums of Money, by them, or any for or under them, received or to be received, for or out of any the Lands, Tenements, and Premiſſes aforeſaid, at any Time before the Payment of the Remainder of the ſaid Thirteen Years Purchaſe, by the ſaid Purchaſers reſpectively, and of and from all Actions, Suits, and Demands for or in reſpect thereof.

before Payment of the Remaider of the 13 Years, Purchaſe, &c.

Saving to the Queen all Rents, &c.

XIII. Saving nevertheleſs to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, all Rents iſſuing and payable out of or for the ſaid Premiſſes, and alſo ſaving to all Bodies Politick and Corporate, their Heirs, and Succeſſors, and to all and every other Perſon and Perſons, their Heirs, Executors, and Adminiſtrators (other than the ſaid Truſtees in the ſaid Act named) all ſuch Eſtate, Right, Title, Intereſt, Claim, and Demand whatſoever, of, into, and out of the ſaid Premiſſes, as they or any of them might have had in caſe this Act had not been made; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

XIV. And for the better Preſervation and Encouragement of the Proteſtant Intereſt in the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, and to the end that none of the Honours, Manors, Baronies, Caſtles, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Reverſions, Services, Remainders, Poſſeſſions, Royalties, Franchizes, Juriſdictions, Privileges, or Appurtenances thereunto belonging, or in any wiſe appertaining, Rights of Entry, Rights of Action, Titles, Conditions, Uſes, Truſts, Powers, or Authorities, Leaſes for Life, Lives, or Years, Penſions, Annuities, Rent Charges, or Hereditaments, whether Free-hold, Copy-hold, or of what Nature or Kind ſoever they be, within the ſaid Realm of Ireland, nor any of the Eſtates or Intereſts whatſoever in the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, which by an Act made in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King William the Third, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to His Majeſty by Sale of the forfeited and other Eſtates and Intereſts in Ireland, and by a Land Tax in England, for the ſeveral Purpoſes therein mentioned, were veſted and ſettled in the Perſons in that Act named (Truſtees nominated and appointed for putting in Execution the Powers and Authorities in the ſaid Act enacted, relating to the ſaid forfeited and other Eſtates and Intereſts in Ireland) and their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns reſpectively, or which by the ſaid Act, or by any ſubſequent Act or Acts, are ordered or directed to be diſpoſed of or ſold by them, or any of them, for the Purpoſes in the ſaid Act or Acts mentioned, may ever hereafter deſcend or come by Limitation, Purchaſe, or otherwiſe, to any Papiſt or Papiſts, or Perſon or Perſons profeſſing the Popiſh Religion; but that the ſame forthwith, from and after the Diſpoſition and Sale thereof, may be poſſeſſed and enjoyed, and from thenceforth for ever hereafter deſcend, come, and remain, to be held and enjoyed by Proteſtants, for the ſtrengthning and ſupporting of the Engliſh Intereſt, and the Proteſtant Religion in Ireland; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Diſpoſitions and Sales of all and every the ſaid Eſtates and Intereſts, which ſhall be made by the ſaid Truſtees, or any of them, ſhall be made unto Proteſtants only; and that every Perſon being a Papiſt, or profeſſing the Popiſh Religion, ſhall be diſabled, and is hereby made incapable to purchaſe, either in his or her own Name, or in the Name of any other Perſon or Perſons, to his or her Uſe, or in Truſt for him or her, any of the Honours, Manors, Lands, Tenements, Royalties, Franchiſes, and other Hereditaments, of what Nature or Kind ſoever, veſted in the ſaid Truſtees, in order to the ſelling the ſame, or any Rents, Profits, and the next of Kin, being a Proteſtant, ſhall inherit, &c.

XV. And for preventing the ſaid Premiſſes, and every Part thereof, at all Times hereafter, from coming into the Hands of Papiſts, or Perſons profeſſing the Popiſh Religion; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Papiſt or Perſon profeſſing the Popiſh Religion, during the Time of his continuing a Papiſt, or profeſſing the Popiſh Religion, ſhall be a Perſon capable to inherit, take, or make Title unto, by Deſcent, Purchaſe, Limitation, Deviſe, or other Conveyance whatſoever, in Poſſeſſion, Reverſion or Remainder, or to have, hold or enjoy any of the ſaid Honours, Manors, Hereditaments and Premiſſes, or any Truſt or Intereſt therein, or any Rent or Profit iſſuing out of the ſame, or out of any Part thereof; and that if any Perſon profeſſing the Popiſh Religion, or educated in the ſame, and not having ſolemnly and publickly renounced it, being of full Age, ſhall not, within the Space of Six Months after the accruing of his or her Title, or being under the Age of Eighteen Years, ſhall not, within Six Months after he or ſhe ſhall attain the Age aforeſaid, take the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, and alſo ſubſcribe the Declaration ſet down and expreſſed in an Act of Parliament made in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of the late King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for the more effectual preſerving the King's Perſon and Government, by diſabling Papiſts from ſitting in either Houſe of Parliament, to be by him or her made, repeated, and ſubſcribed in the Courts of Chancery or King's Bench in England or Ireland, or Quarter Seſſions in any County of England or Ireland, where ſuch Perſon ſhall reſide (which ſaid Oath and Declaration the ſaid Courts and Quarter Seſſions are hereby ſeverally impowered to adminiſter) and continue to be a Proteſtant after the taking the ſaid Oath and Declaration aforeſaid, every ſuch Perſon ſhall, in reſpect of him or herſelf only, and not to or in reſpect of his or her Heirs or Poſterity, be diſabled, and is hereby made incapable to inherit or take by Deſcent, Deviſe or Limitation, or Purchaſe, in Poſſeſſion, Reverſion or Remainder, any of the ſaid Honours, Manors, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments or Premiſſes aforementioned, or any Truſt or Intereſt in Rent or Profit iſſuing out of the ſame, or out of any Part thereof; and that during the Life of ſuch Perſon, or until he or ſhe ſhall take the ſaid Oaths, and make, repeat and ſubſcribe the ſaid Declaration in Manner aforeſaid, the next of his or her Kindred, who ſhall be a Proteſtant, ſhall have and enjoy the ſaid Premiſſes, without being accountable for the Profits by him or her received during ſuch Enjoyment as aforeſaid.

Leaſes, &c. to be made only to Proteſtants.

Such Leaſe made to Papiſts, or in Truſt for them, void.

Penalty.

XVI. And it is hereby further enacted, That all Leaſes for Life or Lives, or for any Term of Years or otherwiſe, which ſhall at any Time hereafter be made of any the Honours, Manors, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, and Premiſſes above mentioned, ſhall be made to ſuch Perſons only as are of the Proteſtant Religion, and to none other; and if any Leaſe for Life or Lives, or for Years, or otherwiſe, ſhall at any Time after ſuch Sale be made of any the Honours, Manors, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments or Premiſſes aforeſaid, unto or in Truſt for any Papiſt, or Perſon profeſſing the Popiſh Religion; or if any Leaſe of any ſuch Honours, Manors, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments or Premiſſes, ſhall be made to a Proteſtant, and the ſame ſhall afterwards be aſſigned unto, or in Truſt for any Papiſt, or Perſon profeſſing the Popiſh Religion; every ſuch Leaſe ſo made unto, or in Truſt for any ſuch Papiſt or Perſon, and likewiſe every ſuch Aſſignment ſhall be void, and the ſame is and are hereby adjudged and declared to be ipſo facto null and void to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever; and in ſuch Caſe, as well the Perſon making any ſuch Leaſe or Aſſignment, as the Perſon to whom or for whoſe Uſe or Benefit the ſame ſhall be made (in caſe ſuch Perſon ſhall accept ſuch Leaſe or Aſſignment, or ſhall occupy any the Lands or Tenements therein contained) ſhall forfeit Treble the full yearly Value of all the Lands ſo let, aſſigned or occupied, One Moiety thereof to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to ſuch Perſon (being a Proteſtant) who ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of Her Majeſty's Courts of Record at Dublin, by any Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or Imparlance ſhall be allowed.

Act not to void Cottage Leaſe, &c.

XVII. Provided always, That nothing in the laſt foregoing Clauſe contained ſhall extend to make void any Leaſe, that is or ſhall be made, of any Cottage or Cabin under the yearly Value of Thirty Shillings per Annum, to any Day Labourer whatſoever.

nor Truſtees Leaſe for One Year.

XVIII. Provided, That nothing herein contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to make void, impeach or prejudice any Leaſe of any of the ſaid forfeited Eſtates, or other Intereſts, made or to be made by the ſaid Truſtees, for any Term not exceeding One Year.

XIX. And whereas His ſaid late Majeſty King WILLIAM, in Conſideration of a Fine of Six hundred and eighty five Pounds, Sixteen Shillings, and Four Pence, ſtated by the Commiſſioners of Accounts in Ireland, to be due from His ſaid Majeſty to Major Walter Delamar for Arrears of Pay for his Services in the Kingdom of Ireland, did in the Month of October, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſix, make a Leaſe to the ſaid Major Walter Delamar, of ſome forfeited Eſtates in the ſaid Kingdom, for the Term of Twenty one Years, the ſaid Eſtates being ſubject to great Incumbrances, and a Jointure for the Life of Plunkett, the Relict of Ignatius Plunkett: And whereas Willam Palmer Eſquire did purchaſe from the ſaid Major Delamar Part of the ſaid Eſtates called Dirpatrick, in the Barony of Deece, and County of Meath, for the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, the ſaid Sum being by him paid to the ſaid Walter Delamar, for the Remainder of the ſaid Term of Twenty one Years, ſubject to the ſaid Jointure, and hath ſince alſo laid out Six hundred Pounds, and upwards, in buying in the ſaid Jointure Eſtate in the ſaid Lands, in draining a Bogg, and building and planting upon the ſaid Eſtate, to the great Improvement thereof: And whereas notwithſtanding there are but about Fourteen Years to come in the ſaid Leaſe, the ſame is made void by the late Act of Parliament for re-aſſuming the Forfeitures in that Kingdom, and the ſaid William Palmer hath (unleſs relieved by Parliament) loſt the Money ſo paid and laid out by him, and of which the Publick hath had and will have the Benefit; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Truſtees ſhall, within Twelve Months, pay to the ſaid William Palmer, his Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, the Sum of One thouſand one hundred Pounds; and in Default of ſuch Payment as aforeſaid, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid William Palmer, his Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, to have, hold and enjoy the ſaid Premiſſes, called Dirpatrick aforeſaid, with the Appurtenances, for and during the Reſidue of the ſaid Term of Twenty one Years, according to the ſaid Leaſe and Aſſignment thereof to him made; and in caſe of ſuch Default, the ſaid Leaſe (as to the Premiſſes called Dirpatrick) and the ſaid Aſſignment thereof, ſhall be and is hereby confirmed and made effectual; the ſaid Act, or any thing therein contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding; ſubject nevertheleſs to all and every the Clauſes, Matters, and Things in this Act contained, directed to be done and performed by the ſaid other Proteſtant Purchaſers.

Truſtees to pay William Palmer 1,100 l. and in Default, &c. he to hold Dirpatrick, &c.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in all Acts which have paſſed this Seſſion of Parliament, relating to the forfeited Eſtates or Intereſts in Ireland, which do enjoin the taking the Oath or Oaths of Allegiance by any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, and wherein the obliging the taking the Oath of Supremacy is omitted; all and every the Perſon and Perſons, who are thereby enjoined to take the Oath of Allegiance, ſhall be and are hereby obliged and enjoined at the ſame Time, to take the Oath of Supremacy alſo, under the like Penalties, Forfeitures and Diſabilities, as are in the ſaid reſpective Acts mentioned and contained, for and in Default of taking the Oath or Oaths of Allegiance, and ſubſcribing the Declaration therein mentioned.

Perſons enjoined to take the Oath of Supremacy, &c.

Penalties.

XXI. And it is hereby further enacted and declared, That there ſhall not be let with any Cabin or Cottage to any Day Labourer (as by any Acts of this Seſſion of Parliament relating to the forfeited Eſtates in Ireland is permitted) above the Quantity of Two Acres of Land, and not above One Cottage or Cabin with ſuch Land to any One Day Labourer; and that in caſe any other Leaſe or Leaſes ſhall be ſo made, or more Land be let than as aforeſaid, the Leaſe of ſuch Cottage or Cabin, as well as of the ſaid Land, ſhall be and is hereby declared to be ipſo facto null and void, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever; and as well the Perſon making, as the Perſon taking ſuch Leaſe, or occupying ſuch Cottage or Cabin, or Lands, ſhall forfeit Treble the full yearly Value of the ſaid Cottage, Cabin or Land, to be ſued for, recovered and diſtributed, as any other Penalties by the ſaid Acts are to be recovered and diſtributed.

Not above two Acres of Land to be let with any Cottage to a Day Labourer, &c.

Penalty.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall be taken and allowed in all Courts as a Publick Act, and all Judges and Juſtices are hereby required to take Notice thereof, without ſpecial pleading the ſame.

Reddidit ſe.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all and every ſuch Sheriffs, upon Requeſt of ſuch Perſon or Perſons, being Bail as aforeſaid, who ſhall deliver ſuch Writ for keeping and detaining ſuch Priſoner as aforeſaid, and for the uſual Fees of Returns of Actions, ſhall make, return and certify, under his Hand, the Receipt of ſuch Writ, and the Time thereof, and whether the ſaid Perſon ſo re-taken was then in his Cuſtody, and in Default thereof, ſhall for every ſuch Default, Neglect, or Refuſal, forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds, to be recovered in any of Her Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or any more than One Imparlance ſhall be allowed; and that upon producing ſuch Return or Certificate to the Court where ſuch Bail ſhall be taken, ſuch Court ſhall direct and cauſe a Reddidit ſe to be entred upon the Bail-piece, which ſhall be as effectual to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſaid Bail had then actually rendred the Perſon of the ſaid Defendant to ſuch Court, or before any Judge or Judges of the ſame.

This Act to be a General Law.

General Iſſue.

Treble Coſts.

V. And for the Prevention of Diſputes touching this Act, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſame, and every Clauſe and Thing therein contained, ſhall be adjudged and taken to be a General Law, and that it ſhall not be needful to ſet forth the ſame in Pleading, or any Part thereof; and that the ſame, and every Clauſe therein, ſhall be conſtrued moſt beneficially for the preventing of all the Miſchiefs, Abuſes, Eſcapes, and other Inconveniencies herein provided againſt: And further, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall at any Time be ſued for putting in Execution any Power or Authority given by this Act, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall and may plead the General Iſſue, and give in Evidence the ſpecial Matter; and if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in ſuch Action or Actions ſhall be nonſuit, or diſcontinue his, her or their Action or Actions, or a Verdict ſhall be given for the Defendant or Defendants, or that Judgment upon Demurrer ſhall be given for the Defendant or Defendants, every ſuch Defendant or Defendants ſhall have his or their Treble Coſts of Suit.

An Act for explaining and making effectual a late Statute concerning the Haven and Piers of the Burgh of Great Yarmouth, and for confirming the Rights and Privileges of the ſaid Burgh. When the Name and Stile of the Corporation of Great Yarmouth ſhall be altered, &c. the Mayor, &c. ſhall have and enjoy the ſame Rights, &c. as Bailiffs, &c. Mayor, &c. liable to account for Monies collected, and pay the like Fee-farm Rents, &c. as the Bailiffs, &c. Twelve Commiſſioners to inſpect the Accounts, who may call before them the Collectors, and order Monies reſting due to be laid out, &c.

CAP. VIII.

An Act for Explanation of a Clauſe in One Act made in the Seventh Year of His late Majeſty's Reign relating to Borelaps, and to take off the additional Subſidy upon Iriſh Linen.

A Clauſe in 7 W. 3. c. 10.

concerning Borelaps, and the Duties, &c. to be in Force till 1710.

WHEREAS in and by an Act of Parliament made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King WILLIAM the Third, of Bleſſed Memory, intituled, An Act for continuing ſeveral Duties granted by former Acts upon Wine and Vinegar, and upon Tobacco, and Eaſt India Goods, and other Merchandizes imported, for carrying on the War againſt France, it is therein recited, That whereas ſeveral Merchants trading with the United Provinces in ſeveral Sorts of coarſe Linen, commonly called Borelaps, had then of late been compelled to pay Cuſtom for the ſame as Hollands, which came to above Thirty five Pounds per Centum; whereby the ſaid Trade, ſo uſeful to the poorer Sort of People, was not only likely to be loſt, but the Cuſtoms thereby much abated: It was therefore enacted, That all ſuch Linen Cloth, known or commonly called by the Name of Borelaps, not exceeding Twenty eight Inches and a Half in Breadth, nor Twelve Pence an Engliſh Ell in Value, ſhould be entred ad Valorem during the Continuance of that Act, and pay all other Duties accordingly: And whereas ſome Doubt hath been made, whether the ſaid Clauſe concerning Borelaps be yet in Force, and is to continue for ſuch Time and Term of Years, as other Clauſes in the ſaid recited Act are by ſubſequent Acts now in Force continued; be it therefore declared and enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Clauſe concerning Borelaps, and the Duties and Cuſtoms payable for the ſame ad Valorem, is and ſhall be in full Force and Effect to all Intents, Conſtructions and Purpoſes whatſoever, until the Firſt Day of Auguſt, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ten. E X P.

7 W. 3. c. 39.

II. And whereas by One other Act made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for encouraging the Linen Manufacture of Ireland, and bringing Flax and Hemp into, and the making of Sail-cloth in this Kingdom, it is enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Native or Natives of England, or Ireland, to import into England, directly from Ireland, any Sorts of Hemp or Flax, and all the Production thereof, as Thread, Yarn, and Linen, of the Growth and Manufacture of Ireland, free from all Manner of Cuſtoms, Duties, and Impoſitions whatſoever, upon producing ſuch Certificate, and making ſuch Oath, as in the ſaid Act is mentioned: And whereas by

One other Act made in the Eighth Year of the Reign of His ſaid late Majeſty, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majeſty a further Subſidy of Tunnage and Poundage upon Merchandizes imported, for the Term of Two Years and Three Quarters, and an additional Land Tax for One Year, for carrying on the War againſt France, a further Subſidy of Poundage was granted to His Majeſty after the Rate of Twelve Pence for the Value of every Twenty Shillings, upon all Manner of Goods and Merchandizes imported or brought into this Realm, or any the Dominions to the ſame belonging, at any Time after the Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, and before the Firſt Day of February, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, according to the ſeveral and particular Rates and Values of the ſame Goods and Merchandizes, as the ſame are particularly and reſpectively rated and valued in the aforeſaid Book of Rates; which ſaid additional Subſidy of Poundage hath been ſince continued by divers Acts, and is yet in Force, and to continue for and during the Term of Her Majeſty's Life; by reaſon of which ſaid laſt mentioned Act, and the ſeveral Acts for continuing the ſaid additional Subſidies, all Linens imported from Ireland do now ſtand charged with the ſaid additional Subſidy of Twelve Pence for the Value of every Twenty Shillings of the ſame Goods imported, notwithſtanding the ſaid recited Act of the Seventh Year of His late Majeſty's Reign, for encouraging the Linen Manufacture of Ireland; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Firſt Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and two, all Sorts of Hemp or Flax, and all the Production thereof, as Thread, Yarn and Linen, imported into England directly from Ireland, by any Native or Natives of England or Ireland, being of the Growth and Manufacture of Ireland, upon producing ſuch Certificates, and making ſuch Oath as in and by the ſaid Act of the Seventh Year of His ſaid late Majeſty was and is required, ſhall be free from the ſaid additional Subſidy of Poundage, and all Manner of Cuſtoms, Duties and Impoſitions whatſoever; any Act, Cuſtom, or Uſage heretofore to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

8 W. 3. c. 24.

Hemp or Flax, &c. may be imported from Ireland, free.

CAP. IX.

An Act for puniſhing of Acceſſories to Felonies, and Receivers of ſtolen Goods, and to prevent the wilful burning and deſtroying of Ships.

FORASMUCH as the Counſellers and Contrivers of Theft and other Felonies, and the Receivers of Goods that have been ſtolen, are the principal Cauſe of the Commiſſion of ſuch Felonies; and as the Law now is, no Acceſſory can be convicted or ſuffer any Puniſhment where the Principal is not attainted, or hath the Benefit of his Clergy; be it therefore enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Twelfth Day of February, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and two, if any principal Offender ſhall be convicted of any Felony, or ſhall ſtand mute, or peremptorily challenge above the Number of Twenty Perſons returned to ſerve of the Jury, it ſhall and may be lawful to proceed againſt any Acceſſory, either before or after the Fact, in the ſame Manner, as if ſuch principal Felon had been attainted thereof, notwithſtanding any ſuch principal Felon ſhall be admitted to the Benefit of his Clergy, pardoned, or otherwiſe delivered before Attainder; and every ſuch Acceſſory ſhall ſuffer the ſame Puniſhment, if he or ſhe be convicted, or ſhall ſtand mute, or peremptorily challenge above the Number of Twenty Perſons returned to ſerve of the Jury, as he or ſhe ſhould have ſuffered if the Principal had been attainted.

If principal Offender be convicted of Felony, &c. it ſhall be lawful to proceed againſt Acceſſory; who on Conviction ſhall ſuffer the ſame Puniſhment, &c.

3 & 4 W. & M. c. 9. §. 4.

II. And foraſmuch as Buyers and Receivers of ſtolen Goods do oftentimes convey away and conceal the principal Felons, ſo that they cannot be convicted of ſuch principal Felony, and thereby ſuch Buyers and Receivers have eſcaped all Manner of Puniſhment, which hath greatly encouraged the buying and receiving of ſuch ſtolen Goods: For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Twelfth Day of February, One thouſand ſeven hundred and two, it ſhall and may be lawful to proſecute and puniſh every ſuch Perſon and Perſons buying or receiving any ſtolen Goods, knowing the ſame to be ſtolen, as for a Miſdemeanor, to be puniſhed by Fine and Impriſonment, although the principal Felon be not before convicted of the ſaid Felony, which ſhall exempt the Offender from being puniſhed as Acceſſory, if the Principal ſhall be afterwards convicted.

Receivers of ſtolen Goods may be puniſhed, where the principal Felon is not convicted.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Twelfth Day of February, One thouſand ſeven hundred and two, all and every Perſon and Perſons, who ſhall be produced or appear as a Witneſs or Witneſſes on the Behalf of the Priſoner, upon any Trial for Treaſon or Felony, before he or ſhe be admitted to depoſe, or give any Manner of Evidence, ſhall firſt take an Oath to depoſe the Truth, the whole Truth, and nothing but the Truth, in ſuch Manner, as the Witneſſes for the Queen are by Law obliged to do; and if convicted of any wilful Perjury in ſuch Evidence, ſhall ſuffer all the Puniſhments, Penalties, Forfeitures and Diſabilities, which by any of the Laws and Statutes of this Realm are and may be inflicted upon Perſons convicted of wilful Perjury.

Witneſſes for Priſoner on Trial for Treaſon or Felony, ſhall depoſe on Oath, in ſuch Manner as the Queen's Witneſſes.

Penalties if convicted of Perjury.

IV. And for the effectual preventing the wilful caſting away, burning, or otherwiſe deſtroying, by Maſters and Mariners, of Ships under their Charge; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Captain, Maſter, Mariner, or other Officer belonging to any Ship, ſhall, after the ſaid Twelfth Day of February, One thouſand ſeven hundred and two, wilfully caſt away, burn, or otherwiſe deſtroy the Ship unto which he belongeth, or procure the ſame to be done, to the Prejudice of the Owner or Owners thereof, or of any Merchant or Merchants that ſhall load Goods thereon, he ſhall ſuffer Death as a Felon.

Captain, Maſter, &c. wilfully caſting away or burning, &c. any Ship, ſhall ſuffer Death.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every the ſaid Offence and Offences committed on the High Seas, or where the Admiralty hath Juriſdiction, ſhall be inquired, tried, heard, determined, and judged, in ſuch Shires and Places in the Realm, as ſhall be limited by the Queen's Commiſſion under the Great Seal of England, in ſuch Manner and Form, as in and by an Act made in the Twenty eighth Year of the Reign of the late King Henry the Eighth, is directed and appointed for the Trial of Pirates; and that all and every Perſon and Perſons, who, from and after the ſaid Twelfth Day of February, One thouſand ſeven hundred and two, ſhall be convict of any of the ſaid Offence or Offences laſt mentioned, or ſhall ſtand mute, or peremptorily challenge

Such Offence committed on the High Seas may be tried in any Shire in England, as by 28 H. 8. c. 15.

Perſon convicted thereof to ſuffer Death without Benefit of Clergy.

above the Number of Twenty Perſons returned to ſerve of the Jury, ſhall ſuffer Death without Benefit of Clergy.

CAP. XII.

An Act for the finiſhing and adorning the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul's, London.

For all Coals and Culm from 1708. to 1716. brought to the Port of London or the Thames, ſhall be paid the Rates following, viz.

For every Chalder of Coals or Culm, 2*s.*

Coals ſold by the Tun, 2*s. per* Tun.

In what Manner Duties ſhall be levied, &c.

The Powers in 1 Jac. 2. c. 15. revived.

WHEREAS the Revenue already granted for rebuilding and adorning the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul's, London, is not ſufficient to compleat the ſame; and it being alſo requiſite to remove the Houſes between the North Side of the ſaid Cathedral Church, and the Alleys called New Jewry and Piſſing Alley, which by their Nearneſs thereto expoſe it to apparent Danger in caſe of Fire, the Purchaſe and Removal whereof will be an additional Expence; and the ſaid Building being now ſo far advanced, that it may in few Years be perfected, if vigorouſly carried on; be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That for all Sorts of Coals and Culm, which from and after the Fifteenth Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and eight, and before the Fifteenth Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixteen, ſhall be imported or brought into the Port of the ſaid City of London, or the River of Thames, within the Liberty of the ſaid City upon the ſame River, there ſhall be paid, by way of Impoſition thereupon, over and beſides all other Impoſitions and Duties, according to the Rates hereafter mentioned (that is to ſay) For all ſuch Sorts of Coals and Culm as are uſually ſold by the Chalder, for every Chalder thereof, containing Thirty ſix Buſhels Wincheſter Meaſure, the Sum of Two Shillings; and for ſuch Sort of Coals as are ſold by the Tun, for every Tun thereof, containing Twenty hundred Weight, the Sum of Two Shillings; which ſaid Impoſition of Two Shillings for every Chalder of Coals or Culm, or Tun of Coals, ſhall, from time to time, during the Term aforeſaid, be levied, anſwered, collected, and paid, in the ſame Manner, Methods, and Form, and at ſuch Places, and by ſuch Rules, Ways, and Means, and under ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, as are mentioned, expreſſed, or directed in and by an Act of Parliament paſſed at Weſtminſter, in the Firſt Year of the Reign of King James the Second, intituled, An Act for rebuilding, finiſhing, and adorning of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul's, London, for levying, anſwering, collecting, and paying, the Impoſition of Eighteen Pence for every Chalder or Tun of Coals granted by the ſaid recited Act; and that all and every the Powers, Authorities, Articles, Rules, and Clauſes in the ſaid recited Act mentioned or contained, ſhall be of ſuch Force and Effect to all Intents and Purpoſes, for the levying, collecting, paying, ordering, and diſpoſing of the Impoſition hereby granted, for and during the ſaid Term herein before limited, as if the ſame were particularly and at large ſet down and enacted by this Act.

Money how appropriated.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every ſuch Sum and Sums of Money which ſhall be raiſed, collected, or levied by virtue of this Act, ſhall be appropriated, applied, and diſpoſed to the compleating, adorning, ſecuring, and preſerving the ſaid Cathedral Church of Saint Paul's, and to no other Uſe or Purpoſe whatſoever: And that the Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury, Lord Biſhop of London, and Lord Mayor of London, for the time being, or any Two of them, ſhall have the like Powers and Authorities for the ordering, directing, and diſpoſing of the Monies ariſing by virtue of this Act, for the Purpoſe before mentioned, as they had by the ſaid former Act, for the ordering, directing, and diſpoſing of the Monies ariſing thereby.

Commiſſioners may appropriate ſo much Money as will purchaſe in the Buildings to be demoliſhed, &c.

New Jewry, Piſſing Alley,

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury, Lord Biſhop of London, and Lord Mayor of London, for the time being, or any Two of them, to contract for and purchaſe, and to appropriate, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, ſo much Monies ariſing by the Duties granted by this Act, as ſhall be ſufficient for the contracting for, purchaſing, and demoliſhing all the ſaid Houſes and Buildings, with their Appurtenances, which are now erected, and ſtanding between the North Side of the ſaid Cathedral Church and the ſaid Alleys called New Jewry and Piſſing Alley; and that the Ground of the ſaid Houſes and Yards thereunto belonging (when purchaſed) ſhall be and remain for ever after free from any future Building whatſoever, except as herein after is excepted: And alſo all Houſes, Buildings, and Sheds, made uſe of for Watch-houſes, or any Officers of the ſaid Fabrick, for the building thereof, ſhall at ſuch Time as the ſaid Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury, Lord Biſhop of London, and Lord Mayor of London, for the time being, or any Two of them ſhall appoint, be pulled and taken down, and that the Ground or Soil thereof ſhall be laid to, and remain as Part of the Church Yard of the ſaid Cathedral Church: And that for the making the more regular the ſaid Church Yard, the Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury, Lord Biſhop of London, and Lord Mayor of London, for the time being, or any Two of them, ſhall have Power to treat and agree with the reſpective Veſtries of the Pariſhioners of Saint Gregory and Saint Faith, for exchanging their Places of Burial in the Church Yard, and Vaults under the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul's, for other equivalent Ground and Vaults belonging to the ſaid Cathedral, or elſewhere in the ſaid Pariſhes: And all the ſaid Ground and Vaults, as well that to be received in exchange, as of the Houſes, Buildings, and Sheds aforeſaid, ſhall be deemed and reputed the Church Yard and burying Ground of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul's.

Houſes, Sheds, &c. to be pulled down, and Ground laid to the Church Yard.

Commiſſioners may agree with the Veſtries of St. Gregory and St. Faith, for exchanging their Burial Places, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That at ſuch Time as the ſaid Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury, Lord Biſhop of London, and Lord Mayor of London, for the time being, or any Two of them, ſhall think fit, the ſaid Church Yard ſhall be incloſed or ſeparated from the High Street, and that no Houſe or Building whatſoever ſhall hereafter be erected in or upon any Part of the ſaid Church Yard, except a Place for the meeting of the Chapter of the ſaid Cathedral Church, and for keeping the Stores for the neceſſary Repairs of the ſaid Church, which may be built by and with Part of the Money to be raiſed by virtue of this Act. And if any Houſe or Building ſhall hereafter be erected in or upon any Part thereof, except as before excepted, the ſame ſhall be taken and eſteemed a common Nuſance, and be proſecuted and puniſhed as ſuch.

Church Yard to be incloſed, and no Building erected thereon, except a Chapter Houſe, &c. or Storehouſe.

V. And whereas ſome of the Houſes and Grounds, which may be purchaſed and made uſe of for ſecuring the ſaid Cathedral from Accidents of Fire, and for regulating the Church Yard, as aforeſaid, do or may belong to the See of London, Dean and Chapter, or Petty Canons, of the ſaid Cathedral, in Right of the ſaid See, Chapter, and Church; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That any Sale made by the Lord Biſhop of London, Dean and Chapter, or Petty Canons, of any ſuch Houſes and Grounds for the Purpoſes aforeſaid, ſhall be good and valid in the Law, and ſhall bind them and their Succeſſors, any Statute of Reſtraint to the contrary notwithſtanding: And that the Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury, Lord Biſhop of London, and Lord Mayor of London, for the time being, or any Two of them, ſhall apply and lay out the Monies which ſhall be paid for the Purchaſe of the Eſtate and Intereſt of the ſaid Lord Biſhop of London, Dean and Chapter, or Petty Canons, in the ſaid Houſes and Grounds belonging to the ſaid See of London, the ſaid Dean and Chapter, and Petty Canons, or any of them, for the purchaſing of Lands and Tenements in Fee Simple, to be ſettled upon them reſpectively, and upon their reſpective Succeſſors, in Right of the ſaid Church; which ſaid Purchaſe and Settlements ſhall be valid in Law to all Intents and Purpoſes, the Statute of Mortmain, or any other Statute, Law, or Cuſtom notwithſtanding.

Sale of Houſes, &c. made by the Biſhop of London, &c ſhall be good in Law.

How Purchaſe Monies ſhall be applied.

VI. And foraſmuch as it is the Intention of this Act, that the Rebuilding of the ſaid Cathedral Church of St. Paul's be ſpeedily compleated, which will ſave much Charge and Expence, that would be unavoidable, in caſe of a ſlow and dilatory Progreſs; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury, Lord Biſhop of London, and Lord Mayor of London, for the time being, or any Two of them, ſhall, and are hereby impowered, by Indenture under their Hands and Seals, to engage the Profits ariſing out of the reſpective Impoſitions by this Act, or any Part or Parts thereof, as a Security for the Repayment of any Sum or Sums of Money by them to be borrowed for the Ends and Purpoſes of this Act, with Intereſt for Forbearance of the ſame (the Intereſt whereof to grow due before the Commencement of the Duty hereby impoſed, ſhall and may be paid out of the Monies ariſing by the Duties given by an Act made in the Eighth Year of the Reign of the late King William the Third, intituled, An Act for compleating the Building and adorning the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul's, London, and for repairing the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter, Weſtminſter; ſo as ſuch Payments do not prejudice any Perſons who have already advanced any Sums on the Credit of the ſaid laſt mentioned Duties) to any Perſon or Perſons, that ſhall or will advance or lend any Sum or Sums of Money upon ſuch Security: All which Money ſo to be borrowed, ſhall be imployed for and towards rebuilding, finiſhing, adorning, and ſecuring the ſaid Cathedral Church, and for contracting for, purchaſing, and demoliſhing the adjacent Houſes and Buildings aforeſaid; as alſo for incloſing and regulating the Church Yard of the ſaid Cathedral Church, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

Commiſſioners may engage the Profits, &c.

How Intereſt ſhall be paid.

Perſons in the County of York having an Eſtate of 150 l. per Ann. &c. ſhall not be returned on Juries at the Seſſions, &c. Penalty.

III. And whereas divers Perſons within the County of York, liable to ſerve on Juries at Aſſizes and Seſſions of the Peace (having very conſiderable Eſtates in Freehold and Copyhold) do for their own Eaſe prevail with Sheriffs to be returned and ſummoned to the Service of the Seſſions, being nigh their Habitations, and the Attendance there ſhort, which often neceſſitates Men of meaner Eſtates to be on Juries at the Aſſizes, than otherwiſe might and ought to be, where the conſiderableſt Men of Eſtates, liable to the ſaid Service, ought in their legal Courſe to be returned, ſummoned, and to ſerve: For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in Parliament aſſembled, That no Perſon intereſted in ſuch Eſtate as will qualify him to ſerve on Juries, of the clear yearly Value of One hundred and fifty Pounds, or of any greater yearly Value, ſhall be returned and ſummoned to ſerve upon any Jury, at any Seſſions of the Peace holden for any Part of the County of York, upon the Penalty of Twenty Pounds, to be forfeited by any Sheriff, Under Sheriff, or other Officer whatſoever, making ſuch Return and Summons as aforeſaid, to be recovered to and for the Uſe of any Perſon that will ſue for the ſame, in any of the Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, Information, or otherwiſe, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law, or more than One Imparlance ſhall be allowed.

11 & 12 W. 3. c. 18. concerning Vagrants, continued for 3 Years, EXP.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That an Act made in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the late King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for the more effectual Puniſhment of Vagrants, and ſending them whither by Law they ought to be ſent; which Act will expire at the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament after the Twenty fourth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and three, be continued for the Space of Three Years from the Expiration thereof, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament.

and to extend to all Vagrants whatſoever. For theſe Clauſes concerning Vagrants, ſee 5 Annæ, c. 32. §. 1.

V. And whereas the ſaid Act has Reſpect only to ſuch Vagrants as are found to have Paſſes, Teſtimonials, Letters of Requeſt, or other Writings, pretending thereby either to be relieved or conveyed; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Act ſhall be, and be conſtrued to extend to all Vagrants whatſoever, whether with Paſſes or without.

Juſtices at every Eaſter Seſſions to ſet down the Rates for conveying of Vagrants, &c. Enforced by 5 Annæ, c. 31. §. 5.

VI. And whereas ſeveral great Sums of Money, ſince the making the ſaid Act, have been levied and expended for the conveying of Vagrants, and that ſome Juſtices of the Peace give greater Allowances to Conſtables for conveying Vagrants than may ſeem to be neceſſary, and that the Owners of Horſes, Waggons, Carts, or other neceſſary Carriages for conveying ſuch Vagrants, are often extravagant in their Rates and Demands: For Remedy whereof, and for better regulating and aſcertaining ſuch Allowances, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Juſtices of the Peace at the Firſt Quarter Seſſions that ſhall be held for the ſeveral Counties, Ridings, Diviſions, and Liberties, after the Commencement of this Act, wherein they are commiſſioned to act, and ſo yearly, at every Eaſter Seſſions, during the Continuance of this Act, are hereby impowered and required to aſcertain and ſet down the ſeveral Rates that ſhall for the Year enſuing be allowed for maintaining and conveying, and carrying of ſuch Vagrants as ſhall be paſſed or carried through their reſpective Counties, Ridings, Diviſions, and Liberties; of which ſaid Rates the Clerks of the Peace are hereby required to give Copies to each Juſtice gratis, that they may accordingly regulate the Allowances which they ſhall have Occaſion to tax, upon the Back of the Certificates by them to be given to the ſeveral Petty Conſtables.

No High Conſtable to pay the Rates till Conſtable produce a Receipt, &c.

VII. And it is hereby further enacted, That no Chief or High Conſtable ſhall pay the Rates taxed upon the Certificates brought to them by their Petty Conſtables, unleſs they ſhall, at the ſame Time, produce to them a Receipt from the Conſtables of the adjacent Counties, to whom they are ordered to deliver the ſaid Vagrants, of their having received ſuch Vagrant or Vagrants directed to be conveyed to them by the ſaid Order; which ſaid Conſtables of the ſaid adjacent Counties are hereby required to receive the ſaid Vagrant or Vagrants, and at the ſame Time to give ſuch Receipt, as hereby is required.

Penalty on Conſtable, &c. refuſing to do his Duty.

VIII. And it is hereby further enacted, That if any Chief Conſtable, Petty Conſtable, or other ſuch Officer, ſhall refuſe or neglect to do their ſeveral Duties by this Act injoined, they ſhall for every Offence forfeit the Sum of Twenty Shillings; which ſaid ſeveral Forfeitures and Penalties ſhall be recovered and recoverable as other Forfeitures and Penalties by this or the former Act are appointed to be recovered.

CAP. XIV.

An Act for encouraging the Conſumption of malted Corn, and for the better preventing the running of French and Foreign Brandy.

Clauſe in 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 11. §. 18. repealed.

WHEREAS the making of Engliſh Brandy and Strong Waters from malted Corn, hath been encouraged by ſeveral Acts of Parliament, whereby great Quantities of the worſt Sort of malted Corn, not uſeful to the Brewers, hath been yearly conſumed by thoſe who ſet up Works for that Purpoſe: And whereas the Conſumption of Engliſh Brandy and Strong Waters, made from malted Corn, hath of late Years been greatly hindred, as well by the running of French and other Foreign Brandies, as alſo by a Clauſe in an Act made in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of His late Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting unto His Majeſty ſeveral Duties upon Low Wines or Spirits of the firſt Extraction, and for continuing other Duties, whereby all Diſtillers and Tradeſmen, who ſell Brandy or Strong Water by Retail, are compelled to take Licences as common Alehouſe Keepers: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That as for and concerning all Diſtillers who keep Houſes or Places of diſtilling the Liquors aforeſaid, and alſo all other Shop Keepers whoſe principal Dealings ſhall be more in other Goods and Merchandizes than in Brandy or Strong Waters, and who do not permit or ſuffer Tippling in his or their Houſes, the ſaid Clauſe in the ſaid recited Act, for compelling all Diſtillers and others to take Licences as common Alehouſe Keepers, ſhall be repealed, and the ſame Clauſe is hereby repealed.

French Brandy imported or landed before Duty paid, &c. forfeited.

Penalty on Perſons aiding therein, &c.

and on Officer concealing the ſame.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall, at any Time hereafter, import, land, or deliver out of any Ship, Veſſel or Boats, any French Brandy, before the Duty due or payable to Her Majeſty for the ſame ſhall be paid, or ſecured to be paid, or by Licence from the proper Officer ſo to do, every Perſon or Perſons that ſhall ſo do, or be aiding or aſſiſting therein, or ſhall conceal the ſame when landed, ſhall not only forfeit the Goods ſo imported, but alſo forfeit and pay double the Value of ſuch Goods ſo clandeſtinely imported; One Moiety whereof, after Charges of Suit deducted, ſhall be paid to Her Majeſty, and the other Moiety thereof to the Informer, who ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of Her Majeſty's Courts of Record, by Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed, nor any more than One Imparlance: And if any Officer or Officers belonging to Her Majeſty's Cuſtoms or Exciſe, or other Her Majeſty's Duties or Revenues, ſhall connive at, or be concerned in any ſuch clandeſtine Importation, or after he ſhall be informed thereof ſhall conceal the ſame, or not give Notice thereof to Her Majeſty's Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms or Exciſe, or ſome of them, or ſhall compound, without Licence, with any Perſon or Perſons concerned in any ſuch clandeſtine Importation of French Brandy, ſuch Perſon and Perſons ſhall be incapable of executing any Office in Her Majeſty's Revenue, and ſhall alſo forfeit and pay the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, to be recovered and divided as aforeſaid.

the ſaid Oath, and ſubſcribe the ſame, at the ſame Time, and in ſuch Manner as is directed for their making, ſubſcribing, and repeating the Declaration mentioned and expreſſed in the ſaid Act, intituled, An Act for abrogating the Oath of Supremacy in Ireland, and appointing other Oaths.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon that now is, or hereafter ſhall be, a Peer of the ſaid Realm of Ireland, or Member of the Houſe of Commons there, ſhall, after the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of March, preſume to vote or make his Proxy, not having taken the ſaid Oath, and ſubſcribed the ſame, as aforeſaid, every ſuch Peer and Member ſhall from thenceforth incur, be ſubject, and liable unto the Forfeitures, Penalties, and Diſabilities in the ſaid firſt mentioned Act expreſſed, touching Peers in Parliament, and Members in the Houſe of Commons in England.

Act not to extend to the Office of any Conſtable, &c.

XII. Provided always, That this Act or any thing therein contained ſhall not extend to the Office of any High Conſtable, Petty Conſtable, Tythingman, Headborough, Overſeer of the Poor, Churchwardens, Surveyors of the Highways, or any like inferior Civil Office in the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, or to any Office of Foreſter, or Keeper of any Park, Chaſe, Warren, or Game, or Bailiff of any Manor or Lands, nor to any like private Offices, nor to any Perſon or Perſons having only any the before mentioned or the like Offices in the ſaid Kingdom.

CAP. XVIII.

An Act for the more effectual preventing the Abuſes and Frauds of Perſons imployed in the working up the Woollen, Linen, Fuſtian, Cotton, and Iron Manufactures of this Kingdom.

13 Geo. 2. c. 8.

WHEREAS many Frauds are daily committed by Perſons imployed in the working up of the Woollen, Linen, Fuſtian, Cotton, and Iron Manufactures within this Kingdom, by imbezeling and purloining of the Materials with which they are intruſted, to the great Prejudice of Trade and Commerce; be it therefore enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Twenty fourth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and three, if any Perſon or Perſons imployed in the working up the Woollen, Linen, Fuſtian, Cotton, or Iron Manufactures within this Kingdom, ſhall imbezel or purloin any Wefts, Thrums, or Ends of Yarn, or any other Materials of Wooll, Hemp, Flax, Cotton, or Iron, with which he, ſhe, or they is or ſhall be intruſted to work upon, or ſhall reel ſhort or falſe Yarn, being thereof lawfully convicted by the Oath of One or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, or by the Confeſſion of the Party or Parties accuſed of the ſame, before One Juſtice of the Peace of the ſaid County where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, ſhall forfeit double the Value of the Damages done, for the Uſe of the Poor of the ſaid Pariſh: And in caſe the Offender or Offenders ſo convicted, as aforeſaid, ſhall neglect or refuſe to pay their Forfeiture or Forfeitures, as aforeſaid, that then it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Juſtice to cauſe the ſaid Offender to be committed to the Houſe of Correction, until Satisfaction ſhall be made: And in caſe it ſhall appear to the ſaid Juſtice, that the ſaid Offender is not able to make Satisfaction, then the ſaid Offender ſhall be there publickly whipped, and kept to hard Labour, for any Time not exceeding Fourteen Days.

Penalty on Perſons imployed in the Woollen or Linen Manufactures, &c. and imbezeling the ſame.

The like on Perſons buying, &c. ſuch Goods imbezeled.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Perſon or Perſons buying or receiving any Wefts, Thrums, or Ends of Yarn, or any other Materials of Wooll, Hemp, Flax, Cotton, or Iron, and being thereof lawfully convicted, in Manner as aforeſaid, ſhall ſuffer the like Penalties and Forfeitures, as one convicted, purſuant to this Act, for purloining and imbezeling of the ſaid Materials.

Labourers and Workmen to be paid in Money.

All Wooll to be wrought ſhall be delivered out by Weight. Penalty.

III. And to prevent the Oppreſſion of the Labourers and Workmen imployed in the Woollen, Linen, Fuſtian, Cotton, and Iron Manufacture, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Payments and Satisfactions hereafter to be made to any of the ſame Labourers and Workmen, for any Work by them done in the ſame Manufacture, ſhall be by the lawful Coin of this Realm, and not by any Cloth, Victuals, or Commodities, in lieu thereof: And all Wooll delivered out to be wrought up, ſhall be ſo delivered, with Declaration of the true Weight thereof, on Pain that every Offender, in either of the ſaid Caſes, ſhall forfeit and pay to ſuch Labourer or Worker, double the Value of what ſhall be due for ſuch Work by him, her, or them done; and if any ſuch Labourer or Worker ſhall be guilty of any ſuch Fraud or Default in the Work by him, her, or them done, then ſuch Labourer or Worker ſhall allow and anſwer to the Owner of ſuch Work double the Damages thereby ſuſtained.

How Wages, Frauds, &c. of Labourers may be heard and determined.

Party aggrieved may appeal.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Wages, Demands, Frauds, and Defaults of Labourers in the Woollen, Linen, Fuſtian, Cotton, and Iron Manufactures, for or concerning any Work done in the ſame Manufactures, ſhall and may be heard and determined by any Two Juſtices of the Peace of the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, or Town Corporate, where the Matter in Controverſy ariſeth, who are hereby impowered to ſummon and examine Witneſſes on Oath concerning the ſame: But in caſe any Perſon ſhall think himſelf aggrieved by any Judgment or Order of the ſaid Juſtices, it ſhall and may be lawful for ſuch Perſon to appeal againſt the Judgment and Order of the ſaid Two Juſtices, to the Juſtices of the Peace in the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, which ſhall be held for the ſame County, Riding, Diviſion, City, or Town Corporate, next after Notice of ſuch Order of the ſaid Two Juſtices; and the Juſtices of the Peace in the ſaid General Quarter Seſſions, are hereby impowered to ſummon and examine Witneſſes on Oath, and to hear and finally determine the Matter of the ſaid Appeal; and in caſe the ſame Juſtices, in the ſaid General Quarter Seſſions, ſhall give Judgment againſt ſuch Appellant, then the ſame Juſtices ſhall award and order to the Party, on whoſe Behalf the ſame Appeal is determined, ſuch reaſonable Coſts and Charges to be paid by ſuch Appellant, in regard of ſuch Appeal, as to the ſame Juſtices ſhall ſeem meet.

Act to continue for 3 Years.

V. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall continue for the Space of Three Years, to be commenced from the ſaid Twenty fourth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and three, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer. CAP. XXII.

An Act for preventing Frauds in Her Majeſty's Duties upon ſtamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper.

FOR Prevention of ſeveral Frauds, whereby Her Majeſty's Duties, by the ſeveral Acts of Parliament in that Behalf made, impoſed on ſtamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, have been very much leſſened; be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Five and twentieth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and three, if any Clerk, Officer, Attorney, Solicitor, or other Perſon (to whom it ſhall appertain, or who ſhall be imployed or intruſted to enter or file any Action, Plaint, Bail, Appearance, Admiſſion, or other Matter or Thing, in reſpect whereof any Duty ſhall be payable by virtue of the ſaid Acts, or any of them) ſhall neglect to enter, file, or record the ſame, as by Law the ſame ought to be entred, filed, or recorded, within the Space of Four Months after ſuch Clerk, Officer, Attorney, Solicitor, or other Perſon, ſhall have received any Money, for or in reſpect of the Entry, Filing, or Recording of any ſuch Action, Plaint, Bail, Appearance, Admiſſion, or other Matter or Thing, or ſhall have promiſed or undertaken to enter, file, or record the ſame, or ſhall neglect to enter, file, or record any ſuch Action, Plaint, Bail, Appearance, or other Matter or Thing, before any ſubſequent, further, or other Proceeding, Matter, or Thing, in, upon, or relating to the ſame, ſhall be had, entred, filed, or recorded, or if any Clerk, Officer, Attorney, Solicitor, or other Perſon or Perſons, ſhall, after the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and three, tranſact, enter, record, or file any ſuch further or other Proceeding, Matter, or Thing, ſubſequent and relating to ſuch Action, Plaint, Bail, or Appearance, before the ſame ſhall have been duly entred, filed, or recorded, that then every ſuch Clerk, Officer, Attorney, Solicitor, or other Perſon ſo neglecting or offending, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence or Neglect, forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds, with full Coſts of Suit; and further, That no ſuch Record or Entry, as aforeſaid, ſhall (in or upon any Suit or Proſecution to be commenced or brought againſt any ſuch Clerk, Officer, Attorney, Solicitor, or other Perſon, for any Offence againſt this Act) be of it ſelf any concluding Evidence of the Time that the ſame was made, written, entred, or filed, or ſuppoſed to be, but in ſuch Suit, or upon ſuch Proſecution, Proof ſhall be admitted to be made of the Time that the ſame was actually made, written, entred, or filed: Provided, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to oblige or compel any Clerk, Officer, or other Perſon, to enter or file any Appearance where any Judgment is entred by Confeſſion; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Penalty on Clerk, &c. neglecting to enter or file any Action, &c.

or enter any ſubſequent Proceeding, &c.

Explained by 5 Annæ, c. 19. §. 29.

Such Record to be no Evidence of the Time.

Proviſo.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons, at any Time after the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and three, ſhall write or ingroſs, or cauſe to be written or ingroſſed, either the Whole or any Part of any Writ, Mandate, Bond, Affidavit, or other Writing, Matter, or Thing whatſoever, in reſpect whereof any Duty is payable by the ſaid Acts, or any of them, on the Whole or any Part of any Piece of Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, whereon there ſhall have been before written any other Writ, Bond, Mandate, Affidavit, or other Matter or Thing, in reſpect whereof any Duty was payable by the ſaid Acts, or any of them, before ſuch Vellum, Parchment, or Paper ſhall have been again marked or ſtamped according to the ſaid Acts, or ſhall fraudulently eraſe or ſcrape out, or cauſe to be eraſed or ſcraped out, the Name or Names of any Perſon or Perſons, or any Sum, Date, or other Thing written in ſuch Writ, Mandate, Affidavit, Bond, or other Writing, Matter, or Thing, as aforeſaid, or fraudulently cut, tear, or get off any Mark or Stamp from any Piece of Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, or any Part thereof, with Intent to uſe ſuch Stamp or Mark for any other Writing, Matter, or Thing, in reſpect whereof any Duty ſhall be payable by virtue of the ſaid Acts, or any of them, that then ſo often, and in every ſuch Caſe, every Perſon ſo offending in any of the Particulars before mentioned, ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds, with full Coſts of Suit.

What other Penalties Offender ſhall incur.

III. And it is further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Perſon who ſhall (in or upon any Suit or Information which ſhall be commenced or brought upon or in purſuance of this Act) be convicted of any the Neglects or Offences herein before mentioned, ſhall likewiſe incur all other Forfeitures and Diſabilities which ſuch Offender ſhould or would have incurred, if he had been convicted of writing contrary to the ſaid Acts, or any of them, the Entry of any Plaint or Action, or any Writ, Bond, or other Writing, Matter, or Thing on Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, not marked or ſtamped according to the ſaid Acts, nor having any Stamp or Mark thereon reſembling any of the Marks or Stamps in the ſaid Acts or any of them mentioned.

No Penalty, &c. for Things written in a Book or Roll, &c.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Officer ſhall be ſubject to any the Penalties, Forfeitures, Diſabilities, or Incapacities in this or any of the ſaid former Acts mentioned, for writing or cauſing to be written any of the Matters or Things aforeſaid, in any Book or Roll without any Marks or Stamps thereon, which ſhall have been firſt ſhewn to and ſigned by the Commiſſioners, for the time being, appointed to put the ſaid Acts in Execution, or any Three or more of them, or ſome Officer or Officers by them, or the major Part of them, for that Purpoſe authorized and impowered, to ſignify his or their Leave or Approbation, that the Matters and Things to be written in ſuch Book or Roll may be therein written without any Marks or Stamps thereon, ſo as the Perſon or Perſons, having the Cuſtody of ſuch Book or Roll, do from time to time (when and as often as he or they ſhall be thereto required) permit the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any of them, or any Officer or Agent by them, or the major Part of them, for that Purpoſe appointed, to inſpect and view ſuch Book or Roll, and do alſo (from time to time, when and as often as he or they ſhall be thereto required by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or the major Part of them, or any other by them or the major Part of them authorized) pay unto the Receiver General for the time being of the ſaid Duties, or ſuch other Officer or Perſon as the ſaid Commiſſioners, or the major Part of them, ſhall appoint to receive the ſame, all ſuch Sum and Sums of Money which, according to the true Intent and Meaning of the ſaid Acts, or any of them, ought to be paid, in reſpect of all and every ſuch Matters and Things as ſhall be written in ſuch Book or Roll; any thing herein or in any of the ſaid former Acts contained to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

All Writings, &c. to be written either on, or near the Stamps, &c.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Writings, Matters, and Things (in reſpect whereof any of the ſaid Duties ſhall be payable, and which ſhall be ingroſſed or written, after the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and three) ſhall be written in ſuch Manner, that ſome Part thereof ſhall be either upon, or as near as conveniently may be to the Stamps or Marks, which ſhall (in purſuance of the ſaid Acts, or any of them) be placed on the Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, whereupon the ſame ſhall be written or ingroſſed, upon Pain that the Perſon who ſhall write or ingroſs, or cauſe to be written or ingroſſed, any ſuch Writing, Matter, or Thing, contrary to the Tenour and true Meaning hereof, ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds, with full Coſts of Suit.

Penalty.

Penalties how to be diſpoſed of.

VI. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the One Moiety of all the Pecuniary Forfeitures, Pains, and Penalties herein before mentioned, ſhall be to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety, with full Coſts of Suit, ſhall be to any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall inform and ſue for the ſame, or any of them, in any Court of Record, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed.

Allowance on preſent Payment of Duties.

VII. And whereas ſome Doubts have ariſen touching the Allowances, which, by virtue of the ſaid former Acts, ought to be made for preſent Payment of the ſaid Duties; be it therefore declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Firſt Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and two, there ſhall be allowed and paid to every Perſon, who ſhall at any One Time bring to be ſtamped, or buy of the ſaid Commiſſioners Paper or Parchment, the Duties whereof ſhall amount to Ten Pounds or upward, after the Rate of Six Pounds in the Hundred Pounds per Annum, for Six Months, upon the preſent Payment of the ſaid Duties, at the Head Office in London or Weſtminſter, and not otherwiſe, nor any other Allowance; any thing in the ſaid former Acts contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Comptroller of the Duties to paſs an annual Account of the groſs Produce thereof, &c. Account how to be made.

VIII. And to the end the ſaid Duties upon Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, and all Matters incident thereunto, may be fully and duly anſwered and accounted for, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Comptroller and Accountant General of the ſaid Duties, for the time being, ſhall annually paſs a general Account in the Court of Exchequer, of the groſs Produce of all the ſaid Duties: In which Account there ſhall be charged all the Monies becoming due to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs or Succeſſors, for all the Stamps or Marks, which ſhall be impreſſed or put upon any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, diſtinguiſhing thoſe for which ready Money is or ſhall be paid at the Head Office for the ſaid Duties in London, from thoſe which ſhall be delivered over to be otherwiſe ſold or diſtributed, and all the Monies which ſhall ariſe to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs or Succeſſors, for Penalties relating to the ſaid Duties, and all the Monies which ſhall be paid by the Regiſters of either of the Two Univerſities, or by any Officers of the Law, or others, for Entries made in Books, where the Duty ought to be paid for every Entry therein, and all the Monies ariſing for Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, which ſhall be delivered out by the Commiſſioners of the ſaid Duties, or by their Order, for the better accommodating Her Majeſty's Subjects, ſo that the Profits ariſing thereby, and the Kinds and Quantities ſo delivered out, may plainly appear in every ſuch Account; and all the Monies which ſhall be ſecured by any Bonds taken for the ſaid Duties, or any Part thereof, and all other Monies, Matters, and Things whatſoever, which ought to be charged in a General or Groſs Account, for the ſaid Duties, within the Time for which every ſuch annual Account ought to be made; and in the Diſcharge of every ſuch general Account, there ſhall be comprehended all the Monies which ſhall appear to have been duly paid or anſwered by the Receiver General of the ſaid Duties, within the Time of every ſuch Account, and all other Salaries and incident Charges which ſhall be duly allowed in or for the Management of the ſaid Revenues, and all the Diſcounts for prompt Payments which ſhall be duly made out of the ſaid Duties, and all the Monies which ſhall be actually paid for Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, bought or provided by the ſaid Commiſſioners or their Order, for accommodating Her Majeſty's Subjects, ſo that the Kinds and Quantities of all the Vellum, Parchment and Paper ſo provided, may alſo plainly appear in every ſuch Account, and all other Matters and Things, which by the Courſe of the Exchequer ought to be diſcharged in an Account of this Nature.

What ſhall be comprehended in Diſcharge of ſuch general Account.

IX. And it is hereby enacted, That all the Debts and Arrears of the ſaid Duties, which at the End of every ſuch Account ought to be charged upon any Receivers, Diſtributors, or others, ſhall be duly ſet inſuper, upon the ſeveral Perſons chargeable therewith, to the end the ſame may be recovered by the ordinary Proceſs of the ſaid Court, unleſs the Lord Treaſurer, or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being, ſhall ſee Cauſe to ſtay the ſaid Proceſs againſt the ſaid Perſons, or any of them, for giving them Time to pay or anſwer ſuch Debts or Arrears, or any of them, and to be diſcharged thereof in any ſubſequent Account of ſuch Comptroller and Accountant General, according to the due Courſe of the ſaid Court.

Debts and Arrears to be ſet inſuper.

X. And it is hereby alſo enacted, That the Stocks of Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, ſtamped or unſtamped, which at the End of every ſuch Account ought to remain in Her Majeſty's Warehouſes, or elſewhere, ſhall alſo be ſet down and expreſſed at the Foot of every ſuch Account; and that the Firſt of the ſaid general and annual Accounts ſhall be for the Year to end on the Firſt Day of Auguſt, One thouſand ſeven hundred and three, and ſhall be delivered by the ſaid Comptroller and Accountant General to the Auditors of Her Majeſty's Impreſts and other Accounts, before the Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and three, and ſhall be ſworn to by him to the beſt of his Knowledge, and be followed and proſecuted by him in ſuch Manner, that the ſame ſhall not, by his Negligence or Default, remain unfiniſhed in the Court of Exchequer, beyond the Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and four; and that every ſubſequent annual Account ſhall in like Manner terminate on the Firſt Day of Auguſt, and be delivered to the ſaid Auditors, or One of them, before the Five and twentieth Day of December, and proſecuted, ſo that the ſame may be finiſhed before the Firſt Day of May yearly, during the Continuance of the ſaid Duties, under the Penalty of forfeiting his Office, and the Sum of One hundred Pounds, One Moiety thereof to the Queen, and the other Moiety to ſuch Perſon or Perſons who will inform or ſue for the ſame, to be recovered in Manner aforeſaid.

Stocks of Vellum, &c. ſtampt or unſtampt to be ſet down at the Foot of ſuch Account.

When annual Accounts ſhall terminate.

Penalty.

XI. Provided always, That if any ſuch Comptroller and Accountant General ſhall wilfully and knowingly return any Receiver, Diſtributor, or other Perſon, inſuper, for any Monies or Stamps duly anſwered, paid, or accounted for by ſuch Receiver, Diſtributor, or other Perſon reſpectively, whereby he or they ſhall ſuſtain any Damage or Prejudice; then and in every ſuch Caſe, ſuch Comptroller and Accountant General ſhall be liable to anſwer and pay Treble Damages to the Party grieved, to be recovered by Action of the Caſe, in any Her Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, with full Coſts of Suit, in which Action no Eſſoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than One Imparlance ſhall be granted or allowed.

Penalty on returning Receiver, &c. inſuper for Monies paid.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

12 W. 3. c. 12. See 1 Geo. 1. ſtat. 1. c. 1. § 4. WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of our late Sovereign Lord King WILLIAM the Third, of bleſſed Memory, intituled, An Act for appropriating Three thouſand ſeven hundred Pounds weekly, out of certain Branches of Exciſe, for publick Uſes, and for making a Proviſion for the Service of His Majeſty's Houſhold and Family, and other His neceſſary Occaſions, it was (amongſt other Things) enacted, That from and after the Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred, for and during the Term of Five Years from thence next enſuing, the full, clear, and entire weekly Sum of Three thouſand ſeven hundred Pounds, of lawful Engliſh Money, out of all the Monies 12 Car. 2. c. 23. ariſing by the Hereditary Rates and Duties of Exciſe upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, which were granted to the Crown in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, and by the Duties of Exciſe payable during the ſaid late King WILLIAM's Life, and by every or any of them, if all thoſe Duties of Exciſe ſhould ſo long continue; and if the ſaid Duties of Exciſe, payable during His ſaid late Majeſty's Life, ſhould happen to determine before the End of the ſaid Term of Five Years, then out of the Monies ariſing entirely by the ſaid Hereditary Duties of Exciſe, for and during all the Reſidue which ſhould be then to come and unexpired of the ſaid Term of Five Years, ſhould be brought and paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer by weekly Payments, and in ſuch Manner and Form as in the ſaid Act are particularly mentioned, for the Purpoſes in the ſaid Act expreſſed: And it is thereby further enacted, That in Lieu and Diſcharge of certain perpetual annual Payments, and of all Arrears thereof granted by His late Majeſty King CHARLES the Second to the reſpective Patentees therein named, the ſaid Hereditary Revenue of Exciſe ſhould, from and after the Twenty ſixth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, be and ſtand charged for ever with the Payment of annual Sums after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be paid as by the ſaid Act is directed, and ſubject to ſuch Power of Redemption as in the ſaid Act is expreſſed:

1 Annæ, ſtat. 1. c. 7. II. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Firſt Year of Your Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better Support of Her Majeſty's Houſhold, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, it is (amongſt other Things) enacted, That the Duties of Exciſe which had been granted to His ſaid late Majeſty King CHARLES the Second, during His Life, and afterwards to King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, during Their Lives, and the Life of the Survivor of Them (except as therein is excepted) and a certain Duty upon Vinegar, ſhall be levied and paid to Your Majeſty, during Your Life (which God preſerve) and the ſame, together with the ſaid Hereditary Duties of Exciſe, are thereby ſubjected to the ſaid weekly Payment of Three thouſand ſeven hundred Pounds, in the Manner therein mentioned, during the ſaid Term of Five Years; and it was thereby further declared, That from and after the Expiration of the ſaid Term of Five Years, ſo much Money as, together with the ſaid Payments after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, ſhould make up the Sum of Three thouſand ſeven hundred Pounds for every Week, during Your Majeſty's Life, ſhould and might be taken out of the ſaid Hereditary Duties of Exciſe, and out of the ſaid Duties of Exciſe granted for Your Majeſty's Life, and either or any of them, and the ſaid Payments, after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, being deducted out of the Hereditary Part thereof, the Reſidue of the ſaid Three thouſand ſeven hundred Pounds a Week ſhould be applied and diſpoſed of, to and for the publick Uſe and Service, as by the ſaid ſeveral Acts (Relation being thereunto reſpectively had) may more fully appear:

III. Now we Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of England in Parliament aſſembled, being deſirous by the moſt eaſy Means that are poſſible to raiſe the Money which is neceſſary for carrying on the preſent War, and ſupplying Your Majeſty's important Occaſions, do cheerfully and unanimouſly grant unto Your Majeſty a further Aid to ariſe by Contributions for Annuities to be purchaſed in the Manner and Form herein after mentioned; and do humbly beſeech Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, Aid granted from 25 December, 1705. and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Five and twentieth Day of December, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, the ſaid full, clear, and entire weekly Sum of Three thouſand ſeven hundred Pounds, out of all the Monies ariſing by the ſaid Hereditary Duties of Exciſe, and by the ſaid Duties of Exciſe payable during Her Majeſty's Life, and by every and any of them, according to the Tenor and Direction of the Act of Parliament above recited in that Behalf, and from and after Her Majeſty's Deceaſe, then the like full, clear, and entire weekly Sum of Three thouſand ſeven hundred Pounds of lawful English Money, out of all the Monies to ariſe by the ſaid Hereditary Duties of Exciſe, and every or any of them, from time to time for ever, ſhall be brought and paid by the Commiſſioners, Farmers, Receiver and Receivers General for the time being of the ſaid ſeveral Duties of Exciſe (who are hereby required and enjoined to bring and pay the ſame accordingly) into the Receipt of the Exchequer diſtinctly and ſeparately from all other Monies whatſoever, that are or ſhall be payable by them into the ſaid Receipt, the ſaid weekly Sum or Payment of Three thouſand ſeven hundred Pounds, to be brought and paid into the ſaid Receipt upon Wedneſday in every Week, if it be not an Holiday, and if it be, then upon the next Day that is not an Holiday, for the Purpoſes in this Act expreſſed; and in caſe in any Week or Weeks the whole Receipt of the Monies of the ſaid ſeveral Branches or Duties of Exciſe hereby charged as aforeſaid, ſhall not be ſufficient to anſwer the weekly Payment or Payments hereby directed for ſuch particular Week or Weeks, that then and ſo often the Deficiency and Deficiencies thereof ſhall be ſupplied and made good out of the whole Receipt of the ſaid particular Branches of Exciſe, and every or any of them, ariſing in the next Week or Weeks, when the Receipt or Receipts ſhall be ſufficient to bear the ſame.

Monies ariſing by the ſaid Branches of Exciſe to be kept apart, and paid weekly into the Exchequer.

IV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Commiſſioners of Exciſe for the time being, at their Head Office in London, ſhall from time to time ſeparate and keep apart all the Monies ariſing by the ſaid particular Branches of Exciſe herein before mentioned, as the ſame ſhall from time to time ariſe or be paid into the ſaid Office of Exciſe by the Receivers or Collectors of the ſame, or by any other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, and ſhall out of the Monies ſo ariſing make the ſaid weekly Payments into the Exchequer, for the Uſes in this Act mentioned.

Penalty on Nonpayment.

V. And be it further enacted, That if the ſaid Commiſſioners of Exciſe for the time being ſhall refuſe or neglect to pay or cauſe to be paid into the Exchequer the ſaid Weekly Sums hereby appointed, or ſhall divert or miſapply any Part of the Monies which ſhould make good the ſame, then they and every of them ſo offending ſhall forfeit their ſeveral Offices and Places, and be incapable to ſerve the Queen, Her Heirs or Succeſſors, in any Office or Place of Truſt or Profit, and ſhall be liable for every ſuch Offence to pay double the Value of the Money ſo diverted or miſapplied, to any Perſon or Perſons who will inform or ſue for the ſame, by Action of Debt, or of the Caſe, Bill, Suit or Information, in any of Her Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than One Imparlance ſhall be granted or allowed.

Comptroller of Exciſe to keep a diſtinct Account of the Monies.

VI. And be it enacted, That the Comptroller of the Exciſe for the time being ſhall keep a perfect and diſtinct Account, in a Book or Books fairly written, of all the Monies which ſhall ariſe by the ſaid particular Branches of Exciſe, out of which the ſaid weekly Payments are to be made as aforeſaid, as the ſame ſhall from time to time ariſe or be raiſed (to which Books all Perſons concerned ſhall at all reaſonable Times have free Acceſs, without Fee or Charge) and ſuch Comptroller in Default thereof ſhall forfeit his Office or Place, and be rendred incapable as aforeſaid, and ſhall alſo forfeit and loſe the Sum of Two hundred Pounds for every ſuch Default, to any Perſon or Perſons who will inform or ſue for the ſame as is before mentioned.

Penalty.

Monies to be entred apart.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of the Exchequer One Book, in which all the Monies which ought to be paid in weekly as aforeſaid, for or upon Account of the ſaid weekly Sums out of the ſaid particular Branches of Exciſe, and which ſhall be brought to the ſaid Receipt, ſhall be entred apart and diſtinct from all other Monies paid into the ſaid Receipt on any other Account whatſoever.

Annual Sums how to be paid.

VIII. And it is hereby further enacted, That out of the Money of the ſaid Hereditary Duties of Exciſe, ariſing in or by ſuch weekly Payments at the Exchequer as aforeſaid, the ſaid annual Sums, after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, preſcribed by the ſaid Act, made in the Parliament holden in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His ſaid late Majeſty King WILLIAM the Third, ſhall be ſatisfied and paid according to the Directions therein contained, and ſubject to the Power of Redemption therein mentioned; and alſo out of all the Monies of the ſaid ſeveral Branches of Exciſe, ariſing in or by the ſaid weekly Payments, the ſeveral Annuities to be purchaſed in purſuance of this Act, ſhall be paid and ſatisfied, from and after the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of December, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, for and during the then Reſidue and Remainder of the ſeveral and reſpective Terms and Eſtates, which by virtue of this Act ſhall be purchaſed of and in ſuch Annuities reſpectively; and that all the Reſt and Reſidue of the Monies ariſing by the ſaid weekly Payments, and which at the End of every Year, reckoning the Firſt Year to begin from the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of December, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, ſhall remain, after ſatiſfying or reſerving ſufficient to ſatiſfy all the Payments which ſhall be then incurred or grown due, as well for and upon the ſaid annual Sums after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, as alſo for and upon all the ſaid Annuities to be purchaſed upon this Act, ſhall be applied and diſpoſed of to and for the publick Uſe and Service, and not otherwiſe.

IX. And for the raiſing any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding One Million eighteen thouſand eight hundred ſixty and ſeven Pounds, Eighteen Shillings, and Six Pence; that is to ſay, Nine hundred thouſand Pounds thereof for carrying on the preſent War, and other Her Majeſty's Occaſions, and One hundred and eighteen thouſand eight hundred ſixty and ſeven Pounds, Eighteen Shillings, and Six Pence, Reſidue thereof, for making good the quarterly Payments herein after mentioned, to incur and grow due on and before the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five; it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons, Natives or Foreigners, to contribute, advance and pay into the Receipt of Her Majeſty's Exchequer, for Her Majeſty's Uſe, at or before the reſpective Days and Times by this Act limited in that Behalf, any Sum or Sums of Money for or towards the ſaid Sum of One million eighteen thouſand eight hundred ſixty and ſeven Pounds, Eighteen Shillings, and Six Pence, for purchaſing any Annuity or Annuities, to be ſatiſat 15 Years Purchaſe, to be paid into the Exchequer, One Third Part on 1 May, 1704. One other Third Part on 24 June, 1704. and the other Third Part on 29 Sept. 1704. Annuities ſo purchaſed how and when to be paid. By 6 Geo. 1. c. 4. §. 1. the South Sea Company may take in theſe Annuities.

fied as in this Act is mentioned, for and during the full Term of Ninety nine Years to be reckoned from the Five and twentieth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and four, at the Rate of Fifteen Years Purchaſe; which Rate doth amount to the Sum of One hundred and fifty Pounds for every ſuch Annuity of Ten Pounds per Annum, and proportionably for any greater Annuity: And the ſame Rate or Conſideration-money is hereby appointed to be paid into the ſaid Receipt, at or before the reſpective Days and Times herein after mentioned, that is to ſay, One Third Part thereof on or before the Firſt Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and four; One other Third Part thereof on or before the Four and twentieth Day of June, in the ſaid Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and four; and the remaining Third Part thereof, on or before the Nine and twentieth Day of September, in the ſaid Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and four. And the ſaid Annuities ſo to be purchaſed, and every of them, ſhall be paid and payable, from time to time, at the Four moſt uſual Feaſts of the Year, that is to ſay, The Feaſt of the Nativity of Saint John Baptiſt, Saint Michael the Archangel, the Birth of our Lord Chriſt, and the Annunciation of the Bleſſed Virgin Mary, by even and equal Portions, the Firſt Payment thereof to be made at or for the Feaſt of the Nativity of Saint John Baptiſt, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and four; which ſaid Annuities ſhall, for the Firſt Year, and Three Quarters of a Year, of the ſaid Term of Ninety nine Years, be ſatiſfied and paid out of the Monies to be advanced in purſuance of this Act, whereof ſufficient ſhall be reſerved for that Purpoſe; and for all the Reſt and Reſidue of the ſaid Term of Ninety nine Years, the ſaid Annuities, and every of them, ſhall be paid and ſatiſfied out of the Monies ariſing by the weekly Payments of Exciſe Money before mentioned.

For raiſing a further Sum of 300,000 l. Perſons may purchaſe Annuities for One Life at 9 Years Purchaſe, for Two Lives at 11 Years Purchaſe, Three Lives at 12 Years Purchaſe, or for 99 Years at 15 Years Purchaſe.

X. And for the raiſing any further Sum and Sums of Money, not exceeding Three hundred thouſand Pounds, for carrying on the ſaid War, and other Her Majeſty's Occaſions, and alſo for raiſing ſuch Monies as ſhall be neceſſary to diſcharge the quarterly Payments, which during One Year and Three Quarters of a Year, to be reckoned from the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and four, ſhall or may grow due upon the other Annuities to be purchaſed, as is herein after mentioned; it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons, Natives or Foreigners, to contribute, advance, and pay into the ſaid Receipt of Her Majeſty's Exchequer, for Her Majeſty's Uſe, at or before the reſpective Days and Times, and by ſuch Proportions, as are before in this Act appointed for Payment of the Purchaſe Monies for the Annuities firſt above mentioned, any Sum and Sums of Money for purchaſing any Annuity or Annuities for One Life, at the Rate of Nine Years Purchaſe, or for Two Lives, at the Rate of Eleven Years Purchaſe, or for Three Lives, at the Rate of Twelve Years Purchaſe, or for ſuch a certain Term of Ninety nine Years, as aforeſaid, at the Rate of Fifteen Years Purchaſe, at the Election of ſuch Purchaſers reſpectively; which ſaid Rates do amount to the Sum of Ninety Pounds for an Annuity of Ten Pounds per Annum for One Life, and to the Sum of One hundred and ten Pounds for an Annuity of Ten Pounds per Annum for Two Lives, and the Sum of One hundred and twenty Pounds for an Annuity of Ten Pound per Annum for Three Lives, and to the Sum of One hundred and fifty Pounds for an Annuity of Ten Pounds per Annum for the certain Term of Ninety nine Years before mentioned, and proportionably for any greater Annuities ſo to be purchaſed for ſuch Eſtates or Intereſts reſpectively.

Annuities to commence from 25 Mar. 1704. and to be paid quarterly.

XI. And it is hereby enacted, That all the ſaid Annuities ſo to be purchaſed for Life, Lives, or Years, at the Election of the Purchaſer, as aforeſaid, ſhall likewiſe commence from the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and four, and ſhall be paid and payable at the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer, at the Four uſual Feaſts before mentioned, by even and equal Portions, the Firſt Payment thereof to be alſo made at or for the ſaid Feaſt of the Nativity of Saint John Baptiſt, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and four.

How the quarterly Payments from 25 Mar. 1704 to 25 Dec. 1705. ſhall be paid, &c.

XII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all the quarterly Payments which ſhall or may incur or grow due for or upon the Annuities laſt mentioned, within the ſaid Time of One Year, and Three Quarters of a Year, to be reckoned from the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and four, until and for the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, ſhall be ſatiſfied and paid out of the Monies to be advanced for purchaſing the ſame Annuities upon this Act, whereof ſufficient ſhall be reſerved for that Purpoſe; and all quarterly Payments which ſhall incur and grow due for or upon the ſame Annuities laſt mentioned, and every of them, from and after the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, during the Continuance of the reſpective Terms and Eſtates ſo to be purchaſed therein, ſhall be paid and ſatiſfied out of the Monies ariſing by the weekly Payments of Exciſe Money before mentioned.

When the Contributions ſhall amount to 1,200,000 l. &c. no more ſhall be received at the Exchequer.

XIII. Provided always, That when the Contributions upon this Act ſhall amount in the whole to One million two hundred thouſand Pounds, for carrying on the ſaid War, and Her Majeſty's Occaſions, and to ſo much more as ſhall or may be neceſſary to diſcharge all the ſaid Annuities, until the Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five incluſively, then no further Contributions ſhall be received at the ſaid Exchequer for purchaſing Annuities upon this Act.

Contributor for One Life may name the Life of the ſame Contributor, or any other, who ſhall be intitled to ſuch Annuity.

XIV. And it is hereby further enacted, That where any Contributor ſhall advance Money, at the reſpective Rate aforeſaid, for an Eſtate for One Life, as aforeſaid, every ſuch Contributor, his Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, ſhall and may name to the Auditor of the Receipt, and Clerk of the Pells, for the time being, or to either of them, the Life of the ſame Contributor, or any other Life (at his or her Election) during which, every ſuch Contributor, or ſuch as he or ſhe ſhall appoint, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns reſpectively, ſhall be intitled to every ſuch Annuity, according to the true Meaning of this Act; and that where any Contributor ſhall advance Money at the reſpective Rate aforeſaid, for an Eſtate for Two Lives, every ſuch Contributor, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns ſhall and may name to the ſaid Auditor of the Receipt and Clerk of the Pells for the time being, or either of them, Two Perſons or Nominees (whereof himſelf or herſelf, if he or ſhe thinks fit, may be one) during whoſe Lives, and the Life of the Survivor of them, every ſuch Contributor, or ſuch as he or ſhe ſhall appoint, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns reſpectively, ſhall be intitled to every ſuch Annuity, according to the true Meaning of this Act; and that where any Contributor ſhall advance Money at the reſpective Rate aforeſaid, for an Eſtate for Three Lives, every ſuch Contributor, his or her Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, ſhall and may name to the ſaid Auditor of the Receipt, and Clerk of the Pells, for the time being, or either of them, Three Perſons or Nominees (whereof himſelf or herſelf, if he or ſhe think fit, may be One) during the Lives of which Nominees, and of the Survivors and Survivor of them, every ſuch Contributor, or ſuch as he or ſhe ſhall appoint, his, her, and their Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns reſpectively, ſhall be intitled to every ſuch Annuity, according to the Tenor and true Meaning of this Act.

Contributor advancing for Two Lives, may name Two Nominees, &c. and for Three Lives, Three Nominees, &c.

XV. Provided always, That all the ſaid Lives ſhall be named by the ſeveral Contributors, their Executors or Adminiſtrators, or ſuch as ſhall be employed by them to pay in the ſaid Purchaſe-monies, on or before the ſaid Firſt Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and four.

Lives to be named by the Contributors, by 1 May, 1704.

XVI. And it is hereby enacted, That in the Offices of the ſaid Auditor of the Receipt, and Clerk of the Pells ſeverally, there ſhall be provided and kept a Book or Books, in which ſhall be fairly entred the Names of all who ſhall be Contributors, and of all Perſons by whoſe Hands the ſaid Contributors ſhall pay in any of the ſaid Sums, and alſo the ſeveral Sums ſo paid, and the Times when the ſame are reſpectively paid, and the ſeveral Nominees for whoſe Lives reſpectively the ſaid Annuities for Life or Lives are to continue; to which Book it ſhall be lawful for the reſpective Contributors, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, from time to time, and at all ſeaſonable Times, to have reſort, and to inſpect the ſame without Fee or Reward; and as well the ſaid ſeveral Contributors for Life, Lives, or Years, as the ſaid Nominees for Life or Lives, ſhall be deſcribed in the ſaid Books by their Chriſtian and Surnames, Additions, and Places of Abode, and other Deſcriptions which ſhall beſt aſcertain the Perſons.

Contributors Names, &c. to be entred in the Offices of the Auditor and Clerk of the Pells. Books to be inſpected without Fee.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Contributor and Contributors upon this Act, duly paying the Conſideration or Purchaſe-money after the reſpective Rates aforeſaid, at or before the reſpective Days and Times in this Act before limited in that Behalf, for any Annuity or Annuities for ſuch Term of Years, or Eſtate for Life or Lives, as aforeſaid, according to the true Meaning of this Act, or ſuch as he, ſhe, or they ſhall appoint, his, her, or their reſpective Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, ſhall have, receive, and enjoy, and be intitled, by Virtue of this Act, to have, receive, and enjoy the reſpective Annuity and Annuities ſo to be purchaſed, out of the Monies ariſing and to ariſe, as aforeſaid, for and during all and every ſuch Term of Years, for Life, or Lives reſpectively, and that all the Annuities to be purchaſed on this Act for any Term, Eſtate, or Intereſt whatſoever, ſhall be free from all Taxes, Charges, and Impoſitions whatſoever.

Contributors paying their Purchaſe-money, to enjoy the Annuities ſo purchaſed, free from Taxes;

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Contributor upon any Part of this Act for any of the Annuities aforeſaid, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, upon Payment of the Conſideration or Purchaſe-money for the ſame, at the reſpective Rates in this Act before appointed, or any Part or Proportion thereof, within the Time or Times by this Act limited in that Behalf, ſhall immediately have One or more Talley or Tallies levied, importing the Receipt of ſo much Conſideration-money as ſhall be ſo paid for or in Part of the ſaid reſpective Sums to be raiſed, as aforeſaid, and upon Payment of all the Purchaſe-money for any ſuch Annuity or Annuities, as aforeſaid, at the Rate by this Act appointed, every ſuch Contributor reſpectively, his or her reſpective Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, ſhall have an Order for Payment of ſuch Annuity and Annuities, for and during ſuch reſpective Term, Eſtate, or Intereſt, as he, ſhe, or they ſhall or ought to have therein, as aforeſaid; which Order ſhall be ſigned by the Treaſurer and Under Treaſurer of the Exchequer, or any Three or more of the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being; and after the ſigning thereof, the ſame ſhall be firm, good, valid, and effectual in Law, according to the Purport and true Meaning thereof, and of this Act, and ſhall not be determinable by or upon the Deaths or Removal of any Treaſurer or Under Treaſurer of the Exchequer, or any Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or by or upon the Determination of the Power, Office or Offices of them or any of them, nor ſhall any Lord High Treaſurer of England, Treaſurer of the Exchequer, or any Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, now or for the time being, have Power to revoke, countermand, or make void ſuch Orders ſo ſigned, as aforeſaid, or any of them.

and ſhall have Tallies for the ſame, and Orders for Repayment.

No Lord Treaſurer, &c. to revoke the ſame.

XIX. And for the Encouragement of the Contributors to advance and pay forthwith into the Receipt of the Exchequer, the Sums by them intended to be advanced upon any of the Terms aforeſaid, it is provided and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every ſuch Contributor, who ſhall advance and pay into the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer, all or any Part of the Purchaſe-money payable for any ſuch Annuity or Annuities, as aforeſaid, before the ſaid Firſt Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and four, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, ſhall be allowed and paid, out of the Contribution-money ariſing by this Act, Intereſt after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the prompt Payment of the Money ſo advanced, from the Time of the actual advancing and paying the ſame, until the ſaid Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and four.

Contributors to be allowed 5 l. per Cent. Intereſt for prompt Payment, until 1 May, 1704.

XX. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Contributor, his or her Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, at any Time or Times, during the Continuance of his or her Term, Eſtate, or Intereſt, of and in any Annuity to be purchaſed upon this Act, by any Writing under Hand and Seal, or by his or her laſt Will in Writing, to aſſign or deviſe ſuch Annuity and Annuities, or any Part thereof, or any Intereſt therein, to any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, and ſo toties quoties; and no ſuch Aſſignment to be revokable, ſo as an Entry or Memorandum of ſuch Aſſignment or Will be made in Books to be kept for that Purpoſe in the ſaid Office of the Auditor of the Receipt, within the Space Annuities to be deemed a Perſonal Eſtate, &c.

XXI. And it is hereby enacted, That every Eſtate of and in any Annuity to be purchaſed upon this Act, ſhall be deemed a Perſonal Eſtate, and (if the ſame be not ſuch Annuity as is to depend upon the Contributor's own Life) ſhall go to his Executors and Adminiſtrators, and not be deſcendable to the Heir.

Guardians to Infants may advance 150 l. &c. to purchaſe an Annuity, &c. and be diſcharged for ſo much.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any Guardian or Truſtee, having the Diſpoſal of the Money of any Infant under the Age of One and twenty Years, for the Uſe or Benefit of ſuch Infant, to advance and pay the Sum of One hundred and fifty Pounds of the Money of ſuch Infant, to purchaſe any Annuity upon this Act for the Benefit of ſuch Infant; and the ſaid Guardian and Truſtee, as to the ſaid Sum of One hundred and fifty Pounds ſo advanced, is hereby diſcharged.

Contributors to produce a Certificate of the Life of Nominee, &c. ſigned by the Miniſter and Churchwardens, without Fee; otherwiſe to make Oath of Nominee's Life.

Juſtices to make a Certificate thereof, &c.

Penalty on Perſon guilty of a falſe Oath or forging Certificate, &c.

XXIII. And to the Intent and Purpoſe that all Deceits in receiving any Payment upon any of the ſaid Annuities to be purchaſed for Life or Lives as aforeſaid, may be prevented; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Contributor, for any of the ſaid Annuities for Life or Lives, his or her Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, upon his or her demanding of any quarterly Payment, upon ſuch his or her Annuity (unleſs the Nominee appear in Perſon at the ſaid Receipt) ſhall produce a Certificate of the Life of his or her reſpective Nominee, ſigned by the Miniſter and Churchwardens of the Pariſh where ſuch Nominee ſhall be then living, upon the Day when the ſaid quarterly Payment ſhall become due (if ſuch Nominee ſhall be then reſiding in the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed) which Certificate the ſaid Miniſter and Churchwardens are hereby required to make without Fee or Reward; or otherwiſe it ſhall and may be lawful to and for every Contributor, his or her Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, at his, her or their Election, to make Oath of the Truth of his, her or their reſpective Nominee's Life, upon the Day when the ſaid Payment ſhall become due, before any One or more Juſtices of the Peace of the reſpective County, Riding, City, Town, or Place, wherein ſuch Perſon, at the Time of making the ſaid Oath, ſhall reſide; which Oath he or they are hereby impowered to adminiſter: And the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices ſhall make a Certificate thereof, for which Oath and Certificate no Fee or Reward ſhall be received; and the ſaid Certificates ſhall be filed in the ſaid Office of the Receipt of Exchequer: And if any Perſon ſhall be guilty of a falſe Oath, or forging any Certificate, touching the Premiſſes, and be thereof lawfully convicted, he or ſhe ſhall incur the Puniſhment to be inflicted upon Perſons who commit wilful and corrupt Perjury.

Certificate, that Nominee, Reſident in Scotland, or beyond Sea, is living, to be ſufficient for making Payment.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That in caſe any Nominee for Life or Lives ſhall, at the Time of ſuch Demand of any quarterly Payment, be Reſident in Scotland, or beyond the Seas, and any One or more of the Barons of the Exchequer for the time being ſhall certify, that upon Proof to him or them made (which Proof he and they is and are hereby authorized and required to take in a ſummary Way) it doth ſeem probable to him or them that the ſaid Nominee is living (which Certificate is to be given, and Examination made, without Fee or Reward) the ſaid Certificate being filed as aforeſaid, ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant for the making of ſuch quarterly Payment to the reſpective Contributor, his or her Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns.

Perſons receiving any quarterly Payment after the Death of Nominee, ſhall be obliged to repay the ſame.

Penalty on Perſons obtaining the ſame fraudulently.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall receive any One or more quarterly Payments, upon any of the ſaid Annuities purchaſed for One or more Lives as aforeſaid, for any Time beyond the Death of his, her or their Nominee, when the ſame ought to ceaſe, ſuch Perſon ſhall be obliged to repay the Sum, ſo by him or her received, into the Receipt of the Exchequer; and if the ſame were obtained, either by forging any Certificate of the Life of ſuch Nominee, or by bringing any One to the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer, to perſonate his or her Appearance, every ſuch Perſon ſo fraudulently getting the ſaid Money, and every Perſon ſo produced as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit Treble the Sum ſo received, to be recovered by Action of Debt, in any of Her Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, by any Perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame; in which Action no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law, or more than One Imparlance ſhall be allowed: And moreover, the ſaid Perſons ſo fraudulently getting the ſaid Money, and the Perſons produced as aforeſaid, and all other Partakers in ſuch Forgery or Fraud, ſhall be further puniſhed for the ſame, according to the Laws of this Realm.

All Receipts and Iſſues in the Exchequer ſhall be made without Fee.

Penalty on Officer taking Fee, or miſapplying the weekly Sums or not making Entries.

Treble Damages.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, for the better encouraging Perſons to advance the ſaid ſeveral Sums on this Act, That all Receipts and Iſſues, and all other Things directed by this Act to be performed in the Exchequer, ſhall be done and performed by the Officers there, without demanding or receiving, directly or indirectly, any Fee, Gratuity or Reward for the ſame; and in caſe any of the Officers of the Exchequer ſhall take or demand any ſuch Fee or Reward, or ſhall divert or miſapply any of the ſaid weekly Sums to be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer, or any Part of the Monies which ſhould make good the Payment of the ſaid Annuities, or ſhall pay or iſſue out of the ſame otherwiſe than according to the Intent of this Act, or ſhall not keep Books and Regiſters, and make Entries, and do and perform all other Things, which by this Act they are required to perform, every ſuch Officer ſhall forfeit his Office, and be for the future incapable of any Office or Place of Truſt whatſoever, and ſhall anſwer and pay Treble Damages with Coſts of Suit to every Contributor or Perſon who ſhall be prejudiced thereby, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of Her Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege of Parliament, or other Privilege, Wager of Law, Injunction, or Order of Reſtraint, or more than One Imparlance, ſhall be granted or allowed; and in the ſaid Action the Plaintiff upon Recovery ſhall have his Full Coſts; One Third Part of which Sum, ſo to be recovered for Damages, ſhall be to the Uſe of Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors; and the other Two Third Parts, with the Coſts, ſhall be to the Uſe of the Proſecutor: And in caſe there ſhall be any Colluſion or faint Proſecution between the Plaintiff and Defendant in ſuch Action, it ſhall be lawful for any other Contributor, his or her Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, to bring another Action, wherein he ſhall recover as aforeſaid, to the Uſes aforeſaid.

Plaintiff on Recovery to have Full Coſts.

In caſe of faint Proſecution, Contributor may bring another Action.

XXVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in caſe any Officer of the Exchequer ſhall make any quarterly Payment or Payments upon ſuch Certificate as is before directed, ſuch Officer ſhall not incur any Penalty, Forfeiture, or Diſability for doing thereof, although the ſaid Certificate be forged or falſe, or the ſaid Nominee be dead, unleſs the ſaid Officer did know, at the Time of ſuch Payment, that the ſaid Nominee was dead, or that the ſaid Certificate was forged or falſe.

Officer making Payment on Certificate, ſhall not incur any Penalty, &c.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That every Contributor for Life or Lives, as aforeſaid, his or her Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, within One Month after Notice of the Death of any his or their reſpective Nominee or Nominees, ſhall certify ſuch Death to the Auditor of the Receipt of Exchequer for the time being, and within Three Months after Notice of the Determination of his, her, or their Annuity or Annuities, by the Death or Deaths of his, her, or their Nominee or Nominees, ſhall deliver, or cauſe to be delivered up, to the ſaid Auditor, his or their Talley and Order, by which he or they were or was intitled, during the Life of ſuch Nominee or Nominees, to receive ſuch Annuity or Annuities, in caſe ſuch Talley and Order be in his or their Hands or Power, and in Default thereof, ſuch Contributor, his or her Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, ſhall forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds, to be recovered by Action of Debt, as aforeſaid, and to be had and received to the Uſe of any Perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame.

Contributors to certify the Death of Nominees, and deliver up their Tallies, &c. in 3 Months after Deceaſe.

Penalty.

XXIX. And it is hereby enacted and declared, That ſo much of the Monies ariſing by the ſaid weekly Payments out of the ſaid Branches of Exciſe, as ſhall be ſufficient, from time to time, to diſcharge the ſaid Annuities from and after the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, during the Continuance of the ſaid Annuities reſpectively, and ſo much of the ſaid Contribution-money to be advanced on this Act, as ſhall be ſufficient to diſcharge all the Payments which ſhall or may grow due on the ſaid Annuities, from the ſaid Twenty fifth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and four, until and for the ſaid Twenty fifth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five incluſively, ſhall be appropriated and applied, and are hereby appropriated to and for the Payment of the ſaid Annuities, according to the true Meaning of this Act, and ſhall not be divertible or diverted to any other Uſe, Intent, or Purpoſe whatſoever, under ſuch Penalties, Forfeitures, and Diſabilities, as are before mentioned.

Monies appropriated for Payment of the Annuities.

XXX. Provided always, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall or may purchaſe or obtain, or be admitted to purchaſe or obtain, any Annuity upon this Act, for any Term, Eſtate, or Intereſt whatſoever, unleſs the whole, or One Third Part of the Conſideration Money for the ſame, at ſuch reſpective Rate, as aforeſaid, be advanced and paid into the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer, on or before the ſaid Firſt Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and four.

One Third Part of the Purchaſe Money to be paid by 1 May, 1704.

XXXI. Provided alſo, That in caſe any ſuch Contributor, as aforeſaid, who ſhall on or before the ſaid Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and four, have advanced One Third Part only of his or her Purchaſe Money, his or her Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, do not advance and pay into the Receipt of Exchequer, One other Third Part of his or her Conſideration Money, ſo to be paid for ſuch reſpective Annuity or Annuities, as aforeſaid, on or before the ſaid Twenty fourth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and four; and the remaining Third Part thereof on or before the ſaid Twenty ninth Day of September, in the ſame Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and four; then, and in every ſuch Caſe reſpectively, no Order ſhall be drawn or ſigned for ſuch reſpective Annuity for which the Conſideration Money ſhall not be fully paid, as aforeſaid, but ſo much of the Conſideration Money as ſhall have been actually paid into the Exchequer for ſuch reſpective Annuity, ſhall be forfeited and loſt to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, and be applied, together with other the Monies to be raiſed by this Act, for the Purpoſes aforeſaid; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

any Perſon or Perſons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate (who have hereby Power and Authority to lend and advance the ſame) for the Service of carrying on the ſaid War, and other Her neceſſary Occaſions, any Sum or Sums of Money, which, together with the whole Amount of all the Conſideration or Purchaſe Monies, paid or to be paid, in ready Money or by Proportions, as aforeſaid, for the ſaid Annuities, ſhall not exceed in the whole the ſaid Sum of One million and two hundred thouſand Pounds, beſides ſo much as ſhall be neceſſary to diſcharge the purchaſed Annuities, until and for the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſaid ſeven hundred and five, as aforeſaid; which Loans ſhall be regiſtred and repaid in Courſe, according to the Dates of the Tallies, and Intereſt ſhall be allowed for the ſaid Loans after the Rate of Six Pounds per Centum per Annum, and payable quarterly; and the Principal and Intereſt of the ſaid Loans ſhall be charged upon, and payable out of, all the Monies, which ſhall ariſe by the ſaid weekly Payments, over and above ſo much as will be ſufficient to ſatisfy the ſaid annual Payments, after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, to the ſaid Patentees, and thoſe claiming under them, and over and above ſo much as ſhall be ſufficient to ſatisfy ſo many Annuities as ſhall have been actually purchaſed upon this Act: And that Tallies of Loan ſhall be levied for the Monies ſo lent, and Orders ſhall be drawn and ſigned for Repayment of the ſame, with ſuch Intereſt as aforeſaid, according to the Courſe of the Exchequer; and that ſuch Orders, or any Part thereof, ſhall be aſſignable, ſuch Aſſignments being firſt entred in the Office of the Auditor of the ſaid Receipt; and that no Monies ſo to be lent ſhall be chargeable with any Taxes, Rates, or Impoſitions; and all the Monies ariſing by the ſaid weekly Payments out of the ſaid Branches of Exciſe (over and above ſo much as will be ſufficient to ſatisfy the ſaid annual Payments, after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, and ſo many Annuities as ſhall have been actually purchaſed upon this Act, as aforeſaid) ſhall be applied and appropriated, and the ſame are hereby appropriated to and for the Repayment of the ſaid Loans in Courſe, with ſuch Intereſt as aforeſaid, unto ſuch Perſon or Perſons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, who ſhall lend or advance the ſame, as aforeſaid, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, Succeſſors, or Aſſigns reſpectively, without any Fee or Charge whatſoever, and ſhall not be diverted or be divertible to any other Uſe or Purpoſe whatſoever, under the like Penalties and Forfeitures as are by this Act preſcribed for diverting or miſapplying any of the Money that ought to be applied to the Payment of the ſaid Annuities: And in caſe all the Monies ſo to be borrowed, with the Intereſt thereof, ſhall not be repaid by or before the Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, then the Remainder thereof ſhall be ſatisfied out of the next Aids to be granted by Parliament, after the ſame Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix.

CAP. IV.

An Act for the publick regiſtring of all Deeds, Conveyances, and Wills, that ſhall be made of any Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, within the Weſt Riding of the County of York, after the Nine and twentieth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and four.

Farther Proviſions relating hereto by 5 Annæ, c. 18. and 6 Annæ, c. 35. ſ. 34.

A Memorial of all Deeds and Conveyances made after 29 Sept. 1704. and of all Wills, &c. made in the Weſt Riding of York-ſhire, may be regiſtred.

WHEREAS the Weſt Riding of the County of York is the principal Place in the North for the Cloth Manufacture, and moſt of the Traders therein are Freeholders, and have frequent Occaſions to borrow Money upon their Eſtates for managing their ſaid Trade, but for want of a Regiſter find it difficult to give Security to the Satisfaction of the Money Lenders (although the Security they offer be really good) by Means whereof the ſaid Trade is very much obſtructed, and many Families ruined: For the Remedying whereof may it pleaſe Your moſt Excellent Majeſty, at the humble Requeſt of the Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the ſaid Weſt Riding, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That a Memorial of all Deeds and Conveyances, which from and after the Nine and twentieth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and four, ſhall be made and executed, and of all Wills and Deviſes in Writing made or to be made and publiſhed, where the Deviſor or Teſtator ſhall die after the ſaid Nine and twentieth Day of September, of or concerning, and whereby any Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments in the ſaid Weſt Riding, may be any Way affected in Law or Equity, may, at the Election of the Party or Parties concerned, be regiſtred in ſuch Manner as is herein after directed; and that every Deed or Conveyance that ſhall, at any Time after any Memorial is ſo regiſtred, be made and executed of the Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or any Part thereof, comprized or contained in any ſuch Memorial, ſhall be adjudged fraudulent and void againſt any ſubſequent Purchaſer or Mortgagee for valuable Conſideration, unleſs ſuch Memorial thereof ſhall be regiſtred as by this Act is directed, before the regiſtring of the Memorial of the Deed or Conveyance under which ſuch ſubſequent Purchaſer or Mortgagee ſhall claim; and that every Deviſe by Will of the Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or any Part thereof, mentioned or contained in any Memorial ſo regiſtred, as aforeſaid, that ſhall be made and publiſhed after the regiſtring of ſuch Memorial, ſhall be adjudged fraudulent and void againſt any ſubſequent Purchaſer or Mortgagee for valuable Conſideration, unleſs a Memorial of ſuch Will be regiſtred in ſuch Manner as is herein after directed.

Regiſter's Office to be kept at Wakefield.

II. And for ſettling and eſtabliſhing a certain Method, with proper Rules and Directions for regiſtring ſuch Memorials, as aforeſaid, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That One publick Office for regiſtring ſuch Memorials of and concerning any Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, that are ſituate, lying, and being within the ſaid Weſt Riding, ſhall be eſtabliſhed and kept at Wakefield, the neareſt Market Town to the Center or Middle of the ſaid Weſt Riding, to be managed and executed by a fit and able Perſon, to be from time to time elected and appointed in Manner herein after directed, or his ſufficient Deputy, and to continue in the ſaid Office for ſo long Time as he ſhall well demean himſelf therein.

III. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Elections of a Regiſter to be made or appointed by virtue of this Act, ſhall be performed by ballotting in Manner following (that is to ſay) All the Freeholders that at the Time of any ſuch Election have an Eſtate of Freehold, of or in any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments within the ſaid Weſt Riding, of the yearly Value of One hundred Pounds (to be determined by the Oath of the Elector, before the Scrutators herein after-mentioned, if any Doubt ariſe touching the ſame, which Oath they are hereby impowered to adminiſter) ſhall be Electors of the ſaid Regiſter; and that the Juſtices of the Peace for the ſaid Weſt Riding, in that Behalf aſſembled, or the major Part of them, or any Five of ſuch Juſtices to be appointed by ſuch major Part, ſhall be Scrutators of the Ballot; who ſhall meet on the Day and Place of Election, and there, in the Preſence of the Electors, ſhall place One or more Glaſs Veſſels to be provided for that Purpoſe, into which each Elector preſent ſhall put One open Paper, containing the Name of ſuch Perſon as he approves of to be Regiſter: Which Papers ſhall be taken out again in the Preſence of the ſaid Scrutators, by a Perſon by them in that Behalf appointed; and the Name or Names of every Perſon therein ſhall be once tranſcribed in diſtinct Columns, and under each Name ſhall be ſet down the Number of their Electors, which ſhall be deliberately caſt up by the ſaid Scrutators, and the ſame ſhall be read over in the Hearing, and fixt up in the View, of the Electors then preſent; and the Perſon upon whom the Majority ſhall fall, ſhall be declared Regiſter.

Regiſter to be elected by Ballotting. Manner of Election.

IV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Election of a Perſon to be the firſt Regiſter, ſhall be made at the next General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace to be holden for the ſaid Weſt Riding, after the Feaſt of Eaſter, in the ſaid Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and four, in open Court, on the Second Day of the ſaid Seſſions, between the Hours of Nine in the Morning, and Three in the Afternoon.

Time of electing the firſt Regiſter.

V. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That when and as often as the ſaid Office ſhall become vacant by the Death, Forfeiture, or Surrender of any ſuch Regiſter, the Juſtices of the Peace for the ſaid Weſt Riding, aſſembled at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, next after ſuch Vacancy ſhall happen, or the major Part of them, ſhall in open Court declare the ſaid Vacancy, and by Order of the ſame Seſſions ſhall appoint and prefix a certain Day and Time, within the Space of One Calendar Month, and above Three Weeks enſuing the End of ſuch General Quarter Seſſions, for the Electors to aſſemble at Wakefield aforeſaid, to chooſe a fit and able Perſon, in the Manner aforeſaid, to ſupply the ſaid Vacancy: And to the Intent that all Perſons qualified to be Electors, may have due Notice of ſuch Vacancy, and Time of Election of a ſucceeding Regiſter, the Clerk of the Peace for the time being for the ſaid Weſt Riding ſhall forthwith cauſe Copies of ſuch Order, for the prefixing the Time of ſuch Election, to be delivered to the reſpective Chief Conſtables of the ſeveral Wapentakes within the ſaid Weſt Riding, who ſhall and are hereby required to publiſh the ſame in full Market in every Market Town within their ſeveral Wapentakes, on the next Market Day after the Receipt thereof, and to affix the ſame in the moſt publick Place of Reſort there.

Upon Death, &c. of Regiſter a new One to be choſen.

VI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That upon the Death of any ſuch Regiſter, and until another Election of a Perſon to execute that Office ſhall be made in Manner aforeſaid, the Executors and Adminiſtrators of the Regiſter deceaſed, together with the Sureties for the ſaid Regiſter, or their Executors and Adminiſtrators, ſhall appoint a proper Perſon to execute the Office of Regiſter, for whoſe Demeanor in the Execution of the ſaid Office the Security given for ſuch Regiſter deceaſed ſhall be anſwerable.

During the Vacancy, Executors of Regiſter to appoint a Perſon to execute the Office.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Memorials, ſo to be entred or regiſtred, ſhall be put into Writing, in Vellum or Parchment, and directed to the Regiſter of the ſaid Office; and in caſe of Deeds and Conveyances, ſhall be under the Hand and Seal of ſome or One of the Grantors, or ſome or One of the Grantees, his or their Guardians or Truſtees, atteſted by Two Witneſſes, One whereof to be One of the Witneſſes to the Execution of ſuch Deed or Conveyance; which Witneſs ſhall, upon his Oath before the ſaid Regiſter, or his Deputy, prove the ſigning and ſealing of the ſaid Memorial, and the Execution of the Deed or Conveyance mentioned in ſuch Memorial; and in caſe of Wills, the Memorials ſhall be under the Hand and Seal of ſome or One of the Deviſees, his or their Guardians or Truſtees, atteſted by Two Witneſſes, One whereof ſhall, upon his Oath before the ſaid Regiſter or his Deputy, prove the ſigning and ſealing of ſuch Memorial; which reſpective Oaths the ſaid Regiſter or his Deputy is hereby impowered to adminiſter.

How Memorials ſhall be written, and directed, &c.

Deeds and Conveyances.

Wills.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Memorial of any Deed, Conveyance, or Will, ſhall contain the Day of the Month, and the Year when ſuch Deed, Conveyance, or Will bears Date, and the Names and Additions of all the Parties to ſuch Deed or Conveyance, and of the Deviſor, or Teſtatrix of ſuch Will, and of all the Witneſſes to ſuch Deed, Conveyance, or Will, and the Places of their Abode, and ſhall expreſs or mention the Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, contained in ſuch Deed, Conveyance, or Will, and the Names of all the Pariſhes, Townſhips, Hamlets, Precincts, or Extraparochial Places, within the ſaid Weſt Riding, where any ſuch Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments are lying or being, that are given, granted, conveyed, deviſed, or any Way affected or charged by any ſuch Deed, Conveyance, or Will, in ſuch Manner as the ſame are expreſſed or mentioned in ſuch Deed, Conveyance, or Will, or to the ſame Effect; and that every ſuch Deed, Conveyance, and Will, or Probate of the ſame, of which ſuch Memorial is ſo to be regiſtred, as aforeſaid, ſhall be produced to the ſaid Regiſter or his Deputy, at the Time of entring ſuch Memorial, who ſhall indorſe a Certificate on every ſuch Deed, Conveyance, and Will, or Probate thereof, and therein mention the certain Day, Hour, and Time on which ſuch Memorial is ſo entred and regiſtred, expreſſing alſo in what Book, Page, and Number the ſame is entred, and that the ſaid Regiſter, or his Deputy, ſhall ſign the ſaid Certificate when ſo indorſed; which Certificates ſhall be taken and allowed as Evidence of ſuch reſpective Regiſtries in all Courts of Record whatſoever; and that every Page of ſuch Regiſter Books, and every Memorial that ſhall be entred therein, ſhall be numbred, and the Day of the the Month, and the Year, and Hour, or Time of the Day, when every Memorial is regiſtred, ſhall be entred in the Margins of the ſaid Regiſter Books, and of the ſaid Memorial; and that every ſuch Regiſter ſhall keep an Alphabetical Calendar of all Pariſhes, Extraparochial Places, and Townſhips within the ſaid Weſt Riding, with Reference to the Number of every Memorial that concerns the Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, in every ſuch Pariſh, Extraparochial Place, or Townſhip reſpectively, and of the Names of the Parties mentioned in ſuch Memorial; and that ſuch Regiſter ſhall duly file every ſuch Memorial in Order of Time, as the ſame ſhall be brought to the ſaid Office, and enter or regiſter the ſaid Memorials in the ſame Order that they ſhall reſpectively come to his Hand.

Regiſter to keep an alphabetical Calendar.

Memorials to be filed and entred in Order.

IX. And be it further enacted, That every ſuch Regiſter, before he enter upon the Execution of the ſaid Office, ſhall be ſworn before the Juſtices of the Peace for the ſaid Riding, or any Three or more of them that ſhall be preſent at his Election (who are hereby impowered and required to adminiſter ſuch Oath) in theſe Words:

Regiſter's Oath.

YOU ſhall truly and faithfully perform and execute the Office and Duty that is directed and required by Act of Parliament, in regiſtring Memorials of Deeds, Conveyances, and Wills, within the Weſt Riding of the County of York, ſo long as you ſhall continue in the ſaid Office; and that you have not given nor promiſed, directly nor indirectly, nor authorized any Perſon to give or promiſe any Money, Gratuity, or Reward whatſoever, for procuring or obtaining the ſaid Office for you:

So help you GOD.

Regiſter's Deputy to take the ſaid Oath

X. And that when and as often as the ſaid Regiſter ſhall appoint any Deputy to execute the ſaid Office, ſuch Deputy ſhall, before he enter upon the Execution thereof, take the ſaid Oath appointed to be taken by the Regiſter, before Two or more Juſtices of the Peace for the ſaid Riding, who are hereby impowered and required to adminiſter ſuch Oath; and that every Regiſter, at the Time of his being ſworn into the ſaid Office, ſhall alſo enter into a Recognizance with Two or more ſufficient Sureties, to be approved of by Five or more of the Juſtices of the Peace of the ſaid Riding that were preſent at his ſaid Election, by Writing under their Hands and Seals, to be regiſtred at the next General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace for the ſaid Riding, of the Penalty of Two thouſand Pounds unto Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, to be taken by the ſame Juſtices of the Peace that approved of his Security, conditioned for his true and faithful Performance of his Duty in the Execution of his ſaid Office: The ſame to be tranſmitted by the ſame Juſtices of the Peace, within One Month next after the Date thereof, into the Office of Her Majeſty's Remembrancer of the Exchequer, there to remain amongſt the Records of the ſaid Court.

Regiſter to give 2,000 l. Security.

If no Miſbehaviour appear in 3 Years after Death, &c. of Regiſter, ſuch Recognizance to be void.

XI. Provided nevertheleſs, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That when any Regiſter ſhall die, or ſurrender his Office, and that within the Space of Three Years, from and after ſuch Death or Surrender, no Miſbehaviour appear to have been committed by ſuch Regiſter, in the Execution of his ſaid Office, then and in ſuch Caſe, at the End of the ſaid Three Years after his Death or Surrender, the ſaid Recognizance, ſo entred into by him, ſhall become void and of no Effect, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever.

Times of Attendance in the Office.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every ſuch Regiſter, or his ſufficient Deputy, ſhall give due Attendance at his Office every Day in the Week (except Sundays and Holidays) between the Hours of Nine and Twelve in the Forenoon, and the Hours of Two and Five in the Afternoon, for the Diſpatch of all Buſineſs belonging to the ſaid Office; and that every ſuch Regiſter, or his Deputy, as often as required, ſhall make Searches concerning all Memorials that are regiſtred, as aforeſaid, and give Certificates concerning the ſame under his Hand, if required by any Perſon.

Allowances for entring Memorials, and for Certificates.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every ſuch Regiſter ſhall be allowed for the Entry of every ſuch Memorial, as is by this Act directed, the Sum of One Shilling, and no more, in caſe the ſame do not exceed Two hundred Words; but if ſuch Memorial ſhall exceed Two hundred Words, then after the Rate and Proportion of Six Pence an Hundred, for all the Words contained in ſuch Memorial, over and above the firſt Two hundred Words: And the like Fees for the like Number of Words, contained in every Certificate or Copy given out of the ſaid Office, and no more, and for every Search in the ſaid Office One Shilling, and no more.

as they can, inform themſelves of ſuch Boy's Age, and from ſuch Information ſhall inſert the ſame in the ſaid Indentures; and the Age of ſuch Boy ſo inſerted and mentioned in the ſaid Indentures (in relation to the Continuance of his Service) ſhall be taken to be his true Age, without any further Proof thereof.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Churchwardens and Overſeers of the Poor for the time being, of the ſeveral and reſpective Pariſhes, from whence any ſuch Boy ſhall be bound Apprentice to the ſaid Service, as aforeſaid, ſhall pay down to ſuch Maſter, to whom the Boy is bound, at the Time of his binding, the Sum of Fifty Shillings, to provide neceſſary Clothing and Bedding for Sea Service, for ſuch Boy; and the Charges by this Act appointed ſhall be allowed to the ſaid Churchwardens and Overſeers on their Accounts.

Churchwardens to pay down 50s. for Boys neceſſary Clothing, &c. and be allowed the ſame in their Accounts.

III. And whereas in many large Pariſhes within this Realm, there are ſeveral Townſhips or Villages, and Overſeers of the Poor are choſen and appointed within and for each ſuch Townſhip or Village reſpectively; be it therefore enacted, That the Overſeers of the Poor of every ſuch Townſhip or Village ſhall and may, from time to time, within every ſuch Townſhip or Village, do, perform, and execute all and every the Acts, Powers, and Authorities hereby enacted or directed to be done, performed, or executed by the Churchwardens or Overſeers of the Poor of a Pariſh; any thing herein contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Overſeers of the Poor of any Townſhip or Village may act as Churchwardens.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no ſuch Apprentice or Apprentices ſhall be compelled, or impreſſed, or permitted or ſuffered to liſt or enter him or themſelves into Her Majeſty's Service at Sea, or into the Sea Service of Her Majeſty's Heirs or Succeſſors, till ſuch Apprentice or Apprentices reſpectively arrive to the Age of Eighteen Years.

No ſuch Apprentice to be impreſſed, &c. until 18 Years old.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Churchwardens and Overſeers of the Pariſh, out of which any ſuch Boy ſhall be bound an Apprentice, ſhall ſend the ſaid Indentures to the Collector of Her Majeſty's Cuſtoms, reſiding at or belonging to any Port or Ports within this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, whereunto ſuch Maſters or Owners of Ships or Veſſels, to whom ſuch Apprentice or Apprentices ſhall be bound, do or may belong; who ſhall, in a fair Book or Books to be by him kept for that Purpoſe, fairly enter, from time to time, all and every Indenture and Indentures, whereby ſuch Apprentice and Apprentices ſhall be bound, and which ſhall be ſo ſent unto him, and ſhall make an Indorſement upon the ſaid Indentures of the Regiſtry thereof, ſubſcribed by the ſaid Collector, without taking any Fee or other Reward for the ſame: And every ſuch Collector neglecting or refuſing to enter ſuch Indentures, and indorſe the ſame, or making falſe Entries, ſhall forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds for the Uſe of the Poor of the Pariſh, from whence ſuch Boy was bound Apprentice: And all and every ſuch Collector or Collectors, or his or their lawful Deputy or Deputies, of the ſaid ſeveral and reſpective Ports, ſhall from time to time tranſmit Certificates in Writing, under his or their Hands, to the Lord High Admiral of England, or to the Commiſſioners of the Admiralty for the time being, containing the Names and Ages of every ſuch Apprentice reſpectively, and to what Ship he belongs; and upon Receipt of ſuch Certificates, Protections ſhall, from time to time, be made and given for ſuch Apprentices, till they attain their ſeveral and reſpective Ages of Eighteen Years, without any Fee or Reward to be taken for the ſame; which Certificates, ſo as aforeſaid to be given, are not required to be writ upon ſtampt Paper or Parchment.

Lord Admiral to grant Protections for ſuch Apprentices, gratis.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every the Perſon and Perſons, to whom any poor Pariſh Boy hath been, or hereafter ſhall be, put Apprentice, according to the Statute made in the Forty third Year of the Reign of Queen ELIZABETH, may, with the Conſent and Approbation of Two or more Juſtices of the Peace of the ſame County, and dwelling in or near the ſame Pariſh where ſuch poor Boy was bound Apprentice, or by and with the Conſent and Approbation of any Mayor, Alderman, Bailiff, or other Chief Officer or Magiſtrate of any City, Borough, or Town Corporate, where ſuch poor Boy was bound Apprentice, at the Requeſt of the Maſter or Miſtreſs, then living, of ſuch Apprentices, or his or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, by Indenture, aſſign and turn over ſuch poor Boy Apprentice to any Maſter or Owner of any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, uſing the Sea Service, as aforeſaid, for and during the then remaining Time of his Apprenticeſhip; which Aſſignment and Aſſignments of ſuch Apprentices, ſo as aforeſaid, ſhall be, and are hereby declared to be good and effectual in the Law: All which Indentures of Aſſignment are hereby directed to be regiſtred, and Certificates thereof given and tranſmitted by ſuch Collector, at the ſaid ſeveral Ports where ſuch Pariſh Apprentices ſhall be ſo aſſigned over, and bound to the Sea Service, in Manner and Form aforeſaid; and upon Receipt of ſuch Certificates, Protections ſhall, from time to time, be made and given for ſuch Apprentices (ſo to be aſſigned over, as aforeſaid) till they ſhall attain their ſeveral and reſpective Ages of Eighteen Years, without Fee or Reward for the ſame, in like Manner as aforeſaid.

43 Eliz. c. 2.

Pariſh Boys bound Apprentices, may be turned over to the Sea Service. Indentures of Aſſignment to be regiſtred. Altered by 4 Annæ, c. 19. ſ. 16.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and ſingular ſuch poor Boys as are herein before-mentioned, or intended by this preſent Act to be bound and put out, and ſuch as ſhall be aſſigned over to the Sea Service, as aforeſaid, during their ſeveral aud reſpective Apprenticeſhips, till ſuch Time as they ſhall attain their ſeveral and reſpective Ages of Eighteen Years, ſhall be, and are hereby declared to be exempted, freed, and diſcharged of and from Payment of Six Pence per Month towards the better ſupporting of Greenwich Hoſpital, the Act of Parliament made in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of the late King WILLIAM the Third (of glorious Memory) intituled, An Act for the Increaſe and Encouragement of Seamen, or any Clauſe in the ſame contained to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

All ſuch Apprentices until 18 Years old exempted from the 6 d. per Month to Greenwich Hoſpital. See 2 Geo. 2. c. 7. ſ. 36. 7 & 8. W. 3. c. 21.

VIII. And for the better providing ſuch Apprentices with Maſters for the ſaid Service; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every of Her Majeſty's Subjects, being Maſters or Owners of any Ship or Ships, Veſſel or Veſſels, uſed in the Sea Service, as aforeſaid, of the Burthen of Thirty Tun to the Burthen of Fifty Tun, be obliged to take One ſuch Apprentice, and One more for the next Fifty Tun, and One more for each and every Maſters of Ships, &c. obliged to take ſuch Apprentices.

By 4 Annæ c. 19. ſect. 16. no Maſter ſhall be bound to take a Boy under 13 Years of Age, &c. and to give an Account of their Names, &c.

every Hundred Tun, ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall exceed the Burthen of One hundred Tun: And ſuch Maſter or Owner of any Ship or Veſſel, refuſing to take ſuch Apprentice or Apprentices, as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds for the Uſe of the Poor of the Pariſh from whence ſuch Boy was bound Apprentice.

IX. And be it further enacted, That every Maſter or Owner of ſuch Ship or Ships, Veſſel or Veſſels, ſo obliged to take ſuch Apprentice or Apprentices, after his Arrival into any Port or Ports aforeſaid, and before he clears out of ſuch Port, ſhall give an Account in Writing, under his Hand, to the Collector of ſuch Port to which he belongs, containing the Names and Numbers of ſuch Apprentices as are then remaining in his Service.

How Apprentices ſhall be conveyed to the Ports to which their Maſters belong.

X. And for the better conveying and conducting all and every ſuch Apprentice and Apprentices, ſo to be bound, as aforeſaid, to his and their reſpective Maſter and Maſters; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every ſuch Apprentice and Apprentices ſhall, from time to time, be ſeverally and reſpectively ſent, conducted, and conveyed to the ſeveral and reſpective Ports, to which his or their Maſter ſhall reſpectively belong, by the Churchwardens and Overſeers of the Poor, or their Agents, of the Pariſh from whence ſuch Apprentice is bound, and the Charges thereof to be in the ſame manner, as is provided by an Act of Parliament made in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the Reign of His ſaid late Majeſty King William the Third, intituled, An Act for the more effectual Puniſhment of Vagrants, and ſending them whither by Law they ought to be ſent.

11 & 12 W. 3. c. 18.

The Counterparts of their Indentures to be tranſmitted to the Churchwardens, &c.

XI. And it is hereby directed, That the Counterpart of all and every ſuch Indentures, to be executed by the ſeveral and reſpective Maſters of all ſuch Apprentices, ſhall be ſealed and executed in the Preſence of, and atteſted by, the Collector at the Port aforeſaid (where ſuch Apprentices ſhall be bound or aſſigned over) and the Conſtable or other Officer, who ſhall bring or convey ſuch Apprentices to the ſaid ſeveral and reſpective Maſters; which Conſtables or Officers laſt mentioned ſhall tranſmit and convey the Counterparts of ſuch Indentures to the Churchwardens and Overſeers of the ſeveral Pariſhes from whence ſuch Apprentices ſhall be bound, by the ſame Ways and Means as ſuch Apprentice or Apprentices were conveyed to the ſaid ſeveral and reſpective Ports.

Juſtices to determine Complaints between Maſters and Apprentices.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That Two or more Juſtices of the Peace of the reſpective Counties, and dwelling in or near any of the Ports aforeſaid, and all Mayors, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and other Chief Officers and Magiſtrates of any City, Borough, or Town Corporate, in or near adjoining to ſuch Port or Ports, to which ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall at any time arrive, ſhall have full Power and Authority, and are hereby authorized and impowered to inquire into, and examine, hear, and determine all Complaints of hard or ill Uſage from the ſeveral and reſpective Maſters, to ſuch their Apprentice and Apprentices, ſo to be bound or aſſigned over, as aforeſaid, and alſo of all ſuch as already have, or who ſhall at any Time hereafter voluntarily put themſelves Apprentices to the Sea Service, as aforeſaid, and to make ſuch Orders therein, as now they are enabled by Law to do in other Caſes between Maſters and Apprentices.

Collector to keep a Regiſter, &c.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every ſuch Collector in every Port or Ports aforeſaid, ſhall, in their ſeveral and reſpective Stations, keep an exact Regiſter, containing as well the Number and Burthen of all ſuch Ships and Veſſels, together with the Maſters or Owners Names, as alſo the Names of ſuch Apprentices in each Ship and Veſſel belonging to their reſpective Ports, and from what Pariſhes and Places ſuch Apprentices were reſpectively ſent; and that ſuch Collectors ſhall tranſmit true Copies of ſuch Regiſter, ſigned by them, to the Quarter Seſſions, or to ſuch Cities, Boroughs, Towns Corporate, Pariſhes, or Places, when and ſo often as they ſhall be reaſonably required ſo to do; for which Copy or Copies, ſo to be tranſmitted as aforeſaid, no Fee or Reward ſhall be taken: And that every ſuch Collector refuſing or wilfully neglecting to tranſmit ſuch Copies, as aforeſaid, ſhall for every ſuch Refuſal or Neglect forfeit Five Pounds for the Uſe of the Poor of the Pariſh, from whence ſuch Boy was bound Apprentice.

and tranſmit a Copy thereof to the Quarter Seſſions, &c. gratis.

Officer to inſert on the Cocquet, the Number of Men and Boys on board, &c.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That every Cuſtom-houſe Officer or Officers, at each and every of the Ports aforeſaid, ſhall inſert, and are hereby required, from time to time, to inſert at the Bottom of their Cocquets, the Number of Men and Boys on board the reſpective Ships or Veſſels, at their going out of every ſuch Port, therein particularly deſcribing the Apprentices by their reſpective Names, Ages, and the Dates of their ſeveral Indentures, for which no Fee or Reward ſhall be taken.

Perſons voluntarily binding themſelves Apprentices to Sea Service, not to be impreſſed for 3 Years.
Explained by 4 Annæ, c. 19. ſect. 17.
Indentures to be regiſtred, and Protections given for the ſaid 3 Years.

XV. And for the Encouragement of all ſuch as have, or ſhall voluntarily bind themſelves Apprentices to the Sea Service; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every ſuch Perſon and Perſons, who have or ſhall ſo voluntarily, and of his or their own Accord, bind or put him or themſelves Apprentice to any ſuch Maſters or Owners of any Ship or Veſſel, as aforeſaid, ſhall not be compelled or impreſt into Her Majeſty's Sea Service, or the Sea Service of Her Majeſty's Heirs or Succeſſors, for and during the Term of Three Years, to be accounted from the Dates of the reſpective Indentures of ſuch voluntary Apprentice or Apprentices; all which Indentures are hereby directed to be regiſtred, and Certificates thereof given and tranſmitted by ſuch Collector at the ſaid ſeveral Ports, where ſuch Apprentices already have become ſo bound, or that hereafter ſhall ſo bind themſelves, in Manner and Form as aforeſaid; upon Receipt of which ſaid ſeveral Certificates, Protections ſhall, from time to time, be made and given, for the ſaid firſt Three Years of their ſeveral reſpective Apprenticeſhips, without either Fee or Reward for the ſame.

All lewd and diſorderly Men and Boys, deemed Vagabonds or ſturdy Beggars, by 39 Eliz. c. 4. to be taken up and conveyed into the Queen's Sea Service.

XVI. And foraſmuch as divers diſſolute and idle Perſons, Rogues, Vagabonds, and ſturdy Beggars, notwithſtanding the many good and wholſome Laws to the contrary, do continue to wander up and down, pilfering and begging through all Parts of this Kingdom, to the great Diſturbance of the Peace and Tranquillity of the Realm; for the more effectually ſuppreſſing ſuch diſorderly Perſons, and to the end that they may be made ſerviceable and beneficial to their Country; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all lewd and diſorderly Men Servants, and every ſuch Perſon and Perſons, both Men and Boys, that are deemed and adjudged Rogues, Vagabonds, and ſturdy Beggars (not being Felons) by an Act of Parliament made in the Nine and thirtieth Year of the Reign of the ſaid late Queen ELIZABETH, for puniſhing of Rogues, Vagabonds, and ſturdy Beggars, ſhall be and are hereby directed to be taken up, ſent, conducted, and conveyed into Her Majeſty's Service at Sea, or the Service at Sea of Her Majeſty's Heirs or Succeſſors, by ſuch Ways, Methods, and Means, and in ſuch Manner and Form, as is directed for Vagrants by the ſaid before-mentioned Act of Parliament, made in the ſaid Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the Reign of the ſaid late King WILLIAM the Third, For the more effectual Puniſhment of Vagrants, and ſending them whither by Law they ought to be ſent.

11 & 12. W. 3. c. 18.

XVII. And whereas Owners and Maſters of Merchant Ships are at great Charge in educating and bringing up the Pariſh Children, till they come to the Age of Eighteen Years, and other voluntary Apprentices Three Years, at which Time they are capable to ſerve in Her Majeſty's Ships of War; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, When ſuch Apprentices ſhall be impreſſed, or voluntarily enter themſelves into Her Majeſty's Service, the ſaid Owners or Maſters of ſuch Apprentices, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, ſhall be intitled to able Seamens Wages for ſuch of their Apprentices, as ſhall upon due Examination be found qualified for the ſame, notwithſtanding their Indentures of Apprenticeſhip.

When ſuch Apprentices ſhall be impreſſed, Maſters to have able Seamens Wages for them.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all the Penalties and Forfeitures directed by this Act, ſhall, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of any Two or more Juſtices of the Peace, of the ſame County, City, Borough, or Town Corporate, be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattles of the Offender, which Sale ſhall be good in the Law againſt ſuch Offender.

CAP. IX.

An Act for granting to Her Majeſty an additional Subſidy of Tunnage and Poundage for Three Years; and for laying a further Duty upon French Wines condemned as lawful Prize, and for aſcertaining the Values of unrated Goods imported from the Eaſt Indies.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

9 W. 3. c. 23.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and paſſed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King William the Third, of glorious Memory, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majeſty a further Subſidy of Tunnage and Poundage, towards raiſing the yearly Sum of Seven hundred thouſand Pounds, for the Service of His Majeſty's Houſhold, and other Uſes therein mentioned, during His Majeſty's Life; it was enacted, That over and above all Subſidies of Tunnage and Poundage, and over and above all additional Duties, Impoſitions, and other Duties whatſoever, therein mentioned, there ſhould be raiſed and paid to His Majeſty One other Subſidy called Tunnage, for and upon all Wines, which from and after the laſt Day of January, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, at any Time or Times, during His Majeſty's Life, ſhould be imported or brought into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed; and One further Subſidy called Poundage, of all Manner of Goods and Merchandizes imported or brought into this Realm, or any His Majeſty's Dominions to the ſame belonging, at any Time or Times after the ſaid laſt Day of January, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, during His Majeſty's Life, by way of Merchandize (except ſuch Goods and Merchandizes as are therein excepted) and with ſuch Abatements, Regulations, Directions for making Repayments or Allowances upon Exportation, and ſubject to ſuch Rules and other Matters and Things touching the ſaid ſeveral Subſidies, as in the ſaid Act are expreſſed; which ſaid further Subſidies of Tunnage and Poundage, and other Duties upon Wine, Goods, and Merchandizes, granted by the Act above recited, are to be raiſed and paid to Your Majeſty, during Your Life, by virtue of another Act of Parliament made and paſſed in the Firſt Year of Your Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better Support of Her Majeſty's Houſhold, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, as by the ſaid Acts (Relation being thereunto ſeverally had) may more fully appear:

1 Annæ, ſtat. 1. c. 7.

Now we Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of England, in Parliament aſſembled, for the better enabling Your Majeſty to carry on the preſent War, and to defray Your other neceſſary Expences, do cheerfully and unanimouſly give and grant unto Your moſt Excellent Majeſty, the additional Rates, Duties, and Sums of Money herein after-mentioned, and do moſt humbly beſeech Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That over and above the Subſidies of Tunnage and Poundage above-mentioned, and over and above all other Subſidies, additional Duties, Impoſitions, and Payments whatſoever, by any other Act or Acts of Parliament or otherwiſe howſoever already due or payable, or which ought to be paid to Her Majeſty for or upon any Wines, Goods, or Merchandizes whatſoever, imported or to be imported, there ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, paid, and ſatisfied unto Her Majeſty One other Subſidy called Tunnage, for and upon all Wines which from and after the Eighth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and three, at any Time or Times within or during the Space of Three Years from thence next and immediately enſuing, ſhall be imported or brought into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed; that is to ſay, One Third Part of ſuch or the like ſeveral and reſpective Duties, as by the ſaid recited Acts, or either of them, are impoſed or payable for or upon any kind of Wine or Wines reſpectively; and One other Subſidy called Poundage, of all Manner of Goods and Merchandizes to be imported or brought into this Realm, or any Her Majeſty's Dominions to the ſame belonging, at any Time or Times after the ſaid Eighth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and three, during the ſaid Term of Three Years, by way of Merchandize; that is to ſay, One Third Part of ſuch or the like ſeveral and reſpective Duties, as by the ſaid recited Acts, or either of them, are impoſed or payable for or upon the ſame Goods and Merchandizes reſpectively, except ſuch Goods and other Merchandizes as by the ſaid Acts, or either of them, are exempted from Payment of the Subſidies thereby granted.

One other Subſidy of Tunnage upon Wines imported after 8 March, 1703. for 3 Years. Farther continued by 4 Annæ c. 6. 5 Annæ, c. 19. and perpetuated by 1 Geo. 1. ſtat. 2. c. 12. ſ. 8.

Poundage on all Goods imported for 3 Years. Altered as to Tobacco by 9 Geo 1. c. 21. ſ. 3.

Exceptions.

II. And it is hereby enacted, That in all Caſes where by the ſaid former Acts, or either of them, any Drawbacks or Abatements are to be made of the whole or any Part of the Duties thereby impoſed, there ſhall be in the like Caſes proportionable Drawbacks and Abatements made of the whole or Part of the Duties by this Act granted reſpectively; and that the ſeveral Subſidies and Duties by this Act granted, during the Continuance thereof, ſhall be raiſed, collected, levied, ſecured, and paid, by the ſame Ways, Means, and Methods, and under ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, and ſubject to ſuch Rules and Directions, as in and by the ſaid Acts, or either of them, are preſcribed or appointed, touching or concerning the ſaid Subſidies of Tunnage and Poundage which were thereby granted, as aforeſaid; and that every Article, Rule, and Clauſe contained in the ſaid recited Acts, or either of them, concerning the ſaid Subſidies of Tunnage and Poundage formerly granted, as aforeſaid, and now in force, ſo far forth as the ſame do or may relate to the Subſidies or Duties formerly granted, as aforeſaid, ſhall be uſed, exerciſed, and put in Practice for the raiſing, levying, collecting, and anſwering the Subſidies and Duties hereby before granted, as fully and effectually as if the ſame Articles, Rules, and Clauſes, and every of them, were were again particularly and at large recited and re-enacted in the Body of this preſent Act: Except only as to ſuch of the ſaid Articles, Rules, and Clauſes, touching which other Proviſions, Alterations, or Exemptions are made by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in being; which other Proviſions, Alterations, or Exemptions ſhall be obſerved with reſpect to the Duties hereby granted, during the Continuance of this Act, in the ſame Manner as they are to be obſerved with reſpect to the ſaid Subſidies formerly granted, as aforeſaid.

Exception.

Drawback on Sugar refined in England, exported,

III. And it is hereby further enacted and declared, That for every Hundred Weight of Sugar refined in England (and ſo in Proportion for a greater or leſſer Quantity) which ſhall be exported out of this Kingdom, within or during the ſaid Term of Three Years, there ſhall be by this Act repaid at the Cuſtom-houſe to the Exporter, within One Month after the Demand thereof (over and above the Sum of Three Shillings payable by the above recited Acts, or One of them) the further Sum of One Shilling, and no more: Oath being firſt made by the Refiner, that the ſaid Sugar ſo exported was produced from Brown and Muſcovado Sugar, charged by this Act, and that, as he verily believes, the ſame was imported from Her Majeſty's Plantations in America; and that, as he verily believes, the Duty of the ſaid Brown and Muſcovado Sugar was duly paid at the Time of the Importation thereof, and that the ſame was duly exported, Her Majeſty's Searcher alſo certifying the ſhipping thereof, and all other Requiſites duly performed, according to the Book of Rates.

No Fee for Entry, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Officers of Her Majeſty's Cuſtoms, or any of them, or any of their Clerks or Subſtitutes, ſhall not directly or indirectly receive, take, or demand any Fee, Gratuity, or Reward whatſoever, from any of Her Majeſty's Subjects or Aliens, for any Entry, Warrant, Debenture, Certificate, Cocquet, or other Matter or Thing, to be done or performed by them, or any of them, in relation only to the ſaid Subſidies of Tunnage and Poundage herein before granted, on pain of forfeiting for every ſuch Offence the Sum of Forty Pounds (to wit) One Third thereof to Her Majeſty, and the other Two Thirds thereof (beſides Coſts of Suit) to the Party grieved, who may ſue for the ſame by Action of Debt, or of the Caſe, Bill, Suit, or Information, in any of Her Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than One Imparlance ſhall be allowed.

Penalty 40 l.

V. And whereas all Wines of the Growth or Product of France, or of any Dominions under the French King, are by ſeveral Laws and Statutes of this Realm liable to the Payment of ſeveral Duties upon the Importation thereof, and particularly by an Act of Parliament made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His ſaid late Majeſty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majeſty an additional Duty upon all French Goods and Merchandizes; it was enacted (amongſt other things) That for every Tun of French Wine imported within the Time therein mentioned, there ſhould be paid Five and twenty Pounds above the Duties before charged thereupon; but by another Act made in the Eighth Year of the ſame King's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majeſty a further Subſidy of Tunnage and Poundage upon Merchandize imported, for the Term of Two Years and Three Quarters, and an additional Land Tax for One Year, for carrying on the War againſt France, it was provided, That nothing in the ſaid Act of the Seventh Year of His ſaid late Majeſty's Reign ſhould charge any Merchandizes of the Growth of France, which ſhould be bona fide ſeized or taken, and condemned as Prize, with any further or other Duties than what they were or ought to have been charged withal, before the making of the Act laſt-mentioned; and Her Majeſty by Her Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the Firſt Day of June, in the Firſt Year of Her Reign, for the Encouragement of Her Ships of War and Privateers, hath been pleaſe to ſubject all French Wines (amongſt other Things) taken and condemned as lawful Prize, to the Payment of the Duties and Cuſtoms payable by Law, other than the ſaid Duty of Five and twenty Pounds per Tun: Now Her Majeſty's ſaid dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of England, in Parliament aſſembled, being deſirous to encourage the Trade to Portugal, and alſo to raiſe Monies for carrying on the preſent War, and other Her Majeſty's Occaſions, do further grant to Her Majeſty the additional Duty, herein after-mentioned, upon all French Wines to be taken and condemned, or adjudged as lawful Prize; and do beſeech Your Majeſty that it may be enacted: And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for every Tun of any Wines of the Growth or Product of France, or of any Dominions under the French King, ſeized or taken, or to be ſeized or taken by any Her Majeſty's Ships, or by any Privateers, or otherwiſe, and which at any Time or Times, during the Term of Three Years above-mentioned, ſhall be condemned or adjudged as lawful Prize, there ſhall be paid to Her Majeſty the Sum of Fifteen Pounds of lawful Engliſh Money, over and above the Duties already charged thereupon, without Deduction, and ſo proportionably for a greater or leſſer Quantity; the ſame to be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid to Her Majeſty's Uſe, by ſuch Ways and Means, and under ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, and in ſuch Manner and Form, as the Subſidy of Wines by this Act granted is to be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid, or by deducting the ſame out of the Proceed of the reſpective Prizes, as the other Duties of the ſame Wines are directed by the ſaid Proclamation to be deducted.

How to be raiſed, &c.

VI. And whereas ſeveral Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes of the Growth, Product, or Manufacture of the Eaſt Indies or China, or of other Parts within the Limits of the Charters granted to the Companies, and other Traders who are allowed to trade to the Eaſt Indies, are not particularly rated in the Book of Rates eſtabliſhed by Law, but are by ſeveral Laws and Statutes now in Force charged, upon the Importation thereof, with ſeveral Duties to be paid according to the Values of the ſaid Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes reſpectively: Now for the better ſecuring ſuch Duties, and aſcertaining the Values, according to which ſuch Duties ſhall be paid for the future, it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Eighth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and three, upon the Importation of any ſuch unrated Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, of the Growth, Product, or Manufacture of the Eaſt Indies, China, or other the Parts within the Limits aforeſaid, now liable to pay Duties ad valorem, as aforeſaid, by any Act or Acts of Parliament already made in that Behalf, during the Continuance of the ſame Act and Acts of Parliament, or any of them, an Entry or Entries thereof ſhall be made in the Cuſtom-houſe, where ſuch Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes ſhall be be imported, and before the landing thereof, the Importer or Importers of the ſame ſhall give Security by Bond, with Two or more ſufficient Sureties (which the Commiſſioners or proper Officers of the Cuſtoms are hereby impowered to take) for Payment of the ſaid Duties, according to the real Values of the ſaid Goods, to be aſcertained according to this Act (except Coffee, the Duties whereof are to be regulated according to the former Acts concerning the ſame) as ſoon as the ſaid Goods ſhall be ſold; and alſo for expoſing the Goods, ſo imported to Sale, openly and fairly by way of Auction, or by Inch of Candle, within the City of London, within the Time of Twelve Months after the Importation thereof.

How ſuch Goods ſhall be valued, and what Deductions and Allowances made.

VII. And it is hereby enacted and declared, That the Value of ſuch Goods, according to which the ſaid Duties are to be paid (except Coffee, as aforeſaid) ſhall be reckoned according to the groſs Price at which ſuch Goods ſhall be ſo ſold, making ſuch Allowances only out of the ſame as are herein after-mentioned; that is to ſay, it is hereby enacted, That out of the Values of the ſaid Goods ſo to be aſcertained by the Price at the Candle, as aforeſaid, there ſhall be a Deduction and Allowance made of ſo much as the Net Duties, payable to Her Majeſty for the ſame Goods reſpectively, do amount unto (except the Duty of Five Pounds per Centum, payable to the Queen for the Uſe of the ſaid Companies) and ſo much as the reſpective Companies, or Traders aforeſaid, ſhall bona fide allow for prompt Payment to the Perſons who at ſuch Sales ſhall buy the ſaid Goods at Time: And alſo upon the whole Values of the ſaid Goods ſo to be aſcertained by the Price at the Candle, there ſhall be deducted and allowed Six Pounds for every Hundred Pounds to the ſaid Companies and Traders reſpectively, for their Charges in keeping the ſaid Goods, from the Time ſuch Goods are imported till the Sale by the Candle, and in that Proportion for a greater or leſſer Value.

Such unrated Goods landed before due Entry, &c.

to be forfeited, &c.

Duties how to be applied.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any ſuch unrated Goods of the Growth, Product, or Manufacture of the Eaſt Indies, China, or other the Parts within the Limits aforeſaid, ſhall be landed or put on ſhore out of any Ship or Veſſel, before due Entry thereof be made at the Cuſtom-houſe in the Port or Place where the ſame ſhall be imported, and the ſaid Duties ſhall be ſecured, as aforeſaid, or without a Warrant for the landing or delivering the ſame, firſt ſigned by the Commiſſioners, Collectors, or other proper Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms reſpectively, that all ſuch imported Goods as ſhall be ſo landed and put on ſhore, or taken out of any Ship or Veſſel, contrary to the true Meaning hereof, or the Value of the ſame, ſhall be forfeited, and ſhall and may be ſeized or recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof (to wit) Two Thirds of the ſame to the Uſe of Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors (ſhe or they bearing the Charge of the Proſecution) and the other Third Part to the Uſe of ſuch Perſon or Perſons as will ſeize, inform, or ſue for the ſame, or the Value thereof, by Action, Bill, Suit, or Information, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed: Nevertheleſs the ſaid Duties ſo to be paid upon the Values ſo aſcertained of the ſaid unrated Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes (except the neceſſary Charges of raiſing, collecting, and anſwering the ſame) ſhall be applied and diſpoſed to the ſame Uſes and Purpoſes to which the reſpective Duties upon the ſame Goods, payable in any other Manner by any former Act or Acts, were appropriated or applicable.

The like Drawbacks as by former Acts.

IX. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That in all Caſes where by the ſaid former Acts concerning the ſaid Duties of unrated Goods, or any of them, any Drawbacks or Allowances were to be made of all or any Part of the Duties, upon the Exportation thereof within the reſpective Time or Times thereby limited, there ſhall be the like Drawbacks or Allowances made of or out of the Duties of the ſame Goods, to be aſcertained by this Act.

X. Provided alſo, That nothing in this Act ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend to charge any Goods or Merchandize, chargeable by this Act, imported into any Port of this Kingdom before the Firſt Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and three.

Nine Months given for paying the Duties on Tobacco.

6 per Cent. Diſcount on prompt Payment.

XI. Provided alſo, and be it enacted, That all Perſons importing any Tobacco, hereby charged with any the Duties aforeſaid, ſhall have Nine Months Time, from the Entry of the Tobacco inwards, for Payment of the Duty hereby impoſed upon the ſame, giving Bond, with ſufficient Sureties, to Her Majeſty for Payment thereof at the End of the ſaid Nine Months, as in like Caſes is uſual; and in caſe of prompt Payment the Importer ſhall have a Diſcount after the Rate of Six Pounds per Centum per Annum.

No Drawback on Wares made of foreign wrought Iron, &c.

XII. And for the Encouragement of the Iron Manufacture of this Kingdom; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Eighth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and three, there ſhall not be allowed any Drawback, or Repayment of Cuſtoms, or Duties, charged in this or any former Act, upon any Wares made of wrought Iron or Steel in foreign Parts, which ſhall be imported into this Kingdom, and afterwards exported to any of Her Majeſty's Plantations in America; any Clauſe in this or any former Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

XIII. And whereas the Time for Exportation of Tobacco, Sugar, Ginger, Pepper, Bugles alias Beads, Caſt and Bar Iron, Dying Wood, all Dying Wares, and all Drugs, by Engliſh Merchants, in order to draw back, is limited to Twelve Months, which by Experience is found to be too ſhort, and very inconvenient to Trade; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Engliſh Merchants ſhall, from the ſaid Eighth Day of March, have Eighteen Months Time from the Entry inwards of all Tobacco, Sugar, Ginger, Pepper, Bugles alias Beads, Caſt and Bar Iron, all Dying Wood, Dying Wares, and all Drugs, to export the ſame: And ſhall have the like Benefit and Drawback by ſuch Exportation, as if the ſame had been exported within Twelve Months, according to the Second Rule in the Book of Rates; the ſaid Rule or any other Law or Cuſtom now in force relating thereunto notwithſtanding: Provided Certificates be taken forth, and Oath made, and all other Requiſites performed according to the Laws now in being.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That in all Caſes where the Oath of Merchants, importing and exporting, is by Law required to obtain any Drawback or Allowance upon the Exportation of any foreign Goods, the making of ſuch Oath by the Agent or Huſband of any Corporation, or Company trading by a joint Stock, affirming the Truth Oath of the Agent or Husband of any Company, &c. or Servant of Merchant, &c. ſufficient.

Truth of the Officers Certificate of the Entry and due Payment of the Duties of ſuch foreign Goods by any ſuch Company or Corporation; and the making of ſuch Oath by the known Servant of any Merchant uſually imployed in the making his Entries, and paying his Cuſtoms, for any Goods of a Merchant ſo to be exported, ſhall be of the like Effect as if the ſaid Oaths were made by any particular Merchant or Merchants themſelves.

Unrated Goods how to be aſcertained.

XV. And for aſcertaining the Values of any unrated Goods imported before the ſaid Eighth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and three, from the Eaſt Indies and China, or any other Parts within the Limits aforeſaid, by the Two Companies impowered to trade thither, or either of them; it is hereby further enacted, That the Oath of Two Directors or Members of the Committee of the ſaid Companies ſhall be admitted to affirm the Value of ſuch Goods ſo already imported, according to which the Duties ad valorem for the ſame are to be paid; any former Act or Acts of Parliament or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Monies ariſing on the ſaid Duties, to be paid into the Exchequer.

Payment in courſe.

Monies liable to ſatisfy the Lenders.

No Fee for regiſtring, &c.

Payments to be made according to each Perſon's due Place and Order.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all the Monies ariſing by the additional Subſidy of Tunnage and Poundage hereby granted, and by the ſaid additional Duty, after the Rate of Fifteen Pounds per Tun upon all French Wines to be condemned as lawful Prize, as aforeſaid (except the neceſſary Charges of raiſing and anſwering the ſaid Subſidy and additional Duty reſpectively) ſhall from time to time be brought and paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer; and that it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon and Perſons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to lend to Her Majeſty at the ſaid Receipt, upon Credit of the ſaid Subſidy of Tunnage and Poundage, and the ſaid additional Duty on French Wines condemned as Prize, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Three hundred thouſand Pounds; and upon another Act of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to Her Majeſty by continuing the Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder, and Perry, for One Year, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole Six hundred and fifty thouſand Pounds, including all Loans made thereupon; and that all Perſons who ſhall have lent upon the ſaid Credits, or either of them, ſhall have Intereſt for the Forbearance of their reſpective Loans by them made, or to be made, after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be paid every Three Months from the making of ſuch Loans, until Satisfaction of the principal Sums reſpectively; and that no Monies, ſo lent or to be lent, ſhall be rated or aſſeſſed to any Tax or Aſſeſſment whatſoever; and that every ſuch Lender ſhall immediately have a Talley of Loan ſtruck for the Money by him, her, or them lent, and an Order of the ſame Date for Repayment thereof, with ſuch Intereſt as aforeſaid; and that all ſuch Orders ſhall be regiſtred in courſe, according to their Dates (to wit) the Orders for Loans on the ſaid Duties on Malt, Mum, Cyder, and Perry, on a Regiſter to be kept for that Act, and the Orders for Loans on the ſaid Subſidy, and additional Duty, by this Act granted, on a diſtinct Regiſter for ſuch Loans; and all Perſons on the ſaid reſpective Regiſters ſhall be paid in courſe, as their Orders ſhall ſtand regiſtred; ſo as the Perſon, Native or Foreigner, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, whoſe Order ſhall be firſt regiſtred, ſhall be accounted the Perſon to be firſt paid out of the Monies to come in by the ſaid reſpective Duties whereupon the ſaid Loans ſhall be made reſpectively; and he or they who ſhall have his or their Order or Orders next entred, ſhall be taken to be the Second Perſon to be paid, and ſo ſucceſſively and in courſe; and that the ſaid Monies to come in by the ſaid reſpective Duties, whereupon the ſaid Loans ſhall be made reſpectively, ſhall be in the ſame Order liable to the Satisfaction of the ſaid reſpective Perſons, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns ſucceſſively, without undue Preference of One before another, and not otherwiſe, and ſhall not be diverted or divertible to any other Uſe, Intent, or Purpoſe whatſoever; and that no Fee, Reward, or Gratuity, directly or indirectly, be demanded or taken of any Her Majeſty's Subjects, for providing or making of any ſuch Books or Regiſters, or any Entries, Views, or Search, in or for Payment of Money lent, or the Intereſt thereof, as aforeſaid, by any of Her Majeſty's Officer or Officers, their Clerks or Deputies, on Pain of Payment of Treble Damages to the Party aggrieved, by the Party offending, with Full Coſts of Suit; or if the Officer himſelf take or demand any ſuch Fee or Reward, then to loſe his Place alſo; and if any undue Preference of One before another ſhall be made, either in point of Regiſtry or Payment, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, by any ſuch Officer or Officers, then the Party offending ſhall be liable by Action of Debt, or on the Caſe, to pay the Value of the Debt, with Damages and Coſts, to the Party grieved, and ſhall be forejudged of his Place or Office: And if ſuch Preference be unduly made by any his Deputy or Clerk, without Directions or Privity of his Maſter, then ſuch Deputy or Clerk only ſhall be liable to ſuch Action, Debt, Damages, and Coſts, and ſhall be for ever after incapable of his Place or Office; and in caſe the Auditor of the Receipt ſhall not direct, or the Clerk of the Pells record, or the Teller make Payment, according to each Perſon's due Place and Order, as afore directed, then he or they ſhall be adjudged to forfeit, and the reſpective Deputies and Clerks herein offending to be liable to ſuch Action, Debt, Damages, and Coſts, in ſuch Manner, as aforeſaid: All which ſaid Penalties, Forfeitures, Damages, and Coſts, to be incurred by any of the Officers of the Exchequer, or any their Deputies or Clerks, ſhall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of Her Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, Injunction, or Order of Reſtraint, ſhall be in any wiſe granted or allowed.

What ſhall not be accounted undue Preference.

XVII. Provided always, and be it hereby declared, That if it happen that ſeveral Tallies of Loan or Orders for Payment, as aforeſaid, bear Date or be brought the ſame Day to the Auditor of the Receipt to be regiſtred, then it ſhall be interpreted no undue Preference, which of thoſe be entred firſt, ſo as he enters them all the ſame Day.

XVIII. Provided alſo, That it ſhall not be interpreted any undue Preference to incur any Penalty in Point of Payment, if the Auditor direct, and the Clerk of the Pells record, and the Tellers do pay ſubſequent Orders of Perſons that come and demand their Monies, and bring their Orders, before other Perſons that did not come to take their Monies, and bring their Orders, in their Courſe, ſo as there be ſo much Money reſerved, as will ſatisfy precedent Orders, which ſhall not be otherwiſe diſpoſed, but kept for them; Intereſt upon Loan being to ceaſe from the Time the Money is ſo reſerved, and kept in Bank for them.

Orders aſſignable.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That all and every Perſon and Perſons, to whom any Money ſhall be due for Loans, by virtue of this or the ſaid former Act, after Order entered in the Book of Regiſter, for either of the ſaid Acts, as aforeſaid, his or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, by Indorſement of his Order, may aſſign or transfer his Right, Title, Intereſt, and Benefit of ſuch Order, or any Part thereof, to any other; which being notified in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt aforeſaid, and an Entry or Memorial thereof alſo made in the proper Book of Regiſtry aforeſaid for Orders, which the Officers ſhall upon Requeſt, without Fee or Charge, accordingly make, ſhall intitle ſuch Aſſignee, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, Succeſſors, and Aſſigns, to the Benefit thereof, and Payment thereon: And ſuch Aſſignee may in like manner aſſign again, and ſo toties quoties; and afterwards it ſhall not be in the Power of ſuch Perſon or Perſons, who have or hath made ſuch Aſſignments, to make void, releaſe, or diſcharge the ſame, or any the Monies thereby due, or any Part thereof.

Clauſe of Appropriation.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all the Monies which ſhall be lent to Her Majeſty, on the Credit of the ſaid Subſidy and additional Duty by this Act granted, and all the Monies which are or ſhall be lent, contributed, or advanced to Her Majeſty, upon every or any other Act or Acts of this Seſſion of Parliament, for granting any Aid or Supply to Her Majeſty, for carrying on the preſent War, and other Her Majeſty's neceſſary or important Occaſions, and ſo much of the ſeveral Taxes and Duties by this and the ſaid other Acts, or any of them granted, as ſhall remain (over and above ſuch Charges as are to be allowed for the raiſing of the ſaid Taxes and Duties reſpectively, and over and above the Monies thereof, which are in the firſt Place to go and be applied in Repayment and Satisfaction of all the Loans made or to be made thereupon, or upon any of them, and the Intereſt thereof reſpectively) ſhall be appropriated, iſſued, and applied, and the ſame are hereby appropriated for or towards the ſeveral Uſes and Purpoſes herein after expreſſed; that is to ſay, for or towards the defraying the Charge of the Ordinary of Her Majeſty's Navy, and other Services of the Navy, and the Victualling thereof, and the Sea Service in the Office of the Ordnance, performed and to be performed; and for or towards the Land Services, performed and to be performed by the ſaid Office of the Ordnance; and to and for Subſiſtence, Off-reckonings, and Clearings for One Year, from the Four and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and three, to Her Majeſty's Guards and Garriſons in England, and the Dominions thereunto belonging (Ireland excepted) and the contingent Charges of the ſame; and for or towards the defraying the Charge of Her Majeſty's Army, and ſuch Forces as are or ſhall be added thereunto in the Low Countries, within or for One Year, to be reckoned from the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and three, and the contingent Charges thereunto belonging; and for or towards the defraying Her Majeſty's Part of the Charge of the Forces acting or to act in Conjunction with the Forces of the King of Portugal, until the Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and four; and for or towards the Payment of Her Majeſty's Proportion of the Subſidies due, or to be due, upon Treaties made, or to be made, with Her Majeſty's Allies, and other Charges for the Service of the War, until the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and four; and for and towards the Payment of any Sum, not exceeding Five thouſand Pounds, for the Support of the Invalids; and for or towards the diſcharging of the Præmiums, and other Charges for circulating the Bills, commonly called Exchequer Bills; and for or towards the Satisfaction of the Sum, not exceeding Eight hundred ſeventy five Pounds, to be paid without Account, and free of all Taxes, as well for the Salaries of the Five Commiſſioners appointed by Act of Parliament for ſtating the Accounts of the Army, Tranſports, and Prizes, during the laſt War, as for incident Charges in the Execution of their Truſt, for One Quarter, ending the Nine and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and four; and for or towards the Satisfaction of the Sum of Three thouſand five hundred Pounds for Salaries, and any Sum not exceeding Two thouſand five hundred Pounds for incident Charges, to be allowed without Account, and free of all Taxes, to the Seven Commiſſioners appointed by Act of Parliament for ſtating the Accounts of all publick Monies, and to none other Uſe, Intent, or Purpoſe whatſoever: Provided always, That out of the Monies to be iſſued to the Guards and Garriſons, as aforeſaid, there ſhall and may be taken and applied, any Sum not exceeding Eighty ſeven thouſand one hundred twenty five Pounds, Ten Shillings, towards the Charge of maintaining the Soldiers, raiſed and to be raiſed for Sea Service, with their Officers, and the contingent Charges thereunto belonging: And out of the Monies to be iſſued for the Service of the Navy and Sea Services, as aforeſaid, there ſhall be taken and applied ſuch Sums, as, together with the ſaid Sum not exceeding Eighty ſeven thouſand one hundred twenty five Pounds, Ten Shillings, ſhall be neceſſary for the Charge of maintaining the ſaid Soldiers for Sea Service, with their Officers, and the contingent Charges thereunto belonging; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

XXI. And whereas by an Act of the Firſt Year of Her Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for making good Deficiencies, and for preſerving the publick Credit, ſeveral Tallies therein mentioned do amount to Five thouſand and ſeventeen Pounds, Nine Shillings, One Penny, and the Orders thereupon for Reverſions of Annuities were directed to be iſſued to diſcharge ſuch Off-reckonings for Clothing, as were become due before the laſt Day of December, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſeven, which Off-reckonings being otherwiſe ſatisfied, the ſaid Tallies and Orders do ſtill remain in the Hands of the late Paymaſter General of the Army; and by the Act laſt-mentioned it was provided, That ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhould receive ſuch Debentures payable out of the forfeited Eſtates in Ireland, as are thereby directed, for Monies due to any Troops or Companies (over and above what was due for the perſonal Pay of the Commiſſion Officers) ſhould give Security to the Paymaſter General of double the Value thereof, and at the End of Twelve Months ſhould return unto the ſaid Paymaſter an Account upon Oath, of all the Debentures by him or them iſſued in purſuance of that Act, and returning back to the Hands of the ſaid Paymaſter ſuch Debentures as ſhould remain not iſſued out to the End of the ſaid Twelve Months; in purſuance whereof ſeveral of the ſaid Debentures have been returned, and others of them ought to be returned to the Hands of the late Paymaſter General of the Army, or to the Paymaſter General thereof for the time being, for the Publick Uſe and Service: Now it is hereby further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Lord High Treaſurer of England, or any Three or more of the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being, to cauſe as well the ſaid Orders and Tallies, for the ſaid Reverſionary Annuities remaining undiſpoſed, as aforeſaid; as alſo all and every or any the ſaid Debentures returned, or to be returned, to the ſaid late Paymaſter, or to the Paymaſter General of Her Majeſty's Forces for the time being, purſuant to the ſaid Securities, or any of them, given or to be given, upon the Act laſt-mentioned, to be iſſued, paid over, or applied for or towards Satisfaction of all or any Part of the Monies due in the Reign of His late Majeſty King William the Third, to the Out Penſioners of Chelſea Hoſpital, and ſuch other Publick Debts as were incurred during the laſt War, as the ſaid Lord High Treaſurer or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury ſhall direct, and in ſuch Proportions, Manner, and Form, as to him or them ſhall ſeem meet.

Treaſury to apply the Tallies &c. for the Reverſionary Annuities undiſpoſed of, as alſo the Debentures returnable to the Paymaſter General, for ſatiſfying the Out Penſioners of Chelſea Hoſpital, &c.

CAP. XI.

An Act for the making more effectual Her Majeſty's Gracious Intentions for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy, by enabling Her Majeſty to grant in perpetuity the Revenues of the Firſt Fruits and Tenths; and alſo for enabling any other Perſons to make Grants for the ſame Purpoſe.

WHEREAS at a Parliament holden in the Six and twentieth Year of the Reign of King HENRY the Eighth, the Firſt Fruits, Revenues, and Profits for One Year, upon every Nomination or Appointment to any Dignity, Benefice, Office, or Promotion Spiritual, within this Realm, or elſewhere, within the ſaid King's Dominions, and alſo a perpetual yearly Rent or Penſion, amounting to the Value of the Tenth Part of all the Revenues and Profits belonging to any Dignity, Benefice, or Promotion Spiritual whatſoever, within any Dioceſe of this Realm, or in Wales, were granted to the ſaid King HENRY the Eighth, His Heirs and Succeſſors; and divers other Statutes have ſince been made touching the Firſt Fruits and annual Tenths of the Clergy, and the ordering thereof: And whereas a ſufficient ſettled Proviſion for the Clergy, in many Parts of this Realm, hath never yet been made, by reaſon whereof divers mean and ſtipendiary Preachers are in many Places entertained to ſerve the Cures, and officiate there; who depending for their neceſſary Maintenance upon the Good-will and Liking of their Hearers, have been, and are thereby under Temptation of too much complying and ſuiting their Doctrines and Teaching to the Humours rather than the Good of their Hearers, which hath been a great Occaſion of Faction and Schiſm, and Contempt of the Miniſtry: And foraſmuch as Your Majeſty, taking into Your princely and ſerious Conſideration the mean and inſufficient Maintenance belonging to the Clergy in divers Parts of this Your Kingdom, has been moſt graciouſly pleaſed, out of Your moſt Religious and Tender Concern for the Church of England (whereof Your Majeſty is the only ſupream Head on Earth) and for the Poor Clergy thereof, not only to remit the Arrears of Your Tenths due from Your Poor Clergy, but alſo to declare unto Your moſt dutiful and loyal Commons Your Royal Pleaſure and Pious Deſire, that the whole Revenue ariſing from the Firſt Fruits and Tenths of the Clergy might be ſettled for a perpetual Augmentation of the Maintenance of the ſaid Clergy, in Places where the ſame is not already ſufficiently provided for: We Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of England, in Parliament aſſembled, to the end that Your Majeſty's moſt gracious Intentions may be made effectual, and that the Church may receive ſo great and laſting an Advantage from Your Majeſty's parting with ſo great a Branch of Your Revenue, towards the better Proviſion for the Clergy not ſufficiently provided for; and to the Intent Your Majeſty's ſingular Zeal for the Support of the Clergy, and the Honour, Intereſt, and future Security of the Church, as by Law eſtabliſhed, may be perpetuated to all Ages, do moſt humbly beſeech Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by Her Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England, to incorporate ſuch Perſons as Her Majeſty ſhall therein nominate or appoint, to be One Body Politick and Corporate, to have a Common Seal, and perpetual Succeſſion; and alſo at Her Majeſty's Will and Pleaſure, by the ſame, or any other Letters Patents, to grant, limit, or ſettle, to or upon the ſaid Corporation, and their Succeſſors for ever, all the Revenue of Firſt Fruits, and yearly perpetual Tenths of all Dignities, Offices, Benefices, and Promotions Spiritual whatſoever, to be applied and diſpoſed of, to and for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of ſuch Parſons, Vicars, Curates, and Miniſters, officiating in any Church or Chapel within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, where the Liturgy and Rites of the Church of England, as now by Law eſtabliſhed, are or ſhall be uſed and obſerved, with ſuch lawful Powers, Authorities, Directions, Limitations, and Appointments, and under ſuch Rules and Reſtrictions, and in ſuch Manner and Form, as ſhall be therein expreſſed; the Statute made in the Firſt Year of Her

Her ſaid Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better Support of Her Majeſty's Houſhold, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, or any other Law to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

All Statutes, &c. relating to Firſt Fruits and Tenths to continue in force.

II. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That all and every the Statutes and Proviſions, touching or concerning the ordering, levying, and true anſwering and Payment, or Qualification of the ſaid Firſt Fruits and Tenths, or touching the Charge, Diſcharge, or Alteration of them, or any of them, or any Matter or Thing relating thereunto, which were in Force at the Time of making this Act, ſhall be, remain, and continue in their full Force and Effect, and be obſerved and put in due Execution according to the Tenors and Purports of the ſame, and every of them, for ſuch Intents and Purpoſes nevertheleſs, as ſhall be contained or directed in or by the ſaid Letters Patents.

Act not to void any Grant, &c. heretofore made of any the ſaid Revenues.

III. Provided alſo, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to avoid, or any way to impeach or affect any Grant, Exchange, Alienation, or Incumbrance, at any Time heretofore made, of or upon the ſaid Revenues of Firſt Fruits and Tenths, or any Part thereof; but that the ſame ſhall, during the Continuance of ſuch Grant, Exchange, Alienation, or Incumbrance reſpectively, be and remain of and in ſuch Force and Virtue, and no other, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if this Act had not been made.

27 H. 8. c. 16. Perſons may give Lands, Tenements, or Goods, &c. to the ſaid Corporation,

IV. And for the Encouragement of ſuch well-diſpoſed Perſons as ſhall, by Her Majeſty's Royal Example, be moved to contribute to ſo pious and charitable a Purpoſe, and that ſuch their Charity may be rightly applied; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon and Perſons, having in his or their own Right any Eſtate or Intereſt in Poſſeſſion, Reverſion, or Contingency, of or in any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or any Property of or in any Goods or Chattles, ſhall have full Power, Licence, and Authority, at his, her, and their Will and Pleaſure, by Deed inrolled, in ſuch Manner, and within ſuch Time, as is directed by the Statute made in the Twenty ſeventh Year of the Reign of King HENRY the Eighth, for Inrolment of Bargains and Sales, or by his, her, or their laſt Will or Teſtament in writing, duly executed according to Law, to give and grant to, and veſt in the ſaid Corporation, and their Succeſſors, all ſuch his, her, or their Eſtate, Intereſt, or Property in ſuch Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, Goods and Chattles, or any Part or Parts thereof, for and towards the Augmentation of the Maintenance of ſuch Miniſters as aforeſaid, officiating in ſuch Church or Chapel, where the Liturgy and Rites of the ſaid Church are or ſhall be ſo uſed or obſerved, as aforeſaid, and having no ſettled competent Proviſion belonging to the ſame, and to be for that Purpoſe applied according to the Will of the ſaid Benefactor, in and by ſuch Deed inrolled, or by ſuch Will or Teſtament executed, as aforeſaid, expreſſed: And in Default of ſuch Direction, Limitation, or Appointment, in ſuch Manner as by Her Majeſty's Letters Patents ſhall be directed or appointed, as aforeſaid. And ſuch Corporation, and their Succeſſors, ſhall have full Capacity and Ability to purchaſe, receive, take, hold, and enjoy, for the Purpoſes aforeſaid, as well from ſuch Perſons as ſhall be ſo charitably diſpoſed to give the ſame, as from all other Perſons as ſhall be willing to ſell or aliene to the ſaid Corporation any Manors, Lands, Tenements, Goods, or Chattles, without any Licence or Writ of Ad quod Damnum; the Statute of Mortmain, or any other Statute or Law to the contrary notwithſtanding.

or ſell or aliene any Manors, Lands, &c.

Perſons excepted from making ſuch Gifts, &c.

V. Provided always, That this Act or any thing therein contained ſhall not extend to enable any Perſon or Perſons, being within Age, or of Non ſane Memory, or Women Covert, without their Husbands, to make any ſuch Gift, Grant, or Alienation; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

One Bond only to be taken for the Four Payments of the Firſt Fruits.

VI. And whereas Four Bonds for Four half yearly Payments of the Firſt Fruits, as the ſame are rated, and alſo a Fifth Bond for a further Value or Payment, in reſpect of the ſame Firſt Fruits, have been required and taken from the Clergy, to their great and unneceſſary Burden and Grievance: For Remedy thereof be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Twenty fifth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and four, One Bond only ſhall in ſuch Caſe be given or required for the Four Payments of the ſaid Firſt Fruits: Which ſaid Firſt Fruits, as well as the Tenths payable by the Clergy, ſhall hereafter be anſwered and paid by them according to ſuch Rates and Proportions only as the ſame have heretofore been uſually rated and paid: And no ſuch Fifth Bond already given ſhall, from and after the ſaid Twenty fifth Day of March, in the Year One thouſand ſeven hundred and four, be ſued or recovered.

CAP. XIV.

An Act for the better ſecuring and regulating the Duties upon Salt.

WHEREAS great Sums of Money are paid out of Her Majeſty's Duties upon Salt, on account of Debentures for Salt ſhipped to be exported to foreign Parts; and it is found by Experience, that great Part of the Salt, for which ſuch Debentures have been paid, hath been fraudulently landed on the Coaſts of England and Wales, and not exported to any foreign Parts, or having been actually landed in Ireland, or other Places out of England and Wales, have been ſhipped off again from thence, and fraudulently brought into England or Wales; by which evil Practices Her Majeſty's ſaid Duties are very much leſſened in the Produce thereof, and the Salt Makers, who pay their full Duties, are very much prejudiced and diſcouraged in their Trade, by reaſon they cannot ſell their Salt in Places which are ſupplied with Salt run, as aforeſaid: For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That no Salt whatſoever, being of the Produce or Manufacture of England, Wales, Berwick upon Tweed, Scotland, or Ireland, nor any other Salt coming from Ireland, Scotland, or the Iſle of Man, ſhall, after the Firſt Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and four, be imported or brought into any Port or Place within England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, nor be taken out of any Ship or Veſſel, nor put on ſhore within any of the ſaid Ports or Places, upon Pain that all the Salt ſo imported or brought in, taken out of any Ship or Veſſel, or landed, or put on ſhore, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, ſhall be forfeited and loſt; and that the Ship or Veſſel in which any ſuch Salt ſhall be ſo imported or brought in, or out of which any ſuch Salt ſhall be taken or put on ſhore, together with all her Tackle and Apparel, ſhall alſo be forfeited and loſt; and every Perſon that ſhall take any ſuch Salt out of any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, or carry the ſame on ſhore, or convey the ſame from the Shore when landed, or be aiding or aſſiſting therein, ſhall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds for every ſuch Offence, or ſuffer Six Months Impriſonment.

No Salt coming from Ireland, Scotland, or the Iſle of Man, to be imported.
Further Proviſions for this Purpoſe by 5 Geo. 1. c. 18. ſ. 23.
Forfeiture.

II. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any of the Officers for the ſaid Duties upon Salt, at any Time within Two Months after the Importation or Landing any ſuch Salt, and not afterwards, to ſeize the Salt ſo imported or taken out of any Ship or Veſſel, or landed or put on ſhore, or conveying from the ſhore; and alſo the Ship or Veſſel in which ſuch Salt was imported, together with all her Tackle and Apparel: And in caſe the Owner of ſuch Salt or Ship ſhall not, within Twenty Days after ſuch Seizure, claim the Salt and Ship ſo ſeized, and alſo give ſufficient Security to anſwer the Value thereof; then, and in every ſuch Caſe, the Salt and Ship, with all her Tackle and Apparel, ſhall be ſold to the beſt Advantage.

Salt ſo imported may in Two Months after be ſeized; alſo the Ship; and if not claimed in 20 Days may be ſold.

III. Provided nevertheleſs, That nothing in this Act ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to any Salt which ſhall be ſhipped, to be carried Coaſtwiſe, by Certificate from One Port to another in England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, according to the Directions of the former Acts relating to the ſaid Duties.

Salt carried Coaſtwiſe excepted.

IV. Provided alſo, That in caſe where any Salt ſhall have been entred and ſhipped to be exported to foreign Parts, according to the Directions of the former Acts in that Behalf, and the Ship or Veſſel, laden with ſuch Salt, ſhall by Streſs of Weather, Enemies, or other unavoidable Neceſſities, be forced into any Port or Place within England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Owner of ſuch Salt, or Maſter of ſuch Ship, within Twenty Days after her coming into ſuch Port, to re-land the ſaid Salt, ſo as due Entry be made, and the Duties again paid down for the whole Quantity of Salt that was entred to be exported, before any Part thereof ſhall be re-landed, and not otherwiſe; any thing in this Act or any other Law or Statute to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Salt forced into any Port by Streſs of Weather, &c. may be re-landed.

V. Provided alſo, That in caſe where any Fiſherman ſhall have taken any Salt on board his Boat or Veſſel from any Part of England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, for the ſalting of Fiſh at Sea, it ſhall and may be lawful for any ſuch Fiſherman to bring in and land any ſuch Salt ſo taken on board, ſo as Oath be made before the Landing thereof (which Oath the Officer for the ſaid Duties hath hereby Power, and is hereby directed to adminiſter, without Fee or Charge) that the particular Quantity of Salt, ſo to be landed, was taken on board from ſome Part of England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, and at what Place it was taken on board, and that no Part thereof was taken out of any Ship or Veſſel at Sea; any thing in this Act or any other Statute to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Fiſherman may land Salt taken on board for ſalting Fiſh, on Oath made, &c.

VI. Provided alſo, That in caſe where any Ship or Veſſel ſhall come into any Port of England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, from Ireland, or any other foreign Part, having on board any Quantity of Salt, which was taken in only for the neceſſary Proviſions of the Ship for ſuch Voyage, or for curing of Fiſh, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Maſter of ſuch Ship or Veſſel to land the ſaid Salt, ſo as Entry be made thereof within Ten Days after his firſt coming into ſuch Port, and the Duties paid down or ſecured for the ſame, before the ſame, or any Part thereof, ſhall be landed or taken out of any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, in the ſame Manner as the Duties of foreign Salt imported are to be paid or ſecured; any thing in this Act or any other Statute to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Allowance of Salt for Ship's Proviſion, or for curing Fiſh, &c.
What forfeited upon Neglect of ſuch Entries by 5 Geo. 1. c. 18. ſ. 18.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and four, no Salt ſhall be brought out of Scotland by Land, into any Part of England, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or Precincts thereof, on Pain of forfeiting the Salt ſo brought into any of the ſaid Places, and Twenty Shillings a Buſhel, and ſo proportionably for a greater or leſſer Quantity; and that it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any of the Officers for the Duties upon Salt, to ſeize any Salt ſo brought into any of the ſaid Places, and to apprehend the Perſon and Perſons who ſhall bring in the ſame, and to carry him, her, or them before any of Her Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace near the Place where ſuch Seizure ſhall be made; and if, upon full Proof of the Fact, ſuch Offender ſhall not pay down the ſaid Penalties by this Act impoſed, ſuch Juſtice ſhall commit ſuch Offender to the next Gaol, there to remain for the Space of Six Months without Bail or Mainprize.

No Salt to be brought out of Scotland by Land, into England.

Salt Officers to ſeize ſuch Salt, &c.

VIII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Fifth Year of the Reign of the late King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majeſties certain Rates and Duties upon Salt, and upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, for ſecuring certain Recompences and Advantages, in the ſaid Act mentioned, to ſuch Perſons as ſhall voluntarily advance the Sum of Ten hundred thouſand Pounds, towards carrying on the War againſt France; it is amongſt other Things enacted, That no Salt ſhall be delivered from any Salt Works or Pits, without Notice firſt given to the Officer appointed for that Purpoſe, upon Pain of Forfeiture of the Salt ſo delivered, and upon Pain of Twenty Pounds to be forfeited by the Owner or Owners of the Salt Works or Pits, where ſuch Salt ſhall be delivered: And whereas ſeveral Salt Makers have been, and others may be, ſubjected to the ſaid Penalties of Twenty Pounds, by the evil Practices of Salt Carriers, and others, who convey Salt from the Salt Works without a Warrant or Permit for conveying the ſame; For preventing whereof be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and four, as well well the Carrier, or Perſon who ſhall carry or convey any Salt without a Warrant or Permit for carrying the ſame, as the Proprietor of the Salt Works, who ſhall deliver Salt without Notice firſt given, ſhall forfeit the ſaid Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Farther Proviſions relating hereto by 5 Annæ, c. 29. §. 16.

IX. And whereas in and by the ſaid Act of Parliament made in the Fifth Year of the Reign of the late King William and Queen Mary, and by ſeveral other Acts relating to the ſaid Duties upon Salt; it is amongſt other Things provided, That any Perſon, who ſhall export beyond the Seas any Salt, as well Foreign as Engliſh, or any Rock Salt, ſhall, upon a Debenture made out according to the Direction of the ſaid Acts, be repaid the Duties of ſuch Salt ſo exported: And whereas ſome Doubts and Controverſies have been made, whether Salt ſhipped and exported to Scotland, the Iſle of Man, or the Iſlands of Jerſey and Guernſey, be an Exportation of Salt within the Intent and Meaning of the ſaid Acts, ſo as to intitle the Exporter to a Drawback of the Duties of the Salt ſo exported: For preventing of all ſuch Controverſies and Diſputes, be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That it was and is the Intent and Meaning of the ſaid Acts, that any Perſon exporting any Salt to Scotland, the Iſle of Man, or the Iſlands of Jerſey and Guernſey, according to the Directions of the ſaid Acts, is and ſhall be intitled to a Drawback of the Duties of the Salt ſo exported, and ſhall be repaid the ſame, in ſuch Manner, and under ſuch Conditions, as are directed and required by the ſaid Acts, in caſe of the Exportation of Salt to any other Foreign Parts; any thing in the ſaid Acts or any other Law or Statute to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Salt exported to Scotland, the Iſle of Man, or Jerſey and Guernſey, intitled to a Drawback.

Salt ſhipped for Exportation, and periſhing in Port, by the ſinking of the Ship, &c.

X. Provided always, and it is further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where any Salt or Rock Salt (the Duties whereof ſhall have been paid or ſecured to be paid, according to the Direction of the former Laws, relating to the ſaid Duties on Salt) ſhall from and after the Firſt Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and four, be ſhipped or laid on board any Ship or Veſſel, in any Port, River, or Place within this Kingdom of England, or the Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, in order to be exported to Parts beyond the Seas, or be carried Coaſtwiſe; and the ſaid Salt or Rock Salt, ſo ſhipped or laid on board, ſhall happen to periſh by the Sinking of the Ship or Veſſel, on which the ſame ſhall be ſhipped or laid on board, before the ſaid Ship or Veſſel ſhall go out of ſuch Port or Place, and before the Exporter of ſuch Salt ſhall be intitled to a Drawback or Allowance of the Duties thereof, then and in ſuch Caſe the Exporter or Proprietor of the ſaid Salt or Rock Salt, ſo periſhed, ſhall, upon Proof made before the Juſtices of the Peace, at the next General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, to be held for the County, City, Riding, Diviſion, or Place next to the Place where the ſaid Salt or Rock Salt ſhall ſo periſh, of the Loſs of the Salt or Rock Salt ſo ſhipped, receive from the ſaid Seſſions a Certificate, that ſuch Proof was made before them, and upon producing the ſaid Certificate to any of Her Majeſty's Collectors or Officers appointed to collect the ſaid Duties on Salt, the ſaid Collectors and Officers are hereby required to let the ſaid Exporter or Proprietor buy the like Quantity of Salt or Rock Salt, as is expreſſed in the ſaid Certificate to be ſo periſhed, without paying to Her Majeſty any Duty of Exciſe for the ſame, in the ſame Manner as if ſuch Salt or Rock Salt had ſo periſhed going Coaſtwiſe from One Port of England to another.

Proprietor to buy the like Quantity, Duty free.

General Iſſue.

Double Coſts.

XI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall at any Time be ſued or proſecuted for any thing by him or them done or executed in purſuance of this Act, he or they ſhall or may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act in Evidence for his Defence; and if upon a Trial a Verdict ſhall paſs for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs be nonſuit, diſcontinue, or forbear proſecuting the ſaid Actions, then ſuch Defendant or Defendants ſhall have Double Coſts to him or them awarded againſt ſuch Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, for which Coſts he ſhall have ſuch Remedy, as in other Caſes where Coſts are by Law given to Defendants.

Penalties and Forfeitures how to be recovered.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſeveral Penalties and Forfeitures, hereby given and impoſed, ſhall be recovered and levied by the ſame Ways, Means, and Methods, as any Penalties and Forfeitures can or may be recovered and levied by any of the Laws of Exciſe, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of Her Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, nor any more than One Imparlance ſhall be allowed; and that the ſaid Penalties and Forfeitures ſhall be diſtributed in manner following (to wit) One Moiety thereof to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs, and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to him or them that will ſue or inform for the ſame.

XIII. And whereas it is found by Experience, that great Quantities of Fiſh, which have been cured at Sea, or in Ireland, or other Parts not within England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, with Salt, for which the Duties have not been anſwered and paid, have been imported or brought into England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, by which Practice Her Majeſty, and the Engliſh Fiſhery, are very much prejudiced: For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and four, no Herrings, Pilchards, Scads, Codfiſh, Ling, Hake, Salmon, or dried Red Sprats whatſoever, or by whomſoever caught or cured, ſhall be imported, brought in, or landed within England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, unleſs the Owner or Proprietor of ſuch Fiſh, or the Maſter of the Veſſel, ſhall make Oath before the Officer for the ſaid Duties on Salt, in the Port or Place where ſuch Fiſh ſhall be imported, brought in, or landed (who ſhall adminiſter the ſame without Fee or Charge) that all the Salt wherewith the ſaid Fiſh was cured, was laden or put on board from ſome Part of England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, and when and where the ſame was ſo put on board, and that no Drawback or Allowance, or Debenture for the ſame, hath to his Knowledge or Belief been had or obtained upon the Exportation or carrying out of the ſaid Salt, or any Part thereof, or is intended to be had or obtained on account of ſuch Exportation, upon Pain of forfeiting ſuch Fiſh that ſhall be imported, brought in, or landed contrary to the Intent and Meaning hereof, and double the Value thereof, to be recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof.

No Herrings, Pilchards, Scads, Codfiſh, Ling, Hake, Salmon, &c. ſhall be imported or landed, unleſs Oath be made, that the Salt wherewith ſuch Fiſh was cured, was laden from England, &c. and no Drawback allowed on Exportation, &c. Penalty.

Newfoundland or Iſeland Fiſh, excepted.

XIV. Provided, That nothing in this Act ſhall extend to prohibit the importing and landing any Codfiſh, Ling, or Hake, which have been caught and cured at Newfoundland or Iſeland, ſo as Oath be firſt made before the Landing thereof by the Owner or Proprietor of ſuch Fiſh, or the Maſter of the Veſſel, before the Officer for the ſaid Duties, in the Port or Place where ſuch Fiſh ſhall be imported, brought in, or landed (who ſhall adminiſter the ſame without Fee or Charge) that all the Fiſh ſo imported came from Newfoundland or Iſeland, and were caught and cured there, and ſo as the ſaid Fiſh be at the Landing thereof, and before the ſame be removed from the Shore, tendered to the Officer of the Port for the ſaid Duties, to have Part of the Tail of every ſuch Codfiſh, Ling, or Hake cut off, that no Allowance for ſuch Fiſh be obtained upon Exportation; and the ſaid Officer is hereby impowered and required to cut off Part of the Tail of all ſuch Fiſh on the Importation thereof: And in caſe any ſuch Fiſh ſhall be landed before the ſame ſhall be tendered to the Officer, to have Part of the Tail cut, as aforeſaid, all the Fiſh, ſo imported and landed, ſhall be forfeited, and double the Value thereof, to be recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof; to wit, One Moiety thereof to the Queen, the other Moiety thereof to him or them who ſhall proſecute or ſue for the ſame.

Part of the Tail of ſuch Fiſh to be cut off.

Penalty on landing the ſame before Tender thereof made.

Proviſion is made by 4 Annæ, c. 12. §. 12. for Codfiſh, &c. imported from the North Sea.

XV. And whereas the Proprietors, who have given Securities at their Works or Pits for the Duty of Salt or Rock Salt bought of them, do often ſuffer Damage by Frauds committed in the Exportation without their Privity: For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where any Salt or Rock Salt ſhall, after the Firſt Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and four, be entred, and Security ſhall be given for the Duties, and certified to the Officer, according to the former Laws relating to the Duties on Salt, no ſuch Salt or Rock Salt ſhall afterwards be entred for Exportation by any Perſon or Perſons not bound in the Security firſt given, as aforeſaid, until ſuch Perſon or Perſons, ſo exporting ſuch Salt or Rock Salt, ſhall give or find ſufficient Security for the Duties thereof (which the Officer for the ſaid Duties at the Port where the ſame is ſo entred for Exportation is hereby required to take) and the ſame Officer ſhall deliver gratis, and without Delay, a Certificate of ſuch new Security taken, and upon producing ſuch Certificate to the Officer of the Place where the Duty of the ſaid Salt was firſt ſecured to be paid, ſuch firſt Security ſhall be diſcharged.

Where Salt is entred, and the Duties ſecured, no ſuch Salt ſhall afterwards be entred for Exportation by any Perſon not bound in the firſt Security, till Security given for the Duties, &c.

XVI. And whereas by ſeveral Leaſes, Grants, or Contracts, made before the Sixth Day of November, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, certain Rents payable in Salt were reſerved, granted, or agreed to be paid out of or for divers Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments; and it is evident that the impoſing the preſent Duties on Salt, ſince the making the ſaid Leaſes, Grants, or Contracts, doth in Effect increaſe the ſaid Rents, and make them more burdenſome to the Perſons liable thereunto; it is therefore enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That when the Owners, Proprietors, and Tenants of ſuch Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, ſo charged by any Leaſes, Grants, or Contracts, made before the Time aforeſaid, do from and after the Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and three, pay or deliver any ſuch Rent in Salt, the Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall receive the ſame, ſhall be obliged by this Act to pay to him or them, who ſhall make ſuch Payments of Salt in kind, ſo much Money as the Duty and Duties paid or payable to Her Majeſty for the ſame Salt, by any Act or Acts of Parliament made ſince the ſaid Sixth Day of November, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, do amount unto.

Tenants paying their Rent in Salt, to be allowed ſo much as the Duty comes to.

XVII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful, during the preſent War, to bring in Bay Salt of the Produce of the Iſland of Guernſey, upon paying the ſame, and no higher or other Duty, than what is or ſhall be laid upon Salt made in England, and ſo as the ſame Salt ſo to be imported ſhall be imported in the Ports of Yarmouth in Norfolk, Portſmouth, Plymouth, and Falmouth, or any of them, and ſhall not exceed in the whole Four thouſand Buſhels in any One Year, ſo as due Entry (according to Law) be made of the ſame, for which Salt no Drawback ſhall be allowed upon the Exportation thereof; any thing in this preſent Act, or any other Act, contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Guernſey Bay Salt may be imported during the War, not exceeding 4000 Buſhels per Annum.

No Drawback allowed.

XVIII. And whereas divers Merchants, and other Perſons, being Subjects of this Realm of England, do ſhip Salt that hath paid the Duty to Her Majeſty, to convey it to ſome Part of England, and the ſame or Part thereof may be loſt at Sea, by violent or ſtormy Weather, or by being thrown over board for preſerving Mens Lives, or the Veſſel in which ſuch Salt is ſhipped, as aforeſaid; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and four, in ſuch Caſe any Merchant or Perſon, Owner of the ſaid Salt, ſhall, upon Proof made (by the Oaths of Two or more credible Witneſſes, whereof the Maſter or Mate of the Veſſel to be one, before the Juſtices of the Peace at the Quarter Seſſions held for the County, Riding, Diviſion, or Town wherein he doth inhabit, in open Court) of the Loſs of ſuch Salt ſo ſhipped, and that the ſame was not occaſioned by any Leekage of the Ship or Veſſel, or by any Negligence or Default of the Maſter or Mariners, receive from the ſaid Seſſions a Certificate that ſuch Proof was made before them, and upon producing the ſaid Certificate to any of the Officers appointed to collect the Duties on Salt, the ſaid Officer or Officers are hereby required to let ſuch Perſons buy the like Quantity of Salt, as is expreſſed in the Certificate to be loſt, without paying to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs or Succeſſors, any Duty or Exciſe for the ſame; any thing in this Act or any other Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Salt loſt at Sea by ſtormy Weather, &c. Owners to buy the ſame Quantities ſo loſt, without paying Duty.

This Privilege extended by 8 Geo. 1. c. 4. §. 11. to all Merchants in general.

XIX. And whereas in the late violent Storms, which happened in the Months of November and December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and three, Two Veſſels laden with Salt from Newcaſtle to the Humber, were by Streſs of Weather blown into Holland, and the Maſters did there unlade and ſell the ſaid Salt; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That upon Proof made thereof, upon the Oath of Two credible Witneſſes, the Proprietor or Proprietors of the ſaid Salt ſhall be intitled to the Drawback upon the ſame, as if the ſaid Salt had been entred for Exportation into Parts beyond the Seas; any thing in this or any former Law to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Two Ships with Salt drove into Holland by Streſs of Weather, and the Salt there ſold, Proprietors intitled to the Drawback.

XX. And whereas by an Act made in the Firſt Year of the Reign of Her preſent Majeſty it is enacted, That no Rock Salt whatſoever ſhall be refined or made into White Salt in any Place or Places whatſoever, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, except in ſuch Places as are or ſhall be within Ten Miles Diſtance of the reſpective Pit or Pits, from whence ſuch Rock Salt ſhall be taken, or at ſuch Places as, on or before the Tenth Day of May, One thouſand XXXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every the Treaſons and Felonies before mentioned, that ſhall be committed, perpetrated, or done, may be inquired of, heard, and determined in Her Majeſty's Court, commonly called the Queen's Bench, by good and lawful Men of the ſame County where the ſaid Court ſhall ſit and be kept, or before ſuch Commiſſioners, and in ſuch County of this Realm, as ſhall be aſſigned by the Queen's Majeſty, and by good and lawful Men of the ſame County, in like Manner and Form, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſaid Treaſon and Felonies had been committed, perpetrated, and done within the ſame County.

This Act not to abridge the Queen's Power of making Articles of War, &c.

XXXVII. Provided always, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to abridge Her Majeſty's Power of forming, making, and eſtabliſhing Articles of War, and erecting and conſtituting Courts-martial, and inflicting Penalties, by Sentence or Judgement of the ſame, in ſuch manner as might have been done by Her Majeſty's Authority beyond the Seas, in the Time of War, before the making of this Act.

Court martial may try Offences committed out of the Realm, not before tried.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That Her Majeſty may, from time to time, grant a Commiſſion to ſuch General, Lieutenant General, or other Officers, as aforeſaid, for the holding a Court-martial within this Realm, in which all Officers and Soldiers, who ſhall at any time hereafter, during the Continuance of this Act, commit any Crime or Offence out of this Realm, againſt the Rules, Articles, or Laws of War, and ſhall not be tried for the ſame by a Court-martial, before their Return into this Realm, ſhall and may be tried and proceeded againſt, and puniſhed, according to the Rules and Articles of War afore-mentioned.

How Officers or Soldiers deſerting the Queen's Service beyond Sea, ſhall be tried.

XXXIX. Provided always, That if any Officer or Soldier ſhall deſert Her Majeſty's Service in any Parts beyond the Seas, and ſhall eſcape or come into this Realm or Ireland, before he be tried by a Court-martial for ſuch Offence, then, and as often as any ſuch Caſe ſhall happen, if it ſhall alſo happen that the Regiment, Troop, or Company, to which ſuch Officer or Soldier ſhall belong, ſhall continue in Her Majeſty's Service beyond the Seas, it ſhall and may be lawful, upon Oath thereof made to any One of Her Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, where ſuch Offender ſhall be taken, for ſuch Juſtices of the Peace to cauſe ſuch Offender to be ſent to the General Court-martial in England or Ireland, who are hereby enabled, if they think fit, for Example's Sake, to ſend ſuch Offenders to the reſpective Regiment, Troop, or Company beyond the Seas, to which the Offender ſhall belong, there to be proceeded againſt according to the Directions of this Act.

Perſons acquitted by a Court-martial not to be proſecuted again.

XL. Provided alſo, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall, in a Court-martial conſtituted as aforeſaid, be tried and acquitted, or convicted of any of the Crimes or Offences herein before mentioned, ſuch Acquittal or Conviction ſhall be a full Bar to any Indictments or Proceedings for the ſame Offence.

No Attainder to corrupt the Blood of Heir, &c.

XLI. Provided always, That no Attainder for any Crime or Offence made Felony by this Act, ſhall extend or be adjudged to make any Corruption of Blood to any Heir of ſuch Offender, or to debar the Wife of ſuch Offender of her Title of Dower.

How a Peer of England ſhall be tried for any Offence by this Act.

XLII. Provided alſo, That if any Peer of this Realm ſhall commit any of the Offences aforeſaid, in any Parts beyond the Seas, and ſhall not have been there tried for the ſame by Martial Law, and after his Return into this Realm ſhall be indicted of any Offence hereby declared or enacted to be Treaſon or Felony, that then, and after ſuch Indictment, dictment, he ſhall have his Trial by his Peers, in ſuch like Manner and Form as hath been accuſtomed.

XLIII. And be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon and Perſons, who ſhall hereafter be accuſed, indicted, or proſecuted, for any thing made or declared Treaſon by this Act, ſhall be intitled to the Benefit of the Act of Parliament made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for regulating Trials in Caſes of Treaſon and Miſpriſion of Treaſon.

CAP. II.

An Act for raiſing Monies, by Sale of ſeveral Annuities, for carrying on the preſent War.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and paſſed in the Second Year of Your Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to Her Majeſty, for carrying on the War, and other Her Majeſty's Occaſions, by ſelling Annuities at ſeveral Rates, and for ſuch reſpective Terms or Eſtates, as are therein mentioned, and by ſeveral other Acts therein recited, Proviſion is made, That from and after the Five and twentieth Day of December, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, the full, clear, and intire weekly Sum of Three thouſand ſeven hundred Pounds out of all the Monies ariſing by the Hereditary Duties of Exciſe, and by other Duties of Exciſe therein mentioned, payable during Her Majeſty's Life, and from and after Her Majeſty's Deceaſe, then the like full, clear, and intire weekly Sum of Three thouſand ſeven hundred Pounds, out of all the Monies to ariſe by the ſaid Hereditary Duties of Exciſe, from time to time for ever, ſhall be brought and paid into the Receipt of Exchequer every Week, in the Manner and Form, and under ſuch Penalties, as are thereby preſcribed: And it is thereby further enacted, That out of the Money of the ſaid Hereditary Duties of Exciſe, ariſing in or by ſuch weekly Payments at the Exchequer, as aforeſaid, certain annual Sums after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, therein mentioned, ſhall be ſatisfied and paid, and that out of the Monies of the ſaid ſeveral Branches of Exciſe, ariſing in or by the ſaid weekly Payments, the ſeveral Annuities to be purchaſed in purſuance of the ſaid Act of the Second Year of Your Majeſty's Reign, ſhould alſo be paid and ſatisfied; and that all the reſt and reſidue of the Monies ariſing by the ſaid weekly Payments, and which at the End of every Year, reckoning the Firſt Year to begin from the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of December, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, ſhould remain, after ſatisfying or reſerving ſufficient to ſatisfy all the Payments which ſhould be then incurred or grown due, as well for and upon the ſaid annual Sums, after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, as alſo for and upon all the ſaid Annuities, to be purchaſed upon the Act laſt mentioned, ſhould be applied and diſpoſed of to and for the publick Uſe and Service, and not otherwiſe: And whereas the ſaid annual Sums, after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, do amount in the whole to the yearly Sum of Thirty nine thouſand eight hundred fifty five Pounds, Sixteen Shillings, and One Half Penny; and the Annuities purchaſed on the ſaid Act of the Second Year of Your Majeſty's Reign, for the ſaid Term of Ninety nine Years, do amount in the whole to Sixty ſeven thouſand nine hundred twenty four Pounds, Ten Shillings, and Six Pence Half Penny; and the Annuities purchaſed ſeverally on the ſame Act for ſingle Lives, do amount in the whole to Twenty two thouſand three hundred and thirteen Pounds, Six Shillings, and Eight Pence; and the Annuities ſeverally purchaſed on the ſame Act for the Lives of Two Perſons, and the Survivor of them, do amount in the whole to Ten thouſand five hundred and twenty eight Pounds; and the ſeveral Annuities purchaſed on the ſame Act for the Lives of Three Perſons, and the Survivors and Survivor of them, do amount in the whole to Three thouſand nine hundred ſeventy nine Pounds, Thirteen Shillings, and Four Pence; and the Charges of paying the ſaid Annuities do amount to the yearly Sum of Twelve hundred Pounds; ſo that there doth remain at this Time undiſpoſed, of the Money of the ſaid weekly Payments, to be applied to the publick Uſe and Service, the yearly Sum of Forty ſix thouſand five hundred ninety eight Pounds, Thirteen Shillings, and Five Pence, or thereabouts, beſides the Expectancies after the Determination of the ſaid reſpective Eſtates, for One, Two, and Three Lives: Now we Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of England in Parliament aſſembled, being deſirous to raiſe the Money neceſſary for carrying on the preſent War, and other Your Majeſty's moſt preſſing Occaſions, by ſuch Ways and Means as are moſt eaſy to Your Majeſty's Subjects, do chearfully and unanimouſly grant unto Your Majeſty a further Aid, to ariſe by Contributions for Annuities, to be purchaſed in the Manner and Form herein after mentioned; and do humbly beſeech Your Majeſty that it may be enacted: And be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and

And it is hereby enacted, That in the Offices of the Auditor of the Receipt, and Clerk of the Pells in the Exchequer, ſeverally, there ſhall be provided and kept a Book or Books, in which ſhall be fairly entred the Names of all who ſhall be Contributors, and of all Perſons by whoſe Hands the ſaid Contributors ſhall pay in any of the ſaid Sums upon this Act, and alſo the ſeveral Sums ſo paid, and the Times when the ſame are reſpectively paid; to which Book it ſhall be lawful for the reſpective Contributors, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, from time to time, and at all ſeaſonable Times, to have reſort, and to inſpect the ſame without Fee or Reward.

Overplus to diſcharge the Annuities, and applied to no other Uſe.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every the Annuities whatſoever, which ſhall be any Way purchaſed upon, or in purſuance of, this preſent Act, ſhall be and are hereby charged upon, and ſhall be paid and payable out of, the Overplus of the Monies ariſing from time to time by the weekly Payments of Exciſe Money aforementioned (that is to ſay) the Money which ſhall remain, from time to time, over and above ſo much as ſhall be ſufficient to pay and ſatisfy the Monies, which ſhall from time to time be incurred and grown due, as well for and upon the ſaid annual Sums, after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, as for and upon all the ſaid Annuities for Lives or Years, purchaſed upon the ſaid Act of the Second Year of Your Majeſty's Reign; and ſo much of the ſaid Overplus Monies, as are and ſhall be ſufficient to ſatisfy and diſcharge all the Annuities to be purchaſed upon this Act, according to the Purport and true Meaning of the ſame, are and ſhall be appropriated and applied to and for the ſatisfying and diſcharging of the ſame accordingly, and ſhall be iſſued, diſpoſed, or applied to that Uſe, and to no other Uſe, Intent, or Purpoſe whatſoever.

Contributors paying the Purchaſe-money, ſhall enjoy the Annuities ſo purchaſed, and have ſure Eſtates therein,

free from Taxes;

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Contributor and Contributors upon this Act, duly paying the Conſideration or Purchaſe-money after the reſpective Rates aforeſaid, at or before the reſpective Days and Times in this Act limited in that Behalf, for any Annuity or Annuities whatſoever, allowed to be purchaſed by this Act, according to the true Meaning of the ſame Act, or ſuch as he, ſhe, or they ſhall appoint, his, her, or their reſpective Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, ſhall have, receive, and enjoy, and be intitled, by Virtue of this Act, to have, receive, and enjoy the reſpective Annuity and Annuities ſo to be purchaſed, out of the Overplus Monies ariſing and to ariſe, as aforeſaid, from the reſpective Times on which ſuch Annuities are reſpectively to commence, for and during ſuch reſpective Term of Years, or remaining Term of Years, as are above-mentioned; and that all and every ſuch Purchaſers, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns reſpectively, ſhall have good and ſure Eſtates and Intereſts in the ſeveral Annuities ſo by them to be purchaſed, according to the Nature of their reſpective Purchaſes, and the Tenor and true Meaning of this Act; and that all Annuities to be purchaſed on this Act for any Term, Eſtate, or Intereſt whatſoever, ſhall be free from all Taxes, Charges, and Impoſitions whatſoever.

and have Tallies for the ſame,

and Orders for Payment.

No Lord Treaſurer, &c. to revoke the ſame.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Contributor upon any Part of this Act for any of the Annuities aforeſaid, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, upon Payment of the Conſideration or Purchaſe-money for the ſame, at the reſpective Rate in this Act before appointed, or any Part or Proportion thereof, within the Time or Times by this Act limited in that Behalf, ſhall immediately have One or more Talley or Tallies levied, importing the Receipt of ſo much Conſideration-money as ſhall be ſo paid, for or in Part of the ſaid reſpective Sums to be raiſed, as aforeſaid, and according to the Nature of his, her, or their Payments reſpectively; and upon Payment of all the Purchaſe-money for any ſuch Annuity or Annuities, as aforeſaid, at the Rate by this Act appointed, every ſuch Contributor reſpectively, his or her reſpective Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, ſhall have an Order for Payment of ſuch Annuity and Annuities, for and during ſuch reſpective Term, Eſtate, or Intereſt, as he, ſhe, or they ſhall or ought to have therein, as aforeſaid; which Order ſhall be ſigned by the Treaſurer and Under Treaſurer of the Exchequer, or any Three or more of the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being; and, after the ſigning thereof, the ſame ſhall be firm, good, valid, and effectual in the Law, according to the Purport and true Meaning thereof, and of this Act, and ſhall not be determinable by or upon the Deaths or Removal of any Treaſurer or Under Treaſurer of the Exchequer, or any Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or by or upon the Determination of the Power, Office or Offices of them or any of them, nor ſhall any Lord High Treaſurer of England, Treaſurer of the Exchequer, or any Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, now, or for the time being, have Power to revoke, countermand, or make void ſuch Orders, ſo ſigned as aforeſaid, or any of them.

IX. And for the Encouragement of the Contributors to advance and pay forthwith, into the Receipt of Exchequer, the Sums by them intended to be advanced upon any of the Terms aforeſaid, it is provided and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every ſuch Contributor, who being to pay his or her Purchaſe-money, or any Part thereof, on or before the ſaid laſt Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, ſhall pay the ſame, or any Part thereof, ſooner than the ſaid laſt Day of March, ſhall be paid out of the Contribution-money ariſing by this Act, after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, for prompt Payment of the Money ſo advanced, from the Time of actual paying the ſame, until the ſaid laſt Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five; and every Contributor on this Act, who being to pay his or her Purchaſe-money, or any Part thereof, on or before the ſaid Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, ſhall pay the ſame, or any Part thereof, ſooner than the ſaid Firſt Day of May, ſhall be paid out of the ſaid Contribution-money the like Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, for ſuch prompt Payment of the Money ſo advanced from the Time of actual paying the ſame, until the ſaid Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five.

5*l.* per Cent. for prompt Payment.

X. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Contributor, his or her Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, at any Time or Times, having any preſent or future Term, Eſtate, or Intereſt, or any preſent Eſtate to take Effect in futuro, of and in any Annuity to be purchaſed upon this Act, or of or in any Part of ſuch Annuity, by any Writing under Hand and Seal, or by his or her laſt Will in Writing, to aſſign or deviſe ſuch Annuity and Annuities, or any Part thereof, or any Intereſt therein, to any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, and ſo toties quoties, and no ſuch Aſſignment to be revokable; ſo as an Entry or Memorandum of ſuch Aſſignment or Will be made in Books to be kept for that Purpoſe in the ſaid Office of the Auditor of the Receipt, within the Space of Two Months after ſuch Aſſignment, or Death of the Deviſor; and that upon the producing ſuch Aſſignment, or Will, or Probate thereof, in the ſaid Office of Receipt, to be entred as aforeſaid, the Party ſo producing the ſame, ſhall bring therewith an Affidavit, taken before ſome Perſon authorized to take Affidavits in Cauſes depending in any of the Courts at Weſtminſter, of the due Execution of the ſaid Aſſignment or Will, which Affidavits ſhall be ſeverally filed in the ſaid Office; which ſaid Entry or Memorandum the proper Officers, in the ſaid Receipt of the Exchequer, are hereby required to make accordingly, and to file the ſaid Affidavits; and in Default of ſuch Aſſignment or Deviſe, by Deed or Will, the Intereſt of ſuch Contributor ſhall go to his or her Executors or Adminiſtrators.

Contributors, &c may aſſign or deviſe Annuities, and ſo toties quoties.

Entry of ſuch Aſſignments, &c. to be made on Affidavit.

Affidavits to be filed.

In Default of Aſſignment or Deviſe, &c. Intereſt of Contributor to go to his Executors, &c.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any Guardian or Truſtee, having the Diſpoſal of the Money of any Infant under the Age of One and twenty Years, for the Uſe and Benefit of ſuch Infant, to advance and pay the Sum of One hundred and fifty Pounds, of the Money of ſuch Infant, to purchaſe any Annuity upon this Act for the Benefit of ſuch Infant; and the ſaid Guardian and Truſtee, as to the ſaid Sum of One hundred and fifty Pounds ſo advanced, is hereby diſcharged.

Guardians may advance 150*l.* for the Benefit of Infant to purchaſe any Annuity on this Act.

XII. And be it further enacted, for the better encouraging Perſons to advance the ſaid ſeveral Sums on this Act, That all Receipts and Iſſues, and all other Things directed by this Act to be performed in the Exchequer, ſhall be done and performed by the Officers there, without demanding or receiving, directly or indirectly, any Fee, Gratuity, or Reward for the ſame; and in caſe any of the Officers of the Exchequer ſhall take or demand any ſuch Fee or Reward, or ſhall divert or miſapply any of the ſaid weekly Sums to be paid into the Receipt of Exchequer, or any Part of the Monies which ſhould make good the Payment of the ſaid Annuities, or ſhall pay or iſſue out of the ſame, otherwiſe than according to the Intent of this Act, or ſhall not keep Books and Regiſters, and make Entries, and do and perform all other Things, which by this Act they are required to perform, every ſuch Officer ſhall forfeit his Office, and be for the future uncapable of any Office or Place of Truſt, and ſhall anſwer and pay Treble Damages, with Coſts of Suit, to every Contributor or Perſon who ſhall be prejudiced thereby, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of Her Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege of Parliament, or other Privilege, Wager of Law, Injunction, or Order of Reſtraint, or more than One Imparlance, ſhall be granted or allowed; and in the ſaid Action the Plaintiff upon Recovery ſhall have his Full Coſts, One Third Part of which Sum, ſo to be recovered for Damages, ſhall be to the Uſe of Your Majeſty, Your Heirs and Succeſſors; and the other Two Third Parts, with the Coſts, ſhall be to the Uſe of the Proſecutor: And in caſe there ſhall be any Colluſion or faint Proſecution between the Plaintiff and Defendant in ſuch Action, it ſhall be lawful for any other Contributor, his or her Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, to bring another Action, wherein he ſhall recover as aforeſaid, to the like Uſes as aforeſaid.

All Receipts and Iſſues in the Exchequer to be done without Fee.

Penalty.

Plaintiff on Recovery to have Full Coſts.

In caſe of faint Proſecution, any other Contributor, &c. may bring another Action.

XIII. Provided always, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall or may purchaſe or obtain any Annuity upon this Act, for which the Purchaſe-money, or any Part thereof, is hereby appointed to be paid on or before the ſaid laſt Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, unleſs the whole, or One Third Part of the Conſideration-money for the ſame, at ſuch reſpective Rates as aforeſaid, be advanced and paid into the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer on or before the ſaid laſt Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and five; and that no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall or may purchaſe or obtain, or be admitted to purchaſe or obtain, any Annuity upon this Act, for which the Purchaſe-money, or any Part thereof, is hereby appointed to be paid on or before the ſaid Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, unleſs the whole, or One Third Part of the Conſideration-money for the ſame, at ſuch reſpective Rate, as aforeſaid, be advanced and paid into the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer on or before the ſaid Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five.

None to purchaſe any Annuity, unleſs One Third Part of the Purchaſe-money be paid in by the laſt of March, 1705.

or unleſs One Third be paid in by the Firſt of May, 1705.

XIV. Provided alſo, That in caſe any ſuch Contributor, as aforeſaid, who ſhall, on or before the reſpective Days by this Act appointed for his or her firſt Payment, have advanced One Third Part only of his or her Purchaſe-money, his or her Excecutors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns do not advance and pay, into the Receipt of Exchequer, One other Third Part of his or her Conſideration-money ſo to be paid for ſuch reſpective Annuity or Annuities, as aforeſaid, on or before the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five; and the remaining Third Part thereof on or before the ſaid Nine and twentieth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five; then, and in every ſuch Caſe reſpectively, no Order ſhall be drawn or ſigned for ſuch reſpective Annuity, for which the Contributors advancing One Third Part, and not paying the Two other Parts of the Conſideration Money within the Times limited, ſuch Money, ſo paid in, to be forfeited, &c.

the Conſideration-money ſhall not be fully paid, as aforeſaid; but ſo much of the Conſideration-money, as ſhall have been actually paid into the Exchequer for ſuch reſpective Annuity, ſhall be forfeited and loſt to Your Majeſty, Your Heirs and Succeſſors, and be applied, together with other the Monies to be raiſed by this Act, for the Purpoſes aforeſaid; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Allowances to Officers and Clerks imployed, &c.

XV. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Treaſurer, or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being, out of any of the Monies of the ſaid weekly Payments, to reward the Officers and Clerks in the Exchequer to be imployed in the Payment of the ſaid Annuities, or any of them, for their Labour, Pains, and Service therein reſpectively, in ſuch Proportions as to the ſaid Lord Treaſurer, or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being, ſhall ſeem meet and reaſonable in that Behalf; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and paſſed in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of Your Majeſty's late Royal Brother King WILLIAM the Third (of glorious Memory) intituled, An Act for granting to His Majeſty ſeveral Duties upon Low Wines or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, and continuing ſeveral additional Duties upon Coffee, Tea, Chocolate, Spices, and Pictures, and certain Impoſitions upon Hawkers, Pedlars, and Petty Chapmen, and the Duty of Fifteen per Centum upon Muſlins, and for improving the Duties upon japanned and lacquered Goods, and for continuing the Coinage Duty, for the ſeveral Terms and Purpoſes therein mentioned, certain Duties upon Low Wines, or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, were granted for a Term, to continue until the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix; and certain Duties, which, by an Act of the Sixth Year of His ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, had been impoſed upon Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa Paſte, Tea, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, and Pictures, were by the ſaid Act of the Twelfth Year of His ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, enacted to be continued until the Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix; and by the ſame Act certain Duties or Sums of Money to be paid by every Hawker, Pedlar, Petty Chapman, and other trading Perſons deſcribed in a former Act for licenſing Hawkers and Pedlars, and the Powers for granting ſuch Licences, were enacted to be continued until the Four and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix; and a Duty upon Muſlins, after the Rate of Fifteen Pounds for every One hundred Pounds of the true and real Value thereof, was likewiſe, by the ſaid Act of the Twelfth Year of His ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, enacted to be continued until the Thirtieth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, as by the ſame Act (Relation being thereunto had) may more fully appear: Now we Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of England in Parliament aſſembled, as a further Supply for carrying on the preſent War, and other Your Majeſty's moſt neceſſary and important Occaſions, have given and granted to Your Majeſty the ſeveral and reſpective Duties, and additional Duties hereafter in this Act expreſſed, and do moſt humbly beſeech Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That all and every ſuch or the like Duties for and upon all Low Wines or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, as by the ſaid Act of the Twelfth Year of His ſaid late Majeſty's Reign were continued or granted until the ſaid Twenty fifth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, ſhall, by virtue of this Act, be further continued, and be paid and payable to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, for and upon all Low Wines and Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, to be made or drawn by any Diſtiller, or other Perſon making or drawing Spirits or Strong Waters for Sale or Exportation, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, from the Four and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, until the Four and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ten; and that all and every ſuch or the like ſeveral and reſpective Duties for and upon all Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa Paſte, Tea, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, and Pictures, as by the ſaid Act of the Twelfth Year of His ſaid late Majeſty's Reign were, as aforeſaid, continued until the ſaid Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, ſhall be continued and be paid and payable to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, for and upon all Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa Paſte, Tea, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, and Pictures, which ſhall be imported into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, at any Time or Times from and after the laſt Day of April, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, and before the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ten; and that all and every ſuch and the like ſeveral Duties, Impoſitions, and Sums of Money to be paid by every Hawker, Pedlar, Petty Chapman, and ſuch other Perſons as are deſcribed in One Act of the Ninth Year of His ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, for licencing Hawkers and Pedlars, and all the Powers for granting Licences, and other Powers, and all Clauſes, Directions, Allowances, Penalties, Forfeitures, Articles, Matters, and Things therein contained, which, by the ſaid Act of the Twelfth Year of His ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, have Continuance until the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, ſhall be continued, and be paid, and be practiſed, obſerved, and put in Execution, by virtue of this Act, from the Three and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, until the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ten; and that the ſame or the like Duty upon all Muſlins deſcribed in the ſaid Act of the Twelfth Year of His ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, after the Rate of Fifteen Pounds for every One hundred Pounds, of the true and real Value thereof, to be be determined by the groſs Price upon Sale by the Candle, as by the ſame Act hath Continuance until the Thirtieth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, ſhall by Virtue of this Act be continued, and be raiſed, levied, collected, anſwered, and paid to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, for and upon all ſuch Muſlins as ſhall be imported or brought into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town or Port of Berwick upon Tweed, at any Time or Times from and after the Nine and twentieth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, and before the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ten; the ſaid ſeveral and reſpective Duties, Impoſitions, and Sums of Money, for and upon all Low Wines or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, and for and upon all Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa Paſte, Tea, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, and Pictures, and upon all Hawkers, Pedlars, Petty Chapmen, and other Perſons deſcribed as aforeſaid, and for and upon all Muſlins, to be paid during the reſpective Times for which they are granted, or are to continue, by Virtue of this Act, as aforeſaid (over and above all other Duties and Impoſitions whatſoever, already charged for or upon the ſame Commodities and Perſons, or any of them reſpectively, by any other Laws or Statutes now in Force) and to be aſcertained, ſecured, raiſed, levied, recovered, anſwered, paid, and accounted for, to the Uſes and Purpoſes in this Act expreſſed, by ſuch Rules, Ways, Means, and Methods, and under ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, and with ſuch Diſtribution of the ſaid Penalties and Forfeitures, and ſubject to ſuch Drawbacks, Allowances, and Repayments, and in ſuch Manner and Form in all Reſpects, as the like Duties, Impoſitions, and Sums of Money reſpectively granted or continued by the ſaid Act of the Twelfth Year of His ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, are thereby, or by any other Law, whereunto the ſaid Act hath Reference, preſcribed, enacted, or appointed to be aſcertained, ſecured, raiſed, levied, recovered, anſwered, paid, and accounted for during the Continuance thereof reſpectively.

For Pictures ſee 8 Geo. 1. c. 20. § 49.
How to be levied.

II. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all ſuch of the Powers, Directions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, Clauſes, Matters, and Things, provided, ſettled, or eſtabliſhed by the ſaid Acts of the Sixth, Ninth, and Twelfth Years of His ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, or by any of them, or by any other Act now in Force, whereunto the ſame, or any of them, have or hath Relation, for the better raiſing, levying, recovering, anſwering, or paying the ſaid reſpective Duties thereby granted, or for making any Drawbacks, Repayments, or Allowances out of any of the ſaid ſeveral and reſpective Duties upon Exportations, ſhall be revived and be continued, and be in Force and Virtue during the Continuance of this Act, and further for the Recovery of all the Arrearages and Sums of Money, which ſhall become due or payable to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs or Succeſſors, upon this Act, in as full and ample Manner, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſaid Powers, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauſes, Matters, and Things, and every of them, were again repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this preſent Act.

Powers of the ſaid Acts revived.

III. And it is hereby enacted, That a certain Clauſe in an Act made in the Second Year of the Reign of King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, intituled, An Act for the encouraging the diſtilling of Brandy and Spirits from Corn, and for laying ſeveral Duties on Low Wines or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, relating to Strong Waters, Brandy, Aqua Vitæ, and other exciſeable Liquors brought from the Iſlands of Guernſey, Jerſey, Sark, or Alderney, and all the Charges, Duties, Penalties, and every Article and Thing therein contained, which were revived by the ſaid Act of the Twelfth Year of His ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, and were to be of full Force during the Continuance thereof, ſhall be further continued, and be of full Force and Virtue, during the Continuance of this preſent Act, in as full and ample Manner, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſaid Clauſe was herein Word for Word repeated.

Clauſe of 2 W. & M. ſ. 2. c. 9. ſect. 12. revived.

IV. And whereas great Abuſes have been committed by ſeveral Perſons in lending or letting out to hire the Licences by them taken out to trade as Hawkers, Pedlars, or Petty Chapmen; be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, every Perſon, who being actually trading as an Hawker, Pedlar, or Petty Chapman (for which he or ſhe ought to have a Licence, purſuant to this or the ſaid Act of the Twelfth Year of His ſaid late Majeſty's Reign) ſhall not, upon Demand, have his, her, or their Licences ready to be produced, ſhall be adjudged to forfeit, as if ſuch Perſon had traded without any Licence granted to him, her, or them; and ſuch Perſon in that Caſe ſhall and may be committed, and the Forfeiture recovered and levied in ſuch Manner, as is directed by this or any of the former Acts for licenſing Hawkers, Pedlars, and Petty Chapmen, in caſe of trading without Licence: And that from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, in caſe any Perſon ſhall lend or let out to hire any Licence to him or her granted, the Perſon lending or letting out to hire ſuch Licence, and the Perſon trading under Colour of the ſame, ſhall either of them forfeit the Sum of Forty Pounds, One Moiety thereof to the Queen's Majeſty, the other Moiety thereof to any Perſon that will inform or ſue for the ſame, to be recovered, with Coſts of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of Her Majeſty's Courts of Record, and the Perſon ſo lending or letting out to hire ſuch Licence ſhall alſo forfeit the ſame.

Penalty on Pedlar letting out his or her Licence.

V. And for the increaſing Her Majeſty's Revenues upon ſome of the Commodities before in this Act charged (to wit) upon Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa Paſte, Tea, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, and Pictures, to be imported within or during the Term herein after-mentioned; and to the end more Money may be raiſed thereby for carrying on the ſaid War, and other Her Majeſty's moſt neceſſary Occaſions, it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be anſwered and paid to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, for and upon all and all Manner of Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Chocolate, Cocoa Paſte, Tea, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, and Pictures, which ſhall be imported into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, at any Time or Times after the Firſt Day of February, One thouſand ſeven hundred and four, and before the Four and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ten, over and above all Duties, and additional Duties already payable for the ſame, or any of them, by any other Law now in force, and over and above the ſaid con-

Duties on Coffee, &c. continued, and to pay 56*s per* Hundred additional Duty. 10 Geo. 1. c. 10. 18 Geo. 2. c. 26.

and the Duties on China Ware and unrated Drugs.

2 Annæ, c. 9.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Duties of Four per Centum, by this Act impoſed upon unrated Drugs, imported from Parts not within the Limits of the Charters granted to the ſaid Eaſt India Companies, ſhall be paid by the reſpective Importers of the ſame upon the Importation thereof.

Importer to pay the 4 l. per Cent. on unrated Drugs.

XI. And it is hereby enacted, That in caſe any of the ſaid Callicoes, China Ware, rated or unrated Drugs, hereby charged as aforeſaid, ſhall be landed or put on Shore out of any Ship or Veſſel, before due Entry be made thereof at the Cuſtom Houſe in the Port or Place where the ſame ſhall be imported, and before the ſaid Duties by this Act charged or chargeable thereupon ſhall be ſecured or paid, as this Act doth require in the reſpective Caſes aforeſaid, or without a Warrant for the landing or delivering the ſame, firſt ſigned by the Commiſſioners, Collectors, or other proper Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms reſpectively, that all ſuch imported Callicoes, China Ware, and Drugs, as ſhall be ſo landed and put on Shore, or taken out of any Ship or Veſſel, contrary to the true Meaning hereof, or the Value of the ſame, ſhall be forfeited, and ſhall and may be ſeized or recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof (to wit) Two Thirds of the ſame to the Uſe of Her Majeſty, Her Heirs or Succeſſors (ſhe or they bearing the Charge of Proſecution) and the other Third to the Uſe of ſuch Perſon or Perſons as will ſeize, inform, or ſue for the ſame, or the Value thereof, by Action, Bill, Suit, or Information, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed.

Goods landed before Entry forfeited.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any of the ſaid Callicoes and China Wares, upon which the ſaid further Duties by this Act granted are paid or ſecured to be paid, as aforeſaid, be again exported at any Time or Times within Twelve Months by Engliſh, or within Nine Months by Aliens; or if any of the ſaid rated or unrated Drugs, for which the ſaid further Duties by this Act granted ſhall be paid as aforeſaid, be again exported by any Engliſh Merchants within Eighteen Months, or by Aliens within Nine Months, to be accounted from the reſpective Times of the Entry of the ſaid Goods inwards, and that due Proof be firſt made upon Oath, that the ſaid Callicoes, China Wares, and Drugs ſo exported be the ſame for which the ſaid Duties are paid and ſecured to be paid, as aforeſaid, that then and in every ſuch Caſe (and not otherwiſe) the ſame Duties ſo paid ſhall, without any Delay or Reward, be wholly repaid out of any the Duties on imported Commodities by this Act granted, or the Security, for ſuch of the ſaid Duties as ſhall be ſecured, ſhall be vacated, as to ſo much of the ſaid Callicoes, China Wares, and Drugs, as ſhall be ſo exported; any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Duties to be paid into the Exchequer.

XIII. And it is hereby further enacted, That all the Duties by this Act granted or continued (except the neceſſary Charges for raiſing and managing the ſame) ſhall, from time to time, by the reſpective Receivers thereof, be brought into Her Majeſty's Receipt of the Exchequer, for the Purpoſes in this Act mentioned.

Wholeſale Traders not to be deemed Pedlars.

XIV. Provided nevertheleſs, That whereas ſeveral Doubts have ariſen touching Traders in the Woollen or Linen Manufactures, who trade by Wholeſale, and ſet many Thouſands of Poor to work, and yet, for want of the Convenience of Water Carriage, are obliged to ſend their Goods, when manufactured, by Horſes and otherwiſe to the publick Markets, Fairs, and other Places; be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Perſons trading in the Woollen or Linen Manufactures of this Kingdom, and ſelling the ſame by Wholeſale, ſhall not be deemed or taken to be Hawkers, Pedlars, or Petty Chapmen within this or any other Act, but that ſuch Perſon or Perſons, and thoſe that ſhall be immediately imployed under them to ſell by Wholeſale only, may carry abroad, expoſe, and ſell the ſaid Manufactures; any thing in this Act or any other Act or Acts to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

Proviſo.

XV. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That no Goods or Merchandizes imported or brought into any Ports of England or Wales, before the ſaid Firſt Day of February, One thouſand ſeven hundred and four, and afterwards imported or brought into any other Port or Ports of this Kingdom from the Ports where they ſo firſt arrived, ſhall be liable to pay the new Duties by this Act granted, to commence from the ſame Firſt Day of February; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

12 W. 3. c. 11.

See 6 Annæ, c. 22. & 3 Geo. 1. c. 7. §. 19.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to lend to Her Majeſty, at the Receipt of the Exchequer, upon Credit of all the Monies which ſhall ariſe by the ſaid Act of the Twelfth Year of His ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, after Satisfaction of all the Loans, not exceeding Three hundred thouſand Pounds, made thereupon, and all the Intereſt due and to be due for the ſaid Loans, and every of them, or reſerving ſufficient to ſatisfy the ſame, and upon Credit of all the ſeveral Duties upon Low Wines and Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, Coffee, Tea, Chocolate, Cocoa, Spices, and Pictures, Hawkers, Pedlars, Petty Chapmen, and Muſlins, by this Act continued, as aforeſaid, and upon Credit of the additional Duties of Coffee, Tea, Chocolate, Cocoa, Spices, and Pictures, by this Act granted, and of the new Duties upon Callicoes, China Ware, and Drugs, and upon Credit of all other Duties by this Act granted or continued; any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Seven hundred thouſand Pounds, at an Intereſt not exceeding the Rate of Six Pounds per Centum per Annum.

Money to be paid into the Exchequer.

A Book to be kept for entring the ſame.

XVII. And to the end all the Money, that ſhall be ſo lent to Her Majeſty, may be well and ſufficiently ſecured and repaid with Intereſt, as aforeſaid; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all the Monies ariſing by the ſaid Duties, upon which the ſaid Loans are to be made (other than the neceſſary Charges of raiſing and managing the ſaid Duties) ſhall be brought and paid from time to time weekly into the Receipt of the Exchequer; that is to ſay, on Wedneſday in every Week, if it be not an Holiday, and if it be, then the next Day after that is not an Holiday; and that there ſhall be provided and kept in Her Majeſty's Exchequer, that is to ſay, in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt, One Book, in which all the ſaid Monies, which ſhall be ſo paid into the Exchequer, ſhall be entred apart and diſtinct from all other Monies paid or payable to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, upon any Account whatſoever.

Tallies of Loan to be levied. Orders for Repayment.

Intereſt paid every 3 Months. Orders may be aſſigned.

A diſtinct Regiſter to be kept of all the Orders of Repayment. Orders to be paid in Courſe.

No Fee to be taken for Regiſtring or Searches.

Penalty.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from time to time, upon making of ſuch Loans to be made in purſuance of this Act, as aforeſaid, Tallies of Loan ſhall be levied for all and every Sum and Sums of Money ſo to be lent; and that Orders, according to the Courſe of the Exchequer, ſhall be drawn and ſigned for Repayment of the ſame, and for Payment of ſuch Intereſt, as aforeſaid, for the Forbearance thereof, the ſaid Intereſt to be paid every Three Months, until Satisfaction of the Principal Sum; and that all and every ſuch Order and Orders, and the Monies therein to be contained, or any Part thereof, ſhall be aſſignable and transferrable without Power of Revocation, ſo as the Aſſignments thereof be indorſed upon the reſpective Orders, and entred and notified in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of Exchequer, in a Book to be there kept for that Purpoſe; and that a diſtinct Regiſter ſhall be kept in the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer of all the ſaid Orders of Repayment, not exceeding Seven hundred thouſand Pounds Principal Money, in which the ſaid Orders ſhall be regiſtred in Courſe, according to the Date of the Tallies reſpectively, without any other Preference of one before another; and that every Perſon ſhall be paid in Courſe, as his Order ſhall ſtand entred in ſuch Regiſter Book, out of the Monies ariſing by the ſaid Duties or Payments, upon the Credit whereof the ſaid Loans ſhall be made, as aforeſaid, which are hereby appropriated thereunto; and that no Fee, Reward, or Gratuity, directly or indirectly, ſhall be demanded or taken for providing or making any ſuch Book or Regiſter, or for any View or Search in the ſame, by any of Her Majeſty's Officers, their Clerks or Deputies, on Pain of forfeiting Treble Damages to the Party grieved, with Treble Coſts of Suit, to be recovered by Action of Debt, or on the Caſe, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of Her Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, by any Perſon or Perſons who will ſue for the ſame, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Wager of Law, Privilege of Parliament, or other Privilege, or more than One Imparlance, ſhall be granted or allowed, either for demanding or taking any ſuch Fee or Gratuity, or for giving any undue Preference in Point of Regiſtry or Payment, or for diverting or miſapplying any of the Monies of the ſaid Duties, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act.

No undue Preference.

XIX. Provided always, That if it ſhall happen that ſeveral of thoſe Tallies and Orders bear Date, or be brought the ſame Day to the Auditor of the Receipt to be regiſtred, it ſhall be interpreted no undue Preference which of thoſe be entred firſt.

XX. Provided alſo, That it ſhall not be interpreted any undue Preference, to incur any Penalty in Point of Payment, if the Auditor direct, or the Clerk of the Pells record, and the Tellers do pay ſubſeqnent Orders of Perſons that come and demand their Monies, and bring their Orders, before other Perſons that did not come to demand their Monies, and bring their Orders in Courſe, ſo as there be ſo much Money reſerved as will ſatiſfy precedent Orders, which ſhall not be otherwiſe diſpoſed, but kept for them; yet ſo as that Intereſt of Loan ſhall in that Caſe ceaſe from the Time the Money is ſo reſerved and kept in Bank for them.

Except Tobacco and Currans, and Sugar from the Engliſh Plantations.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and paſſed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of Your Majeſty's late Royal Brother King WILLIAM the Third, of Glorious Memory, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majeſty a further Subſidy of Tunnage and Poundage, towards raiſing the yearly Sum of Seven hundred thouſand Pounds, for the Service of His Majeſty's Houſhold, and other Uſes, therein mentioned, during His Majeſty's Life, it was enacted, That over and above all Subſidies of Tunnage and Poundage, and over and above all additional Duties, Impoſitions, and other Duties whatſoever, therein mentioned, there ſhould be raiſed and paid to His Majeſty One other Subſidy, called Tunnage, for and upon all Wines, which from and after the laſt Day of January, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, at any Time or Times during His Majeſty's Life, ſhould be imported or brought into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed; and One further Subſidy, called Poundage, of all Manner of Goods and Merchandizes imported or brought into this Realm, or any His Majeſty's Dominions to the ſame belonging, at any Time or Times after the ſaid laſt Day of January, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, during His Majeſty's Life, by way of Merchandize (except ſuch Goods and Merchandizes as are therein excepted) and with ſuch Abatements, Regulations, Directions for making Repayments or Allowances upon Exportation, and ſubject to ſuch Rules, and other Matters and Things touching the ſaid ſeveral Subſidies, as in the ſaid Act are expreſſed; which ſaid further Subſidies of Tunnage and Poundage, and other Duties upon Wine, Goods, and Merchandizes, granted by the Act above recited, are to be raiſed and paid to Your Majeſty during Your Life, by virtue of another Act of Parliament made and paſſed in the Firſt Year of Your Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better Support of Her Majeſty's Houſhold, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown: And by another Act made and paſſed in the Second Year of Your Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting to Her Majeſty an additional Subſidy of Tunnage and Poundage for Three Years, and for laying a further Duty upon French Wines condemned as lawful Prize, and for aſcertaining the Values of unrated Goods imported from the Eaſt Indies, a further Subſidy of Tunnage upon all Wines, which were to be imported during the Term therein mentioned (that is to ſay) One Third Part of ſuch or the like Duties, as by the ſaid recited Acts, or either of them, were impoſed upon Wines; and One other Subſidy of Poundage of Goods and Merchandizes, which were to be imported during the Term therein mentioned (that is to ſay) One Third Part of ſuch or the like ſeveral Duties as by the ſaid recited Acts, or either of them, are impoſed upon the ſame Goods and Merchandizes reſpectively (except as therein is excepted) are already granted to Your Majeſty, in the Manner therein expreſſed, as by the ſaid ſeveral Acts (Relation being thereunto ſeverally had) may more fully appear: Now we Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of England in Parliament aſſembled, for the better enabling Your Majeſty to carry on the preſent War, and to defray Your other neceſſary Expences, do cheerfully and unanimouſly give and grant unto Your moſt Excellent Majeſty the additional Rates, Duties, and Sums of Money, herein after mentioned, and do moſt humbly beſeech Your Majeſty, that it may be enacted: And be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That over and above the Subſidies of Tunnage and Poundage above mentioned, and over and above all other Subſidies, additional Duties, Impoſitions, and Payments whatſoever, by any other Act or Acts of Parliament, or otherwiſe however already due or payable, or which ought to be paid to Her Majeſty for or upon any Wines, Goods, or Merchandizes whatſoever, imported or to be imported, there ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, paid, and ſatiſfied unto Her Majeſty, One other Subſidy, called Tunnage, for and upon all Wines, which from and after the Eighth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and four, at any Time or Times within or during the Space of Four Years from thence next and immediately enſuing, ſhall be imported or brought into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed (that is to ſay) Two Third Parts of ſuch or the like ſeveral and reſpective Duties, as by the ſaid Act of the Ninth Year of His ſaid late Majeſty's Reign were granted, and by the ſaid Act of the Firſt Year of Her Majeſty's Reign are continued and payable for or upon any kind of Wine or Wines reſpectively: And One other Subſidy, called Poundage, of all Manner of Goods and Merchandizes to be imported or brought into this Realm, or any Her Majeſty's Dominions to the ſame belonging, at any Time or Times after the ſaid Eighth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and four, during the ſaid Term of Four Years, by way of Merchandize (that is to ſay) Two Third Parts of ſuch or the like ſeveral and reſpective Duties, as by the ſaid Act of the Ninth Year of his ſaid late Majeſty's Reign were granted, and by the ſaid Act of the Firſt Year of Her Majeſty's Reign are continued and payable for or upon the ſame Goods and Merchandizes reſpectively; except Tobacco, and ſuch Currans as ſhall be imported in Engliſh built Shipping, navigated according to the Laws now in Force, and Sugar from the Engliſh Plantations, and ſuch Goods and other Merchandizes as by the Two Acts laſt mentioned, or either of them, are exempted from Payment of the Subſidies thereby granted.

Acts aforeſaid to be in Force for levying the Duties hereby granted.

Exception.

II. And it is hereby enacted, That in all Caſes where by the ſaid Two Acts laſt-mentioned, or either of them, any Drawbacks or Abatements are to be made of the whole or any Part of the Duties thereby impoſed, there ſhall be in the like Caſes proportionable Drawbacks and Abatements made of the whole or Part of the Duties by this Act granted reſpectively; and that the ſeveral Subſidies and Duties by this Act granted, during the Continuance thereof, ſhall be raiſed, collected, levied, ſecured, and paid, by the ſame Ways, Means, and Methods, and under ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, and ſubject to ſuch Rules and Directions, as in and by the ſaid former Acts, or any of them, are preſcribed or appointed touching or concerning the ſaid Subſidies of Tunnage and Poundage, which were thereby granted, as aforeſaid; and that every Article, Rule, and Clauſe contained in the ſaid recited Acts, or any of them, concerning the ſaid Subſidies of Tunnage and Poundage formerly granted, as aforeſaid, and now in Force, ſo far forth as the ſame do or may relate to the Subſidies or Duties formerly granted, as aforeſaid, ſhall be uſed, exerciſed, and put in Practice, for the raiſing, levying, collecting, and anſwering the Subſidies and Duties hereby before granted, as fully and effectually, as if the ſame Articles, Rules, and Clauſes, and every of them, were again particularly and at large recited and re-enacted in the Body of this preſent Act; except only as to ſuch of the ſaid Articles, Rules, and Clauſes, touching which other Proviſions, Alterations, or Exemptions are made by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in being; which other Proviſions, Alterations, or Exemptions ſhall be obſerved, with reſpect to the Duties hereby granted, during the Continuance of this Act, in the ſame Manner as they are to be obſerved with Reſpect to the ſaid Subſidies formerly granted, as aforeſaid.

Penalty on Officer taking Fee for Entry, &c.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Officers of Her Majeſty's Cuſtoms, or any of them, or any of their Clerks or Subſtitutes, ſhall not directly or indirectly receive, take, or demand any Fee, Gratuity, or Reward whatſoever, from any Her Majeſty's Subjects or Aliens for any Entry, Warrant, Debenture, Certificate, Cocquet, or other Matter or Thing to be done or performed by them or any of them, in relation only to the ſaid Subſidies of Tunnage and Poundage herein before granted, on Pain of forfeiting for every ſuch Offence the Sum of Forty Pounds (to wit) One Third thereof to Her Majeſty, and the other Two Thirds thereof (beſides Coſts of Suit) to the Party grieved, who may ſue for the ſame by Action of Debt, or on the Caſe, Bill, Suit, or Information, in any of Her Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than One Imparlance ſhall be allowed.

Proviſo.

IV. Provided, That nothing in this Act ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to charge any Goods or Merchandize chargeable by this Act, imported in any Port of England or Wales before the ſaid Eighth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and four.

Act not to affect Foreign Stores ſold for the Uſe of the Navy.

V. Provided nevertheleſs, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the new or additional Duties impoſed by this Act, ſhall not extend to affect ſuch Foreign Stores, as have been ſold to the Uſe of Her Majeſty's Navy, by Contract with the Navy Board, before the Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and four, ſo as a Certificate be given from the Commiſſioners of the Navy, that ſuch Foreign Stores have been ſo contracted for by them for Her Majeſty' Service, as aforeſaid; and ſo as the Importer of the ſame do make Oath before the Commiſſioners appointed to manage the Cuſtoms (which Oath they are hereby impowered to adminiſter) of the Truth of the ſaid Contract, and that he will deliver the ſaid Goods into Her Majeſty's Stores, purſuant to the Contract ſo certified by the Commiſſioners of the Navy.

Penalty on Officers or Clerks offending.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all the Monies ariſing by the ſaid Subſidy of Tunnage and Poundage, and other the Duties hereby granted, as aforeſaid (except the neceſſary Charges of raiſing and anſwering the ſame) ſhall from time to time be brought and paid into the Receipt of Her Majeſty's Exchequer; and that it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon and Perſons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to lend to Her Majeſty at the ſaid Receipt, upon Credit thereof, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Six hundred thirty ſix thouſand nine hundred fifty ſeven Pounds, Four Shillings, and a Halfpeny; and to have and receive, for the Forbearance thereof, Intereſt after the Rate of Six Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be paid every Three Months from the making of ſuch Loans, until Satisfaction of the Principal Sums reſpectively; and that the Monies ſo to be lent ſhall not be rated or aſſeſſed to any Tax or Aſſeſſment whatſoever; and that every ſuch Lender ſhall immediately have a Talley of Loan ſtruck for the Money by him, her, or them lent, and an Order of the ſame Date for Repayment thereof, with ſuch Intereſt as aforeſaid; and that all ſuch Orders ſhall be regiſtred in courſe, according to their Dates, on a Regiſter to be kept by the Auditor of the ſaid Receipt for that Purpoſe; and all Perſons on the ſaid Regiſter ſhall be paid in courſe, as their Orders ſhall ſtand regiſtred, ſo as the Perſon, Native or Foreigner, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, whoſe Orders ſhall be firſt regiſtred, ſhall be accounted the Perſon to be firſt paid out of the Money to come in by this Act; and he or they, who ſhall have his or their Order or Orders next entred, ſhall be taken to be the Second Perſon to be paid, and ſo in courſe; and that the Monies to come in by the ſaid Subſidy of Tunnage and Poundage, and other the Duties hereby granted, ſhall be in the ſame Order liable to the Satisfaction of the ſaid reſpective Perſons, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns ſucceſſively, without undue Preference of One before another, and not otherwiſe, and ſhall not be diverted or divertible to any other Uſe, Intent, or Purpoſe whatſoever; and that no Fee, Reward, or Gratuity, directly or indirectly, be demanded or taken of any of Her Majeſty's Subjects for providing or making of any ſuch Books or Regiſters, or any Entries, Views, or Search in or for Payment of Money lent, or the Intereſt thereof, as aforeſaid, by any of Her Majeſty's Officer or Officers, their Clerks or Deputies, on Pain of Payment of Treble Damages to the Party aggrieved by the Party offending, with Treble Coſts of Suit; or if the Officer himſelf take or demand any ſuch Fee or Reward, then to loſe his Place alſo; and if any undue Preference of one before another ſhall be made, either in point of Regiſtry or Payment, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, by any ſuch Officer or Officers, then the Party offending ſhall be liable, by Action of Debt, or on the Caſe, to pay the Value of the Debt, with Damages and Coſts, to the Party grieved, and ſhall be for ever incapable of his Place or Office; and if ſuch Preference be unduly made by any his Deputy or Clerk, without Direction or Privity of his Maſter, then ſuch Deputy or Clerk only ſhall be liable to ſuch Action, Debt, Damages, and Coſts, and ſhall be for ever after incapable of his Place or Office; and in caſe the Auditor of the Receipt ſhall not direct, or the Clerk of the Pells record, or the Teller make Payment, according to each Perſon's due Place and Order, as afore directed, then he or they ſhall be adjudged to forfeit, and the reſpective Deputies and Clerks herein offending, to be liable to ſuch Action, Debt, Damages, and Coſts, in ſuch Manner as aforeſaid: All which ſaid Penalties, Forfeitures, Damages, and Coſts, to be incurred by any of the Officers of the Exchequer, or any their Deputies or Clerks, ſhall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of Her Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, Injunction, or Order of Reſtraint, ſhall be in any wiſe granted or allowed.

What ſhall not be accounted undue Preference.

VII. Provided always, and be it hereby declared, That if it happen that ſeveral Tallies of Loan, or Orders for Payment, as aforeſaid, bear Date, or be brought the ſame Day to the Auditor of the Receipt to be regiſtred, then it ſhall be interpreted no undue Preference which of thoſe be entred firſt, ſo as he enters them all the ſame Day.

VIII. Provided alſo, That it ſhall not be interpreted any undue Preference to incur any Penalty in Point of Payment, if the Auditor direct, and the Clerk of the Pells record, and the Tellers do pay ſubſequent Orders of Perſons that come and demand their Monies, and bring their Orders, before other Perſons that did not come to take their Monies, and bring their Orders in their Courſe, ſo as there be ſo much Money reſerved as will ſatiſfy precedent Orders, which ſhall not be otherwiſe diſpoſed, but kept for them; Intereſt upon Loan being to ceaſe from the Time the Money is ſo reſerved and kept in Bank for them.

Orders may be aſſigned, and Aſſignee may aſſign again.

IX. And be it further enacted, That all and every Perſon and Perſons, to whom any Money ſhall be due for Loans by virtue of this Act, after Order entred in the Book of Regiſter, as aforeſaid, his or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, by Indorſement of his Order, may aſſign or transfer his Right, Title, Intereſt, and Benefit of ſuch Order, or any Part thereof, to any other; which being notified in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt aforeſaid, and an Entry or Memorial thereof alſo made in the ſaid Book or Regiſtry (which the Officers ſhall upon Requeſt, without Fee or Charge, accordingly make) ſhall intitle ſuch Aſſignee, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, Succeſſors, and Aſſigns, to the Benefit thereof, and Payment thereon; and ſuch Aſſignee may in like manner aſſign again, and ſo toties quoties, and afterwards it ſhall not be in the Power of ſuch Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall make ſuch Aſſignments, to make void, releaſe, or diſcharge the ſame, or any the Monies thereby due, or any Part thereof.

Monies how appropriated.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all the Monies which ſhall be lent to Her Majeſty on the Credit of the ſaid Subſidies and Duties by this Act granted, and all the Monies which are or ſhall be lent, contributed, or advanced to Her Majeſty, upon every or any other Act or Acts of this Seſſion of Parliament, for granting any Aid or Supply to Her Majeſty for carrying on the preſent War, and other Her Majeſty's neceſſary and important Occaſions; and ſo much of the ſeveral Taxes and Duties granted in this Seſſion of Parliament for the Purpoſes aforeſaid, and charged or chargeable with Loans made or to be made thereupon, as ſhall remain (over and above the Monies thereof which are in the firſt Place to go and be applied in Repayment and Satisfaction of all the ſaid Loans, made or to be made thereupon, or upon any of them, and the Intereſt thereof reſpectively, and over and above the Charges to be allowed for raiſing the ſaid Taxes and Duties reſpectively) ſhall be appropriated, iſſued, and applied, and the ſame are hereby appropriated for or towards the ſeveral Uſes and Purpoſes herein after expreſſed (that is to ſay) for or towards the defraying the Charges of the Ordinary of Her Majeſty's Navy, and for Victuals, Wages, Wear, Tear, and other Services of the Navy, and the Victualling thereof, performed and to be performed; and for the Sea Service in the Office of the Ordnance, performed and to be performed, for or towards the ſupplying of Ordnance Stores for Sea Service, and for and towards the making of a Wharf and Storehouſe at Portſmouth, and for paying the Bounty or Reward, which Her Majeſty ſhall be pleaſed to beſtow, in Conſideration of the good Service of thoſe who were on Board Her Majeſty's Fleet, or at Gibraltar, at the Time of the late Engagement in the Mediterranean Sea; and for or towards the Land Services, performed and to be performed, by the ſaid Office of the Ordnance, and to and for Subſiſtence, Off-reckonings, and Clearings for One Year, from the Three and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and four, to Her Majeſty's Guards and Garriſons in England, and the Dominions thereunto belonging (Ireland excepted) and the contingent Charges of the ſame; and for Payment of Invalids for the ſaid Year, beginning from the ſaid Three and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and four; and for or towards the defraying the Charge of Her Majeſty's Army, and ſuch Forces as are or ſhall be added thereunto in the Low Countries, or Germany, within or for One Year, to be reckoned from the ſaid Three and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and four, and the contingent Charges thereunto belonging; and for paying the Bounty or Reward which Her Majeſty ſhall be pleaſed to beſtow, in Conſideration of the good Services performed by Her Land Forces in Germany, during the laſt Summer; and for or towards the defraying Her Majeſty's Part of the Charge of the Forces acting or to act in Conjunction with the Forces of the King of Portugal, until or at any Time before the Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five; and for defraying extraordinary Expences of the War in the Year One thouſand ſeven hundred and three, purſuant to the late Treaty with Portugal; and for or towards the Payment of Her Majeſty Proportion of the Suſidies due upon Treaties made, or to be made, with Her Majeſty's Allies, and other Charges for the Service of War, for any Time before, or until the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five; and for or towards the recruiting the Horſes of the Engliſh Horſe and Dragoons loſt at the Battles of Schellemberg and Blenheim; and for or towards Her Majeſty's Proportion of the Levy Money, to recruit the Men and Horſes of the Foreigners in the Pay of Her Majeſty and of the States General of the United Provinces of the Netherlands, which were loſt in the ſame Battles; and for or towards diſcharging of the Præmiums, and other Charges, for circulating the Bills commonly called Exchequer Bills; and for or towards the Charge of Tranſportation of the Land Forces, performed and to be performed; and for and towards the Charge of raiſing and maintaining Five thouſand additional Forces, to enable Her Majeſty to ſupply the like Number of Men to act in Conjunction with the Forces of Her Majeſty's Allies, to ſerve with the Fleet; and for Payment of another Year's Intereſt, after the Rate of Five Pounds per Cent. for the unſatisfied Debentures charged on the Iriſh Forfeitures; and for or towards the Sums to be paid by Her Majeſty to the King of Pruſſia, purſuant to the late Treaty made with him for the Support of the Duke of Savoy; and to none other Uſe, Intent, or Purpoſe whatſoever.

Proviſo towards Maintenance of the Soldiers raiſed for Sea Service.

XI. Provided always, That out of the Monies to be iſſued to the Guards and Garriſons, as aforeſaid, there ſhall and may be taken and applied any Sum not exceeding Eighty ſeven thouſand one hundred twenty five Pounds, Ten Shillings, towards the Charge of maintaining the Soldiers raiſed and to be raiſed for Sea Service, with their Officers, and the contingent Charges thereunto belonging; and out of the Monies to be iſſued for the Service of the Navy and Sea Services, as aforeſaid, there ſhall be taken and applied ſuch Sums, as, together with the ſaid Sum not exceeding Eighty ſeven thouſand one hundred twenty five Pounds and Ten Shillings, ſhall be neceſſary for the Charge of maintaining the ſaid Soldiers for Sea Service, with their Officers, and the contingent Charges thereunto belonging; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

and on Payment, Sureties to be diſcharged.

CAP. VI.

An Act for the better enabling Her Majeſty to grant the Honor and Manor of Woodſtock, with the Hundred of Wootton, to the Duke of Marlborough and his Heirs, in Conſideration of the eminent Services by him performed to Her Majeſty and the Publick.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WHEREAS the eminent and unparallelled Services performed to Your Majeſty and the Crown of England, by the moſt Noble John Duke of Marlborough, are well known, not only to Your Majeſty, and to all Your Subjects, but to all Europe, who will always remember, That the Alliances which Your Majeſty's Royal Brother King WILLIAM the Third, of Glorious Memory, had, in a little Time before his Death, contracted by the Miniſtry of the ſaid Duke of Marlborough, as His Majeſty's Ambaſſador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the States General of the United Provinces, for preſerving the Liberties of Europe, againſt the Ambition of France, were immediately after Your Majeſty's Happy Acceſſion to the Throne, by the ſaid Duke, then employed by Your Majeſty in the ſame Character, confirmed and improved, and others were contracted, whereby the Confederacy, which had been diſſolved at the End of the laſt War, was re-united in a ſtricter and firmer League: And that in the Firſt Year of Your Majeſty's Reign, the ſaid Duke of Marlborough did ſo well execute the Commiſſion and Orders which he received from Your Majeſty, as Captain General and Commander in Chief of Your Majeſty's Forces, that he not only ſecured and extended the Frontier of Holland, by taking the Towns and Fortreſſes of Venlo, Ruremond, Stevenſwaert, and Liege, but ſoon obliged the Enemy (who had been at the Gates of Nimeghen) to ſeek Shelter behind their Lines; and the next Campaign, by taking Bon, Huy, and Limbourg, added all the Country between the Rhine and the Maes to the Conqueſt of the preceding Year: And that in the memorable Year, One thouſand ſeven hundred and four, when Your Majeſty was generouſly pleaſed to take the Reſolution of reſcuing the Empire from that immediate Ruin, to which, by the Defection of the Elector of Bavaria, it was expoſed, the Meaſures, which by Your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Goodneſs had been deviſed and conſerted, were purſued by the ſaid Duke with the utmoſt Diligence, Secrecy, and good Conduct, in leading the Forces of Your Majeſty, and Your Allies, by a long and difficult March, to the Banks of the Danube, where the ſaid Duke did immediately upon his Arrival, attack and force the Bavarians (aſſiſted by the French) in their ſtrong Intrenchments at Schellenberg, paſſed the Danube, diſtreſſed the Country of Bavaria, and a Second Time fought the Enemies, who had been reinforced by a Royal Army of the French King's beſt Troops, commanded by a Marſhal of France; and on the Second Day of Auguſt, One thouſand ſeven hundred and four, after a bloody Battle, at or near Blenheim (although the Enemies had the Advantages of Number and Situation) did gain as abſolute and glorious a Victory, as is recorded in the Hiſtory of any Age; by which Bavaria being entirely reduced, Ratisbon, Augsbourg, Ulm, Memminghen, and other Imperial Towns recovered, the Liberty of the Diet and the Peace of the Empire was reſtored, and Landau, Treves, and Traerbach, being taken, the War is carried into the Dominions of France: And foraſmuch as the happy Atchievements of the ſaid Duke, having apparently tended not only to the Honour and Safety of Your Majeſty, and Your Subjects, and of their Poſterity, but alſo towards the future Tranquillity of Europe; Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of England in Parliament aſſembled, thought themſelves obliged, in an humble Addreſs to Your Majeſty, not only to expreſs their great Senſe of the ſaid glorious Victories, but alſo humbly to deſire Your Majeſty, that You would be graciouſly pleaſed to conſider of ſome proper Means to perpetuate the Memory of ſuch Signal Services: And Your Majeſty having been thereupon pleaſed to ſignify Your Intention to grant the Intereſt of the Crown in the Honor and Manor of Woodſtock and the Hundred of Wootton, to the ſaid Duke and his Heirs; Your Majeſty's ſaid dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of England in Parliament aſſembled, duly conſidering the good and prudent Proviſion made by Your Majeſty, by an Act of Parliament in the Firſt Year of Your Reign, for preſerving the Inheritance of ſeveral Revenues of the Crown, and believing that the Settlement of the ſaid Honor, Manor, and Hundred, on the ſaid Duke and his Heirs, can make no Precedent for Caſes where there is or ſhall be leſs Merit, do moſt humbly, cheerfully, and unanimouſly beſeech Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by any Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England, hereafter to be made, to give and grant unto the ſaid John Duke of Marlborough, and his Heirs and Aſſigns for ever, or to any other Perſon or Perſons to the Uſe of or in Truſt for the ſaid Duke, his Heirs, and Aſſigns for ever, all that the Honor and Manor of Woodſtock, with the Rights, Members, and Appurtenances thereof, ſituate, lying, and being in the County of Oxon, and all that the Hundred of Wootton, with the Rights, Members, and Appurtenances thereof, in the ſaid County of Oxon, and all thoſe the Manors, or reputed Manors of Hardley, Wootton, Old Woodſtock, Hanborough, Stonesfield, Combe, and Bladon, with the Advowſons of the Rectories, Vicarages, or Churches of Bladon or Stonesfield, and all the Rights, Members, and Appurtenances, to them or any of them belonging, in the County of Oxon aforeſaid; and all Quit Rents, Rents of Aſſize, Chief Rents, Old Rents, Free Rents, Copyhold and Cuſtomary Rents, Rent Works, and all other Rents, and yearly Sum and Sums of Money whatſoever, to the ſaid Honor, Hundred, and Manors, or reputed Manors, every or any of them, belonging, or in any wiſe appertaining; and alſo all that demoliſhed Meſſuage, Court Houſe, or Toft, with the Appurtenances, together with the Site thereof, now or formerly called Woodſtock Manor Houſe, ſituate, lying, and being in the ſaid County of Oxon, within the Park herein after-mentioned; CAP. VII.

An Act for the effectual ſecuring the Kingdom of England from the apparent Dangers that may ariſe from ſeveral Acts lately paſſed in the Parliament of Scotland.

Queen may appoint Commiſſioners under Her Great Seal of England, to treat with Commiſſioners authorized by the Parliament of Scotland, for treating of a Union between both Kingdoms.

FOR preventing the many Inconveniencies which may ſpeedily happen to the Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland, if a nearer and more compleat Union be not made between the ſaid Kingdoms; be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That ſuch Perſons as ſhall be nominated by Her Majeſty, under Her Great Seal of England, or ſuch and ſo many of them as ſhall in that Behalf be appointed by Her Majeſty to be of the Quorum, ſhall, by Force of this Act, have full Power, Commiſſion and Authority, at ſuch Time and Times, and in ſuch Place or Places, as Her Majeſty ſhall pleaſe to appoint, to aſſemble and meet, and thereupon to treat and conſult, according to the Tenor or Purport of their Authority or Commiſſion in that Behalf, with certain Commiſſioners as ſhall be authorized by Authority of the Parliament of Scotland, of and concerning ſuch an Union of the ſaid Kingdoms of England and Scotland, and of and concerning ſuch other Matters, Clauſes, and Things, as upon mature Deliberation of the greateſt Part of the ſaid Commiſſioners, aſſembled as aforeſaid, and the Commiſſioners to be authorized by the Parliament of Scotland, according to the Tenor or Purport of their Commiſſions in that Behalf, ſhall in their Wiſdoms think convenient and neceſſary for the Honour of Her Majeſty, and the common Good of both the ſaid Kingdoms for ever: Which Commiſſioners of both the ſaid Kingdoms ſhall, according to the Tenor or Purport of their ſaid Authorities or Commiſſions in that Behalf, reduce their Doings and Proceedings therein into Writings or Inſtruments Quadrupartite, every Part to be ſubſcribed and ſealed by them, to the end that One Part thereof may in all Humbleneſs be preſented to the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, Two other Parts thereof to be offered to the Conſideration of the Parliament for the Realm of England, and another Part to be offered to the Conſideration of the Parliament for the Realm of Scotland, at their next Seſſions, which ſhall be held in each Kingdom reſpectively, after ſuch Writings or Inſtruments ſhall be ſubſcribed and ſealed by the ſaid Commiſſioners, that thereupon ſuch further Proceedings may be had, as to Her Majeſty, and both the ſaid Parliaments, ſhall be thought fit and neceſſary for the Weal and Common Good of both the ſaid Kingdoms, to whom the entire Conſideration of the whole, and the allowing or diſallowing the whole, or any Part thereof, as they ſhall think fit, is wholly reſerved.

Commiſſioners to reduce their Proceedings into Writings Quadrupartite.

When ſuch Commiſſion ſhall commence.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted and declared, That no ſuch Commiſſion or Authority, as aforeſaid, ſhall be granted, until an Act of Parliament ſhall be made in the Kingdom of Scotland, impowering Her Majeſty to grant a Commiſſion under the Great Seal of that Kingdom, nominating Commiſſioners to treat concerning the Union of the Two Kingdoms.

Nothing agreed on to have any Force til confirmed by Act of Parliament of England.

III. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted and declared, That no Matter or Thing to be treated of, agreed or propoſed by the ſaid Commiſſioners by virtue of this Act, ſhall have any Force or Effect to be put in Execution, until it be confirmed and eſtabliſhed by Act of Parliament of England.

After 25 December, 1705. no Native of Scotland, except ſettled Inhabitants, to inherit any Lands in England, &c. The Seven following Clauſes are repealed by 4 Annæ, c. 3. ſ. 10. Nor be ſupplied with Horſes, Arms, or Ammunition from England. Scotch Cattle prohibited to be brought into England or Ireland. Lawful to ſeize and detain Cattle ſo brought in. Engliſh Cattle intermixt with Scotch Cattle and ſo ſeized, ſubject to the like Forfeiture. Penalty on Perſons conſpiring to avoid or evade ſuch Seizures. After 25 December, 1705. no Scotch Coals to be imported into England or Ireland. Nor Scotch Linen.

Commiſſioners not to treat of altering the Liturgy or Government of the Church of England.

XII. Provided always, and be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Commiſſioners to be named in purſuance of this Act, ſhall not by virtue of ſuch Commiſſion, treat of or concerning any Alteration of the Liturgy, Rites, Ceremonies, Diſcipline or Government of the Church, as by Law eſtabliſhed within this Realm.

CAP. VIII.

An Act to permit the Exportation of Iriſh Linen Cloth to the Plantations, and to prohibit the Importation of Scotch Linen into Ireland.

15 Car. 2. c. 7.

WHEREAS in and by an Act made in the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of Trade, it is amongſt other Things enacted, That no Commodity of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of Europe, ſhall be imported into any Land, Iſland, Plantation, Colony, Territory, or Place, to His Majeſty belonging, or which ſhall hereafter belong unto, or be in the Poſſeſſion of His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, in Aſia, Africa, or America (except as is therein excepted) but what ſhall be bona fide, and without Fraud, laden and ſhipped in England, Wales, or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, under the Penalties in the ſaid Act contained: Yet foraſmuch as the Proteſtant Intereſt in Her Majeſty's Kingdom of Ireland ought to be ſupported, by giving the utmoſt Encouragement to the Linen Manufactures of that Kingdom; Her Majeſty is graciouſly pleaſed, in tender Regard to Her good Proteſtant Subjects of Her ſaid Kingdom, and for the further Encouragement of the Linen Manufactures thereof, That it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Four and twentieth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Native or Natives of England, or Ireland, to lade and ſhip in any Port of the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland in Engliſh built Shipping, whereof the Maſter and One Moiety of the Mariners, during the preſent War, and afterwards the Maſter and Three Fourths of the Mariners at leaſt to be Engliſh or Iriſh, any White or Brown Linen Cloth, which ſhall be of the Manufacture of the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, and no other, and the ſame to tranſport in ſuch Ships, and ſo navigated, into any of the ſaid Lands, Iſlands, Plantations, Colonies, Territories, or Places, and there freely to traffick with, and vend the ſame; any thing in the ſaid Act, or in any other Act, to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

After 24 June, 1705. Iriſh Linen may be tranſported, and ſent to the Engliſh Plantations. This Part of the Act continued by 3 Geo. 1. c. 21. ſ. 1. under the Limitation therein mentioned.

II. Provided

II. Provided nevertheleſs, That no Ship or Veſſel coming to any of the ſaid Lands, Iſlands, Plantations, Colonies, Territories, or Places, from the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, ſhall unlade, or break Bulk, until the Maſter or Commander of ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall firſt have made known to the Governor of ſuch Land, Iſland, Plantation, Colony, Territory, or Place, or to ſuch Perſon or Officer as ſhall be by him thereunto authorized and appointed, the Arrival of the ſaid Ship or Veſſel, with her Name, and the Name and Surname of the Maſter or Commander, and ſhall have delivered to ſuch Governor or Officer, a true and perfect Inventory or Invoyce of the Lading of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, together with a Certificate from the Chief Officer of the Port in Ireland, where ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall be laden, expreſſing the Particulars of ſuch Lading, with the Names and Abodes of the Exporters, and of Two Perſons at the leaſt, who ſhall have made Oath before ſuch Chief Officer, that the ſaid Goods and Linen are bona fide of the Manufacture of the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, and until the Maſter or Commander of ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall have made Oath before ſuch Governor or Officer, that the ſaid Goods, and every Parcel thereof, are the ſame Goods that he, the ſaid Maſter or Commander, took on Board by Virtue of ſuch Certificate, as is aforeſaid, nor until ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall have been viſited and ſearched by an Officer or Officers; and in caſe the Commander of any ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall unlade, or break Bulk, before ſuch Notice given, and ſuch Certificate produced, and ſuch Oath made by ſuch Commander, or before ſuch Search made, as aforeſaid, or if upon ſuch Search any Goods whatſoever of Woollen Manufacture, not laden in England (neceſſary Apparel of the Commander and Mariners only excepted) or any Linen Goods not laden in England, nor of the Manufacture of Ireland, ſhall be found in ſuch Ship or Veſſel; in all or any of the ſaid Caſes, ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall be, and is hereby adjudged forfeited, with all her Guns, Tackle, Ammunition and Furniture, together with all ſuch Goods and Commodities, of what Kind ſoever, as ſhall be imported or found in ſuch Ship; One Third Part to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, One Third Part to the Governor of ſuch Land, Iſland, Plantation, Colony, Territory, or Place, into which ſuch Goods ſhall be imported, if the ſaid Ship, Veſſel, or Goods be there ſeized, informed againſt, or ſued for (or otherwiſe that Third Part alſo to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors) and the other Third Part to him or them who ſhall ſue for the ſame in Her Majeſty's Court, in ſuch of the ſaid Lands, Iſlands, Colonies, Plantations, Territories, or Places, where the Offence ſhall be committed, or in any of Her Majeſty's Courts at Weſtminſter, by Bill, Plaint, Information, or other Action, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed.

and an Invoyce of the Lading, &c. delivered.

Penalty on Commander offending.

Ships coming from Ireland, liable to be viſited in like Manner as Ships from England.

III. And be it further enacted, That all Ships coming from Ireland, to any ſuch Land, Iſland, Colony, Plantation, Territory, or Place, ſhall be ſubject to the ſame Rules, Viſitations, Searches, Penalties, and Forfeitures, to which Ships coming from England to any of the ſaid Colonies, Plantations, or Places, are ſubject or liable to by any Law now in Force. [The Four next Sections are omitted, being repealed by 5 Ann. c. 8.]

Penalty on importing Scotch Linen into Ireland after 25 March, 1705. Linen ſo prohibited, to be ſeized, and Importers proſecuted. After Condemnation to be ſold by Inch of Candle. But not delivered until Bond given for exporting ſuch Goods in Three Months out of Ireland, &c. How Bond ſhall be vacated. Penalty on not exporting ſuch Goods. Penalty on Officer conniving at the Importation of Scotch Linen. Forfeitures where recoverable.

General Iſſue.

VIII. And it is hereby further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons be ſued, moleſted or proſecuted, for or by reaſon of any Seizure made in purſuance of this Act, ſuch Perſon and Perſons may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence; and if afterwards a Verdict ſhall paſs for the Defendant or Defendants, or if the Plaintiff ſhall diſcontinue his Action, or be Nonſuited, or if Judgment be given againſt him, then ſuch Defendant or Defendants ſhall have Double Coſts.

Suits to be commenced within 12 Months after Offence.

IX. Provided always, That all Informations, Actions, and Suits, to be brought for any Offence againſt this Act, ſhall be brought and commenced within Twelve Months after the Diſcovery of ſuch Offence.

Proviſo concerning Engliſh Ships laden for the Plantations, &c.

X. Provided alſo, and be it enacted, That if any Ship or Veſſel, being laden with Goods in England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, for any of the Plantations aforeſaid, ſhall put into any Port or Place in Ireland, and ſhall there take in any White or Brown Iriſh Linen Cloth, in that Caſe, the like Certificate and Oaths ſhall be made, that the ſaid Linen Cloth is of the Manufacture of Ireland, as is before directed by this Act: And if, upon the Arrival of ſuch Ship or Veſſel in any of the ſaid Plantations, ſuch Certificate be produced, and Oaths made, as aforeſaid, ſuch Ship or Veſſel, her Maſter, or Commander, and Lading, ſhall be ſubject and liable to ſuch Rules, Viſitations, Searches, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as they reſpectively were ſubject and liable to by Virtue of the Laws which were in Force before the paſſing of this Act, and no other; any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Act to continue Eleven Years.

XI. Provided, That this Act ſhall continue only for the Term of Eleven Years. [Continued by 3 Geo. 1. c. 21.]

CAP. IX.

An Act for giving like Remedy upon Promiſſory Notes, as is now uſed upon Bills of Exchange, and for the better Payment of Inland Bills of Exchange.

WHEREAS it hath been held, That Notes in Writing, ſigned by the Party who makes the ſame, whereby ſuch Party promiſes to pay unto any other Perſon, or his Order, any Sum of Money therein mentioned, are not aſſignable or indorſible over, within the Cuſtom of Merchants, to any other Perſon; and that ſuch Perſon to whom the Sum of Money mentioned in ſuch Note is payable, cannot maintain an Action, by the Cuſtom of Merchants, againſt the Perſon who firſt made and ſigned the ſame; and that any Perſon to whom ſuch Note ſhould be aſſigned, indorſed, or made payable, could not, within the ſaid Cuſtom of Merchants, maintain any Action upon ſuch Note againſt the Perſon who firſt drew and ſigned the ſame: Therefore, to the Intent to encourage Trade and Commerce, which will be much advanced, if ſuch Notes ſhall have the ſame Effect as Inland Bills of Exchange, and ſhall be negotiated in like Manner; be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Com-Promiſſory Notes may be aſſigned or indorſed, and Action maintained thereon, as on Inland Bills of Exchange.

mons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all Notes in Writing, that after the Firſt Day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, ſhall be made and ſigned by any Perſon or Perſons, Body Politick or Corporate, or by the Servant or Agent of any Corporation, Banker, Goldſmith, Merchant, or Trader, who is uſually intruſted by him, her, or them, to ſign ſuch Promiſſory Notes for him, her, or them, whereby ſuch Perſon or Perſons, Body Politick and Corporate, his, her, or their Servant or Agent, as aforeſaid, doth or ſhall promiſe to pay to any other Perſon or Perſons, Body Politick and Corporate, his, her, or their Order, or unto Bearer, any Sum of Money mentioned in ſuch Note, ſhall be taken and conſtrued to be, by virtue thereof, due and payable to any ſuch Perſon or Perſons, Body Politick and Corporate, to whom the ſame is made payable; and alſo every ſuch Note payable to any Perſon or Perſons, Body Politick and Corporate, his, her, or their Order, ſhall be aſſignable or indorſible over, in the ſame Manner as Inland Bills of Exchange are or may be, according to the Cuſtom of Merchants; and that the Perſon or Perſons, Body Politick and Corporate, to whom ſuch Sum of Money is or ſhall be by ſuch Note made payable, ſhall and may maintain an Action for the ſame, in ſuch Manner as he, ſhe, or they might do, upon any Inland Bill of Exchange, made or drawn according to the Cuſtom of Merchants, againſt the Perſon or Perſons, Body Politick and Corporate, who, or whoſe Servant or Agent, as aforeſaid, ſigned the ſame; and that any Perſon or Perſons, Body Politick and Corporate, to whom ſuch Note that is payable to any Perſon or Perſons, Body Politick and Corporate, his, her, or their Order, is indorſed or aſſigned, or the Money therein mentioned ordered to be paid by Indorſement thereon, ſhall and may maintain his, her, or their Action for ſuch Sum of Money, either againſt the Perſon or Perſons, Body Politick and Corporate, who, or whoſe Servant or Agent, as aforeſaid, ſigned ſuch Note, or againſt any of the Perſons that indorſed the ſame, in like Manner as in Caſes of Inland Bills of Exchange: And in every ſuch Action the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall recover his, her, or their Damages and Coſts of Suit; and if ſuch Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall be Nonſuited, or a Verdict be given againſt him, her, or them, the Defendant or Defendants ſhall recover his, her, or their Coſts againſt the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs; and every ſuch Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, Defendant or Defendants, reſpectively recovering, may ſue out Execution for ſuch Damages and Coſts by Capias, Fieri facias, or Elegit.

Plaintiff or Defendant may recover Coſts.

How Action ſhall be brought.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every ſuch Actions ſhall be commenced, ſued and brought within ſuch Time as is appointed for commencing or ſuing Actions upon the Caſe, by the Statute made in the One and twentieth Year of the Reign of King James the Firſt, intituled, An Act for Limitation of Actions, and for avoiding of Suits in Law.

21 Jac. 1. c. 16.

Proviſo againſt giving out Notes.

III. Provided, That no Body Politick or Corporate ſhall have Power, by virtue of this Act, to iſſue or give out any Notes, by themſelves or their Servants, other than ſuch as they might have iſſued, if this Act had never been made.

9 W. 3. c. 17.

IV. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King William the Third, intituled, An Act for the better Payment of Inland Bills of Exchange, it is, among other Things, enacted, That from and after Preſentation and Acceptance of the ſaid Bill or Bills of Exchange (which Acceptance ſhall be by the underwriting the ſame under the Party's Hand ſo accepting) and after the Expiration of Three Days after the ſaid Bill or Bills ſhall become due, the Party to whom the ſaid Bill or Bills are made payable, his Servant, Agent, or Aſſigns, may, and ſhall cauſe the ſame Bill or Bills to be proteſted in Manner as in the ſaid Act is enacted: And whereas by there being no Proviſion made therein for proteſting ſuch Bill or Bills, in caſe the Party, on whom the ſame are or ſhall be drawn, refuſe to accept the ſame, by underwriting the ſame under his Hand, all Merchants and others do refuſe to underwrite ſuch Bill or Bills, or make any other than a Promiſſory Acceptance, by which Means the Effect and good Intent of the ſaid Act in that Behalf is wholly evaded, and no Bill or Bills can be proteſted before or for want of ſuch Acceptance by underwriting the ſame, as aforeſaid: For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Firſt Day of May, which ſhall be in the Year of Our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, in Caſe, upon preſenting of any ſuch Bill or Bills of Exchange, the Party or Parties, on whom the ſame ſhall be drawn, ſhall refuſe to accept the ſame, by underwriting the ſame, as aforeſaid, the Party to whom the ſaid Bill or Bills are made payable, his Servant, Agent, or Aſſigns, may and ſhall cauſe the ſaid Bill or Bills to be proteſted for Non-acceptance, as in caſe of Foreign Bills of Exchange; any thing in the ſaid Act, or any other Law, to the contrary notwithſtanding: For which Proteſt there ſhall be paid Two Shillings, and no more.

Party refuſing to underwrite Bill of Exchange, ſuch Bill may be proteſted for Non-acceptance.

No Acceptance of Inland Bills of Exchange to be ſufficient, unleſs the ſame be underwritten, nor Drawer thereof liable to Coſts, &c.

V. Provided always, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of May, no Acceptance of any ſuch Inland Bill of Exchange ſhall be ſufficient to charge any Perſon whatſoever, unleſs the ſame be underwritten or indorſed in Writing thereupon; and if ſuch Bill be not accepted by ſuch Underwriting, or Indorſement in Writing, no Drawer of any ſuch Inland Bill ſhall be liable to pay any Coſts, Damages, or Intereſt thereupon, unleſs ſuch Proteſt be made for Non-acceptance thereof, and within Fourteen Days after ſuch Proteſt, the ſame be ſent, or otherwiſe Notice thereof be given to the Party from whom ſuch Bill was received, or left in Writing at the Place of his or her uſual Abode; and if ſuch Bill be accepted, and not paid before the Expiration of Three Days after the ſaid Bill ſhall become due and payable, then no Drawer of ſuch Bill ſhall be compellable to pay any Coſts, Damages, or Intereſt thereupon, unleſs a Proteſt be made and ſent, or Notice thereof be given, in Manner and Form above-mentioned: Nevertheleſs, every Drawer of ſuch Bill ſhall be liable to make Payment of Coſts, Damages, and Intereſt upon ſuch Inland Bill, if any One Proteſt be made of Non-acceptance, or Non-payment thereof, and Notice thereof be ſent, given or left, as aforeſaid.

No Proteſt neceſſary for Non-payment, unleſs the Bill be drawn for 20*l.* or upwards.

VI. Provided, That no ſuch Proteſt ſhall be neceſſary, either for Non-acceptance or Non-payment of any Inland Bill of Exchange, unleſs the Value be acknowledged and expreſſed in ſuch Bill to be received, and unleſs ſuch Bill be drawn for the Payment of Twenty Pounds Sterling or upwards; and that the Proteſt, hereby required for Non-acceptance, ſhall be made by ſuch Perſons as are appointed by the ſaid recited Act to proteſt Inland Bills of Exchange for Non-payment thereof.

By whom Proteſt ſhall be made.

VII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of May, if any Perſon doth accept any ſuch Bill of Exchange for and in Satisfaction of any former Debt, or Sum of Money formerly due unto him, the ſame ſhall be accounted and eſteemed a full and complete Payment of ſuch Debt, if ſuch Perſon, accepting of any ſuch Bill for his Debt, doth not take his due Courſe to obtain Payment thereof, by endeavouring to get the ſame accepted and paid, and make his Proteſt, as aforeſaid, either for Non-acceptance, or Non-payment thereof.

Acceptance of Bill eſteemed a full Payment of Debt.

VIII. Provided, That nothing herein contained ſhall extend to diſcharge any Remedy, that any Perſon may have againſt the Drawer, Accepter or Indorſer of ſuch Bill.

Proviſo.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall continue and be in Force for the Space of Three Years, from the ſaid Firſt Day of May, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer. Made perpetual by 7 Annæ, c. 25. ſ. 3.

Act to continue 3 Years.

CAP. X.

An Act for making perpetual an Act for the more eaſy Recovery of ſmall Tithes; and alſo an Act for the more eaſy obtaining Partition of Lands in Coparcenary, Joint Tenancy, and Tenancy in Common; and alſo for making more effectual and amending ſeveral Acts relating to the Return of Jurors.

WHEREAS divers temporary Laws, which by Experience have been found beneficial and uſeful, are expired, or near expiring; therefore, for continuing the ſame, be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That an Act made in the Seſſion of Parliament held in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of the late King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for the more eaſy Recovery of ſmall Tithes, which was to continue for Three Years, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, which Act was further continued by an Act made in the Tenth and Eleventh Years of the Reign of the ſaid King WILLIAM the Third, for Seven Years from the Expiration thereof, which will expire at the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament after the Year One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, ſhall be, and is hereby continued, and ſhall be in force, and be made perpetual.

7 & 8 W. 3. c. 6. for recovering ſmall Tithes, and further continued by 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 15. made perpetual.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That an Act made in the Seſſion of Parliament held in the Eighth and Ninth Years of his ſaid late Majeſty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for the eaſier obtaining Partitions of Lands in Coparcenary, Joint Tenancy, and Tenancy in Common, which will expire at the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament after the Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and four, ſhall be, and is hereby continued, and ſhall be in force, and be made perpetual.

8 & 9 W. 3. c. 31. for the eaſier obtaining Partitions of Lands in Coparcenary, &c. made perpetual.

III. And whereas in an Act made in the Seſſion of Parliament held in the Fourth and Fifth Years of the late King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, intituled, An Act for reviving, continuing, and explaining, ſeveral Laws therein mentioned, which are expired and near expiring, there are ſeveral good Clauſes and Proviſions relating to the returning of Jurors, which Clauſes and Proviſions were by the ſaid Act to continue in force for Seven Years after the Firſt of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety three, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament: And whereas the ſaid Clauſes and Proviſions relating to the returning of Jurors were, by an Act made in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the late King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for the Eaſe of Jurors, and better regulating of Juries, continued for Seven Years, from the Firſt of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and ſix, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer; which ſaid laſt-mentioned Act was alſo to continue but for the ſaid Term of Seven Years, from the Firſt of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and ſix, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament: And whereas the ſaid Act made in the ſaid Seſſion of Parliament, held in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the late King WILLIAM the Third, was by an Act made in the Firſt Year of the Reign of Her preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for continuing former Acts for exporting Leather, and for Eaſe of Jurors, and for reviving and making more effectual an Act relating to Vagrants, continued for Seven Years from the Expiration thereof, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament: And whereas the ſaid Clauſes, Proviſions, and Act have not proved effectual, by reaſon of ſome Defects in the ſaid Act; for Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Sheriff of the ſaid County of York ſhall, after the Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, during the Continuance of the ſaid Act, refuſe or neglect to provide and keep ſuch Book or Regiſter, as in the ſaid recited Act is directed, or ſhall refuſe or neglect to enter therein the Names of the Perſons who ſerved as Jurors in any the Aſſizes or General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, to be held in or for the ſaid County, or any the Ridings therein, in or during the Time he ſhall be Sheriff of the ſaid County, with the Additions and Places of Abode, and Time and Places of ſuch their Services, in ſuch Manner as in and by the ſaid recited Act is directed, or ſhall refuſe or neglect, within Ten Days after the next ſucceeding Sheriff of the ſaid County ſhall be ſworn into his Office, to deliver over to ſuch ſucceeding Sheriff, as well all and every the Books and Regiſters that ſhall be made or prepared in the Year wherein he ſhall have ſerved Sheriff, as alſo all ſuch other Books or Regiſters as were prepared in the Sheriffwick of any of his Predeceſſors, Sheriffs of the ſaid County, within Four Years then next before, and which were delivered over to him by any of his ſaid Predeceſſors, or ſhall refuſe or neglect to make and deliver, by himſelf or his Under Sheriff, ſuch Certificate gratis, as in the ſaid recited Act is mentioned, that then every ſuch Sheriff of the ſaid County of York, ſo refuſing or neglecting in all or any the ſaid Caſes aforeſaid, ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds; One Moiety whereof ſhall be to the Uſe of Her Majeſty, Her Heirs or Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall ſue for the ſame, in any of Her Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, nor more than One Imparlance ſhall be allowed.

Or returning One Perſon oftner than once in Four Years.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any ſuch Sheriff of the ſaid County, for the time being, his or their Under Sheriff, Deputy, or Bailiff, during the Continuance of the ſaid Act, ſhall knowingly ſummon or return any Perſon or Perſons to ſerve on any Jury or Juries, at any the ſaid Aſſizes or Seſſions of the Peace, who ſhall, within Four Years before ſuch Summons or Return, have ſerved on any Jury at any the ſaid Aſſizes or Seſſions held within the ſaid County, or any the Ridings therein, and ſhall not, upon producing of ſuch Certificate or Certificates, as aforeſaid, to the Officer or Perſon ſo ſummoning, or to the ſaid Sheriff, or his Under Sheriff or Deputy, diſcharge the ſaid Summons or Return, and thereof give Notice to the Party ſummoned, Six Days before ſuch Aſſizes or Seſſions of the Peace, at the which ſuch Perſon ſhall be ſummoned or returned to appear, that then the ſaid Sheriff, Under Sheriff, Bailiff, or Perſon ſo ſummoning or refuſing to diſcharge, as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit and loſe to the Party ſo ſummoned the Sum of Twenty Pounds, to be recovered in Manner and Form as is laſt herein beforementioned, together with his Full Coſts of Suit.

Penalty on Conſtables not returning a Liſt of Perſons fit for Jurors. Continued by 9 Geo. 1. c. 8. ſ. 2. for 7 Years. The Conſtable, &c. ſubſcribing the Liſt before a Juſtice, is ſufficient by 3 Geo. 2. c. 25. ſ. 7. See 10 Annæ, c. 14.

V. And whereas many Conſtables, Tythingmen, and Headboroughs of Towns, have refuſed or neglected to return, or give to the Juſtices of the Peace at the General Quarter Seſſions, a true Liſt in Writing of the Names and Places of Abode of all Perſons within the reſpective Places for which they ſerve, qualified to ſerve upon Juries, as in and by the ſaid Act made in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the late King William it is enacted and provided, by reaſon of which Neglect, the good Intent of the ſaid Act has been eluded, and great Inconveniencies have thereupon enſued: For Remedy whereof be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Juſtices of the Peace for all Counties or Ridings, within the Kingdom of England, or Dominion of Wales, ſhall yearly and every Year, during the Continuance of the ſaid Act, at the General Quarter Seſſions to be holden next after the Four and twentieth Day of June, iſſue forth their Warrant or Warrants, under the Hands and Seals of Two or more of them, to the Head or Chief Conſtable and Conſtables of every Hundred, Lathe, or Wapentake, requiring him or them to iſſue forth his or their Precept or Precepts to the reſpective Conſtables, Tythingmen, and Headboroughs within his and their Hundred, Lathe, or Wapentake, thereby directing and requiring them, and all and every of them, to convene and meet together with the ſaid Head Conſtables of the Hundred, Lathe, or Wapentake, within Fourteen Days next after the Date of ſuch Receipt, at ſome uſual or convenient Place in the Hundred, Lathe, or Wapentake, when and where the Conſtables, Tythingmen, and Headboroughs, ſhall prepare and make a true Liſt fair written and ſigned by them, of the Names and Places of Abode of all the Perſons within the reſpective Places for which they ſerve, qualified to ſerve on Juries, according to the Direction of the ſaid Act made in the Fourth and Fifth Years of King William and Queen Mary, with their Titles and Additions, between the Age of One and twenty Years and the Age of Seventy Years, as by the ſaid Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the ſaid King William is directed and appointed: Which Liſt the ſaid Conſtable, Tythingman, and Headborough, or their Deputies, or ſome or One of them, yearly at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace to be holden for each County, Riding, or Diviſion, or any Part thereof, in the Week after the Feaſt of Saint Michael, upon the Firſt Day of the ſaid Seſſions, or upon the Firſt Day that the ſaid Seſſions ſhall be held by Adjournment at any other particular Place or Diviſion, ſhall return and give to the Juſtices of the Peace in open Court: And any Head Conſtable of the Hundred, Lathe, or Wapentake failing to iſſue forth his or their Precept or Precepts to convene and meet together, with the Conſtables, Tythingmen, and Headboroughs, as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit and incur the Penalty of Ten Pounds; and any Conſtable, Tythingman, and Headborough failing to meet the Head Conſtable of the Hundred, Lathe, or Wapentake, purſuant to his Precept, and failing to prepare and make a true Liſt, and to return and give in the ſame to the Juſtices in open Court, as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit and incur the Penalty of Five Pounds: And every ſuch High Conſtable, Conſtable, and Tythingman, ſo offending, ſhall be proſecuted at the General Aſſizes, Seſſions of Oyer and Terminer, and General Gaol Delivery, or Seſſions of the Peace, before the Juſtices thereof, who ſhall have Power and Authority to hear and determine the ſame.

The forementioned Acts to be read publickly every Quarter Seſſions after 24 June, yearly.

VI. And for the better Obſervance of this Act, and of the ſaid Acts made in the Fourth and Fifth Years of King William and Queen Mary, and in the ſaid Seventh and Eighth Years of the late King William, the Juſtices of the Peace at the General Quarter Seſſions, held after the Four and twentieth Day of June, yearly, ſhall cauſe the ſaid ſeveral Acts to be publickly read in open Court.

V. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon and Perſons whatſoever, to take and ſeize in any Place or Places whatſoever, the great Cattle or Sheep brought contrary to this Act into this Kingdom of England or Ireland, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and detain the ſame, during the Space of Four Days, in ſome Publick or convenient Place where ſuch Seizure ſhall be made, within which Time, if the Owner or Owners, or any on his or their Behalf, ſhall make it appear unto ſome Juſtice of the Peace of the ſame County where the ſame ſhall be ſo ſeized, by the Oath of Two credible Witneſſes (which Oath the ſaid Juſtice of the Peace is hereby required and impowered to adminiſter) that the ſame were not brought from Scotland, after the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, then the ſame upon the Warrant of ſuch Juſtice ſhall be forthwith re-delivered.

Engliſh Cattle intermixed, forfeited.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if any Engliſh, or other Cattle or Sheep, ſhall be, with the Privity or Knowledge of the Owner, or any Perſon employed by him, driven or intermixed, or cauſe to be driven or intermixed with great Cattle or Sheep, brought out of or from Scotland, and ſhall be ſeized with them, ſuch Cattle and Sheep ſo intermixed and ſeized, ſhall be deemed Scotch Cattle, and ſhall be ſubject to the like Forfeiture, and ordered and diſpoſed of in all Reſpects as if they were brought out of or from Scotland, contrary to this Act; and if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall wilfully and fraudulently conſpire, confederate, or agree together to avoid or evade the Seizures or Forfeitures upon the Bringing in of Cattle in this Act particularly ſpecified, and the ſame ſhall put in Execution, then every ſuch Perſon and Perſons, being thereof indicted or preſented within One Year, next after ſuch Offence by him or them committed, and being thereof lawfully convicted or attainted, at any Time hereafter, ſhall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds, to be recovered and diſtributed, as aforeſaid.

Perſons ſued, to plead the General Iſſue.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action, Suit, Bill, Plaint, or Information, ſhall be commenced or proſecuted againſt any Perſon or Perſons for any Seizure, or other Thing done or made in Purſuance or Execution of this Act, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall not be obliged to give any more than a common Appearance, and may plead the General Iſſue, and give the ſpecial Matter in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff or Proſecutor ſhall become nonſuit, or forbear Proſecution, or ſuffer Diſcontinuance, or if a Verdict paſs againſt him in any ſuch Action, Bill, Plaint, Suit, or Information, as aforeſaid, the Defendants ſhall have Treble Coſts, for which they ſhall have the like Remedy as in any Caſe where Coſts by Law are given to the Defendant.

Scotch Coals imported, forfeited.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, until ſuch Time as the Succeſſion to the Crown of Scotland be declared and ſettled by an Act of Parliament in Scotland, in like Manner, as aforeſaid, no Scotch Coals ſhall be imported out of the Kingdom of Scotland into the Kingdoms of England or Ireland, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, under the Penalty of forfeiting the Coals ſo imported; One Half to the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, the other Half to ſuch Perſon as ſhall ſeize or ſue for the ſame.

Scotch Linen alſo.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Five and twentieth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, until ſuch Time as the Succeſſion to the Crown of Scotland be declared and ſettled by an Act of Parliament in Scotland, in like Manner, as aforeſaid, no Scotch Linen ſhall be imported or brought out of Scotland into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or Ireland, under the Penalty of forfeiting the ſaid Linen, and double the Value thereof, to be recovered with Coſts of Suit in any of Her Majeſty's Courts of Record; One Moiety thereof to the Queen's Majeſty, the other Moiety to ſuch Perſons as ſhall ſeize, inform, or ſue for the ſame.

The aforeſaid Clauſes repealed.

X. And whereas, ſince the making the ſaid Act, an Act hath been made and paſſed in the Parliament of Scotland, for enabling Her Majeſty to appoint Commiſſioners to treat with Commiſſioners for the Kingdom of England, of and concerning an Union of the ſaid Kingdoms of England and Scotland: Now to the End that the good and friendly Diſpoſition of this Kingdom towards the Kingdom of Scotland may appear; be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Clauſes be from henceforth abſolutely repealed and vacated to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever.

CAP. IV.

An Act for the Naturalization of the moſt Excellent Princeſs Sophia, Electreſs and Dutcheſs Dowager of Hanover, and the Iſſue of Her Body.

WHEREAS the imperial Crown and Dignity of the Realms of England, France, and Ireland, and the Dominions thereto belonging, after the Demiſe and Death of Your Majeſty, our moſt gracious Sovereign, without Iſſue of Your Body, is limited by Act of Parliament, to the moſt Excellent Princeſs Sophia, Electreſs and Dutcheſs Dowager of Hanover, Grandaughter of the late King James the Firſt, and the Heirs of her Body, being Proteſtants: And whereas Your Majeſty, by Your Royal Care and Concern for the Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms, reigns in the Hearts and Affections of all Your People, to their great Comfort and Satisfaction, and will be a glorious Example to Your Royal Succeſſors in future Ages: And to the End the ſaid Princeſs Sopkia, Electreſs and Dutcheſs Dowager of Hanover, and the Iſſue of her Body, and all Perſons lineally deſcending from her, may be encouraged to become acquainted with the Laws and Conſtitutions of this Realm, it is juſt and highly reaſonable, that they, in Your Majeſty's Life Time (whom God long preſerve) ſhould be naturalized, and be deemed, taken, and eſteemed Natural Born Subjects of England: We Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament aſſembled, do moſt humbly beſeech Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and therefore be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Princeſs Sophia, Electreſs and Dutcheſs Dowager of Hanover, and the Iſſue of her Body, and all Perſons lineally deſcending from her, Born or hereafter to be Born, be and ſhall be, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever, deemed, taken, and eſteemed Natural Born Subjects of this Kingdom, as if the ſaid Princeſs, and the Iſſue of her Body, and all Perſons lineally deſcending from her, Born or hereafter to be Born, had been Born within this Realm of England; any Law, Statute, Matter, or Thing whatſoever to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Princeſs Sophia of Hanover, and her Iſſue, naturalized.

No Papiſt, &c. to have the Benefit of a natural-born Subject.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Perſon and Perſons, who ſhall be naturalized by virtue of this Act of Parliament, and ſhall become a Papiſt, or profeſs the Popiſh Religion, ſhall not enjoy any Benefit or Advantage of a Natural Born Subject of England; but every ſuch Perſon ſhall be adjudged and taken taken as an Alien, born out of the Allegiance of the Queen of England, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. V.

An Act for continuing the Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder, and Perry, for the Service of the Year One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix. EXP.

CAP. VI.

An Act for continuing an additional Subſidy of Tonnage and Poundage, and certain Duties upon Coals, Culm, and Cynders, and additional Duties of Exciſe, and for ſettling and eſtabliſhing a Fund thereby, and by other Ways and Means, for Payment of Annuities, to be ſold for raiſing a further Supply to Her Majeſty, for the Service of the Year One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, and other Uſes therein mentioned.

MAY it pleaſe Your moſt Excellent Majeſty, we Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of England in Parliament aſſembled, duly conſidering Your Majeſty's great Occaſions for Money to carry on the preſent War, and having Regard as well to the great Burthen of Taxes now lying upon Your Majeſty's Subjects, as to the preſent Condition of the publick Funds, and the preſent Incumbrances thereupon, are therefore deſirous, by ſuch eaſy and effectual Ways and Means, as in this Act are expreſſed and intended, to raiſe a Sum of Money, not exceeding in the Whole, Two millions Five hundred ſeventy five thouſand Seven hundred ſixty one Pounds, Sixteen Shillings and Two Pence, (Part of the Money neceſſary to be provided in this Seſſion of Parliament for Your Majeſty's Supply) and ſuch further Sum of Money as will be ſufficient, during the firſt Two Years of the Term herein after mentioned, to compleat the Payment of the Annuities to be purchaſed upon this Act; and have for that End and Purpoſe, cheerfully and unanimouſly given and granted, and do by this Act give and grant unto Your Majeſty the Subſidy of Tonnage and Poundage upon Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes, and the ſeveral Duties upon Coal, Culm, and Cynders, and upon Beer, Ale, Cyder, and other Liquors hereafter in this Act mentioned, for ſuch ſeveral and reſpective Terms, and to commence at or from ſuch reſpective Days and Times, and to be paid and payable in ſuch Manner and Form, as in this Act are afterwards expreſſed: (That is to ſay) Whereas by an Act made and paſſed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King WILLIAM the Third, of glorious Memory, (intituled, An Act for granting to His Majeſty a further Subſidy of Tonnage and Poundage, towards raiſing the yearly Sum of Seven hundred thouſand Pounds, for the Service of His Majeſty's Houſhold, and other Uſes therein mentioned, during His Majeſty's Life) it was enacted, That over and above the Subſidies, Impoſitions, and other Duties therein mentioned, there ſhould be raiſed and paid to His Majeſty, One other Subſidy called Tonnage, for and upon all Wines which from and after the laſt Day of January, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety and nine, at any Time and Times, during His Majeſty's Life, ſhould be imported or brought into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed; and One further Subſidy called Poundage of all Manner of Goods and Merchandizes imported or brought into this Realm, or any His Majeſty's Dominions to the ſame belonging, at any Time or Times after the ſaid laſt Day of January, One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, during His Majeſty's Life, by way of Merchandize (except ſuch Goods and Merchandizes as are therein excepted) and with ſuch Abatements, Regulations, Directions for making Repayments or Allowances upon Exportation, and ſubject to ſuch Rules and other Matters and Things touching the ſaid ſeveral Subſidies, as in the laſt-mentioned Act are expreſſed; which ſaid further Subſidies of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Duties upon Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes, granted by the Act above recited, are to be raiſed and paid to Her Majeſty, during Her Life, by virtue of another Act of Parliament made and paſſed in the Firſt Year of Her Reign, (intituled, An Act for the better Support of Her Majeſty's Houſhold, and the Honour and Dignity of the Crown:) And whereas by an Act made and paſſed in the Second Year of Her Majeſty's Reign, (intituled, An Act for granting to Her Majeſty an additional Subſidy of Tonnage and Poundage for Three Years, and for laying a further Duty upon French Wines condemned as lawful Prize, and for aſcertaining the Values of unrated Goods imported from the Eaſt Indies) It was enacted, That there ſhould be raiſed, levied, collected, paid and ſatisfied unto Her Majeſty One other Subſidy called Tonnage, for and upon all Wines which from and after the Eighth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and three, at any Time or Times within or during the Space of Three Years from thence next and immediately enſuing, ſhould be imported or brought into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed; (that is to ſay) One Third Part of ſuch or the like ſeveral and reſpective Duties as by the Two Acts laſt recited or mentioned, or either of them, were impoſed or payable for or upon any Kind of Wine or Wines reſpectively: And One other Subſidy called Poundage of all Manner of Goods and Merchandizes to be imported or brought into this Realm, or any Her Majeſty's Dominions to the ſame belonging, at any Time or Times after the ſaid Eighth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and three, during the ſaid Term of Three Years, by way of Merchandize; (that is to ſay) One Third Part of ſuch or the like ſeveral and reſpective Duties as by the ſaid Two Acts laſt before recited or mentioned, or either of them, are impoſed or payable for or upon the ſame Goods and Merchandizes reſpectively, (except ſuch Goods and other Merchandizes as by the ſaid Two Acts laſt-mentioned, or either of them, are exempted from Payment of the Subſidies thereby granted) as in and by the ſaid ſeveral Acts (Relation being thereunto reſpectively had) may more fully appear: Now we Your Majeſty's ſaid dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons in Parliament aſſembled, for the Ends and Purpoſes aforeſaid, do moſt humbly beſeech Your Majeſty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That over and above the Subſidies of Tonnage and Poundage above-mentioned, and over and above all other Subſidies, additional Duties, Impoſitions, and Payments whatſoever, by any Act or Acts of Parliament, or otherwiſe howſoever already due or payable, or which ought to be paid to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs or Succeſſors, for or upon any Wines, Goods, and Merchandizes whatſoever imported or to be imported, there ſhall be continued, and be raiſed, levied, collected, paid, and ſatisfied unto Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, for and upon all Wines which from and after the Eighth Day of March; which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, at any Time or Times, within or during the Term of Ninety and eight Years from thence next and immediately enſuing,

IV. And Her Majeſty's ſaid dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons in Parliament aſſembled, do alſo humbly beſeech Her Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all ſuch and the like Impoſitions, Rates and Duties whatſoever, as in and by an Act of Parliament made and paſſed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His ſaid late Majeſty King William the Third, (intituled, An Act for granting to His Majeſty ſeveral Duties upon Coal and Culm) were charged and impoſed upon the ſeveral Sorts of Coals and Culm therein mentioned, for the Term of Five Years, which commenced from the Fifteenth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety eight, and the Duty and Duties upon Cynders, which in and by an Act made and paſſed in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the Tenth and Eleventh Years of His late Majeſty's Reign (intituled, An Act for laying further Duties upon Sweets, and for leſſening the Duties as well upon Vinegar, as upon certain Low Wines, and Whale Fins, and the Duties upon Brandy imported, and for the more eaſy raiſing the Duties upon Leather, and for charging Cynders, and for permitting the Importation of Pearl Aſhes, and for preventing Abuſes in the brewing of Beer and Ale, and Frauds in Importation of Tobacco) were charged or impoſed upon ſuch Cynders as are therein mentioned, for Four Years, commencing from the Fifteenth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety nine, which ſeveral Duties upon Coals, Culm and Cynders were by an Act made in the Firſt Year of Her now Majeſty's Reign, (intituled, An Act for continuing the Duties upon Coals, Culm, and Cynders) continued from the Fourteenth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and three, until the Fifteenth Day of May, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and eight (Charcoals made of Wood being always excepted) ſhall by force and virtue of this Act be further continued from the Fourteenth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and eight, until the Thirtieth Day of September, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and ten, for the Purpoſes in this Act expreſſed, and ſhall, during all that Time and Term, be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid, for and upon all ſuch and the like Sorts of Coals, Culm, and Cynders, as by the ſaid former Acts touching the ſame, or any of them, were chargeable, in ſuch Manner and Form, and according to ſuch Rules, and under ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, as by the ſame former Acts touching Coals, Culm, and Cynders, or the Duties thereof, or any of them, were preſcribed for or concerning the Duties thereby granted or continued.

V. And it is hereby enacted, That the ſaid Act (intituled, An Act for granting to His Majeſty ſeveral Duties upon Coals and Culm) and ſo much of the ſaid Act for laying Duties upon Sweets, and other Things, as concerns the ſaid Duty upon Cynders, and all and every the Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, Clauſes, Matters, and Things therein contained, now being in force, for governing, managing, raiſing, levying, ſecuring, collecting, receiving, paying, and accounting for the Duties upon Coals, Culm, and Cynders, by the ſaid former Acts granted or continued, during the ſaid ſeveral Terms therein mentioned, ſhall be and are by force and virtue of this preſent Act revived, and ſhall be in full force, and be duly obſerved, practiſed, and put in Execution, in and for the governing, managing, raiſing, levying, ſecuring, collecting, receiving, paying, and accounting for the Duties upon Coals, Culm, and Cynders by this Act granted, for and during the Term hereby granted of and in the ſame, and all Arrearages thereof, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſame Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, Clauſes, Matters, and Things, were again expreſſed, and particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this preſent Act.

Clauſes, &c. in former Acts revived, for levying the Duties on this Act.

The Annuities how charged.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every the Annuities whatſoever, which ſhall be purchaſed upon, or in purſuance of this preſent Act, ſhall be, and are hereby charged upon, and ſhall be paid and payable from time to time in the firſt Place, and with Preference to all other Payments whatſoever, out of the Monies ariſing from time to time, of and for the ſaid ſeveral Subſidies of Tonnage and Poundage, Impoſitions upon Coals, Culm, and Cynders, and the ſaid ſeveral Rates and Duties of Exciſe, and all and every other Duty and Duties, Sum and Sums of Money whatſoever, by this Act appointed to be brought and paid into the Receipt of Exchequer, as aforeſaid, and every of them, and alſo out of the ſaid Sum not exceeding Two hundred and eighty thouſand Pounds by this Act allowed to be contributed for or towards the making good or compleating the Quarterly Payments for the firſt Two Years, as aforeſaid, and ſo much of the ſaid ſeveral Subſidies, Duties, Impoſitions, Rates, Sum and Sums of Money ſo appointed by this Act, to be brought or paid into the Exchequer, and ſo much of the ſaid Sum not exceeding Two hundred and eighty thouſand Pounds, allowed by this Act to be contributed for this Purpoſe, as aforeſaid, as are and ſhall be ſufficient to ſatisfy and diſcharge all the Annuities to be purchaſed upon this Act, according to the Purport and true Meaning of the ſame, are and ſhall be, by virtue of this Act, appropriated and applied, to and for the ſatisfying and diſcharging of the ſame Annuities accordingly, and ſhall be iſſued, diſpoſed, and applied to that Uſe, and to no other Uſe, Intent, or Purpoſe whatſoever; any thing in this or any other Act of Parliament contained, or any other Matter or Thing whatſoever to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Overplus-monies, if any, diſpoſeable by Parliament.

XXIV. Provided always, That if at the End of the ſaid firſt Two Years of the ſaid Term of Ninety nine Years, there ſhall be an Overplus remaining in the Receipt of the Exchequer of the ſaid Duties and Contribution-monies, or any of them, by this Act appointed for the Payment of the ſaid Annuities, which ſhall be more than what ſhall have been ſufficient to diſcharge all the Quarterly Payments of the ſaid Annuities, until, and for the Quarter to end at Lady Day, One thouſand ſeven hundred and eight; or if at the End of any ſubſequent Year of the ſaid Term of Ninety nine Years, the Monies brought into the Exchequer within ſuch Year of the ſaid ſeveral Subſidies, Impoſitions, Rates, Duties, and Monies by this Act appropriated for Payment of the ſaid Annuities, purſuant to this Act, ſhall exceed all the Monies then due for or upon the ſaid Annuities, and all Arrearages thereof, then or at any Time or Times before that Time incurred, ſo that there ſhall be an Overplus remaining in the Exchequer, ſuch Overplus-monies ſhall be diſpoſable from time to time for the publick Uſe and Service by Authority of Parliament, and not otherwiſe; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Contributors to have ſure Eſtates in the Annuities purchaſed by them free from Taxes.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Contributor and Contributors upon this Act, duly paying the Conſideration or Purchaſe-money at the Rate aforeſaid, at or before the reſpective Days and Times in this Act limited in that Behalf, for any ſuch Annuity or Annuities, as aforeſaid, or ſuch as he, ſhe or they ſhall appoint, his, her, or their reſpective Executors, Adminiſtrators, Succeſſors, and Aſſigns, ſhall have, receive, and enjoy, and be entitled, by virtue of this Act, to have, receive, and enjoy the reſpective Annuity and Annuities ſo to be purchaſed out of the Monies by this Act appropriated or appointed for the Payment thereof, during the ſaid whole Term of Ninety nine Years, as is above-mentioned; and that all and every ſuch Purchaſers, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns reſpectively, ſhall have good and ſure Eſtates and Intereſts in the ſeveral Annuities ſo by them to be purchaſed, according to the Tenor and true Meaning of this Act; and that all the ſaid Annuities to be purchaſed upon this Act, and every of them, during the Term aforeſaid, ſhall be free from all Taxes, Charges, and Impoſitions whatſoever.

And to have Tallies, &c.

and Orders for Payment.

XXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Contributor upon this Act for any Annuity or Annuities, as aforeſaid, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, upon Payment of the Conſideration or Purchaſe-money for the ſame, at the Rate aforeſaid, or any Part or Proportion thereof, within the Time or Times in this Act limited in that Behalf, ſhall immediately have One or more Talley or Tallies levied, importing the Receipt of ſo much Conſideration-money as ſhall be ſo paid, and upon Payment of all the Purchaſe-money for any ſuch Annuity or Annuities at the Rate aforeſaid, every ſuch Contributor, his or her Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns reſpectively, ſhall have an Order for paying of the ſaid Annuity and Annuities, for and during the ſaid Term of Ninety nine Years; which Order ſhall be ſigned by the Treaſurer and Under Treaſurer of the Exchequer, or any Three or more of the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being, and after the ſigning thereof, the ſame ſhall be firm, good, valid, and effectual in the Law, according to the Purport and true Meaning thereof, and of this Act; and ſhall not be determinable by or upon the Deaths or Removal of any Treaſurer or Under Treaſurer of the Exchequer, or any Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or by or upon the Determination of the Power, Office, or Offices of them, or any of them; nor ſhall any Lord High Treaſurer of England, Treaſurer of the Exchequer, or any Commiſſioners of the Treaſury now or for the time being, have Power to revoke, countermand or make void ſuch Orders ſo ſigned, as aforeſaid, or any of them.

No Lord Treaſurer, &c. to revoke the ſame.

6 l. per Cent. allowed for prompt Payment, to 1 May, 1706.

XXVII. And for the Encouragement of the Contributors to advance and pay forthwith into the Receipt of the Exchequer, the Sums by them intended to be advanced upon this Act, it is provided and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every ſuch Contributor who ſhall advance and pay into the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer, all or any Part of the Purchaſe-money payable for any ſuch Annuity or Annuities, as aforeſaid, before the ſaid Firſt Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, ſhall be allowed and paid out of the Contribution-money ariſing by this Act, Intereſt after the Rate of Six Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the prompt Payment of the Money ſo advanced, from the Time of the actual advancing and paying the ſame, until the ſaid Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix.

Annuities aſſignable, and Entry to be made, &c.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Contributor or Contributors, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, at any Time or Times, during the Continuance of his, her, or their Term, Eſtate, or Intereſt of and in any Annuity to be purchaſed upon this Act, by any Writing under Hand and Seal, or by his or her Laſt Will in Writing, to aſſign or deviſe ſuch Annuity, or any Part thereof, or any Intereſt therein, to any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, and ſo toties quoties, and no ſuch Aſſignment to be revocable, ſo as an Entry or Memorandum of ſuch Aſſignment or Will be made in Books to be kept for that Purpoſe in the ſaid Office of the Auditor of the Receipt, within the Space of Three Months after ſuch Aſſignment or Death of the Deviſor, and that upon producing ſuch Aſſignment or Will, or Probat thereof in the ſaid Office of Receipt, to be entred, as aforeſaid, the Party ſo producing the ſame, ſhall bring therewith an Affidavit taken before One or more of Her Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace of the due Execution of the ſaid Aſſignment or Will; which Affidavit ſhall be ſeverally filed in the ſaid Office, which ſaid Entry or Memorandum, the proper Officers in the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer, are hereby required to make accordingly, and to file the ſaid Affidavits; and in Default of ſuch Aſſignment or Deviſe by Deed or Will, the Intereſt of ſuch Contributor ſhall go to his or her Executors or Adminiſtrators.

Affidavits to be filed In Default of Deviſe, Intereſt to go to Executors, &c.

Guardians may purchaſe for Infants, &c.

XXIX. And it is hereby enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any Guardian or Truſtee, having the Diſpoſal of the Money of any Infant under the Age of One and twenty Years, for the Uſe and Benefit of ſuch Infant, to advance and pay the Sum of One hundred fifty five Pounds of the Money of ſuch Infant, to purchaſe an Annuity upon this Act, for the Benefit of ſuch Infant; and the ſaid Guardian or Truſtee, as to the ſaid Sum of One hundred fifty five Pounds, ſo advanced, is hereby diſcharged.

Exchequer Officers to take no Fee, on Penalty, &c.

XXX. And be it further enacted, for the better Encouragement of Perſons to advance the Monies on this Act, That all Receipts and Iſſues, and all other Things directed by this Act to be performed in the Exchequer, ſhall be done and performed by the Officers there, without demanding or receiving, directly or indirectly, any Fee, Gratuity, or Reward for the ſame; and in caſe any of the Officers of the Exchequer ſhall take or Demand any ſuch Fee or Reward, or ſhall divert or miſapply any of the Monies of the ſaid Duties, or Monies hereby appropriated, or any Part thereof, which ſhould make good the Payment of the ſaid Annuities, or ſhall pay or iſſue out the ſame otherwiſe than according to the Intent of this Act, or ſhall not keep Books and Regiſters, and make Entries, and do and perform all other Things, which by this Act they are required to perform, every ſuch Officer ſhall forfeit his Office, and be for the future uncapable of any Office or Place of Truſt, and ſhall anſwer and pay Treble Damages, with Coſts of Suit, to every Contributor or Perſon who ſhall be prejudiced thereby, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of Her Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege of Parliament, or other Privilege, Wager of Law, Injunction, Order of Reſtraint, or more than One Imparlance ſhall be granted or allowed; and in the ſaid Action the Plaintiff, upon Recovery, ſhall have his Full Coſts; One Third Part of which Sum, to be recovered for Damages, ſhall be to the Uſe of Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors; and the other Two Third Parts, with the Coſts, ſhall be to the Uſe of the Proſecutor; and in caſe there ſhall be any Colluſion, or faint Proſecution between the Plaintiff and Defendant in ſuch Action, it ſhall be lawful for any other Contributor, his or her Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, to bring another Action, wherein he or ſhe ſhall recover, as aforeſaid, to the like Uſes, as aforeſaid.

Plaintiff to have Full Coſts.

In caſe of Colluſion, any other Contributor may bring an Action.

XXXI. Provided always, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall or may purchaſe or obtain, or be admitted to purchaſe or obtain any Annuity whatſoever upon this Act, unleſs the Whole, or One Fourth Part at leaſt of the Conſideration-money for the ſame, at ſuch Rate, as aforeſaid, be advanced and paid into the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer, on or before the ſaid Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix.

No Purchaſe, unleſs One Fourth be paid by 1 May, 1706.

XXXII. Provided alſo, That in caſe any ſuch Contributor, as aforeſaid, who ſhall on or before the ſaid Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, have advanced One Fourth Part of his or her Purchaſe-money, or his or her Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, do not advance and pay into the Receipt of the Exchequer, One other Fourth Part of his or her Conſideration-money ſo to be paid for ſuch reſpective Annuity or Annuities, as aforeſaid, on or before the ſaid Firſt Day of July, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix; and One other Fourth Part thereof, on or before the ſaid One and thirtieth Day of Auguſt, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix; and the remaining Fourth Part thereof, on or before the ſaid Firſt Day of November, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix; then and in every ſuch Caſe reſpectively, no Order ſhall be drawn or ſigned for ſuch reſpective Annuity, for which the Conſideration-money ſhall not be fully paid, as aforeſaid; but ſo much of the Conſideration-money as ſhall have been actually paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer for ſuch reſpective Annuity, ſhall be forfeited to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, and be applied, together with other the Monies to be raiſed by this Act, for ſuch publick Services, as aforeſaid; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

One Fourth advanced, and the reſt not paid as limited, forfeited.

XXXIII. Provided alſo, and it is hereby enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Treaſurer, or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or any Three or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being, out of any the Monies of the ſaid Weekly Payments hereby appointed to be paid into the Exchequer, as aforeſaid, to reward the Officers, Clerks, and others, to be employed in the Payment of the ſaid Annuities, or the Accounts thereof, for their Labour, Pains, Charges, and Service therein reſpectively, and to defray all other the neceſſary Charges incident to the Payment of the ſaid Annuities, as to the ſaid Lord Treaſurer, or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being, ſhall ſeem meet and reaſonable in that Behalf; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Duties on Low Wines, &c. continued.

MAY it pleaſe Your moſt Excellent Majeſty, whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of Your Majeſty's late Royal Brother King WILLIAM the Third, of glorious Memory, (intituled, An Act for granting to His Majeſty ſeveral Duties upon Low Wines, or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, and continuing ſeveral additional Duties upon Coffee, Tea, Chocolate, Spices, and Pictures, and certain Impoſitions upon Hawkers, Pedlars, and Petty Chapmen, and the Duty of Fifteen per Centum upon Muſlins, and for improving the Duties upon japanned and lacquered Goods, and for continuing the Coinage Duty, for the ſeveral Terms and Purpoſes therein mentioned) certain Duties upon Low Wines, or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, were granted for a Term to continue until the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix; and by another Act made in the Third Year of Your Majeſty's Reign, (intituled, An Act for continuing Duties upon Low Wines, and upon Coffee, Tea, Chocolate, Spices, and Pictures, and upon Hawkers, Pedlars, and Petty Chapmen, and upon Muſlins, and for granting new Duties upon ſeveral of the ſaid Commodities, and alſo upon Callicoes, China Ware and Drugs) the ſaid Duties upon Low Wines, or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, are continued from the Twenty fourth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, until the Twenty fourth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ten, as by the ſaid ſeveral Acts may appear: Now we Your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of England in Parliament aſſembled, have given and granted, and do by this Act give and grant to Your Majeſty the ſeveral Duties herein after mentioned, over and above all Duties already granted upon Low Wines or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction; and do humbly beſeech Your Majeſty that it may be enacted: And be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all and every ſuch or the like Duties for or upon all Low Wines or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, as by the ſaid Act of the ſaid Twelfth Year of His ſaid late Majeſty's Reign were continued or granted until the ſaid Twenty fifth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, ſhall by virtue of this Act be continued from the Four and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, until the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeven.

12 & 13 W. 3. c. 11. Former Duties continued to 25 March, 1707.

From 24 of March, 1705. Low Wines, &c. to pay 2 d. per Gallon.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for every Gallon of Low Wines, or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, which at any Time or Times, during the Term of Five Years, to commence from the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, ſhall be made or drawn from any foreign or imported Materials, or any Mixture with Foreign Materials, there ſhall be paid and payable to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, over and above all other Duties charged or chargeable thereupon, by this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, the Sum of Two Pence, to be paid by the Diſtillers or Makers thereof.

Farther continued for 96 Years by 5 Annæ, c. 19. and made perpetual by 1 Geo. 1. ſtat. 2. c. 12. ſect. 8. and part of the Aggregate Fund.

Duties, &c. how to be raiſed.

3 & 4 Annæ, c. 4.

III. And it is hereby enacted, That all the reſpective Duties on Low Wines, or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, by this Act granted or continued, ſhall, during the Continuance of the ſame reſpectively, be aſcertained, ſecured, raiſed, levied, recovered, and paid, by ſuch Rules and Methods, and under ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, and ſubject to ſuch Drawbacks and Allowances, and under ſuch Power of Mitigation, as the Duties upon the like Commodities by the ſaid Act of the Third Year of Her Majeſty's Reign, or any Law relating thereunto, are enacted or appointed to be aſcertained, ſecured, raiſed, levied, recovered, and paid reſpectively, and are and ſhall be appropriated and applied to and for the ſame Uſes and Purpoſes to which the Duties upon Low Wines by the ſaid Act of the Third Year of Her Majeſty's Reign are appropriated, and ought to be applied.

Diſtillers concealing Spirits, &c. from the View of the Gager.

Gagers to keep an Account of Waſh, &c.

IV. And whereas it is found by Experience, That any Quantity of Waſh made of Drink brewed or made from malted Corn, or from unmalted Corn, will upon Diſtillation produce One Fourth Part of the ſame Quantity into Low Wines, or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, and that ſuch Low Wines or Spirits upon the Second Diſtillation will produce Three Fifth Parts of the Quantity of the ſame Low Wines or Spirits into Proof Spirits, or Spirits of the Second Extraction; and that any Quantity of Waſh made of Cyder or Perry will produce One Fifth Part of the ſame Quantity into Low Wines or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction; and that the ſame Low Wines or Spirits, upon the Second Diſtillation, will produce One Half Part of the Quantity of the ſame Low Wines or Spirits into Proof Spirits, or Spirits of the Second Extraction: And whereas many Diſtillers do hide and conceal great Quantities of ſuch Low Wines and Spirits from the Sight and View of the Gager, before he can come to take an Account of the ſame, by Means whereof Her Majeſty may be very much defrauded in Her Duties on ſuch Low Wines and Proof Spirits, granted by this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament for the Duties on Low Wines and Spirits; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Four and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Gagers and Officers of Exciſe, to keep an Account of all the ſaid ſeveral Sorts of Waſh, which ſhall, from time to time, be found by him or them in the Hands of any Diſtiller, and upon any Decreaſe of ſuch Waſh brewed or made from malted Corn, or Corn unmalted, On Decreaſe of Waſh, &c. Diſtiller to pay the Duty, &c.

malted, to charge ſuch Diſtiller with ſo much Low Wines or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, as One Fourth Part of the ſame Waſh ſo decreaſed ſhall amount unto, and alſo with ſo much Proof Spirits, or Spirits of the Second Extraction, as Three Fifth Parts of the ſaid Low Wines ſo charged, as aforeſaid, ſhall amount unto; and alſo upon any Decreaſe of Waſh made from Cyder or Perry, to charge ſuch Diſtiller, upon whom ſuch Decreaſe ſhall be found, with ſo much Low Wines or Spirits of the Firſt Extraction, as One Fifth Part of the ſame Waſh ſo decreaſed ſhall amount unto; and likewiſe with ſo much Proof Spirits, or Spirits of the Second Extraction, as One Half Part of the ſame Low Wines or Spirits of the Second Extraction ſhall amount unto; and ſuch Diſtillers ſhall pay the Duties of the Low Wines and Spirits ſo charged, as by the Acts relating to the ſaid Duties on Low Wines and Spirits, or any of them, are directed and appointed.

Act not to leſſen the Power of Officers of the Exciſe.

V. Provided always, That nothing herein contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to take away or leſſen any of the Powers or Authorities heretofore given to any of the Officers of Exciſe by any Law or Laws now in force, touching or concerning the ſaid Duties on Low Wines and Spirits.

Proof where cut to lie on Importer, &c.

VI. And whereas, by an Act of Parliament made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King WILLIAM the Third, (intituled, An Act for granting to His Majeſty a farther Subſidy of Tonnage and Poundage, towards raiſing the yearly Sum of Seven hundred thouſand Pounds for the Service of His Majeſty's Houſhold, and other Uſes therein mentioned, during His Majeſty's Life) it is enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, ſhall import or bring into this Kingdom, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, any cut Whalebone, (other than in Fins only) he, ſhe, or they ſhall forfeit the Goods, and double the Value of the cut Whalebone ſo imported; One Moiety thereof to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, and One other Moiety to him or them that ſhall ſeize or ſue for the ſame, in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record; yet it is found by Practice and Experience, that the ſaid Penalty is not ſufficient to deter ill-deſigning Perſons from continuing fraudulently to import great Quantities of Foreign cut Whalebone in ſhort Lengths and ſmall Parcels, in Diminution of Her Majeſty's Revenue, and to the great Loſs and Diſcouragement of the Manufactures imployed in cutting of Fin Whalebone in this Kingdom; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Four and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, trading or dealing in Whalebone, having in his, her, or their Cuſtody, any ſuch foreign cut Whalebone, (other than in Fins regularly imported) ſhall forfeit the Sum of Thirty Pounds, and alſo be ſubject to the like Penalties and Forfeitures as the Importers thereof, by the aforeſaid recited Act are liable unto; and alſo that the Maſters of ſuch Ships and Veſſels, knowingly bringing or importing any foreign cut Whale-fins or Whalebone, as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds; One Moiety of the aforeſaid Penalties to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall ſeize and ſue for the ſame, in any of Her Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than One Imparlance ſhall be allowed; and if any Diſpute, Queſtion, or Doubt ſhall ariſe, whether any cut Whalebone found, ſeized, or received, as aforeſaid, were cut in Parts beyond the Seas, the Proof ſhall be incumbent only upon the Importer, Claimer, Owner, Proprietor, or ſuch Perſon or Perſons, in whoſe Hands or Cuſtody ſuch cut Whalebone ſhall be found reſpectively, and not upon the Seizer, Informer, or Proſecutor; any thing to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Perſons who thro' Miſconſtructions of the Law on ſtampt Paper, &c. have entred Admiſſions of Freedoms, &c. on Paper, &c. not duly ſtampt, diſcharged from the Penalties, &c. on paying Duties before the 29 of Sept. 1706.

VII. And whereas ſeveral Perſons have, (ſince the double Duties upon ſtampt Vellum, Paper, and Parchment commenced) been admitted to their Freedoms in divers Corporations, and ſuch their Admiſſions have meerly by Miſtake or Miſconſtruction been entred upon Paper or Parchment ſtampt for a leſs Duty than ought to have been paid for the ſame: And whereas in other Caſes, ſeveral Perſons Freedoms have been admitted, and their Admiſſion entred upon Paper or Parchment without any Stamp at all, or any Thing paid or received for the ſame: And whereas divers other Perſons, Clerks, Stewards, or Bailiffs, keeping or holding inferior Courts of Record, County Courts, Courts Baron, and Courts Leet, have through the like Miſtake or Miſconſtruction of the Laws as aforeſaid, omitted the iſſuing, entring, inrolling, or filing of divers Actions, Plaints, Bails, Appearances, and other Proceſs and Proceedings upon double ſtampt Vellum, Paper, or Parchment; wherefore for quieting the Minds of ſo many of Her Majeſty's good Subjects; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every the ſaid Freemen ſo admitted, and all and every the ſaid Clerks, Stewards, and Bailiffs, and all other Perſon and Perſons ſo concerned and forfeiting, as aforeſaid, ſhall be, and they hereby are freed and diſcharged of and from all and every the Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures not already recovered, and by them reſpectively incurred, for or in Reſpect of the Premiſſes before the Firſt Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five; provided that ſuch Perſon or Perſons forfeiting, as aforeſaid, pay or cauſe to be paid, the ſeveral Duties directed to be paid, by the ſeveral Acts for granting Duties upon ſtampt Vellum, Paper, and Parchment, to the Receiver General of the Stampt Duties, before the Nine and twentieth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix; and in Default thereof, ſuch Perſons reſpectively ſhall loſe the Benefit of the Indemnity granted by this Act.

Freemens Admiſſions, &c. good in Law.

Duties not diſcharged, Penalties to be ſued for.

VIII. Provided alſo, That the Admiſſions of all ſuch Freemen, as were admitted into any Corporation or Company, before the ſaid Firſt Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, and all the ſaid other Proceedings before that Time had, ſhall be good and valid in Law, notwithſtanding any Neglect or Omiſſion before that Time, with Relation to the ſaid Stampt Duties; and that all Penalties and Forfeitures for any Offence committed, as aforeſaid, which ſhall not be diſcharged by paying ſuch Duties before the ſaid Nine and twentieth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, ſhall and may be ſued for, proſecuted and recovered, ſo as the Proſecution be commenced at any Time within One Year after the ſaid Nine and twentieth Day of September.

How Duties on Appearances ſhall be conſtrued to extend.

IX. And it is hereby further enacted and declared, That the Duties made payable by the ſaid Acts, relating to ſtampt Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, for or in Reſpect of Appearances, and other the Matters in the ſaid Acts, or any of them contained, relating thereto, ſhall be conſtrued to extend to Appearances in ſuch Actions wherein no Bail is filed, or put in, and not otherwiſe; any thing in the ſaid Acts contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Duties on Marriages, Births, &c. 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 6. 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 35. 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 35.

X. And whereas by ſeveral Acts of Parliament, relating to the Duties on Marriages, Births, and Burials, all Parſons, Vicars, Curates, and other Eccleſiaſtical Perſons, are required to take an exact and true Account, and keep a Regiſter in Writing of all and every Perſon or Perſons, married, buried, chriſtened, or born, in his or their reſpective Pariſhes or Precincts; and likewiſe in the ſame Regiſters, together with the Name of every Perſon ſo married, buried, chriſtened, or born, to ſet down and expreſs in Writing the reſpective Degree, Condition, and Quality, according to which the Duty to the Crown ought to be paid: And in caſe of Burials, the Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators, Fathers, Mothers, Guardians, Church-wardens, or others, who by the ſaid Acts ought to pay for the ſame, and where they dwell reſpectively: And in caſe of Births, the Names of the Fathers, Mothers, or thoſe that take on them the Guardianſhip, or Care of ſuch Children ſo born, and where they live reſpectively: And in caſe of Marriages, the Place of Abode of the ſeveral Huſbands, under the Penalty of One hundred Pounds for ſome of the ſaid Omiſſions, and other great Penalties for the reſt: And whereas ſeveral Parſons, Vicars, and Curates, and other Eccleſiaſtical Perſons, not being ſufficiently apprized of the full Import of the ſaid Acts of Parliament, have not exactly obſerved the Directions therein, as aforeſaid, given, and thereby incurred the Penalties in the ſaid Acts reſpectively mentioned, and they and their Families remain therefore expoſed to Ruin, although the ſaid Duties have been duly anſwered to Her Majeſty; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon and Perſons in Holy Orders, Parſon, Vicar, and Curate, and his and their Subſtitute, having neglected to keep a Regiſter in Writing, as aforeſaid, of all and every, or any Perſon or Perſons ſo married, buried, chriſtened, or born, as aforeſaid, or to ſet down and expreſs, together with the Name of ſuch Perſon ſo married, buried, chriſtened, or born, the reſpective Degree, Condition, or Quality, according to which the ſaid late King's, or Her preſent Majeſty's Duties ought to be paid, or the Name or Place of Abode of any Perſon or Perſons, who ought to pay the ſame, in caſe the ſaid Duty for ſuch Marriage, Birth, or Burial, be really anſwered and paid, or notified and brought in Charge to the Collector of the ſaid Duties, ſhall be indemnified againſt, and diſcharged from all the Penalties and Forfeitures in the ſaid Acts, or any of them contained, for or upon Account of ſuch Neglects only.

Parſons, &c. who have neglected to keep a Regiſter of ſuch Marriages, &c. (in caſe the Duties are paid) to be indemnified.

Frauds on Salt, &c. 1 Annæ, ſtat. 1. c. 21.

XI. And whereas by an Act made in the Firſt Year of Her preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds in the Duties upon Salt, and for the better Payment of Debentures at the Cuſtom Houſe, it is enacted, That no Debenture ſhall be made or granted, or Drawback allowed to be paid for or upon the Account of the Exportation of any Salt or Rock Salt for Ireland, unleſs the Exporter of the ſaid Salt or Rock Salt ſhall produce to the Officer appointed to make ſuch Debenture, a Certificate under the Hand of the Collector of the Cuſtoms of the Port in Ireland, where ſuch Salt or Rock Salt ſhall be landed, or the Perſon executing his Office, of the particular Quantity of Salt or Rock Salt, actually landed: And whereas 'tis equally reaſonable, That for Salt and Rock Salt ſhipt, in order for Exportation for Ireland, though the ſame periſh by ſinking of the Ship, or be taken by the Enemies, there ſhould be made and allowed a Drawback as in the Caſe where Salt and Rock Salt is exported and landed; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where any Salt or Rock Salt hath been or ſhall be ſhipped in order for Exportation to Ireland, and the ſame hath periſhed or ſhall periſh by ſinking of the Ship or Veſſel on which the ſame was or ſhall be ſhipped, and laid on board, or is or ſhall be taken by the Enemies, then and in ſuch Caſe the Exporter or Proprietor of ſuch Salt or Rock Salt ſo periſhing or loſt, ſhall upon Proof made before the Juſtices of the Peace, at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, to be held for the County, City, Riding, Diviſion or Place from whence the ſame was ſo exported, of the Loſs of ſuch Salt ſo ſhipped, or to be ſhipped, receive from the ſaid Seſſions a Certificate, that ſuch Proof was made before them, and upon producing the ſaid Certificate to the Officer of the Place where the Duty on ſuch Salt ſhall have been paid or ſecured to be paid, ſuch Security ſhall be diſcharged, and ſo much Money as was actually paid for the Duty of the ſaid Salt, ſhall be repaid upon Demand by the ſaid Officer, without Fee or Reward. Provided ſuch Proof to be made, as aforeſaid, as to all Salt loſt or taken, before the Twentieth Day of February, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, ſhall be made by Two credible Witneſſes upon Oath, before the Twentieth Day of July, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix; and as to all Salt which ſhall be loſt after the ſaid twentieth Day of February, One thouſand ſeven hundred and five, the like Proof ſhall be made within Six Months after ſuch Loſs or Taking, as aforeſaid.

Drawbacks, &c. allowed where Salt is loſt, or taken by the Enemy.

Proof to be made within 6 Months.

2 & 3 Annæ, c. 14.

XII. And whereas in and by One Act of Parliament made in the Second and Third Year of the Reign of Her preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for the better ſecuring and regulating the Duties upon Salt, it is amongſt other Things provided, That nothing therein contained ſhould extend to prohibit the importing and landing any Codfiſh, Ling, or Hake, which had been caught and cured at Newfoundland or Iſeland, upon making ſuch Oath before the landing, of the catching and curing the ſame, and upon Tender thereof upon landing, and before the ſame be removed from the Shore, and under ſuch Penalties for not tendring the ſame, to have Part of the Tail cut off, as in and by the ſaid Act is directed and appointed: And whereas North Sea Codfiſh, Ling, and Hake, are omitted in the ſaid Act; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That nothing therein contained ſhall extend to prohibit the importing and landing any Codfiſh, Ling, or Hake, which have been or ſhall be caught and cured at or in the North Sea, upon making the like Oath, and being ſubject to and under the ſame Reſtrictions and Penalties, as by the above recited Act is directed and appointed for Codfiſh, Ling, and Hake, caught and cured at Newfoundland or Iſeland, and that no Allowance be granted, had or obtained upon Exportation thereof; any thing therein contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

North Sea Codfiſh, &c. may be imported.

5 & 6 W. & M. c. 7.

XIII. And whereas in and by One Act made in the Fifth Year of the Reign of their late Majeſties King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, of bleſſed Memory, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majeſties certain Rates and Duties upon Salt, and upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, for ſecuring certain Recompences and Advantages in the ſaid Act mentioned, to ſuch Perſons as ſhall voluntarily advance the Sum of Ten hundred thouſand Pounds towards carrying on the War againſt France, it is (amongſt other Things) enacted, That the Sum of One hundred and forty thouſand Pounds ſhould be a yearly Fund for anſwering the Annuities therein mentioned: And whereas certain Tickets were iſſued out to the Proprietors of the ſaid Annuities, many of which ſaid Tickets are ſince burnt, loſt, or otherwiſe deſtroyed, whereby the ſaid Proprietors are in Danger of loſing their Money contained in ſuch Tickets; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, Tickets for Annuities loſt, &c.

That

on Affidavit and Certificate, &c. Officer to pay the ſame.

Such Payments to be allowed in his Accounts.

That in all Caſes where it ſhall happen, by Affidavit to be made on or before the Firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, before any of the Barons of the Exchequer, that any Ticket or Tickets for any Payment or Payments on the ſaid Annuities, is or are burnt, deſtroyed, or otherwiſe loſt, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Officer or Officers appointed to pay and diſcharge the ſaid Annuities, on producing a Certificate from the ſaid Baron of ſuch Affidavit made before him, which Affidavit the Barons, or any One of them, is and are hereby authorized to take, and which Certificate he or they are hereby required to grant without Fee or Reward, and on Security given to the ſaid Officer, to his good liking, to indemnify him againſt all Perſons whatſoever for or concerning the Monies contained or ſpecified in ſuch Ticket or Tickets, or which was, is, or ſhall be due thereon, he the ſaid Officer is hereby required to pay and diſcharge the ſaid Annuities by the ſaid Tickets incurred and grown due, or which ſhall hereafter incur or grow due, as aforeſaid, as if the ſaid Tickets had been produced, and ſhall be allowed ſuch Payments in his Accounts; any thing in this or any other Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The Queen may diſpoſe of 6472 l. 1 s. as a Charity to Greenwich Hoſpital.

XIV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for Her Majeſty, if She pleaſeth, to diſpoſe as a Charity, to and for the Uſe and Benefit of the Royal Hoſpital for Seamen at Greenwich, the Sum of Six thouſand four hundred ſeventy two Pounds, One Shilling, which was paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer, on or about the One and thirtieth Day of January, One thouſand ſeven hundred and four, for publick Uſes, by Richard Crawley Eſquire Receiver of the Goods of Pirates, and other Perquiſites of the Admiralty, being Money or the Proceed of Goods and Merchandizes which were taken with William Kidd a notorious Pirate, who was taken and executed ſeveral Years ſince.

CAP. XIV.

An Act for the better collecting Charity Money on Briefs by Letters Patents, and preventing Abuſes in Relation to ſuch Charities.

From 25 March, 1706. all Copies of Briefs for collecting Charity Money ſhall be printed by the Queen's Printers.

WHEREAS many Inconveniencies do ariſe, and Frauds are committed in the common Method of collecting Charity Money upon Briefs by Letters Patents, to the great Trouble and Prejudice of the Objects of ſuch Charity, and to the great Diſcouragement of well diſpoſed Perſons: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Five and twentieth Day of March, which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, upon the iſſuing forth of Letters Patents for collecting of Charity Money, commonly called Briefs, Copies thereof, to the Number required by the Petitioners for ſuch Briefs, or their Agents, and no more, ſhall be printed by the Printer of Her Majeſty, Her Heirs or Succeſſors only, at the uſual Rates for printing, and by ſuch Printer the whole Number of ſuch Copies ſhall be delivered to ſuch Perſon or Perſons only, as ſhall, by and with the Conſent of the Petitioners for ſuch Brief, or the major Part of them, undertake the laying or diſpoſing ſuch printed Copies, in order to the Collection of the Monies to be received thereon, or to ſome or One of them, who, or One or more of them, ſhall give a Receipt for the ſame, expreſſing the Number thereof in ſuch Receipt, which Receipt, or an atteſted Copy thereof, ſuch Printer ſhall forthwith deliver to the Regiſter of the Court of Chancery to be filed in the Regiſter's Office, and thereupon the Perſon or Perſons ſo undertaking ſuch Collection, or ſome or One of them, ſhall cauſe all the ſaid printed Copies to be indorſed or marked in ſome convenient Part of ſuch printed Copy, with the Name of One or more of the Truſtees or Commiſſioners named in ſuch Letters Patents, written with his or their own Hand, and the Time of ſigning the ſame, and alſo cauſe the ſaid printed Copies be ſtamped in the Manner hereafter more particularly mentioned: And the ſaid whole Number being ſo ſigned, ſhall be, with all convenient Speed, by the ſaid Undertaker or Undertakers, ſent and delivered to the reſpective Church-wardens, and Chapel-wardens of the reſpective Churches and Chapels, and to the reſpective Teachers and Preachers of every ſeparate Congregation, and to any Perſon who hath taught or preached in any Meeting of the People called Quakers, in the Counties and Places to be comprized in ſuch Letters Patents, to be read and publiſhed, and the Charity thereon to be collected in the ſeveral Churches, Chapels, or Places of Meeting to which they belong, who ſhall ſo receive the ſame; and that the ſaid Church-wardens, Chapel-wardens, Preachers, Teachers, and Quakers having taught, as aforeſaid, immediately after ſuch Receipt, ſhall indorſe the Time of his or their receiving the ſame, and ſet his or their Names thereto; and the ſaid Church-wardens and Chapel-wardens ſhall forthwith deliver over the ſaid printed Briefs by them received, to the ſeveral Miniſters and Curates of the ſaid Churches or Chapels, who ſhall receive the ſame; and the ſaid reſpective Miniſters and Curates ſhall on Receipt thereof indorſe the Time they reſpectively received the ſame, and ſet their reſpective Names thereto; and the ſaid reſpective Miniſters and Curates, Teachers, Preachers, and Perſons called Quakers, qualified as aforeſaid, ſhall on ſome Sunday, within Two Months after Receipt of ſuch Copies, immediately before the Sermon, Preaching or Teaching ſhall begin, openly read or cauſe to be read ſuch printed Briefs in their reſpective Churches, Chapels, and Places of Meeting, to the Congregation there aſſembled, and the reſpective Church-wardens, Chapel-wardens, and the Teachers of every ſuch ſeparate Congregation, and ſuch Perſons called Quakers, to whom the Briefs ſhall have been ſo delivered, as aforeſaid, ſhall collect the Sums of Money that ſhall be freely thereon given, either in the ſaid reſpective Aſſemblies, or by going from Houſe to Houſe of the Members of their reſpective Congregations, as the Briefs ſhall require in that Behalf; and on every ſuch Collection made, the Sum that ſhall be collected, with the Place where, and Time when the ſame was collected, ſhall be indorſed, fairly written in Words at Length on ſuch reſpective printed Briefs, and ſigned by the Miniſter or Curate, and the Church-wardens in Churches and Chapels, and by the Teacher and Two Elders, or Two other ſubſtantial Perſons of every ſeparate Congregation; and that thereupon the ſaid reſpective Church-wardens and Chapel-wardens, and the reſpective Teachers or Preachers, or other Perſons required to make the Collection, as aforeſaid, on Requeſt of ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall undertake to place and diſperſe the Briefs, as aforeſaid, or of any Perſon by them, or any of them lawfully authorized, ſhall deliver to ſuch Perſon or Perſons, making ſuch Requeſt, the reſpective printed Briefs ſo indorſed, as aforeſaid, and the Monies thereon collected, taking a Receipt for the ſame, from the Perſon ſo receiving ſuch Monies, in ſome Book to be kept for that Purpoſe, on Pain that every the ſaid Miniſters, Curates, Teachers, Preachers, Church-wardens, Chapel-wardens, and Quakers qualified and required, as aforeſaid, who ſhall refuſe or neglect to do any of the Matters or Things before reſpectively required of them, ſhall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds, to be recovered and applied as herein after is directed; and the ſaid Perſon or Perſons who ſhall ſo undertake to place, and diſperſe the ſaid Briefs as aforeſaid, ſhall within Six Months next after the reſpective placing or delivering ſuch Copies in the reſpective Pariſhes, as aforeſaid, by themſelves, or ſome or One of them, or by ſome Perſon or Perſons by them or the major Part of them to be appointed, as as aforeſaid, demand from the reſpective Church-wardens and Chapel-wardens of Churches and Chapels, and from the Preacher and Teacher of ſeparate Congregations, or from ſuch Teaching Quaker to whom the ſaid printed Briefs ſhall have been reſpectively delivered, as aforeſaid, the printed Briefs ſo left with him or them reſpectively, and the Monies reſpectively by them received thereon; and on Delivery and Payment made ſhall give to them reſpectively, as aforeſaid, a Receipt for the ſame, on Pain to forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds, to be recovered and diſpoſed of as herein after is directed.

and the Monies received thereon,

II. And to the Intent a ſpeedy, regular, and ſatisfactory Account may be rendered of the Sums of Money collected by virtue of ſuch Briefs, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Perſon or Perſons ſo undertaking to place or diſperſe the ſaid printed Briefs, or the greater Part of them, ſhall make, or cauſe to be made, a fair Entry in a Book for that Purpoſe by them to be kept (to which all Perſons concerned may at all Times reſort) of the Number of the printed Briefs they ſo received, and alſo when ſigned and ſent away, and to what Pariſhes and Places, and the Time of their receiving the ſame back, and the Monies thereon collected; and the ſaid printed Copies ſo received back, ſhall be depoſited and left with the Regiſter of the Court of Chancery, with whom the Receipt given to the Printer for the ſame as aforeſaid, was regiſtered, to the end it may appear that the Whole Number received of the ſaid Printer is duly returned, and that the ſame may be from time to time made uſe of, as well by the Sufferers and their Agents, as by the ſaid Undertakers and their Agents or Solicitors, in paſſing the Accounts in the Method herein after preſcribed; and if the whole Number of printed Copies of ſuch Briefs ſo received of the Printer, ſhall not be duly returned as hereby required, the Undertaker or Undertakers ſhall, for every printed Copy, which ſhall be found wanting and not returned, as aforeſaid, by Default of them or their Agents, forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds, to be recovered and applied as herein after-mentioned; unleſs he or they ſhall make a ſufficient Proof, to the Satisfaction of the Court of Chancery, of the ſaid Briefs ſo wanting being loſt or deſtroyed by inevitable Accident, and of what Money was really and truly collected thereon, and fully account for, and pay the ſame; and that in each Pariſh or Chapelry, and ſeparate Congregation, a Regiſter ſhall be kept by the Miniſter or Teacher there, or by ſome Teaching Quaker, of all Monies collected by virtue of ſuch Briefs, therein alſo inſerting the Occaſion of the Brief, and the Time when the ſame was collected, to which all Perſons at all Times may reſort without Fee.

and enter in a Book the Number of printed Briefs received, &c.

Printed Copies (when received back) to be depoſited with the Regiſter of the Court of Chancery.

Penalty on Undertaker not returning the whole Number, &c.

In each Pariſh, &c. a Regiſter to be kept of all Monies collected.

III. And for the better indorſing what Money is collected on the Back of the printed Briefs, and for the more regular Examination thereof, and for the preventing the Counterfeiting printed Copies of the Briefs, by which great Frauds have been put in Practice; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That on the Back of every printed Copy of ſuch Brief, there ſhall be printed the Form of Indorſement, with the neceſſary Blanks for Time, Place and Sum of Money, to be filled up by the reſpective Perſons aforeſaid; and each printed Copy of ſuch Brief ſhall before it be carried to the reſpective Pariſhes wherein the Collection is to be made, be ſtamped or marked with a proper Stamp to be made for that Purpoſe, and kept by the Regiſter of the Court of Chancery, who is to ſee that no greater Number of printed Copies be ſtampt or marked therewith, than is in the Receipts given to the Printer, and left with the Regiſter, as aforeſaid, ſpecified and declared; and if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall forge or counterfeit ſuch Stamp, ſuch Perſon being thereof lawfully convicted, ſhall be publickly ſet on the Pillory for the Space of One whole Hour.

Form of Indorſement to be printed on the Back of every printed Brief, with proper Blanks, &c. and ſtampt, &c.

Penalty on counterfeiting Stamp.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Undertaker or Undertakers, ſhall within Two Months after the Monies reſpectively received, and after due Notice thereof to the Sufferers (who are to be admitted to controvert the ſame) account before One of the Maſters of the Court of Chancery, to be for that Purpoſe appointed by the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Commiſſioners for the Cuſtody of the Great Seal of England for the time being, for all the Monies by them received on Account of ſuch Letters Patents and Briefs, and ſhall produce before him an exact Account of the reſpective printed Briefs by them delivered out, and received back, and left with the Regiſter, as aforeſaid, and thereupon the ſaid Maſter ſhall proceed to make his Report of what ſhall be found due on ſuch Account; and the ſaid Report being confirmed by the ſaid Court of Chancery as uſual, ſhall be a Charge on the ſaid Undertaker or Undertakers, and ſhall be carried into Execution againſt him or them, as if decreed in a Suit there depending; in taking which Account ſuch Maſter ſhall make all juſt Allowances to ſuch Undertakers, for their Trouble and Pains of Management, over and beſides the Charges to be expended for the ſaid Letters Patents and Copies thereof; and ſuch Maſter ſhall alſo have Power by the common Methods of the Court of Chancery, to examine into all Frauds and ill Practices that ſhall be committed by the ſaid Undertakers or their Agents, or any others concerned for or under them in ſuch Collection, and report the ſame to the Court; which Report being confirmed by the ſaid Court, it ſhall be in the Power of the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Commiſſioners aforeſaid, for the time being, to impoſe ſuch Fine and Coſts on every ſuch Offender, as the Nature of the Caſe ſhall require; which ſaid Fine, and all other Forfeitures incurred by the ſaid Undertakers or their Agents, ſhall be only for the Benefit of the Sufferers, for whoſe Benefit ſuch Briefs ſhall be granted, and ſhall and may be recovered by the Order of the ſaid Court of Chancery, founded on ſuch Report ſo confirmed, as aforeſaid, and carried into Execution, as the Decrees of that Court uſually are.

Undertakers to account for all Monies received within Two Months after Receipt; and be allowed for their Pains.

Undertakers, &c. found guilty of Frauds, to be fined.

V. Provided always, That where any Penalties are by this Act inflicted on any Perſon or Perſons, other than the Undertakers, their Agents, Deputies, Subſtitutes, or Servants, ſuch Penalties ſhall be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information.

Proviſo concerning Penalties.

VI. And whereas there hath been an evil Practice in farming and purchaſing for a Snm of Money, the Charity-money that ſhould or might be collected on ſuch Briefs, to the very great Hindrance and Diſcouragement of Alms-giving on ſuch Occaſion; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, and it is hereby declared, That all farming and purchaſing of ſuch Charity-money is unlawful, and that from and after the aforeſaid Five and twentieth Day of March, if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall purchaſe or agree for any Charity-money to be collected on any Briefs or Letters Patents, or by any Inſtrument of Covenant or Agreement, by Way of

No Perſons to farm or purchaſe Charity-money on Briefs, &c.

Farming, ſhall or may pretend to appropriate ſuch Charity-money, or any Part thereof to his or their Uſe, contrary to the Intent and Meaning of ſuch Letters Patents, by which ſuch Charity-money ſhall be collected, and contrary to the Intent and Meaning of this Act, ſuch Purchaſe and Inſtrument of Covenant and Agreement, ſhall be void, and each Perſon agreeing to purchaſe the Benefit of ſuch Brief, ſhall forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, to be applied for the Benefit of the Sufferers in ſuch Letters Patents mentioned, and to be recovered, as before laſt-mentioned.

on Penalty.

All Statutes of Jeofails to be extended to Judgements upon Nihil dicit, &c. No ſuch Judgement to be reverſed.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of Trinity Term, all the Statutes of Jeofails ſhall be extended to Judgements which ſhall at any Time afterwards be entred upon Confeſſion, Nihil dicit, or Non ſum informatus, in any Court of Record; and no ſuch Judgement ſhall be reverſed, nor any Judgement upon any Writ of Enquiry of Damages executed thereon be ſtaid or reverſed, for or by reaſon of any Imperfection, Omiſſion, Defect, Matter, or Thing whatſoever, which would have been aided and cured by any of the ſaid Statutes of Jeofails in caſe a Verdict of Twelve Men had been given in the ſaid Action or Suit, ſo as there be an Original Writ or Bill, and Warrants of Attorney duly filed according to the Law as is now uſed.

When Warrants of Attorney ſhall be filed.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Attorney for the Plaintiff, or Demandant in any Action or Suit, ſhall file his Warrant of Attorney with the proper Officer of the Court where the Cauſe is depending the ſame Term he declares; and the Attorney for the Defendant or Tenant ſhall file his Warrant of Attorney as aforeſaid, the ſame Term he appears, under the Penalties inflicted upon Attornies by any former Law for Default of filing their Warrants of Attorney.

Defendant, &c. may plead ſeveral Matters.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of Trinity Term it ſhall and may be lawful for any Defendant or Tenant in any Action or Suit, or for any Plaintiff in Replevin, in any Court of Record, with the Leave of the ſame Court, to plead as many ſeveral Matters thereto, as he ſhall think neceſſary for his Defence.

V. Provided nevertheleſs, That if any ſuch Matter ſhall upon a Demurrer joyned, be judged inſufficient, Coſts ſhall be given at the Diſcretion of the Court; or if a Verdict ſhall be found upon any Iſſue in the ſaid Cauſe for the Plaintiff or Demandant, Coſts ſhall be alſo given in like Manner, unleſs the Judge, who tried the ſaid Iſſue, ſhall certify, that the ſaid Defendant, or Tenant, or Plaintiff in Replevin, had a probable Cauſe to plead ſuch Matter which upon the ſaid Iſſue ſhall be found againſt him.

Proviſo touching Coſts.

VI. And whereas great Delays do frequently happen in Trials, by reaſon of Challenges to the Arrays of Panels of Jurors, and to the Polls, for Default of Hundredors: For Prevention thereof for the future, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of Trinity Term, every Venire facias for the Trial of any Iſſue, in any Action or Suit in any of Her Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, ſhall be awarded of the Body of the proper County where ſuch Iſſue is triable.

Venire facias how to be awarded.

VII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That nothing in this Act before contained, ſhall extend to any Writ, Declaration, or Suit of Appeal of Felony or Murder, or to any Indictment or Preſentment of Treaſon, Felony, or Murder, or other Matter, or to any Proceſs upon any of them, or to any Writ, Bill, Action, or Information upon any Penal Statute.

Not to extend to Writs of Appeal of Felony or Murder, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of Trinity Term in any Actions brought in any of Her Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, where it ſhall appear to the Court in which ſuch Actions are depending, that it will be proper and neceſſary, that the Jurors who are to try the Iſſues in any ſuch Actions, ſhould have the View of the Meſſuages, Lands, or Place in Queſtion, in order to their better underſtanding the Evidence that will be given upon the Trials of ſuch Iſſues, in every ſuch Caſe the reſpective Courts in which ſuch Actions ſhall be depending, may order Special Writs of Diſtringas or Habeas Corpora to iſſue, by which the Sheriff, or ſuch other Officer to whom the ſaid Writs ſhall be directed, ſhall be commanded to have Six out of the Firſt Twelve of the Jurors named in ſuch Writs, or ſome greater Number of them, at the Place in Queſtion, ſome convenient Time before the Trial, who then and there ſhall have the Matters in Queſtion ſhewn to them by Two Perſons in the ſaid Writs named, to be appointed by the Court; and the ſaid Sheriff, or other Officer, who is to execute the ſaid Writs, ſhall, by a Special Return upon the ſame, certify that the View hath been had according to the Command of the ſaid Writs.

Where Jurors are to view Lands, &c. Court may order Special Writs of Diſtringas or Habeas Corpora.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of Trinity Term, all Grants or Conveyances thereafter to be made, by Fine or otherwiſe, of any Manors or Rents, or of the Reverſion or Remainder of any Meſſuages or Lands, ſhall be good and effectual, to all Intents and Purpoſes, without any Attornment of the Tenants of any ſuch Manors, or of the Land out of which ſuch Rent ſhall be iſſuing, or of the particular Tenants upon whoſe particular Eſtates any ſuch Reverſions or Remainders ſhall and may be expectant or depending, as if their Attornment had been had and made.

All Grants and Conveyances, &c. to be good, without Attornment of Tenants.

X. Provided nevertheleſs, That no ſuch Tenant ſhall be prejudiced or damaged by Payment of any Rent to any ſuch Grantor or Conuſor, or by Breach of any Condition for Nonpayment of Rent, before Notice ſhall be given to him of ſuch Grant by the Conuſee or Grantee.

Proviſo.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of Trinity Term, no Dilatory Plea ſhall be received in any Court of Record, unleſs the Party offering ſuch Plea, do, by Affidavit, prove the Truth thereof, or ſhew ſome probable Matter to the Court to induce them to believe that the Fact of ſuch Dilatory Plea is true.

No Dilatory Plea to be received unleſs on Affidavit.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of Trinity Term, where any Action of Debt ſhall be brought upon any ſingle Bill, or where Action of Debt, or Scire facias, ſhall be brought upon any Judgment, if the Defendant hath paid the Money due upon ſuch Bill or Judgment, ſuch Payment ſhall and may be pleaded in Bar of ſuch Action or Suit, and where an Action of Debt is brought upon any Bond which hath a Condition or Defeazance to make void the ſame upon Payment of a leſſer Sum at a Day or Place certain, if the Obligor, his Heirs, Executors, or Adminiſtrators, have, before the Action brought, paid to the Obligee, his Executors or Adminiſtrators, the Principal and Intereſt due by the Defeazance or Condition of ſuch Bond, though ſuch Payment was not made ſtrictly according to the Condition or Defeazance; yet it ſhall and may nevertheleſs be pleaded in Bar of ſuch Action, and ſhall be as effectual a Bar thereof, as if the Money had been paid at the Day and Place, according to the Condition or Defeazance, and had been ſo pleaded.

Action of Debt brought on ſingle Bill, or Judgement, after Money paid, ſuch Payment may be pleaded in Bar.

The like on Bonds.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if at any Time, pending an Action upon any ſuch Bond with a Penalty, the Defendant ſhall bring into the Court where the Action ſhall be depending, all the Principal Money, and Intereſt due on ſuch Bond, and alſo all ſuch Coſts as have been expended in any Suit or Suits in Law or Equity upon ſuch Bond, the ſaid Money ſo brought in ſhall be deemed and taken to be in full Satiſfaction and Diſcharge of the ſaid Bond, and the Court ſhall and may give Judgment to diſcharge every ſuch Defendant of and from the ſame accordingly.

Principal and Intereſt on Bonds paid in Court, &c. Court may diſcharge Defendant.

XIV. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Twenty ninth Year of King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for Prevention of Frauds and Perjuries, It is enacted, That no Nuncupative Will ſhall be good, where the Eſtate thereby bequeathed ſhall exceed the Value of Thirty Pounds, that is not proved by the Oaths of Three Witneſſes, at the leaſt, that were preſent at the making thereof; it is hereby declared, That all ſuch Witneſſes as are and ought to be allowed to be good Witneſſes upon Trials at Law, by the Laws and Cuſtoms of this Realm, ſhall be deemed good Witneſſes to prove any Nuncupative Will, or any thing relating thereunto.

Nuncupative Wills.
29 Car. 2. c. 3.

XV. And whereas it hath been doubted, whether ſince the making of the ſaid laſt-mentioned Act of Parliament, the Declarations or Creations of Uſes, Truſts, or Confidences, of any Fines or Common Recoveries manifeſted by Deed made after the levying or ſuffering of ſuch Fines or Recoveries, are good and effectual in Law; it is hereby declared, That all Declarations, or Creations of Uſes, Truſts, or Confidences, of any Fines or Common Recoveries of any Lands, Tenements, Declarations of Uſes, Truſts, &c. of Fines or Recoveries.

29 Car. 2. c. 3.

or Hereditaments, manifeſted and proved, or which hereafter ſhall be manifeſted and proved, by any Deed already made, or hereafter to be made, by the Party who is by Law enabled to declare ſuch Uſes or Truſts, after the levying or ſuffering of any ſuch Fines or Recoveries, are and ſhall be as good and effectual in the Law, as if the ſaid laſt-mentioned Act had not been made.

No Claim or Entry to be of Force to avoid Fine levied with Proclamations, &c. unleſs an Action be commenced in One Year after ſuch Entry made.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of Trinity Term, no Claim or Entry to be made of or upon any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, ſhall be of any Force or Effect to avoid any Fine levied or to be levied with Proclamations, according to the Form of the Statute in that Caſe made and provided in the Queen's Court of Common Pleas at Weſtminſter, or in the Courts of Seſſions in any of the Counties Palatine, or in Courts of Grand Seſſions in Wales, of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or ſhall be a ſufficient Entry or Claim within the Statute made in the Twenty firſt Year of King James the Firſt, intituled, An Act for Limitation of Actions, and for avoiding of Suits in Law, unleſs upon ſuch Entry or Claim, an Action ſhall be commenced within One Year next after the making of ſuch Entry or Claim, and proſecuted with Effect.

21 Jac. 1. c. 16.

Seamens Wages.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Suits and Actions in the Court of Admiralty for Seamens Wages, which ſhall become due after the ſaid Firſt Day of Trinity Term, ſhall be commenced and ſued within Six Years next after the Cauſe of ſuch Suits or Actions ſhall accrue, and not after.

Proviſo in caſe of Nonage, Feme Covert, or Non compos mentis, &c.

XVIII. Provided nevertheleſs, and be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons, who is or ſhall be entitled to any ſuch Suit or Action for Seamens Wages, be or ſhall be, at the Time of any ſuch Cauſe of Suit or Action accrued, fallen or come, within the Age of Twenty one Years, Feme Covert, Non compos mentis, impriſoned, or beyond the Seas, that then ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be at Liberty to bring the ſame Actions, ſo as they take the ſame within Six Years next after their coming to, or being of full Age, Diſcovert, of Sane Memory, at large, and returned from beyond the Seas.

Action againſt Perſons gone beyond the Seas, may be brought after their Return.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons, againſt whom there is or ſhall be any ſuch Cauſe of Suit or Action for Seamens Wages, or againſt whom there ſhall be any Cauſe of Action of Treſpaſs, Detinue, Actions Sur Trover, or Replevin for taking away Goods or Cattle, or of Action of Account, or upon the Caſe, or of Debt grounded upon any Lending or Contract without Specialty, of Debt for Arrearages of Rent, or Aſſault, Menace, Battery, Wounding, and Impriſonment, or any of them, be or ſhall be, at the Time of any ſuch Cauſe of Suit or Action given or accrued, fallen, or come, beyond the Seas, That then ſuch Perſon or Perſons, who is or ſhall be entituled to any ſuch Suit or Action, ſhall be at Liberty to bring the ſaid Actions againſt ſuch Perſon and Perſons, after their Return from beyond the Seas, ſo as they take the ſame after their Return from beyond the Seas, within ſuch Times as are reſpectively limited for the bringing of the ſaid Actions before by this Act, and by the ſaid other Act made in the One and twentieth Year of the Reign of King James the Firſt.

Proviſo.

21 Jac. 1. c. 16.

Bail Bond taken by Sheriff, &c. may be aſſigned to Plaintiff.

XX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall be arreſted from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of Trinity Term, by any Writ, Bill, or Proceſs, iſſuing out of any of Her Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, at the Suit of any common Perſon, and the Sheriff or other Officer taketh Bail from ſuch Perſon, againſt whom ſuch Writ, Bill, or Proceſs is taken out, the Sheriff or other Officer at the Requeſt and Coſts of the Plaintiff in ſuch Action or Suit, or his lawful Attorney, ſhall aſſign to the Plaintiff in ſuch Action the Bail Bond, or other Security taken from ſuch Bail, by endorſing the ſame, and atteſting it under his Hand and Seal in the Preſence of Two or more credible Witneſſes, which may be done without any Stamp; provided the Aſſignment ſo endorſed be duly ſtampt before any Action be brought thereupon; and if the ſaid Bail Bond or Aſſignment, or other Security taken for Bail be forfeited, the Plaintiff in ſuch Action, after ſuch Aſſignment made, may bring an Action and Suit thereupon in his own Name, and the Court where the Action is brought, may by Rule or Rules of the ſame Court, give ſuch Relief to the Plaintiff and Defendant in the Original Action, and to the Bail, upon the ſaid Bond or other Security taken from ſuch Bail, as is agreeable to Juſtice and Reaſon, and that ſuch Rule or Rules of the ſaid Court ſhall have the Nature and Effect of a Defeazance to ſuch Bail Bond, or other Security for Bail.

Proviſo.

Warranty by Tenant for Life void.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Warranties which ſhall be made after the ſaid Firſt Day of Trinity Term, by any Tenant for Life, of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, the ſame deſcending or coming to any Perſon in Reverſion or Remainder, ſhall be void and of none Effect; and likewiſe all collateral Warranties, which ſhall be made after the ſaid Firſt Day of Trinity Term, of any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, by any Anceſtor who has no Eſtate of Inheritance in Poſſeſſion in the ſame, ſhall be void againſt his Heir.

No Subpœna to iſſue till after Bill filed.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Subpœna, or any other Proceſs for Appearance, do iſſue out of any Court of Equity, till after the Bill is filed with the proper Officer in the reſpective Courts of Equity, except in Caſes of Bills for Injunctions to ſtay Waſtes, or ſtay Suits at Law commenced, and a Certificate thereof brought to the Subpœna Office, or to him who uſually makes out Subpœnas or other Proceſs in the ſeveral Courts of Equity, under the Hand of the Six Clerk, or other Clerk or Officer who uſually files Bills in Equity, for which Certificate he ſhall receive no Fee.

Exception.

On diſmiſſing Bills in Equity, Plaintiff or Defendant to pay Full Coſts.

XXIII. And for the better preventing vexatious Suits in Courts of Equity; be it further enacted, That upon the Plaintiff's diſmiſſing his own Bill, or the Defendant's diſmiſſing the ſame for want of Proſecution, the Plaintiff in ſuch Suit ſhall pay to the Defendant or Defendants, his or their Full Coſts, to be taxed by a Maſter: And that no Copy, Abſtract, or Tenor of any Bill in Equity, do go with the Dedimus or Commiſſion for taking the Defendant's Anſwer; but in Lieu and Recompence thereof, the ſworn Clerks of the Court of Chancery ſhall take to their own Uſe, in all Cauſes, the whole Term Fee of Three Shillings and Four Pence, and alſo the whole Fee or Fees of and for all ſmall Writs made by the ſaid ſworn Clerks.

XXIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of Trinity Term, this Act and all the Statutes of Jeofails ſhall extend to all Suits in any of Her Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, for Recovery of any Debt immediately owing, or any Revenue belonging to Her Majeſty, Her Heirs or Succeſſors; and ſhall alſo extend to all Courts of Record in the Counties Palatine of Lancaſter, Cheſter, and Durham, and the Principality of Wales, and to all other Courts of Record within this Kingdom.

Act to extend to all Suits for the Kings Debts, &c.

Rex v Phillips in Scacc. Hil. 1746.

XXV. And for the preventing great Vexation from ſuing out defective Writs of Error; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That upon the quaſhing any Writ of Error to be ſued out after the ſaid Firſt Day of Trinity Term, for Variance from the Original Record or other Defect, the Defendants in ſuch Error ſhall recover againſt the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, iſſuing out ſuch Writ, his Coſts, as he ſhould have had if the Judgment had been affirmed, and to be recovered in the ſame Manner.

On quaſhing Writ of Error Defendant to have Coſts.

XXVI. And whereas great Trouble and Expence is frequently occaſioned to the Widows and Orphans of Perſons dying Inteſtate to Monies or Wages due for Work done in Her Majeſty's Yards and Docks, by Diſputes happening about the Authority of granting Probat of the Wills, and Letters of Adminiſtration of the Goods and Chattles of ſuch Perſons, and for preventing ſuch unneceſſary Trouble and Expence; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Power of granting Probats of the Wills, and Letters of Adminiſtration of the Goods and Chattles of ſuch Perſon and Perſons reſpectively is, and is hereby declared to be, in the Ordinary of the Dioceſe, or ſuch other Perſons, to whom the ordinary Power of Probat of Wills, or granting Letters of Adminiſtration do belong, where ſuch Perſon and Perſons ſhall reſpectively die; and that the Salary, Wages, or Pay due to ſuch Perſon or Perſons from the Queen's Majeſty, Her Heirs or Succeſſors, for Work done in any of the Yards or Docks, ſhall not be taken or deemed to be Bona notabilia, whereby to found the Juriſdiction of the Prerogative Court.

Probats of Wills and Adminiſtrations.

Bona notabilia.

XXVII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of Trinity Term, Actions of Account ſhall and may be brought and maintained againſt the Executors and Adminiſtrators of every Guardian, Bailiff, and Receiver; and alſo by One Joint Tenant, and Tenant in Common, his Executors and Adminiſtrators, againſt the other, as Bailiff for receiving more than comes to his juſt Share or Proportion, and againſt the Executor and Adminiſtrator of ſuch Joint Tenant, or Tenant in Common; and the Auditors appointed by the Court, where ſuch Action ſhall be depending, ſhall be, and are hereby impowered to adminiſter an Oath, and examine the Parties touching the Matters in Queſtion, and for their Pains and Trouble in auditing and taking ſuch Account, have ſuch Allowance as the Court ſhall adjudge to be reaſonable, to be paid by the Party on whoſe Side the Balance of the Account ſhall appear to be.

Actions of Account may be brought againſt Executors of Guardian, Bailiff, &c.

Auditors to examine the Parties on Oath.

CAP. XIX.

An Act for the Encouragement and Increaſe of Seamen, and for the better and ſpeedier Manning Her Majeſty's Fleet.

X. AND for the Encouragement of all Seamen, who are or ſhall be in Her Majeſty's Service at Sea, it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Seaman who from and after the Five and twentieth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſix, ſhall be turned over from One Ship to another in Her Majeſty's Service, or turned aſhore, as not being fit for Her Majeſty's Service, ſhall be paid his Wages which ſhall appear to be due to him in the Ship from which he was turned over, before ſuch Ship to which he ſhall be turned over do go to Sea, either in Money or by a Ticket, which ſhall entitle him or his Aſſigns to Payment within One Month after the ſaid Ticket ſhall be preſented to the Commiſſioners of the Navy at their Office.

How Seamen turned over from one Ship to another, &c. ſhall be paid.

No Mariner entred, and continuing in the Queen's Service, to be arreſted during this War, for a Debt not exceeding 20 l.

XVI. And whereas by an Act made in the Second Year of Her Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Encreaſe of Seamen, and better Encouragement of Navigation, and the Security of the Coal Trade, Proviſion is made for putting out of Pariſh Children Apprentices to Maſters of trading Ships and Veſſels at the Age of Ten Years; it is hereby enacted, That no ſuch Maſter ſhall be obliged to take any ſuch Apprentice under the Age of Thirteen Years, or who ſhall not appear to be fitly qualified both as to Health and Strength of Body for that Service; and any Widow of the Maſter of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, or the Executor or Adminiſtrator of ſuch Maſter, who ſhall have been obliged to take ſuch Pariſh Boys Apprentice to them, ſhall have the ſame Power of aſſigning over ſuch Apprentices to any other Maſters of Ships or Veſſels, who have not their Compliment of Apprentices required by the ſaid recited Act, to be entertained by them, as is given by the ſaid Act to ſuch Perſons, as have taken Children Apprentices in purſuance of the Statute made in the Forty third Year of Queen ELIZABETH.

2 & 3 Annæ, c. 6.

No Maſter of Ship to take Apprentice under 13 Years old.

43 Eliz. c. 2.

XVII. And whereas all ſuch Perſons, who in Purſuance of the ſaid Act, have voluntarily bound, or hereafter ſhall ſo bind themſelves Apprentices to ſuch Maſters or Owners, as therein is expreſſed, are exempted from Her Majeſty's Service for the Term of Three Years, from the Date of their reſpective Indentures: And whereas ſuch Exemptions from Her Majeſty's Sea Service for the Term of Three Years, which was intended for the Encouragement of Landmen, to bind themſelves Apprentices to the Sea Service, hath been manifeſtly abuſed for the exempting and protecting of Seamen from the ſaid Service, who having bound themſelves Apprentices, have claimed ſuch Exemption, and demanded Protections accordingly, to the great Hindrance and Prejudice of Her Majeſty's Sea Service; be it therefore further enacted and declared, That no Perſon or Perſons of the Age of Eighteen Years, ſhall have any Exemption or Protection from Her Majeſty's Sea Service, who ſhall have been in any Sea Service before the Time they bound themſelves Apprentices; any Law or Statute to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

No Apprentices to Sea Service of 18 Years old, exempt from the Queen's Service at Sea.

2 & 3 Phil. & Mar. c. 16. §. 8.

XVIII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Second Year of the Reign of King PHILIP and Queen MARY, intituled, An Act touching Watermen and Bargemen upon the River of Thames, it was enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons, which from and after the Time therein mentioned, ſhould uſe and exerciſe the Occupation of rowing betwixt Graveſend and Windſor, which in the Time of the Execution of any Commiſſion of preſſing, that ſhould be had for the Service of the King and Queen's Majeſty in their Affairs, ſhould willingly, voluntarily, and obſtinately withdraw, hide, or convey him or themſelves in the ſame Time of preſſing, into ſecret Places and Out Corners, and after, when ſuch Time of preſſing is overpaſſed, ſhould return and come again to the River of Thames, to row betwixt Graveſend and Windſor aforeſaid, and that duly proved by Two indifferent Witneſſes before the Lord Mayor, and Court of Aldermen, or Juſtices of Peace, and Two of the Rulers of the Company of Watermen, that then he or they ſo doing and offending, ſhould ſuffer Impriſonment for the Space of Two Weeks, and be baniſhed any more to row from thenceforth upon the ſaid River of Thames, by the Space of One whole Year and a Day then next following: And whereas by an Act made in the Eleventh Year of His late Majeſty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for Explanation and better Execution of former Acts made touching Watermen and Wherrymen, rowing on the River of Thames, and for the better ordering and governing the ſaid Watermen, Wherrymen, and Lightermen upon the ſaid River, between Graveſend and Windſor, Perſons who keep or work, or ſhall be imployed in rowing or navigating any Lighter or Lighters, or other great Craft, (except, as in the ſaid Act is excepted) ſhall be regiſtred in the Company of Watermen: And whereas in this Time of War, divers Watermen, Bargemen, Lightermen, and Wherrymen, belonging to the ſaid River, do abſcond and not enter themſelves into Her Majeſty's Service; and it being highly neceſſary that a convenient Number of ſuch Watermen, Bargemen, Lightermen, and Wherrymen, ſhould from time to time be obliged to ſerve on board Her Majeſty's Fleet; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe ſuch Number of them as the Lord High Admiral, or any Three or more of the Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of England for the time being, ſhall from time to time give Notice to the ſaid Company of Watermen, there ſhall be Occaſion for to ſerve Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, (being duly ſummoned by leaving Notice in Writing at the Place of their uſual Abode by the Company) within Ten Days after ſuch Summons, ſhall not appear before the Rulers of the ſaid Watermens Company, to be ſent on board Her Majeſty's Fleet, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo ſummoned, and being duly convicted before the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen of the City of London, or Two Juſtices of the Peace of the ſaid City, and Two of the ſaid Rulers, that then he or they ſo doing and offending, ſhall ſuffer Impriſonment during the Space of One Month, and be diſabled from rowing, or working upon the ſaid River of Thames, and of enjoying any the Advantages or Privileges of the ſaid Company for the Space of Two Years.

CAP. XX.

An Act for the better enabling the Maſter, Wardens, and Aſſiſtants of Trinity Houſe, to rebuild the Light Houſe on the Edyſtone Rock.

8 Eliz. c. 13.

WHEREAS in and by One Act of Parliament made in the Eighth Year of the Reign of our late Sovereign Lady Queen ELIZABETH, intituled, An Act to enable the Maſter, Wardens, and Aſſiſtants of Trinity Houſe at Deptford Strond, to erect Sea Marks, &c. They the ſaid Maſter, Wardens, and Aſſiſtants are impowered to erect and ſet up Beacons, Marks, and Signs for the Sea, needful for avoiding the Dangers, and to renew, continue, and maintain the ſame, in ſuch Manner as in the ſaid Act is mentioned: And whereas there now is, and Time out of Mind hath been, a very dangerous Rock, called the Edyſtone, lying off of Plymouth in the County of Devon, upon which divers Ships and Veſſels have been caſt away, and the Lives and Goods of many Subjects of this Kingdom loſt and deſtroyed: And whereas upon Application ſome Time ſince made to the ſaid Maſter, Wardens, and Aſſiſtants, by great Numbers of Maſters and Owners of Shipping, to have a Light Houſe erected upon the ſaid Rock, offering and agreeing, in Conſideration of the great Charge, Difficulty, and Hazard of ſuch an Undertaking, to pay to the ſaid Maſter, Wardens, and Aſſiſtants, One Penny per Ton outwards, and the like inwards, for all Ships and Veſſels which ſhould paſs by ſuch Light Houſe (Coaſters excepted, who ſhould pay Twelve Pence only for each Voyage;) they the ſaid Maſter, Wardens, and Aſſiſtants, having a due Regard to the Safety and Preſervation of the Shipping and Navigation of this Kingdom, did in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ninety ſix, cauſe a Light Houſe to be begun to be erected on the ſaid Rock, and in Three Years Time a Light was placed therein; and the ſaid Light Houſe in the Term of Five Years was, with much Hazard and Difficulty, and a very great Expence, fully built and compleated, to the great Satisfaction of the Flag Officers and Commanders of the Fleet and Ships of War, and of all others concerned in Trade and Navigation, the ſame being not only uſeful for avoiding that dangerous Rock upon which it was built, but alſo a Guide and Direction to Ships paſſing through the Channel from and to all Parts of the World: And whereas the ſaid Light Houſe was preſerved and kept up for ſeveral Years, notwithſtanding the great Force and Violence of the Wind and Sea, (to which it was expoſed) until the late dreadful Storm in November, One thouſand ſeven hundred
